our Sixth Year of Publication. They have been wonderful years of growth, excitement, & change.

blems. Most of them were magnified out of proportion and solved without loss of blood. Perhaps by not taking ourselves too seriously they don't seem so much.

Without seeming to be Pollyanish we'd like to say that the enthusiasm of the new callers, the better dancers (thru better teaching methods), the good music better than ever before, the fine caliber of calling, and the fine friends made, make this an activity we will always want to be a part of.

The Callers Association and ourselves wish to thank in a grateful way the diligent work of our Area Reporters, Madeline Allen, all the dancers, teachers and callers who have contributed so much to make your magazine a necessary part of Square Dancing.

NORTHERN CALIF. SQUARE DANCERS ASS'N

NORM SHAW

The 1st meeting of the newly elected Board of Directors was held Sunday July 19, at the Bay Farm Island Recreation Hall, Alameda with BOB BARTHOL presiding.

Final plans were made for the State Council meeting to be held at Washington School in Alameda on August 15th at 1:30 p.m. This Association will be the host at this meeting which will be attended by representatives of the fourteen Square Dancers Associations of California.

As a result of the excellent job he did on the 1959 Round-Up ED FERRARIO was again asked to take on the job of Program Chairman for the 1960 Round-Up.

The August 29th, 5th Saturday Stampede for N.C.S.D.A. members only will be held at the Richmond, California Auditorium from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. with the one and only ARNIE KRONENBERGER calling.

ROUND DANCE TEACHERS ASSOCIATION OF NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

The meeting of the Round Dance Teachers Association of Northern California was held on the first Sunday in July, as usual, and the membership was pleased to learn that the new group's affiliation with both the NCCA and the Callers Workshop of the Dancers Association has been unanimously approved.

At the RDTA August meeting, and at every meeting thereafter following the selection of a Round of the Month by the Callers, one feature of our program will be the thorough teaching of the new ROM by a qualified Round Dance Teacher, emphasizing all possible teaching techniques as might apply to the easier and more correct teaching of the particular dance. This feature should be very helpful, particularly to the newer callers who haven't had too much experience in teaching Rounds. It is this organization's desire to assist whomever and whenever possible in the improvement of the Round Dance portion of the Square Dance Program.

New membership applications approved at the July 5th meeting were: GENE & GEN GORNHANSON, BERNIE & MARY EGAN and PEARL PRESTON.

DTA Choice for August-----SORRENTO

All Round Dance Teachers and/or Callers in the Northern California Area are cordially invited to attend one meeting as our guests, which, we hope will create the desire for membership. First Sunday of every month at Lincoln School, Whipple Avenue at Elwood in Redwood City, 1:30 p.m. See you there???

UGGETS held their first hoedown June 27th. The dancers said it was a real treat, dancing to the calling of guest caller, "Smil-en" JOHNNY CRAWFORD (and taw, DOTTIE), along with their own club caller, HAROLD "BRONX CARUSO" ADAMS. A July 4th theme was used in the decorations and they were honored by visitors from CIRCLING SQUARES, SKIRTS & FLIRTS, EVERGREEN HORNS, and SQUAR-EN EIGHTS from Whittier.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS have elected the following new officers: Pres. PHIL ROUSE; Vice-Pres. KO CON; Secty. BOB ENSLEY; Sargt at Arms, HERMAN DUNN; Treas. LIZ MARTIN. Two members, JIM & JACKIE QUICK were in a serious automobile accident. Their many friends wish them a speedy recovery. At party nite, some welcome guests were there for some "real fun".

ADABOUTS had a good time dancing with the SUES 'N QUES and the HAYSHAKERS who are guests at their June party. While their club caller, LOU HUGHES, is on vacation, the HAYSHAKERS are dancing with the GADABOUTS for two weeks. When JERRY FIRENZI goes on his vacation, the arrangement will be reversed.

FOOTING STARS welcomed into the club: MILDRED & HOWARD MOSS, and KITTY & M LOWE. The club had their annual picnic at Blackberry Farm in Monte Vista. Dancing was provided by the old master, BILL FOWLER and some of the FOWLER'S HOWLERS. A good time was enjoyed by all.

JOKERS' guests on June 10th party night were the GADABOUTS, KRAZY DAZYS, HIGH-AND HILLBILLIES, THE LONGHORNS, and CHUBBY MARSH from Salinas. The club's 5th annual Camp Campbell family outing was very enjoyable and everyone had a relaxing time except a few folks who couldn't seem to get to sleep on Friday night.) The Camp Campbell Hillies on Saturday night after the dance had the theme, "Around the World in 80 Daze", with each act taking place in a different country. With all the talent and good humor displayed, they showed that they were true "Jokers".

HAYSHAKERS are "dancing around" for the summer -- will be back at the Dover School in the Fall. Three squares of HAYSHAKERS went "up-the-river" -- all the way to Sacramento for LEE HELSEL'S HIGHWAYMEN'S 11th Anniversary Hoedown. Twelve boats and one swimmer made the trip. Admiral LOU HUGHES led the boatmen. They're now the world's first members of an exclusive new square dance group (those who go to a square dance by boat) known as the AQUA KNOTS. The club's 3rd Anniversary Hoedown was a big success thanks to the superb calling of NONIE MOGLIA and club caller, LOU HUGHES. HAYSHAKERS enjoyed having the JAYWALKERS as their guests on the 3rd Monday party night.

BUCKBOARD BOUNCERS joined forces with the SQUARE FOOTERS and dance under the stars every Tuesday in Palo Alto. The welcome mat is always out. BUCKBOARD BOUNCERS presented DON & MARGARET NEWPORT with a beautiful fern to enhance their patio or yard, and a very attractively decorated cake, wishing them well on their wedding anniversary.

SWINGING WHEELS wish to thank the LONGHORNS of Redwood City for the swell time on their party night and for the fine calling of CHIC BURGESS. The free outdoor dance at Valley Air in San Jose, co-sponsored by the SWINGING HILLS, was enjoyed by thirty squares. Dancers were NEVAJOHANNES, KEN OBURN and DON HILLS. Donuts and coffee were served. Five clubs were represented at the July party night: BUCKBOARD BOUNCERS, VALLEY SWINGERS, SHOOTING STARS, LONGHORNS and COVERED WAGONS. A dance was held down to Ben Lomond in June when club caller, DON HILLS and LARRY WOOD of the PIPPINAIRES shared the program.

SUES 'N QUES enjoyed the hospitality of the COVERED WAGON SQUARES on June 5th and the ANKLE KNOCKERS on June 10th. Spotlight event of the month was a Potluck and Initiation on June 16th. During the evening, 16 couples of TWILIGHT TWIRLERS did an exhibition dance before they received SUES 'N QUES badges. For the first part of the dance, a brood was substituted for one girl in each square; second part involved dancing with a potato held between the knees by everyone; and finally they finished the dance with bags over their heads. With the fun over, the group became a very welcome group of new SUES 'N QUES. Three couples of out-of-town dancers were also presented with membership. The club is happy to have ERNIE & STELLA TRIMPEY back from vacation. Thanks go to LOU HUGHES for filling the hall with calls while ERNIE was away.

BELLE SWINGERS of Sunnyvale (caller Jeanne Fischer) are planning a big weekend of swing ming, eating, and square dancing at Pinecrest, California on August 8th and 9th. This promises to be a big fun event for the BELLE SWINGERS and many of their new members just joining the club from JEANNIES Monday night beginners class.

June 26...Continuing last month's routine we will continue to pull news items out of the envelope--make a couple of phone calls, to clubs who haven't gotten their news in yet--and then jump in the ol' Ford and take off for a short vacation. It will be ETHEL'S first attempt at dancing, since her surgical experience in May, and we're both anxious to get back on the floor.

No. 1...TWO LAZY TWO STEPPERS club, hosted JOHN & IMOGENE PATTERSONS' beginners group May 11th. Evening was devoted to both Rounds and Squares and GENE WOOD, ROBT. O'QUINN, CLEAT TAYLOR and JIM RICE took calling turns. Twenty-four couples received their diplomas and the evening ended with refreshments in the Chuck Wagon--the Barn.

No. 2...BUTTONS AND BOWS (one of the oldest clubs in the valley) hosted two nice parties recently. This is EARL JOHNSONS (of Dos Palos) group -- and EARL by the way, all you newer dancers, is the Real Granddaddy of all the valley callers. EARL was calling in his area when Square Dancing had almost been forgotten elsewhere. Long before its revival, in the early '40s, EARL used to say "Hell, over here we never knowed it slow down."

One party was twenty-six squares, in the Merced Armory, with PEGGY RENTZ (San Luis area) as guest caller and the other was in the Armory with EARL calling and M.C. with a number of local guest callers, KEN STRETCH and TOM GALLEGAR were general chairmen. Thirty-two squares were on the floor and the proceeds of $411 was turned over to the March of Dimes Polio Fund.

No. 3...A note from the Barn saying the CRAZY 8's had changed callers with CLINT MELL now doing the calling and everyone welcome to their Wednesday dances.

Second notation was regarding the Big Barbecue party, hosted by the PAIRS OF FOES on June 14th, with JOEL PEPPER as guest caller. The club has worked hard on the ground and next time out to the Barn take a look at the Bar-b-que area.

No. 4...DICK & CARY SEARS, Hanford SQUARE EIGHT group have been having a live season and in May the beginners group graduated five squares. May 8th DICK called the San Luis KNOTHEADS and on the way back (next night) teamed up with the AVAN, GOOFERS and had quite a ball. McCULLAR, one of the San Luis KNOTHEAD callers w. M.C. for the evening.

No. 5...From deep in the envelope (heavy and sank) comes WHITS item of the "Successful annual Klondyke party - hosted by the KNOTHEADS. It was evident MAC McDONALD had been there first. Members and guests were treated (and it is a treat) to his and his wife's clever display of sour dough originals for decorations. (MAC take a bow you really deserve it!) The gold pan of nuggets with a "buck" a guess as to how many for the prize (won by JERRY TILFORD and "MAC") and many of gaming tables devices were there again and truly lovely prizes were all hand made and contributed by gals of the KNOTHEADS.

new "gismo" this year were two dummy Square Dancers (no heads) and those wanting pictures of themselves stood with their own heads showing over the "dummies". (Proved very popular. Another new one -- at "grubtime" -- was WHITS & MICKIES "Klondyke Burgers" (secret recipe of Polar Bear tongue, seal blubber and tundra moss) 135 sold at $4.00 each in 15 minutes (Klondyke exchange) esquimo pudding (ice cream) spruce bark brew (coffee) were also found on the menu, along with a barrel of salmon blood (punch).

New club officers: Pres., GEO. & GINGER CLOUGHER; Vice-Pres., STAN & MERELYN WHITE; Secty., JO & WOHN GABRIEL; Treas., JEAN & ED FLYNN. Association Delegates: JOHN GABRIEL and JOHN RIPLEY.

6... Last and by phone from GEO. POLLOCK--outgoing Assn. Pres.--Is the information that the Dancers Association will hold their summer dances in Roeding Park on 2nd Sunday evenings of the summer months (including Sept.) Then they will go on a year schedule of 5th Saturdays. All at the Barn with local callers. BAR NONE & FRESNO ROUNDERS to handle promotion and advance ticket sale. PAIRS OF 4 and WHIRLERS & TWIRLERS--door money. BELLS & BOWS and KNOTHEADS, publicity and advertising. Door prizes by CRAZY 8's, STEPPERS & STOMPERS and HIX & CHIX--refreshments. Clean up by MATES & DATES and COUNTRY COUSINS.

910 ORCHARD ST.

Not so very many years ago Fourth of July meant small boys with burned fingers, fire in the vacant lots and the family dog hiding under the front porch until it was all over---remember?

Now there are far fewer fires, small boys' fingers remain more or less as nature intended they should, the family dog is happier---but gosh, don't those pointed toe boots pinch after an all afternoon session?

Three outfits up this way could justifiably moan low on the tired feet subject after the Glorious Fourth. UKIAH PROMENADERS and guests from---it seemed---everywhere, dance to calls by BUD GRASS in the Ukiah Fairgrounds Home Economics Building after gorging themselves on a barbecue under the weeping willow tree (which is an institution on the fairgrounds) in the mid-afternoon.

Cloverdale's CLOVER SQUARES did likewise out in the city park where WYATT URTON called for a gang that came from near and far.

Up on the Mendocino coast where sea breezes tempered old Sol's rays, MENDOSOMA SQUARES and guests hoedowned at Manchester Grange Hall after a barbecue at the Farm Center Park where a traditional rodeo and general western fun fest was in progress. Then after winding the dance up most of them went back to the grounds for more barbecue---and more square dancing.

LAZY EIGHTS, a three-square bunch from Camp Meeker, one of the more picturesque parts of Western Sonoma County, got the jump on the Fourth's series by hosting a square for SQUARE PAIRS of San Leandro and their caller, KEN MILROY on the 3rd.

The same bunch had five squares plus out for their June 26 session; on the 19th. Hayward's JIM MORK and taw were guests while vacationing in the Russian River country as JIM tossed in a few tips at the mike. On their May party night the club hosted members (BOOTS AND BELLES, GUYS AND GALS, BVD'S, BUTTONS AND BOWS. Then, just to keep their hands in, a square Knotheaded during the month at Roseville with the MATES AND DATES

SOTOYOME STOMPERS have declared a workshop vacation, but they'll keep on with 4th Sat. hoedowns. Last was June 27 when BILL CASTNER called a good turnout.

TIMBER TOPPERS turned out in force June 27 to greet BUD GRASS who's been doing things in a big way callerwise lately. Also on hand were representatives of DOUBLE DIAMONDS, MENDOSOMA SQUARES, REDWOOD SQUARES, SOTOYOME STOMPERS, ACES AND LACES and a gang from up Garberville way.

On the second Saturday GUYS AND GALS hosted 13 squares when DON ANDERSON guest called. Badges listed were HUMBOLDT HOEDOWNERS, DOUBLE DIAMOND, SOTOYOME STOMPERS, DOUBLE DIAMONDS, BVD'S, FREEWHEELERS, BOOTS AND BELLES, and BUTTONS AND BOWS.

Third Saturday BOOTS AND BELLS were hosts to nine squares with SPARKY SPARKS calling. Much the same club list, plus HAY BALERS and WESTERN WHIRLERS registered. It as the club's farewell to the S.R. Recreation Center as hoedown headquarters. From now on starting with their July hoedown--they're hosts at the MOBILE CITY recreation hall where square dancers MERRILLEE and JAY BANNISTER have set up shop.

Fourth Thursday was Pie Night at Monroe Clubhouse, Santa Rosa, when WYATT URON called for the combined G.G. and B.B. gangs. Eight squares showed up in spite of a hot night.

REDWOOD SQUARES put on a Knothead initiation for squares from WAGON WHEELERS and BUZZSTEPPERS when RAY ARENDS called. On hand were TIMBER TOPPERS, MENDOSOMA SQUARES and PROMENADERS

BVD'S hosted members of GUYS AND GALS, BOOTS AND BELLES, SQUARE EIGHTS, BUTTONS AND BOWS, LAZY EIGHTS at their fourth Saturday dance. When the club caller, MARK DUNN called for MATES AND DATES a group went along to qualify for their Knothead pins they are: JIM & PEARL WONG, LORRAINE & MILT HANN, THYRA NOONA, JD VANDEVERT, JOE & VI PAUL, JIM & PEARL ANDERSON, JOHN & HELEN MORRISON.

attention all square dance and round dance clubs of the Monterey Peninsula: Unless I receive news from your clubs by the first of each month there is no way possible for it to get into a magazine.

The HOT TIMERS only danced two weeks in June and two weeks in July. KEN ORRN called a hot and lively hoedown for the HOT TIMERS on the fourth Saturday of June. A good time was had by all. Several of KEN's own club members came down to the dance with him. BOB MAGILL is home from the hospital and we hope he will soon be going great again.

The GUYS AND DOLLS of Watsonville reported a terrific crowd at their fourth of July dance featuring the calling of ARNIE KRONENBERGER. The sound was greatly improved and the many local dancers attending this dance are anticipating another evening of ARNIE'S dancing in the near future.

SAGE STOMPERS celebrated their second anniversary with a B-B-Q at Bolado Park on June 14. Compliments to BERT & FRANK SAMORA, FLORA & CURTIS GARNER and the members of the committee for a well planned outing, including several dunkings in the pool of club member WILLIE HOLMAN. That was one way to get a little even with him for catching us anticipating his calls.

Also during June a new set of officers were elected for the coming term commencing July 1, 1959. Officers elected were as follows: HERB SMITH, Pres.; CURTIS GARNER, Vice-pres. & Membership; CAROL ELKINS, Treas.; GLADYS BUSH, Secty.; FLORA GARNER, Phy chairman; JERRY WALTON, Hospitality and GENEVE HOLMAN, Publicity. BILL & ALMA HITTICK were elected as delegate to attend the Santa Clara Valley Dancers Assoc. meeting. Good luck to all and thanks to outgoing officers for a fine job.

WUSTANGS have really been busy and on the go. During the past month: Some have visited top-of-the-World Ranch several times; a square exhibition given for the Beacon Chapter of Eastern Star, Richmond, was well received, judging from the numerous approving comments of the sideliners. A Beginners' class graduated to intermediate, the occasion attended by graduates, club members and many visitors who came to dance or watch. Not all of them had the pleasure of hearing LEN MURPHY of RECREATION SQUARES, Oakland call. LEN was guest caller the night we visited BERKELEY SQUARES, he's great! MUSTANGS are 'u and coming'. Try one of our first Saturday hoedowns.

LADS & LASSIES had a successful 3rd anniversary hoedown. As remuneration caller BILL CASTNER received a belt of silver dollars. We've relaxed with a club picnic; danced with JACKS & JENNYS, KENO KIDS, TRUCKEE KNOTHEADS and hosted SQUARE CROWS Congratulations new officers! President - DICK & MARTY NEY; Vice-Pres. - HENRY & MAR KAUPPILA; Secretary - CHET & SHIRLEY MAYS; Treasurer - LORRIS & VENETA BOOTH Trustees - BILL & MARGARET HENDERSON; HARVEY & DORIS CULVER.

With the rapid growth of the 'TEEN SPINNER group, via the new beginner class, we're forced to move again. Another first for the Richmond area! We held our first Childrens' night time hoedown Saturday, July 11, with BUCK BREAUULT guesting and club caller MARK BATES, M.C. ing. Teriffiff!

SOLANO SWINGERS - Bransford Elementary School, Fairfield. ANDY ANDERSON, call meetings on Mondays and Saturdays.

KENO KIDS enjoyed a busy month of June. We visited neighboring clubs every Sat. Had most memorable 2nd anniversary hoedown with JOHNNY BARBOUR calling, live music by the Westerners and twenty-eight clubs visiting. New officers (a few reelected) are, Pres., MC & JEAN MODRZEJEWSKI; Vice-Pres., GORDON & POSIE POWELL; Secty., BEN & ESTHER LEVINE and Treas., MERV & DOT BABCOCK. We're planning a Hard Times Dance in August.

At the final gun the scoreboard read RANCHO WRANGLERS All-Stars - 71, LONESOME POLECATS Pea Pickers - 0, in the big challenge softball game highlight of the two club joint mid-June picnic at Vichy Springs. The losing POLEKITTIES cheerfully paid the penalty by attending the WRANGLERS' June hoedown and serving refreshments and cleanup duties.

Besides the new graduating members the ALAMANDERS welcomed ED & THAY TEDELMAN, JOE & DOT SCHARLI, CHUCK & MARY MURPHY, BILL & JEANNE TYE and JIM & LA DONN SIMPSON as new club members.

EMPIRE TWIRLERS June 27th Party nite on the outdoor slab with BILL DEAS guest calling and GIB GIBSON assisting highlighted our months activities.

CERES CIRCLE 'N SQUARES hosted twenty-six squares on our third Anniversary party dance June 20th. BILL CASTNER did a nice job of calling in spite of the heat. All clubs in the area were represented with the CERES TWISTERS having the largest number of members in attendance. Charter members Mr. & Mrs. WARREN KEIRNS, NEIL WHEELER and HAROLD LIVINGSTON were presented Hawaiian leis in keeping with the theme. June 6th RALPH SILVIUS guest called for the 1st Anniversary dance of the VALLEY CATS in Castro Valley. Two squares of CIRCLE 'N SQUARES going along and having a good time.

In keeping with Modesto's Jubilee Celebration the Modesto Associated Squares sponsored two nights of dancing in the City Park. CARL KINDLE M.C.ing the first night with OSCAR WESTERN and BOB CRAWFORD helping out. RALPH SILVIUS M.C.ing the second night with GENE WELSH, FRANK AZLIN and LOUIE CARRILLO calling tips.

New officers for the STANISLAUS STUMBLERS are: LEONARD & BETTY CARY, Pres.; CHARL & JUDY FARINA, Treasurer; BILL & MARY BILLINGTON, Secty.; and VIC & MARY GOMES Hospitality. The STUMBLERS celebrated their 2nd anniversary this past month with the Westernair Square Dance Band from San Jose and HUGH BURNS sharing a gala evening.

Some three hundred square dancers yelled and stomped all evening with time out brief for refreshments, at which time prizes were awarded to several guests in attendance. At that time, the club presented to HUGH and taw, BONNIE, a patio barbeque table and benches and a picnic basket filled with dishes. Dancers from all clubs in the Modesto area were in attendance, with guests from as far away as Belmont and Hayward.

New Manteca SQUARE WHEELERS were graduated and initiated according to SQUARE WHEELER tradition. An old goat had to be ridden before they were accepted into the club. Two squares of volunteer men danced blindfolded with eight lovely contenders for Miss Manteca of 1959. These eight hairy lovelys did a very exciting Can Can dance. Highlight of the evening came with the presentation of SQUARE WHEELER emblem with bells filled with $1.00 bills by the class and a pineapple cream money pie presented by the club. BILL & PAT liked the pie so well, they couldn't resist getting their faces in it, with a little help. You don't have to be crazy to square dance, but it helps if you're going to be a SQUARE WHEELER. The Saturday hoedown featured JOHNNY BARBOUR...swell dance.
