'President's Message'

John & Mary Lou Richter

A joyous dancing occasion awaits us all on January 4, at the Richmond Auditorium, when we celebrate the Silver Anniversary of our Northern California Dancers Association. Who would have thought that on January 7, 1951, with a starting group of 15 clubs representing 350 dancers, we could have grown to such outstanding proportions.

We are now recognized as one of the most successful associations in the country with a membership of over 100 clubs and thousands of dancers. Of course, all this success and recognition does not just happen. As we have stated before it's a team effort comprised of both you and the Association Board.

To outline another board members functions this month we have chosen your Club Delegate. His primary duty being to manage club business relative to all Association programs. As you can imagine, this requires a lot of time and effort to do a good job. Also it's a job that is not learned overnight, and takes a while to learn all the functions and duties of not only his own club officers but the Association officers and various committees as well, so that he can be more effective. Due to this situation a number of clubs have found it conducive to retain their Delegates in office for a longer period than their other club officers.

So, in closing, remember how fully your Delegate represents you and thereby assures the continued success of the NCSDA as well as the progress of the square dance movement in Northern California.

'Till next time, Happy Holidays.

STARS & BARS...Sept. 27th hoedown with RICK MORE and KENNY STEEN was a nice success. PEAT DUSTERS won the coffee for the most members present and you might ask JIM PENROD whose sock was found on the floor during round dancing ... The Santa Clara Jubilee was attended by a few club members: LARRY & JOANIE TROTTER, RICK & NELLIE MORE, WILLIE & LOUISE GRASMICK and LORI, DEBBIE & TOMMY YOUTSEY. WILLIE GRASMICK and TOMMY YOUTSEY made off with two door prizes on Sunday...Special thanks to MARGE & VERN CARRIKER for giving up their Wednesday night round dance class for our JERRY HAAG dance on Oct. 15. PEAT DUSTERS won the coffee again that night...Quite a number of STARS & BARS attended the Harvest Hoedown this year: PETE & ILA KING, BARRY & CAROL BARLOW, ROGER & DEB VALLERY, JIM & LORETTA McCAL, DON & DARLENE CLOSE, RUSS & THELMA VALLERY, JOE & CHAROLINE VALLERY, JIM & ROSE PENROD, LARRY & JOANIE TROTTER, RICK & NELLIE MORE, BARRY DALLENBACH and SUZIE YOUTSEY, WILLIE & LOUISE GRASMICK; LORI, DEBBIE, and TOMMY YOUTSEY. All had a good time...Our best wishes to KEN TYLER who is ill, and unable to dance for now. It seems doctors are still unable to tell just exactly what is wrong, and he must run more and more tests. We hope KEN & VI will be back with us soon...SUZIE YOUTSEY and BARRY DALLENBACH have been accepted into the SILHOUETTES. We hope to see them in an exhibition real soon.

FOOTHILL SWINGERS' club picnic, scheduled to be held at Lake Tullock, had to be cancelled because of rain-soaked roads, but a fine barbecue was held instead at the home of BOB & BARBARA BURNS, with BOB & DENNIS CHURCHILL presiding over the chickens roasted in barrels. After the delicious dinner, members changed to square dance costumes and drove up the hill to Forest Meadows to attend a party for a Swiss Esquestrian group, staying in Murphys a week as a part of their tour of the United States. The Swiss tourists had expressed a desire to learn some American square dancing. RED ALSHOUSE did the calling while members of FOOTHILL SWINGERS and RED'S RENEGADES took Swiss visitors as partners to show them some of our dance steps. We all had a grand time, with many laughs over the inevitable mixups. They spoke German. With directions given in both languages, plus a little French thrown in on the side, some of the figures became wondrous to behold, but they certainly bowed to partner and corner with dash and elegance we could emulate. Their director gave a fine speech to the "American friends," and claimed enthusiastically that the evening was the highlight of their trip. They sang us a Swiss song (in French) and one of their group borrowed the microphone for a lilting Swiss yodel.

KUNTRY KUZINS...we ended our summer activities with a picnic at Mitchell Park. Attendance was good and everyone seemed to have a good time. It was an opportunity for families to get together and enjoy some good food, games and relaxation. Members of our club were seen dancing for Newark Days. We had two squares do some exhibition dancing. We visited BOOTS & SLIPPERS for their first party night. We are especially proud of their caller, BOB HOFFSETZ, as he and his wife, MARGARET, are club members. Plans are already underway for our annual Christmas program.

BERKELEY SINGLE SQUARES...Our club members 35 strong had a very enjoyable international potluck dinner at Sequoia Park on October 12, and our club caller JIM MORK called square dances, and we enjoy round dancing too. We are planning a big Halloween party for Oct. 28, and if it is as good and lively as previous ones it will be a terrific night. Our new beginners class starts on Jan. 7, 14, 21...Party night on Oct. 14 was very well attended and to the calling of JIM MORK on squares and JOHN HELMS on Rounds was enjoyed by all.

CHECKMATES...September, the club enjoyed a visit from GUNS & GARTERS teen club, along with their beginners when their club caller, BEN GOLDBERG, was out of action due to laryngitis. We also held an informal going away party for the PENICKS who are moving to the Clearlake Area. We hope a club up there can keep up with these happy dancing great-grandparents! Our October hoedown was a happy event, marking the 13th Anniversary of the club. Decorations featured black cats, broken mirrors and other bad luck signs, which were more than offset by the horseshoes, lucky stars, and other good luck signs. Our caller, ROD BERTLSHOFER called a fun dance. Rounds by MILLARD MCKINNEY and refreshments of sweet cider, coffee, crackers and cheese and homemade nut breads. Our thanks to GENE & BARBARA LEWIS, hoe-down chairmen, for such a happy evening.

FREMONT HEE HAWS...We have been busy exhibiting square dancing recently, our caller DON ATKINS and 2 squares performed for the Newark chapter of the Moose Lodge. Also 2 squares danced for the White Shrine during their annual dinner dance with Charlie's All Banjo Band. Really enjoyable and we were honored to be asked. Several of us attended the recent SCCSDA Jubilee and enjoyed the great calling of JOHNNY Le CLAIR and CHUCK BRYANT. Some of our members also journeyed to Sacramento for the Harvest Hoedown. Our Halloween party with our beginners was great fun! Our President GEORGE FREEMAN has been bit by the old flu bug. Hurry and get well GEO.! Plans are perking for our beginner hoedown Dec. 5th and, of course, our annual New Year's Eve dance. Look for our ad in this issue! Happy holidays!

FARMERS & FARMERETTES...had a great time visiting the BOOTS 'N SLIPPERS and their caller, BOB HOFFSTETZ, on their party night, the 14th. The KADISHS were with us, and JOEL shared the calling with BOB...Then, most of us took it easy 'till Halloween, when we hosted a big (63 squares!). Happy Friday night hoedown with LARRY WARD, a swinging success - due 100 per cent to the HALBERGS (well, maybe LARRY had a little bit to do with it)... Three legs in casts and dancers out of action this month, and at least one of them is too cut up to be packed in plaster. How'd they get 'em? Easy as falling off a truck, says DENNY WALTERS - or off a bike, echo CATHY VORBRICH and JIM NIMMONS.

SQUARE CIRCLE CLUB...enjoyed a tremendous evening at the Barn on Nov. 22nd when our beginners hosted their first hoedown. JOHN FRERICHMANN and several guest callers kept everyone whirling and twirling all evening. Our thanks to all who helped to make it a fun evening. Our Mystery Trip is slated for Dec. 6th. As to our destination - that still remains to be seen...But we're looking forward to being at, well, possibly your hoedown. Keeping with the holiday spirit, we are planning a Christmas party for all club members and beginners on Dec. 18th. Hope JOHN is prepared to play jolly Santa for a mini ho ho, hoedown. That just about wraps things up for this year. Happy holidays to all from us!

EAGLE SQUARES...October was the month that we started the yearly task of helping our brood of EAGLETS with the able leadership of EAGLE master NONIE MOGLIA. A full eight squares of the new dancers have settled down to the arduous job of strengthening muscles and learning preliminary flight maneuvers. Oct. 5th saw 12 EAGLE couples performing for the Festival of Arts with a square dance demonstration. Oct. 11 was a good day for dancing at the Santa Clara Jubilee with 7 EAGLE couples in attendance...Oct. 22nd brought a very nice group of SKIRTS & FLIRTS our way for the "buckskin" - thanks for coming and for the goodies, folks! We were sorry to hear that ARLENE MILLS had slipped and now wears a cast on her leg. Get back to us as quickly as you can ARLENE. Be sure to see our ad in this issue for our newer dancer hoedown.

ACES & LACES...we enjoyed ourselves at our Oct. 18th hoedown with MILT ADAMS calling. October 25 we had our annual progressive dinner which is always a huge success. We had cocktails, an assortment of dips and appetizers at the GETCHELL'S, then to the LEMMONS for a salad bar served with green Hungarian wine. The main course at the home of the other LEMMONS home we enjoyed delicious roast beef with gravy, baked potatoes, corn, rolls and an assortment of prepared vegetable casseroles. After filling ourselves again, we all came back to San Lorenzo to the LOONEY'S for the after-party with snacks and social dancing. Our club is now busy with our beginner's class and making plans for the holidays.

ODDS 'N ENDS...happiness is having our caller "DAVE" back in action after having surgery. But sadness is having his "mom" BEA in the hospital awaiting surgery. We hope she will be well soon, and back dancing. We miss her happy laugh on Thursday nights at workshop. Oct. 18th, we had a very happy surprise evening for DAVE and the SOUR GRAPES of Napa. A whole bus load plus a few car loads traveled to Napa where DAVE was calling. He was really surprised when we all paraded into the hall carrying banners and singing Hail, Hail, The Gang's All Here! It was a real fun trip and we hope we'll soon be traveling again. Our wagon master, BILL HARRIS did a magnificent job. We are happy to welcome five new members to our club. LOIS HYDEN, LINDA SITZ, FRANCES & FRANCIS CLARK and PAT YARNOLD.

ALAMEDA WAGON WHEELERS...due to World Series interest, crowds have been small these past few weeks. Our beginners class is progressing very well. It looks as if there will be a good crop of 'new square dancers' come spring. Congratulations are in order for "our beautiful little girl of the STARDETTES". She and JOE TORTORICA were married this month at a small family wedding. Her mom and dad, RUBY & AL CIOTTI are planning a party and reception for the happy pair on Nov. 1st. We wish them much fun and happiness now and in the future.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS...Annual hayride and dinner was a huge success and all that were able to attend had a great time. Hawaiian night and potluck dinner in September was enjoyed by all with plenty of good food, followed by an evening of fun dancing. Our sincere thanks to MICKEY & GEORGE HANSEN, our retiring Activities Chairmen, for the outstanding job they have done over the past two years.

EDEN ROCKERS...Our club turned out in full force in September to attend the 21st Anniversary hoedown of BERKELEY SINGLES and danced to caller ERNIE KINNEY and HANK & RUTH FITCH on the Rounds. An evening of good dancing was enjoyed by all. October found many of our members attended the various hoedowns in the area and dancing to some great callers. Our club hosted the 5th Wednesday Round Robin in October, thanks to KUNTRY KUZINS we were invited to use their accommodations at Grimmer school in Fremont. We enjoyed dancing to all the club callers.

BAYWOOD PROMENAIRES...October hayride started at 7 p.m. at Big Oak Stables and ended with the club providing hot dogs and was enjoyed by at least 13 couples. Halloween costume party will be a 'Guess Who?' or what, fun dance. PAM & RAY BUMGARDNER celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with us on party night, October 7. Happy anniversary PAM & RAY.

SWING ABOUTS ... did just that as the month of September started with a bang. Started a new club as well as a club dress; we managed to take in several hoedowns and camping trips. Two squares and our club caller JACK PETRI and taw traveled to the fun festival in frogtown and as one of the callers didn't show up, our own JACK was asked to do the honors at the Saturday afternoon workshop. Last weekend in September found us camping in Hope Valley for the opening deer season. After seeing some of the guys come in from their first days' hunt the others decided that fishing was their cup of tea. Needless to say the LONGS, TIMSONS and HAWKINS were more successful with their fishing than the EATONS, LIPPS, and SCONYERS were with fishing. We ended the weekend with a beautiful dinner at the Old Housier Inn in Stockton.

SUNDOWNERS of Oakland... Our last board meeting, held at the AVERY'S home was very fruitful, many great ideas evolving to be presented to the general membership at our semi-annual potluck dinner business meeting dance, held at the private recreation center through the courtesy of the HEMSWORTH'S. The usual gourmet dinner was thoroughly enjoyed and our LEN MURPHY called a challenging dance. We have eight new couples who recently became members. Our BILLIE MURPHY is graciously giving basic round dance lessons to our new members as well as any of our regular members who wish to participate. Our annual Halloween dance was a tremendous success. We have two blessed events about to take place and we are so happy for the new parents to be, in the meantime our new mothers -to-be continue to square dance with us. All of the preparations are taking place now for our forthcoming big event, our annual New Year's eve party.

BOOTS 'N SLIPPERS ..were seen dancing at the TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS hoedown Oct. 4th to the calls of JOHNNY BARBOUR and a live band. Party night was a combined party with FARMERS & FARMERETTES bringing refreshments along with our own. Thanks - we had a great time. We decided unanimously, at our general business meeting, to invite the beginners to our family Christmas party and New Year's Eve party. A going away party was given for two Charter members, WALT & CELIA BILSKY. They are moving to Montana and we'll all miss them. Our dress committee is working diligently on our new club costume for our anniversary dance in May. Some really imaginative costumes were seen at the Halloween party.

CABLE CARS of San Francisco - Mystery trip was ably handled by JOHN & NORINE KAUS. We dined royally at Sonoma Joe's and then rode off into the night arriving in Napa for the Hoedown sponsored by FIVE STAR SQUARES with the GHOST RIDERS, live music. It was a real blast... Our caller JIM WYLIE and our club always extend the welcome mat to all visitors - you all come and dance with us... Those gababouts BUTCH & THULA had a wonderful vacation but ask BUTCH why he couldn't sit. Was it the ten-hour donkey ride?... The committees are busy with plans for the Christmas party and also into 1976 for our Valentine hoedown... We joined with MAINLINERS for the fifth Wednesday party and had a great time. Always good fellowship and dancing when the fifth Wednesday bunch get together... Three squares of us danced at the Mayor's Wine and Flower Festival on October 19. JIM made a hit with the crowd viewing our dancers... We are appealing to all square dancers to "help the handicapped buy a bus for transportation"; the Parents' Auxiliary operate a Gift Shop at 6128 Geary Blvd., so try and buy your Christmas cards, novelties and small gifts there - every little bit helps. Happy Holidays!

WHIRL-A-WAYS of South San Francisco had 2½ squares helping the SQUARE HOPPERS celebrate their 16th Anniversary - C.O. GUEST and our own BILL PETERS were sharing the mike (that's BILL'S other club)... President, TINY, announced that he and RENEE are expecting!?! in February - congratulations to them... The PARRISHS, CALDEIRAS and SCHROLLS each, hosted quite a crowd of us at our progressive dinner recently. VIRGINIA treated us to Luau Pork - what a dinner. Thanks to our hosts and all who helped. BILL & BETTY PETERS stopped in on their way to Novato where Bill was calling that night. Great square dancing in '76 and happy holidays.

CLODHOPPERS of Belmont had another great month. We started off with a fantastic picnic. Everyone had a great time running relay races, playing badminton and dancing on the grass to the calling of DOUG SAUNDERS. BILL & PENNY TRIPP also brought a tape of the Anniversary hoedown of a German square dance club. It was very interesting watching everyone "trying" to dance to the German accented calling. The big mystery of the day was "what was the attraction in the woods that was drawing so many couples?"... Several squares enjoyed the dancing and show of the TWO BY FOURS anniversary dance... Welcome back to JOE & JEAN NOURY, just back from a Mexican Cruise, to DEBBIE HOYT back dancing after 6 weeks out with a broken arm and a special welcome to BILL & EDIE MARSH and GEORGE & CHARLOTTE GUNTLI, who have returned to us after an absence of several years. It's great seeing you all again.... Happy Holidays, everyone!

CAPER CUTTERS of San Francisco. Another memorable event - just celebrated our 25th Anniversary. A great event, honoring past and present Treasurers. The president gave a short synopsis of what has transpired since the beginning of this club, and then to top off everything, JACK MCKAY, the caller who started this club, appeared with JUNE his wife. The Treasurers were honored with a plant. It was a great party - spaghetti and meat balls and a beautiful cake. JESSIE RASMUSSEN did a superb job with the decorations; congratulations to FERN IACOPI, Chairperson, and her committee who worked so diligently. Good to see some members that were missed for a while. Travelers: DORMEYERS following the Missouri River and then on to So. Dakota; a card from the SABRUSULAS, still going strong in Texas; JOHNSONS and ALLENS attending the Fall Festival at Clairmont. Special thanks to DON SHOTWELL, our guest caller in Sept. who did an outstanding job and it was well appreciated. Getting good reports about the Beginners Class that started recently... On the sick list we shall be missing LILLIAN GADSBY who underwent surgery and is now at home recuperating. All of us wish you a speedy recovery. Happy Holidays to all of you.

PONY WHEELS of San Francisco - our annual 'circuit' hoedown has come and gone and we were very pleased and appreciated so many of our fellow square dancers who turned up for the dance. Our special thanks to the McDONALDS for donating all the cookies and to the SAYLORS for donating all the cups. ELLIE BIGELOW is back dancing following foot surgery and ED REEB is back after a long absence with illness... Our President, FRED JOHNSON, has been practicing a new "grand march", not in square dance costume, but a full tuxedo, no less. His partner to be? None other than daughter, PATTY, for whom FRED & LELA are busy making wedding arrangements... Our Beginners class 'express' is off and rolling to a fine start... This being the season for goblins and witches and the very mysterious, what could be a more appropriate time for a Mystery Trip so one is scheduled for October and our sincere thanks to BOB & DOLLIE RIVERA for doing all the work that goes into making such a trip a total success. Happy Halloween - everybody!

ROADRUNNERS of San Mateo...congratulate newly installed officers: Pres., GEORGE & VICKI KANE; Vice Pres., JOHN & HELENE SWANSON; Treasurer, JUANITA & KEN BRANDENBURG; Secty., DOTTY & PAUL SMITH; Publicity, ARLENE & JOHN TAYLOR; NCSDA Representative, AL & CAROL HEMINGWAY and Phone Chairman ANN & VIC SHRADAR...An enthusiastic turnout of ROADRUNNER members and their families helped to make our annual picnic at Huddart Park on Oct. 12 one of the best ever. Many thanks to JOHN & HELENE and their hard-working committee: DAVID & VEDA McILLOIL, ARCHIE & LYNNE SCHMITT, FRANK & JUDY PALUMBO, ROCKY & DARCY PERUCH and VIC & ANN SHRADER. Highlights of the day included ROCKY'S excellent barbecue, delicious salads and desserts prepared by club members, games, prizes and dancing to caller BILL DAVIS. We will never forget the sight of DOTTY SMITH and JUANITA BRANDENBURG in their long underwear...A recent feature at Beresford School P.T.A. Western Family Night was a demonstration of square dancing performed by VIC & ANN SCHRADER, JUDY & FRANK PALUMBO, ROCKY & DARCY PERUCH and GEORGE & VICKI KANE...Future plans include a New Year's Eve party. A new beginners class starting on January 5 at Abbott School in San Mateo and our January 17 hoedown with DICK HOULTON calling and Rounds by BUONCRISTIANIS...Our best wishes to STAN & JEAN SCULLY who are moving to Sunnyvale and LEO & DREXEL WADE who will be making their new home in Loomis. We hope you will be back to dance with us real soon.

BACHELORS 'N' BACHELORETTEES - San Francisco Chapter: In October writing for December; holiday greetings in order; the news is of vacations! CECILIA ARROW-SMITH entertained former B 'N' B, LUCILLE GOLDSMITH in San Francisco and at Calistoga. SALLY MADRON entertained her brother, his wife, and others touring our area with them. VERA SCHNEIDER enjoyed Seattle and Yellowstone; DELORES BADLIACCO, Seattle and Vancouver Island. DON & BOBBIE SHOTWELL included the Grand Canyon and visited MARTY. BOB DITTMAN sailed the Caribbean. ELEANOR VOSS and MYRTLE GROTHE cruised from Lisbon on the "Golden Odyssey" to 14 ports of the Mediterranean and to Athens; also attended the Organ Recital at Asilomar and Cullighan's Invitational Golf Tournament. MARY SCHNITZIUS toured London, Athens, Rome, Paris, and cruised to Aegina, Pyros, and Hydra; home and to Mexico City and Puerto Vallarta with a cruise to Yelapa. FLOYD & KAY STRADFORD enjoyed the Hawaiian Islands and visiting family in Montana. They, along with NATE & FRENCHY CROSSA are among members attending the Oct. 25th B 'N' B International 26th Anniversary at Southgate Auditorium in Los Angeles...ED REEB looked so happy and so well at his recent return to square dancing, welcome back, ED. Happy Holidays to all.

REBELS of San Francisco...The 4th Wednesday in October was highlighted by a Halloween costume party. ESTHER COCHRANE had planned our Halloween party before her recent surgery and did an excellent job. It was good to have ESTHER back looking so well!...Prizes went to Raggedy Ann (MARY SUE WALSH and Groucho Marx (COLEMAN ATTELL; to "indigestion", DON GIBSON, and "the remedy", ARLENE GIBSON; a pair of dice (DIANE MANNIS and ANNETTE MARTINE and to a gay nineties gentleman (BILL ROBLES). Honorable mention went to Mickey Mouse (JILLIE KORM) and Minnie, (MARY ANN GARD); another mouse (KATHY WALSH and the "mad" doctor (PAT ROBLES)...Helping to contribute to the festive spirit were the ghosts and goblins decorating the walls and the delicious refreshments...Other costumed figures included a hobo (our caller MILT ADAMS); two Karate experts (LARRY HIRSCH and DON KNOLAN; two elegant ladies (MARY ALICE JOHNSON and ESTHER COCHRANE); a beatnik (CHRISTY GIBSON; a red apple (RENEE ARP); Carmen Miranda (LEE GILES); Indian brave (JOYCE MANNS; a flapper (ADELE DUCKETT) and a Spanish Senorita (BARBARA WASSERMAN) ... We understand that our Tuesday class of beginners are learning fast.

FORTY-NINERS of So. San Francisco wish to thank everyone that attended our Nov. Beginners dance. Our BILL CASTNER called a great dance, hope the dancers enjoyed the Fashion Show and the tasty refreshments too. The committee including our Jr. 49'ERS are to be complimented, they did a grand job. Nov. 24 found all our members at the Avalon school dancing with our newer dancers and enjoying their hospitality and their enthusiasm; they are a great group. They will be dancing with us on Thursdays during December. Our Christmas party at Forest Lodge should be a gala affair, good food, good company, jr. 49'ers and guests, square dancing and merriment and fun for all. The committee headed by our first lady, JANICE McCRAVEY, for selecting our new club dresses are going to model many beautiful dresses from the Whirl-A-Way Shop. CLOVERLEAFS of San Francisco... first annual Mystery Trip was an exciting success, thanks to MARGE GREEFKENS, who had us guessing our destination at every change of direction the bus took. First a hearty dinner on Treasure Island, arranged by ROGER PENDENZA, all set against the romantic skyline of San Francisco lights and the Bay. Mistress of Ceremonies, PAT ROBLES, planned fun games on the bus - our only disappointment was that PAT didn't pop out of the cake at dinner. On the LONGHORNS hoedown in San Carlos ALBERTA HURLEY and DOROTHY BREDEHOFT won pumpkins as door prizes. A memorable evening that no one wanted to see end, not even CLIFF and JOHN'S jokes ... KADISH KORNER;

Lots of guessing going on as to where our Mystery Trip will take us in November, only BUD & JAN know and they are quiet as clams - something especially hard for JAN! ... With the glow of our Harvest Moon hoedown still warming us, we're busy with final plans for our Mistletoe and Holly hoedown, December 20. Halloween theme and refreshments, it was great - thanks for asking us!...During Thanksgiving week we were thinking how thankful we are for the friendships we've made through square dancing and for the good times we've had through our participation in the activities available. And now we'll include our wish that each and everyone of you enjoy a blessed and happy holiday season - Merry Christmas to all.

PAIRS 'N SPARES of San Bruno are looking forward to their annual Christmas party. There is always a noble theatrical attempt and this year will be no exception. Of course, Santa is always exciting to all the kids there (both young and old). With all the skilled cooks the potluck will be something that Santa himself will stay for. The beginners class has started out well and we all hope that they will all be able to continue with the club for many years...Running Bear Lives!...The running bear badge that is sported by many of the club members for dancing to that call without a goof is NOT, as one of the members said, an award for running bare!

MAINLINER STARDUSTERS of San Mateo... went on a Mystery Trip Sept. 12, to Santa Cruz and danced with JOHN CADIENTE calling the squares. Our club caller, DON CAMPTON went with us and shared the calling, no need to mention they did their usual good job. A happy holiday season to all, God bless you and yours.

ISLAND SQUARES fall class is a huge success this year. We have a large class of beginners and is progressing well through the basic steps. Our seventh anniversary hoedown was a big success. The food was excellent, due to the hard work of MARILYN & ARVIN SMITH, the decorations were party oriented with the theme of "lucky 7th" anniversary, thanks to decorations chairpersons BOB & PEG SHERWOOD, with help from MARLON & JULIE LENO. The prizes were very good this year, two plants, a bottle of champagne, cologne, and a cookbook - thanks to BOB & CHICK CORBRIDGE. A wonderful time had by all... ISLAND SQUARES had their first party night during October. On the 2nd Friday of each month, a party is given by a club member, following dancing. The purpose is to have lots of fun and to have our class and club get to know each other. The idea has been a resounding success.

TWO BY FOURS of Burlingame... Our mystery trip was a huge success. Fifty club members gathered at Tanforan parking lot in San Bruno and boarded a huge bus. Altho JIM & RONNIE SUTTER were unable to join us (JIM is still on the sick list) they were at the bus to see us off and give us a present of liquid refreshment. Thank you, JIM & RONNIE! After several false leads (and stops) we ended up at the Alvarado Inn in Ignacio where we enjoyed a delicious dinner in a private room. Later we joined the STUMP JUMPERS in Novato for their Anniversary Hoedown. We circled the hall with our banner carriers leading - followed by our great accordion player JOHN FALLON playing "When The Saints Go Marching In". Lots of fun - and an appreciative audience. Thank you STUMP JUMPERS for the wonderful fun welcome and beautiful food (never should have eaten dinner!). A BIG thank you to ALICE & BUD BERNARD for putting it all together for us. We're having a great turnout at the Beginners Class and they are progressing rapidly. They will soon be ready for Newer Dancers' hoedowns and they are really looking forward to that!

ROLLING SQUARES... Our beginners class got off to a great start with an enthusiastic 24 pupils, and has been growing steadily. All age groups are represented and this promises to be one of the liveliest and eager to learn groups we have ever had. A bunch of us "rolled" over to Downer Jr. High on Sept. 27 where we enjoyed dancing to ERNIE KINNEY'S calling. A fun time in spite of frequent breakdowns on the floor (why didn't you call what we were doing, ERNIE?) BERKELEY SINGLES hosted and served refreshing lemonade and cookies. On Oct. 11th a square of us made it to the CONCORD REBELS hoedown at Ygnacio Valley High School in Concord to dance to - you guessed it, our favorite, DON SHOTWELL. A really fine evening!

Activities Chairpersons are CARL & MERTIE QUARTERMAN - they planned a surprise housewarming for DAVE & SANDY. Potluck and fellowship was enjoyed by all in attendance. Our own Halloween costume party is just around the corner. Four couples whooped it up at the District 5 annual dance with KEITH GYLFE, they were: MARK BACHMANS, AULTS, HARRIS, and ROACHES. It was good to see so many teens attending. REDWOOD EMPIRE

RUSTLERS ... October has been a 'home' month yet not without its high interest and fun times. On the 14th 'old' officers sighed with the relief and 'new' officers sighed with responsibility. Our efficient BERNIE NEWBERRY, President, gave way to HARLEY BEELER. HARLEY has been and is confined with a bad back. We wish you speedy health HARLEY. Vice Pres., RON LAPIC follows HARLEY. LIBBY HUGES, Treas., sits and counts our monies. From Secretary APRIL BEELER we expect unusual minutes as she is as unpredictable as April and its suns and showers. Congratulations new officers! A big bouquet of orchids to our just retired officers for a grand year full of work, fun, and travel...BERNIE NEWBERRY was overcome with surprise when she opened the door of her new 'own' apartment and beheld 25 or more of her square dancers serenading her. An evening of fun was enjoyed by all. Our newest 'mommie' VICKI HUMES was given a surprise shower for AMBER. She arrived early and caught us napping. Congratulations VICKI & STEVE on your new daughter...Halloween came in full bloom.

Oct. 28 all kinds of weird, lovely and otherwise people assembled into square dancing routine. An overstuffed, oversized hockey player losing her socks dancing with a fat pumpkin was truly a sight to remember and a merry one to behold. Our only regret was that KEN RICKERT our caller, was not there to enjoy the occasion. However, capable BOB BACHE was welcomed home. BOB was a RUSTLER when he learned calling.

SINGLES & PAIRS of Santa Rosa...Sept. 27 3 squares attended SAUCY SQUARES' first Anniversary hoedown in Sebastopol. We all had a great time - food was fantastic and several of our members won door prizes... Sept. 30...the SAUCY SQUARES invited us to their pie night and we had a great time. Oct. 1 was our monthly pie night and we had several visitors...Oct. 4th one and a half squares put on an exhibition for the Girl Scouts at the Veteran's Memorial Hall in Santa Rosa...Several members attended the Santa Rosa Harvest Festival at the fairgrounds...Oct. 16 a group put on an exhibition for the Driftwood Convalescent Hospital...A bus load of members went to Reno for the weekend. They had a great time at the shows and gambling.

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES' barbecue was held at the Vineyards on Oct. 4th. It was a huge success with approximately eighty hungry dancers enjoying steak along with the potluck. Enjoyed after the dinner, along with happy conversation, was a hoedown under the stars...A large crowd enjoyed dancing to ERNIE KINNEY for our 2nd Saturday hoedown on Oct. 11. Hosts and Hostesses for the evening were the FREITAS', CASAS-SAS, and the ROSES...The club will be visiting QUESTION MARKS in Cotati, to dance to TOM WALTON on Oct. 21.

MARKWESTERNERS of Santa Rosa celebrated their anniversary with several square dance friends dancing to the calling of BUD GRASS in September. The Monroe Clubhouse was all decked out in an Hawaiian theme with orchids, roses and posters and an able committee served Hawaiian fruit and cake...A spectacular assortment of pies was served to the hungry dancers at our 2nd Tuesday dance in October. One of the many pleasures of dancing is sampling desserts afterwards. So on the last Tuesday in October we're changing our annual Halloween party to a "Help BUD celebrate his birthday" theme, with more dancing and eating, and at least one song, Happy Birthday!

QUESTION MARKS... our ANDY RAWLINSON dance on Sept. 27 brought out 16 squares of dancers. The committee for the night was CHUCK & MARLENE PERRY, GEORGE & MARIE LUIZ, BOB & KATHY HINTON, AL & JAN OSTHEIMER and CHARLES & JOAN KILIAN. Our President RAY MARTIGNOLI with his wife ROSEMARIE along with DEAN & JAN PALMER traveled to San Rafael on Oct. 4th to dance with HUFFS 'N' PUFFS and their great caller for the night, KEN BISHOP. SQUAWS & PAWS of Novato on Oct. 11 had a fun dance with RON WELSH calling. Venturing south were: BOB & KATHY HINTON, HARRY & ELSIE ANDERSON, NORM & RUTH GRAHAM, DEAN & JAN PALMER, RAY & ROSEMARIE MARTIGNOLI, VALERIE KEIFER and FRED LAWRENCE and our caller TOM WALTON, with his wife SANDY and his two children, JUDY and BRIAN. The Novato STUMP JUMPERS had a super dance on Oct. 18 with BILL PETERS calling. Those enjoying the evening were: AL & SHIRLEY VARGAS, NORM & RUTH GRAHAM, BOB & KATHY HINTON, RAY & ROSEMARIE MARTIGNOLI and DEAN & JAN PALMER. The club is sorry to be losing two couples: BOB & KATHY HINTON and NORM & RUTH GRAHAM. Their jobs have called them to southern California. We are sure going to miss them.

ADOBE SQUARES of Petaluma...Sept. 27, the ALPERS, BURBANKS, COOKS, DUCKETTS, GUIDDYS, HARRISONS, LEWIS, LINNEYS, NIXS, SPEEDS, and WESTERS traveled to Napa Fairgrounds to FIVE STAR SQUARES' hoedown with DAVE HOBAUGH and the GHOST RIDERS live music, a great experience indeed. Our 5th Tuesday pie night brought visitors from STUMP JUMPERS and NOVATO SQUARES, and BUZZIN' BOOTS to dance, try calling and taste our homemade goodies especially JIM CLARK'S apple pie. On Oct. 4 we hosted a hoedown with BOB ELLING calling with fourteen squares attending. Oct. 11th found the HARRISONS, BURBANKS, and NIXS traveling South to Novato to attend SQUAWS & PAWS' hoedown with RON WELSH calling. Oct. 18 found the ALPERS and GUIDDYS in Novato at STUMP JUMPERS' hoedown with BILL PETERS calling. FIVE STAR food was served. Also the same night found the BURBANKS, DASSELS, HARRISONS and OWENS dancing at the VALLEY TRAVELERS' hoedown in Livermore with the calling of PAUL HARRIS and live music by the GHOST RIDERS. Oct. 25, found several couples in San Rafael dancing at the BUZZIN' BOOTS Bicentennial hoedown with BUD GRASS calling.

SQUARENADERS... A bus load of our group 35 in all, followed our leaders, ART & PHYLLIS GIFFORD on a mystery trip to visit the STARLITE SHUFFLERS in Carmichael. It was a fun trip and all enjoyed the calling and antics of JOEL KADISH which brought back memories of the many good times we had with SQUARENADERS of Sunnyvale. We are happy to hear that BERTHA ALSPAUGH is feeling better after her long siege of illness and also that MERLE HORTON is home from the hospital. We hope to see you across the square, soon. Our Beginners class attendance is holding up well with 9 squares - plus coming every week. TOMMIE & CLARA COLE attended the SWING DING DANDIES' 18th Anniversary at the Sonora Fairgrounds. GEORGIA AMSBAUGH is just back from a trip to Dunsmuir and the BROWNS report having a nice rest and beautiful weather at Bodega Bay. Highlight of the month was our annual Halloween party. The "great pumpkin" rose again to present prizes to several costumed spooks. BOB HENDERSON was our guest caller and the hall was 'jumping' with 20 plus squares. Our Association is having the Inaugural Ball soon and we are looking forward to meeting our new officers. We wish all of our square dancing friends a fun-filled and healthy holiday season. We will be celebrating our 25th Anniversary in January with a super party. Watch for our Advertisement in this publication.

CERES TWISTERS' salute to Square Dance Week was a huge success, thanks to our many guests. Our special thanks to GENE & RON WELSH for a fine job of calling. The homemade pies were delicious and BETTY FRITSCH wishes to thank her KP crew for a job well done. Approximately two squares of our members went to FOOTHILL SHUFFLERS' graduation where we received their friendship badges, also some of us got our grasshopper badges the same night. KEITH & LaVERNE WYMAN traveled to Twain Harte to the Benefit Dance for VIVIAN RATHBUN. They reported that the dance was a huge success. The KIRKSEYS, FRITSCHES, WYMANs and AMES visited SWING DING DANDIES' dance. After the dance they, along with the WELSHS went on to Angels Camp to spend the rest of the weekend at the Fun Festival. Approximately 3 squares of our members visited SQUARENADERS recently. Alf reported having a good time and the Sylvan Club really looked nice after all the painting the SQUARENADERS have done. The coolers which they installed really helped keep us cool. Although we may not have attended all of the Anniversaries held recently, we wish to congratulate the SIERRA SQUARES, FOXY SQUARES, and MILL-A-ROUNDS. Two couples from our club have been nominated for CCSDA offices. LEN & PAT YOUNG for Publicity and KEITH & LaVERNE WYMAN for Treasurer.

GOLDEN SQUARES - Congratulations to FOOTHILL SHUFFLERS, after attending their graduation party, our members agreed they have a real swinging club. Several of us earned a grasshopper badge there. IMOGENE McDANIELS earned her purple heart badge. I hear she slipped one over on the callers who weren't aware she was after her purple heart. Our caller, LEONARD BLOW-

ER has gone to parts unknown, deer hunting. Maybe we will get a venison steak dinner when he returns. In his absence, RAY STRICKLAND taught our beginners class and will also call for one of our party nights. Callers, RAY & CASEY PARKER shared the program for the square dance exhibition held on the occasion of Ralston Tower's first anniversary. They gave an excellent performance. Clubs participating were: STEPPIN' PARDS, CERES TWISTERS, FOOTHILL SHUFFLERS, SQUARENADERS, FOXY SQUARES and GOLDEN SQUARES. We are happy to report that BILL DONNER'S convalescence after heart surgery is progressing satisfactorily. He is now able to be out and about some and drives his car. We are planning a 'scrumptious' Thanksgiving dinner again this year. Time will be announced later.

SINGLE SKIRTS 'N FLIRTS had a picnic and business meeting recently at Whitmor Park. Fun was had by all. We started the fall season off with a potluck and get-acquainted dinner, prospective new dancers were invited. Our Barn Dance was a big success, thanks to all of you that attended. Several of our singles have campers and are enjoying the outdoor camping as well as the dancing. We were well represented both at Plymouth and the Fun Festival at Angels Camp. Being a singles club, we always have some that decide to give up their single bliss and join the ranks of the married folks. NANCY HERMO and GEORGE BENOIT as well as JACQUELYN KNIGHT and JIM FERGUSON took the plunge in September. Our congratulations to both couples. KAY SYLON, BERTHA DAVIS, CLEO WETTER and SHEL SHELTON attended the National in Kansas City. BERTHA went on to attend the Opera and take a walking tour of Europe. She square danced in Wiesbaden, Germany. She returned weary and foot sore, but enjoyed every minute of it.

ROCKIN' W ROUNDS were well represented at the MILL-A-ROUNDS 6th Anniversary in Merced. ERNIE KINNEY did a fine job of guest calling and even his old side kick Piz Pot PETE called a tip. If you have never danced to old PETE, then you've missed something (more than you realize). Many of our members have been on vacation including BARBARA REECE and MARGARET BRUNETTE who have been touring in Europe for the past 3 weeks. We will be dancing two nights a month in this area now, the 1st Monday in Ceres and the 3rd Monday in Turlock. Hope to see all of you at our 15th Anniversary dance.

SIERRA SQUARES want to take this opportunity to thank all of the dancers who came to our 19th Anniversary party at the Sonora Fairgrounds. Thanks, too to RALPH SILVIUS and MARGE CARRIKER for their well done calling jobs. Our Anniversary cake was made by our own POLLY CUMMINGS, who did a beautiful job and our deepest thanks to you, POLLY. The TRAILER TWIRLERS with 16 present received our friendship badges, also 2 couples from the DIAMOND HORSESHOE CLUB in San Diego. Those of you that didn't get to the 6 o'clock potluck supper really missed some 'out of this world' food. Our Beginners Class is going great guns . . . it's nice seeing so many new faces interested in square dancing. IRENE & TED VANN'S son was married recently. We wish the newly weds much happiness. Birthday night was held recently and MONTE ABERNATHY, DON BRENON, MARTY SANDS, LINDA FRAZEE and MARGE WEIMER were congratulated. We also wish to say Happy Anniversary to the BRENONS, GLEASONS MAECHLERS, BISHOPS, and STERNIS'... We welcome new members FRANK & JUANITA ECONOMOU, also JIM YODER. LOLLY & DAVIS RODGERS are now the proud owners of a travel trailer. We wish them many happy times with it.

ATWATER ROCKING A'S...The BRIGHTS attended the FOOTHILL SHUFFLERS graduation dance under the stars and then two days later, along with the AVEYS traveled to Twain Harte for the TWIRLER benefit dance. Came home with one of the lovely door prizes. The ROCKING A'S held their Round-Up dance recently with some dancers returning after summer vacations....The BRIGHTS, KOULMENTAS, HARRIS', CHUCK SYKES and daughter, DEBBIE, KEVIN PRIEST and MELANIE TYLOCK all traveled to Hughson to the caller's meeting and learned some new dances. We were well represented at the FOXY SQUARES' 2nd Anniversary and the AVEYS, BRIGHTS, DOUGHERTYS, SILVAS, all enjoyed the Hobo Dance at the ROMP 'N STOMPERS in Merced. Some of our members also attended MILL-A-ROUND' Anniversary in LeGrand.
