Possibly we who edit and type these listings do as much visiting of Square Dances as any of our readers (Fortunately, we are happy to say, this now includes a gratifying number of Square Dancers!) During the last couple of weeks we have received that wonderful welcoming hand from Nautical Squares, San Bruno; Western Whirlers, Oakland; Promenaders, Vallejo; Circle-O, Mill Valley; Square S, Sebastopol; and the Redwood Empire Callers Association meeting at Sebastopol. Let us urge you once again to spend an evening with those friendly folk at your neighbor's Square Dance. It is a wonderful experience and you are sure to make a new friend.

Mr. Hamilton has been invited to conduct this institute as we feel he is the most qualified person available owing to his long experience as a teacher. He was on the staff of the 1953 "SETS IN ORDER" Institute at Asilomar. His clear understanding of the dancer's problems will be a real help to both teachers and dancers.

"SQUARE DANCE ~ WHERE?"

CALLER OF THE MONTH

MEET HUNTER CROSBY

Calling is a full-time job with Hunter! During the fall and winter he calls for Crosby Squares, Sierra Squares, Awa-Wego, 25D Standard Oil Whirlers, Red Barn Toe Pointers and two classes at College of Sequoias — all the way from Coal-linga to Fresno! Of course, his lovely wife, Jeri, is always there to help teach rounds and be his secretary.

The Crosbys have a wonderful home on the Keweah River at Three Rivers near the entrance to Sequoia National Park. During the summer it is 3 nights of dancing each week at 7000 feet high Giant Forest and 2 nights a week at McKays Point Resort on the Kaweah River. It has been this same schedule the last 5 summers!

Hunter is a Mid-Westerner (Nebraska) like a lot of us. He and Jeri met and were married down in Long Beach. In 1946 they moved to Three Rivers on a "temporary" job and liked the place and people so well they made it permanent. Dancing for the Crosbys as a way of life started in 1947 and has continued at an increasing tempo ever since!

HERE'S REAL NEWS!!!

Caller Bill Clinton up Napa way has opened what is probably the first real Square Dance Barn in No. Calif. It is exclusively for Square Dancing and is known as "THE BARN". (What else?) The floor will hold 16 squares. This wonderful addition to Square Dancing comes complete with picnic area and playground equipment for the kids. This sounds like fun on a regular schedule for the folks in the Napa area! See Bill's Napa dance listings on Monday, Thursday and Saturday.
