Were You There?

by MADELINE ALLEN

I see by the advertisements in 'Square Dance-Where?' for December that most of the Square Dance Clubs are holding their regular monthly Hoedowns as usual, right before or right after Christmas. Also, I assume that the Clubs meet as usual during that week, except, of course, on Christmas Eve or Christmas night. So there is the Hall, and there is the caller, and there is the music and the coffee and doughnuts -- and what I want to know is, are you there too?

A lot has been said about the Square Dance Leaders-- the Callers, the Club President and the Secretaries, the Delegates who go to all the meetings, and the Kitchen Committees who do the dirty work. This time I would like to salute the Square Dancers who are Always There. I could make quite a little list, just from our own Clubs, and I know that every Club must have a lot of them, or the Club would not last long. Sometimes they take offices and do a wonderful job, and sometimes they get tired of offices and refuse, but they never stay away. They are not always the most promising dancers in the world when they start, but in time they usually become the best, just by sticking with it. You can spot them by the relaxed, happy smiles on their faces -- they aren't bothered by new calls they never heard, because they did not miss the last Workshop night. They know everybody in the Club, and are able to spot new members or guests at once, and can be counted on to make them feel at home. They may not dance every dance, but you never see them remaining stubbornly seated when a square wants just "One more couple!" They are what I call Real Square Dancers.

All right -- so you didn't go to your Club the night after Christmas, because you were too beat. Why? Anything you can say, my favorite dancers can say too. They have children, too, and they have to get up at six, too, and they have relatives staying with them for the holidays, too, and they like certain T.V. programs, just as you do. But when you say to yourselves, "They'll never miss us if we skip just this once", you are fooling yourselves. Miss one dance, and people will wonder where you are. Miss enough dances, and people will begin to wonder why you bother to come at all.

Maybe I'm sticking my neck out (as usual) but to me the point is, modern Square Dancing is not for the 'once in a while' dancer, at least in our part of the country. The great majority of the square dancers around here are demanding a higher and higher standard of entertainment, both in calling and dancing, and they are getting it, as was certainly proved by the last Stampede. The enthusiastic crowd that filled the Auditorium was not made up of part-time dancers, who don't care whether or not they know what they are doing. Only regular dancers could have kept that floor moving as it did, and it was wonderful to see so many of them there.

So here's to you, all our Regulars. If you see me giving you an extra big smile some time when we meet in a square, maybe it is because I have recognized you as one of the Square Dancers who is Always There -- my favorite kind of dancer.

NEWS NOTES ASSOCIATED SQUARE DANCERS OF SUPERIOR CALIFORNIA
PATRICIA FITZGERALD

The Board of Directors of the Superior California Association set December 8 as a meeting date to finish their year's work. The meeting was highlighted with a potluck dinner.

A General Committee Meeting is slated for January 10, at which time the annual election will take place. The meeting will be hosted by groups in and around the Roseville area with Director JIM CLARDY serving as general chairman in charge of arrangements. Refreshments and dancing are also on the agenda for the day.

On the fourth weekend in January, the Callers' Workshop is planning to sponsor a Round Dance Clinic. The clinic will be presented in four sessions at Governor's Hall on Jan. 25th and the Sacramento Auditorium on January 26th. FRANK & CAROLYN HAMILTON, a very capable and well known couple in the round dance field will be instructors for the event. IVAN HASBROUCK and GEORGE SMITH, area callers, are serving as co-chairmen for the clinic.

Representing the Association at the Council of Square Dance Associations of Calif. on November 16 were the Association President and his wife, BILL & PAULINE STAPP. In just another year, Sacramento will see the biggest dance convention in our history. (Sixth Annual Convention - 1959.)

Monterey Peninsula News

PAUL RICE

We hope that all of you received everything that was good for you during the Christmas Season and wish you all a happy and successful coming year, from the Monterey Peninsula, one of California's most rapidly growing square dance areas.

A brand new year and a five star beginning for square and round-dancing. On January 9th, the SAGE STOMPERS are sponsoring a new beginners class at the Fort Ord Elementary School. WILLIE & JEN HOLMAN will introduce the alleged mysteries to a fine group who are already registered for the class.

The second star goes to DAVE & FRANCIE GOVE who will bring their knowledge of square dancing and their famous hospitality to a new group who will start at the Ord Terrace School on Friday, January 10th.

Third star goes to the new round dance beginners class on Thursday, January 9th, at the Del Monte School. VALETA RICE, assisted by BOB ROSE, will pass on her know-how of the round dance field.

Fourth star goes to Salinas this time where the Hartnell Girls Gym will be the setting for a new enthusiastic group of beginners, with PAUL & VALETA RICE as the instructors, Wed. January 8th.

Fifth star goes to the RIGHTFOOTERS club in Watsonville, the new intermediate group at the Freedom School. Boy is square dancing ever booming around here.

On the second Saturday of November, Gun Toting MEL BEMUS called a terrific hoedown for the WAGON WHEELERS. Those crickets not only can chirp but also have plenty of good time know-how.

The third Saturday KEN O'BURN from San Jose showed TAW TWIRLERS and their many friends a lot of new enjoyable gimmicks. KEN also found that tables can be turned and called under while dining on crackers.

The fourth Saturday JOHNNY BARBOUR packed them in for the HOT TIMERS monthly hoedown at El Estero Hall.

The fifth Saturday the new Hoedown club held a very successful initial party at the Fremont Jr. High. Wild BILL FOWLER really rocked the floor, and the club members all did a fine job of organizing the dance.

The fifth Friday beginners hoedown sponsored by the TAW TWIRLERS was a happy adventure for the 10 to 20 week beginners. Sixteen sets crowded the Marina Hall to dance and eat as the TAW TWIRLERS guests. BUD STAIE handled the featured guest spot which made his new class of Tenderfeet very proud.

Twenty-four round dancers graduated from the POOR LITTLE ROBINS to ROUND-ROBINS on Tuesday, Nov. 26th. The turnout was so overwhelming that the graduates had to rush out for more supplies.

JACK McKAY has been conducting a callers class at the Darington Barn once a month for the members of the Local Callers Association, and doing a wonderful job. JACK is especially skilled in selecting the minor flaws unnoticable to an untrained ear, in order to improve the callers techniques.

Remember the Peninsula is Knothead distance from the Bay Area.

MARIE BOWMAN

Two weddings recently took place uniting the MARIN CRICKETS and the POLECATS. BILL LAXTON (MARIN CRICKET and POLECAT BARBARA PIATTI. Are you confused! The CRICKETS have a mock wedding planned for whenever they can get the two couples together. The MARIN CRICKETS have plans underway already for a 2nd Heart Fund Benefit Dance set for February 15th with HARRY WENDT as chairman.

Twenty-eight squares enjoyed dancing to VIRGINIA JOHNSON on the STUMP JUMPERS party night. During intermission the NOVATO SQUARES won the prize for having the most members from a visiting club present. The prize -- a big, fat, live turkey. VERNON & LUCY WEBB won the door prize. Guests attending the dance were: BUZZIN' BOOTS, DOUBLE DIAMONDS, NOVATO SQUARES, JEANS & JANES, MARIN CRICKETS, CHARM 'N FARMERS, SILVERADO TWIRLERS, SQUARE JETS, SPINNING SPURS, CIRCLE O, REDWOOD ROMPERS, CHECKERBOARD SQUARES, TOP HANDS, B.V.D.'S, CORNHUSKERS, BOOTS & BELLS & MILL WHEELERS. On workshop night following the party night, four squares from the NOVATO SQUARES came with turkey sandwiches. Everyone enjoyed the sandwiches and coffee during a break. Next month BILL GAMBLE will be the guest caller for the STUMP JUMPERS. The CHARM 'N FARMERS put on an exhibition for the Aux. of the Marin Rod & Gun Club. The CHARM 'N FARMERS and the TOP HANDS who both meet on Tuesday nights met together at Star Hall with LARRY TWIST doing the calling.

The CORNHUSKERS hosted their 5th Saturday party on Nov. 30th at Tam. Valley Hall with BILL THEEDE as guest caller. With "Christmas in November" as the party theme, CORNHUSKERS donated gifts representing their professions - and many lucky guests received unique and valuable gifts such as a 10 lb. turkey, a square dance shirt, a home termite inspection - "to a free hour long consultation on the couch of the CORNHUSKERS favorite psychiatrist!"

PAT FITZGERALD

"A New Club is Born" was the theme used for the STARLIGHT SHUFFLERS' first party held in November. Unique decorations in the form of storks and baby bottles were used. Thirty-five squares of enthusiastic dancers enjoyed the calling of ARNOLD WIRTZ, club caller and emcee for the event, and IVAN HASBROUCK, guest caller, of LADS AND LASSIES. Results of STARLIGHT SHUFFLERS' officers election are as follows: OLIVE & AL GUNDERSON, Pres.; ED & GEANE BULBER, Vice Pres.; EDDY & NITA LESSARD, Treasurer; MARILYN & ROGER FRYE, Secretary; RAY & VIRGINIA TALMAGE, MANUEL & LOIS SAETES, and ED & CLARA POSHEN, directors.

VIRGINIA JOHNSON was guest caller at the anniversary party of SQUARE BUSTERS on Sat. December 7, at the Hagginwood Park Clubhouse. Mr. & Mrs. Victor Schirle were co-chairmen for the party, aided by the MOORES', RAFTERY'S, JIMISONS' and MORRIS'. The dancers enjoyed ham, turkey, apple pie, rolls and coffee.

PATHFINDER SQUARES held their big Third Anniversary in November. The theme was "Down on the Farm", and carried out to the real treat of having fried chicken and home made pie. Fine calling at the event held in North Highlands was rendered by JACK PETRI of Castro Valley and ARNOLD WIRTZ.

LADS AND LASSIES of North Highlands danced to the fine calling of guest, ARNOLD WIRTZ, and club caller, IVAN HASBROUCK, at their regular 1st Sat. party night in December.

STARLIGHT SHUFFLERS also held a fun level party on December 14 in North Highlands at the Village School. EM WALLACE, guest caller, assisted ARNOLD WIRTZ, emcee, at the event. Registration for beginning square dancers opened December 12 at the Orange Grove Avenue School with BUZZ HELM calling.

I would like to use this paragraph as a means to urge all square dance clubs which are members of the Associated Square Dancers of Superior California to send their club news to me at 2505 Mission Avenue, Carmichael, California.

RANCHO WRANGLERS instituted a new beginner's class at El Portal School, in November -- to run 16 weeks with JOE JOHNSON as able instructor. Also lots of travelling to LADS AND LASSIES, ACES & LACES, VALLEY SWINGERS, DEWANDERERS, HIX & CHIX, STAR PROMENADERS and Association Dance, natch. Our own big first at DeAnza High with JIM MORK drew visitors from 16 clubs, 22 squares. Goofer-of-the-month?--why, our own precious prexy, JAY RAINEY!!

The KENO KIDS had a beginners walk-thru Hoedown on Nov. 30 for their teenage class and two adult beginners classes and their guests. HOWARD PICK and guest callers put the beginners through their paces. Dec. 4 the KENO KIDS had their Christmas party at Marie A. Murphy School. Names had been exchanged, and gifts were plentiful under the tree. Members' children put on a talent show, and later in the evening Santa put in an appearance.

HIX 'N CHIX and guests enjoyed dancing to the unusual calling of MARK DUNN at their 2nd Saturday hoedown. Join us for our big Polio Dance Jan. 4th at Alvarado Park -- four wonderful callers and prizes.

FOOT 'N FIDDLE'S 2nd annual Honorary Member Hoedown was attended by members from 23 clubs: 12 callers participated. The recognition dance for HELEN LANG hosted by FOOT 'N FIDDLE and OLD CAPITOL SQUARES with HARRY CASE, RAY ARENDS, FRED ALLAN, and ANDY ANDERSON co-emceeing and eight others calling tips lasted for six hours and was attended by members from 32 clubs. HELEN thanks everyone (callers, committee, and dancers) for one of the most wonderful honors ever conferred on her.

The JIM WILLIAMS', formerly of JOHN STRONG'S GINGHAM SQUARES, recently moved to Albany and became DAISY CHAINERS. Third Friday found the DAISY CHAINERS "foot loose and fancy free", so they visited other workshops in the area. Several couples reported having spent a very enjoyable evening dancing with the BUZZIN' CUZZINS to the calling of ED MILLS. RONNIE GRIFFITHS guest called our third Saturday hoedown. JOHN STRONG joined RONNIE in dishing up a most pleasant evening of entertainment. DAISY CHAINS' - Club President - GEORGE PEASLEE, recently left us for 'greener pastures' (ha ha) -- Saudi, Arabia. We hope to see GEORGE & LILLY back with us when he returns in 18 months. ALTA HARN is in Richmond Hospital; we hope she will be up, out, and back dancing with us in the near future.

The one and only ED FERRARIO of Alameda will be guest caller for the DO-C-DO Club of Vallejo on December 14 at the Rangers' Lodge. VIC & LORETTA BRAND and EV & THELMA LAWSON have begun to make preparations for a wonderful Christmas Party to be held Dec. 17. RUTH & FRANK TAYLOR have a swell round dance class at the Rangers' Lodge every Thurs. at 8 p.m.

The SOBRANTE SWINGERS first candlelight dance was quite a novelty and heaps of fun. Emcees, DAVEY JONES & MYRTLE FULLER put on a fine program for the many visiting dancers.

MODESTO AREA NEWS

BETTE WESTERN

Waterford HUFFER'S 'N PUFFER'S Centennial Hoedown was a huge success climaxing the two day's celebration. It was hard to tell who had the most fun, 26 squares of dancers or 200 spectators. CARL KINDLE of the Hughson TOE STEPPERS and Turlock STEPPING PARDS did a bang-up job of M.C.ing with able assistance from taw, THELMA. Guest Callers roundin' out the evening's dance were: CECIL STEWART, EARL HAMILTON and FRANK CARTER from Sonora; WOODY MELTON and EARL JOHNSON from Dos Palos; OSCAR WESTERN and HARVEY WENTZELL from Modesto; ALEX GIBSON from Merced and RONNIE THORNTON from LeGrand. The Terpsichoreans, a folk dance group from San Francisco filled in the breathing spots with Spanish and Mexican dances. What a swell way to wind up 100 years! Our thanks to all who came and called, danced and cheered!

Escalon ALAMANDERS really had a busy month. Three club dances, plus one super-duper party night dance. DICK SEARS of Fresno shared the program with club caller OSCAR WESTERN at the party dance, held Nov. 16. The dancing was swell and the pie, ice cream and coffee served to the 24 squares attending was luscious. The ALAMANDERS presented some mighty fancy "shirt 'n dress" material to club members ORVILLE & IRMA MARTIN. Thanks for calling for us this summer ORVILLE. At the business meeting held by the ALAMANDERS this month, the ARDEN CREWS, replaced the HARLEY SAWYERS as presidents for the group.

EMPIRE TWIRLERS had a gay ole time this month, what with having three guest callers for Nov. ORVILLE MARTIN visited our club and everyone had a grand time. BOB CRAWFORD and his SQUARENADERS paid us a visit and nine squares turned out for the event. "Party Night" CARL KINDLE was our guest caller and our club caller ALEX GIBSON was there to assist. The club is sure happy to have you back again "GIBY" after a two weeks absence. Refreshments were oh so good - Turkey sandwiches, salads and cookies, Special guest VELMA WATSON, CIRCLE M of Merced. An election of officers was held and new officers for the coming year are: RAY OGLESBY, Pres.; SAM ZEIGLER, Club Representative; EMILY BANKS, Secretary; FAYE STILL, Treasurer; and ELLIE RASH, Refreshment Chairman.

Oakdale FALLING ARCHES contest to secure members for a beginners class was fought to the last ditch by two opposing teams of the Club. When the chips were down, noses counted and five squares totaled for the new class, it was the unanimous opinion of the club that the new class itself won the contest to recruit enrollees. Result, the FALLING ARCHES are to give the class a party the early part of next year. ORVILLE MARTIN calling for the clubs two regular dances, turned in his usual fine job. The club was happy to welcome guests from other clubs.

Manteca SQUARE WHEELERS caller, BILL DEAS, was forced to take time off from the serious business of Square Dance calling to give his attention to the more mundane business of a car preview - the 1958 Oldsmobile to be exact. Dance cancelled, but the club went visiting. Next dance BILL still selling new cars - '58 Cadillacs this time - but OSCAR WESTERN of the Escalon ALAMANDERS took over for a top job of calling for the evening.

San Joaquin Area News

BURT GARNER

- Nov. 2...How many of you noticed what a beautiful nite to travel to a square dance? It lured some four squares to Turlock, from Fresno, to dance to LEE HELSEL who was calling a "special" for CARL KINDLES' groups. The host club, STEPPING PARDS, did a superb decorating job - realistic marine life figures on the walls (wonder how many pins held the octopus in place?) and the stage was a sea combers' bower, complete with palm trees and driftwood, from which LEE called. Lots of work, kids, but we noticed and appreciated it, as we did the calling.
- Nov. 9...Full floor at the Fort Miller Jr. High for the monthly Assn. Dance, called by BUB ABLES. BUB had flown home from Kirkwood, Mo. and found JODY and youngsters down with flu, so he came up with a friend. Car trouble developed so they switched to a pick up and just made it in time for the dance. Following the dance BUB had to fly back to Mo. but he gave the dancers a wonderful evening and will be here again for the SQUARE-RAMA. The local live music SONS OF THE GOLDEN WEST, were at their best.
- Nov. 10...How many of you know the Sanger Recreational Dept. have quite a square dance group (some 10 squares) meeting on the 2nd Sats. This seems to be the least known of local groups and yet has a great potential. Sponsored by the Sanger Recreation Dept. and called by BOB BAKER.
- Nov. 16...DICK & CARY SEARS took a square of their GRAPESTOMPERS to Escalon to earn their Knothead Badges. The ALAMANDERS of Escalon hosted them and their caller, OSCAR WESTERN and DICK divided the program. The kids got a big kick out of the trip.
- Nov. 16...BRUCE & BEVERLY'S (STOTTS) monthly hoedown, BRUCE has the flu bugs out and "leather" back in his lungs and gave a swell dance, supported by the SONS OF THE GOLDEN WEST, live music. These lads are really good and the dance is becoming quite a cross section of local clubs, and visitors from as far away as Coalinga.
- Nov. 16...Friends of the local "Knotheads" will be happy to learn of the wedding of two of their members - MEL CUNNINGHAM & LOLA SIMMONS, wedding taking place in Madiera. Lovely vocal number, at the wedding, was rendered by MARGE LUTZ - also a club member (keen round dancer).
- Nov. 19...STEPPERS & STOMPERS annual "Carnival Party"; but no news at hand on particulars.
- Nov. 23...Found GENE WARD, TOM WRIGHT, and DUANE WAMSLEY, juggling the calendar between them with the result that TOM stayed home with the flu - DUANE went southward and called for the Selma group and GENE headed for the "woods" and miked to 10 squares for the Toll House BUCKEYE BOUNCERS.
- Nov. 23...BAR NONE clubs' monthly guest caller nite with LEE BOSWELL, of Los Angeles, doing the honors, it was LEES' first trip up this way and club members and guests liked he and his wife very much. They brought the CONFERS (swell dancers) of Hawthorne with them. In addition to local, there were guests from Whittier and a square from Tulare.
- Nov. 27...BAR NONES last Wed. nite dance. BRUCE (STOTTS) has called on Weds. for the club since its inception, some four seasons ago. At present the Dr. tells BRUCE he must curtail mid-week calling and weekends are taken, so from here on it's first & third Friday nites for the club, with BILL FOWLER as new club caller - BILL on first Fridays - and 3rd Fridays for guest callers. The club will miss BRUCE and welcome BILL.
- Nov. 30...One of those "never rains but pours" dance weekends. Some went to Northern Stampede to dance to ARNIE; some to Superior Californias Roseville dance to hear GLEN STORY. Some to MAX SLATTENS Hanford SQUARE EIGHTS party; some ten squares danced in the Portuguese Hall to DICK SEARS first Saturday attempt. Fourteen squares attended the HICKS & CHICKS party, where JOHNSON of Phoenix, Ariz. played tricks on them. Two bus loads of KNOTHEADS, with their caller BRUCE STOTTS and Live Music, SONS OF THE GOLDEN WEST, journeyed to Turlock for a combination party with BILL DEAS', Manteca SQUARE WHEELERS & JACK LOGANS, San Leandro VALLEY SWINGERS. Bus lunches were eaten going up and a breakfast stop made enroute home.

East Bay Area News

VIRGINIA JOHNSON

On Nov. 2nd, BALL & CHAIN SQUARES and DE WANDERERS held a joint hoedown with 16 squares dancing to the calling of JOE JOHNSON, guest caller and HARRY JUZIX, M.C. Nov. 21st, BALL & CHAINS hosted the SEQUOIA SQUARES on their party night. MILLIE RIGGS and JOHN MARTINEZ assisted HARRY JUZIX with the calling. Party night is 3rd Thursday of each month and visitors are welcome.

The SHUFFLE STARS and guests enjoyed ED FERRARIO'S calling at their November Hoedown. A very welcomed guest was HARRY CASE of Placerville. HARRY was repaying a visit made by a bus load of SHUFFLE STARS when they journeyed to Placerville recently to dance with the HANGTOWN TWIRLERS and qualify for Knotheads.

TEX'S STARS entertained FRED TRAVERS beginners Class on Nov. 18th with a Pot Luck Dinner. Nine squares enjoyed the wonderful food and dancing afterward. New officers of the club are: CARL KINCADE, President; BERNIE KILLEANEY, Vice President; FRANK KINCADE, Sec.; LOIS CASTRO, Sunshine Girl; MARGE MEISER, Publicity.

BOWS AND BELLS 3rd Friday Social Night was enjoyed by many enthusiastic dancers. In the absence of regular M.C. DAVEY JONES, the mike was in dual control of STAN VALENTINE, featured caller, and BRAD BRADFORD, visiting M.C. Recent election of officers put CATHERINE McCART in again as Chairman; MARGE HARDING as Secretary, and RUTH HENDRICKS as assistant Secretary-Treasurer.

GARDEN SWINGERS surprised ERMA & ROYAL DeLAND with a farewell party as the DeLANDS have been transferred to Norfolk, West Virginia. They have made many contributions to square dancing both in the Bay Area and overseas and their many friends are indeed sorry to see them leave. The club's 4th Sat. hoedown saw the rafters rocking with a capacity crowd with ED LOONEY and BILL THEEDE doing the calling.

Six squares of VALLEY SWINGERS travelled to Turlock on Nov. 30th for a three club party with the KNOTHEADS of Fresno and the SQUARE WHEELERS of Manteca. Club caller BILL DEAS, BRUCE STOTTS and JACK LOGAN took turns calling to the large and enthusiastic group who attended.

BOWS AND ARROWS sponsored a beginners hoedown for their new dancers and all enjoyed the calling of guest, JACK EVANS and club caller, TOM WALTON. Guest caller for the regular monthly hoedown of this club was FRED ALLAN of the FOOT AND FIDDLE squares. A group of BOWS AND ARROWS accompanied TOM WALTON to Rocklin when he called for the DUDES AND DOLLIES thereby qualifying for Knotheads.

ACES & LACES initiated five new squares of dancers into the club with a pot luck dinner. It is hoped they will always have as much fun as they did on this night. The 3rd Sat. hoedown was jumping with jovial JOE JOHNSON, guest caller, and ED LOONEY, M.C., calling to 36 squares of dancers. The evening was topped off with delicious refreshments of turkey sandwiches, mince and pumpkin pie.

REMEMBER: Your December news must be sent to MARY RALEY, 17031 Via Pasatiempo, San Lorenzo, by January 2nd, 1958.

REDWOOD EMPIRE NEWS

MIKE PARDEE

In case you haven't had time to look - amid all the clutter of cards, hoedown bids, scuffed boots, ripped crinolines, and bills - the old guy with the whiskers and scythe has flipped another calendar page.

It's 1958 -- HAPPY RESOLUTIONS!

And, speaking of resolutions - here's hoping club reporters (if your club doesn't have one, appoint one right now!) will oil up their ball points and keep the mails busy between their homes and mine - at 910 Orchard Street, Santa Rosa - with all the low down on every dance, listing caller and committee.

For the way things are starting to line up, 1958 will be a busy year - dancewise - in these parts and it'll take a passel of volunteers to corral all the news.

This part of the country has listed four big time events so far on the 1958 Square Dance calendar that everyone within KNOTHEAD distance can't afford to pass up.

First, the Cloverdale Citrus Fair will stage its second annual hoedown on Washington's Birthday with ARNE KRONENBERGER and LEE HELSEL splitting calling honors.

Then the Redwood Empire Callers Associations' 6th annual picnic jamboree will call 'em out from all parts of the state to Lakeport, May 4th when JIM MORK will be at the microphone after a lunch table session on the lakeshore.

You can look for another North-South bout when the Sonoma County Fair tosses its second annual Jamboree at the Santa Rosa Veterans Building - perfect sound, ditto floor last year when JOE LEWIS called - with a boy from Southern California and one from up in the San Francisco Bay Region (both to be announced soon) doing the calling. Date will be July 27th.

Along in September you can look for another Northern California Callers' Association Russian River Institute, with Guerneville the focal point.

Meanwhile clubs from Santa Rosa to Arcata and so up the line will be busy with a series that promise weekly sessions.

A bakers' dozen of squares ranging from 9 year olds to Great Grandads whopped it up at a New Year's Eve, whingding staged at Monroe Clubhouse by FAY & LOU BOWMAN - this area's Mom 'n Pop Square Dance.

They were both on hand, too, when HUGH (RED) WILSON, Napa, filled the guest spot at the last GUYS 'N GALS, December party.

Fourteen squares of BOOTS 'N BELLES, BVD'S, CLOVER SQUARES, SQUARE CUTTERS, and JEANS 'N JANES turned out when JACK McKAY, San Francisco, called for the GUYS AND GALS November party.

Fort Bragg's TIMBER TOPPERS hosted BVD'S, GUYS 'N GALS, BOOTS 'N BELLES, REDWOOD SQUARES, UKIAH PROMENADERS and JEANS AND JANES at their last RUSSIAN GULCH hoedown.

December 7th was date of the CLOVER SQUARES monthly party at West Street Elementary school in Cloverdale. WYATT URTON, Sebastopol, called. NICH & EVELYN SCATENA, TONY & MARY JOHNS, HELEN GORANSEN, RAY & LOUISE ELLIS, ROY & BERNICE DONNELLY, and EARL & DORIS HASTINGS, scored high in the KP department.

JUNE STRONG

Looking back over the year's events just in this one area, 1957 will be hard to beat, for several new clubs were born, and the 15 or more existing clubs planned more and accomplished more than ever before. Knothead groups were at an all time high. 1958 here we come!

WAGON WHEELS in San Mateo have a new welcome addition. The KELLY'S and the NICHOLS' are turning out a club news bulletin, Quotable Spokes From The Wagon Wheels. In it I read where JIM FLINN is making the WAGON WHEEL club banner for the NCSDA Stampedes and their caller DON NEWPORT was in on the recent search for the lost Pan American Air Liner.

WHIRL A WAYS caller, CHIC BURGESS was still recouping from his many illnesses in early November and FLOYD CRIGER did the whole show for their November party at Buri Buir.

Very sharp calling for very sharp dancers! CHIC is now back at full time calling. To CHIC, Good Health in '58.

GINGHAM SQUARE couples, ELINOR & DICK ARMSTRONG, DOROTHY & ELMER WERE-LIUS, JUNE & LARRY BENOIT, CHARLOTTE & LEE PURYER and MARY JEAN BURGESS and LARRY DILGER were joined by CARRIE & GENE NIDIFFER from the NAUTICAL SQUARES and ALICE & MARC OISTAD from the SQUARE SHOOTERS for a combined Knothead and Knucklehead trip to Monterey, where JOHN STRONG was calling for WILLIE HOLMANS' SAGE STOMPERS. WILLIE and friend wife GENEVIVE were good sports about the 4 a.m. visitors.

The LEE HELSEL - BILL CASTNER combination brought thirty-six spirited squares to Buri Buri School for the 49'ER party, Nov. 16th. The party committee headed by the GEORGE VERNONS provided a beautifully decorated hall for the occasion. The "Good Neighbor Dance" sponsored by the 49'ERS, WHIRLAWAYS, and GINGHAM SQUARES jointly, and held Nov. 23 in Buri Buri School brought thirty-two lively squares. HARLEY SMITH was the caller and the party was so successful, it was decided to make the "Good Neighbor Dance" an annual affair. The 49'ERS elected new officers for 1958. Newly elected are: ED CALLIN, Chairman; ALMA GREENAMYER, Program Chairman; DICK BLACKMORE, Treasurer; DOROTHY BAYARD, Secretary; and Board members: JOHN DUNCAN, CONNIE MESITA, and FRED REGIMBAL. The 49'ERS have welcomed JIM & MAY VIGNOLA, WAYNE & VERA STAEHLE, ROY & BETTY PETERSEN, LESLIE & NORMA CHILTON, and BILL & LOUISE PILGRIM into their membership. Newest addition and prospective caller for 1978 is ROY CONGER'S grandson, MICHAEL ROY LEWIS.

WESTERN TWIRLERS are changing their party nights from 3rd Sat. to 1st Sat. of each month in Colma School at Hillside and Market. JERRY SHELTON is to be their featured caller on Jan. 4th, with HAROLD POPE M.C.ing.

DOUBLE HEADED DIAMOND CUTTERS! HAROLD & LILYAN GADSBY, JIM & CECILIA EATON, PAT DEAN, DORA MOTT, LILLIAN CARROLL, RALPH SUNDQUIST, BY PRUDDEN, LENA GUABAGNI, FRANK ROSS, CORINNE O'NEAL, and CLAIRE & LOU LAZORE were also present at Monterey SAGE STOMPERS dance Nov. 2nd for their Knothead badges and on their way back BILL FOWLER in San Jose was Knuckleheaded.

JACK McKay is following thru on his New England Contras which are held each second Sunday night at McKay's Square Dance Center.

and....to borrow an editor's prayer from JACK MCKAY'S S.D. Center News, Oh, Lord, let all my words be sweet and good for tomorrow I may have to eat them.Thanks JACK.

Santa Cruz PAWS 'N TAWS enjoyed a scrumptious turkey dinner with all the trimmings, LEO & VIDA PRICE generously providing the turkey. Food committee for the occasion: GEORGE & EILEEN OLSON, HERMAN & MARGE OLSEN, FRANCES & LEWIS WRIGHT. Later in the evening, after a session of good dancing, more refreshments and a birthday cake was presented to HARLON MCCREA. The club welcomed as new members: WALTER & MILDRED FRANCES of Watsonville. The Halloween party given by the SURF TWIRLERS and REDWOOD SQUARES at Scotts Valley Barn was enjoyed by all PAWS 'N TAWS attending.

FLYING SQUARES from the K-5 Barn have been flying again, several squares going to L. A. to dance to their caller, JOHNNY BARBOUR, at Sunny Hills Barn on Nov. 2nd. Then back home to a grand party night, 15 squares dancing and refreshments - a nice party supervised by JEAN BOSWELL. Then off again on Nov. 23, to Monterey to dance with the HOT TIMERS.

when JOHNNY called for them. Month of dancing finished off on Thanksgiving Evening with refreshments of Pumpkin Pie and Whipped Cream.

SUES 'N QUES have been doing some travelling. Eleven couples motored to Blue Lake to dance with the "Middle Mountaineers" at Bachelor Valley. Why? To earn Knothead Badges, of course, and dance to guest callers ERNIE TRIMPEY. From all reports there was nothing but fun on this week-end trip. Ask any SUES 'N QUE who was there.

HIGHLAND HILLBILLIES celebrated their 4th Anniversary at Hamilton School with BILL FOWLER and KEN OBURN sharing the calling - hit of the evening was that terrific Hillbilly Band who played for one tip all dressed up in their long red "unawares". The club hosted BOOMPSI-DAISIES on party night and at HAYSHAKERS and CROSSTAILERS party nights, many HILLBILLIES were in attendance. The club welcomes new members - BETTY & ED SANDERS. Big day for Nov. was the 23rd when SKIP STENDER and JEAN BREWER were married at the Wayside Chapel in the Santa Cruz Mountains. Almost all HILLBILLIES showed up for the wedding. On the same day, BETTY SEEGER had her baby - a boy - and proud Papa popped in at the wedding to announce the news.

Many of the clubs in this area have expressed their enjoyment of the Santa Clara Valley Square-Dancers Associations first Jubilee, held at the County Fair Grounds. Sunday, Nov. 24th with over 100 squares in attendance -- the most often heard comment, "When are we going to do it again?" At the afternoon session of the Jubilee, we had an unexpected surprise visit from "JONESY" who favored us with a tip, including one of his delightful singing calls with his own guitar accompaniment.

JOKERS hoedown, the night before the Jubilee featured "JONESY" as caller. At 2nd Wed. party in November, JOKERS celebrated their 5th Anniversary. Each couple invited a guest couple and dancing was topped off with a luscious baked ham dinner. Thanks go to DOROTHY CRAWFORD'S square who arranged things so nicely. Some "remembrances" from the club were presented to RALPH BISHOP, who is leaving for a 3 months stay in the cold wilds of Alaska. New members welcomed are: DORIS & DICK WERNESS, and DENE & MAC McCLURE. New club officers: Chairman, WALLY DOUCETT; Vice Chairman "in charge of vice" BILL IVES; and board members, MARILYN FIELDS, LILA STOUT, BILL MURRAY, WENDELL JEFFRIES and LEO CLEMENTS.

CROSSTAILERS entertained HIGHLAND HILLBILLIES at their party night. FLORENCE LOPEZ was the Hostess. New couples in the club: LEO & VIDA PRICE and RED & EVIE YOUNG. VINCE & NANCY GORMAN brought back some beautiful slides of Hawaii - they reported having a real ball but were too busy to do any dancing during their short stay.

HAYSHAKERS, at their 3rd Monday party had eight other clubs represented. New members in the club - JACK & PEGGY WHITE.

SHOOTING STARS, at their regular 1st Saturday Hoedown featured BRUCE STOTTS as guest Caller along with BILL FOWLER. The club appreciated BRUCE'S appearance even though he still suffered occasional Laryngitis after a bout with the flu. There were 40 squares in attendance. The club surprised BILL FOWLER by celebrating his birthday with a party on their Tuesday night session, with decorations and party favors made by MARY MANNING. Newly elected officers: President, HAP BALDWIN; Vice President, PAT COOK; Membership, MARTY PAHLKA (reelected for doing such a good job); Program, MAXINE BOUTRY; Secretary, JANE LANGMAN; Treasurer, BARBARA TONASCIA; Publicity, IRBY AMES.

SQUARES AND FLARES had JOKERS as their guests on Nov. 20, with JOHNNY WHITE and KEN CLARK doing the calling, Committee in charge of serving the delicious refreshments was ANNE & TOM SORCI'S square. Through the arrangement of THELMA HUGHES, three squares of SQUARES AND FLARES put on a demonstration for the Toyon Home and School club on November 19.

At DUDES AND DOLLS Saturday, Nov. 2nd party, the theme was "Out of this World" with Sputniks and Satellites. The caller: Spaceman JACK LOG/ N - the arranger: Earthman KEN CLARK. There was a DIP 'N DIVE open throughout the evening for refreshments. KAY & DUANE UPSON'S square was in charge of the Dip 'N Dive and the decorations. New officers were installed in a "Corny Coronation". President, DEL ALLEN was given a crown and a glittering cornstalk while JUNE received a crown of corn flowers. Other officers are: Vice President, FRISKY & BILLE ZYLKER; Secretary, HELEN & CHUCK McGUIRE; Treasurer, RUTH & JOE McCORD; Delegate at Large, RAY & KATIE BLASINGAME. Each week, some of the DUDES members make it a point to visit KEN CLARK's beginners class.

STAR SWINGERS, at their November meeting, welcomed as new members GEORGE & EDDIE SPOONER.

Keep Friday, January 17th, 1958 open! On that night at the Daves Ave. School in Los Gatos there will be a March of Dimes Dance, sponsored by STAR SWINGERS, RAFTER ROCKERS, DANCIN' DANDIES, FOOTHILL SWINGERS and CROSSTRAILERS. There will be a cake auction and all proceeds will go to the March of Dimes. Lots of callers - Lots of Fun - Lots of Dancing so Polio Victims may Square Dance in the future.

Convention Bulletin

Have you made your plans for the 7th Annual National Square Dance Convention? Next June 19, 20 and 21 1958, all roads and ways of travel will be heading toward Louisville, Ky. and the Kentucky Exposition Center. We here in Louisville, are working real hard so you people from everywhere start making your plans now and don't miss the biggest Square Dance Convention of all.

The Committees planning the activities of the Convention are progressing very satisfactorily. Their plans and ideas, plus the aid of the six past conventions, will definitely make this convention one of the best. Floyd Bohart of Louisville has been selected to be the Program Chairman, therefore, this assures us of a wonderful program of dancing and exhibitions.

Registrations are coming in from all over the country. Oklahoma is again coming by Special Trains. You who would like to join them can write to Howard Thornton, 2936 Bella Vista, Midwest City, Oklahoma for more information.

Groups in the Midwest are chartering buses. They are coming to the Convention in Bus Caravans. This is a wonderful idea for groups that are not too far away. Why not put on a special drive for your group to come by chartered buses or by special trains?

We urge all of you to register early for the best of hotel and motel accommodations. No deposit is required for hotel reservations. Advance registrations are $1.00 per day per person, and at the door they will be $1.25 per day per person. Request for rooms should be sent in with advance registrations, and room assignments will be handled on a first come, first served basis. Every effort will be made to fulfill delegates' first choice, therefore, you who are coming in large groups, please register early so you can be housed together.

Program Chairman, Floyd Bohart, asks that all Square Dance Callers and Round Dance Teachers register early. Also to avoid mix-ups and delays: Callers will not be assigned a place on the program unless they have registered and paid the registration fee. Several of the nationally known callers and round dance leaders have already registered. We have acres of excellent dancing space, so all of you callers send in your registrations and make us use all available space.

The Registration Committee has come up with a wonderful idea. Those who register in advance will receive a beautiful Souvenir Ribbon that can be attached to their Club and name badge. When worn, it will be the envy of all others. ARE YOU REGISTERED?

As news and facts become available, we will release them to you. In the meantime, read your favorite Square Dance Publication on the progress of the Convention. For further information address all inquiries to:

Highlights of The No. Calif. Callers Ass'n. Meeting

Nov. 24th at -- Stockton, California

A carload of bouquets to the PEAT DUSTERS of Stockton, and to JIM OCHSNER and his committee, for the simply terrific time they extended to us when they played hosts to the N.C.C.A. members on November 24th in Stockton. It was hospitality unequalled from the moment the early arrivals walked in the door, till the last couple departed late Sunday evening. All day long it was one round of interesting programming: Starting at 10 a.m. and running to 12 noon, KAY & FORREST RICHARDS conducting a Round Dance Clinic. Beginning dancers waltz basics were presented, a worthwhile aid to teachers with new classes coming up. New rounds presented were: "Aint She Sweet" and "Why Ask For The Moon"...plus a review of "Penny Two-Step. Recess at noon for lunch. The afternoon started with Caller's workshop--and lots of fun. Special treat for the gals was a Fashion Clinic arranged for us by Vee Gee Patterns, and really and truly VIVIAN was marvelous in the ideas and "trade secrets" she shared with us...(everyone was eager to get out the ol' machine and start sewing---RIGHT NOW!)

THEN...came the best of all...that delicious Spaghetti feed at 5 p.m...How we ever danced for two hours immediately following, we'll never know--but we did, and everyone was reluctant to head for home...Again, many, many, thanks to our Stockton hosts...and to all the guys 'n gals who spent all that time seeing that we had such a marvelous time! We'll long remember this meeting, believe me!
