President's Message

Jerry & Dorothy Kent

We regret to have to report that due to unforeseen circumstances the Anniversary Dance will not be held at San Francisco Civic Auditorium as originally announced. Unfortunately another group has reserved the hall Saturday night and the management was not able to have the facility ready for us. So we will be going back to Richmond again. The Anniversary Dance will still be a free dance to Association Member Clubs only.

Rumors seem to be circulating that we will experience the same sort of difficulty Round-Up weekend, however, to reassure those of you who are concerned we do have the contracts already for Civic Auditorium Memorial Day Weekend so we will not have this problem.

Dorothy and I have not been able to see as many of you as we would have liked these past few months. Dorothy has had surgery twice but is now well on the road to good health again and now that she is up, and around again, we are looking forward to visiting as many of you on workshop nights as possible.

In November we held our first Round-Up meeting of the year and all committees report that everything is progressing well. Most of you have heard by now that the Program Chairman this year will be DON & BOBBIE SHOTWELL. Per usual they have several new ideas to help make our Round-Up the fresh and different festival it always is every year.

When your club receives their committee notice for Round-Up duties be sure and get the selections you make back to our secretaries DON & WILMA TINSLEY at the earliest possible date so that the committee chairmen will know how many people they will be able to count on.

Dorothy and I would like to wish all of you a very joyous Holiday Season.

DO C DO'S of Vallejo have new officers for the next six months. To be installed are BILL & ELEANOR BIRD, Pres.; MARILYN & ART MARTIN, Vice Pres.; BONNIE & FRED CLINGINSMITH, Secty.; and VIVIAN & KEN BOGLE, Treasurer. The beginners class turned out to be a "retread" class and is progressing very fast. Caller JOE McNAMARA is giving the "old timers" a good workout on many of the new calls and teaching the newest of the rounds. With the holidays coming up so soon we are already planning for a "Winter Wonderland" hoedown for the 2nd weekend in January with VERN CHURCHILL calling.

WINE COUNTRY REBELS' own MIKE LUNA called a fast moving fun-filled hoedown for our special guests, the TRAILER TWIRLERS and dancers from many other clubs on the evening of Oct. 13th. Adding much to the festivities were HAROLD & MARY HUNTLEY on the rounds. Our beginners class was getting off to a slow start, because of the involvement of many prospective dancers in the grape harvest, so starting date was put off until Oct. 17. President FRANK & IONE BROWN and Vice President JOE & MARIE HOMEN will be missed when they take a five weeks trip to the South Pacific to be gone all of Nov. and part of December.

CATCH ALL 8'S ... November found the club celebrating their bi-annual hoedown to the fine music and calling of the Roll-A-Longs. Now the holiday season is nearly here we look forward to our Christmas party and the return of LAWRENCE & MARION BARTHOLOMEW in mid-December. Our brush-up course continues and we will be back dancing, after the school recess, on January 8. We wish you all a "Very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year."

NAPA BUZZSTEPPERS...surprised JOYCE & CHARLIE WRIGHT with a three-layered anniversary cake. The occasion? Twenty-five years of wedded bliss. NONIE HOPP and JIM PENCE, oddly enough, were hospitalized the same day. All indications are that both of them are doing fine. We wish them a speedy recovery. CEIL & JIM CRANE and BARB & FRED TRITCHER enjoyed a trip to Lake Tahoe where they attended a hoedown. The caller was DAVE HOBAUGH. Don't forget our Christmas hoedown on Dec. 15. Some surprises and excellent food will be offered. Caller ROBBIE ROBINSON.

RANCHO WRANGLERS ... our workshops have been small the months of Sept. & Oct. as so many were on vacation. One couple, the MAZYRACKS traveled to London, Paris, Brussels, Geneva, Venice, Bologna, Rome and Africa. The DEITRICKS spent 6 weeks in the mountains. We are happy that KEITH McKIM has made such a good recovery from his stroke. Our new Gofer of the Month is our caller BERT SWERER, he sure got a lot of razzing about it. We have started a beginners class and our first night had a good attendance.

PISTOLS 'N PETTICOATS ... We seem a little slow starting back to dancing after summer vacation but we're finally shaping up. We visited the CROCKETT ROCKETS and got a return visit back already. Some of our club and our caller and TONYA attended the GARY SHOEMAKE dance in Oakland Saturday night. They all said he really outdid himself as usual. Remember Dec. 15th, it's our Christmas hoedown at Pinole Valley High School, with our club caller KEITH GYLFE calling. We are starting a beginners class in January.

BUZZIN' CUZZINS ... Party night was hosted this month by the HUGHES and the DAMMS. Homemade cream puffs were made by LAURA HUGHES. A fall business meeting was held at the home of TOM & SUSAN SPADONI. At that time, we set up committees for our up-coming anniversary hoedown on Nov. 17. A Halloween party is set for Nov. 1st. A white elephant sale added a few dollars to our treasury and was a lot of fun exploring all the unusual items for sale.

SOUR GRAPES ... of Napa traveled far and this past month. Visited WESTERN STARS, DIAMOND DANCERS, WINE COUNTRY REBELS, RUSTLERS, DIABLO SINGLES, VALLEJO SINGLES, PIONEERS, and FIVE STAR SQUARES. Doing a great job for the SOUR GRAPES is the following slate of officers: Pres. & First Lady, BOB & JOANN SHINDLER; Vice Pres., JIM BOCKMAN & SHARON; Secty., VONDA DULANY and MIKE; Treasurer, JANE RENZ & OWEN...

Oct. 5th...Friday-participated in an exhibition of Square Dancing in Sacramento Grange, Gold Star Chapter with two squares of beginners for future dancing.

Oct. 7th, Sunday...Association meeting with eight clubs and three callers present discussed gasoline shortage and many area clubs holding Saturday hoedowns; cut down the expected attendance for your pleasure. As usually happens, after the affair we have many complaints but no assistance; only critics. Our Fun Festival continues getting the best callers available and Round teachers, to bring all dancers together once a year to have fun and meet old and new friends; while, we locally do the work and make all dancers and visitors comfortable; in return for when you work at your functions. Space is available in Stockton for campers, trailers, and motorhomes and many dry-park near the Civic Auditorium. Help your favorite Exhibition Group to travel by buying a ticket or making a donation... Everyone enjoys a wood floor - not concrete - with air conditioning and central location with space to park; as long as the Civic Auditorium is available we should patronize same and not go to a lower graded location. Those who care help make our Festivals more attractive.

Oct. 10th, Wednesday...Dropped in to visit with Stars and Bars workshop at Waverly School with Rick & Nellie More.

Oct. 14th, Sunday...Columbia and Kelley's

Kitchen - come aboard, come join the FUN and enjoy good relaxing dancing the 2nd Sundays, 2-5 p.m.

Oct. 15th, Monday...Our regular workshop nights give everyone within a large radius much to do for new calls and maneuvers and meet beautiful people.

Oct. 18th, Thursday...Dropped in to Carriker's at Growers Hall and enjoyed several Rounds. Believe it or not; Marge & Vern have a good club and should encourage its growth.

Oct. 20, 21st - Baseball, of course.

Oct. 27th, Saturday...Was and is the Callers Choice way of expressing thanks to all those dancers that support the dance and enjoy new and exciting callers. - this time - Nate Bliss, Rialto, Cal. gave the floor quite a bit of material to keep them happy and excited for more. Callers entertain and have varied ways of passing their material on to the floor: mainly, hoping to have their attention. Oftentimes we need a walk-thru and then enjoy a fresh experience of having FUN.

Oct. 28th, Sunday...We enjoyed the Harvest Hoedown in the Sacramento Auditorium - signed in for Sunday with Clark & Maxine Smith's Rounds and really they do a real good teaching and cueing. Continued right into Jerry Haag for again, new material and some walk-throughs for his calling a good level. Due to other dates left satisfied and trust those of you who attended had as good a time as we did.

Oct. 29th, Monday...Workshopped all the compliments and questions about some material displayed at the last hoedowns and finished the evening with the knowledge; we were getting better acquainted with our honest and eager members. Thanks, to our caller, Dick Houlton. Again, thanks to you who help make our Association what it is and could be - let's be more face to face. Even the telephone call still is pay phone - ten cents.

WALNUT CREEK

RIPSNORTERS...really celebrated Square Dance Week, with more than eight squares dancing in Sun Valley Mall and over three squares winning 'Frozen Assets' badges by dancing two long tips on ice skates! That is doing it the hard way! Several club members enjoyed a weekend in Stockton, Sept. 22 and 23. PAULINE & AUSTIN PAUL, EUNICE & WES REESER, AUDREY & RUDY KRATINE, JEAN & BOB WILSON, and LORRAINE & JOHN MELROSE enjoyed dancing to NATE BLISS and BARRY MEDFORD...Also, that weekend of rain and gasoline shortages found BOBBY & RANDY NEWCOMER, BETTY & ROGER DeRUY-SCHER, GINNY & LEE SLOAN, JIM GEISBRECHT, LAURIE COPLEY, NANCY & KEN MILROY, BOB & WANDA SLOAN, GAIL & JIM THOMSON, DIANE & BILL DeWOLF and CAROL MOULTON and assorted children touring 160 or so miles to Wright's Beach for a barbecue - that they ended by eating in their own backyard!...A number of club members attended CONCORD REBELS hoedown Oct. 13, dancing to the calling of DAVE HOFFMAN. FRED & DONNA DIGERT, BOB & WANDA SLOAN, GENE & BEV SANFORD, DUANE & BETTY FIRST, GORDON & BARBARA RYDBERG, DUANE & FAYE LeFEBVRE, TIM & KATHY DORR, JOE & LINDA TAYLOR, RON & MARY ANDERSON, TONY & MARTHA KESSLER were among the happy dancers.

SQUARE WHEELERS...Two squares did an exhibition dance for the Walnut Creek NEWCOMERS at a picnic at Castle Rock Park. Those in attendance were our President JACQUE WARD and his daughter, MARYANNE, JOHN & DOROTHY CARVER, CHARLES & OLGA CARY, RAY & JEAN NASH, DOROTHY & TOM MATTHEWS, HERB & JO SHELLEY, CHUCK & RUTH PENNY, MIKE & SHERRY PETRICH, and ED & ESTHER VAISNOR. Our own club members, HERB SHELLEY, did the calling, and the PENNY'S hosted an after party enjoyed by all. Many thanks to JOAN & ADRIAN MENDES for the use of their school for class night when our regular school wasn't available. We always have a great time at their place. EVELYN POST missed that fun night because she had just returned from two weeks in Spain...JEANNE FISCHER called for our October hoedown and everyone had a ball. Also in October on class night, we helped our caller, NONIE MOGLIA, celebrate his birthday with a happy birthday cake. We'll miss our V.P.'s, DORIS & LOREN DOWNING, who are moving to San Antonio.

ANTIOCH AMBLERS...There was a great turnout for the beginners classes held recently. We would like to welcome the couples who have joined us. They are: RAY & KATE BOOTHE, WAGNER & HELEN GODMUNSON, TIM & KATHY DONOVAN, L.D. & BARBARA MAUPIN, BILL & LUCILLE KALE, DAN & SANDY NOGARR, JIM & PEGGY WILLIAMS, ROBERT & TERRIE ZABROSKI, CURTIS & MABEL HARDY. A picnic was held to welcome the beginners on October 6th, at Antioch City Park. Even the crispy weather didn't hamper the fun. We would like to send get well wishes to CLIFF WATKINS who is recovering from a heart attack and to welcome back DAVE & VICKI SLONECKER who have been on vacation.

CLUTCH BUSTERS... Our 17th Anniversary hoedown in September turned out to be a huge success. Thanks to DAVE STEVENS' great calling and all the clubs who attended to make this our best anniversary yet... Seven couples plus two TWILITE TWIRLERS traveled to Napa to dance to the calling of DAVE HOBAUGH. Enjoying a potluck first at the home of the YOUNGS were the: ALLREDS, CANTUAS, COULTAS, FLOTZ, KENNEYS, WOODS with SAM & RITA JONES and RAY & KATHY WILLIAMS from TWILITE TWIRLERS. Everyone said dancing to the Ghost Riders was a lot of fun... The YOUNGS and WOODS were invited to help fill a square for the TWILITE TWIRLERS when they danced at the Walnut Festival.

TEEN TWIRLERS of Concord are having a hoedown in December. We had a bake sale this month and it was very good. We have started a beginners class also.

DIABLO DOPPERS... Party night in October for our caller VERN SEAGOE, and his taw, IRENE. They celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary; and our club joined in the festivities of dancing and good food which was hosted by their two daughters, PENNY and SANDY. Seven couples traveled to San Jose for the 17th Annual Jubilee Convention. The PARRISH brothers, BOB & DICK, were the evening callers. The gas strike prevented many of us from attending the Stockton Fun Festival. The BAILEYS, BONNEYS, T. BROWNS, LIEBERS, MUSSEYS, and NESBITTS instead danced to JERRY FOSTER'S calling for the SHELL SWINGERS' hoedown. Our club has been on a winning streak. Most of us have won door prizes at the different hoedowns we've been attending.

TWILITE TWIRLERS have had a busy month getting our new beginners off on the right foot. Have a very good group and with our club caller, LEE BUCKINGHAM, to teach them, they will soon be great dancers. Several members have been ill with the flu. Also we have had election of officers. Newly elected are: ROY WILLIAMS, Pres.; SAM JONES, Vice Pres.; Secty., WANDA FROST; Treasurer, LINDA WUNSCH; and Sheriff, DEE BARBEA; Publicity, MARIE MIKESELL; Flyer Printer, RUDY DEGROOT. Members have been attending other club dances. FENNY & RUDY DeGROOT were on vacation. Now that fall is here our members are all home from vacations and children are in school.

JACKS & JENNYS... After an eventful summer we started off graduating our beginners class. A hearty welcome to: BARBARA & SHELLY BAUM, JEAN & GLENN DURSTON, ROXIE & AL FOGLIA, MARGARET & BILL HANSEN, BARBARA & JERRY HAYES BETTY & RAY LEYSHOCK, HELEN & GENE MASON, LOIS & DAVE HITCHMAN, JUANITA & BUD POLLOCK, ROSE & STEVE RATLIFF, LOLA & HANK SORENSON, EL-EANOR & RALPH STAPLETON, ANN & FRANK TOLSON, GERT & LEO VALENTINE KAREN & DUANE WELCH, MARION & LEE WINTON, MARGIE & PETE NIEBER, MARILYN & BILL NOOTBAAR. Also to our newest members RHEBA & FRANK BENJAMIN and HAPPY & RON RUNSWICK. I hope nobody has been forgotten. They are a fun group and most certainly an asset to the club.

CLEARLAKE AREA

Glenhaven, Calif.

GUENOCKERS of Middletown... have re-organized after several years of not dancing. 'SPARKY' SPARKS is directing them and they joined NCSA in October. This group formed in Sept. '71 and made a supreme effort that nearly ended with a dull thud. They had four and sometimes five squares and were meeting up on Cobb Mountain at the lovely old Forest Lake Resort when one dark night the crowd began to arrive and discovered it was the night the lights went out in Forest Lake Resort. Without warning the club had lost their dance place. Before they could reassemble up further on the mountain at Hobergs a few dancers were lost. Then no sooner had they worked up steam again at Hobergs it began to snow, and snow - and snow! Roads were closed or chains required. The dancers were forced down from the mountain to seek still another location in the Middletown area. They finally wound up in Community Church recreation hall, but minus a number of their dancers who had driven from Kelseyville and the upper area of Clearlake. It was now too distant for these people to drive weekly in the bad weather. There were nights when one square and a spare were all there was. And one night when only one couple made it. Only determination and effort of their caller 'SPARKY' and some of the members finally pulled the club up to three squares. They hope to graduate in November. BOB DONLEY is President and JOYCE JONES, Treasurer.

CLEARLAKE SQUARES...A square of our dancers entertained the Friendship Circle of the Methodist Church and enjoyed refreshments with them. Now that the club has a regular caller, JERRY FOSTER (and we do thank him), we are settling back to a routine again and as usual visiting other clubs in and out of the area.

KONOCTI KICKERS. The GLEN BYLUNDS were given a surprise party on Oct. 17, workshop night. It was their 30th Wedding Anniversary. A terrarium was presented to them along with a special cake and good wishes from the whole gang. The middle of October saw four couples motoring to Garberville to dance and enjoy the calling of CHRIS CHRISTOPHERSON. Nov. 3rd the KONOCTI KICKERS will take their workshop over to Arbuckle in hopes of retrieving their club banner. Of course, dancing will be enjoyed also. Our last hoedown Oct. 13th was called by JOHN FRERICHMANN.

BRANDING IRONS...We are going to graduate our beginners next week, Nov. 1st. We have changed our dancing hall and day to Lower Lake High School on Thursdays. 'SPARKY' SPARKS called for our club last month while our caller FLOYD HUETT was out of town for a week. Four of our ladies got "Topless" badges and we get a lot of laughs out of them. You have to dance with three bald-headed men in a square.

RENEGADES...No news except through the grapevine from this club but having visited them have first hand information that a lot of their time has been spent in getting their hall fixed up. Looks like a different place now and they do have a nice group of new dancers there too. Will be looking for news next time.

MOUNTAIN MIXERS have changed their dancing night so be sure to call them before visiting.

LAKE ROUNDERS have a real good group of new Round Dancers and also more experienced dancers. With JOE & ILO LOGASA teaching we are all keeping up on the new rounds as they come out and also going back to practice the older ones.

Marin County News

NOVATO STUMP JUMPERS ... members have attended all the Marin club parties in October - HUFFS 'N PUFFS with KEN BISHOP calling, CORNHUSKERS with JOHN STRONG and HARRY WHITLOCK in a joint date, and BUZZIN' BOOTS with BILL PETERS. Our own party, on Oct. 20 had BUD GRASS in a great job of calling. Newer members KAREN & TONY ALTIZIO and BOB & EDNA MANZONI were hosts for the evening, and they did an excellent job. We've enjoyed the calling of RALPH THOMAS, of ADOBE SQUARES, for a couple of workshops, while our own DAVE MILANO and wife BUNNY are on vacation, now headed for Spain. Sounds like a great trip! Sorry our past president GEORGE PIAZZA & HELLA had to move to Susanville. We will miss them, and hope they can visit occasionally. On Halloween, we visited the PAWS & SQUAWS' workshop, and enjoyed HAROLD POPE'S calling.

NOVATO SQUARES...At our semi-annual potluck dinner, we unanimously elected the following to office: TED REID, Pres.; V.P. PEGGY BRUCE; Secty., JANE WESTERLUND; Publicity, THELMA NELSON; and continuing as treasurer for another 6 months GLEN REID. Our new Sheriff will be the incorruptible (he says) HOLLIE DELATOUR. Food was excellent as usual. On Oct. 5, the SQUARES donned rain-coats and visited HUFFS 'N PUFFS party at Terra Linda, with our up-country friend KEN BISHOP at the mike. The evening was enjoyed by all, especially our newer members, many of whom are taking round dance lessons from the H & P's LARRY WILLIAMS, who cued the rounds especially for them. If you hear faint moose calls in the background, it's OSCAR MONTGOMERY. He and MARGE just got back from a two-week hunting trip in British Columbia.

HUFFS 'N PUFFS' KEN BISHOP called a great hoedown for our party on Oct. 5th, keeping us all on our toes for a fine evening. We were happy to see his taw, GRACE and a square from SHASTA DAM DANDIES.

The hospitality committee was comprised of NANCY & CLYDE TYNES, EULA & MARK WALKER, with PAT LANE in charge of decorations. A square of members enjoyed BUD GRASS' calling at the October STUMP JUMPERS hoedown. Caller KEITH GYLFE was honored at a club workshop on the occasion of his birthday - with a birthday pie, gift and a big thank you from the members for all the joy he has given us in the past. Afterwards, we gathered at a pizza parlor for liquid and other refreshments - someone managed the feat of floating a candle in a jug of beer! Birthday greetings also to MUNCIE BONNER, JEFF FARRIN, MARLOU SOMMERVILLE, NANCY TYNES, BRIGIT WIEGANDT, and LOUISE & FRED ZIMMERMAN.

BUZZIN' BOOTS... We have between 5 & 6 enthusiastic squares of new dancers in our class meeting on Tuesday nights at Bernard Hoffman School in Terra Linda. Most of them were introduced through our annual potluck dinner in September. Wet weather did nothing to dampen the spirits of those who spent another successful weekend at Konocti in early October. The cocktail party and dance were huge successes. The more energetic picked bushels of walnuts to bring home. On the way home, visits were made to cheese factories and wineries. Thanks to the CONKLINGS for their job of arranging accommodations for members.

MILL WHEELERS... The GINGHAM SQUARES' anniversary dance drew the ALLIS', KEALEYS, KNUTSONS, ELLIOTTS, MORRISONS, MURPHYS, RETTERS, SMYTHS & WILKINSONS on Oct. 13th and BOBPAGE called a great party. Our LAMBERT KNOX cued the rounds. Saw many old friends there. JANE JETT spent September in England and on the Continent with her daughter. Saw no square dancing!? KNUTSONS and SMYTHS enjoyed the GARY SHOEMAKE dance at Aahmes Temple on Oct. 20. Bad news - JOE MURPHY was hurt in a car accident, breaking both an arm and a leg. Hope he mends quickly, as we shall miss him and DOTTY. VELLA BERRYMAN is back after surgery, but we haven't seen MAXINE & DICK BINDON lately.

CORNHUSKERS have one of their best classes yet, with the best attendance record! They are already laying plans for our Dec. 8th beginner hoedown. The JEWELLS were the proud introducers of our graduating Teens at workshop on Oct. 19 - these young people were first brought together by them, and they joined with CORNHUSKERS when their own group folded. The CONROYS appreciated the thanks given for their help with the kids. Members of the club attended all the Marin parties this month - one every week! Highlight, of course, was our own 21st Anniversary Party, called, as is our custom, by JOHN STRONG and our HARRY WHITLOCK, jointly. The committee: LEO & DONNA JARVIS, and LYNN & STAN PAYTON did a fine job with the food arrangements. The clubs illuminated sign was out in front this year, after being rained out last year. An election after-party was held at the home of outgoing president JOHN GATES. New officers are: Pres., DAVE KIMBALL (SHERRY); V.P., JOHN COOK (NANCY); Treasurer, MIKE KUTLIK (BARBARA); and Secretary, JULIE O'CONNOR (MIKE).

SQUAWS & PAWS... Tryum all Marin Dances in October - STUMP JUMPERS, CORNHUSKERS, HUFFS 'N PUFFS, and BUZZIN' BOOTS (funny names for tribes, Huh?)... Heap fine time at each party. DEARDUFFS LJELLGRENS, SANCHEZ' and STEACEYS invaded HUFFS 'N PUFFS to hear KEN BISHOP, while a square went to an IOOF party in Santa Venetia, to promote square dancing with an exhibition: HARDERS, ILDERTONS, O'LEARYS and STEPHENS'. At CORNHUSKERS' party were ADAMS, ALPERS, GIBBS, ILDERTONS and STEPHENS. Good food and good calling by STRONG & WHITLOCK. Big raid on STUMP JUMPERS to hear chief BUD GRASS calling - tribe members attending were ALPERS, BAERS, GIBBS, ILDERTONS, KJELLGRENS, O'LEARYS, STEACEYS, STEPHENS, and WHEELERS. Tribe invites all dancers to new reservation at Hill Jr. High on Wednesdays. DOC CONROY & LOUISE already have paid a visit, bringing the Marin Pink Sheet for our tribe members.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS... congratulations to our incoming officers: Pres., DAN & FERN DUGGAN; V. Pres., LADY KORNLY and MARIE KORNHAUSER; Treas., MARIE &

RAY MAGORNO; Corres. Secty., BILL & CLARA St. CLAIR. A word of well done to the officers who completed their tour of duty: JACKIE & GIL JONES, Pres., Corresponding Secty., MARY ELLEN & BART BARTHOLOMEW; Recording Secty., MICKEY & GEORGE HANSON. A few meetings ago RAY MAGORNO voiced a complaint that the soft drinks were too warm, it came to the attention of the Refreshment custodians, BERNIE & LOIS, the very next square dance occasion the drinks were served frozen solid. How do you like that?

BAYWOOD PROMENAIRES ... are really missing the presence of RED & RUBY LOVE. RED has had some serious surgery and RUBY has been at his side through it all. Hope we see you soon. We are enjoying the group of ex-square dancers who have joined us for the refresher course. They are doing beautifully. On Sept. 30th, we visited the wine tasting room at Weibel Winery and had a picnic afterwards on their grounds with some of their delicious wine to go with the picnic gummies. On Oct. 12th, we saw the play "Washington Slept Here" by the Chanticleers at the Palomares Playhouse. This is always an enjoyable evening.

KUNTRY KUZINS ... our beginners class has started and making very good progress. Party night saw the visiting of Dist. 7 officers and we enjoyed having them. The COTTON PICKERS' Anniversary dance was well-attended by our club. The KEEWAY SWINGERS attended our Wednesday night workshop to steal the Buckskin which they did. GINGER HODGES said "Wouldn't it be funny if we visited them on their Thursday night workshop to steal it back?" Which we did and had a great time dancing both nights with them. Our picnic was its usual success with families in attendance. Several couples attended the Jubilee at the Santa Clara County Fairgrounds, and reported what a good dance it was. Several couples traveled to Sacramento to dance with the BILLS & FRILLS. A most successful club event was our Hayride to which we invited FARMERS & FARMERETTES. We had a great time. We danced in a barn to the calling of FRED WILLIAMS and our own BOB HOFFSETZ. Our thanks to the SILVAS' who were in charge of details for this event.

EAGLE SQUARES...our beginner class is going well under the able instruction of our club caller, NONIE MOGLIA. We have five squares. Two squares of our regular members took part in the annual Cultural Arts Exhibit on October 12. One of our visitors this month was a caller serving as an interpreter in the service in Germany. His name is FRANK JOZWICK. Any of our readers visiting in Europe should look him up in Berlin. We are looking forward to seeing many of you at our beginners hoe-down in December which will be called by NONIE.

ALAMEDA SQUARE CROWS...we ended the month of September by attending the Stampedo on Sept. 19, and then Dist. 3's Benefit Dance on the 30th. October 5th was regular workshop night. On Oct. 6th some of us traveled to the CASTRO VALLEY REBELS' Anniversary dance. DAVE STEVENS called a great dance and the Samoan dancers provided exciting entertainment. Oct. 13th found us at the CHECKMATES' 11th Anniversary. As always, we enjoyed the fine calling of DON SHOTWELL. Oct. 20-21 we enjoyed 't weekend with GARY SHOEMAKE". The dance on Saturday was outstanding and the workshop a real challenge. Oct. 26th our annual Halloween costume party with guests from BUZZIN' CUZZINS, DIABLO SINGLES and OTTA BENS. BILL & JANICE HANZEL made a special visit from Cupertino and appeared as Big Bird and Humpty Dumpty. Calling the event was our own JIM GADBERRY and guest callers.

ACES & LACES...here it is, the Fall of the year already, and time for Halloween and thoughts of Thanksgiving and Christmas. We held our annual Progressive Dinner on Oct. 20, with a turnout of over fifty people. We started at the LINES' for cocktail hour, what a punch! On to the BEEBES' for salads then to the PERRYS' where the main course of a turkey dinner was served. The committee really knocked themselves out. FRANCIS GARHART made a tasty birthday cake for his wife PAT, and we all sang Happy Birthday. Then on to ED & DOROTHY LOONEY'S for the after-party dancing and other kinds of fun. All in all a really great evening. On the 17th we enjoyed the visit of BETTY SPENCER, a former member who now lives in Seattle. Held our Halloween party on Oct. 24th. Theme was hard times and there were some mighty strange looking get-ups.

BERKELEY SINGLE SQUARES...still carry on without ANDY BECK and his inimitable Round Dance calling. We wish to extend many thanks to BILL STAPP for coming all the way from San Francisco to pinch-hit for ANDY each Thursday night. Our annual barbecue party was held at the beautiful Sequoia Lodge. Prices being what they are we settled for succulent barbecued chicken with lots of good fixings and an afternoon of great dancing and fun. The "great pumpkin" presided over a special party night on the night before Halloween when members and friends came to dance in costumes. Among the witches and goblins were beautiful dancing ladies and even the devil himself. Some identities were not guessed until "masks off time".

EDEN ROCKERS...welcome back LAVONA GODWIN a former member of our club. We are happy to have you dancing with us again. Seven couples attended the 5th Saturday Stampede enjoyed dancing to EARL RICH. We welcome new members to our club, MARY & IRVING PECTOR. Oct. 10 we were honored by a visit from our caller BILL STRINGER'S parents from Clearlake. Also visiting was the KOUGHES from ROLLING SQUARES. We are sincerely sorry to hear our Vice Pres., IRVIN FLYNN, suffered a heart attack. He was in intensive care for a week, but from all late reports he is much improved. Our prayers are still with you for a speedy recovery. Some of us attended CHECKMATES' 11th Anniversary dance and enjoyed dancing to DON SHOTWELL, and Rounds by JUNE & MILLARD Mc KINNEY. Even the rain didn't dampen their desire to hear some good jazz music for EDITH & HARLEY CLARK who spent one week in New Orleans.

FARMERS 'N FARMERETTES...while some of us were enjoying the SCVSDA Jubilee weekend, which was super, others were playing golf in the First Annual Farmers 'N Farmerettes Dubber's Tournament. On our party night Oct. 8 the list of Dist. 7 officers and delegates was overwhelming, fifteen total. Thanks to KUNTRY KUZINS for inviting us to their hayride. Good food and plenty of good square dancing too. We had a great time. It was another busy weekend for many of our couples who attended the DIABLO SINGLES dance and workshop with GARY SHOEMAKE. Glad to welcome FRED & BONNIE ROSENDAHL to our club as new members.

ODDS 'N ENDS...members who attended the East Bay Stampede had nothing but praise for the RON & GENE WELSH team of father and son. BETTY WELSH quod the rounds. Many of us attended the JERRY HAAG dance sponsored by the GRASSHOPPERS. It was a delightful night and the refreshments were tops. All during September and October we've missed our Round Dance teacher, ANDY BECK. He has had a long seige of sickness and we'll be happy to see him back with us again. Our party night in October was a huge success... 16 squares and for refreshments we had pumpkin pie with whipped cream and cider, hot coffee and tea which made a very appropriate menu for the Halloween season.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS...wedding cake was served at our October potluck honoring the recent wedding of RON & ARDIS GRIFFITH...Twenty-six squares filled Walters Jr. High at our Oct. 6th hoedown called by DICK HOULTON...Preparations are underway for our next hoedown in December. JOHN BARBOUR will be calling. VI MOHN is home recovering from major surgery. Congratulations to SPENCER LEWIS who was appointed principal to Leitch Elementary school.

HEE HAW SINGLES...Our new beginner class is going great with approximately 60 people in attendance. Some of our members attended party night with the KEEWAY SWINGERS. Enjoyed the Jubilee in San Jose; Square Affair in San Luis Obispo and the fine calling by LARRY JACK at KEEWAY'S 7th Anniversary dance recently. Oh, you cupid! Another wedding in the near future. Our BARBARA HAINES and her GLEN. Plans for our New Year's Eve dance coming along, look for our ad in this issue. (Please put club's name on news item makes it easier for the typist-thank you.)

KEEWAY SWINGERS...have been busy, some of us ended up September at the Santa Clara Jubilee and about six couples traveled to Long Beach to the WOWS & HOWS' Grasshopper dance with our own LEE BUCKINGHAM the featured caller. Then we turned out in force for TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS with DICK HOULTON calling. On another Saturday we scattered, some going to CHECKMATES with DON SHOTWELL calling some to the SEE SAWS with BURLIN DAVIS and JOE JOHNSON and ERNIE KINNEY coming in for the after-party, and some went to hear DICK HOULTON. Went to the VALLEY TRAVELERS with PAUL HARRIS doing the honors, while others went to BOOTS & BLOOMERS with JESSIE SOUZA calling. The Buckskin has been changing hands lately.

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS... enjoyed a very successful anniversary hoedown. Our "Tropical Paradise" was complete with decorations of palm trees and grass huts, and all the ladies received leis as they came in the door. To complete our program we had Polynesian dancers and our guest caller DAVE (hula girl) STEVENS, was seen dancing and calling in a grass skirt. Thanks to all who came and had a good time with the REBELS. We have a large class of beginners who are doing really great. Hope they continue to progress rapidly. A group of REBELS attended SKIRTS & FLIRTS recent Oct. hoedown. We all enjoyed ERNIE KINNEY, have you ever danced a "Doodley Squat?"

VALLEY TRAVELERS... we held our 8th anniversary hoedown Oct. 20th with our club caller PAUL HARRIS doing a terrific job! There were 46 guest couples and 30 of our own. The food committee did a grand job. An anniversary cake sporting our club emblem came from the kitchen of JOAN VON BUSKIRK. An after party was held at the ANDERSON'S home given by several couples. KUNTRY KUZINS were our guests for a costume Halloween party on Oct. 25. This date was also the HARRIS' 5th wedding anniversary, congratulations. Nov. 9th supported our beginners class at the KEEWAY'S beginners hoedown called by LEE BUCKINGHAM. Nov. 29, hosted the 5th Thursday party night with KEEWAYS and SQUARE CIRCLES attending. Dec. 20, a Christmas party for members and families will be held. Buffet dinner at 6:30 and then dancing at 8 p.m.

SUNDOWNERS... many happy events have been transpiring in the club, our semi-annual potluck dinner and business meeting was held at the Dimond Recreation Center on Oct. 6 which included a gourmet dinner and installation of new officers, PAUL & ADDIE KURTZ, our first couple, with KEN & DIANE REMMERT, and BOB & SHERRY HANSEN, our second and third couples respectively. After which a fun dance called by our LEN MURPHY. Oct. 25, held our Halloween party with prizes for most original costumes. Refreshments and dancing followed. Welcome to the new arrival at the CARPENTER'S home, a baby girl. Best wishes on their blessed event.

COTTON PICKERS... our beginners class is progressing right along under the guidance of our caller, LUTHER BOWERS, and with the help of many of our club members. We feel quite proud of all our beginners in how well they are doing. Halloween party Oct. 26th turned out to be a great success. Many of the members turned out in costume as well as all the children, and there were prizes for the best. Plans for our party night are now being made and the CASTRO VALLEY REBELS will be our guests for the evening of Nov. 9th. Christmas and New Year's Eve parties are being planned. Dec. 8th for the adults and Dec. 14th for the Children's Christmas party.

UC SQUARES... our September monthly dinner was held at the Korean Inn in Berkeley. Those of us who attended had an enjoyable meal. We have regretfully accepted the resignation of our NCSDA Associate Delegates, CHUCK & WYLDIA CLAY, who have served our club and the District so well. They will still be quite busy, as CHUCK is teaching our current beginners class. In October, JIM McCOLLUM resigned as our caller. During his year and a half with the club, he helped us in numerous ways besides his calling and teaching. In February he will wed BEVERLY ATTEBERY. Many thanks and best wishes! Our new caller will be ANDY RAWLINSON, who has just made the bay area his new home.

ALAMEDA WAGON WHEELERS... Our Oct. Anniversary hoedown was fairly successful, considering the insurmountable competition we had that weekend. But our own ED FERRARIO and ANDY ANDERSON provided everyone with a fun-filled evening. Most every brave buckeroo joined in on the Alligator Stomp and Popcorn. In order to learn how to stomp alligators and pop popcorn, you will just have to join us on Wednesday evenings. After several pizzas and rounds of beer at our party afterwards, we danced a little more as JIM GADBERRY called...MYNETTE POUND, we all wish you a speedy recovery and we would like to see you stamping around again soon.

ALAMEDA OTTA BENS have been busy preparing for the 3rd Annual Teenage Jambo-ree. It will be a very memorable occasion. Our beginner class is coming along smoothly

- we have more boys than girls! This is the first time this has happened in the history of the OTTA BENS...The girls have worked hard and have come up with a new club outfit. It's beautiful! Several dresses have been made up. You may have seen them at a recent dance. Members went to Pleasanton Fun Fair and had a fantastic time. We also attended Alameda WAGON WHEELERS Anniversary dance.

The San Francisco Peninsula clubs join Roy and myself in wishing to all of you, your families, and friends a joyous Noel and a New Year of good health, happiness, and lots of square dancing fun.

(Club Reporters: Please note early deadline due to vacation plans - Saturday, DEC. 15 deadline for my receipt of your news for the February issue.)

ROADRUNNERS of San Mateo...have elected the following slate of officers: ED & ARETA RENEAU (Pres.); JACK & AGNES HAUKOM (Vice Pres.); JEAN SCULLY (Treas.); DOTTIE SMITH (Secty.); EM & MARYLOU JENSEN (Social Ch.); JACK & ALICE LEONARD (Publicity); BOB & RUTH CHESHIRE (Telephone); RAY & JEAN BRODEK (Assn. Del.); EBAN & PEGGY COLE (Alt. Del.); and GEORGE KANE was elected to the newly created office of Club Historian...Good news - AL & RUTH SCHMOLL are now dancing full time!...our new V.P. JACK HAUKOM, reports that 3 squares of beginners are making great progress under BILL DAVIS' tutelage on Monday nights...our thanks to all of the clubs who helped make our Nov. 17th hoedown with ERNIE KINNEY such good fun...3 squares of members accompanied caller BILL DAVIS to Manteca for the Area Association Dance on Sept. 29th, stopping enroute for dinner at the Tracy Inn. Special Fun; on Sept. 23 BOBBIE & BILL DAVIS hosted a delightful Open House for all the members - many thanks to BOBBIE from all of us for her hard work in preparing a really elaborate feast.

SF REBELS...our new roster came out and we find we have about 120 members, and about equally divided between Taws and Paws - really bursting at the seams!...GUS & MARY GUSTAFSON are having a late vacation in Washington visiting his daughter...MYRON & SYLVIA SUSLOW celebrated their anniversary early by accompanying ROBERT & FAY STEIN to Hawaii...JOE BLOCK has been taking a lot of ribbing lately - he has started growing a Van Dyke beard and you know how they look when they are "sprouting" - when it gets long enough to trim, it will be beautiful, JOE. ROLF & BRIGETTE VON BONIN visited us from Berlin, Germany; they are traveling around the country for a month and have been dancing about 12 years; he tells us that there are 4 clubs in Berlin, so if you are "thata way," look up SWINGING BEARS, calls are in English so there should be no trouble in understanding..

SQUARE CUTTERS of San Francisco...new club officers for 1973-74 recently elected were: JACK & PHYLLIS BAAT (Pres.); RAY & MARY THOMAS (Vice Pres.); TONY & THERESA PIAZZA (Secty.); CHARLES & ELSIE LUCHESSA (Treas.); KEN & PHYLLIS WAGGONER (Hosp.); ROY & EDITH WOMELL (Spec. Events); FRANK & ELEANOR MILLER (Membership); the installation dinner was held at the Elks Club in South S.F. and JORDAN ZOLLI was the M.C. for the evening; dancing followed with our own DON SHOTWELL calling the squares. At the last Executive Council meeting plans were discussed for our coming Christmas party...a thanks to AL & EMMA BUONCRISTIANI for taking time from their busy schedule to teach the new round dance of the month, "Call Me Lonesome"...also, we extend our thanks to ED FERRARIO for calling while DON was absent... "Don't do so much conversational detouring before arriving at a point of interest" ...think it over.

WHIRL-A-WAYS of South San Francisco... report that JOE & ETHEL CHICHIZOLA are basking in the sun beneath the lovely palm trees on the beautiful beaches of Hawaii - the card that they sent came from Maui and they report that friendly people, gentle trade winds and a lovely tropical setting at the hotel make the perfect place for a vacation...one week in November will see the BEYERS and PENZELS heading "south of the border" for a vacation - they will visit Mexico City, Cuernavaco, Taxco and Acapulco...also in November, the CRAIG-HEADS and FIELDS plan a trip north to Sa-

Iem, Oregon to dance to BILL PETERS calling - this is a surprise to BILL but we know he will be happy to have such loyal followers, and joining them will be JOE & MABEL MOHN who moved to the State of Washington.

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTES of SF... Club members and guests are still talking about that recent Crazy Hat night - our two winners: SALLY MADRON, "Monday Morning Secretary", and EVELYN SCHLOOZER, "Women's Lib"... Our recent party night on Oct. 26th was very special, too - a night for ghosts, goblins, witches, and supernatural beings; some of those costumes were really way out... we are looking forward to the annual Choo Choo Benefit on Dec. 2nd with our own DON SHOTWELL as one of the callers... our annual Christmas party will be held on Dec. 21st at Lakeshore School and visitors are cordially invited to attend... club members have followed our favorite caller to the CHECKMATES dance in Hayward - real super job of calling, also to dances in Cotati, Vallejo, and the Third Annual Teenage Trust Fund Benefit in Alameda where DON was co-featured in the evening with JOEL KADISH... our bus trip to Sacramento to help the B 'N B'S celebrate their 6th Anniversary Dance was lots of fun, too, and BRAD BRADFORD did an excellent job of calling... preparations are under way for our new refresher class which starts in January.

CABLE CARS of San Francisco... very anxiously await November 3 when we will be taken on a mystery trip, which is being planned for us by BUTCH CARR; with BUTCH chairing the evening I am sure our anxiety is understandable to you all... LaROSE WATTS has been on the sick list for over a month now after recent surgery and we are happy to report that she is getting along very nicely and will be back with us soon. The club was pleased to hear that JIM WY-LIE will hold a "refresher" course at Robt. L. Stevenson School on 35th Ave. & Quintara on Monday nights; it will be open to any and all couples who would like to pull their level of dancing up a bit, those who would like a little styling, or those who would just plain like to attend... remember, the more familiar the call, the easier it is to "listen" to the Caller, and when you can do that, then square dancing is truly fun.

CAPER CUTTERS of San Francisco... our

Outside Events Chairlady, LEE BOCKMAN has been more than busy; she got 2 squares down to the RIPPLING SQUARES at Pinacle Pass in Scotts Valley to dance to RUDY PARKS from Colorado - a wonderful event; then, on Sept. 22nd, 34 of our members drove to Lucerne to dance with CLEARLAKE SQUARES where our caller, KEITH GYLFE was the guest caller - he was completely surprised at this turnout, especially when our Vice Pres., AL GREEFKINS, marched in carrying our club banner; the following day our Pres., BOB YATES and PAT invited all for a Sunday brunch at "Konociti Estates" where PAT YATES and her two sisters, the DeVOSTS and GINTHERS, all have trailer homes - yes, a most enjoyable weekend... following this, LEE had charge of our 23rd Anniversary with a spaghetti and meatball dinner; this year we honored our 7 past Hostess' much to their surprise; are happy to welcome new member, HOLLY McFARLAND... a real fun evening developed when 5th and 6th graders from BILL CASTNER'S class, accompanied by their parents came to visit - they showed us how "Amos Moses" and "Pata-Pata" are done by the younger set; refreshments were enjoyed by all before the kids had to head home to Lafayette to get enough sleep to face teacher BILL the next day; we certainly enjoyed our youthful guests and hope it was fun for them, too... our beginner class will be starting in January and we'll be trying a new approach with class held on the same night as our club workshop, but at another location with their own caller, and we anticipate several advantages in this arrangement... Our October open board meeting was held at Seibecker Hall with the MEDINAS hosting the socializing and refreshments before the meeting.

FORTY-NINERS of South San Francisco...

GINGHAM SQUARES of Millbrae... this year we graduated an especially enthusiastic group of newer dancers and are proud that the following have chosen our club as their dancing home: RICHARD & MARY FLEMING, IVAN & DORIS BURSTAD, DON WOLFE and BEVERLY GARCIA, RAYMOND & MARCIA BENGIS, RAY & MILDRED ALEXANDER, GENE & RITA BERRY, and JAMES & ORPHA KENVILLE; in addition, WAYNE & VIRGINIA KING have become members - they dance with us every Tuesday and then head down the peninsula for roller skating after we close our doors - WOW! FRED & EMILY MUNKNER have just returned from an extensive tour of France and we all welcome them home; also, BOB & CHARLOTTE BLACK have just left for their vacation to Europe, and since we don't know exactly where they are headed, we will have to term it a Mystery Trip...we are happy to report that RAE CUETER is recovering very quickly and expects to be out dancing with us in the near future - just great to hear...

HIGHLAND SWINGERS of San Carlos... were raided by the CIRCULATORS of Belmont, supported by their caller, GENE BRAKEMAN and his wife, MARY LOU; it was a pleasure to have them at our Tuesday workshop; they brought lots of cookies and both callers kept us very busy dancing all evening...MAYNARD & VIOLET BARE are headed north for a couple of weeks...ORV & MARTHA ORVIK were surprised by their kids on their 25th Anniversary with an all expense paid trip to the Highland Inn in Carmel.

KALICO KATS of Daly City...have had a busy month and there's lots more to come! Dancing on the mall at Serramonte on Sept. 22 was a fine way to work up an appetite for the scrumptious lasagna dinner that followed, thanks to LU & HAL FLIEGLER... on Sept. 28 we were invaded by the CLOVERLEAFS, who were without a home that night, and really had a grand time - come back soon...and then the following week we had quite a number of guests present for party night. Oct. 13 was our 12th Anniversary hoedown - lots of fun and caller ERNIE KINNEY did a great job..."welcome home" to DOROTHY & CECIL WESTMAN who have just returned from a three month trip east. On the sick list this month is PAT SMITH, now recuperating at home following surgery; hope to see you back dancing real soon, PAT...coming events include party night in November with JEANNE MOODY as guest caller...and then, Nov. 3 is the mystery trip and who knows where that will lead?

MAINLINER STARDUSTERS of San Mateo. Those attending our Fall hoedown spent an enjoyable evening dancing to the calling of MILT ADAMS, especially when he was joined in singing call duets by his attractive wife; the eight-foot long Hoagy sandwiches were a big hit, as well as the after-party of ballroom dancing which topped off the evening...in October the STARDUSTERS received a warm welcome when they raided RANCHEROS of Redwood City...the JOHN ALBERTS are off again, flying to Copenhagen, Amsterdam, and other European cities; the LEN RUSSELLS and their children will be in Hawaii right after Thanksgiving where the ALBERTS will join them for a long weekend; CHUCK & BETTY MAYO have also spent some busy weekends in Iowa, Seattle, and Vancouver...Anniversary congratulations to "sweethearts" EMILY & ED GUINASSO, LOIS & BOB BARDEN, BETTY & JIM CRUTCHLEY, and MARGE & FRANK LAUGHRIDGE.

CLOVERLEAFS of San Francisco are hosting visitors at our Friday dances. Sept. 28th KALICO KATS invaded with DON BLACK and JOEL KADISH also called a few tips. Our group brought refreshments. Really surprised them. Everybody enjoyed themselves. Oct. 5, GEORGE KNOX called a good evening for us while JOEL KADISH was off on a holiday...Oct. 19th we had our potluck dinner. Everyone brought their favorite dishes. We also had a group of guests. Lots to eat. ANN McHALE is our Special Events gal and doing a great job. Also getting together with hostess ALBERTA HURLEY and others for our Dec. 14th Christmas dinner-dance at Alpine Lodge. Expect Santa Claus with gifts for all. Special birthday greetings to JOEL KADISH, Nov. 18 also JOEL & SUE's 6th Anniversary on Nov. 12th plus DONALD KADISH'S First Birthday on December 25th.

BOOTJACK STOMPERS are very honored to have teen-member, DANIEL FAUST chosen as a member of the SILHOUETTES in Sacramento. He, along with his parents RICH & JOAN FAUST attended the Harvest Hoedown in Sacramento in October. Other travelers this month were the OWINGS, WITTKOPFS and SNEES to North Fork and the VAUGHNS MICHAELS, SOARES and ESTELS to the Atwater ROCKIN' A's. Enjoying the calling of JESSIE SOUSA at BOOTS & SLIPPERS were the OWINGS, SCHNEIDERS, WITTKOPFS, HOFFS, SAMSONS and ESTELS.

The SWING DING DANDIES' 16th Anniversary Dance at Sonora Fairgrounds was attended by the SCHNEIDERS, SNEES, ESTELS and HOFFS. We especially enjoyed the calling of DOYLE HUDSON and that Swing Ding Dandy hospitality. AL & IRENE SAMSON aren't being rebels, IRENE is just being kind to her ailing hip by selecting dances with wood floors.

WESTSIDE WAGON WHEELERS held their annual picnic dance, Aug. 26th, at Hageman Park in Turlock. We had a good crowd and lots of hotdogs, corn on the cob, watermelon and lots of other goodies associated with picnics. Weather-wise, it was a perfect day, as well. Our caller, JESSIE SOUSA called for 3 lively squares of dancers at the Newman Fall Festival. There were lots of spectators, hopefully some future square dancers among them. Classes have been going on for a month with a good turnout, so we hope to graduate a class with a lot of dancers for the future. On Sept. 30, the club had its annual picnic for club members at Gustine. Eating, volley ball, horseshoe throwing or just "sittin' around" were the activities of the day. Our club members have been attending many dances in the area, receiving "Friendship Badges" from GOLDEN SLIPPERS, SQUARENADERS and CERES TWISTERS. We are cancelling our regular 2nd Saturday dance, Dec. 8th to attend SINGLE SKIRTS 'N FLIRTS' Anniversary Dance.

CERES TWISTERS cancelled their October dance to attend the Y-NOTS' 4th Anniversary Dance and among those dancing to the fine calling of TOM HIGHTOWER were the YOUNGS, RUSTS, FRITSCHES, LOVE-LADYS, HUGGS, CASEY PARKER, KIRKSEYS, WOOLDRIDGES, GREENLEYS, CINDY HOSTETTER, AMES, and SHEL SHELTON. The next week the following group traveled to Merced for ROMP 'N STOMPERS' 10th Anniversary Dance with KENNY STEEN calling another good dance to a crowded floor: LEN & PAT YOUNG, BETTY & BURNELL FRITSCHKE, GENE & BETTYE WELSH, CASEY PARKER, BOB & CAROLYN DIEHL and ED & JESSIE AMES. It was a busy month for Anniversary Dances as the following week the SWING DING DANDIES celebrated their 16th Anniversary so LEN & PAT YOUNG, BEN & IDONA RUST, SHEL SHELTON, FRANK & NANCY WOOLDRIDGE, ART & HAZEL LORING, GENE &

BETTYE WELSH and ED, JESSIE & BARBARA AMES were found dancing to DOYLE HUDSON'S fine calling and with the group of 40 dancers who came by bus from Mountain View with him.

GREELEY HILL HOPPERS - We started our new class with a big potluck dinner. Just want to let the new dancers see how well square dancers eat, as well as dance. Some of us made it to Y-NOTS' 4th Anniversary dance with guest caller, TOM HIGHTOWER - it was a good dance and the KENDRICKS were lucky enough to win a beautiful door mirror. One problem, we couldn't get it in the car, so the GREENWOODS were nice enough to take it to Modesto for us. Our thanks to them! On Oct. 20, we cancelled our regular party night and traveled to the SWING DING DANDIES' 16th Anniversary dance at the Sonora Fairgrounds with guest caller, DOYLE HUDSON. Everyone had a great time. They really put a lot of work into the dance.

SQUARENADERS have been busy traveling as October goes down in history as Anniversary month in this area. Four squares of our members attended Y-NOTS' 4th Anniversary Dance held in Manteca with guest caller, TOM HIGHTOWER. The following weekend found the POTTS, YADDOWS, ATHERSTONES, LAURA STERNITZKE and NEIL JACOBSON traveling to Crows Landing to retrieve NEAL'S beautiful scarecrow and the Westside WAGON WHEELERS and, of course, to dance to the wonderful calling of JESSIE SOUSA. The MADDUXS, HUCKABYS, TINGLEYS, GIFFORDS, ALSPAUGHS and BROWNS went to Merced for ROMP 'N STOMPERS' 10th Anniversary Dance and the fine calling of KENNY STEEN. Several of the members met for dinner, then went to Sonora for the SWING DING DANDIES' anniversary dance with DOYLE HUDSON.

GOLDEN SQUARES' Harvest Hoedown was a real success. We thank all the visitors who came to dance with us. The WESTSIDE WAGON WHEELERS 'lified' the scarecrow, loaned to us by NEIL JACOBSEN to tie in with our theme. The YADDOWS, WORRELLS, POTTS, GEORGIA AMSBAUGH, LAURA STERNITZKE, EARL GLICK and NEIL attended their party night and had a very enjoyable evening dancing to the calling of JESSIE SOUSA and, of course, retrieving the scarecrow, named "DIABLO". BILL & LUCILLE DONNER are enjoying a three months tour of the southern states. When we last heard from them, they were in Missouri, going toward Kentucky and Tennessee. We sure miss them.

Redwood Empire

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES of Santa Rosa... Our 2nd Saturday hoedown was attended by fifteen squares of dancers from a wide range of clubs and everyone enjoyed the fine calling of RON TELFORD. Refreshments were served by WILL & MAY PRICE, BILL SPLAINE and BARBARA HEAD, and JOHN & MARGARET MORRISON. The tables were decorated in the Halloween theme with autumn leaves and pumpkins. After the dance, club members were invited to MAXINE & ROY FOWLERS for a surprise fun shower on our soon to be wed, BILL SPLAINE and BARBARA HEAD. It really was a surprise and everyone enjoyed the opening of the numerous packages... We had a good turnout for our picnic at the Vineyards on Oct. 6 in spite of the heavy rain. The poor fellows who had to keep the chicken turning, really got wet, but the spirits of the crowd were not dampened.

THE RUSTLERS... Our 7th Anniversary hoedown was a happy occasion to celebrate with ERNIE KINNEY'S calling. Many clubs came to dance with us: DIAMOND DANCERS, PIONEERS, SOUR GRAPES, CLEARLAKE SQUARES, PONY WHEELERS, REDWOOD SQUARES. Travis Air Force Base came along with STUMP JUMPERS, TORMEY SQUARES, MUSTANGS, TWILITE TWIRLERS, BOOTS & BELLES and WESTERNERS. Exhibit and demonstration square dancing occupied two nights this month. On Oct. 12 we entertained and were hosted by the Moose Lodge in Petaluma. Oct. 13th found us at the Temple Beth Ami in Santa Rosa. Children and adults alike joined in and enjoyed two hours of learning to square dance. Round dances were also demonstrated. Both nights we were directed by our club caller KEN RICKERT... Oct. 20 was a father-son night in Headlandsburg with KEN and his son JOEL calling the hoedown. The change of the year came with election of officers. We thank the past officers for the fine job they did. New officers: BERNIE NEWBERRY, Pres.; BOB BACHE, Vice Pres.; DIANE KIRKMAN, Secty.; and BETTE ANN BARDNT, Treasurer.

QUESTION MARKS of Santa Rosa... have had a full month to say the least. There were several hoedowns attended by the club: Association Stampede with DICK WAIBEL was a fun evening of dancing; CIRCLE 'N SQUARES with the able calling of ROD TEFORD; Aahmes Temple in Oakland to enjoy the fine calling of GARY SHOEMAKE at the DIABLO SINGLES... Our beginner's class is getting along beautifully. There will be no hoedown in December due to the holidays and our usual Christmas club party.

San Jose & South Bay

SILVER DOLLARS... This was a very busy month, DOYLE HUDSON called for the MISSION MIXERS in Hollister and everyone had a good time with food galore. We raided SPINNING WHEELS for the SCVSDA Banner and had an extra treat because KOIT & HELEN TULLUS were there to show the round of the month. We were very happy to have CIRCLE SQUARES and their caller CHUCK AZLIN; BELLE SWINGERS and their caller ED SANDERS and MAVERICKS dancing with us. We had a bus trip to Sonora where DOYLE HUDSON called. We danced until 12. CAROLYN COTTRILL and TOOTSIE HOPKINS won beautiful shawls made by SWING DING DANDIES' gals. For having more than two squares there we all received the Friendship Badge. They told me the trip back was very noisy. (I slept all the way home.)

BACHELORS & BACHELORETES of San Jose... With our International dance of Nov. 3 behind us the club is planning for the anniversary hoedown in January. No B & B hoedown could be complete without a super after-party and American Legion Hall in Campbell again will provide us an excellent site. December finds us joining our newer dancers for the first time for our annual Christmas Party. Our new dancers class is learning fast under the fine teaching of our DICK GILBERT and we hope to have them join us as members when they graduate.

MELODY SQUARES... Mystery Bus Trip was one of the main events of the year. We enjoyed the singing, dinner, entertainment, hoedown and the good fellowship that prevailed, thanks to the planning and hard work of ANN & LARRY SCHMINKEY. We should do this more often. Also thanks to the committee that helped. It was very enjoyable.
