President's Message

Jerry & Dorothy
Kent

Welcome back to all the dancers who have been on vacation. This is the time of the year when we all will be thinking of classes for newer dancers or should we say newcomers to the popular recreation offered by the modern square dance. We, who were at the Nationals, for the first time saw Contra dancing from which we had our beginnings. Too often square dancing has an image of corn-fed and only for hicks which as we know is the furthest thing from the modern square dance that we enjoy. Contra is a beautiful disciplined dance and we easily can see the forerunner of the square dance. With Square Dance Week upon us we urge all concerned to use care not to make our image as modern square dancers laughable, as unfortunately some recent television coverage has served only to portray the ridiculous in order to amuse their audiences. With this in mind that it is really fun but not silly we hope this year proves to the best attended and most enjoyable square dance week of all! Check with your district director for information on doings in your area, or call any other district director if you will be dancing in another district.

September is Stampede month and the 29th is the date to remember. Your club delegate should have membership cards available for you. Membership cards are available only from your own club delegate and open only to dancers from NCSDA clubs.

As your club delegate has informed you many of our member clubs have asked for a pilot dance to give them an opportunity to see the San Francisco Civic Auditorium where the 1974 Round-Up will be held. We are going to hold the Anniversary dance there this coming January. This dance will be for members of NCSDA clubs only. Admission cards must be obtained from your club delegate. This will be a free dance for our members. Your club delegate will have more information at the September general meeting.

We would like to thank the Valley Associated Square Dancers, whose president's letter appeared in the August, Square Dance-Where?, for the offered support for our Golden State Round-Up and we would like to urge our dancers to support VASD'S one yearly function on Feb. 8, 9, and 10.

MILL WHEELERS... Our May 31st party had a Hawaiian theme. BETTY FERRA brought a beautiful cake, and led us in a Hawaiian dance. JIM MORK was away on business, so our GEORGE KNOX put the ten squares through their paces in wonderful style. The committee was composed of the KNUDSONS MINSHIPS and MORRISONS. We had a good turnout of members for the Golden State at Oakland. Members traveled to Santa Rosa to hear BRUCE JOHNSON and again on June 16 for DAVE STEVENS. To hear BOB FISKE on the 23rd were ADELE DUCKETT and CHARLIE WIFSTRAND, MURPHYS, PORTUGHESES & SMYTHS. JOAN KNUDSON has recovered from ear surgery. New members in June are JOHN COSTA and JEANNE KOTSEROS. In July, the traveling continued unabated. It was to JERRY HELT'S dance on July 7. ERNIE KINNEY and DAVE HOBAUGH on July 14. Next week we spread out three ways - for HOULTON at SQUAWS 'N PAWS; for ROGER MORRIS at San Carlos, and BRUCE JOHNSON in San Mateo. On July 22, BOB FISKE attracted these to Concord: ELLIOTS, MORRISONS, KEALYS and the MURPHYS. Our own "girl pilot" JOYCE WELLS flew in the year's "Powder-Puff" derby again, under considerable strain, as her co-pilot got sick half way, and JOYCE had to finish to Eluir, New York, alone. There, she received recognition on radio and TV for her feat. Congratulations to ELLISON SMITH, our new President, and to First Lady ETHEL, and our hearty thank you to outgoing President JIM KEALY & GIN. The SMITHS took in the National at Salt Lake and swung around through Spokane to visit their son. Glad to have KEITH WILKINSON out of the hospital. JOE MURPHY is back from Army Camp, but the NEW-

LONS are off in Alaska, and the SORENSONS in Europe.

CORNHUSKERS were in evidence at the HUFFS 'N PUFFS party on June 2, and again on June 16 to hear SHOTWELL at STUMP JUMPERS party. The June potluck was a real rouser, with our new hall, the Masonic Temple in Larkspur full of happy dancers and guests. Our own HARRY WHITLOCK called at the State Convention at Fresno in early June, and several couples attended to back him up...The CONROYS, FERRELLS and JULIUS HONS and AUDLEY NICHOLS had a great time at the National in Salt Lake City, along with 16,000 other dancers! The NOVATO SQUARES party on July 16th brought out a couple of squares, plus, of our dancers, who really enjoyed DAVE HOBAUGH. Our own party on July 21 was a success, in spite of terrific competition nearby - thanks to DAVE STEVENS' pulling power and to our loyal friends from some 11 other club.

SQUAWS 'N PAWS represented square dancing at the Novato Western Weekend, with HAROLD POPE calling. Also manned a shuffle-board concession. ALPERS, DEARDUFFS, GIBBS and O'LEARYS enjoyed the HUFFS 'N PUFFS' hoedown with MILT ADAMS at Vallecito school on June 2. On June 6, 10 couples swooped down on the STUMP JUMPERS' regular workshop, and had a great time dancing to DAVE MILANO. A good number were at STUMP JUMPERS' hoedown on June 16 to dance to DON SHOTWELL. On June 23, these went to QUESTION MARKS to hear BILL PETERS; ALPERS, GIBBS, HICKMANS and CLEARYS - five couples attended ROGER MORRIS' DIAMOND DANCERS' workshop in Santa Rosa, in late June - what a night! We went in a group to STUMP JUMPERS' workshop again on July 11, and turned out in force for the NOVATO SQUARES party on July 14. These Braves and Squaws whooped it up to DAVE HOBAUGH: ALPERS, DEARDUFFS, GIBBS, HICKMANS, ILBERTONS, O'LEARYS, and PARKERS. Our representative, BILL GIBBS brought back word from the NCSDA meeting on July 15, a very interesting accident insurance proposal, to cover our own dancers at all club affairs, at 75¢ per person per year, provided 3/4 of the membership join up...Our BIG night was the DICK HOULTON event on July 21, at San Jose Jr. High. What food! Braves say squaws should cook like this in own teepee - an evening long to be remembered.

NOVATO STUMP JUMPERS hosted eleven other clubs at their June 16 hoedown, with DON SHOTWELL pleasing an enthusiastic crowd, as always, at San Jose Jr. High. The committee did an outstanding job of decorating that big hall, in a floral decor with a welcoming sign to match the flowers' colors. They were: the ANGULOS, CARROLLS, LANES and NUNES'. Taking office in July were our new officers: Pres., TONY SEGURA; V.P., DICK LANE; Secty. FLORA CARROLL; Treas., JUNE NUNES; Publicity, AL & JOAN SIMS; Membership, RUEL WILSON; Sheriff, GEORGE BERNARD.

NOVATO SQUARES took to the shores of Stafford Lake on June 24 for a gin-fizz breakfast (old San Francisco Bay custom, you newcomers!) OSCAR & MARG MONTGOMERY provided the chuck-wagon for the victuals. At the National, in Salt Lake, were: LOUISE & ALLEN CONROY, LINDA & AL ENYEART, ALVA & ERNIE FINGERLOS, and FAYE & TED REID. TED saved the CONROYS from disaster on the trip home by spotting a worn universal joint, in their car, with his expert ears, and do ask AL what to put in the car radiator if you get stranded in the desert! MARGE & OSCAR MONTGOMERY would have been at Salt Lake, too, except that she broke her ankle the night we trailered to Gualala for our annual abalone feast. She's out of the cast now, and on the way to dancing again.

HUFFS 'N PUFFS...Our June Hoedown was a resounding success, and we particularly enjoyed having MILT ADAMS' lovely wife TERRY join him in one of the calling tips. We are proud of our caller, KEITH GYLFE, who was one of the callers at the State Convention in Fresno, this year. FRED & LOUISE ZIMMERMAN are off to their Shasta Dam summer home. Belated wedding anniversary congratulations also to: NANCY & CLYDE TYNES, CHRISTAL & HAL WIEGANDT, and LOUISE & FRED ZIMMERMAN. Anniversaries for June are: ANN & JOHN BAY and KAREN & LARRY WILLIAMS. June birthdays were: JUANITA BONNER, AMY HUGHES, MARIE LEHMAN, CHRISTAL & HAL WIEGANDT. DICK & PAT LANE took in the National and then square danced all the way to Chicago. The members took in the NOVATO SQUARES party on July 14, and the CORN-

HUSKERS on July 21, where they won the attendance prize. HOARDS also took in the National in Salt Lake - there were a lot of Marinites there! KEITH was away during the month on a calling date in Oregon, so KAREN & LARRY WILLIAMS used it as an opportunity to visit some old dancing friends in that state.

BUZZIN' BOOTS were sorry to hear of ETHEL COOK'S illness, but she seems to be on the mend. FRANK HEVERN made it in the Chronicle, pictured with DICK HOULTON in the recent article on Square Dancing. JACKIE KRISTENSON is well enough to be back dancing again. LARRY SELMER recently made a tour of Norway and the Land of the Midnight Sun. BILL PETER'S calling was enjoyed by the COLISTAS, STONES and FRANK HEVERN at the FORTY-NINERS' June party. Thank you, MILT ADAMS and KEITH GYLFE for filling in while JACK & CELIA OLDS were on vacation. Two squares had a big time at the NOVATO SQUARES' hoedown. BILL KOLLER flew to Germany, July 1, to visit his sick mother - our best wishes went with him.

ALAMEDA WAGON WHEELERS...Visitors are always welcome. BARBARA GARDNER from SQUARE CROWS joined us on July 11. On July 18 we unanimously elected our delightful ol' faithfuls, FERN & MAC McDEVITT as Delegates and GEORGE & MYRLE LOWELL as our alternate delegates. On the weekend of July 13, 14, 15, the SHINGLE SPRINGS SWINGERS invited our rip-snortin' dancers to join them at Camp Arcade, at Soda Springs. Several of our members indulged themselves in the camp's activities which consisted of swimming, boating, fishing, hiking, lounging, and eating. TOM MILLER did a fine job of calling for us. Our own member, DREW ANDERSON called several swingin' dances and MAC McDEVITT'S calls came through with flying colors other than black and blue. "The Alligator Stomp" we learned there may become part of our members' repertoire. We are never at a loss for activities. Our picnic will be Sept. 2. The beginning square dance class will start in September at Washington School and continue there until school vacation. There will be a couple of introductory sessions for new comers to wet their feet before the workshop begins. Don't forget our Annual Anniversary hoedown on October 27.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS...July 13 was not such a disastrous Friday night after all. That was the night the club journeyed to Bayfair Shopping Center to participate in a special square dancing event. About five squares entered in the program. The dancers were well applauded by the spectators. Out of town visitors for the month of June failed to sign their last names for the register. They were MANUEL & LILLIAN from CIRCLE H PROMENADERS of Hemet... "Circle Left," "Alemande Your Corner," "Turn Your Partner By The Right," etc. These were just a few of the calls used by our amateur callers at a special happening, July 18 at Corvallis School. The callers who participated at this time were: LORI BERNARD, BOB ATTERBERRY, DEETTE HAWKEY, and a special surprise caller, the daughter of BOB & MARIE ATTERBERRY, KAREN.

KEEWAY SWINGERS...We ended up the month of June by having about 10 couples caravan to the National in Utah and from what we heard, outside of a few trials and tribulations, they really had a great time. July 7, some of us went to the MUSTANGS to dance to JERRY HELT, and the others who were out went to FARMERS & FARMERETTES with JOEL KADISH and DON SHOTWELL sharing the bill. The following Saturday found some members dancing to ANDY RAWLINSON at the KORN KRACKERS "Purple Bubble Dance," which we enjoyed. The 21st saw some of us at Castro Valley REBELS where JESSIE SOUSA was calling and others turned out for JERRY HELT at VALLEY TRAVELERS.

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS...a gay time was had by all who boarded the bus for Pinnacle Pass in Scotts Valley. Our club caller, JOHN PAINTER, was guest caller for the evening. Things were proceeding along normally until JOHN was besieged on stage by the entire group of REBELS who promptly wrapped him from "head to toe" in toilet paper. Would you believe he didn't miss a beat during the entire singing call! Thanks to the entertaining SKIRTS & FLIRTS for their last fun time hoedown. We arrived to be entertained by RAY SANCHEZ and JOEL KADISH and the "body painting" GUYS &

GALS from their club. We really enjoyed the evening. Congratulations are in order to JOHN & EDITH BLEW on the birth of their new granddaughter. Our new board of officers has also been installed and hope to have a very active and fun year.

BAYWOOD PROMENAIRES ... have been enjoying "vacation days" and will all be around for our brush-up course (we need it too) beginning in September. We invite all couples who have been wanting to get back 'in the swing of it' and feel as though they have been 'out of it' too long to join us. JACK LOGAN is a very patient and thorough teacher. A trip to Reno is being anticipated for September.

KUNTRY KUZINS...two squares were invited to exhibit a dance for the benefit of the restoration of California Missions. A wonderful time was had by all with wine-tasting and a delicious barbecue served later. The WILLIAMS, GREENS, and the HOMMANN'S traveled to dance with the ROLLING SQUARES instead of a Wednesday night workshop. Several squares attended FARMERS & FARMERETTES. Three guests from Japan were brought by the BRUNSKILLS. They thoroughly enjoyed themselves and were fascinated by our American dance. A caravan of five couples and families, the MICHAELS, MATZEKS, GRIGSBYS, HEAVILINS and HOFFERBERGS traveled to Utah for the National. They stopped along the way and danced at Reno, Wells and Winnemucca, Nevada. They enjoyed themselves and have brought back all sorts of stories and snapshots to prove it.

ACES & LACES...this being the middle of summer, we have not been too busy. We had no hoedown this month but are working on the decorations and plans for our 18th Anniversary hoedown next month. The end of last month the WAGON WHEELERS came visiting and it was very pleasant having so many guests. We had a potluck picnic at Bonaire Park in San Lorenzo on the 18th. The park was excellent, the food and companionship were very good but we could have asked for a little better weather. By the time we finished and packed up we were ready to give our all to the dancing, to warm up. Thanks to JIM & LORETTA DUNCAN for getting the park and FRANK & LANA PERRY for taking charge of the picnic.

COTTON PICKERS...our club enjoyed the evening together on July 17 at the Castro Valley Leisure Center with a potluck and dancing afterwards. There were about eight couples in attendance even our callers' law BERT, felt like joining us for the evening. It was nice to see her out! Two of our members were saddened this past month with the loss of their mothers. Our condolences to EMILY GOULARTE and MARY LYNCH. On July 27 we will graduate our beginner class. Those joining the club will be the LYNCHS, SISSONS, GEORGE HOPKINS, and SHIRLEY RICH, the ROBBINS recently joined us, they hail from Oregon.

EDEN ROCKERS...Party night in June was a surprise to our caller BILL STRINGER and his law PAT. A large cake was presented to them in honor of the first anniversary as our caller. We are happy we have you and hope we can celebrate many more years together. Congratulations to THELMA DERBY on her retirement in July. Best wishes and much happiness in your future. HARLEY & ANN VERNON flew to Rhode Island to attend the wedding of their youngest son. Congratulations EDITH & JOHN BLEW also have a new grandchild, a girl born to their daughter, it's a first for both couples. A square of us attended HIGHLAND SWINGERS' hoedown in June danced to the excellent calling of BOBFISK, other members attended the SQUARE CIRCLES' hoedown. We wish ANCIE SOUCIE a speedy recovery, she underwent an operation in July and is now recuperating at home.

ODDS 'N' ENDS...Many of our members enjoyed vacations during June and July, however, our number of squares keeps building up each Thursday. For those who stayed in the Bay Area we enjoyed the hoedowns by JERRY HELT first with the MUSTANGS, and then with VALLEY TRAVELERS. Some of our group went to San Mateo to hear BRUCE JOHNSON. Quite a number attended the Asilomar facilities and we are awaiting ANDY BECK and IVY STEWART to teach us some new Round Dances. We are fortunate in learning a Round Dance written by our caller DAVE STEVENS to the tune of "Tie A Yellow Ribbon Round The Old Oak Tree"

SQUARE CIRCLE...July has been a busy month. We have been visiting other clubs, and in our spare time we tiled our floor in the Barn. This could cut down the dust and make dancing more pleasurable on our wooden barn floor. The outstanding calling of JOHN FRERICHMAN coupled with our wooden floors is the ultimate in square dancing. Our new officers took over on July 1st and have already made plans for great dances in the upcoming months. In August our club barbecue; September brings DON SHOTWELL and we start our beginners class.

EAGLE SQUARES... Our new officers took office in July. We congratulate Pres., DICK & JEAN McCABE; Vice Pres., DON & ELIZABETH CRAZER; Treas., ARNE & ROSEMARY BRADLEY; Secty., LEO & MEL LEUTHARD and Publicity, JOHN & HELEN ROBINSON. Thanks to the outgoing officers for doing a great job. Among our guests this month were BOB FRIEDMAN and his wife. BOB called a couple of tips. Eight couples attended the National. From the reports a good time was had by all. Looking forward to seeing you all at our hoedown Sept. 8th

BERKELEY CLUB SINGLES... climaxed the last busy month under the able leadership of President, DON SCHMEYER with a memorable chartered bus trip to the National. Thanks to chairman STAN WHITE for the wonderful arrangements. The Convention experience, itself, was exciting beyond description. Members going to the National were: MARGARET ALMEIDA, WILMA ANDRADE, RUTH BARTLETT, JEANETTE BIGBEE, JOE GARBERO, MAGNUS GUNDERSON, ALLAN HARRILD, JOHNNIE JOHNSON, ESTHER KNOWLEN, JEAN LEE, FLO MONIZE, ELI MUELA, ALICE OLIVER, IRENE RAWLINS and STAN WHITE ... Alumni joining us were the BUCHERS from San Jose B & B's; KITTY WALKER and MAGGIE PALMER, and from LAZY EIGHTS JOHN ROSSO. New officers: Pres., ESTHER KNOWLEN; V. Pres., IRENE RAWLINS; Secty., MARION MILLER; and Treas. LILLIAN St. LOUIS.

FARMERS 'N FARMERETTES... club members attending the 6th Anniversary of SKIRTS & FLIRTS really enjoyed themselves. Calling of RAY SANCHEZ and JOEL was terrific as usual. The JOKERS and their caller, JOHN WHITE, joined us at our June party. Ten of our couples ventured to Lake McClure for a very pleasant weekend of sunning, swimming and boating. Congratulations to the BARRETTs on their new addition, baby DAVID. MIKE LUNA did a great job calling at our July 2 club night for JOEL who was at the National. July party night was sparked by the visit of RON HAGGERTY and his calling. Thanks to DON SHOTWELL and JOEL for a great July 7 dance. Guests were: the BIGSBYS, Dist. Direc. 7; the SORNBORGERS, Dist. Direc. 1; and MARV PALMER and FLO KOELLER, Pres., Santa Clara S/D Association. Callers RAY SANCHEZ, BEN GOLDBERG, MIKE LUNA, and FRED WILLIAMS with three visiting dignitaries from Japan.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS... welcomed the Delegates from District 7 on our party night, July 17. Caller RON GRIFFITH has decided to end his bachelor days. He will be married the early part of August. Daughter JUDY and children are here for the big event. We wish RON and his bride, ARDIS much happiness. Vacations planned: JAN & CARL JAEGEL will travel to Hawaii in August while the McDONOUGHs, HAYS, HUGHES and EVANS will square dance their way through Spain, Portugal and Africa. Coming up - our family picnic at Uvas Meadows on Sept. 16 and our next hoedown in October with DICK HOULTON.

HEE HAW SINGLES... our 2nd Anniversary Hoedown with BILL CASTNER was quite a success. Missed our caller DON ATKINS and taw MARY JANE for three weeks while they toured Canada and attended the National. Good to see you back DON! Several squares of HEE HAWs attended FARMERS & FARMERETTES' 4th of July dance. Sure enjoyed DON SHOTWELL and JOEL KADISH - they were in great form as usual. Our plans for our next hoedown on Aug. 11 with ERNIE KINNEY are progressing nicely. Plans for a mystery trip are also in the wind.

UC SQUARES... Began July with a middle-eastern dinner at the Darvish Restaurant. It was sparsely attended but a very cozy event. July 12, we held an amateur callers night. Our caller, JIM McCOLLUM, recorded the amateur's singing, thus allowing them the rare privilege of dancing to their own calls. (Some actually showed some promise - that is, they promised not to try it again.) A few of us went to the KORN KRACKERS' Purple Bubble Ball hoedown. It was a very successful event and featured ANDY RAWLINSON from Southern California. We were so favorably impressed by his calling that we signed him up for our Fall hoedown.

(Club Reporters: Saturday, Sept. 22, deadline for my receipt of your news for November issue.)

LONGHORNS of Redwood City ... best wishes to ELEANOR & FRANK FISK, our long time friends, and lots of good "square dancing" - they have moved to Clear Lake after 14 years membership with us...vacationing members include the KEHLS to Nebraska where HENRY is visiting his home after many years; the AMBROSES to Palm Springs checking on their new mobile home; the STEWARTS to Alberta, Canada; CRAWFORDS to Mexico; BROOKS to their new valley summer home; STOREYS to the Hawaiian Islands; and GEORGE BONES to New York...we were hosts for the 5th Tuesday dance in July, which was enjoyed by all, and thanks to all the dancers for participating...the following is our new Board which has now officially taken over: JIM & HELEN STEWART (Pres.); HENRY & FERN RIDEOUT (V. Pres.); HENRY & ANN KEHL (Secty.); JACK & TERRY CRAWFORD (Treas.); IRV & BETTY KOELLING (Hosp.); HAROLD & DORIS STOREY (Publicity); DAN & CLAIRE URRERE (NCSDA Del.); and HENRY & CLEO MANNING (Alt. Del.).

MAINLINER STARDUSTERS of San Mateo...late June and July found many of our members on vacation; while club caller, DON CAMPTON and wife, BEV, were enjoying the scenery in Canada, GENE BRAKEMAN substituted with the assistance of his taw, MARY LOU, and did an excellent job of putting both the regular club and beginners' class through their paces...a club night visit was made to the BEACH NUTS in El Granada for a very enjoyable evening...with the graduation of the present newer dancers as full-fledged STARDUSTERS in late August, plans are under way to initiate a new beginners group.

PONY WHEELS of San Francisco...we had good times and sadness in July - the sudden passing of BLANCHE PHILLIPS was almost unbelievable, she will be remembered as a very happy, and nice person, and we hope that friends and prayers can help RUSS through the difficult time still ahead; he has always given his help freely whenever a need arose ... our caller, RUSS TULLY, NELL, NAT & FRENCHY, were our travelers to the National Convention which, they agreed, was an overwhelming experience; from Salt Lake City, RUSS & NELL went to

Milwaukee for the BIG July 4th Circus Parade, and then on a special train trip to the Circus World Museum at Baraboo, Wisconsin -

ROADRUNNERS of San Mateo...are glad to pass on the good news that RUTH SCHMOLL and EBEN COLE are much improved after surgery, and AGNES HAUKOM is able to be out again after a fall at her home...the DAVIS', RENEAS and HEMINGWAYS report a good time at the National Convention in Salt Lake City...our hoedown with ROGER MORRIS calling was really a fun dance and we would like to thank all the clubs who helped make it a success...our beginners class will start the latter part of this month on Monday nights at the Shoreview Recreation Center...hope you will join us at our hoedown on the 15th of this month.

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS had a real fire-cracking good time on July 4 when we danced at our usual place and had 7 squares - even BUTCH & THULA CARR, who usually drop in for just a few minutes, came and danced the whole evening!...PEARL PRESTON teaches us round dancing the first and third Wednesdays of the month, and since we have so many newer dancers interested, she has 10 couples learning the Round of the Month...about 6 squares accepted the invitation of the CAPER CUTTERS to dance with them on July 9th and enjoyed a fun evening with KEITH GYLFE doing his superb calling; their hospitality and refreshments were most appreciated and we thank them for a lovely evening...we have three new members, not including our newer dancers - CHUCK & DOT WILLIAMS and GARY REDLER - welcome and happy dancing to all of them.

CABLE CARS of San Francisco...held election of the following officers this month: CHARLES WATTS (Pres.); POLLY FERK (Vice Pres.); other officers remain the same...our Big Event this month is our 7th Anniversary Hoedown July 21 at San Mateo College with BRUCE JOHNSON calling - we look forward to seeing you there...am happy to report that DICK BINDON is now feeling a lot better after his recent setback...be sure to mark your calendars NOW for Sept. 9th when we will be holding a benefit hoedown at the War Memorial Auditorium in Daly City for the San Francisco Recreation Center for the Handicapped.

CAPER CUTTERS of San Francisco...our latest outstanding event was having the San Francisco REBELS come and dance with us at our Party Night, and must say it was a complete success; they all responded to our invitation, and as of a count, there were 16 squares dancing, almost like a hoedown; the hall was full, but we all had fun and that is what togetherness is all about; it really was a wonderful party and many thanks to our caller, KEITH GYLFE, who did a marvelous deed by calling this event as we did have some new graduates to consider - thanks KEITH; many thanks, also, to the committee for that evening, and with some help from the Executive Board, the sandwiches were wonderful and plentiful...some of our members who attended the 22nd National Square Dance Convention at Salt Lake City are beginning to arrive home and they report what a wonderful event it was; some just had to see the Grand Canyon and that was another added feature.

CLODHOOPPERS of Belmont...if you were in the Sierras last July 28th and attended the 4th Annual Pine Cone Hop in Calaveras Big Trees Park Lodge, you "had a ball" square dancing with some of us and our friends from the Bay Area, San Joaquin Valley, and the mountain communities from Sonora to Jackson, all of whom enjoyed the fine calling of JOHN LINDERMAN and guest callers from the floor...hope you will join us on Sept. 8th at the Nesbit School in Belmont when JOHN CADIENTE from Santa Cruz will be there to call up a storm - if you're not already a CADIENTE fan, here's your chance to catch his smooth style...and, if you like to do something different, try Octoberfest II in Murphys (Calaveras County) where arts, crafts and music will be exhibited on the huge lawn in front of the hospital, and square dancing will be held. If our new president and first lady, MARSHALL & EILEEN ULSHOEFFER haven't been busy enough, we'll ask them to "get crackin'" on the annual picnic and beginners hoedown before the winter snow falls.

CLOVERLEAFS of San Francisco...hosted the 5th Friday dance on June 29th which was a big success, with many in attendance to dance to DON SHOTWELL, DON BLACK and JOHN LINDERMAN; our own caller, JOEL KADISH, was missed but was doing his thing at the National Convention in Utah...we enjoyed joining the happy group of about 500 at the FARMERS' N FARMERETTES in Newark, where dancing was indoors and out to the beautiful calling of DON SHOTWELL and JOEL KADISH...our beginners' round dance class, with instructors BOB & CLAIRE McDONALD, is progressing nicely...vacation time for many - GEORGE & CHARLOTTE PARTMANN for a 6-week stay in Germany to visit with their daughter and family; BOB & JENNIE GUIFOYLE and family are off to the land of southern sunshine and Carta Blanca Beer for one week, and then to the land of Mardi Gras for another two weeks; RUSS & ANNA HARDEMAN and their two boys will be spending 2 weeks in Yosemite, then one week in Reno; RON & BEVERLY OLSON and their family had a lovely trip to Salt Lake City and points East; MURIEL LESS and her sister will be tramping around Wyoming; AL & MARGE GREEFKENS are off to their summer place in Twain Hart - hope everybody had a good summer.

FORTY-NINERS of South San Francisco...were represented at the National Convention in Salt Lake City by 13 dancers; we were proud of the STARDETTES and SQUARENADERS - they've really got class; all of the exhibition groups were good, and we were particularly impressed with a group called "Happy Hearts" from Southern California, made up of mentally retarded young adults and could they ever dance - they got along fine in the regular squares, too.... JANICE McCRANEY is hobbling around in a cast after an adventure in a run-away car; and MARY BRILLIANT has been on the sick list for a while...a hoedown sponsored jointly with the WHIRL-A-WAYS, a potluck dinner, and perhaps a mystery trip, are among our summertime activities.

HIGHLAND SWINGERS of San Carlos...are "swingin' again" with the return of our caller, HAROLD DAVISON, after his recovery from an argument with his motorcycle; his leg is still in a cast but it doesn't affect his calling; we all want to thank AL STAGNARO and JIM WYLIE for coming to our rescue when we were in dire need of help...DOLLY HALL was back for a couple of weeks, then back to the hospital for gall bladder surgery...our hoedown with BOB FISK was terrific - started out with AL BUONCRISTIANI doing the rounds and the hall was packed with dancers till BOB started to call - then we really bulged out the walls, so many dancers that we set up speakers outside and they danced and danced; we fed our guests all night and the club and newer dancers worked together smoothly so nobody went hungry...sure nice to see BUTCH'S steady (THULA) back dancing -

KALICO KATS of Daly City...vacation time is here, finding many of the KATS traveling - BERNICE & PAT SMITH went East, visiting family and seeing the sights; CARMA & ANDY ANDERSON took an exciting raft trip down the Colorado River; RAY & SHARON GERLACH have just returned from Canada; DEE & ART MARCHINGTON are back from Oregon; BLAKE & ADRIENNE also went to Oregon, mostly to dance to WAYNE WEST, but due to a change in date of the dance, they missed it!...past members visiting this month included DOROTHY WESTMAN from Hawaii and RED & LENORE LANTZ from Texas - great to see them all back!...the June 5th Friday dance was attended by a number of KATS, and thank you to the CLOVERLEAFS for a very enjoyable evening.

SQUARE CUTTERS of San Francisco...BETH STORER, MARY THOMAS and friends had a delightful week up north lying in the sun, relaxing and loafing, and came back refreshed...RAY & MARY THOMAS drove down south for a visit with family and sightseeing - good weather and a good time was the order of the day...CHARLES & ELSIE LUCHESSA drove to Colorado for a vacation in the mountains, then on to Lake Tahoe - they report both areas were most enjoyable. BEN & HELEN BAKER are making plans for their forthcoming trip to Europe, and we hope all goes well for you two...BILL & NORMA CUNNINGHAM are busy as bees making the final preparations for their son's wedding in August...ELEANOR KNUTH planed to Europe for the summer, and as a special treat, she took her granddaughter with her - both had a fantastic time.... FRANK & MILDRED EMERY are spending part of the summer at their summer home in Pinecrest, entertaining many guests...GOR-

DON & MARY JENSEN have sold their lovely home in San Francisco and will soon be moving to Walnut Creek - even though you will be out of the city, GORDON & MARY, we expect to see you every Thursday at club - no excuses - we need to see your smiling faces..."Enthusiasm in infectious - and so is the lack of it." "The best thing about the future is that God gives it to us one day at a time."

TWO BY FOURS of Burlingame...held their annual picnic at Grand Oriente Park near Morgan Hill in June; JOE & MARVEL NOBLE chaired the event and did a great job. Activities included our traditional Horse-shoe Tournament managed by the REMBOLDS, plus a wild baseball game captained by RAWLIN TRIMBLE and JIM SULLIVAN (it was a tie due to our "myopic umpire," BUD BERNARD); and of course, we couldn't do without our egg toss, water balloon, sack races, other fun games and finally some square dancing to finish off the day - all in all; most enjoyable.

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETES of San Francisco...who attended the 22nd Annual Square Dance Convention in Salt Lake City all came home deeply impressed with the entire program and glad to have been a part of the great event...among the many things keeping us busy are first, the planning of our new club dresses, second, making preparations for our annual picnic at Curry Creek with the Sacramento and San Jose chapters, third, we are excited that we are to be the hosts for the 24th Anniversary Hoedown of the International B 'N B's at San Mateo College on Nov. 3 with RON WELSH calling.

WESTSIDE WAGON WHEELERS are on a summer time schedule, but we have been attending some real fine dances in the area. June 24, a large group went to dance at the Solano County Fair at Vallejo where JESSIE SOUSA shared the program with ROY BIRDSONG. We won 2 trophies - would you believe - for good dancing - and for coming the farthest distance? We also won a huge yellow ribbon, which our President, MANUEL AMARAL wore. A group danced at Gustine, July 7 for the Camper-Trailer Rally held at Santa Nella. We have a newly elected Vice President, TOM & WANDA CAMPBELL. Congratulations! Also, ODELL CLARLY has been elected to be our Sheriff. Congratulations to him also. We enjoyed the Cup of Gold Promenade. Perfect weather, good callers and Friday night when JESSIE SOUSA and RALPH SILVIUS called, was especially enjoyable.

MODESTO SQUARENADERS' members, 22 in all, were recently presented with Friendship Badges by the CERES TWISTERS at a visit to their dance. The WATSONS, MAD-DUXS, and BROWNS visited the CIRCLE C ROUNDERS in Stockton and enjoyed dancing to the calling of BURLIN DAVIS. The same evening RALPH & MARIE KIRBY and ELMER & BERTHA ALSPAUGH went to Crows Landing to dance with the WESTSIDE WAGON WHEELERS and caller, JESSIE SOUSA calling an all-singing call program. The dance at the Merced County Fair called by JIM SHIELDS and ROGER GOAD was attended by the HUCKABYS, ATHERSTONES ROBINSONS and BROWNS. The TINGLEYS and BROWNS went to Greely Hills to attend the Greely HILL HOPPER'S annual "Two-night dance in the pines" with guest caller GENE WELSH and BETTY WELSH cueing the Rounds. This was a delightful evening and very highly recommended as the potluck supper along with the atmosphere is hard to beat. Several of our members journeyed to Salt Lake City to attend the National and reported enjoying it.

Seaside, Ca., 93953

July, as usual, turned out to be one of the busiest months of the year in spite of it being the peak vacation month! All our clubs were busier than a swarm of bees.

TAW TWIRLERS launched the month with their election of officers on July 6th. Taking duties for the next six months will be: KEN BAIN, Pres.; GLORIA TRIPP, V. Pres.; MIDGE BROWN, Secty.; LILSIELER, Treas; GEORGE KNOX, Membership; TOM & ELEANOR BURSON, Hospitality; and yours truly, FRANCIE GOVE will handle the Publicity again...RENO & JOAN CROMER will be assisting the BURSONS on the busy job of Hospitality duties.

STRONGHOLDERS held their Happy Daze Hoedown this month on the 14th at the Washington Jr. High, over Salinas-way. Nice turnout to welcome JOHN CADIENTE who was in the guest spot for the evening. The club has asked me to remind all other clubs that flyers and publicity which you wish to reach the Club should be sent to VERN SMITH, 789 Oak Street, Monterey, 93940. It seems that many items have been forwarded all the way to Arizona, the address of ED & MAYE WOOTEN who used to receive the club mail.

COUNTRY SWINGERS held their annual "ice cream social" this past week at the old location, the Sylvan Hall near Moss Landing...As usual a capacity crowd turned out with their trailers and campers to spend the weekend and enjoy all that home-made and delicious ice cream (sorry about that - I'm on a diet).

TAW TWIRLERS held their monthly party night on the 13th...Fun, fun, fun! With squares and rounds by BRAD & BARBARA and as usual - a bountiful buffet at 11 p.m. These buffets are gaining quite a reputation. Then, on the 20th the Marina Grange Hall was "blackened out" so that everyone could attend the Salinas Rodeo Dance at the Armory with JERRY HELT from Cincinnati at the helm. And, true to form, it was terrific - some 40 squares-plus, and winding up with JERRY'S famous "progressive squares." Need we say any more?

On July 22nd, another Sunday afternoon "workshop session" was held at the home of BERNARD & JANIE JONES out in the Carmel Valley. This is always a chance for seeing-and-trying some of the new square figures. Round dance workshop follows the potluck supper at 5 p.m. Our special thanks to the JONES' for this monthly session.

TAW TWIRLERS danced on Friday in Pacific Grove, on the 27th, as a special part of the program for the annual Feast of Lanterns - this was early in the evening, before dark, and the group which included dancers from several other clubs then headed out to the Marina Grange Hall for the regular dance. Makes us appreciate our beautiful wooden floors after struggling to dance on the newly paved street in Pacific Grove - that was really something.

The Golden State ROADRUNNERS held their 5th Monday party night at the Washington Junior High in Salinas... Club caller HOWARD LAWSON, was assisted at the mike by seven other callers from our local clubs. About 10 squares of dancers enjoyed the dozens and dozens of homemade pies at the close of the evening.

The home of BOB & LIL SIELER was the place, and July 31st, was the night when the old 'n' new 'boards' of the TAW TWIRLERS held their joint meeting... Old business was the final plans for the Monterey Festival "after-party" which the club is hosting on August 11... Then, plans are underway for the new beginners' class which will start in September, and future plans include the February 1974 hoedown which will feature MARSHALL FLIPPO as guest caller.

WINE COUNTRY REBELS...performed at the Napa County Fair in Calistoga, on the evening of the 4th of July. Despite the heat, 3 squares danced for an hour and a half before a sizeable group of interested spectators, with callers MIKE LUNA and RON HAGGERTY at the microphone. Because of the interest shown, we expect some candidates for our new class beginning in September. HOMER & "J" LUTZ became parents-in-law when their daughter HOLLY was married recently. We are glad to have VIRGINIA MORRIS and DICK ARSENAULT back with us after stubborn illnesses kept them away for several weeks; and SUSAN MAXWELL home again from her European tour. RALEIGH & LUCILLE NEWELL surprised us by a visit on a workshop night. We have missed them since they moved to Santa Rosa.

PISTOLS 'N PETTICOATS... MUSTANGS dance with JERRY HELT calling was attended by some of our club. The dancing and the food were both enjoyed. Thanks MUSTANGS! Well, it's picnic time again and Micke Grove in Lodi was the place. Good food! Good ball games! Good water fights and just good fun! In fact our ball games are so good we would like to challenge any other square dance club to a game. For challenges call BILL PANNELL 758-4000.

CATCH ALL 8'S...Vacations are over for most of the club members, but two lucky couples still plan travels afar. We shall miss MARIAN & LAWRENCE BARTHOLOMEW who will be leaving in August for 3½ months travel across Canada and along the New England coast. RITA & ERNIE PANELL leave us in September for 3 fun-filled weeks in Japan. Tuesday, Sept. 11 finds the CATCH ALL 8'S starting a brush-up class, which will be instructed by our new club caller, RON HAGGERTY. We dance Tuesdays at El Monte School from 7:30-10. From recent elections we welcome BERNIE & MARSHALL CARVER as new club presidents.

We traveled as a group to PIONEERS square dance club in Vallejo and received the sheep-skin for the largest number in attendance from an outside club. The occasion was a double birthday surprise for the BUZZSTEPPERS' caller RAY ARENDS and the PIONEERS caller FRED HIRSHBURG. We gave a surprise house warming to their caller RAY ARENDS and his wife BEULAH. The special event of the evening was a money tree given by the group.

ROLLING SQUARES...members who toured to Salt Lake all have given a favorable report of the spectacular events. Party night for our club is ordinarily held the 1st Tues. of each month but in July we postponed it till the 2nd Tuesday as we hosted the Delegates of our District on that night. FRED WILLIAMS of Fremont handled the "mike" in the absence of DON who was ill. The BISCAYS are the "Vacation Family" of our club! They just returned from Salt Lake just long enough to repack for a trip to the Philmont Boy Scout Ranch in New Mexico. They will need TLC when they have to return to work like the rest of us poor sinners. Three of our members, MARY SORENBURG and escort from the B & B's toured to Sonoma to partake of festivities and square dancing on the grass which is the necessary where-with-all to earn the Grasshopper Badge. BUZZIN' CUZZINS...made a good showing at the National in Salt Lake City this year. Attending and participating with the Squarenaders Exhibition Group were our own CHUCK & WANDA KEIST and WHITEY & ADEL BACHMAN. Others enjoying the dancing and scenery were: ROU & LAURA HUGHES, KATHY & DEL HAMBURGER, BURT & JEANNE HARRIS and DAVE & HELEN ROACH. Three squares entertained for the Eastern Star at the Madison Street Temple on July 16. Dessert was served afterwards and an enjoyable evening it was. A Tahoe weekend is in the works for July 28-29 at the BACHMAN'S cabin with an evening of square dancing at the nearby school. Also in the planning stages is our annual picnic in Martinez on Sept. 16, and dancing at El Cerrito Plaza on Sept. 21st for Square Dance Week.

RANCHO WRANGLERS...The club members that attended the MUSTANGS dance really enjoyed the calling of JERRY HELT. RUSS TULLY, BERT SWERER and JIM Mc COLLUM called for us again this month. THELMA LOBB, our Goofer of the Month, for three months finally gave the badge away party night to TRIP POLAKIEWICZ. We have changed our hoedown to Downer School this time, instead of Maple Hall.

Redwood Empire

RUSTLERS...July 15 found the club rhythmically bobbin' in the pool for their Aqua-Duck badges. The pool party was held at BERNIE NEWBERRY'S sister's home. All enjoyed dancing and swimming in the pool. Dancing on the grass was fun and earned many their Grasshopper badge. Our club caller, KEN RICKERT, called for us. Present were several guests from Daly City and two families from Rohnert Park formerly the OUTER PACERS. A delicious potluck was enjoyed by all. Many pictures and movies recorded this fun afternoon. KEN RICKERT has been in the hospital for an operation. He is gaining each day. We trust he will be able to be back at least to visit with us in September. Good luck and good health, KEN!

UKIAH PROMENADERS had DAVE HOBAUGH as their caller for June. Guests attending were BEACHCOMBERS and their Teen club, FRONTIER TWIRLERS, SINGLE PAIRS, CLEARLAKE SQUARES, 5 STARS, DIAMOND SQUARES, CABLE SQUARES, SHELL SWINGERS. We would like to give our condolences to MARY FOSTER. PROMENADERS traveled to Willits and Santa Rosa for the month of June. MARGARET WILCOX is back with us after staying in Oceanside for nearly a year. She danced with SINGLE SQUARES' caller LEE Mc CORMICK. The JOHNSTONS were back visiting in Ukiah from their home in Honolulu. They're the HAYSEEDS. We are looking forward to our Hawaiian Hoedown, with this beautiful weather we should have a crowd.

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES...Our 5th Saturday hoedown in June had a full hall of happy dancers, swinging to the smooth calling of RON WELSH. Refreshments were served by the committee of MARY LOU & CHARLES HEAD, MARY & BURT HANKS and JOAN & DON FROST...2nd Saturday hoedown on July 14th was also well-attended by 15 squares dancing to the excellent calling of DON SHOTWELL of the Bay Area. The committee consisting of NICK & BABE CASASA, SMITTY & ADELINE SMITH and LOUIE & NANCY AZEVEDO served a real nice lunch enjoyed by all...Our annual fun picnic will be held on July 29 at Bouchers Park in Cloverdale.

QUESTION MARKS...had a packed house at our 4th Saturday hoedown in June with BILL PETERS calling. Twenty-eight squares enjoyed the terrific calling of BILL and again many dancers received the special badge. Committee in charge did a great job. They were: MARIE & GEORGE LUIZ, JUNE & BOB BACHE, CARL & FRAN SCHIMMEIER, JAN & AL OSTHELMER. It was great to have as guests LINDA & LEON POWELL of Sacramento who are now with the JETS & JELLS. With our JIM GADBERRY on vacation we visited SQUARE WHEELERS on July 17 and CONCORD REBELS on July 24.

CONCORD STOMPERS... held our yearly picnic at Castle Rock Park. Not much squ-are dancing but plenty of baseball and swim-ming. Entertainment featured a Hawaiian orchestra and native dances along with a man who danced with flaming swords. Not too many attended the picnic but maybe next year more will be able to come. The club has party nights on the 4th Wednesday with plenty of refreshments and fun. Birth-days celebrated this month were: CAROL BISHOP, HOMER HALL, DENISE BENNE-SEN, MARION PERRY, GERRY RUSSELL, JOHN & KATHY THOMASINI, SHERRY JOHNSON, REBA BENJAMIN, and our SHELL SWINGERS...are back dancing at its own clubhouse after the long Shell strike. If anyone is interested in learning to ride a Honda, just ask our caller, JOE MacNAMARA. JOE has the stitches and bruises to prove his experience...Our July hoedown was well-attended with many clubs represented. Our own JOE did the calling and revived some old calls we haven't heard in a long time. Judging from the enthusiasm on the floor, everyone seemed to be having a good time...We visited Vallejo PIONEERS on July 16. They were having a Hawaiian theme and there were so many beautiful costumes, and we had three callers who really kept us busy and having fun all evening. We always enjoy dancing with these nice people and thank them for their invitation.

KONOCTI KICKERS...Our July hoedown held at Pearce Field, otherwise known as our "Hangar Hoedown," in the Prosser Flying Service Hangar, was a huge success. Our guest caller JACK MURTHA from Colusa kept our enthusiastic dancers in a gay mood all evening. We had guests from at least ten different clubs. Next Hangar Hoedown will be held August 11th with callers from the floor. Open invitation to all to come join us for an evening of fun. Sept. 8 guest callers will be CHRIS CHRISTOPHERSON and ELLIS CAMPBELL. This will also be at Pearce Field.

CLEARLAKE SQUARES enjoyed the June hoedown with DICK GILBERT at the mike and do thank all of his dancers who came with him. Do hope they enjoyed their stay in Lake County. Clubs signing in for the dance were: CIRCLE & SQUARES, B & B'S-San Jose, SUNNYVALE SINGLES, EL CERRITO CATCHALL 8'S, CABLE CARS, KONOCTI KICKERS, and dancers from Yucaipa and Cotati. Many of our own dancers were absent because of their outing to the National Convention in Salt Lake. They reported many incidents delaying their travels but knowing this group they still had a good time. Caller 'SPARKY' SPARKS & LOUISE were among the group. Quite a different ending to their trip though with 'SPARKY' spending his whole stay in the Hospital. Leave it to 'SPARKY' they traveled home with others (not what the doctor ordered). Good friends CRIS & RUBY CHRISTOPHERSEN drove them back to California. CLEARLAKE SQUARES is now like a ship without a rudder. Due to health and pressures 'SPARKY' resigned as our caller and we are at this time looking for a caller.

MOUNTAIN MIXERS...by grapevine I hear this club is going strong and are a real fun group.

BRANDING IRONS...We are still enjoying square dancing even with the heat and some of our dancers on vacation. We had a nice birthday party for JEAN RYAN on July 9th. Her birthday was on the 12th. We had guests from CLEARLAKE SQUARES and the MOUNTAIN MIXERS. We do miss ROY & JEANETTE GILL. They have the GILL'S SHOES in the Highlands. JEANETTE was in an accident and hurt her back. We do hope they will be back with us soon. FLOYD & ELAINE traveled to the Bay Area to learn the Round of the Month and FLOYD ate something that made him ill and didn't make it, so they worked it out by themselves and taught it the next Monday at workshop. Our Refresher Course will graduate by Sept. and we will have regular dancing and rounds. We also are going to start a new class in September. We had guests from San Francisco, July 23, WALT & CATHY GRIFFITHS from PACIFICA SQUARES. July 30th we had guests from GINGHAM SQUARES, JUAN & DORIS BURSTAD, very nice couple. We welcome you to our workshop on Mondays at Burns Valley School.

Followed the wonderful time at Salt Lake City, July 31 - Salt Palace where everyone had many choices of Round, Square, Challenge, Shopping, Visiting and take refreshments; all within the Palace; not to mention the Cut and Sew, Seminars and Callers meetings. All 16,472 signed in and 2,400 from California from the Official Registration Board.

The Housing Committee deserves an accolade and the Lost and Found helped many from lost parents, to scarfs and hand-bags. The floor was rough in Main Hall; Canyonland with adjoining Seagull halls, Challenge and Rounds with Zion hall doing very well with exhibitors doing a brisk business and people resting with food and beverages in the dining hall. Everyone weathered the week-end. The nearest coffee-shop served fried corned beef and dip sandwiches in a bun; no way could we recommend that corner restaurant. Made many good observations; one which can be used by other assemblies of square dancers. The Capitol Rotunda was lovely to look at and see but the sound was terrible. The ease of filling tips by guest callers was remarkable - the registration and handling of pre-registration dancers seemed streamlined. All in all, that was the National Convention.

Took time to visit Manhattan and called Ken Anderson for news; another way to look ahead for next year. Garden Stage Bus to Millville, New Jersey and visited the Clifton family; toured the Wehaton Co. Glass Co. and then to Atlantic City for look-see in '77 on Saturday night - the board-walk was loaded with mass of people and the Convention Hall was splendid and they are renovating the Motel-Hotel area. Finished the reason for going East and we were glad to return West.

July 14th, Saturday - drove to Campbell the Peterson School and enjoyed the company of 36 squares with Koit & Helen Tullus on rounds and Dick Houlton calling a happy evening of smooth dancing.

July 15th, Sunday - helped celebrate the birthday of Charles Schadel with taw - Dorothy - even a surprise birthday cake with one candle.

July 16th, Monday - workshop with 8 squares in comfort of the Growers' Hall and figures by callers in new hand-book, presented by Dick Houlton.

July 20th, Friday - Callers Choice of Redwood City hosted 33 squares with coke, tea and iced-tea with fresh cookies all making our dancers enjoy the evening with Gus and Dolores Toumi, hosting the American Legion Hall's new floor.

July 21st, Saturday - Fun Festival meeting with usual workers preparing for everyone's pleasure and the clubs are planning to carry through for the usual good time. Many loose ends will be gathered by August and those present agreed to get the names for 74 and 75. We recommended square dancing for Physical Fitness, Recreation and keep your body toned up. Tell your friends and relations.

July 23rd, Monday - workshop night for those not on vacation or out of town and the 8 squares really kept moving right along. Thanks for attending your club.

Special Notice - at the request of many parents we have a beginners class for teenage groups with Lonzo Morris, instructing. This is a fine recreational activity and highly recommended for all young people to at least join in our efforts for the National S/D program. For information dial 464-5915 and have fun.

July 27th, Friday - drove to San Leandro and enjoyed the hosting of the Puckett's with the Richards doing some nice and easy rounds besides the rhythm of Dick Houlton calling to 12 squares of smooth dancers - Grasshoppers, and later at Copper Penny enjoyed the company of future discussions of forthcoming events. Dream Inn of Santa Cruz, Fun Festival at Stockton, Thanksgiving in Sparks' Ascagua's Nugget and look-for Anaheim for National in 1976.

Thanks for your many courtesies and joining in our fun squares. Also a visit by Madeline Johnston of Rough & Ready Club from Grass Valley - getting visitors to attend workshops helps to get members into your clubs.

Peat Dusters Club - In September will have Johnny Barbour and intentions of many to attend. August third Saturday was Jessie Souza for a change of pace.

Footnote: We have found by travelling that all dancers don't believe in rumors and gossip. Attend your association meetings and dancers, speak up to have your wishes known, many club members have good ideas; let's hear them. Secretaries of our clubs - wishing more news or pass information: kindly send before the end of month and will be given their own by-line. Address: 5835 - 14 Cherokee Road, Stockton 95205.

San Jose & South Bay

B & B'S of San Jose...summer found us electing new officers to serve for six months. DEL JULIAR is again our President and will have help from: Vice Pres., ROSALIE BURKHEAD; Secty., KITTY WELKER; Treas., MARGO HORTON; Delegate ED DICKSON; Publicity, DON SAROFF. He will also be appointing some of our 27 new members to committees...Our new Beginners' Class will start Sept. 12 at Doyle School in Cupertino, and each Wednesday thereafter with our basically shy caller, DICK GILBERT instructing...Many of our members traveled during the summer to dance, and BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTEs were seen this year in Hawaii, Anaheim, Salt Lake City and Reno. SINGLES can find square dancing fun anywhere, even at home. Join us some 3rd Tuesday for party night (free) and find out for yourself.

GADABOUTS...Conventions are always fun and 1973's was no exception. Two squares represented the club for a weekend of fun. A number of members turned out for a day of sunshine, fun, and relaxation at Seacliff on the 1st of July. All seemed to have a really enjoyable day. Had a surprise visit from the MERIDIAN CORNERS and their caller in July. Turned out to be a very nice surprise for us. Received and responded to an invitation to join the JOKERS on a Wednesday in July. Came out to be a real hoppin' night. The food was great and so was the hospitality. Graduation Day has been set.

SILVER DOLLARS...We had a very successful wine trip with 20 couples aboard. We went to two wineries, a cheese factory, and a candle factory. Those of us who went to the National had a wonderful time and are looking forward to next year. We had 4½ squares graduate. Our new members are: ARMON & BETTY CHRISTOPHERSON, RAYLENE CLARK, FRANK & BARBARA CYR, DON & ANNA GREEN, DOUG MOODY, DON & ELLEN LEWIS, BILL & WILLIE McAULEY, RAY & PHYLLIS MORRISON, WILLIAM & REBA NYE, REESE & PHYLLIS WILSON, JIM & BETH KELP, FRANK & MIRANDA TORRES, BILL & MAE MORTON. Welcome and I know you will have many happy times dancing. We're all looking forward to our annual picnic at Uvas Meadows and our Hawaiian Hoedown.

GILROY GLIDERS...We had 5 couples attend the National in Salt Lake City. Everyone enjoyed the dancing, exhibitions, and some sightseeing. We want to thank everyone who came to our 24th Anniversary Dance...A fun time was had by all dancing to caller JERRY HELT and CLARK & MAXINE SMITH'S rounds. The club recently relaxed at a Potluck Chicken Barbecue at Bolado Park. The food and fellowship was great and so was the swimming. Since our caller, KENNY STEEN, is going on vacation, we are going to use the opportunity to do some- visiting.

MELODY SQUARES...Our club picnic was a great success and we were especially happy to see LEO & VIDA PRICE and DAISY WILLIAMS there...Some of our members are off to Hawaii for their vacation, others plan to go later in the fall. BETTY & LOUIE LE-MAS are planning on going to the South Sea Islands, don't we wish we could go with them? FRED & PHYLLIS CHAPPELL had a nice vacation in Europe, but had all their luggage stolen, which wasn't so nice...We would like to invite everyone to come dance with us any Tuesday night.

END OF NEWS SECTION.
SINCE WE WERE SO SHORT ON
ROOM, WE HAD TO CUT SOME OF THE NEWS.. WE REGRET THAT SOMETIMES THIS IS A VERY NECESSARY THING WE HAVE TO DO...
