Officers and Directors to be installed at the Inaugural Ball Nov. 5, 1978 at the Bold Knight in Sunnyvale. Your Directors and Officers extend a cordial invitation to you to attend so see them for tickets.

Welcome to the Sues 'N Ques who have just become members of the Association. Their Caller is Mike Luna and when you see them - greet them with a big smile and a handshake!

If you missed the Caller/Dancer Picnic, you missed not only a good time but the opportunity of greeting many old friends.

Many thanks again to the untiring efforts of the Bolanders, Gunters and the Van Derostynes during Square Dance Week.

The Whing Ding was it's usual success and those that were in attendance were treated to the look of utter amazement upon the faces of Andy and Velma Van Derostynes when SCVSDA Pres. Charlie and Dot Ash presented them with a memorabilia box in appreciation of their countless contributions to the promotion of Square dancing.

See you at the Inaugural Ball!

Cease! Desist! Take a break! Recess!

Good heavens, choreographers and authors, take a break! We have enough new ideas, new calls and new dances to last us a generation or two.

Today's callers are under pressure to be up-to-date, to keep up with the latest so that they can help their dancers keep abreast of what another caller may throw at them. Consequently, we are finding confused and frustrated callers and dancers. No one wants to be left behind, no one wants to seem stupid, and let's face it - no one can keep abreast of everything being published.

Possibly the happiest and most relaxed clubs in the world are those that are so isolated that they don't get exposed to all the new material. Maybe out in the backwoods somewhere, there are people relaxed and gay and carefree. No one asks the caller to explain one of the thousands of new calls, no dancers says to another dancer, "Don't you know how to do a triple flip flop?"

Most of us are having a good time and most of what I have just said is in jest, but still there is an element to truth to it all. We do have too many people being frustrated; we are losing dancers who can't keep up because other commitments keep them from dancing twice a week or more; we do have callers quitting because they refuse to be continuously studying.

Much of the new material is excellent; much of it we enjoy using. But really we are on dangerous ground when we penalize those who cannot dance so often. It is a shame to make a hobby, which is supposed to be relaxing, into a test each time our dancers go to a dance, and especially each time they go to a caller other than the one they dance to in their home clubs.

While I am speaking my mind, let me ask some fellow callers; who ever told you that to call a tip of two or more minutes with no allemande left is an accomplishment? What happens to the squares where one person makes just one wrong turn and throws the whole square - do they just stand and listen to your remarkable job of memorizing a long sequence? Is all that just so that one or two squares can have the thrill of being the only square on the floor to make it? That's not good calling! You were hired to call for the whole group, not just one or two squares. Shorter sequences with a few allemande lefts would let the dancers do the same movements but let those who made a little slip get back into the action. Callers who are not that considerate of dancers should start dancing again, and see how it feels when it happens to them.

We don't square dance to create geniuses or champions. We square dance for relaxation, entertainment and the social contacts that it offers. We callers are there to help foster fun and entertainment, and maybe even to help people get acquainted with each other. If we have a good voice for the dancers to enjoy, fine. If we have good rhythm for them to enjoy, great. If we have interesting choreography to present, good. But let us remember, we are only part of the evening; the contact among the dancers is just as important. Let callers do nothing that will take away from the dancers a chance to enjoy the dance, the music, and the sociability.

FROM THE DESK OF Ken

Audrey and I attended the Santa Clara Valley Square Dancers Association 22nd Annual Jubilee at the Santa Clara County Fairgrounds, and enjoyed ourselves. The dancing at the workshops were well attended and the Callers did a very good job but, when they started using the workshop calls at the open Saturday night and Sunday dance, they made a lot of dancers very unhappy. There is a time & place for everything and open dances, where most dancers do not know the workshop material, or were unable to attend the workshop, in our opinion was a very poor place to use it.

This is just one more reason why dances should be labeled as to what level the dance will be and the caller should call the basic in that group and not exceed it.

One good idea we picked up from caller Jack Murtha, would be to have a contract with the caller as to the level the club expects him to call and if he goes beyond that level, you do not pay him his fee.

It's not fair to the dancers to have them pay good money to attend a dance that is advertised as something they can keep up with and then have the caller call figures that they have never heard of.

Square Dance News will have a subscription dance in December, for New Dancers, thanks to Jay & Millie Klassen for helping us, (see Ad on page 21). The dance will be a basic (1-41) level and should be a lot of fun for the Newer dancers.

We keep getting calls from dancers who say they have tried to reach us all during the day and couldn't get an answer. We're sorry but Audrey and I work at other jobs. We do not have a staff at Square Dance News, (which is run out of our home.) So be patient and call back. Believe it or not, this is not a profit making venture. We have one luxury though, Jeannie Fischer was kind enough to accept the low paying job as typist and feature editor, for the magazine. A sweetheart of a gal! We would love to work full time on Square Dance News, but just can't live on 80¢ an hour wages. We publish this because we enjoy doing a service for Square Dancers and helping the Square Dance movement.

One of the best ways to lose a friend is to tell him something for his own good.

This Serious Business Of Square Dancing

... by Jeannie Fischer

How Does Your Caller Rate?

Opinions that Square dancers have of Callers are, as in the case of Callerlab basics, changeable as the tide and infinite in number. Personal feelings for these great leaders range from reference to "whats-his-name" to emotions that would be a shock to Freud. But, whether you look to him as that somewhat animated extension of the microphone or display a "Have You Hugged Your Caller Today" bumper sticker, it remains just opinion.

Personal opinion has no place in this serious business of our Square dancing! Only the most scientific and learned assimilation of facts can formulate an accurate judgement and after completion of this rating test of your Caller you may wish to raise his salary, enroll him in a Callers class or perhaps to poison his next cup of coffee.

Allow 5 points for each (a), 3 points each (b), 1 point (c).

1. When my Caller is late to Club, does he (a) apologize and hurry to set-up (b) claim he couldn't get car started (c) blame it on his wife.
2. When my Caller has done a particularly good tip which is enthusiastically acknowledged by the Club does he (a) join in the applause (b) blush and dig his toe into the stage (c) ask for a raise.
3. When my Caller "goofs", does he (a) admit his error (b) suddenly have a coughing spasm (c) suck his thumb & cry.
4. Does my Caller usually (a) call a balanced program using "challenge" and "fun" material (b) call so much workshop my mind is frazzled by 9:00 (c) call so little workshop I'm snoring by 9:00.
5. Are teaching techniques of my Caller (a) "clear as mud" (b) generally adequate for most dancers (c) so exact and precise and with such excessive detail as to render an amoeba stiff with boredom.
6. Would the Beginner Class compare my Caller to (a) Atilla the Hun (b) Mickey Mouse (c) the Pope.
7. Does my Callers wife or partner compare him to (a) Atilla the Hun (b) Mickey Mouse (c) the Pope.
8. When my Caller "goofs" while dancing, does he (a) blame the one that's Calling (b) blame the rest of the square (c) blame his wife.
9. What do guests generally remember most of my Caller (a) his personality (b) his Calling ability (c) his boots.
10. My Callers singing voice compares to (a) Caruso (b) Tiny Tim (c) a rusty gate
11. My Callers looks compare to (a) Darth Vader (b) Warren Beatty (c) Big Bird
12. (for gals) My Caller is as captivating as (a) Jack the Ripper (b) Prince Charming (c) Howard Cosell
(for guys) The thing I like most about my Caller is (a) his talent (b) his sincerity (c) his wife.

Your Callers total rating is _____.
A perfect score is invalid since it would be obviously taken by a Caller rating himself.
A score of less than 35 rates your Caller in need of severe reprimand. Example, a pie-in-the-face.
A score of more than 35 shows your Caller to be top rated so deserving of perhaps a big kiss from each lady in the Club!

LADY CALLERS please note the rating test is designed for men Callers only. It is understood that all lady Callers just naturally are top rated!

Dear Ken:

I would like to express my concern regarding dancers who leave a square in the middle of a tip. I have seen this happen on several occasions in recent months, both at newer dancer and mainstream Hoedowns.

I hope we are not forgetting that the most important part of square dancing is having fun and making friends, not being a perfect dancer.

I think we need to remember our Ten Commandments of Square Dancing and that illness or injury is the only reason for leaving a square during a tip.

With apologies to those dancers

Ken & Audrey:

I attended a single square dance club every week for a month. I have decided not to join, or go back even as a guest, for the following reasons.

Never in my life have I seen or been around so many snobish unfriendly and inconsiderate people. No one smiled or spoke to me. I smiled and spoke to several people. They just ignored me and walked on by. Everyone was too busy with their friends to be bothered with me. Every time I left there I had the feeling I was not good enough to be a member. I feel that I don't want to belong to a club that is not living up to the oath every dancer takes.

Maybe that club is so big they feel they do not need more members. I don't see why anyone would join. Nobody likes to feel like an outsider or rejected.

MORGAN HILLBILLIES were recently joined by ART HANSFORD & the HIGHLAND SWINGERS for an evening of fun and dancing. Our thanks to them for helping us celebrate "Steen Appreciation Night" where Club jackets were presented to BOOTS and KENNY. The AUSERS, CAMPBELLS, JONES, BECKLEYS, HOCHLEUTNERS, BETAS, CONNORS and WOODFILLS joined the fun at Frogtown with KENNY and BOOTS and while there celebrated the AUUSER's Anniversary and KEN's birthday. (Ed. note; He doesn't look 87, does he?)

BACHELORS 'N' BACHELORETTES, San Mateo, have been busy as the proverbial bee, sooo, we bussed over to celebrate at the first Anniversary dance of the Fresno B'nB's and then zoomed to the Northern Region picnic. The 29th Anniversary dance of the B'nB's was successfully celebrated in Southgate, and the Jubilee, Sadie Hawkins Hoedown and our own Halloween party were all a blast and welcome back to our favorite "B" who is of course, BILL PETERS.....E

BARNYARD BUMPERS are very happy to be back at our regular school, San Martin, after a summer of moving around. We are indebted to the MARCHESE's of the Squares & Flares for their kind arrangements that allowed us to dance in the Recreation facility at their Mobile Park. Had a wonderful time at the Jubilee as our own JAY KLASSEN was one of the guest callers, and he was, as usual, terrific!....Harriet

SKIRTS and FLIRTS recently held a reunion potluck and invited as many past Club members as we could locate. It was a big success as there is nothing quite so enjoyable as visiting with old friends. Congratulations to our Square dancers who recently graduated and good luck to our new Class....J&D
