"HANDS ON" ON HANDS

Hands come in many shapes and sizes. They also come in pairs, as most of us have two. They have been around since the beginning of time so I guess that is why clocks have them too. Have you ever noticed that the thumb of the right hand is on the left side and the thumb of the left hand is on the right side? Finger (figure) that one out! They are also strategically located so that the arms do not fray at the wrist, for the same reason that we have lips to stop our mouth from fraying at the edges!

Hands are very handy for doing things, like scratching your head, or knitting. Think of everything you have done with your hands just so far today. If you were without them you could not handle it. Handel used his hands to write the music he composed, though by now he has decomposed, and that joke goes Bach (back) a bit. The word 'hand' appears in many words, taking up a whole page in the dictionary. We have hands on, hands off, hands up and hands down. We have hand-some, hand-kerchief, hand-cuff, hand-saw. We greet our guests with a hand-shake and we also dance hand-in-hand.

Square Dancing is the one dance form that uses hands almost as much as, if not more, than the feet. Next time you are in a square, try dancing with your hands behind your back to simulate dancing in a wheelchair. I guarantee you will have to think a little harder. Just image any ocean wave formation without the customary hand touch, especially 'relay the deucey"! Also, encourage your caller to use slide through, except for that awkward hand hold and it is much smoother too.

If you have been able to handle all this, give yourself a HAND! Applause! Exit stage left.....By Ken Oakley, Vancouver, BC "Canadian Dancers News" via USDA News

(Editors Note: Speaking of "hands", we would like to suggest that dancers use a lighter grip in those movements requiring the holding/touching of hands. There are many instances where only a light hold, or touch, is needed (not a strong hold) to establish the formation, a wave, alamo ring, etc. It is very difficult to go into the next figure when a dancer doesn't let go! Think about the firmness of your hold/touch the next time you are dancing!)

LEGACY - The Leadership, Heritage and Communication Resource Center of the Square Dance Activity invites you to become actively involved by visiting its new web site. The new address is www.legacyonline.org or its e-mail address is info@legacyonline.org

A new LEGACY Promo Pac on Recruiting is now available. Copies have been shared with CALLERLAB and United Square Dancers of America for their input. Included in the new Promo Pac are success stories and ideas for recruiting, posters, flyers, some clip art, and information on securing additional material from LEGACY and USDA. It is available from the LEGACY office. For further information contact LEGACY's web site.

For clubs or organizations wishing to conduct a Leadership Training session, but not sure of how to go about it, our Leadership Training Manual is still applicable and available. It has been re-titled an "Event Programming Guide - A Club-to-Convention Leadership Planning Guide". An index of the contents in this 48 page manual is also available on our web site.

For clubs or organizations wishing for a lifetime aluminum sign, with rounded corners in baked white enamel and red figures and a 4" x 13" area for telephone number, or directions, etc. visit our web site. Originally designed to be placed along with the Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis, etc. signs seen as one enters a city, clubs have discovered it can also be used in identifying where they are dancing. Following suggestion of some clubs, 2 holes are now punched in the top corner making mounting it even easier. Visit our web site for ordering instructions.

Booking callers or planning dances several years down the road and not sure of exactly when certain holidays fall in the week? LEGACY has a pocket size 5 year calendar just perfect for such planning. The spiral binding makes it handy to use, every month has a corresponding page for notes. With a durable cover, its size when closed is only 3 1/2 by a little over 5 inches. Yearly supplements are available for updating. It too is featured on our web site.

Keith Ferguson

Keith, who has been Bows & Beaus' caller since October, 1987, has been a life-long fan of Square Dancing. Born and raised in Texas, Square Dancing was always part of his environment and Keith thought "it looked like a lot of fun."

When his social worker mother obtained a new job in Palo Alto, Keith moved there with her when he was in the 8th grade. After graduation from Palo Alto High School, he went back East to attend Massachusetts Institute of Technology where he ultimately earned three degrees in Electrical Engineering. Having held summer positions at Hewlett-Packard, Keith returned to HP upon graduation and is now a Software Engineer for Agilent Technologies, which was spun off from HP in 2000. For the most part, he has been involved in the field of precision time measurement, which is used in the communications industry, and holds three patents in this area.

Keith enjoys his work, which is now focused on making sure the products being developed meet the specific needs of his customers, even when that requires unforeseen specialization of the product. "I'm a nerd and proud of it," he laughed, but was equally quick to assert that he did not consider himself a "geek." A formerly shy kid, Keith attributes his present social skills to a stint working at a college radio station. He loves solving technical problems and is happiest with a task when it involves "getting my hands dirty."

Keith actually started Square Dancing when a friend began lessons and told Keith about what turned out to be Jim Osborne's first class. After a debut at an amateur caller's night ("It was the first time I ever sang in public. I was terrified!"), Keith began his calling career. "I never knew it was supposed to be hard, so I just did it." What he enjoys the most about the position is the teaching. He first became aware of his interest in calling when he would sit on the sidelines watching and try to figure out why dancers were having trouble with a tip. Square Dancing brought Keith another benefit when he met wife-to-be, Meg, at a Beaus & Bows dance. Married since 1982, the couple share their home with two cats.

While he used to enjoy camping and outdoor activities ("I liked the self-sufficiency of it"), Keith finds himself too busy of late to indulge in those activities. Present hobbies are confined to reading, and he counts himself as a fan of mysteries and Tom Clancy fiction. When he someday retires, he has a number of areas he would like to pursue, including his ongoing interest in computers.

Keith currently calls for Bows & Beaus and believes they are the "most enthusiastic" club he's ever seen and feels "spoiled" calling for them.

As for future goals or plans, Keith said "I'm pretty much already doing the things I want to do. The only problem is finding enough time to do them all!" He does plan on attending his 40th college reunion next year. He and Meg will be celebrating their 20th anniversary next year also and hope to go to Hawaii to honor the occasion.

Other than those goals, Keith has a life philosophy of "enjoying everything as it comes" and doesn't make too many specific plans "although I do like to be prepared for things." As an example, he cited being asked as a child if he were looking forward to driving a car. His response was "Not really. I like riding my bike right now." As Keith puts it now, "Whatever comes along, I'll enjoy that too."

YOUR ROVING CORNERS

By Jim Pead & Betsy Waite (E-Mail: jimbetsy@aol.com)

Yes! We do continue to enjoy our Square Dancing here in Beijing. We arrived here in September and had to search hard to find Square Dancing. Finally, we sought them out.

We dance with two different clubs. The Gold Friends Square Dance Club dances on Monday and Tuesday nights. Usually they have 4 to 5 squares. They actually have two callers, "Caller Lieu" and "Teacher Cao Ping." These two callers share the responsibilities of the club, with Teacher Cao Ping doing most of the introduction of new material and Caller Lieu doing the actual calling, once the dancers have gained a little proficiency.

Our second club is The Long Marchers (an interesting reference to the Chinese Revolution and Chairman Mao's famed long march) who dance on Friday afternoon. Like square dance clubs nearly everywhere, they have difficulty finding a good venue to dance.

The Old Friends dance in a room that is used to feed workers in a business during the day. They fold up the tables, mop the floor and learn Square Dancing. The building is old and decrepit, but the floor is usually pretty good - if someone remembered to mop!

The Long Marchers found an old movie house with a level terrazzo floor in the lobby where they dance. We have been unable to learn if the theater still shows movies, but the lobby is used quite a lot. One day they were doing a free Health Care Fair, checking blood pressure and doing physicals on the spot - we continued to dance.

Neither club has proper turntables or amplifiers. They operate with recorded tapes, not the records that square dance callers use in other parts of the world. In fact, they dance to a lot of pre-recorded square dance music with American square dance callers. The Gold Friends have a normal audiotape boom box with no voice amplification. The caller shouts over the music to be heard.

The caller for the Long Marchers does have a microphone and speaker. The speaker is also connected to a walkman type tape player. Neither caller has access to good square dance records and neither has a means of playing records if they had a turntable.

With all of that, the dancing is remarkably good! The friendship and fellowship is even better! These people have taken Square Dancing's Motto, "Square Dancing is Friendship-Set to Music," to heart and are the warmest, most open, friendliest group you ever could hope to meet.

Many Chinese people love dance. Groups gather regularly in the parks and other public places to dance. Someone brings a boom box and the dancing begins. There are groups that meet and practice Tai Chi, the slow-moving, graceful exercise long associated with the Chinese. Others do rhythmical dances involving fans, while still others use swords, drums, and other implements.

It is no wonder that Square Dancing is gaining a toehold in China. With Square Dancing, the dancer can enjoy and respond to music in a group and never feel "on the spot" or possibly embarrassed. With most "couple" dances such as the waltz, fox-trot, tango, etc., the couple has to learn or create their own choreography and perform it together in some sort of unified pattern. With Square Dancing, the choreo-graphy is already created and given to you by someone else, the caller, and all you have to do is respond to the calls, and work together.

On January 5th, a Sunday afternoon, a large, combined, dance was held in a special hall in West Beijing. Both the Long Marchers and the Gold Friends invited us and we put it on our calendar with a gold star! Unfortunately, Betsy fell ill the day before the dance but she insisted that I go and represent us.

As ever, going somewhere in Beijing is an exercise in creativity. We went to this particular location several months ago, but were met and led there by another dancer. I knew it was near one of the subway stops, and knew which one. I could have taken bus #37, transferred to the underground, and gotten off at the proper stop and walked. As I was running late, I hailed a cab, showed him on the map where I wanted to go and we set out.

Across town, through neighborhoods, down streets, and finally we arrived at the proper subway stop. I alighted, paid the fare, and set out walking. About a half mile down the street I came to a large arch leading to a significant housing area. There were simply dozens of apartment buildings! Proceeding carefully, with my head and eyes sweeping back and forth for something familiar, I progressed until I spotted a familiar looking building. Upon entering, I met one of the ladies from the Monday night group! She welcomed me warmly and sent me to the elevator to go to the sixth floor.

When I entered the room, people called from all corners of the room to welcome me - in Chinese. I used half of my Chinese vocabulary: "knee how" which is a sort of combination "Hello" "how are you" and "good health to you." (The other half of my vocabulary is "shi shi" the Chinese for "Thank You.") It is amazing how far you can go with "Hello" and "Thank You," coupled with pointing, notes and addresses written in Chinese by someone else, and, most of all, a big smile!

Everyone wanted to know where Betsy was and I explained that she was ill, so I was welcomed as a single man. After all, women dancers outnumber men dancers and a "loose" man is always welcome.

The dance began with a very special "Grand March" that is definitely different from the American style. A long line of dancers was formed, with men and women alternating. The leader began leading the long line of dancers, to music, in a serpentine fashion, leading the head of the line from one side of the room to the other, slowly bringing every dancer onto the floor. Then she led the long line into a trek down the side of the hall to the back center. As the way before her cleared, she slowly led the line forward (still single file) to the front of the room, before the stage. Here she dropped hands and began directing the dancers, sending the women to the left, the men to the right back to the rear of the hall, where they came together as couples.

The line of couples came back down the center toward the stage, where she sent the couples, alternating left and right, back down the side of the hall. There, they came together again, this time in a group of two couples, or a line of four. The groups made their way forward and were once more dispatched (first group left, second group right, etc) back down the side of the hall. This time, when they reached the center of the rear of the hall, they formed a group of eight, or four couples coming forward.

She stopped the dancers, made a short (welcoming?) speech, then had each group of eight form up into regular square dance squares.

The rest of the dance continued in a more or less normal fashion, with callers taking turns directing the dancers. Each caller had a chance to take center stage and lead the hall.

At one point, the "Long Marchers" all came on stage and sang "Chinese Jingle Bells" or Jingle Bells with Chinese characteristics! They insisted that I join them. Since I did not know the Chinese words, I just bellowed out the usual words of Jingle Bells, my mouth opening and closing nearly in unison with theirs.

Later, four ladies in beautiful "Mongolian Traditional Dance Clothing" came out and did a demonstration of Mongolian Dance. This was followed by a young girl dancing alone, doing a sort of writhing, squirming, leaping dance. She was very athletic and flexible. She was dressed in a plain black costume, a sort of loose fitting leotard type of outfit. She carried a bright red fan, which she used to punctuate her moves with a loud snap. She was very graceful and elegant and an extremely skilled dancer.

Later when Caller Li, from the Long Marchers, called, he just about brought down the house. He was working with recorded music and when his portion ended, a familiar voice boomed from the speakers! It was the famed American Square Dance Caller, Joe Saltell! We had recently given Caller Li a square dance tape by Joe, and he simply re-recorded it onto the end of his portion.

It was a fine afternoon - good callers, & good sound equal a good time by all!

BELLE SWINGERS

By "A Bunch of Us"

The Belle Swingers held their Christmas Party December 12th. La nell Smith decorated the tables in festive greenery and candles. Carol Peluffo made sure the menu wasn't heavy on any one item. There were many home-made dishes for us to enjoy, showing that cooking isn't a lost art. Lots of good potluck food! Following the potluck, we exchanged gifts (and fought over some.) For our gift exchange, 2 steals are allowed. Among the gifts, there was no beer shampoo as last year, but when Steve Peluffo opened a package of champagne, he said, "Wow! Champagne Shampoo! It wasn't - just real champagne. Linda Lebovitz and Dave Westerman were busy cornering the market on chocolate, but they didn't get it all because Natalie Wahl got a box, too. There were many great gifts to steal. Much plotting going on to keep the desired gifts in the family. We were having so much fun that we almost ran out of time for dancing, but did manage to work in one holiday tip. With our guests (Jerry Silverstein & Kay, Roger Smith & Josie, & Rosalie Burkhart), we had 3 squares! On December 19th we held elections, and now Ron Eckert is our Treasurer, Ernie & Lucille Van Den Broeke are the Delegates to SCVSDA, and Carol Peluffo is the Editor for our write-ups submitted to The Prompter! Let's give them a hand! Hope your holidays were happy!

BOWS & BEAUS

By Vicky Campagna

We kept merrily dancing throughout the holiday season and on January 14th launched another successful Beginner's Class at Crittenden School in Mountain View. See www.bowsandbeaus.org or call Corrie Vincent at (650)390-0885 for more information. One of the ongoing features of our club's newsletter is "Squares in the Spotlight", a series of interviews with various club members. One of the interviews this month was with caller, Keith Ferguson. Since he is known to so many dancers in the area, we thought you might like to see what was written. Please look at the "Featuring" article in this issue of The Prompter on page 6.

GADABOUTS

By Lois Swanson

The group has been busy with the usual December things. We joined the Krazy Dazys for their Christmas party/dance on the 19th. A great time was had by all - good food, good dancing and good conversation. We also practiced our 'Running Bear' Dance for January 5th. We trust you all had a wonderful Holiday Season and that the New Year brings health and happiness to all. Keep dancing!

JOKERS

By Meagin

We started the New Year on a bit of a sad note. We lost Don & Debby Calloway. They were class angels and doing a good job. In November Don was offered a job transfer that was too good to refuse. Then he was told to report for work in Sacramento on January 2nd. We will miss them, but we wish them well and we expect to see them dancing sometime, somewhere. When our new Board took office, Jean Adams was asked to be Sheriff. "Well," said Jean, "do I get a horse?" No, no horse. "Then can I have a motorcycle?" she asked. No, not that either. She accepted the job anyway. When it was learned that Don & Debby Calloway were leaving, Jean Adams & Joe Sindorf were asked to be the class angels. "Well," said Jean "it does seem that I should have a crown." Our creative President, Dixie Davison, presented Jean with a lovely golden crown made of Xmas tinsel. She sparkles and shines. Our class is doing very well. The newer dancers all sparkle and shine, too. Bob Elling is doing a good job of instructing them. Social activities were not curtailed after "the holidays". There was the 'Running Bear' Hoedown, a Newer Dancer Hoedown, a Potluck Dinner, Winter Festival and probably something I left out. I hope your club is having as much fun as the Jokers. Why don't you come to the American Legion Hall in Campbell some Wednesday evening and dance with us to get in on some of the fun. We love company!

KATYDIDS

By Sandy Ferrill

The Katydids celebrated a sparkling December with a healthy blend of friends, fun, & food. We had an enchanting evening dancing with the Curly Qs on the 14th. They have a sensational Beginners Class in progress and it is always fun to kick up our heels with the Curly Qs. When Jim Osborne & Harold Fleeman sing a tip together, hearts are merry, faces smiling, and dancing seems at its finest. 'Thank you' to Jim, the Curly Qs, & the class for such a splendid evening! Party night on the 21st saw us all in red and green and the Katydids generously gave almost $800.00 to the Salvation Army as a Christmas donation for our community. A creatively packaged gift of green was a delightful surprise for Harold as a small token of our appreciation and love. On the 29th Terry Bruhl & Bea Blades became Mr. & Mrs.! Congratulations to a beautiful couple! Then on the 31st, Harold Fleeman, Caller Extraordinaire, called a scintillating New Year's Eve Dance for the Gilroy Gliders & the Barnyard Bumpers 52nd Anniversary event. A crowd of Katydids attended to help ring in the New Year together with Harold & Lee at the Gilroy event. The Katydids hope to see y'all at our February 9th 'Sweetheart Special'. Love to all our square dancing friends!

KRAZY DAZYS

SAN MATEO ROADRUNNERS

By Lynne Schmitt

The Roadrunners know how to party! The New Year's Eve Party, planned by Pat & Cliff Donley and Joan & Al Perris, was elegant and fun. At 12:01 a.m. we decided to invest the unspent contributions on one lucky lotto ticket ... and a $34MIL mystery trip. After Rob Greene checked the tires on the bus, Dom & Shirlianne Gardetti chauffeured us to the airport where Liz Rolfe with her bomb sniffing dogs checked our baggage. Tania Scott quickly reviewed the Lear Jet manuals from the 1st seat (Tom Scott sat 2nd) as the Roadrunners boarded. Eleanor Shaner, serving the pre-flight hors d'oeuvres, was stunning in her hot pants flight attendant uniform. First stop was visiting Louis & Dolores Bobrowsky, Sam & Peggy Morsi, Lynne & Archie Schmitt, Raymond James, Wendy-Jean Iannico and Gail Lynch, tape dancing on the good ship, Denial. A little nervous, Bob Van Huystee, expert ship builder, and Bill & Vickie Wells, scuba enthusiasts, did a thorough inspection prior to boarding. Tour Director, Veda McIlmoil, planned one refueling stop in Ireland. Ed Sweeney tried to explain the difference between diesel fuel and Guinness to Dee Murphy. To get out of school Katie Redman and her brother, James, tutored by Marie Schmidt, were gathering facts to write a 'star' winning report, or was it a dream scene. Harold Overby continued to say, "Thanks for coming" so it had to be real. Come visit us on a Tuesday night to get the truth and join us in a square.

SAN MATEO BACHELORS and BACHELORETTES

The first class starts at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, January 14th, at the Tongan Methodist Church in San Carlos. For information please call: 650-366-8281 or 650-591-6106. Some of our members attended the San Francisco B&B's Christmas dinner and they all had a great time. Our own Potluck Christmas Party was also a lot of fun. Judy Butler has made a great come back after her hip surgery. We are so glad to have her back. Gail Lynch also had some surgery, and was not

STAR EIGHTS

Sundays

By Jtrailcats

Hope your Year 2002 is off to a great start! The Star Eights have had a great month since the busy holidays and our wonderful Holiday Dinner/Dance on December 16th. Many of us saw the New Year in at the Gilroy Gliders and Barnyard Bumpers' wonderful 52nd Anniversary and New Year's Eve Dance with Uncle Harold Fleeman calling and Sue Harris cueing. After the midnight toasting and well-wishing, all enjoyed a full course dinner. So nice to have Glenna & Jack Colistra from our January 12th graduating class there. We feel fortunate to welcome all of our January grads into Star Eights. They are good dancers and fun people, and they worked hard every Sunday. Now club dancers will have to be sharp to keep up with the new members. Lots of us also enjoyed dancing to our own club caller, Ed Kremers, at the end-of-the-year SCVSDA/SCVCA Whing Ding. Ed was featured along with Donn Thomson and the Wades for a memorable evening of dancing. Even more Star Eights started their new year off with the fun and challenge of the Gadabouts' 44th Anniversary Dance, the notable 'Running Bear'.

What fun to have Bronc Wise, the Wades, and Jim Osborne on stage! We all had fun when Jim called 'Running Bear' but Dave & Sheri, Rick & Jodi, and Carol & Lydia were especially happy to be in successful squares. Bet there were more winners, but we don't have their names, however, we were all winners because we had so much fun, ate so much good food, and took home so many of the terrific door prizes. Monika Naslund and John Verhagen danced to a different drummer. Far away in Germany for the holidays, they square danced, visited family, and survived temperatures that broke German records over 100 years old...30 degrees below! Is that why we like California? We all extend sympathy to Kathy Menzies whose mother passed away in December. Come dance with us at the American Legion Hall where Ed Kremers calls, Wendy-Jean Iannico cues, and everyone has fun!

FORTY-NINERS

By Margaret Anne Kerns

Reprise of the Forty-Niners' Christmas Party: Our party this year, held at Nick's Rockaway in Pacifica, was hosted by Jim & Janice McCraney in honor of their '50th Wedding Anniversary' which is coming up in February. Tables were decorated with plants which were raffled off, and very clever "Kangaroo-Santas" made by Rosemary Barker and Joann Swanson. The Santa pouch held pieces of candy. For Jim Triggas' dramatic presentation he read an epistle presented to his 49er graduating class some 20+ years ago. The presentation was delightful, as always, and very nostalgic to long time dancers who remember "how it used to be"! Margaret Anne Kerns led the group in song, ending with a special number written for caller, Bob Elling. And of course Santa & Mrs. Claus distributed presents to all. Since Jim & Janice hosted the party, I talked to them about that 'special time' 50 years ago. It all began at the California Public Utilities Commission where Electrical Engineer, Jim, met the person who keeps engineers working, Janice, in 50's terminology, the Secretary. They had been dating for some time, when Jim's National Guard unit was called up, and Jim was sent to Spokane, Washington. Finding separation difficult, the couple decided to marry. The wedding was held at the military chapel, with full military honors. The men in the unit borrowed sabers and brown belts from the University of Idaho ROTC. An Air Force Chaplain performed the rites while snow fell outside. When Jim was finished with his tour of duty, the two returned to the Bay Area - Jim to the PUC; and, Janice to her new career as Domestic Engineer. Jim says that Janice oversaw the building of their first home in Westlake. The rest is history! Join us some Thursday evening at St. Thomas More Hall, near Brotherhood Way in San Francisco. Caller, Bob Elling, loves the challenge of new people. Level is mostly A-I and Plus.

The Prompter

GINGHAM SQUARES OF MILLBRAE

By Janice & Jim McCraney

On December 11th the Ginghams held their annual Christmas party at the Millbrae Recreation Center for about 40 members, guests, and friends. It was a fancy potluck with wine, hors d'oeuvres, a large variety of entrees, and dessert. Janice McCraney was there only a few hours after her cataract surgery. Due to the press of surgery, the McCranneys forgot to bring their own plates and silverware, but they did remember to supply the wine for everyone. Instead of exchanging gifts, all presents were given to a Millbrae Convalescent Hospital for enjoyment by their patients. At the close of the dinner we all sang a special Christmas song dedicated to club caller, Larry Davenport, written by Margaret Kerns. Following dinner, Larry called square dance tips at a level appropriate for the amount of food and wine consumed.

KEEWAY SWINGERS

By Neila Hallenbeck & Jim Stephens

Our December party night was once again successful with so many of our grandchildren all excited to see

Santa Claus (Chuck Hernandez) and his two helpers (Billie Heckman and Dora Espinoza). Santa handed out the presents, posed for pictures and the helpers gave candy canes to the children. All the Keeways brought food so it was a real "party night". Unfortunately, two of our favorite couples were among the missing, Phil & Rena Dein (Phil had back surgery that morning), and Randy & Fran Miller. (Fran is still recovering from knee surgery.) We hope that by the time you read this they will be back dancing with us. Our Christmas dinner was very well attended. Kip & Pat were unable to attend, however, we were lucky enough to have George Knox and Martha Spain with us for the evening. They are a lot of fun and we truly enjoyed their company. There are a number of us planning to Kip's "Winter Fest" in King City.

SAGE STOMPERS

of the Monterey Peninsula

By Bob Renard

Hello 2002! Just to let our square dancing friends all over California know that we made it into the New One! And, First Night, Monterey, was as exciting and wonderful as it has been for the many past New Years Eve's. If you haven't been here for this booze-free New Year celebration - for all ages, very old to very young - try it next year! Our Annual Christmas Bazaar Dance, December 18th, was a great success. As a result we are proudly presenting checks totaling $255.00 to the Josephine Kernes Memorial Pool, Monterey, which serves the aquatic therapeutic needs of all ages. They have an outstanding swim program for disabled children and adults. Just a final thought or two. We are a Happy Valentines Day and Gung Hay Fat Choy! We think we have found a new home to dance at. It is the hall at St. Brendan's Church located near Portola Boulevard, and Laguna Honda Boulevard. The exact address of the church is 29 Rockaway Avenue, and the hall is around the corner on Ulloa Street, which is a one-way street. It is about a quarter of a mile from where we have been dancing. Please call to confirm - Ruby, 415-221-5306, or John, 415-566-3563. Our mini-hoedown showed 6 squares. Amongst the dancers were Ron & Joan Swanson, District One Director; Paul & Rosemary Barker, President of NCSDA; Jerry Janke and Sue Kabage, Vice President of NCSDA; and, Judy Butler, Northern Regional Director of the B'n'B's. Lucky winners were Alma Harris, Split-the-Pot; Dean Gough won the $20 gift card donated by Walgreens; the basket of goodies was won by Vicki Biasotti. Mardi Gras 2002, here we come, (not in New Orleans), but right here in San Jose! All the committees are at full speed getting ready for this event on February 23rd. See our ad in this issue of The Prompter. January was welcomed in with some club members square dancing in Gilroy to Harold Fleeman and rounding to cuer, Sue Harris, while others went to parties with friends and relatives. The ham dinner and trimmings were delicious! Hats off to the chefs! Some club members even reported staying home and enjoying New Years Eve alone (?). We invite everyone to come visit us on Thursday nights to dance with our club or class, and by all means, join us for our Mardi Gras on February 23rd! We promise a great dance to the calling of Nassar Shukayr from Lafayette, CA., and cueing of Jim & Adele Chico, plus good eats. See ya! Yellow Rocks!
