Square Dancers Ass'n No. Calif. 'President's Message' John & Mary Lou Richter

Once again that magical time of year is upon us. That "GOLDEN" time we look to with great anticipation all year and as your Association President and General Chairman of the Round-Up Committee we would like to extend an invitation to all of you to join with us in attending the 23rd annual Golden State Round-Up. Those frolicsome and fun-filled 3 days starting Friday night May 28th and dancing right on through to Sunday night the 30th. As we have stated previously the Round-Up has turned into one of the finest and most successful Square Dance Festivals in the country. This is due to all those wonderfully dedicated people who work so diligently in helping us put it all together and knowing that the only remuneration they will receive is our most grateful thanks and the knowledge of a job well done. For without their efforts all this work would have to be done professionally resulting in higher registration fees and probably wouldn't be as good anyway. Of course, without all the support you dancers give all that work would be for nothing and our Round-Up wouldn't be so "GOLDEN".

This year the Towne House Hotel will be Round-Up Headquarters. Being only 2 blocks from the Civic Auditorium it's real convenient. The rooms are excellent and you will find it a good place to be with your friends and make an enjoyable weekend even more pleasant, so make arrangements today and be where all the action is. By the way, if you haven't already pre-registered, please do. You will receive your ribbons by return mail and eliminate the hassle of doing so at the door. Let's make this Round-Up the greatest yet - we are celebrating the 200th birthday of our country - what better way to do it.

'Til next time - happy squares!

The Round Up Corner

"THE SPIRIT OF '76" is moving us all to the San Francisco Civic Auditorium May 28, 29 and 30.

HOUSING ... If you plan to spend your nights in San Francisco, you must secure your rooms through Ski and Marge Pogorzelski in order to receive the convention rates which are shown on the back of the flyers. Their address is 28362 Beatron Way, Hayward, 94544, Telephone (415) 538-1089, and you must also secure a parking permit for your car if you intend to park at The Towne House, or it will be towed away.

BREAKFAST RESERVATION...send to Jim & Rosie Moore, 1908 Sanford, San Pablo, 94806, Telephone (415) 237-2245.

ADVANCED REGISTRATION...get in early - door prices will be higher (see price list in center fold ad for all of the above).

RESTAURANTS IN AREA...we were hopeful that we would have this information in time for the May issue, but it will be available by the time of the Round-Up.

CLUB BANNERS...If you want your banner hung, have your delegate bring it to the next General Meeting or bring to the Civic Auditorium on Thursday night May 27th. No banners can be hung during the days of the Round-Up.

COMMITTEES...are still in need of help - check with your delegate for more information.

PROGRAMS ... Wait until you see these beautiful Souvenir Programs Bill and Ramona Gauthier and their committee have prepared for this year and which will be given FREE. If your club did not get included, you will be truly sorry. Blow-Ups of the schedules will be posted at each door for your convenience.

GRAND MARCH...Vern and Minnie Branco plan to have the Marine Corp Color Guard in Bicentennial Colonial garb. We hope you will all join us in this stirring march.

Please plan to line up between 7:00 and 7:15 P.M. on Saturday night, as the March begins promptly at 7:30.

FOR YOUR DANCING PLEASURE - Bill and Betty Peters and Forrest and Kay Richards have everything moving to make this one of the best Round-Ups ever. Starting with the Trail Dance at 8:00 P.M. on Friday night where the Featured Callers will be introduced and the Stardettes and Golden Gators will perform during the evening, there will be continuous dancing to the Featured Callers for the entire weekend. Saturday starts with Intermediate Rounds with the Chaffees at 10:00, Square dancing at 11:00 and exhibitions at 3:45. If you are not interested in eating, Bill Davis will be presenting advanced workshop from 5 to 7, at which time the Grand March will start forming, followed by more dancing from 8 to 11:30 P.M. with the Squarenaders performing at 9:20. Sunday morning starts off with the BREAKFAST at THE TOWNE HOUSE, M.C.'d by Bob Barthol - then off to the dance starting again with the impromptu rounds at 10:30, teaching of the ROM by the Chaffees at 1:00 or Square Dancing with the Featured Callers from 1:00 to 11:00 - SQUARENADERS will exhibit at 2:45 and the STARDETTES at 8:50. Again, if you are interested in advanced workshops, Bill Davis will be holding forth in the Main Arena from 5:30 to 7:00 on Sunday night also. FOR THE TEENS - the committee has a special program for you in Larkin Hall on Saturday night from 10:00 to 11:00 with all three featured callers doing your thing.

And, of course, leading the whole BICENTENNIAL EVENT are General Chairmen JOHN & MARY LOU RICHTER who are looking forward to dancing with each and everyone of you at YOUR Golden State Round-Up. We hope you enjoy it as much as we enjoyed preparing for you.

The San Joaquin Valley S/D Association meeting this month was very interesting. The club callers had their workshop before the meeting, which was a very good program. They presented some of the new material which got some of us mixed up a little bit as some of the new calls do. It all came out at the end though. I was glad to see such a good turnout this month. Some new faces were there from our clubs. All the clubs report good dancing. Hope the new dancers will take an interest in the doings of the association. It was decided to have our July 31st association dance a beginners hoedown. This will be for both square and round dancers. It should be very interesting for the beginners to see how many mistakes the rest of us make at times. Ha! Ha! The new by-laws are about completed which we have worked hard on over the past year.

STARS & BARS... Another new member of the VALLERY family was added this month. JAMIE SCOTT VALLERY is the new son of ROGER & DEBRA VALLERY, and another grandchild for RUSS & THELMA VALLERY. Congratulations to the new parents and the grandparents! JAMIE was born March 23. ... March 27 was our 22nd Anniversary dance, and it was really sensational. KENNY STEEN called a fun dance, and we were pleased to have the San Lorenzo STARS & BARS and CASTRO VALLEY REBELS join us for the evening. They brought two busloads. The coffee for the club with the most members present went happily to STARS & BARS, and a few door prizes as well. The theme was red, white, and blue for our Bicentennial year, and the committee did a really terrific job. We also welcomed KENNY & BOOTS STEEN as honorary members of

Big Valley Ass'n. Tom & Maybelle Pope

March 1...Workshop with Dick Houlton. Visiting from Chicago, Frank & Dorothy Pezega and George & Helen Cloutier... March 4...Meeting of interested dancers for the coming brush-up course and round dance graduates... March 6...Attended the Pinebrook Squares' Officers Meeting at Folsom. Left word for our friends, the Bensons of Loomis. Albert & Mildred Barnes were guests at Farrell's Ice Cream Parlor... March 8...Workshop with seven squares and two couples left over. Very interesting... March 12...Rode to San Mateo Callers Choice Club - the Toumis' were the hosts. The Buoncrisiani's did Rounds. Dick Houlton did a wonderful job of smooth workshop to 25 squares. The Villa Coffee Shop was the supper spot, they work hard to please... March 14...2nd Sunday dance at Growers Hall with a great group of square dancers... March 15...Workshop. Would you believe, the kids came all the way from Fresno to surprise Dick Houlton... March 18...Friends dropped in from Mojave and California City. They are going to bring a caravan of dancers to the Annual Stockton S/D Festival. March 22...1, 2, 3, square 'em up! One more over here! You can keep up; when you attend workshop. Monday nights, 8-10:30 p.m., Growers Hall, 118 N. Wilson Way...March 26...Konocti Weekend; a favorite for all dancers wishing for a complete experienced staff. Giving rounds: Forrest & Kay Richards. Shelby Dawson and Dick Haulton making themselves new friends and making the floor smooth and easy... March 27...The management of Konocti have a staff which helps to make this weekend long remembered...March 28... Our day started with a champagne breakfast and ended at 3 a.m. with lots of good fun... March 29...Workshop at Growers Hall.

T-SQUARES...If you're not going to be in Reno for the Silver State plan on joining us for our May hoedown on the 1st at Robertsons. Pre-rounds at 7:30 and square dancing starts at 8:15 with TOM HIGHTOWER doing the calling...Now that the cool weather is upon us again, remember our workshops are "cool" in Robertson's air-conditioned studio. Be sure to come for the round dance workshop at 7 p.m. ART & JIMMIE KEBORT will be teaching some of the more popular rounds for your dancing pleasure...We will start a beginners class on Tuesday, Sept. 14 and the first lesson is free...There will be a great square dance weekend on Sept. 10, 11, and 12 at Camp Sacramento. Sponsored by the city, this weekend offers all sorts of outdoor recreation and family recreation in addition to the square and round dance program.

CLUTCH BUSTERS are getting ready for the May Silver State Festival in Reno. GEORGE CANTUA has made reservations for 23 couples. Included are three couples from our graduating class. In February we had three squares that attended CONCORD REBELS' "Sweetheart" hoedown with BILL PETERS calling and HANK & RUTH FITCH doing the rounds. Attending were the NODSONS, SCOTTS, TOURS, HALLES, ROBBINS, TURGEONS, MAPLES, FITCHS, SAMSONS, HODGES, NEALS, and IRELANDS. On

Feb. 28 the JACKS & JENNYS celebrated their 28th Anniversary with DAVE HOBAUGH calling with live music by THE GHOST RIDERS. Doing some lively dancing and having a fun evening were KEN-KYS, ROBBINS, NEALS, FOLTZ, BERNARDS, HODGES, MOORES and FITCHS. BERNARDS won a pizza at Rod's. The 28th found the TORGEONS and NODSONS dancing with VALLEJO PIONEERS. Our Feb. potluck was a big success with a lot of good food and dancing. Chairpersons LOIS & LEN BERG did a superb job.

RIPSNORTERS...March came in like a lamb and went out like a lion, the opposite of the way the weather went. Our spring hoedown was held near the end of the month with club caller KEN MILROY calling a lively intermediate level dance at the Concord High School which was decorated in an Easter season motif...Earlier in the month the club went visiting. A bunch had a "very moving experience" dancing at JACKS & JENNYS' Anniversary hoedown where DAVE HOBAUGH kept the floor busy. The DAVIS', DORRS, PAULS, WIMPRESS', KRATINAS, PIAZZAS, JEAKINS, FIRSTS, RISCHBACKS, SIMONS, FUMAGALLIS, WILSONS, and DON GRIMES attended this dance while another contingent kept pace with DAVE STEVENS who called for SOUR GRAPES of Napa, they being the HOUCKS, AUMANN'S, STOCKTONS and DeRUYSE CHERS...The club is anticipating election of officers which has been set for the middle of April. We are happy with the way so many club members showed a willingness to accept the responsibility of an office so will include a potluck dinner the same evening. A week later the club will join ROSSMOOR SQUARES for an evening of dancing with their caller, JIM HILTON.

JACKS & JENNYS' 28th Anniversary hoedown with DAVE HOBAUGH calling to the music of the GHOST RIDERS on Feb. 28th was attended by members of 52 clubs making up approximately 50 squares. All who attended enjoyed a fine evening. The club had a mystery trip organized by MARGE NIEBER and NORMA RICHBERGER in March...A total of 24 couples traveled by coach to Vahls in Alviso for a fine dinner and then went on to take in the CURLI Q'S hoedown with caller ROGER MORRIS in Palo Alto. The McDERMOTTs won the prize for guessing the distance to the hoedown. All in all, the evening was very entertaining and the organizers are to be congratulated.

CONCORD STOMPERS held their beginners hoedown on March 16, which was a great success with 25 squares on the floor. BOB ELLING, club caller, was in rare form for the occasion. Many thanks to JERI PEREZ, DEE PIWKIEWITZ, and DOT BACZYNSKI for decorations; the intermediate club for refreshments; and LONA & PORTER HARLAN for greeting. Our Sept. beginners class was graduated on March 17 with 30 graduates. The night started off with a potluck dinner, where everyone stuffed themselves and followed with the initiation. DIABLO MOUNTAIN CLOGGERS honored us that night with a special Irish dance (which they had learned just for that night), and a clogging exhibition. Fun was had by all.

SHELL SWINGERS ... Outgoing president and taw, MARVIN & ANN WILSON, were honored at our March meeting for two and a half years of leadership. They were given a gift from the club and all enjoyed the decorated cake saying "thank you MARVIN & ANN". And it was a welcome to new club President and Taw, HARVEY & LOIS TROWBRIDGE and officers JACK LEWIS, V.P.; DOLF DEGGER, Chairman; DOROTHY PEELER, Secty.; ELLA WOOD, Treas.; DON & SHIRLEY ELLIOT, Assoc. Delegate; and GENE & LENNIE MASON, Alternates. We thank all our square dance friends who came to enjoy our 13th Anniversary dance. It was fun level dancing to the voice and rhythm of ANDY RAWLINSON, good food, floor and prizes. Earlier in the month we went to Walnut Manor, demonstrated our dancing and had the senior citizens join us in a couple of tips. The ladies traveled to the Vallejo Elks Club for their March Out-to-Lunch date. Our caller's wife, RUTH McNAMARA, then invited all to her home for a surprise baby shower honoring member MARIE TROWBRIDGE.

SUN VALLEY SQUARES...Celebrated St. Patrick's day a bit early with a March 5th hoedown. The 8-week level hoedown was chaired by GRACE & BILL ELKINS with SHIRLEY & DON HARMON as food chairpersons. It was held at College Park High School in Pleasant Hill and ably called by our own PAUL CLAUSEN (KITTY) with guest callers, MAC McDEVITT (FERN), SPINNING WHEELS; Alameda's BERT SWERER; TWILITE TWIRLERS (Martinez), MERV BRADLEY (GERTRUDE); LAFAYETTE ESCADRILLES of Lafayette. It was well attended by 18 Bay Area clubs and 34 paid squares. Club President MILT & BARBARA BIGHAM; Vice President, OCEE & CAROL BROWN, Secty. JAY & KRIS KALBUS, were among the many SUN VALLEY greeters. There were several couples wearing the new black and gold club outfits, just off the sewing machine and designed by KRIS KALBUS with assistance by CAROLE BROWN. A great time was had by all.

TWILITE TWIRLERS...Visited SUN VALLEY SQUARES with our beginners. Third Monday we had a fashion show. Models were: DARLENE & WES CARTWRIGHT, BOBBIE & PAUL, BOB & GERRY COLE, RONDA INMAN, BERT SWERER, BEV & MAL MALPASSE, and DONNA & WARREN HICKMAN...DREW & MARTY'S Western Wear of San Ramon furnished the beautiful square dance dresses, slips, shoes, and shirts. We thank them for their generosity. As a grand finale they modeled homemade outfits that were absolutely marvelous. WANDA TROST was our excellent narrator. SUN VALLEY SQUARES' beginners furnished refreshments; PAUL CLAUSEN and BERT SWERER called the evening...Sorry about the name error last month it is really DOROTHY & NUBBY RAY...A speedy recovery to CATHY WILLIAMS and LINDA WUNSCH.

BAYWOOD PROMENAIRES...A good time was had by all who went on the Reno trip. Especially the winners. The members attending the Chanticleers Play 'Boeing Boeing' enjoyed a fine comedy. April plans for another fine family potluck and dance. With so many good cooks it's an evening to look forward to.

EAGLE SQUARES...March 13, was our St. Patrick's Day hoedown our Irish caller, NONIE 'OMOGLIA, called a great dance. There were many clubs represented, even a couple from Green Acres, Mass. After we all relaxed our tired feet at the local pizza parlor and sat around the fire singing Irish songs. Leading the Irish sing-along were BETTY, BOB, DOT, JOE & MARY and then there were us hum-alongers. NONIE called for two and a half squares at the Pleasanton Fairgrounds on March 20...Mar. 24, was a night we had all been waiting for. BERYL MAIN came to call! It was a beautiful, smooth evening of dancing. What a great night it turned out to be, he always fills your expectations. Box socials are box socials, but when the newer dancers put them on they are elegant dinners. Candles, wine glasses with sparkling soda pop, and gourmet food. How about that for a box social! Thanks, it was a yummy evening. Hello and welcome to our new club members, BOB & MARY BUNCH. Our treasurers are back from Hawaii. How were the funds? I mean, how were the fun places? Glad to have you back DICK & EDITH.

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS...The quilt block was delivered to the KUNTRY KUZINS on St. Patrick's Day for a great party. The homemade cookies were delicious and callers FRED WILLIAMS and BOB HOFFSTEZ were excellent. March 14, had a marvelous time at our roller skating party. Fortunately STANFORD didn't break his wrist, maybe that's because he didn't skate. We only had a few bad moments while square dancing on skates, but everyone walked out under his or her own power...March 27 a mystery trip with delightful results. Wound up at STARS & BARS in Stockton and enjoyed the calling of KENNY STEEN. Our favorite club the STARS & BARS of San Leandro were also there so there were many familiar faces and our beginners especially, decided that mystery trips were just great. Beginners will graduate in April, we are always so proud of them at hoedowns as they are a most advanced group of beginners. Congratulations to them and our patient caller, JOHN PAINTER.

LIVERMORE VALLEY TRAVELERS...started a New Year with election of officers: Pres. RON & PAT SALTGAVER; V. Pres., BERT & JUDY CURTNER; Treas., DON & JOAN VON BUSKIRK; NCSDA Delegate, JIM & THELMA WRIGHT; and Publicity, DAN & ARLENE SOUZA. The CURTNERs were also elected Secretary. March 19-20 outgoing officers were honored at a pre-party hour hosted by the NIELSENS at their home followed by dinner and dancing at the Alameda Officers' Club. Hats representing their offices were presented to the new officers by the old along with humorous advice. On Saturday we danced to club caller PAUL HARRIS at CLUTCH BUSTERS. March 27, we put on an exhibition for a community fashion show. We are all looking forward to attending the Round-Up in May.

CASTRO VALLEY CONFEDERATE TEENS...The Round-Up and Convention are nearing and we are starting to feel the excitement as we begin to prepare for them. We will soon be displaying our new club outfits for the Round-Up and are planning a few fund-raisers to help club members get to Anaheim. We've had a lot of fun this past month. We started off by attending the Castro Valley REBELS' roller skating party. We want to thank the REBELS for inviting us. We were also fortunate to have the president of STARS & BARS, BEN MONTALBO come and call for us. To top off this month we attended SWINGING TEENS' party night. They sure know how to throw a party. Our beginners are really excited. Come May, we are giving them a graduation hoedown. They have been working hard and have certainly earned their caps. Congratulations to new officers: JIM LARSEN, Pres.; VICKI VIRGIN, V. Pres.; DEBBIE PLOWMAN, Secty.; BRENDA PLOWMAN, Treas.; DEBBIE EATON, Hospitality; MIKE LEAVITT, Sheriff; and CAROL NEU, Publicity. We are confident that our new officers will do a fine job.

ACES & LACES...March 10, we had our annual rummage sale. Many thanks to FRANK & LANA PERRY for being chairman; also all the people that helped and donated clothing and household items. March 20, we had a hoedown with ED LOONEY and guest caller JACK PETRI sharing a split program. We had 14 squares with good dancing and dessert later in the evening. Also many of our beginners came and all did very well.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS...Three new couples have joined our club, LIZ & HANK ANDRES, ROBERT & HILDA PEEK, and TIEFFET & CHUCK SHARP. Other additions to some club members are: grandson to DAVE & MARY HOBBS; daughter-in-law to JOE & MARGARET WARWICK; a visiting student from Japan in the home of JOHN & MARIE ROTH. Two squares enjoyed the SQUARE WHEELERS' hoedown on March 6. Another fun trip, with three squares, and caller RON GRIFFITH and tawARDIS, going to a dinner dance with officers and their wives from Moffet Field. On the 23rd of the month the club will dance at the Tropic's Mobile Home Park.

STARS & BARS...This is the first article from this club of San Leandro. We have joined the NCSDA and received our Charter on March 24. We appointed our first officers: Pres., GENE & KAREN MALDONADO; V. Pres., LOUIS & IOLA WARREN; Secty., GAIL & DAVE AZEVEDO; Treas., SHERI & NEIL WHITE; Delegates, MAC & RUBY McCHESNEY; Alt. Delegates, ROSS ROBINSON; Publicity, DON BIGLEY are all members of the board. Appointees are: JANISE BIGLEY, Refreshments; TONI LOCKS, Sunshine. Feb. 21 we held a hoedown and our sister club from Stockton caravanned down to join us and the rest of clubs that were at the hoedown led by caller RICK MORE and wife NELLIE along with a square and a half of club members. March 27 we went to Stockton by bus to attend their 22nd Anniversary hoedown, called by KENNY STEEN. There were 43 club members on the bus including our caller JIM McDONALD and taw ANNA. We had a wonderful time with our sister club. It was our first bus trip but we had so much fun that it won't be our last. We are always ready to welcome any and all visitors to our club.

EDEN ROCKERS...Our February party was a farewell party for our caller, BILL STRINGER and his wife PAT. It is with much regret we are losing such fine people. We have enjoyed BILL'S calling and workshop material and he and PAT were a credit to our club. We wish them both good luck and our prayers are with them in their new way of life. Our club presented BILL with a gift of a pocket bible...March 6, our annual hoedown was a huge success caller BILL PETERS and FORREST & KAY RICHARDS on the rounds did an excellent job. Thanks to all who attended. Several of our members enjoyed another evening of singing by the Oakland East Bay Chapter of the Barber Shop Quartet's as they presented "What A Country" featuring an excellent quartet "The Gentlemen's Agreement". We are looking forward to the National in June.

KUNTRY KUZINS...Feb. 28, four couples - the POLIUKAS, HOHMANNNS, HODGES and SPENCES attended a hoedown in Santa Cruz, hosted by LUCKY STEPPERS. Guest caller was RON WELSH, RON did a grand job keeping the dancing at fun level but keeping everyone moving. The Mystery Trip the first weekend in March was a trip to Manteca hosted by TRAIL BLAZERS. Guest caller was MARLEN HALL from Long Beach.

MARY MATZEK wishes to thank everyone who sent her a square for her quilt, she hopes to start putting it together soon. Our best wishes to JEAN HEAVILLIN who is recuperating from her recent back surgery. JEAN is hopeful she will be able to dance at the National. Everyone is busy sewing away making the new club dress in preparation for our club anniversary dance coming up in April.

BERKELEY SINGLE SQUARES...attended enmasse the glorious presentation, "What A Country", by the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America. The performance was for the Benefit of Children with speech handicaps and our attendance was in reciprocity for the talent show given at our party nights by these groups. Condolences to our caller JIM MORK for the loss of his mother. We missed you JIM while you were away. Replacement caller, CARL KAMENSKI is certainly on his way toward becoming an outstanding caller. We enjoyed our two workshops with him. Round dance callers JOHN & SHERRI HELMS have brought our group along at such a rate that we have actually started to workshop "Round Dancers" rounds. They are great teachers, that HELMS team.

KEEWAY SWINGERS...Our new club dress has been presented to the members and scissors and sewing machines have been kept busy getting the outfits ready for our April hoedown. Dancers have been busy with both newer dancers and intermediate hoedowns attended...Among these were EDEN ROCKERS with BILL PETERS; BOOT SWINGERS with TOM PERRY; Salt and Pepper dance with ANDY RAWLINSON and BERRY MEDFORD and our own newer dancers' hoedown "Luck of the Irish", on March 19, with TOM PERRY and thanks to BOBBIE & RICH TOURNAY for a very nice after-party. Our newer dancers, we welcomed them on April 22, a very lively group of good dancers. We attended a fund raising spaghetti dinner-dance for the STARDETTES on March 13. Our nominating committee, PHIL SILVIA, HAM MARSDEN and BOB BRANDIA, have reported to the club, and with additional nominations from the floor, we are ready for club elections on April 1, with elections and graduation plus a hoedown in our near future, we're going to have a busy month.

ROLLING SQUARES of San Pablo...What a busy month we've had, the HUBBELLS, TORIXS, COWELLS, BABBS, FITZGERALDS BRADYS, SCHULTZS, GEORGE REID, and SYLVIA PUGH journeyed to Lafayette to dance with DAVE HOBAUGH, thanks JACKS & JENNYS for your hospitality...we also accompanied our caller DON SHOTWELL to the Cerebral Palsy dance in Fremont, Napa BUZZSTEPPERS, and to a benefit dance for the Lakeshore School in San Francisco...MARTY RAHE, one of our new dancers, and an expectant mother was presented with a basket of little things on party night...SYLVIA PUGH has returned from vacation and MILDRED & ELVIN WILLIAMSON are back on the road again in their motor home...Our newer dancers are out each Saturday night practicing their 50-plus...Members are busy making plans to attend the Silver State in Reno and the Golden Fiesta in Oroville which will be a first for most of us...No badge, gals in slacks, the Sheriff will get you if you don't watch out!

PIONEER SQUARE DANCERS ... Here is some news about our party on March 15th which was a great success, we had over 10 squares dancing and JIM DIFFEY, as usual, called a good program. The plans for our after-show party on June 12 are being set-up and the skits should be both amusing and fanciful. This will be held at the Vallejo Community Center and JIM DIFFEY will be the caller for the evening with FORREST & KAY RICHARDS doing the rounds. A potluck is being planned for April 19th and these events are always fun and does get the members and their families together. Our kitchen committees for the Saturday night hoedowns are HORACE & PHYLLIS GALIPEAU and JOHN & KAY FUNK for the Monday night hoedowns and are very good organizers for the same. The President and First Lady are RAY & LORENE BOWLING, and in July we will have a new slate of officers.

DO-C-DO'S ... have had a busy month. The newer dancers will be graduated by the time you read this. They have been already attending the newer dancers hoedowns in the area, and are looking forward to our mystery bus trip in April. We will be nominating new officers in April.

RANCHOWRANGLERS...Have a new home after all these years being in Maple Hall. In July 1959 we moved from Rancho School to Maple Hall with a membership of over 100 people. We have had a lot of fun and good hoedowns here, and we have a lot of memories. The hall is going to be torn down in April. We feel like we are losing an old friend. We are moving to Riverside School, 1300 Amador in San Pablo. Our party night will be the same, third Wednesday of each month. BERT SWERER is our caller.

FIVE STAR SQUARES...hope all square dancing mothers enjoy their SPECIAL DAY! A "red carpet" was literally rolled out at workshop for ERNIE & RUTH SIRE and CHARLES & KATIE QUESNEL. Vice President JIM MURPHY, assisted by BEE LACAZE, escorted the SIREs and KURT & ROSE EID escorted the QUESNELs down the authentic red carpet where Pres. HADLEY THOMPSON accepted them as new members and presented them with club badges. JACK & NELL SCHMIDT, long-time members, recently celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary. You should have seen them doing the Anniversary Waltz! Our last potluck, under the chairmanship of GEORGE & JUDY TUCKER and BUD & ELSIE SMALL was extremely well planned and fattening as usual. Members were anxiously trading recipes! The 28th anniversary hoedown of JACKS & JENNYS was thoroughly enjoyed by the caravan of FIVE STARS who enjoyed the calling of "their and our" caller DAVE HOBAUGH and the GHOST RIDERS. Our beginners class is just finishing up and are anxious for graduation and the trip to the Silver State Festival.

ISLAND SQUARES of Foster City had another successful mystery trip this year. We all met at a local shopping center, and boarded a chartered bus for points unknown, except of course, for the driver. Speaking of the driver, it turns out that he is also a square dancer from the San Jose area. After having an excellent dinner in Los Gatos, we all piled back into the bus for a short journey over the hill to Santa Cruz, where we joined SURF TWIRLERS and their caller GENE WELSH for an evening of good dancing and fun. Special thanks to chairpersons DORIS TINSLEY & CHICK CORBRIDGE for a fine evening. By the way, if you ever want a clear picture about what is going on, be sure to borrow BOB CORBRIDGE'S binoculars for a quick look-see. Congratulations to MARILYN & ARVIN SMITH on the recent marriage of their daughter, SHERRY ... We are sorry to hear about ARNIE REPO'S recent illness. We hope to see him dancing again soon.

CLODHOOPPERS of Belmont had a fantastic 29th Anniversary dance. Over 56 squares representing 38 clubs enjoyed the great calling of LEE HELSEL. Under the able direction of DON & GRETA ROBERTSON, and their committee, the evening was a big success. Club caller, DOUG SAUNDERS started off the night with a beautiful rendition of the National Anthem. JACK & DOROTHY WRIGHT did their usual great job with the rounds, and everyone had a lot of fun. A special thank you to all who helped make our 29th a very special year. It's been a month of broken bones for several club members. MAXINE KLEIN, FRED WILLIAMS, and HELEN LUPESCU, have all been out with various breaks. Club prexy, HARRY WATERS, has also been out of commission recovering from surgery. We miss you, hurry back. We are all looking forward to our upcoming Mystery Trip and Beginner's hoedown. Both should be fun and we look forward to seeing you newer dancers at our hoedowns.

HIGHLAND SWINGERS of San Carlos have been spreading the word that square dancing is fun... On March 8, club caller HAROLD DAVISON, a square of adults, and one of young people, danced at the Casa de Redwood retirement apartments in Redwood City - ah, the smiles on their faces. We were on the road quite a lot in March. Our thanks go out to the ANKLE KNOCKERS, CLODHOOPPERS, and 2 X 4's, for their high stepping hoedowns... On March 29 we drove across the Bay to help SWINGING TEENS of Fremont celebrate the arrival of their new caller KEN KENMILLE... On March 30 we traveled to Burlingame where the 2 X 4's hosted a 5th Tuesday party. What a workshop that was! The club got together on the 21st for a Pizza Party to welcome the coming of spring ... All in all, it was a fun month, but the happiest news of all came with the announcement of the birth of JAY & PAT ERWIN'S first grandchild. He is CHRISTOPHER MICHAEL ERWIN, a fine addition to a wonderful family.

ROADRUNNERS of San Mateo thank all of you who joined us for our April 17 hoedown and a special thanks to our hard-working kitchen committee. The SHRADERS and the PERUCHS mentioned what a good time they had at the PAIRS 'N SPARES' Sadie Hawkins dance last month. We were sorry to hear that DARCY PERUCH has since injured her back and has missed dancing for a few weeks. The club had a great time at the 5th Tuesday dance hosted by TWO BY FOURS ... May must be the magic month this year for European vacations. JACK & AGNES HAUKOM will leave at the beginning of the month for a three-week trip, then towards the end of May, JACK & ALICE LEONARD are planning on traveling for about a month.

Our club emblem, embroidered by CAROL HEMINGWAY, will look beautiful on the Bicentennial quilt being created by NCSA members. Can't wait to see the finished product. The KANES have been away several weekends working on their future hide-away in the mountains outside of Jackson. VICKI is still not able to dance and we all miss her company.

BACHELORS 'N' BACHELORETTES - San Francisco Chapter joined the PONY WHEELS for their swinging Black Cat dance along with BILL CARROLL and taw, CLARA. RUSS & BILL shared calling and dancing and that coupled with good fellowship and the PONY'S generous buffet became an outstanding event... We enjoyed the huge turnout for a great "misprint" at Novato High. "Milt Adams" appeared on stage in the form of ROGER MORRIS, while dancing in the squares in his own likeness... The gigantic sound of scissors slashing through polyester cotton and the whirring of sewing machines tells you we are making club dresses for the Round-Up. Our Bicentennial Quilt Block made by CAROL LAWTON, has square dancers, the girl in our tri-color plaid dress with lace petticoat, the man in black trousers, white shirt and red tie, a black circle lettered to identify us surrounds them... VIP guests: DON SAROFF, Asst. Dir. Region North B 'N' B's helped "man" our first Brush

Up session. From San Jose, MARGE HORTON, Director Region North and partner, FRED PYE. Get well wishes to ED REEB, ED PEARSON and SALLY MADRON. Our sincere sympathy to SHIRLEE HOLLAND and family on the loss of her father. Congratulations to PAUL HUNGERFORD, now National Assistant Director Northern California NRTA.

KALICO KATS of Daly City...Our newer dancers hoedown was a huge success in spite of the problem of getting into the school. We thank everyone who came and helped to make our dance and fashion show the talk of the town. We were happy to see many friends, especially former KATS, JUDY &

JOHN HUNT and their group from ADOBE SQUARES of Petaluma...We have been attending a number of hoedowns near and far traveling with CHARLIE and his lovely taw, LINDA, to the Wheeler Dealers Anniversary in San Jose and with 12 couples to Ukiah. He's a great guest caller and we all enjoyed our trips. CARMA & ANDY ANDERSON forgot their dancing attire but had fun anyway except that ANDY kept losing his coat. Oh well it was such a beautiful weekend, at least AL BEALL thought so as the water looked sooo inviting he decided to take a dip but one quick pass was enough. The after party at Ukiah Park Club Hall was great too, with BLAKE WESTMAN and JOE BUTTONS calling a tip and the applause is still resounding in their ears. The 49ER Anniversary dance was enjoyed by a few couples...Graduation of our beginners on the last Wednesday in April and congratulations to all the KITTENS and thanks to CHARLIE for a job well done...See all of you at our CHARLIE BROWN hoedown on May 15th at Calma School in Daly City= see our ad for particulars.

SUNSET TEENS of San Francisco participated in the St. Patrick's Day Parade marching and dancing behind BRIAN ESPINOZA and his Motorized Horse 'Pandemonium'. The street with chuckholes, hills and so forth makes for an unusual experience in the reaction to the song 76 Trombones...March 17th and our hall was decorated with Shamrocks, courtesy of COLLEEN RODRIGUE. We visited the TWO BY FOURS in Burlingame for an enjoyable evening...BRIAN, BOB, and MICHAEL checked out Marriotts Great America and found it to be great in every way...Our jackets are in and we're pleased to say our new outfits are ready to be presented at the Round Up.

CLOVERLEAFS of San Francisco - thanks to our Special Events chairlady DOROTHY BREDEHOFT and all her committee for the delicious St. Patrick's Day corned beef and cabbage dinner. Where in 'Erin' did the MENDOZAS learn to cook this dish to such perfection...KADISH KORNER: Have you seen JOEL'S picture on our Bulletin Board? It's RALPH SHEEHAN'S contribution of a memory note taken from "Sets in Order" magazine of February 1966. A clever idea...NORMA JEAN & CLIFF have new identical jackets with big green cloverleaves on the backs. Leave it to our talented NORMA JEAN for an original idea. Maybe some of us could copy them and we would make a splash when we attended other clubs' hoedowns...Our square for the quilt to be on exhibit at Anaheim this year was expertly hand sewn by NORMA JEAN. Each of us thank you, for in that square every loving stitch represents our pride in being Cloverleaf Square Dancers...Some of us danced to LEE HELSEL at the CLODHOOPER Anniversary Dance and to BOB FISK at FORTY-NINERS' Anniversary Dance, a great time was had by all who attended...We thank all our visitors on Friday nights, PLEASE COME AGAIN and our thanks to KALICO KATS for hosting our 5th Friday.

RANCHEROS of Redwood City extend best wishes and congratulations to newlyweds CLARA & RALPH MONROE. CLARA has been with the club for many years and RALPH is one of our newer dancers. We've had a lot of activity this past month. The gals are busy with new club dresses which we hope to have ready for our May Newer Dancer's Hoedown. The class, incidently, which is sponsored by RANCHEROS, the LONGHORNS, and the Redwood City Rec. Dept., is doing very well. Several of the students have joined us on party night and it's good to see the progress they are making. Our club, along with the newer dancers, was invited to join the LONGHORNS for a Potluck dinner. The food was delicious and we wish to thank the LONGHORNS for a wonderful evening. Our caller, ARLAN WIGHT and his lovely wife, DONNA, are off to the Caller-Lab Convention in the Chicago Marriott again this year. They will be in Chicago three days and then spend a few days with DONNA'S father in St. Louis.

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS proudly present LEE HELSEL at our 10th Anniversary hoedown April 3...Guess where? Lowell High School! Yes, we are very fortunate to have gotten Lowell for our hoedown. We would like to thank Association officers DON TINSLEY and HARRY SHARKEY, and representing District One, JOHN & LORRAINE SHUBUNKA for all the time, work and effort these people put forth in acquiring the school for our anniversary hoedowns. Also to MIKE RUBINO, asst. superintendent of maintenance and MARY LINNS, vice principal...Feb. 28 found ADELE DUCKETT, GEORGE STOELZE, the GIBSONS, NAVARRETES, MANSS, LEE GILES, STEVE JANOWICZ, SHIRLEY KORM and VERN SIMPSON at WHIRL-A-WAYS' anniversary hoedown enjoying the calling of ANDY RAWLINSON ... While the ADAMS and ARPS were happily dancing with JACKS & JENNYS and their fantastic caller DAVE HOBAUGH and the GHOST RIDERS providing live music...March 6 a group of us traveled to Petaluma and enjoyed a great evening with ADOBE SQUARES and their superb featured caller of the evening, DAVE HOBAUGH...being the club most represented, we won the coffee! Hurrah!... Sure was fun dancing with our beginners on March 17. We are looking forward to their graduation on April 14. A great time was had at the STUMP JUMPERS on March 20, where our own caller MILT ADAMS did his usual fine job of calling...Birthday greetings for the month of March go to CLAUDE WEBSTER, GARY REDLER, JULIE KORM and BETTY DREYFUSS.

FORTY-NINERS of So. San Francisco... accepted an invitation from GINGHAM SQUARES, to dance with them April 6, we enjoyed their warm hospitality and an evening of fun...Many members attended the WHIRL-A-WAYS dance with BARRY MEDFORD, a fine dance, enjoyed the HERITAGE DANCERS, they were great...5th Thursday party will be at the Franciscan Mobile Park clubhouse. Our hosts-the SQUARE CUTTERS-callers for the evening DON BLACK, DON SHOTWELL and BILL CASTNER. May dance committee, GAUTHIERS, HANLYS, ROUSCHMEIERS and GENE GEORGE are ready for our May 15 dance with club caller BILL CASTNER...The ANDERSONS & BENJAMINS are enjoying a Caribbean Cruise. Good to have ANN SCHWIRIAN dancing with us again. Welcome new members LAR-RY & ESTHER LANE; new Treasurer, TONY ROSSOVICH...A great deal of enthusiasm and excitement created by the newest project of the District One clubs, a square dance float. It will be entered in the Daly City Bicentennial Committee Parade; many cash prizes for all entries. ED & OLIVE SMITH, club members are very active in this project...All looking forward to the Round-Up weekend, club dinner, after-parties, all that wonderful calling and dancing and renewing old friendships. May birthdays: PERRITTS, MARGARET MCKEE, PEGGY BENJAMIN, and LUNA FLESHMAN, celebrating theirs on the Round-Up weekend will be EILEEN SCHREMP and MARY DENSON...Siebecker Hall has been completely renovated. It looks beautiful.

PAIRS 'N SPARES of San Bruno...Dog Patch came alive at our Sadie Hawkins day hoedown. "Marry'n Sam" (BOB MITCHELL) and his very attractive assistant (MARGE MITCHELL) were busy all evening making everything legal. Ask the couples who got hitched what Sam was reading from "The Love Machine". Great to have JEANNE MOODY calling at our hoedown, and of course, our own HOWARD HILLYER, who never missed a beat even when he was TP'D (mummified) from head to toe. Get well wishes to ED REEB, who has had surgery. Hope he'll be back soon. Visiting us on our Tuesday night workshop were old members PAUL & FRAN BREGLIA from FARMERS 'N' FARMERETTES and MIKE & DENISE RONAN now residing in Encino after five years in Alaska. Also at our workshop enjoyed dancing with CLOVERLEAF members and visiting with FRANCISCAN STOMPERS. Our St. Patrick's Day Hoedown had enthusiastic dancers from all around the Bay Area. HOWARD HILLYER had the newer dancers dancing like old pros! A thank you to the officers of 1975 was held at Beardsley's. Fifty members dined and danced with HOWARD calling the square dancing. Join us on May 8 at our new graduates hoedown, calling by our club caller, HOWARD HILLYER.

GINGHAM SQUARES of Millbrae continue to dance an average of 8 squares every Tues. night including members and friends...Nine couples attended FORTY-NINERS Anniversary Hoedown at Westborough Junior High on March 20 with BOB FISK calling squares and the WRIGHTS cueing rounds. Everyone attending had a wonderful time...Another group also enjoyed CLODHOOPPERS' Anniversary Hoedown earlier this month...On the sick list are IRV KOELLING who had surgery; SANDY JOHNSON and DAVE with the old flu bug; and ALICE LORBER with a broken toe. We've been missing PEG & BOB STALTER the last couple of weeks, understand they've been painting one of their rooms, as have KEN & SUSIE WEBB who are remodeling their kitchen...We are all looking forward to the Silver State Festival in Reno next month. Some of us are real busy sewing new duds for the event.

CAPER CUTTERS of San Francisco...Aloha to MARINO & FERN IACOPI who will be heading for the 49th State in the blue Pacific. We shall wish them good vacation... More thoughts should be given to our members about traveling to attend the National S/D Convention which will be held June 24, 25, 26 at Anaheim, Ca. Some of our members should attend this Convention due to the short distance...Our beginners are doing so well that we are inviting them to dance with us the last half-hour. 2squares of our club attended the FORTY-NINER Anniversary Dance where BOB FISK did the honors. All were well pleased and enjoyed the dance ... It was great to see JOE & SANDRA BLOCK - they were out for a few months due to illness. Now we have EDDIE REEB & ARTHUR BAXTER on the sick list. We miss both of you so hurry back. BERTHA JONES, due to injuring her ankle while dancing one evening, appeared but only to watch...It is with regret that we must add a note of sadness to our report of the death of ELLISON SMITH, our sincere sympathy to his wife, ETHEL.

MUSIC SQUARES of San Francisco are a newer club but our hearts are with square dancing and we're working toward the same goal: "Happy Square Dancing"...Our Beginners Class, now 12 weeks old, is still holding to 5 plus squares in attendance and they're all happy with their progress into mastering the 'arr'...Among our active club members is FRAN, whose son TED STREULLI, is now teacher/caller for three 40 minute classes a week at San Francisco University High School, 3065 Jackson Street. This is a regular full credit class and with only 3 hours of instruction they have mastered 20 basics plus Salty Dog Rag...Having square dance parties seems very popular at this time on Family Night with several church-oriented groups. JOE has conducted several of these one-night-stands with the help of our club pilot square, whom we sincerely appreciate, thanks gang.

CABLE CAR SQUARES of San Francisco joined the 5th Wednesday night bunch and as always had a swinging good time March 31st. Our special person - JIM WYLIE - had his arm cast removed and felt so good that he even yodeled. The hosts were the RANCHEROS' and such a lively, friendly group they are. Our President, VIRGINIA and our club thank you all for such a good get together ... Our forthcoming Mystery

Trip is scheduled for possibly around May, that Committee sure knows how to keep a secret. However, we know from past experiences that it will be a red hot event... We welcome back CECIL & POLLY BUTTS, who vacationed and square danced in Arizona. Our get well wishes are for POLLY PERK and CHARLIE WATTS.

DUDES 'N DARLINS of San Carlos held a very successful 2nd annual "Cherries Jubilee" in February with our own BOB SHERWOOD as the featured caller. SUE MARTLING, as activities chairman, and CHARLIE BAUGHMAN, our new President, did a great job in organization. The beginners' class is now dancing with the club once a month and we are all getting to know each other. We are looking forward to graduation of the class in May, our annual mystery trip and our 4th Anniversary dance in June.

MAINLINER STARDUSTERS' Anniversary hoedown was once again a great success this year. The turnout was as expected and the refreshments fantastic. Roast beef sandwiches and choice of salads topped with a piece of anniversary cake. Club caller, DON CAMPTON and taw BEV were really surprised in receiving gifts from the club to celebrate 5 years of great calling with our club...The STARDUSTERS want to welcome back SARKIS BOGHOSIAN from a bad case of the flu. Glad to see you back dancing... The club also wants to express our sympathy to HAROLD BERLIN and IRENE BAKER on the loss of their fathers. Our thoughts are with you ... Plans are made and ready for fifteen STARDUSTER couples to attend the Silver State Festival in Reno. Have a wonderful time dancing and a safe trip to and from the festival...Our club welcomes back newlyweds ANITA & VERNON RUSH from their honeymoon. Now that the newlyweds are back and dancing, they want to thank each and every STARDUSTER who attended the wedding and for the gifts they received. BEACHNUTS of Moss Beach... have been an extremely busy group since the first of the year with the newer dancers attending the PACIFICA SQUARES, PAIRS & SPARES, and HIGHLAND SWINGERS hoedowns, and our intermediate dancers helping to get them acquainted. Our club caller, HOWARD HILLYER, was an inspiration to all the newer dancers who attended our Feb. 14 Valentine dance. Thanks to everyone for coming out on that rainy evening. Our club dinner on Feb. 18 at Frank Torres Fish & Beverage Co. in Montara was a huge success, with all suggesting we have one every month... One of our traveling couples, BETTY & DON THOMPSON, and their daughter SUSIE found out that they left San Salvador just hours before the big earthquake in Central America... SUSIE & CLARE SCHLOSSER, our stalwart delegates to the Northern California S/D Association, have recently left our group. We miss them and hope their departure is only a temporary one. How can we replace their great work?... The club has begun a refresher course for former dancers; did an exhibition for the United Volunteer Services dinner-dance; is planning graduation for April 21; and, of course, attending many hoedowns in March and April. See you at the May 1 hoedown with CLOD-HOPPERS' DOUG SAUNDERS and our own HOWARD HILLYER calling for your dancing pleasure.

LONGHORNS of Redwood City made a real trip to Pleasanton to attend the ANDY RAWLINSON and JOHN FRERICHMANN sharing the mike hoedown at the Barn. Three squares ate dinner before that dance in Pleasanton near the Cheese Factory... About 3 squares helped the CLOD-HOPPERS celebrate their Anniversary with LEE HELSEL calling at CMS... MARY FARBER is making arrangements for the club to go to Coyote Ranch for a Hayride and Dance later in April... Our club invited the RANCHEROS and the Beginners Class (which we are both co-sponsoring) for a potluck. Everyone reported good food and a wonderful time... OLGA & DON STIREWALT from CLOD-HOPPERS recently visited us, also SUSIE & CLARE from BEACHNUTS, welcome to our workshop. BLAKE is doing a fine job teaching new figures and reviewing the old ones.

WHIRL-A-WAYS of So. San Francisco... Our newer dancers are graduating cum laude and are being welcomed to our regular workshop. They held their own at our BARRY MEDFORD hoedown. A great time by all, thanks to the competency of BARRY'S calling; RICHARDS' cueing; HERITAGE EXHIBITORS; willing committee and live dancers... We had a good turnout for our Membership meeting. Program Chairpersons, GLORIA & BILL HAYWARD are handling some nice parties for us. Members hope to visit other club parties more... We had a couple of squares at SUNNYVALE SINGLES super party. BILL PETERS at the mike, love that man!... BUKSAS won the prize for the furthest traveled dancers at a recent hoedown. With the cooperation of the entire membership, chairlady KAY HARDEY is looking forward to a successful rummage sale early this month... Recently the BEYERS & PENZELS checked out our motel reservations for the National - it's all looking good, gang!... MIKELSONS are on a sternwheeler trip down the Mississippi. The entire KILGORE family are on a cruise to Mexico, also a group headed by the PARLES. Ole! The WESTHS square danced while in Palm Springs and the WALLS braved a stay in Las Vegas... As a bay area club, we extend a BIG WELCOME to all dancers for the Golden State Round-Up in San Francisco.

San Rafael, Ca. 94903

STUMP JUMPERS are proud that their club caller, DAVE MILANO, is now also Mayor of Novato. PAT & DICK LANE and ED SABO co-hosted a party to congratulate DAVE & BUNNY after workshop... Our 3rd Saturday dance with MILT ADAMS calling was a fun evening for all. MILT brought the newer dancers from his own club (San Francisco REBELS), for a gay and busy night of dancing. ADOBE SQUARES won the coffee prize for attendance. DORIS & TAK VELASCO were surprised when they BOTH won door prizes. The odds against that happening are what? Hosting the evening were MARY & GEORGE BERNARD and AL NUNES... We are happy to welcome back JANET & BOB SMITH. We missed dancing with them during JANET'S recent illness... This month we will be graduating about 40 beginners. They will be welcomed to our club with a potluck and much crazy fun and games and entertainment...Happy birthday wishes are extended to MIKE ARDOIN, SUZANNE DAVIDSON, DOUG LARSEN, and CAROL SEVERSON. We've had so many birthday parties with cake recently - we're going to get the reputation for being a real "Party Club."

SQUAWS & PAWS...The first Saturday in March seven couples joined in with QUESTION MARKS on a bus trip to Walnut Creek to attend SQUARE WHEELERS dance called by our own TOM WALTON. A real fun time was had by all. Thanks to the Q.M.'s for the invite...SANDY WALTON'S birthday was celebrated at our first dance night in March which was also our annual Potluck and Election of Officers night. The women of the club really bring out some tasty dishes for all to indulge in and gain 5 pounds. SANDY needed help to blow out her '21" candles. Elected for a one year term were HUMMY BAER, Pres.; WAYNE STEWART, V. Pres.; ODIE BRUZZONE, Secty.; MARY HESLA, Treasurer; PATTY WHEELER, Publicity; and TONY THOMAS, Sheriff. JIM MARTIN will remain on the Board as Past President. The STEWARTS and WHEELERS are Delegates to the Association. TINA & JIM MARTIN were presented with a beautiful traveling alarm clock from the club as a thank you for leading the club for the past year. A big thanks to their Board. We bid a sad farewell to our Jr. Past Sheriff HERMAN BOTTINI, as he left for at least six months' work in Montana. You'll really be missed, HERM. ALFORETTA promises to keep in touch while HERM is gone...Plans are underway for our big hoedown of the year. Our Anniversary dance will again feature DAVE HOBAUGH and the live music of the GHOST RIDERS. The date is July 17 so be sure to save this date and plan to attend...May birthday wishes to MARY HESLA, ARMAND LACOMBE, TINA MARTIN, and to our caller, TOM WALTON. Anniversary greetings to the BAERS, KJELIGRENS and MARTINS.

BUZZIN' BOOTS ... The LeDAUXES & VAN HOUTENS danced to JACK MURTHA in Cotati while the ALPERS, MARSHALLS, and NEWMANS traveled to Napa to dance to DAVE STEVENS...The BRENTLINGERS, DAUMS, GORDON DAUM, HARVEYS, KLUMPS, MARSHALLS and CAROL NEWMAN danced to ROGER MORRIS sponsored by NOVATO SQUARES...March 20 found 38 members caravanning to Ukiah. We had dinner with JEAN & BUD at a fabulous steak house and then danced to BUD GRASS calling for the UKIAH PROMENADERS. After the dance an after-party was held at the city park with more dancing and eating. ROSS JOHNSON and HARRY WHITLOCK called along with budding callers from various clubs including our own JAY ALPERS, GLEN DICKEY, NICK GARCIA and LARRY SELMER.

CORNHUSKERS...The Ides of March brought a strange flu bug to our caller, DAVE STEVENS. SHELLY, his faw, is a registered nurse so we know he is receiving the very best care. We were fortunate to have DAVE HOBAUGH to call in his absence. His wife SANDY, was a welcome addition to our workshop...For a number of weeks we have enjoyed an attractive workshop visitor who never spoke a word to anyone. Armed with pad and pencil as a means of communication we learned that her doctor had prescribed a lengthy period of "voice rest." We are pleased that KATHY MANLEY has thrown away her pad and pencil and is able to shout when a left allemande is called. Club members are even more pleased that KATHY is now a regular member of the CORNHUSKERS...A great big welcome to a delightful couple, ELIDA & RAY CANZIANI, who are most welcome new members...Attention fisherman! Our lady sheriff, TOMIKO WAHL, is on the threshold of a new career raising earthworms for pleasure and profit. Good luck, sheriff...PATRICIA BRANDS, from England, sister of THELMA PULLIAM was a visitor at a workshop session. PATRICIA is very active in British Equestrian circles and was in our country inspecting sites where the British team will be competing in 1977. She has never seen square dancing before and was completely captivated by the colorful dress and dance movements. Look out England. You'll never be the same...Our beginners class is in the seventh week at this writing. Observers find it hard to believe the progress the class has made under the guidance of CARL KAMINSKI. The new dancers are being taught all Position Dancing along with the basics of square dancing. To further equip them, CARL is also instructing some of the old standard round dances.

HUFFS 'N PUFFS...March 6 hoedown was in true Mardi Gras style and gaiety. Many thanks to RON WELSH, guest caller, to LARRY & KAREN WILLIAMS cueing the rounds and to our guests and members for making this dance a resounding success. Many compliments to DIANE & ROGER LACKEY, dance chairmen, for a super job of hosting and to JO & TOM THOMASON for the colorful decorations. The CORNHUSKERS walked away with the coffee prize. There were so many original costumes that judging by WANETA MYERS, MUNCIE BONNER and MARK WALKER was a difficult choice. Mandarins PAT & DICK LANE received first prize as a couple. The lady's prize went to KARIN PATTERSON as a Colonial Dame and JOHNNIE RAY won honor dressed as Ben Franklin - both very timely choices. That was a very clever duplication, JOHNNIE, of your handmade version of BEN'S glasses! Teen member KIM LEWIS smiling as she won a prize for her Polynesian attire and BILL LEWIS shockingly cute in red long-johns with the yellow lace panties peeking through. Who was the "duck" chasing BILL all evening?...EULA WALKER: please get well so that you can "twinkle toe" with us again soon...Sure nice seeing JUANITA BONNER'S smiling face among us - welcome home, JUANITA, from your three months trip to So. U.S.A. area.

MILL WHEELERS congratulate VELLA & CARROLL BERRYMAN on the safe arrival of their TWIN grandsons, LOREN & MICHAEL KLEIN. Their daughter LAURIE had checked into the hospital on New Year's Eve but managed to fend off the stark until Feb. 29. Poor babies - born on Leap Year Day - a birthday only every 4 years??? Members are enjoying a resurgence of life and activity. JIM MORK has really been making us work. Consequently we have been attracting many visitors on our workshop nights ...DOROTHY & MAURICE CUMMINS attended the LEE HELSEL dance at College of San Mateo then joined daughter JOAN and son-in-law RON KNUtSEN for the FORTYNINER Anniversary dance with BOB FISK. MAY & DAN O'SULLIVAN and MARIE & KEITH WILKINSON joined the PACIFIC SQUARES to dance to our own JIM MORK. As always JIM provided an evening of super dancing. EDIE & JOE MORRISON won our busy couple of the month award. They danced to ROGER MORRIS at Downer for the MUSTANGS dance. RON WELSH and our friends from HUFFS 'N PUFFS provided a special attraction for them on the 1st Sat. of March. The DIXIE SPINNERS sure came through with a winning combination on the 4th Saturday - JESSIE SOUSA, live music, and to top that off, our own BETTY & JOHN RETTER cueing the rounds. Members attending were the ALLIS, BERRYMANs, BORCHERTS, BOWMANs, LaROCHES, MORRISONs, MURPHYs, and of course, RETTERS. ...BETTY & JOHN provide the impetus to the club to really enjoy round dancing. The HANNAS' round dance party attracted EDIE & JOE MORRISON. FORREST & KAY RICHARDS' party attracted the BERRYMANs ELLIOTTs, MORRISONs, and RETTERS... VIRGINIA & ENNIS GICKER have just returned from vacationing at Organ Pipe Cactus National Mountain east of Yuma, near the Mexican border, where they checked out local exotic birds...Big news: JOYCE was literally holding her breath until the last name was drawn but she's in - so our flying square dancer is flying high in more ways than one.

NOVATO SQUARES...Thanks all of you for making our March party night such a huge success. ROGER MORRIS was (as always) his super self, and dancing was a barrel-of-fun. RONIE & ROY LAWHEAD and their committee did a bang-up job - such goodcakes. The after-party given by DOROTHY & ED DEARDURFF topped off the evening. The whole evening warranted a big GOLD STAR. The surprise of the month was a (supposedly) mystery bus trip - known only by our president RON TAVENNER, and his first lady, ANN. Talk about a well-kept secret - WOW! We all met at IDES Hall (we thought to board the bus) went inside to keep warm and on the stage was a huge sheet saying, "Did you have a good trip?" Then the music began, the sheet was removed and there was JACK OLDS, our past caller for eight years. What an evening - tremendous. Thank you JACK and taw, CELIA. We all had a ball...Three and a half squares journeyed to Ukiah with their trailers for the 21st Anniversary dance of the UKIAH PROMENADERS for the calling of CHARLIE BROWN and BUD GRASS. We also attended PROMENADERS' after-party with callers from the floor. Before the dance the entire group gathered for a fantastic potluck dinner - then leftovers? the next day before starting home. Our thanks to our wagon mistress HELEN BAKER for a well organized? weekend...You are all invited to our Anniversary Bicentennial dance on May 8. This will be a big event at the Marin Veteran's Memorial Building. MILT ADAMS and the ROLL-A-LONGS will be doing the honors.

MARIN SOLITAIRES...Hope to hear from you soon!

San Jose & South Bay Area

SQUARE HOPPERS... Every Thursday night is a hoedown at Nordahl Hall. Two new couples have joined the club: JIM & SANDY WEEKS and STANLEY & JEAN SCULLY. We've had an election with new officers as follows: DON McPHERSON, GLEN LENKER, PAT BALZER, MINNIE BUCK, and LYMAN ASH. They have lots of plans for this next 6 months. Many thanks to the outgoing board, they did a great job. Lots of things in the wind; our "Springtential" hoedown in May with MELTON LUTTRELL and BILL PETERS; the annual picnic in June; and lots and lots of great dancing every Thursday. Party night on 3rd Thursdays.

GADABOUTS... Hello there once again. First we'd all like to thank everyone who attended our "Spring Fever" hoedown with ANDY RAWLINSON last month. It was great fun, thanks to all the fun people who were there. We'd also like to say thank you to the KRAZY DAZY'S for their wonderful company and hospitality during our visit to them last month. They showed us a fun filled and very cordial evening. We hope to spend more time with you in the future. All's well with us - looking forward to these bright sunny days when the club will be out enjoying it together at a park, on a beach, or whatever. Oh, by the way, Happy Birthday JOE, and many more.

CLEARLAKE AREA

GUENOCKERS... The teen dancers of this club put on an exhibition dance at their school as part of a variety show. Following is a note, along with a signed thank you card, received by 'SPARKY' & LOUISE: "This is a short note to let you know how much it meant to us for you to present your two dancing groups at our variety show on Saturday night. Not only did they perform delightfully, they were a treat to look at! Cute costumes and lilted manners give tons to the square dance." -- A well deserved compliment.

KONOCTI KICKERS... Over fourteen squares of dancers danced with our club on Mar. 13 to the lively calling of ART HANSFORD from San Jose. More than twenty recreation vehicles full of dancers accompanied the caller, and a stompin' good time was had by all, especially when they woke their caller in the middle of the night to call a tip! A look at the guest book indicates that people came from far and wide: LUCKY STEPPERS (Santa Cruz), CONCORD STOMPERS, SQUARE SAM'ERS from lots of places, TEEN TWIRLERS, SQUARE WHEELERS (Sacramento), JACKS & JENNYS, LONGHORNS, RENEGADES, CLEARLAKE SQUARES, SPINDRIFTERS (Santa Clara), THE UKIANS, PAIRS OF FOUR (Fresno). The club attendance is picking up now that members are beginning to return from their winter vacations, and we hope to do more visiting, but some did make it to the RENEGADES and to the CLEARLAKE SQUARES workshop once or twice this month.

RENEGADES of Finley wishes everyone a belated Happy Easter. Plans are nearly completed for our graduation hoedown on April 3rd at the Mills Building in Finley. 'SPARKY' will call and 'SPARKY' & LOUISE will do the rounds. Promises to be a great evening with friendly dancers (a reputation they have acquired by being just that). PATRICKS, JACOBSENS, STARKES, COSSEYS, PENICKS, and STEINS helped the CLEARLAKE SQUARES celebrate their 12th Anniversary. Real good dancing. HELEN PENICK won a prize, her fourth in a row, luck, I guess. Club members enjoyed dancing with KONOCTI KICKERS with ART HANSFORD calling a fast dance. GLENN ELLISON won a prize. On workshop night MARZELLE HAYES was surprised with a beautiful birthday cake. BILL managed to have it baked and in the hall early without suspicion. BILL & MARZELLE hosted an after-party later. GLEN & BARBARA BYLUND joined in the fun as well as several couples from CLEARLAKE SQUARES on March 21. 25 couples plus our newer dancers had a get-acquainted dinner at Happy Valley Restaurant in Lakeport. 'SPARKY' & LOUISE were our guests. Anyone want to know how to cut a cake in small pieces, just ask LOUISE. All shared her miniature cake.

BILL & PAT COSSEY, the newlyweds, invited all over to their lovely mobile home for an after dinner party.

CLEARLAKE SQUARES have now moved to Eastlake School in Clearlake Oaks. The Lucerne School was a beautiful school but the acoustics were real bad. Eastlake will be our permanent home. We are expecting our members back from Arizona about the first of April. Many of our members have been ill. Many members went to PROMENADERS' anniversary dance - real good dance. We will soon be installing new officers. JERRY FOSTER, our faithful caller, from Fort Bragg was down with the flu one weekend. GLEN BYLUND kindly filled in. Looking forward to BOB BACHE calling for us on May 22. Thanks to all who made our Anniversary Dance so enjoyable and with JOHN FRERICHMANN calling, everyone had such a good time. Topped off with a potluck dinner including a beautifully decorated cake made by ANN BLACKMAN.

REDWOOD EMPIRE

ADOBE SQUARES of Petaluma...On Sat. Feb. 28, the LINNEYS, NIXS, OWENS, SMITHS, SPEEDS, and THOMAS' danced to the calling of JACK MURTHA at the QUESTION MARKS' hoedown. On the same date, the ALPERS and WESTERS traveled to Napa to dance at SOUR GRAPES Anniversary hoedown called by DAVE STEVENS...March 6 we held our regular monthly hoedown called by DAVE HOBAUGH. MILT ADAMS joined us in the fun and called one tip. March 13 the NIXS danced to ROGER MORRIS at NOVATO SQUARES. The ALPERS, DUCKETTS, KENTS, LINNEYS danced to the calling of JACK PETRI at CIRCLE & SQUARES' hoedown at Monroe Clubhouse. Following the dance, KENTS hosted an after-party for all club members who attended the dance. Those barbecue-flavored meatballs were the hit of the evening...March 20 found the ALPERS, LANS-DONS, LINNEYS, DENNIS LINNEY and TERRY KENT, KENTS, KIRKLANDS, and THOMAS', dancing at UKIAH PROMENADERS' anniversary dance to the calling of BUD GRASS and CHARLIE BROWN. Following the dance, UKIAH PROMENADERS hosted an after-party at the City Park with the calling of ROSS JOHNSON and amateur guest callers including our own JAY ALPERS - On the same evening, the club won the coffee at STUMP JUMPERS party with MILT ADAMS calling..Attending were the BURBANKS, DUCKETTS, HARRISONS, GUIDDYS, LEWIS', YOUNGS, WESTERS, the SPEEDS, SMITHS and six couples from our newer dancers class...FLASH! S.F. REBELS - we found Kristy and we have her in Petaluma...On Sat., April 6, we hosted our monthly hoedown with the fabulous calling of BUD GRASS, a most enjoyable evening, indeed. The usual FIVE STAR food was served to the guests delight.

MARKWESTERNERS of Santa Rosa...We're happy to have DOROTHY & TERRY McCLUSKEY as new members of the club...HARRY & LAVERNE WHITLOCK gave us excellent workshops for the two weeks that BUD & JEANNE GRASS were vacationing. BUD & JEANNE took a Panama Canal-Caribbean cruise and returned tan and relaxed...We are sorry to report the death of JOE ALAMEDA. Bay area friends of JOE & IZZY will remember them as very active square dancers. Our 2nd Tuesday pie nites continue to be a huge success. Those girls can sure produce great homemade pies...Roses-roses-roses, that's all NINA FOMIN and her committee are thinking about these days and nights. Red, white, and blue roses are the theme for the Bicentennial MARKWESTERNERS Square Dance at the Veterans Memorial Building in Santa Rosa on May 15. Our club appreciates the efforts of NINA and her committee. Our new officers for 1976 are Pres., BEN PIDCOCK; First Lady, MICKEY PIDCOCK; V.P., LEONARD HARRIS; Treas., BETTY REIER; Rec. Secty., AUDREY GAMMA...A special orchid to ED & MARIAN HACZELA for the special efforts they put forth in their long term in the presidency. Thank you both from all of the MARKWESTERNERS.

QUESTION MARKS...Feb. 27 was the regular 4th Sat. hoedown with JACK MURTHA calling. A busload of club members and SQUAWS & PAWS went to Walnut Creek on March 6 to dance to the calling of our own TOM WALTON, who called for SQUARE WHEELERS. About 6 couples went to the NOVATO SQUARE hoedown on March 13, with ROGER MORRIS calling.

SINGLES & PAIRS of Santa Rosa...Feb. 29 We had a potluck square dance for all our newer dancers and intermediates. We had lots to eat and callers from the floor. Great fun. March 3 was our monthly pie night with lots of delicious homemade pies. We had several guests visit us also. We took it easy following our big Bicentennial hoedown in February. Several of our members have been visiting other clubs for workshop and hoedowns.

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES of Santa Rosa... March 13 hoedown with JACK PETRI was fast and fun. Many thanks to chairpersons for the evening: HERRINS, THOMPSONS, and the FROSTS. The VANDERMADES opened their home for an after party to finish off a fine evening. On March 23 the club will be visiting MARKWESTERNERS for the evening with BUD GRASS calling the tips. Best wishes for a speedy recovery to LAURA BER-TOLOZZI with hopes that she will be back dancing with us soon. We've missed her. On April 30 and May 1st the club will go to Reno. The weekend should prove to be interesting with the combination of square dancing and those tempting one-armed bandits. The club will be celebrating their anniversary on May 8 with JIM WYLIE at the RUSTLERS... March has been an 'at home' time. We enjoyed a visit of squares from ADOBE SQUARES who visited us on our workshop pie night. One of their beginners called a tip for us ... The PALMERS and MARTIGNOLIS came to our beginner class to introduce their Square Wear Shop in Rohnert Park. They stayed to dance our intermediate tips. Twelve RUSTLERS visited the ADOBE SQUARES on March 30 pie night. RALPH THOMAS and several beginner callers provided a full fun evening. The REESERS attended Healdsburg COUNTRY DANCERS hoedown and reported a great evening. Mike for the evening... RON WELSH will be calling on April 10, and we hope to have a nice group to join our fun evening. On May 29 we will have JOHN DAVIS for our 5th Saturday hoedown.

My First Square Dance Lesson

BY Bob Grover

To all new dancers wherever you are,
Be patient with us who have come so far.

We may seem reluctant to dance in your square,

It's not because of the people there,
It's only because it reminds us now

Of those hectic days when we didn't know how.

So don't give up, your day is due,
You'll find out what we've been through.

Let us all have fun and forget our share
Of goofs that can be made in any square.

Just think back to the night you began,
It was allemand-left, then right and left grand.

Both feet seemed like buckets of clay
As you tried to perform with a half sashay.

Well, we all remember and will never forget

What a mess we made of that very first set.

We stood in a square as the caller told us to

Waiting to hear what next we should do.

"This is all very easy," the caller said,

"If you'll just listen and use your head."

It must be easy was our only thought.

We'd watch folks who'd been well taught.

The music began and there was the call,

"It's honor your partners one and all,"

Right there I discovered that I wasn't so wise.

There wasn't a call that I could recognize.

I was lost and my head was spinning like a top.

When the caller called out as the music stopped,

"Lost! You can't get lost in a ten-foot
square."

"If you do, just go home and stay right there."

I started for the door as I heard the next call,
Above the roar and clatter in the hall,

The voice came through like a muffled sneeze.
It was "Boompsey Daisy" if you please.

I don't know why the girls all started to run
Because I got Boompsey'd by everyone.

Then was the call for a "Right-hand star".

My brain and legs had went too far.

I was sure that I was not the only one

Who wondered why they called it FUN.

Square Dance Callers Ass'n. of Northern Calif by Bill Carroll

Roll call found a few of the Board members missing, but some showed up a few minutes later, and got in on the discussions.

Reports: Joint Callers' Clinic by Sick Jones, will be held June 20, 1976, at the "Elegant Ranch" in Hayward, notices will be sent out.

Caller-Lab Selection: New - "Chase", Review - "Dixie Style to an Ocean Wave". Check the notes and in your files (should be lots of figures there).

It is hoped to have our Association Callers' Class, possibly in late August or early September, watch for notice. ROM - "Easy and Strolling"-taught by the dance choreographer, so we got it from the source.

Meaningful project underway, "Caller's Present"...program chairman was appointed - Chuck Keist - more on it later. Approximate time - Sunday of Labor-Day weekend.

Discussion on a few problems; made progress and tentative recommendations on some, others tabled for next meeting.
