(Club Reporters: Saturday, Dec. 18 deadline for my receipt of your news for Feb. Issue.)

The San Francisco Peninsula Clubs join ROY and myself in wishing to all of you, your family and friends, a very Merry Christmas and a New Year of Health and Happiness in a world of peace. - Lilyan.

CLODHOPPERS of Belmont...fun and games at our autumn picnic in Huddart Park on Oct. 3, with WARREN & JENNY BENNER in charge of games; BILL WALLACE in charge of square dancing on the lawn, except for NANCY DAVISON calling a tip, and all the gals in charge of food...wasn't our Harvest Hoedown a "gooder" with KEITH GYLFE'S great calling, and PENNY & BILL TRIPP'S great "back lunch" refreshments - many thanks to our dancing friends who made it a "full house" of fun...Y'all had fun at our Beginner Hoedown on Nov. 13th called by our JOHN LINDERMAN and good friend, DON BLACK, so come back to our Newer Dancers Hoedown on Jan. 8, Y'Heah?

GINGHAM SQUARES of Millbrae...our Anniversary Hoedown called by our own BOB PAGE was a big success - over 1200 balloons were dropped during the dance as part of the celebration activities; lovely corsages, thanks to ESSY CRAIGHEAD, were handed to every lady upon entering the dance, and all had a fine time, to be sure. Several members joined some of the WHIRL-A-WAYS and PONY WHEELS to help deliberate the Millbrae Art and Wine Festival by putting on an exhibition of square and round dancing; the invitation was extended by the Millbrae Chamber of Commerce and gave all of us an excellent opportunity to show the spectators the fun and enjoyment to be had from this wonderful activity...our Australians, KEN & JAN STUART, have gone back home for good - we'll all miss them...the PETROVSKYS, WALT & ELAINE took an anniversary trip to Majorca, Spain; and JOHN & ALICE LORBER have returned once again from a fascinating trip to Turkey

Greece, and Rome...RUSS & ARLEEN CRYDER celebrated their 25th Anniversary in Hawaii.

HARBOR LITE FOOTERS of Redwood City...have a new caller, GENE ARNOLD...we are busy with a new beginners class and also at this time, still planning and working on the hoedown for November...on a recent Thursday night we were pleased to have some of the DONS & DONAS with us...also, welcome to two new couples, HARVEY & RUTH BOURLAND and KEN & HELEN NANCE, who were previous members of our group...JOHN & ELFREDA PARSONS became members recently, too.

HIGHLAND SWINGERS of San Carlos...many of our group, including this reporter, have been away for several weeks and it is good to get back into the swing again...we are happy to have WILLIS & EVALYN NELSON return safely after their summer in Wyoming and how nice it is to see JOE & HELEN PALLADINO, PEG & FRAN KREUZER, BEVERLY SWENSON, ORV & DORNE BECKWITH and LOREN & ARLINE HARKRIDER - a sincere welcome back to all...glad to report that DOLLY HALL, who underwent ear surgery a few weeks ago, is recovering nicely and with the help of hubby, RON, is handling the job of hospitality chairman very capably...JOHN CAMPBELL too, is doing well after a short stay in the hospital and, as usual, is keeping up with his many activities.

RANCHEROS of Redwood City...we had a great time at the KALICO KATS hoedown - they sure were in the pink, the decorations were nice, and the refreshments delicious...our newer dancers graduated in October with the Witches and Goblins dancing around - we had the graduation party and Halloween party together, which was lots of fun and a great success...our new group of beginners, who are dancing on Tuesday nights, are doing great...the advanced group are dancing on Wednesday nights, same place, same time - come and join us any Wednesday night.

ROADRUNNERS of San Mateo...well, now that summer is over, the new activities are in full swing and the following new slate of officers were elected at a potluck meeting in September - PAUL JACQUET (Pres.); AL SCHNELL (V.P.); GINNY JORGENSEN, (Treas.); DOTTY SMITH (Secty.); JAN FREEMAN (Publicity); HELENE SWANSON

(Social Chairman); NANCY ANDERSON (Telephone Chairman); STAN SCULLY (Association Delegate)...on Sept. 30th, about 4 squares started our new beginner class... we're glad to welcome back PAUL & POLLY SCULLY - PAUL has recently recovered from an injury he received last spring; also, LILLIAN LAKEY is convalescing from surgery and we hope to see her soon...a square joined the HIGHLAND HILLBILLIES on Oct. 28th and the TWO BY FOURS hosted 2 squares of our members on Oct. 2nd - thanks to both host clubs for a really great time.

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS...had their annual picnic on Oct. 3rd at Orange Park in South San Francisco, with almost 50 members there to enjoy the festivities; RAY TORRES and CHARLIE WIFSTRAND were delegated Chefs and put their hidden culinary talents into practice by serving hamburgers and hot dogs cooked to perfection...on Sept. 15th when our school was not available to us, we visited the CABLE CAR SQUARES and enjoyed the generous hospitality of this club - our thanks to all of them for letting us share a most pleasant evening...our Pres., PAUL HUNGERFORD and first Lady, PAT, attended a recent meeting in Santa Cruz of the California Retired Teachers Association, of which PAUL is currently President; LARRY & VI SELMER attended a reception for Norwegian dignitaries; MARIE POLLOCK, a graduate of our last RECRUITS class, appeared on the Jim Dunbar show on Oct. 11, where she displayed her champion blue and cream Persian cat to publicize the recent Golden West Cat Show...one square attended the SCVSDA 15th Annual Jubilee in Santa Clara and had a wonderful time... MILT ADAMS, our club caller and instructor, reports our new class of RECRUITS is off to a good start.

SQUARE CUTTERS of San Francisco...during October, 16 members of our club traveled by plane, rail, boat, and bus across Canada, down through the New England states to view the lovely fall foliage, and back home - it was a wonderful experience for all and they are filled with stories of the many places visited...AGNES & HARRY THOMPSON, Special Events Chairmen, planned a Halloween party with refreshments, prizes and games - a good turnout for the evening, and many costumes...Reporter's corner: "Health is wealth - and it's tax free!"

WHIRL-A-WAYS of So. San Francisco...21 couples of members and guests enjoyed an evening of dining and social get-together on Sept. 25 as our progressive dinner got under way; first, we journeyed to Millbrae for a delightful cocktail hour hosted by JERRY & FRAN PARLE - the drinks were in abundance and the hors d'oeuvres and canapes were out of this world; next stop for dinner with FRANK & VIVIAN GROMM in their lovely home in San Bruno, and what a lay-out of food - ravioli, spaghetti and other hot dishes, among them my favorite shrimp and cheese over rice, plus many delicious salads and breads; last stop with HOADLY & ELLEN JOHNSON in South San Francisco for dessert and a bit of dancing to records; all I can say to you who did not attend is that you missed out on a real fun evening...our new class is progressing well under the teaching of ED LOONEY, so let's all help them...hear that DUKE & LUCILLE LOGSDEN are traveling in Mexico...have fun, but hurry back - we miss you!

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTES of San Francisco...welcome to our 2 new members ARLO LUSBY and WALLY WORSLEY, and it's good to have our Charter Member, DICK HODGES, dancing with us again; ED PEARSON has returned from Chicago - welcome to you, too; keep up the good recruiting, gang, and we may get the ratio of guys and gals leveled off, but in the meantime it is a challenge to dance in an all girl square once in a while...we are looking forward to the opportunity of taking our good group of Newer Dancers to their first hoedown...the Holiday saw a few taking trips to share turkey feasts with family and friends - WADE STEVENSON to Arkansas, JOE DENNIS to the South, some to the North, and many right here in their own kitchens.

BEACHNUTS of Moss Beach...are proud to say our beginners are doing beautifully and we're giving our first Newer Dancers Hoedown on Dec. 4th - please see ad for details...on Dec. 22nd we will have our Christmas Party, so if any of you would like to come and join us, we would love to see and dance with you...our Halloween costume party on Oct. 27th was a lot of fun, with prizes for the most original, funniest, and scariest costumes.

CAPER CUTTERS of San Francisco...our members do more diversified traveling - hard to keep up with them at times...a few squares attended KALICO KATS party to dance to the calling of DICK HOULTON; another group went to hear ROGER MORRIS who called for the FORTY-NINERS... JULIUS HONS and AUDREY NICHOLS get around, too, and just received Honorary Membership in the CORNHUSKERS, with whom they dance quite frequently...MARY CORDINI just returned from visiting her brother, who is V.P. of General Sales at General Mills in Minneapolis - got to visit the Betty Crocker kitchen, and arrived home just in time for family and friends to honor both her and LEN'S 30th anniversary...we celebrated our 21st Anniversary with a spaghetti and meatball dinner and extras, and honored 9 past Vice Presidents who are in the club; LILLIAN GADSBY took charge of this demonstration and also had them playing a game, all much fun; many thanks to FERN IACOPI and her assistants who did a marvelous job of ordering the food, making the decorations, and getting the tables ready...we are always happy to have SHIRLEY KRON come and dance with her former club members - do come again; also happy to have visitors from the B & B's.

FORTY-NINERS of So. San Francisco...our Program Activities Chairman seem to outdo themselves each year in finding a place for us to hold our customary Christmas Party, including dinner and what else - square-dance with entertainment afterwards; a special "thank you" to CLEVE & LUNA FLESHMAN for their fine work in promoting a very special, happy evening for all the FORTY-NINERS - new and old...seems to be it's an ill wind that blows no good - as BILL CASTNER inadvertently forgot his calling equipment one class night and had to send an SOS to his home to have it brought over, we had the pleasure of seeing his lovely wife, GRETCHEN, on what she calls her every 5-year visit...December travelers are CLYDE & ESTHER LANSING on a trip to Mexico and your reporter (MARY DENSON) on a Christmas vacation in Mazatlan...no hoedown this month but our Beginners will be dancing at Avalon on the 3rd Saturday with BILL CASTNER doing the calling honors, and a finer bunch of people you could not find to dance with.

ISLAND SQUARES of Foster City...VI & KAYE YOUNG had a baby boy, and both mother and son are doing nicely; we hope the proud parents will soon be able to attend workshop again soon...GREG BURGE is away studying at the University of Montana, leaving LU ANN without a dancing partner...LOU TINSLEY finally came out of hibernation after he took the Bar Exam, so DORIS now has her best dancing partner again...our beginners class began on Oct. 1st with 32 registered and JOHN LINDERMAN is really bringing them along - at the rate the 32 are going, by the end of 30 weeks they will be extremely accomplished dancers...our 3rd Anniversary Hoedown on Oct. 16 was a great success with 26 squares dancing to the fine calling of JOHN LINDERMAN, and the decorating committee, chaired by DICK LUSK, did a fantastic job with bales of hay, cornstalks, pumpkins, and scarecrows...we were all sorry to hear that our able Captain Lady, MAXINE MILLER, entered the hospital for surgery on her feet; knowing MAXINE, her not being able to dance for the next several months will be a most disagreeable experience - we all wish her the best and quickest recovery ever.

PAIRS 'N SPARES of San Bruno...every caller has been surprised at one time or another by the sudden arrival of several squares of his own club while making a guest caller appearance, but HOWARD HILLYER, our club caller, pulled a switch; Sacramento was the city and the SUES 'N QUES was the club for our most recent trip, with NORM McALLISTER and guest caller...surprise...HOWARD HILLYER! the spread of refreshments was only sensational, and the dancing was total enjoyment; club President, BOB PEDERSON, came through with a swinging bus and a driver to match; CARL MARKHAM wired up a tape recorder and some speakers for music, and JACQUIE BERMUDEZ set up some pretty funny games...more than 50 newer dancers have now registered for our new class - they're picking up very fast and are very obviously enjoying their first taste of square dancing...our hoedown with JEANNE MOODY was another big one - the fine calling brought on excellent reactions from the dancers, and GABE'S group did it again, with muffin pizzas this time...coming up on Dec. 11th is our first beginners hoedown with GEORGE DREIER and HOWARD sharing the mike - please do encourage your newer dancers to join us.

PONY WHEELS of San Francisco...RUSS PHILLIPS returned from a vacation tour of the British Isles and some lovely places in Europe; MARGE RODGERS is back from an auto trip East, including Washington, DC; and ELENA DeZORDO departed for Australia to see how the roses grow "down under" - she is on a Rose Society tour, studying soil, species, and Heaven knows what. Interesting visitors from the VALLEY SQUARES of Beaverton, Oregon were Pres. & First Lady, RALPH & NINA BLOIS, who were in San Francisco for a convention... Congratulations to newlyweds, CHARLIE & ISABEL ORR - ISABEL is in our beginners class and she promised to "love, honor, and square dance" ... we almost won a jumbo coffee pot at the COTTON PICKERS hoe-down in Hayward, but the EDEN ROCKERS outnumbered us by one!; they wanted it for their dance the following Saturday, and some of us got to that one, too, both real fun and superbly called by JIM MORK and ROGER MORRIS...and we are happily dancing to many great callers on this side of the Bay, too... a good time to remind everyone to reserve the first Sunday in December for happy dancing at the big Choo-Choo Benefit Dance, with those wonderful callers who donate their time and talent every year, and those heart-warming "Cameron Kids," who are what it's all about.

SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY SQUARE DANCERS ASS'N.

Tom & Maybelle Dope

Our first Sunday Association meeting was well attended and some good ideas were discussed and action taken to improve future festivities. We are to have a guest caller for our 5th Saturday Hoedown in January at the Growers Hall in Stockton. Inviting many dancers to attend to assist our Beginners as you were once - grateful for a helpful hand.

The many followers of ROGER MORRIS had a good time with many CAMELLIA SQUARES of Sacramento at Angelo's Hall in Columbia on Sunday the 10th, with Fresno, Stockton, Livermore and Sonora well represented: followed with a picnic of salads, corned beef, roast beef and fried chicken with soft drinks and feeding four picnic tables of guests.

RHYTHM 8'S - October 23, BRUCE JOHNSON of Santa Barbara called a starting dance that ended after 11:30 and the refreshments satisfied all who attended. RHYTHM 8's are having KEN BOWER, January 3 - FRANK LANE, February 12 - MARSHALL FLIPPO, February 14; these are ticket dances and already they are moving very good.

JACKSON CLAIM JUMPERS are to have Mondays for workshop and beginners with Jan. 8th a Beginner's Dance and JOE VALLERY will call a variety to please those attending.

LODI PROMENADERS - workshop on Tuesdays and have a good beginner class on Thursdays at Larry Nichols School, Feb. 3rd. Saturday is the class date. April 3 is their Anniversary Date and DICK HOULTON will arrange a good program - so mark these dates.

BOOTS & BONNETS - have joined with Lodi Promenaders in beginners on Thursday evenings.

PAIRS OF FOUR have started their beginners class Oct. 4 and each Tuesday the teenagers can get dance programs at the Weberstown Mall Auditorium. RAY MORRIS, caller, really cares to help anyone 12-20 years between 7 and 9 p.m.

San Andreas Teens have a good start and anyone on Monday nights can get instructions at the Town Hall, 8-10 p.m.

Other news for clubs could be bigger and helpful should anyone care to get the news to your Club secretary who in turn report to the Association.

The last item of interest to those who really could help themselves and others is to take up Square Dancing for good health, recreation and good fellowship and many friends would if invited to visit a club hoe-down to see square dancing in action.

The Valleydancers have stated the Harvest Hoedown of Superior, Calif. S/D Association will be their next supported affair because of the fine attendance at our "Fun Festival."

(Send your news to me by the 25th of the month to the above address.)

Y-NOTS of Modesto celebrated our Second Anniversary with 28 squares attending. Guest caller, JOE VALLERY did a wonderful job of calling and we thank all the dancers who came to celebrate with us, especially the CERES TWISTERS who cancelled their scheduled dance in order to attend. Our club reciprocated by attending their Spook Special, en masse. We have 5 squares of enthusiastic new dancers with caller, RAY DWIGGINS, teaching. We are looking forward to "Okie night", our next big event.

CERES TWISTERS as a group, attended the annual Owl Dance put on by Manteca TRAILBLAZERS. Guest caller was JIM FUSARO and everyone had an enjoyable evening. Two squares attended SWING DING DANDIES' Anniversary Dance with guest caller, ERNIE KINNEY reported having a fun evening. Our Spook Special was a "howling" success with prizes won for different categories. Little LIZA PETTIE won for being a cute kitty. Best lady prize was won by MARILYN BROWN, best man won by LOU BURWELL. Best couple prize went to LAWRENCE & BERNICE LOVELADY who went as GROUCHO and friend, and best dressed boy was RONNIE GUSMAN. Our new dancers class is just started and our members are coming out to support the class. Our next big event is a "Barn Dance," will report on that next time.

Stockton PEAT DUSTERS' members, HERB & HAZEL HEIM spent their vacation on BOB PAGE'S cruise to Alaska aboard the Princess Italia. They received the "Hands Across The Border" badge. HERB & HAZEL also were the first couple in Central California S/D Association to receive the "Friendship" Badge. They had to visit all the clubs in the Association, attend the CUP OF GOLD and two 5th Saturday dances, then visit the Association meeting. We, the PEAT DUSTERS, are very proud of them. At our recent party night, several of our past members came out. It is so nice to have them dancing with us again. We are sorry to report that RICHARD & RITA GIBSON are not dancing because of illness, we miss them and hope they can get back soon. Those who attended the Owl Dance in Manteca were HERB & HAZEL, the AXTELLS and WILLHOLTS. GENE & ELVA POLLOCK visited the TOP HAT 8'S in Redwood City and danced to the calling of MARV LINDNER. Our caller and taw, RALPH & ARBRA journeyed to Alaska to call for the Northern Lights Festival at Anchorage. They report that Northern Hospitality is "out of this world." Our 3rd Saturday dance with guest caller, KENNY STEEN was a real success with twelve squares of lively dancers. A square of KATY DIDS came with KENNY. We enjoyed having the pleasure of dancing with you and with all the dancers who came.

Modesto SQUARENADERS' members, BOB & BETH FOUST were out for potluck supper and workshop. It was good to see them after a long siege of illness. RAY GILLUM called workshop as caller, RALPH & ARBRA went to Alaska. As always RAY did a splendid job and we are fortunate that he is available. Several of our members attended Y-NOTS second anniversary dance with JOE VALLERY as guest caller and also the SWING DING DANDIES' anniversary with ERNIE KINNEY as guest caller. Also our traveling members, the RACKLEYS MADDOUXS, and BROWNS attended London Bridge Square and Round Dance Festival at Lake Havasu City, Arizona. Guest callers were RON VIZARD from England and MORRIS SEVADA of Parker, Arizona. Approximately 1200 dancers attended this event and it was very interesting and unusual. Our New Dancers are doing just fine, our members still coming out every week to help out, if needed. We are looking forward to the holidays coming up and then our big event, our 21st Anniversary Dance.

CLEARLAKE SQUARES...October, one of the favorite months in Lake County, found club members trailering again. Not very far this time. The first weekend was spent at Mendocino Lake and while there they danced with the UKIAH PROMENADERS. Some also gathered rocks for their yards. A delicious pot-luck dinner was enjoyed. All reported having a wonderful time. The 2nd Saturday quite a number danced with KON-OCTI KICKERS and as usual had a good time there too. Not enough rocks were gathered by some on the first outing so off to Cache Creek for more and another picnic was held and then on the spot, a decision to finish the outing by prune picking. Never know what these CLEARLAKE SQUARES are going to do next. Some of the other dances visited this month were CRIS CHRISTOPHERSON'S club in Garberville (another weekend outing for some), STANISLAUS STUMPLERS, and HARBOR LITE FOOTERS. Our own hoe-down with DOROTHY GANGER was attended by the following clubs, and we do thank them for visiting us: DIXIE SPINNERS

(they all showed up in their colorful old-fashioned ginghamdresses, bonnets and shirts) OUTER PACERS, LAS CASITAS WHEELS, KONOCTI KICKERS, ROCKIN' K'S, and CLEARLAKE SWINGERS. Workshop with 'SPARKY' goes on as usual and with his teaching all the new basics it really keeps us on our toes. All the Rounddancers really appreciate the half hour before workshop with 'SPARKY' & LOUISE helping us with rounds we forget so easily... Looking forward now to our November Hoedown with MILT ADAMS on Nov. 27 and then the New Year's Eve dance with 'SPARKY'. The calendar seems to say it is time to wish everyone a very Happy Holiday Season and the best of Health and Good Dancing in 1972.

CLEARLAKE SWINGERS' beginners class for families is progressing very good and well attended. 'SPARKY' SPARKS is the instructor and they are dancing at the Eastlake School every Thursday. So nice that families do have the opportunity to learn to square dance at the same time.

KONOCTI KICKERS are looking forward to their December 11 Holiday Hoedown, with 'SPARKY' SPARKS calling for them. A new beginner class was started Oct. 6th, with more than one square of new teen-age dancers among those starting. The teens who have been graduating from the last two beginners classes have chosen lavender, purple and white for their colors, with the girls in lavenderdresses trimmed in white lace & the fellows in purple cords with white or lavender shirts. They join with young people from CLEARLAKE SQUARES to travel to out-of-county dances whenever their busy school schedule permits... The club misses one of its charter members, LOIS O'CONNER, who died in September. She and her husband TOM have danced with the club since 1962, and have always been there to share in the work and the fun times.

(PLEASE NOTE: Box number is 145 for mailing. Thanks a lot and have a wonderful Holiday Season.)

San Jose & South Bay

SQUARES & FIARES have been busy as usual this October. Some of the gals have finished their new club dresses. Also going to hoedowns and visiting clubs in their Dogpatch costumes.

Have divided our members so some would attend most of the hoedowns... Our Beginners are doing fine and we enjoy dancing with them... Most of us went to the Jubilee, and some to the after party... Sorry so many haven't been able to find our school. It is off Senter on Sylvandale. South of Capital Expressway... MARIE & JOE HOMEN visited DOROTHY & TED TETZ. Came to BOOTS & BLOOMERS' "Spook Hop," and our picnic on the next day at Levin Park. All fun! LEA GENUNG learned not to pick the prickly pear, the hard way! Delicious food and nice hike to see the old cemetery... Oct. 27 was our Halloween costume party. "Tweety Bird," ROSE THOMAN, "Little Miss Muffet," RON FRITTS, "Little Girl & Boy," NANCY & JIM McWHORTER, won the prizes. Well picked! GENE & FERN WOOD, made it another fun party.

BACHELORS & BACHELOTTES... Attention: Single men and women who square dance. Looking for the place to go on Tuesdays? Our club is the place to be. Join us and our caller DICK GILBERT any Tuesday at Hyde School and discover what fun is all about. We closed Oct. with a costume Halloween Party. Have you ever danced with clowns, mice, harem girls, etc. We did and you can't believe the fun! This just capped off a really beautiful month that saw our club travel, 28 strong, to San Luis Obispo for our International Anniversary Dance plus after-party and after-after parties till six in the morning. Who needs a motel room? Then the following Saturday we headed north by auto to dance with our Sacramento chapter at their Anniversary Dance and after-party. Along with this we managed to learn a new Round Dance and danced each Tuesday. We all miss seeing our GINNY RIPLEY and MICKEY CORRIE who are on the sick list.

MELODY SQUARES... A hearty welcome to our new board: VIC & BETTY SHAFER, Pres.; JIM & MARIE QUERRY, Vice Pres.; RAY & EDITH RABAU, Secty.; DON & HELEN LOCKE Treas.; LOUIE & BETTY LEMOS, Hospitality; JACKIE & STEVE STEPHENSON, Publicity and PAT & FRANK OWENS, MEMBERSHIP. Many thanks to outgoing officers for a job well done. Welcome to our newest members: BETH & BOB ELLSWORTH and SONNY & BOB FRIEDMAN. MELODY SQUARES choose the KRAZY DAZIES hoedown with LEE HEISEL as the "Hoedown of the Month" of October and really enjoyed some fine dancing. Our thanks to the JOKERS for making our October party night such a ball. Our party night is the 4th Tuesday.

BOOTS 'N BLOOMERS would like to thank all of you for making our Anniversary "Spook Stomp" such a success. The clever costumes made identification most difficult. Were those corpses really real? Our new class is doing so well that they want "to try their wings" in public so you will be hearing from us soon. Our club members, being filled with enthusiasm for Fall and Winter season are now embarking on a new way to get our Round Dancing into our evening. We will concentrate the first half hour of our regular dance night on brush-up and learning the new rounds so we can keep up with all you "smoothies". We are all working very hard to make Square and Round Dancing THE Social thing to do in our Community. Have a wonderful Thanksgiving.

SILVER DOLLARS... DAN LUBARSKY will take over the job as Vice President in place of SYD MORGAN. Many thanks to SYD & SHERRIL for a job well done. Long distance travelers recently were KEITH & RUTH BOZEMAN who went to Mexico. It has been good to have DICK HODGES visit us recently. Added to the club roster as new members are KEN & SUE CAPI, GORDON & JOAN PETERS, BOB & MARY LOU RADER, and KEN & LUCY STEEN.

FREMONT GOOFERS had a busy month, enjoyed party night with FARMERS AND FARMERETTES and hearing PAT McQUAID at the VALLEY TRAVELERS hoedown. Our Halloween hoedown caller, NONIE MOLLIA, was great. Beginners class is moving along with much enthusiasm. Welcome back to the SEBESTAS, nice to have you dancing with us again. Congratulations to the ODOMS on the arrival of their new son! Officers for the new term are President, DENNY & ELLY WALTER; V. Pres., KEN & BARB KRATOCHVIL; Secty., DON & LORRAINE HARRIS; Treas., JIM & GINGER PROCTOR; Couple at Large, ED & CHARLENE BLACK; Delegates, WAGNER & HELEN GUDMUNSON and Publicity, CHUCK & PEARL HARDEN.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS... It was good seeing RAY & MARIE MAGORNO visiting with the club especially after his surgery. Let's have a fast recovery RAY, and back to dancing. Many of the club members enjoyed dancing with JIM MORK, BOB PAGE and BOB FISK at various hoedowns during October. Many thanks to these clubs that gave such wonderful hoedowns. Did you really know who was behind those masks and beautiful costumes at our Halloween masquerade party? Hope our new beginners had as much fun as we did. The SKIRTS & FLIRTS wish at this time to extend happy and joyous wishes to all the club families, friends, and all square dancers on the upcoming holidays. I wonder if there's a special badge for dancing in a square with Santa Claus? See you in '72!

ALLEMANDE GRANDS again were house guests of PAUL BRATEN, one of our members, at his summer place at Clearlake, where we spent the weekend of September 24-25. While there, we attended the hoedown party of CLEARLAKE SQUARES, with "SPARKY" SPARKS at the mike. Our own caller, NORM McLEOD, was invited to do a tip. Oh, that food. Potluck they called it! More like a well planned feast. Oct. 1st we welcomed our new beginner dancers into the club, with NORM doing the teaching. Their first night was a lot of fun for them. DAN & BRIDGETT FARKAS, of Piedmont, and formerly from upper New York state have joined our intermediate group. Some of us visited HUFFS 'N PUFFS, with KEN BISHOP as guest caller. Then the CHECKMATES with JIM MORK calling. Oct. 23 the RIPSNORTERS with the great calling of ARNIE KRONENBERGER. We have been invited to join the 5th Friday hoedown group and we are looking forward to some great fun.

ACES & LACES... Oct. 21 found eight couples caravanning to Salinas to dance with our own ED LOONEY, and COUNTRY SWINGERS. Everyone reports a great trip and lots of fun. Our annual Halloween party was held on Oct. 27 and a hard times theme was carried out. I hope that times are not really as hard as some of the costumes indicated or some of our members may be in trouble. A mystery guest, a lovely blonde lady, was the cause of many whispers and comments until it was learned that she was our own BOB COLEMAN. As always this is the night for lots of laughs and loads of fun. The topping for the evening was the delicious pumpkin pie and whipped cream served by our ladies.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS express sincere sympathy to our caller, RONNIE GRIFFITH

(and his family) on the loss of his wife, DOROTHY. Words cannot express how deeply we feel and how much we share their sorrow. DOROTHY was special to all of us. We can only hope that our many prayers, thoughts and remembrances will convey how truly special she was. HARRY SMITH is recovering nicely after his surgery and MAGGIE PERKINS, no longer in a wheel chair, is looking great. Oct. 19th Halloween party night we were visited by Raggedy Ann and Andy, pirates, a little boy and girl, gypsies, Spanish dancers and a mystery creature, hunchbacked, dragging an axe and covered from head to toe with a variety of garb, it frightened most of the ladies and made all curious. Who could it be? CLETUS BROWN, of course! Refreshments and our amateur callers, STEVE FROST, JACK HOTT, BARRY MAURER and JOHN BROGDEN. JOHN STRONG called our Oct. 2nd Hoedown.

ALAMEDA WAGON WHEELERS...Early in September some club members danced on the Mall at South Shore Shopping Center to help publicize Square Dance Week. It was a beautiful day and for some of us, our first experience dancing out-of-doors...We are now back at Washington School for workshop nights after dancing all summer at Woodstock Recreation Center. We have a large and enthusiastic Beginners Class with many intermediates giving a helping hand. WAGON WHEELERS and SQUARE CROWS got together for a joint potluck dinner - good food, good dancing and good company - a combination that's hard to beat. Glad to see BOB & JULIE LAHTI again after the summer vacation, but why did JULIE have to break her arm? Hope to have CEDRIC LARSON back dancing soon. He has had a bad back and was in the hospital for a while...We are pleased to welcome ELLA & EDWIN CALHOUN and MARTY & ANDY ANDERSON as intermediate members of our club. On Oct. 16th the club held their 20th Anniversary hoedown - 21 clubs were represented. SQUARE CROWS won a loving cup for having the most members present - hope they all enjoyed the nice bottle of wine that went along with the cup. BOB PAGE called his usual great night of dancing and really kept us all moving. The after-party was held at the Pizza Factory with JIM GADBERRY, ANDY ANDERSON and club caller, ED FERRARIO doing the calling. FRANK & ROSEMARY GAGE, up from Southern California for the hoedown. FRANK is attending Callers' School and he tried his calling skills at the after-party. A wonderful way to end a perfect evening.

COTTON PICKERS were very busy in the month of October. We were guests of the FARMERS & FARMERETTES on Party night. Those delicious cakes they do serve! We attended SQUARECROWS hoedown with LEE HELSEL calling, the CHECKMATES with JIM MORK calling and KEEWAY SWINGERS with BOB PAGE. The JIM DANDIES were host for the 5th Friday Round Robin. Many clubs and their callers were in attendance, and a good time was had by all. Congratulations to JENNIE & J. STEWART on the birth of their new grand-daughter, DENISE LYNN.

EDENROCKERS...September seemed to be particularly busy for us. We were very happy to be host on the 5th Wednesday to KUNTRY KUZINS, EAGLE SQUARES, FREMONT GOOFERS and ACES & LACES. Thanks to all the good calling and dedicated fun loving dancers we all had a good time. Dedicated - yes - it was pouring down rain. The beginners class is coming along fine. Many of the more experienced dancers are helping when they can. One beginner anxious to learn comes to watch the regular workshop classes and finds herself being called in a square minus shoes, and being pushed, pulled and shoved in different directions (all in fun, of course), you're a good sport JEAN, soon you'll be goofing with the rest of us.

KUNTRY KUZINS are sorry to lose CHUCK & JUANITA GAINER, having danced with them such a short time. Good luck to them in their new home in Oregon. Our club was represented by one square at St. Edwards Church for their Festival. Also two squares danced with FRED calling at Holy Spirit Church, and two squares danced at PATH-FINDERS program on Saturday night. I'm sure everyone will agree that our hayride was a huge success - KEEWAY SWINGERS were our guests, good food, good dancing and great straw, wonder if all the shoes were found. Party night in October was in honor of our new beginners, a real fine group of people. Everyone enjoyed the calling of BOB PAGE at KEEWAY SWINGERS' anniversary hoedown. Plans for our Christmas Party are coming along nicely.

KEEWAY SWINGERS had some who attended COTTON PICKERS anniversary dance with JIM MORK calling and some who traveled to Stockton for the weekend with a few joining them there on Sunday. Sunday we danced to RALPH SILVIUS who filled in until DON FRANKLIN arrived. Oct. 2nd we went to visit TWO BY FOURS and danced to ERNIE KINNEY while others went to TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS with JOHN STRONG calling. Oct. 16 we visited the GOOFERS with NONIE MOGLIA calling. Some of us accepted an invitation for a Hayride from KUNTRY KUZINS. We had barbecued hamburgers, beans, and salads with dancing before and after the hayride. Our callers were FRED WILLIAMS, LEE BUCKINGHAM, DORRY ELLIOT, DALE ELWOOD and JOHN MORGAD. If I overlooked anyone my apologies. We thank the KUZINS for their hospitality. Had a great time. Our 5th Anniversary with BOB PAGE doing the honors - our "small world" theme fit in with the opening of BOB'S new travel agency.

ALAMEDA OTTA BENS found Oct. a busy month. Along with all the plans and work being done on our up-coming Jamboree the OTTA BENS have visited a hoedown every Saturday and really enjoyed the dancing. The interest and helping hands shown us by other club members and their callers concerning the Jamboree has been fantastic. So many have come forth and offered to help in any way possible. All we can say is thanks so very much, no one will ever know how deeply we appreciate your kindness. We were visited by ALAMEDA WAGON WHEELERS, MOONSHINERS, TEEN TWIRLERS and CONCORD REBELS. ED & BETTY FERRARIO came down and extended an invitation to the OTTA BENS to try out for the STARDETTES. At this writing there are 11 OTTA BENS that have joined and really love it. Thanks a lot, ED & BETTY.

EAGLE SQUARES were sorry to hear of the death of LLOYD RAHN'S mother and of BETTY COATES' mother. Our sincere condolences are extended to BETTY & BOB and LLOYD & JEAN... The EDENROCKERS hosted the president and delegate dinner this year, which was attended and enjoyed by our president and delegate... believe it or not, it seems to be time for nominating committee to get into the swing of things again, they are the BRADLEYS, KAGEES, SAMARDQICHS and LINCICOMES. They will be on the look out for good prospects! Almost everyone got in the Halloween spirit for our costume party. The judges had a hard time deciding the winners, but it turned out that JOHN & DEE TAYLOR had the most original costumes, ARNE & ROSEMARY BRADLEY had the ugliest costumes, DEL ORES KAGEE had the most daring costume (oo-la-la), DON & MARION HEITMAN had the best dressed costumes. We would like to welcome DON & ELIZABETH FRAZIER into our club.

CLUTCH BUSTERS...With the summer bowling league over and TOM & MARILYN BAKER, LORETTA O'CALLAGHAN and CECIL SHORT walking off with the top honors, we now bowl once a month just for fun...Our annual camping trip to Calaveras was as much fun as ever. Over 100 people attended. We swam, hiked, sang by the campfire and even square danced...We celebrated our 15th Anniversary with a banquet at the Concord Inn, then danced to the fine calling of DICK HOULTON, followed by a mod after-party.

CONCORD STOMPERS elected three new couples into office in October. Our new Vice President team is KIRBY & JOHN MATTHEWS; Treasurers, JEWELL & ROY COGGIN and Publicity, CAROLYN & BILL OLSON. Our congratulations and best wishes for a successful year. From the out-going officers, it has been a pleasure serving the club. A special thanks to NANCY & DOUG DRUMMOND who served as treasurers for seven years. We appreciate all your time invested with the STOMPERS...The first Fall hoedown, called by BOB PAGE, was lots of fun and a good crowd attended. Door prizes were also given and several couples had come quite a distance to dance. For a successful hoedown thank you for attending.

DIABLO DOPPERS recently were privileged to participate as part of the entertainment in a charity benefit party, sponsored by the Contra Costa County Lawyers' Wives' Club, held at the Buckeye Ranch in Lafayette. Before the show the guests, including the DOPPERS, were taken on an old-fashioned hayride then fed royally from an open-pit barbecue till it's surprising they could stand up and dance. The DOPPERS exhibition dancing was so successful that the guests all joined in and the party ended as one huge hilarious beginners class ably directed by our wonderful caller VERN SEAGOE.

RIPSNORTERS' chief project for October was the 15th Anniversary hoedown on Oct. 23rd, with ARNIE KRONENBERGER as guest caller. Colorful streamers and balloons, and "happy-face" stickers for the guests set the mood and the enthusiastic dancers and responsive caller made the evening a huge success. The after-party at PJ's, where much of the crowd re-assembled for pizza, etc., was also fun...Our members have been visiting other club dances, too; the SMITHS to Vallejo for the PIONEERS' hoedown; THOMSONS, SLOANS, COSTELLOS, EARLS and BRADLEYS to GUYS & DOLLS' dance; SLOANS to the REBELS; COPLEYS to VALLEY TRAVELERS' hoedown; and WILSONS, PAULS, REESERS, CORYS, STANLEYS and KRATINAS attended the Stockton Fun Festival... October finished up in a flurry of fanciful costumes at a Halloween party.

JACKS & JENNYS...The cold months are here again, and we are again dancing at the Crawford School in Concord. October was a very busy month for the club. Our hoedown on the 23rd was a success and we thank you for attending. Met many dancers from far away - San Leandro, San Francisco, San Rafael and Napa. Thanks again for visiting us. ERNIE KINNEY was in great form as usual. He even had a great singing call that he brought back from So. Carolina...A Happy Birthday to our great club caller AL PENNY. And AL, be careful with the saw.

TWILITE TWIRLERS are six months old and on the trail of becoming a good-sized club. August was a sad month for us, as our fearless caller LEE BUCKINGHAM was in the hospital. But he has returned and we are on the trail again. Sept. 18 was our first hoedown which RAY SANCHEZ and LEE BUCKINGHAM split the program. October was a month to remember, it found us at various hoedowns and pushing for a beginner class. Oct. 16 was the night the gang was spotted at GUYS & DOLLS hoedown. The whole gang had a good time and ran off with most of the door prizes. Oct. 17, we were riding the streets of Martinez on a 150 horsepower flat-bed stagecoach? Which, when it stopped, 22 cowboys and girls jumped off, and danced a few tips to the calling of dead-eye BUCKINGHAM, to promote our beginners class. At the end of the line was dinner at the Koerber's 5-K Bar Chuck Wagon. We are planning a posse to go over to JACKS & JENNYS "Ranch Hoedown".

GUYS & DOLLS are happy to report that their beginners class is really jumping, keeping up good attendance and lots of enthusiasm. The past month has been a busy time for the intermediates. Members attended the CONCORD STOMPERS hoedown on Oct. 2, made a trip to the Chief Petty Officers' Club at Mare Island on the 8th, and attended the CONCORD REBELS hoedown on the 9th. So it was a busy time... CHUCK WAYNE and the band supplied the music at the CPO Club and BILL CASTNER did some calling, so that between ballroom and square dancing everyone had a full evening...On Oct. 16 the club hosted their own hoedown...JEANNIE MOODY did the calling and everyone enjoyed the evening. Sunday, Oct. 23 a group attended a western night affair at the Red Rooster restaurant in Walnut Creek. The SQUARENADERS and BILL CASTNER were included in the entertainment of the evening. It was a very enjoyable evening and, of course, the good western chuck-wagon food helped too... Plans are now under way for the beginners hoedown at Ygnacio Hi on Nov. 13.

LAZY EIGHTS...October has been a very busy month. Two couples attended DIXIE SPINNERS' hoedown, Oct. 2, and had a swinging time. Oct. 6, two squares of 8's traveled to CONCORD REBELS' hoedown, where they received a pretty red badge. Oct. 18, six couples attended the Benefit Hoedown of Montalvin Park Auxiliary. Oct. 23, five couples enjoyed RANCHO WRANGLERS' Halloween hoedown. All the hoedowns proved stimulating dancing, exceptional calling, and delightful refreshments. We visited many neighboring clubs this month. We met many fine square dancers at the workshops of RANCHO WRANGLERS, ROLLING SQUARES, PISTOLS 'N PETTI-

COATS, DIXIE SPINNERS and BUZZIN' CUZZINS ... BERT SWERER was our guest caller for our Oct. 8 workshop. Thanks BERT for a fine job of calling. Oct. 15, AL MASON was our guest caller. Thank you, AL, for being such a good sport, you made a great mummy and we enjoyed your calling. Oct. 15 we also hosted the 4-District meeting and enjoyed dancing with delegates after the meeting... Everyone is welcome to visit us on Friday nights, at El Sobrante Elementary School, Hilltop and Manor Road.

5 STAR SQUARES... Many thanks to those 13 squares of dancers who attended our 6th Anniversary Hoedown held the last Saturday in September. Twelve clubs were represented and enjoyed the calling of ELMER RADCLIFFE of Concord. SHIRLEY REED, our Refreshment Chairman, did her usual outstanding job with the ladies of the club answering her call for cold cuts, salads and cakes. MERTIE QUARTERMAN displayed her artistic talents in a beautiful decorated cake to suit the occasion. An after-party was held at Westside Pizza where 3 squares enjoyed the calling of our own DAVE HOBAUGH and the BARNSTORMERS' ELDON GILES of Fairfield... At the business meeting plans were finalized for the Dec. 11 hoedown with DON SHOTWELL at the mike. This hoedown will be held in Napa at Silverado Jr. High on Coombsville Road... Visiting with us this month were dancers from PIONEERS, BUZZSTEPPERS, BOOTHEEL RAMBLERS, VALLEJO SINGLES, PALS & SALS and the WINE COUNTRY REBELS. Workshops are held on Tuesdays at the Welcome Grange on Hagen Road and the welcome mat is always out for visitors. We round dance from 7-8 and square dance from 8-10:30. Congratulations were extended to DON REED on his birthday and to anniversary celebrants DON & SHIRLEY REED and caller DAVE & SANDY HOBAUGH. A cake, decorated by EULA BRISTOW, was shared by all to celebrate the occasion. A pleasant surprise was in store for caller DAVE in the form of fan club badges and also with the joining of two new members: MARV & MARCIA POMERINKE and AL & JOY VIERA. It's nice to have you with us. The Travelin' Trail found DAVE & SANDY HOBAUGH, DON & TOMMY WARNOCK, BILL McBAIN and LUCILE CARRELL, PAT & EULA BRISTOW, CARL & MERTIE QUARTERMAN, MOON & SIS CAFFO and JACK & NEL SCHMIDT representing the club at the following hoedowns: PALS & SALS, SQUARE WHEELERS, CONCORD STOMPERS, WINE COUNTRY REBELS, PIONEERS; BUZZSTEPPERS and WESTERN STARS. We were happy to have had the opportunity to assist WESTERN STARS, Napa's Teen Club, with their hoedown. Like many teen clubs, they have been having problems making both ends meet. A call was sent out to caller JIM GOULD (Country Squares and Sharp Swingers); ELDON GILES (Barnstormers); ROY BIRDSONG (Pals & Sals & Boots & Belles); and DAVE HOBAUGH (5 Star Squares), who responded without hesitation. FRANK AZLIN (Do-C-Do) was in attendance and also called. There were 131 dancers and believe me, we had a ball! DAVE did an excellent job of MC and overseer. We wish to thank these generous callers for their help to support our teens. HARLAN & NONNIE HOPP our club advisors should also be recognized for their fine work with this club.

CATCH ALL EIGHTS... Wish to express our sincere gratitude to all our friends who supported our 2nd Anniversary hoedown. We were certainly pleased to see everyone enjoying themselves while dancing to the expert calling of RALPH SILVIUS, that boy really knows how to get the best out of square dancers. We hope to have him with us again next year. HERB & BETSY WORSTER were still on their extended vacation last month. Our caller, DAVE STEVENS, started the season off with a bang and kept everyone on their toes. The passing of BILL & BETTY CRAWFORD in October came as a shocking blow to their friends and especially to former LADS & LASSIES. They were members of that club for about four years. Natural causes took them within 3 hours of each other.

WINE COUNTRY REBELS... Officers are: Pres., BILL ROBERTSON; Vice Pres., RAL- EIGH NEWELL; and Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. EVERETT "PAT" PARKER. The retiring officers were presented with gifts in appreciation of their year's work... Club members did lots of traveling: Jamboree in Richmond; DO-C-DO'S hoedown in Vallejo; BUZZ- STEPPERS: BOOTHEEL RAMBLERS, 1st Annual Grape Festival, 5 STARS of Napa; MARKWESTERNERS of Santa Rosa; PALS & SALS of Vacaville; ADOBE SQUARES of Petaluma and the 5th Annual Fun Festival in Stockton... New location for Wednesday workshops is the Robert L. Stevenson School in St. Helena. A new hardwood floor was installed during the summer vacation. DON ATKINS is the club caller. Beginners from 7:30-9 and intermediates from 9-10:30, with 3rd Wednesday party night. LARRY & JUDY PARADY have been receiving congratulations on the birth of their 2nd son (sure to be a future square dancer)...DON & BETTY GREGORY have been welcomed back after an absence of some time due to moving...Everyone is happy that RALPH LENZ is back home after a siege at the UC Hospital in San Francisco. Hope he will be back dancing soon...Big event for the club was the October 9 hoedown with CAL GOLDEN of Hot Springs, Arkansas calling. 23 square dance clubs were in attendance and enjoyed the humor and friendliness of CAL. He has been invited back for a hoedown in 1972. Pres. BILL ROBERTSON and wife, KATE, were hosts at their home for dinner for CAL & SHARON GOLDEN.

MUSTANGS...We are looking forward to our Dec. 11th Anniversary Dance at Downer Jr. High with BOB PAGE calling...We followed him to CONCORD STOMPERS' Oct. 2nd dance. The gracious DeBARROWS held an after-party until the wee hours of the morning. Attending were the: HARTS, LAFLINS, LEIGHS, NOISIS, RANDOLPHS, PIKES, SILVYS, STEINS, WARDS, WOOLEYS, ZIMMERMANS, and BOB & NITA. BOB called for GINGHAM SQUARES' 16th Anniversary Hoedown. The same group attended plus the: McPHERSONS, WOODFIELDS, DeBARROWS and myself and date Mr. GARY HANTK. About 1/2 of the group attended the dance he called in Alameda, at the WAGON WHEELERS on Saturday. BILLIE MORGAN, wife of the Vice Pres. of NCSDA, JIM MORGAN, underwent serious surgery this month. Happy to report BILLIE is home and progressing nicely. Hope they will be dancing soon...Our open workshop has been a real success.

RANCHO WRANGLERS...It will be nice having all our members back dancing when the hunting season is over. The DIETRICKS have been gone over a month to their mountain retreat. GARY HAYS had a wonderful time on his vacation in Hawaii. We had a very good hoedown in October, with MILT ADAMS calling. Our new Gofer of the Month is THELMA GOBB. 3rd Wednesday of each month is party night.

BUZZIN' CUZZINS...Party nights have been pretty special. In October, with our beginners class starting, the JOHNSONS and LESSLERS provided delectable cheese-cake (both tasteful and eyefull) and our beginners had a chance to socialize as well as go through their square dance lessons. We are pleased with the way the new dancers are catching on and with the way CHUCK & WANDA are training them. We hear that we in the El Cerrito schools may not be able to dance beyond 10 p.m. after the first of the year, so watch the listings. November party night was moved to October 28 so that we could play with the spooks and the goblins; costumes ran the usual nutty gamut, and the PIERCES and ERWINS were the clever hosts for the evening. During October CUZZINS' visited hoedowns of CONCORD REBELS, ROLLING SQUARES, RIPSNOTTERS and we enjoyed visitors from LAZY EIGHTS and others. In December our party night will be held on December 16.

ADOBE SQUARES...BUD GRASS was our guest caller for October and called a really fine program. If one has ever danced to BUD's calling, guess you know how fast he calls and keeps the dancers on their toes. I don't have a list of clubs represented at the dance but thank all of the dancers who attended. Host and hostess for the evening were RAY & LEONA WESTER and serving refreshments were: TOM BARNHILL, LEONA GIBSON, BETTY HAMILTON, and HAROLD & LEONA CARLSON. The door committee included JOHN & JOYCE LANSDON, BOB & SUE KELLOGG and CAROL & FRED KOBEL, FRANK & HELEN DOTTLING were in charge of decorations. Club members have been busy visiting other clubs and those visited recently were: RUSTLERS, OUTER PACERS, NOVATO SQUARES STUMP JUMPERS, MARKWESTERNERS, and CIRCLE 'N SQUARES. Many members are planning on attending the Stampede in Oct. Our beginners class is coming along real fast, under the guidance of our club caller, RALPH THOMAS. JACK LOGAN will be our caller for our 1st Saturday dance in November. January we will not have a dance due to New Years. February will be an anniversary dance. Hope to see you at some of our dances and workshops. Merry Christmas and happy dancing.

MARKWESTERNERS... We are sorry to report this month that JAN ATKINSON and HELEN PARKER had surgery; CLEO CULLY was in the hospital in traction. DELORES SEYMOUR and ALTHEA LAABS have ailing backs and our treasurer, JACKIE LaFRANCHI was struck by a car while in a crosswalk. JACKIE is home from the hospital, but still terribly bruised. Our best wishes to all and hurry back! LEE BATT celebrated his birthday this month and KEN & BETTY KENISTON their anniversary. We had many Old Timers turn out for the delicious pies on our Pie Nite. How nice to see them again. A Halloween decorated hall greeted PAT McQUAID for our 3rd Saturday hoedown. What an excellent dance he called! CLEO & CLINT CULLY and MARIAN & ED HACZELA were the Hosts and Hostesses for this month.

UKIAH PROMENADERS ... Oct. 1st Hoedown was attended by BILL DAVIS, guest caller, and his lovely wife, CATHY, who are from San Mateo. ROADRUNNERS. Guests who came to enjoy BILL'S calling were: CLEARLAKE SQUARES, FRONTIER TWIRLERS, CABLE CARS of S.F., 5 STAR SQUARES ... Election of officers: Pres., RUSTY ANDERSON; Vice Pres., WARD GALBREATH; Secty., JANE ZEEK; Treas., SANDY FOX; Publicity, MARY BELLETICH; Host & Hostess JEAN & CHUCK WATSON, JOAN & ROY SORENSON. Thanks to the past officers, they have done a fine job. 2 squares of PROMENADERS traveled to Santa Rosa to celebrate the 13th Anniversary of MARKWESTERNERS', a Hawaiian theme was enjoyed by all. Starting a new beginners class on Nov. 5 with JERRY FOSTER as instructor ... BERT HOOVER has recovered from his hip operation and is back on the job.

SINGLE 8'S of Santa Rosa held a party on Oct. 15, at the Native Sons Hall on Mendocino Avenue in Santa Rosa for SHERRY KUHN and LARRY HUDSON, who will be Mr. & Mrs. by the time this goes to press. GEORGE HOLLOWAY, who is SHERRY'S boss, was master of ceremonies with callers from the floor, including our former club caller, KEITH GYLFE, from Novato. A nice crowd showed up to wish SHERRY & LARRY happiness. Cake and coffee were served and square dancing was enjoyed by all attending. Our new club caller is VERN CHURCHILL of Rohnert Park.

QUESTION MARKS' 4th Saturday hoedown was a very enjoyable evening for everyone attending. ERNIE KINNEY always does a bang-up job. Also glad to report that HERB CLOUGH of the CORNHUSKERS finally found his jacket. Seems strange that it was in the ladies restroom ... The first of the month five couples went down to Terra Linda to the HUFFS 'N PUFFS hoedown with KEN BISHOP. A very good dance and good caller we hope to hear more from. Our beginners class is going great. They have moved up a notch to dancing part-time with the intermediates on Tuesday nights. We all joined in for a festive pie night the 2nd Tuesday of the month. Glad to have them with us. There will be no hoedown in December. We will see you all in 1972 with a great slate of callers.

Monterey & Peninsula Francie Gove

1986 Noche Buena, Seaside

TAW TWIRLERS again enjoyed a month simply brim-full of interesting and fun events - but then, they always do! With five Fridays on the calendar for October, you can be assured that something was swinging every week... Sorry if your reporter seems to neglect the activities of some of the other clubs in our tri-county area - but then, you all know - "We have a deadline to meet on the 25th of each month".

Oct. 1st was an ordinary club night for the TAW TWIRLERS with lots of dancing - and BRAD & BARBARA doing a bang-up job on the squares and rounds... lots of guests helped make the evening one to remember, and after the 10:30 refreshment break, our President, MAURIE DAVIS, conducted the monthly business meeting when plans were made for the holiday parties.

The new TAW TWIRLER sponsored beginners class is moving right along on Wednesdays at Hilltop Methodist Church social room with JEANNE MOODY teaching. Club members add their presence enthusiastically and there is most always homemade no-no's contributed by one of the TAW TWIRLER gals to go along with the coffee. To TOM & ELENORE BURSON, a special "round-of-applause" for the wonderful help they are giving each week, in taking charge of the refreshments and class dues.

MISSION MIXERS held their monthly hoo-down on the 1st Saturday in October, at the Community Hall in San Juan Bautista. ROGER SMITH is the caller for this group - as well as the CASTAWAYS of Watsonville.

RALPH SILVIUS was the guest caller on Oct. 8, when the TAW TWIRLERS held a party night Jamboree at Marina Grange Hall ... A full house turned out to welcome RALPH. Many out-of-area dancers filled the squares... As usual - a very delicious buffet was served at eleven o'clock... Even the "four-BRADFORDS" drove down from San Jose, which proves that callers and teachers enjoy their dancing, too.

The week-end of the 8th, 9th and 10th found everyone that "could," attending the 15th annual SCVSDA Jubilee at the Santa Clara County fairgrounds on Tully Road, in San Jose... Several of our local callers had committee duties on the two-day program.

Among the clubs who drove North for the Jubilee were several couples from STRONG-HOLDERS. They are now dancing only twice a month - each 1st & 3rd Wednesday at the House of 4 Winds, one of Monterey's historic old adobes in downtown Monterey. JOHN STRONG, assisted by TAW, EVELYN, are the leaders of this club. A new beginners class being taught by EARL & SARAH REESE is being held on Wednesday nights, in combination with MONARCH MIXERS, the Pacific Grove S/D Club, which is also dancing on Wednesdays, at the Recreation Hall. These two clubs work together on their club functions and assisting the newer dancers to "have fun".

ROGER SMITH came in to "pinch-hit" for BRAD BRADFORD on the 15th, for the TAW TWIRLERS, when BRAD was detained (by his job)... Turned out to be a hilarious evening as the COUNTRY SWINGERS came to retrieve their coveted traveling banner - as well as walking away with TAW TWIRLERS ... or something like that - there ... Don't quote me - whatever happened, it was a barrel of FUN.

On the 16th, GENE WELSH, from down the Valley was guest caller when the Watsonville CASTAWAYS hosted a FREE ham dinner-dance at the Watsonville High School Cafeteria. Occasion was the 4th Anniversary for this newer area club. ROGER SMITH and TAW, BEV, are responsible.

On the 23rd, everyone headed for the Prunedale Grange Hall to attend the annual "Nite-mare Stamp" which the COUNTRY SWINGERS started several years ago... Lots of "smorgy" food was available throughout the evening - so the dancing was continuous - then if that wasn't enough - when the out-of-area guest caller was thru, then the "local boys" kept the dancer-die-hards at it till way past 3-in-the-mornin' !!!

Winding up our month of October, the TAW TWIRLERS held their once-a-year costume "extravaganza" on the 29th, and what costumes showed up. Even the guests came decked-out for Halloween. We understand there were two other "spook gatherings" on the same night - the HOT TIMERS and the RODEO SWINGERS, but we have no details ... On Sunday afternoon, Oct. 31 from 1-5 at the Washington High in Salinas, the Golden State ROADRUNNERS had a capacity crowd, with an assortment of callers, for their month end dance.

Marin County News

Allen Conroy

909 E. Blithedale, Apt. 8
Mill Valley, 94941

MILL WHEELERS were unbelievably busy this past month. They just recovered from their 5th Thursday party, when President BILLELIOTT & DONNA were off to Hawaii, where they would see LAURA & KURT FULSCHE, ex-MILL WHEELERS. PEARL & SAM SCHNEITER just got back from Hawaii, and a jaunt through the Southwest, including a "look-see" at the London Bridge Festival at Lake Havasu, Arizona. One of our youngest members, GEORGE KNOX, an aspiring caller, did us proud by taking over the S/D Demonstrations calling at the Marin County Fair on Oct. 11. Brother LAMBERT KNOX cued the rounds, and the club was out in strength to cheer them on. 2 1/2 squares visited the LONG HORNS in San Mateo to dance to BOB FISK; two squares danced to LEE HELSEL, and two squares attended a dinner ROUND in the East Bay. JOYCE & HAL WELLS went flying to the Southland recently, but couldn't get back, due to the high winds. (Explanation: it wasn't United or Western, but JOYCE at the stick of a light plane.) Four couples attended Marin County Barbershop Quartet Festival, to back up basso ENNIS GICKER.

HUFFS 'N PUFFS had three birthdays in October - caller KEITH GYLFE, V.P. FRED ZIMMERMAN, and new Delegate NANCY TYNES. We held a meeting recently and adopted new by-laws. Our Beginner class is progressing well, and we plan to have a costume Halloween Party for them and the club members, to get acquainted. Our Oct. 2nd hoedown with KEN BISHOP of Redding was a fine success, with twenty squares. NANCY, EULA, WAUNETA and ANITA did a wonderful job on decorations and food. A few of us surprised KEITH & JACKIE when he called for the CLODHOOPPERS in Belmont and that club returned the favor by a good turnout at our hoedown. We can't match them in numbers, but we all had fun. Visitors from the PONY WHEELS, RICH & CARLENE and their friends attended a recent workshop and we would like to see them on another evening.

NOVATO SQUARES had a potluck dinner on Oct. 12, at IDEST Hall, and elected new officers. New President and First Lady are TED & FAYE REID; V. P., SANDY AHERN; Secty., ANN TAVENNER; Treas., KEN SATRON; Publicity, ALVA FINGERLOS. Outgoing President & First Lady, GRANT & THELMA NELSON, were presented with a gift. Former members JUDY & KENT DREITZLER honored us with their presence afterwards at workshop. On Oct. 9 seven couples went to St. Helena to WINE COUNTRY REBELS, to enjoy CAL GOLDEN. It was a fun dance for all. Several members danced in the exhibitions at the new Marin County Fair. Our beginners class started on Oct. 12, with HANK & JUNE THORNE in charge.

NOVATO STUMP JUMPERS... Our Oct. 16 dance attracted 14 squares to hear JOHN-NY BARBOUR at San Jose Jr. High. Our beginner class was honored at workshop on Oct. 20 with a potluck dinner at IDEST Hall... NAOMI & BILL GALOS and CAROLYN & BILL BAYLES are on leave of absence - hurry back, we miss you. Welcome back to JOAN & AL SIMS. MILLIE YOUNG and HARRY SHARKEY replace the GALOS' as our delegates to NCSDA.

BUZZIN' BOOTS had a luau at the home of RUTH & BOB SEMPELL on Sept. 25, and our taws did themselves proud with authentic Hawaiian dishes and atmosphere. Delicious hors d'oeuvres and Mai Tais made the luau food all the better. BOB SEMPELL made sure that the apple set just right in the roasted pig's mouth, and that it was done to a proper turn. DOROTHY STONE did a beautiful Hawaiian dance, but the climax of the evening was the appearance of five Hawaiian girls (girls?) who did a most unusual, exciting dance. A little sleuthing revealed their identity as JACK COLISTRA, ANGELO CONKLING, JOHN HELIOTES, PETE MAFIA and DEREK STONE. JACK OLDS and WARREN BRENTLINGER provided guitar music for the singing and dancing

CORNHUSKERS turned out en masse for the Marin County Fair early in October, on two evenings. On the Friday, HARRY WHITLOCK, our caller, and KEITH GYLFE, the HUFFS 'N PUFFS caller did a splendid job, and ALLEN CONROY gave a few hints to the audience as to what square dancing is all about. Five or six clubs were represented on the two evenings. Various club members turned out for HUFFS 'N PUFFS hoedown on Oct. 2nd for the BUZZIN' BOOTS on Oct. 9, and for the STUMP JUMPERS on Oct. 16. LOUISE & ALLEN CONROY must have set some sort of long-distance record for travel to one evening of dancing - 1200 miles round-trip to Lake Havasu for the London Bridge Festival, with MORRIS SEVADA calling.

Welcome to new members: ROSE & BILL GIBBS and PAT & TARRY WINFREY. It's good to see JEAN & BARNEY DOYLE back again.

SQUAWS & PAWS... Our beginner class is well under way, with a fine turnout. On Oct. 27, we had an enjoyable Halloween Costume Party. We are now into plans for our next potluck supper. We have had visits from the Novato STUMP JUMPERS and NOVATO SQUARES, and we enjoy having you, come again!

In Memorium Dorothy Griffith

With great sadness we report the passing of Dorothy Griffith. She will always be remembered for her ready smile & cheerfulness. We extend our deepest sympathy to Ronnie, her husband...

Roy Trunnell

As an active member of the S.F. B'NB's, Roy will be greatly missed. We extend our condolences to the members of his family who survive.

SQUARE DANCE CALLERS ASS'N OF NO.CALIF

Russ Cully

Bob Van Antwerp, Institute speaker, gave an excellent workshop on the teaching of newer dancers with new ideas on methods of teaching.

Joel Kadish, president, presided at the luncheon business meeting.

The nominating committee announced the following candidates for office: President: Al Mason, Ed Ferrario; Vice President: Elmer Radcliffe, Vern Churchill; Treasurer: Al Stagnaro; Secty.: Eileen Cullum; Membership Chairman: Jim McCollum, Ken Richards.

Joel Kadish announced the Newer Dancers Hoedown on the 5th Saturday in January 1972 will be at the War Memorial Building in Daly City. Don Black will sing The Star Spangled Banner. A Color Guard for the occasion from either Treasure Island or the San Francisco Presidio has been requested.

A grand march will be held. It is hoped that all members of the Dancers' Association and all callers will attend to meet their future dancers.

Al Stagnaro is looking for material for the Callers' Publicity book.

An election of officers will be held at the November meeting followed by a potluck.
