At the July Board Meeting, the Directors of each of the 10 Districts of NCSDA received coupon books that can be of great value to each of our clubs. The prizes have CASH value and I am sure that each club will recognize the value as cash help. All clubs can use a little more money for operational costs. These coupons can be sold to anyone. The money received is used to help finance the State Convention.

Perhaps you are unaware that attendance at the State Conventions, by members of this Association, is of great value to this Association. Northern, and all other member Associations in the State, participate in the proceeds of State Convention. The Association that has the most attendance receives the most proceeds. This money helps to expend the expenses of sending our President to the Council meetings.

A lot of fun can be had at State Convention. There are many clinics and educational programs for everyone. Lots of good dancing at all levels. We encourage everyone to register early and be sure to name your Association on the application. We will advertise the Convention well in advance. Right now, get out and do your best with the coupons. You may be the grand prize winner. It is well worth it. Ask your District Director to furnish you all the books that you need.

Your club will be receiving a questionnaire from our Association Calendar Committee. We hope to have a calendar for all members by the first of January. This calendar will list the special events of Anniversary dances, benefit dances, Association dances, and State Member Association events for the entire year. Please be prompt in your answer to the committee as they request. We hope that this will be of value to you. It is hoped to have enough for each member couple and each single.

Happy Dancing!

CONCORD STOMPERS... About 10 couples attended the National Convention. We all had a terrific time at the after-party in Disneyland. In Disneyland the PERRYS & KESSLERS met BOB ELLING and party at the Blue Bayeou. BOB being a light eater had ordered two (2) dinners for himself. BOB was very generous with his second dinner a fruit salad. He said take what you like but the cherry. BOB, poor BOB, wasn't fast enough as MARION PERRY got to it first. ...Our Mystery Trip was to Sonora. Everyone had a good time and had a wonderful after party on the bus coming back. Thanks to LONA, PAM & GEORGE on our bus ride to Sonora. GORDON COOPER said in 25 years of marriage it was the first bus ride he and his lovely wife had together...Had our annual picnic which was a large success. No complaints except for a few sore muscles from playing football and such.

TWILITE TWIRLERS ... Our dance of the month was SHELL SWINGERS hoedown where we danced to the fine calling of WAYNE SIMPSON. We had a potluck in conjunction with our Beginners class graduation. We welcome them into our club and wish them many happy hours of dancing...Thanks to WANDA & ED TROST, for coordinating the potluck as well as our upcoming picnic at Mickie's Grove in Lodi. We wish DARLENE & WES CARTWRIGHT much happiness in their new home. Many thanks to RAY WILLIAMS and JO HESKETT, for the nice graduation ceremonies...Several club members attended the Stampede.

CLUTCH BUSTERS... The last week of June was National Convention time for 15 couples in our club. The CLUTCH BUSTERS could also be found visiting Knott's Berry Farm, Universal Studio and various relatives ...On June 18, 19 and 20 the FITCHS, BENNESENS and GLOVERS enjoyed all the dancing and festivities at the CUP OF GOLD in Sonora. June 19th traveling all the way to Roseville to enjoy the dancing of TOM HIGHTOWER and the Roseville Chapter of ex-CLUTCH BUSTERS were the COULTAS, OLSONS, BERGS, KENNEYS, and RADCLIFFES. A fun after-party topped off the great evening. July 4th the KEN-NEYS danced with the SHELL SWINGERS in an exhibition at the St. Agnes Bicentennial Picnic...We are now getting ready for our 20th Anniversary Dance. This is a big time for us and we hope to see many of you there. Our beginners open house will be on Sept. 28th with refreshments being served to all.

CONCORD REBELS...Summertime is a fun time and this is what the REBELS are all about. We had a great group at the Golden State Round-Up and some of our dancers even tried BART to see how it works. It is hard to keep track of everyone in the summer as we are all doing our thing. About five squares went to the National and had a great time. It sure is nice when your caller comes along. Thanks ART! The 4th of July found our club in many different places - A large group to Manteca where a great time was had. We have attended NOVATO SQUARES, SHELL SWINGERS and SQUARE WHEELERS hoedowns. We had our annual sports picnic with the RIPSNOTTERS. Thanks for letting us win and also a great big thank you goes to our great host and hostess.

GUYS & DOLLS...Six couples from the club, BOB & BETTY EWEN, JIM & NANCY KRAUS, JOE & BOBBI MARSH, BOB & SHEILA PANKHURST, DICK & PAT ROB-BINS and STAN & JEANETTE WHITE attended the Anaheim Convention for the 25th National. The pageantry and the Disneyland after-party were absolutely marvelous but the way the registration system and the sound was set up in most of the dancing areas, with the exception of the main arena - it was absolutely horrible...The 5th Wednesday dance hosted by our club yielded a large turnout...We started our new beginners class on July 6th with a large and enthusiastic group of people. We again thank ED & BETTY FERRARIO for taking over the class the night our caller BILL CASTNER was ill...Speaking of our caller, BILL, he recently celebrated his birthday and as a gift the club gave him a copy of the club picture taken at the Silver State and a bottle of apple jack brandy.

ANTIOCH AMBLERS ... have been quite busy this month. Lots of people are off vacationing. We understand the STOL-HANDS danced in Las Vegas but we will find out more about that when they come home. Several couples attended the National. Other hoedowns attended were SUN VALLEY SQUARES, CLUTCH BUSTERS, SHELL SWINGERS, JACKS 'N' JENNYS. We had our annual Casual Night last week - everyone looks forward to it with all this heat. It's so interesting to see everyone in shorts and slacks, you hardly recognize them. We are looking forward to this Fall and our new beginners class.

DIABLO DOPPERS...Several DOPPERS attended the National this year. Among them the TRUBLOODS, GOURLEYS, M. BROWNS ANDRESONS, NESBITTS, ROCHELEAUS, KINNARDS, and GRANTS...Many of the club members attended a housewarming for the ROCHELEAUS in their new home. It was a lovely day with the MUSSEYS, LIEBERS, NESBITTS and the T. BROWNS attending SHELL SWINGERS' Bicentennial dance, with WAYNE SIMPSON doing the calling...The GOURLEYS, ANDERSONS and BAILEYS attended the DICK JONES dance in Livermore with EAGLE SQUARES. The NESBITTS combined the National with a chance to sail their boat over to Catalina Island. The HADDADS hit the record hot spell in Europe. The BAILEYS are spending the summer in Hawaii. HARRELS are motor-ing through Canada. MUSSEYS are planning a trip to New Zealand, the LEIBERS to Hawaii, and the MARCHATS visiting the East with a trip to New Orleans...A group attended VALLEY TRAVELERS dance in Livermore and enjoyed DICK HOULTON'S calling...Our beginners continue to dance with us through the summer and will graduate on July 27 with our traditional homemade ice cream and pie social. Our next beginners class will start in September.

NEW ADDRESS

Alameda, Ca. 94501

BAYWOOD PROMENAIRES new board has been busy ever since the installation. President GEORGE & JOAN ROBERTS hosted the June board meeting in their home, followed by the July board meeting held at the home of Secretary LEN & LEONA SCHLITT. Then in August, the meeting was held at the home of Vice Pres. NORMAN & ESTER Mc LEOD...In July our club caller JACK LOGAN and his wife SYLVIA along with several couples from PROMENAIRES went on a Princess Cruise to Alaska...Annual steak barbecue and swim party was held Aug. 31 at Aylin's Ranch in Hayward.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS...We are still auditioning callers for our club. Also looking forward to a large beginners class to start in September. The Anaheim Convention was enjoyed by some club members. Even the heat didn't slow our activities. BETTY ATHERTON seems to be in a rut, between here and Alaska...LIZ ANDRES' daughter is visiting from Minnesota...CARRIE & BUSTER BELLO are enjoying their grandchildren who have moved back from England.

BERKELEY CLUB SINGLE SQUARES who attended the National Convention at Anaheim initiated a movement to petition the Convention Committee to have a separate hall for SINGLES ONLY at the Convention headquarters, at all future Nationals. Arrangements in the past have often been in hotel ballrooms far from the main activities. ...Our monthly business meeting was held at the Hayward home of MICKEY McCONOLOGUE. One of the features of the party was MICKEY'S beautiful new enclosed swimming pool. What a pool! What a joint! Single girlstake note. Our Extended Basics class was a great success and we graduated nearly 30 new dancers who had completed 26 weeks of basic training. Our new venture, a Refresher Course for all who wished to brush up on their dancing got off to a good start with RON HAGGERTY calling.

ALAMEDA WAGON WHEELERS...Summer brings a change of pace and place. Instead of Washington School we are dancing at the church on the corner of Central and Oak. Hope all our friends can find us and visit. With so many regular members vacationing and traveling our crowd is smaller in size but not diminished in quality or fun. Our President CHUCK NEUMANN and his taw, HELEN have sold their home in Alameda and are moving to Concord. They say they will still be dancing with us on Wednesday nights...We are looking forward to our annual picnic on August 8 at Happy Valley Ranch. MEL & ALICE ROCKWELL are in charge and everyone is looking forward to a pleasant day...Caller ED and taw BETTY are off to Disneyland again, escorting their niece and nephew, CHRISTINA and DONOVON and another young lady TERRY...Our potluck at Eagle Hall in Oakland was a great evening of fun and fellowship.

ODDS 'N ENDS...July 22 - a great potluck dinner sponsored by the club. What great cooks in our midst. Everything was simply delicious, salads, hot dishes and desserts, to say nothing of the leaders of the group and the consumers. The committee, under the great leadership of our sweet ROSALIE PARKER did a fantastic job decorating, planning the dinner, and providing entertainment. After dinner, birthdays were celebrated, songs sung and new officers introduced. Pres., VIRGIL & LU RUHBERGER; V.Pres. ZEPARD & DORA BENNETT; Treas. BOB & LEOTA FISHER assisted by NORMA & LEE PERRY; Secty. ANN WILLIAMSON; Sunshine, RUTH THOMPSON. We thank our past officers HOWARD PARKER and LILLIAN ST. LOUIS...Many of our regular members are off on vacations here and there including Asilomar, Canada, Hawaii, and Mexico...We were happy to welcome Mr. & Mrs. PAT YARNOLD, new bride and groom.

RANCHERO SQUARES...Romance hit our club this month. JIM & KATHY, brought together at an exhibition 4 months ago have announced their engagement. Congratulations! Welcome back to DELORES & CLIFF - bet it won't be long before CLIFF throws away that crutch and squares up! A few of our couples attended the National in Anaheim. Now, that's a BIG hoedown! We thoroughly enjoyed CASTRO VALLEY REBELS' hoedown on July 17 and family picnic the next day. Baseball and volleyball was enjoyed and that egg toss featured uncooked eggs! Our caller TERRY and taw CRICKET, and new Presidents LILLIAN & CLIFF have been trying out their R.V.'s camping...A new beginners class will start Sept. 7. A potluck, to invite prospective beginners will be held on Aug. 31.

SWING ABOUTS ... Welcome to our new club members, GENE ERGENBRIGHT and MARTHA ESPELL. Our first anniversary dance will be held on Sept. 11, with BOB FISK calling for us. Our beginners class will start Sept. 16. Fishing honors this month went to the TIMSONS (again) but this time CARL shared the spotlight with MARY. A great time was had by club members who attended the Neighbors of Woodcraft dinner and dance. The dinner was delicious followed by lots of heel-kicking to a live Western band. Glad to hear ROY EATON has nothing worse than lots of black and blue places after his motorcycle accident.

KUNTRY KUZINS...Hats off to our club for a job well done on the float for the Fremont Bicentennial Parade which was given to help toward making money to restore Mission San Jose - it was an honor to participate. Seeing a barn moving along the street with dancers in front of the barn, was something to make you blink your eyes. We owe a lot to GEORGE & MARY MATZEK - they made their home headquarters for the float. Also thanks to JACK & JANIS ROBERTSON for the loan of the rig. About 20 couples attended the 25th National in Anaheim... New officers: Pres., DON & SHIRLEY GLEASON, V. Pres., JOE & AMY SCHULZE; Secty., GARY & CONNIE HOWARD; Treas., DICK & CHARLOTTE JOHNSON.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS...Great time was had at the 10th annual Cup of Gold Promenade in Sonoma. Two squares were represented from our club. We saw quite a few familiar faces from the Bay Area...About three squares added to the crowd at Anaheim. Napa Valley Ranch was the setting for a fun outing on July 10 and 11. Kind of warm, which tends to make one thirsty! What better place than California's great wine country. Lots of swimming, eating and square dancing. Sept. 14 is the date of our new beginners class with RAY SANCHEZ. Dayton School in Washington Manor is the location and phone for details 351-1066.

COTTON PICKERS...Welcome DREW ANDERSON, our new club caller. New officers: Pres., BOB & MARIE MARTIN; Vice Pres., DON & CAROL DARLING; Treas., ABBEY & CHUCK MALAVAZOS; Secty., ROSE & FRANK DAVIDSON; Delegate, RICH & RUTH VANDIVER; Alt. Delegate, JIM BAKER. Congratulations and good luck to all...Best wishes and good luck to outgoing president DAVE HARRIS with his new teaching position in Australia. Welcome to GENE & DONNA DOTY and RICK & JENNIFER RAWSON our newest members. Our beginners class is coming along fine with 4 squares. The May potluck with the beginners was a real success.

SQUARE CIRCLE CLUB...Pleasanton Fair Parade, and once more we entered our float designed by MAY WILKINS and put together by members of the club. The ladies made over 1200 rosettes while the men got together with hammer and saws to build the assembly, we were very proud of our efforts. Our thanks to FRANK BONDE of Dublin who loaned a flatbed trailer and to JON RAWITZER who did an excellent job of towing the float with his brother's tractor. We didn't win a prize but it provided excellent advertising for square dancing...We were invited to Brooks Hall, San Francisco to help celebrate the Bicentennial...July 17 was the club's family picnic, held at Barret's Sky Ranch on Norris Canyon Road, San Ramon. As usual healthy appetites and lots of fun made it a great day...We extend our best wishes to NEAL & SUZETTE ANDRADE who had planned to visit Anaheim but unfortunately SUZETTE splintered her elbow, we sincerely hope that she will recover in a very short time...CHARLIE & LOIS PARKER are being transferred to New Orleans; the club presented them with a silver hostess coffee pot and stand. Good luck CHARLIE & LOIS we will miss you.

BOOTS 'N SLIPPERS...eleven couples plus our caller, BOB HOFFSETZ, attended the Golden State Round-Up. On the way home we had three squares dancing on the BART train while it was under the bay. The club is preparing a special badge for this event. On Saturday night we had a square dancing in the bathtub at the Towne House Motel. Everything was great until BOB called a tea cup chain, resulting in chaos. KUNTRY KUZINS party night was great. After, the HEAVELINS had everyone over for a swim. We appreciate being invited. BOB MORRISON hurt his hand and was out of action for several weeks, but he and BRENDA are back now. ALVIN & ELSIE EATON took a leave of absence...BILL & VIRGINIA GREENE hosted a 4th of July party - swimming, barbecue and square dancing. Who could ask for more? On July 10 we had three squares at Ben Lomond for a potluck, campout and square dance. It was hosted by LUCKY STEPPERS. Thank you for inviting us. We danced at Sunol Regional Park; on Return to Bunker Hill Day we danced at Mission San Jose.

EDEN ROCKERS...Many of our members attended the National in Anaheim. It was an experience none of us will forget. The huge crowd prevented us from contacting other members of the club. From all reports it was difficult to do much dancing due to crowded floors, but the beautiful exhibitions made it all worth while. The after party at Disneyland was a nice climax for a very eventful week. Several members from our club attended the Independence Hoedown of the FARMERS & FARMERETTES on July 3rd featuring the hilarious antics of callers JOEL KADISH and DON SHOTWELL. It was a real fun evening. We were sorry to hear a member of our club DUD GRAHAM has suffered a heart attack. Our prayers and good wishes are with you DUD, for a speedy recovery. Please look for our anniversary ad in this issue.

FARMERS & FARMERETTES of Newark...We welcomed 12 couples to the club from our latest class - they include: ARNOLDS, BRADLEYS, BURPEES, GUNDERSONS, HEINRICHS, HOODS, GOLETTOS, MORGANS, PECKS, SILVERNAILS, SMITHS and the WATTS. They are all great dancers and are indeed welcome. Good representation at the National in Anaheim - 20 couples attended and agreed it was quite an experience in spite of the heat wave and some minor difficulties...Our July 3rd Firecracker Dance, went over with a bang (excuse!) 44 squares danced to the usual great calling of DON SHOTWELL and our own JOEL KADISH. There were 40 clubs represented and BUZZSTEPPERS won the door prize for the greatest number attending from the farthest distance - they won the DOOR!

ACES & LACES...Twenty-three couples traveled to Anaheim for the National and a good time was had by all...On July 21 the club had a barbecue picnic at Washington Manor Park in San Leandro. Besides good food and cold drinks a baseball game was enjoyed. Some members (no names mentioned) sure swing a mean bat...We are now preparing for our August Anniversary Party "Election '76 - 21 Years On The Campaign Trail", and looking forward to the calling of LEE HELSEL.

HICKS 'N' CHICKS...We are expecting the month of August and September to be busy ones for our club as we make plans for our 1st Anniversary Dance and for a new beginners class. Our Anniversary will not be until October, but it will be unusual because it is on a Friday night and will feature BARRY MEDFORD, look for our ads. We are also planning to take a couple of squares to visit and dance at a rest home and cheer up the patients. We are also planning a hay ride and many more activities.

San Jose & South Bay

GADABOUTS...Our club has been having a very happy summer. On our regular club night we have been having MIKE DEGME-TICH from WHEELER DEALERS call for us. JOE & MARY JOHNSTON are on a 6-week vacation, and we hope they are having a great time. In the meantime, we are having lots of fun with MIKE...For summer activities, the club had a barbecue picnic at Seacliff Beach. It turned out to be a warm day and many of us took a swim in the ocean - of course, there were quite a few who were afraid to get their feet wet. The water wasn't that cold, really! Our annual club picnic will be in the beginning of September...We danced with HERB JACKSON and the GO AHEAD FUNSTITUTE and had a great time. Thank you for having us. The GADABOUTS are also getting ready for our beginners class which will start in September.

STARS & BARS...This month was a quiet one for us. A lot of people taking their summer vacations, although we did have two birthday parties and an anniversary party on our Wednesday night workshops. Members attended CIRCLE C'S dance on July 10th and had a terrific time dancing to the calling of ROGER MORRIS. The following weekend (July 17) we had two squares attend the PEAT DUSTER hoedown.

REDWOOD EMPIRE

CIRCLE 'N' SQUARES...On July 10 the club had a fun evening dancing to DON SHOTWELL. Committee members for the evening were the SMITHS, ASHWORTHS and the SOLHEIMS. Many thanks to DON and JOAN FROST for another fantastic after party to top off a fine evening...BILL PETERS will be calling for our 5th Saturday hoedown on July 31st. The hoedown committee consists of the JIM PAINES, HENRY PAINES and FLESHERS...Aug. 14, TOM WALTON of QUESTION MARKS will call for our 2nd Saturday hoedown. Our annual trip to the Vineyards will be held on Oct. 2nd for a fun time.

QUESTION MARKS ... Club caller TOM WALTON and wife, SANDY attended the National Convention in Anaheim on June 24th. HARRY & ELSIE ANDERSON also attended. They said it was very crowded but had a very nice time. Even took time out to tour Disneyland after...New officers for our club are as follows: Pres., ERIC DENTON; V. Pres., LOUIE GONZALES; Secty., MARLENE PERRY; Publicity, CARMELINA MATTERN; Sunshine, ROSEMARY MARTIGNONE; Delegates, HARRY & ELSIE ANDERSON ... This coming weekend the club is invited to spend it with TOM & SANDY WALTON, our caller, at their home on Clear Lake. It should be an enjoyable weekend with swimming and water skiing and lots of sunshine.

RUSTLERS of Santa Rosa...Our beginners graduated July 1st. Everyone enjoyed the dancing and also the "gag" gifts presented to some of the members. Twenty-two squares enjoyed the calling of JIM DIFFY. We were happy to have JAY & EDIE ALPERS, our District 8 Assistant Directors. The clubs represented were: BOOTS & BELLES, B 'N' B'S, TWIN CITY STEPPERS, FIVE STAR SQUARES, SQUAWS & PAWS, CIRCLE 'N' SQUARES, MARKWESTERNERS, CASTNERS' COUSINS, ADOBE SQUARES, DIAMOND DANCERS, PIONEERS, ODDS & ENDS, SINGLES & PAIRS, QUESTION MARKS, SQUARE CUTTERS, SAUCY SQUARES, HUFFS & PUFFS, NOVATO SQUARES, ANTLER 8's and two couples from Arizona and Illinois ... Many members enjoyed our pool party and picnic at the home of BERNIE NEWBERRY'S sister and brother-in-law, MURRY & CECILIA SHORTT. FIVE STAR SQUARES would like to thank all who helped make their Bicentennial Hoedown with MILT ADAMS at the mike such a fun-filled event. The evening came to a close as the FIVE STARS formed an "Arch of thank you" for all dancers to make their exit. This was the clever idea of KATIE QUESNEL. All is now in readiness for our anniversary hoedown on Sept. 25 featuring DAVE HOBAUGH and DON SHOTWELL. The walls were "bulging" at Welcome Grange Hall when PALS & SALS attended party night festivities. Fourteen couples, plus caller ROY BIRDSONG and taw GLORIA, enjoyed the dancing and goodies. Attending the Nationals at Anaheim were Delegates JERRY & MARY LOU LUNDEEN, NICK & VADA GOYMERAC, GEORGE & JUDY TUCKER and club caller DAVE HOBAUGH and his SANDY. Activities Chairman, PAUL & JEAN CRAWFORD arranged the family campout in the gold country at Colma. Fishing and hiking were enjoyed by the group. Several couples, including LINDA BEESON from Huntington Beach, daughter of the QUESNELS, enjoyed the PIONEERS Hawaiian Party. The ladies outdid themselves with all those homemade pineapple upside down cakes. Then, two nights later, dancing and more goodies were enjoyed at BOOTS & BELLES. Also helping the gala event were LAKE ROUNDERS. Ahead for these dancers are many hours of wholesome recreation. Thanks to the LOGASAS for their hours of patient teaching.

KONOCTI KICKERS ... Eight squares of dancers were flying high to the calling of BUD GRASS, club caller GLEN BYLUND also called a tip, at the KONOCTI KICKERS' July 10 hoedown at Pearce Field in Clearlake Highlands. Airplane rides were given as prizes once more. With BILL ELLIS and his plane the lucky winners were MARTI SHAW, BILL & LESLIE FOCHA. Everyone enjoys dancing at the Hangar. The clubs attending were RANCHO WRANGLERS, RENEGADES, UKIAH PROMENADERS, the MARKWESTERNERS, GUYS & DOLLS, the ROLLING SQUARES, TWILITE TWIRLERS, QUESTION MARKS, CLEARLAKE SQUARES, KALICO KATS, SUNDOWNERS and the host club KONOCTI KICKERS. Among the guests were District Directors FRANK & DOROTHY FILIPPI and HARRY & LORETTA SHARKEY. Recently some club members danced at Hobergs T.M. School.

RENEGADES: Our thanks to the many dancers: UKIAH PROMENADERS, TIMBER TOPPERS, Willits, Arcata, KALICO KATS, DIAMOND DANCERS, ACES & LACES and the CLEARLAKE SQUARES helping us form 12 squares and dance to the great calling of ROSS JOHNSON at our May hoedown. 'SPARKY' & LOUISE had a four-day fun and fishing campout at Whiskeytown Lake with the HUNTERS, ANDRUS, JACOBS, and JONES. 'SPARKY', CARROL & ELEANOR supplying the trout they caught for the fish fry. On Saturday night they all danced with SHASTA DAM DANDIES and received souvenir badges. LES AMMON joined them on Saturday in time for the dance. Reports are that they had a wonderful mini-vacation. The Anaheim Convention was truly one of the important events of this Bicentennial year. All red, white and blue and truly American. The COURTNEYS, PENICKS, MALLORYS, STEINS, HUNTERS, ANDRUS, ESCHENAURS, MARY FOSTER and RICK ALEXANDER helped to make it so. We did manage to find each other for a dinner together. If you were there you know what an accomplishment that was. The same weekend Kelseyville had a square dance celebrating their Frontier Daze. 'SPARKY' called and seven couples from SINGLES & PAIRS of Santa Rosa surprised him all dressed up in costumes. A fun time was reported by all, and there were plenty of good prizes. JIM & JAN ALEXANDER worked hard on the celebration and their efforts showed. Congratulations to DAHL & MYRTLE SHEARER, our new bride and groom. We welcome and wish them well. Happy to have RAY & RICA GONZALEZ, and their daughter TERRY, visit us from New Mexico. BETTY & O.C. DEACON happened to hear they were visiting and were square dancers, so invited them to join us...Happy to have CLARENCE & BEA HALVORSON from CLEARLAKE SQUARES and a square from GUENOCKERS with us...Birthday cakes for STAN HUNTER and PETE PENICK. Many happy returns. On July 17 DARLENE & GLEN ELLISON, JACK & TRUDY STEIN, danced with MUSTANGS in San Pablo. Great dancing to JERRY HELT'S calling.

CLEARLAKE SQUARES are slowly getting back to normal. Everyone returned from Anaheim safe and sound but really tired. (Sorry that club caller and taw CHICK & NORMA THRASHER became sick and missed so much). Our hoedown this month was a real success. ART HANSFORD, our guest caller, gave us a real good workout. Eight trailers headed for Clear Lake with ART & they all parked in back of Eastlake School in Clearlake Oaks where we dance every Friday for workshop and every 4th Saturday for our hoedowns. CHICK THRASHER, our club caller is teaching a beginners class that started July 16 and we have many enthusiastic beginners.

SQUARENADERS congratulate VERN & PAULINE JOHNSON who are proud parents of a new baby girl, TIFFANIE DAWN, born June 21. Seventeen of our members received friendship badges at the recent CERES TWISTERS' Luau party. It was a fun party and GENE, BETTY & RON WELSH were at their calling and cueing best. The next day on the 4th, we had the tour of Don Pedro Lake on the MID tour boat. This was very enjoyable as afterwards we had a terrific potluck at the picnic grounds and 4 squares danced to records. Our club went en masse to the MISSION TWIRLERS' 1st Anniversary Dance. Our caller, RALPH SILVIUS was guest caller for this event and the hall in Gustine was crowded with happy dancers. Several members also won door prizes. Our workshop was well attended with dancers from all over the area. Our party night was the icing on the cake as there was a huge crowd and we were honored by visitors from San Diego, Hemet, and Japan.

ROCKIN' W ROUNDERS graduated 8 couples this past month and want to welcome these people to the wonderful world of Round Dancing. BETTYE had to miss a few classes, therefore GENE was the teacher. KIRK & BETTE KIRKSEY demonstrated the dances and BETTY FRITSCHER helped GENE in the walk thrus. GENE handed out the diplomas and BETTY & BURNELL pinned on the badges. That's not bad duty, considering the fringe benefits. Congratulations to all the graduates and keep up the good work!

GOLDEN SQUARES have had a very busy month. Our club danced for the Empire Senior Citizens Club and also for the Bicentennial Celebration in Graceada Park in Modesto. We visited the FOOTHILL SHUFFLERS and gorged ourselves on berries and ice cream. This event was co-hosted by STEPPIN' PARDS and we enjoyed dancing to the calling of CASEY PARKER and RON WELSH. RUTH YADDOW has returned from Ogden, Utah where she attended a family reunion. BILL & LYLA MELLUM spent two weeks at Davis Lake where BERT & LILA HENDERSON joined them. They reported that the fishing was good. Our thoughts and prayers are with ALTA BRAY who recently underwent open surgery.

SIERRA SQUARES have new officers for the year: Pres., DAVID & LOLLY RODGERS; V. Pres., LEROY & WINKIE GLEASON; Secty., JACKIE BERRY; Treas., MARTY SANDS. We are looking forward to a busy fun-filled year. Our members have done a lot of traveling this past month. FRANK-ENSTEINS, STONES and ECONOMOUS traveled to King City to dance while the SWANSONS went to the SQUARENADERS' dance in Modesto. LEE & MARLENE BEAM have recently returned from a vacation in Paris, France. It's great to see CHARLIE GIANOLA active again after a slight heart attack and also to see MARILYN MUTZNER doing well after a recent hospital visit. LLOYD BERRY has had knee surgery and will be inactive for a while. We regret to report the recent death of one of our members, JIM YODER. He will be missed. Many of our members traveled to the National.

STOCKTON PEAT DUSTERS happily welcome CHARLEY CASKEY back to the fold after a vacation trip to Iowa and we are glad to see BARBARA HENDERSON dancing again after having an injured foot. We won the coffee at the CIRCLE C'S 14th Anniversary dance and we all enjoyed the terrific calling of BOB HENDERSON. We had our picnic and ball game at Victory Park in Stockton. There was a big turnout and all had a great time.

SWING DING DANDIES have been a traveling group recently. BERNIECE & MARLENE ALLEN went to the Washington camp-out. It was the first one, and BERNIECE stated it was a huge success. It was sponsored by the SMALLS & TALLS of Grass Valley. BERNIECE also danced in Sunnyvale. IKE & MARGARET BRUNETTE, BARBARA REECE, BACI & GEORGETTE FRECCERI, JIM & VERA THOMPSON and NILE & BETTY FRANKENSTEIN went to the Triple Treat dance in Turlock. IKE & MARGARET also went to the MISSION TWIRLERS' 1st Anniversary dance. We have installed new officers and we congratulate our new slate: Pres., BACI & GEORGETTE FRECCERI; V. Pres., DICK & JOY PRICE; Secty., MARY CALLISON; Treas., PAT ADAMS; Hall Boss HERMAN DOEHLER. We would like to thank BURLIN DAVIS for conducting our workshop, also, the SIERRA SQUARES and TWAIN HARTE TWIRLERS and other clubs who attended. We are enjoying dancing outside at the Fairgrounds this summer. RON & EVELYN PROCTOR, BERNIECE & MARLENE ALLEN, BACI & GEORGETTE FRECCERI and NILE & BETTY FRANKENSTEIN joined the DRAGGIN WAGONS caravan to the National and all reported having a great time.

ROMP 'N' STOMPERS - several couples from our club enjoyed attending the Triple Treat dance in Turlock, the Ice Cream Social at Waterford, the BOOTS & SLIPPERS dance, the Cup of Gold and the National. Our caller, ROGER GOAD will be calling Tuesday night at the County Fair, splitting the program with JESSIE SOUSA. We all look forward to this dance as it is a great opportunity to exhibit our activity to the general public. We are now having our workshops at Hoover Jr. High in Merced. The hall is air-conditioned, so come and join us for lots of fun and refreshments.

SINGLE SKIRTS & FLIRTS - June was such a busy month that we are behind with the news, so here goes - BERTHA DAVIS attended CSS meeting in Santa Maria at the Vandenburg Inn, May 15. She reports the Singles National USA will be held in Tennessee, Labor Day Weekend. Our club was saddened by the death of HARRY BEQUETTE. Although he was not a member, he attended our dances and other dances we attended. His presence will be missed. We had two squares present at the Triple Treat dance at Turlock Fairgrounds in June, when ROCK-ING A'S, CERES TWISTERS and Y-NOTS put on a great dance. Our own dance that month, at the Sylvan Club was a big success with the floor packed all evening. Caller, JIM PENROD, did a bang-up job and DORIS McDONALD had a very good program of Rounds. KATHERINE LeBARTHE opened her home in Sonora and she and CARRIE WAELETHY entertained the SINGLES at the Cup of Gold on Friday for an after-party. A good time was had by all and a big "thanks" to you gals. KAREY GRIGGS & JOHANN VANDER WERFF were seen strolling down the Fairway at the Cup of Gold holding hands. As we go to press, KAREY has returned to his Navy duties and JOHANN is not available for comment, but it looks like some singles are "squirin' up" and not for a square dance, either! Hope everyone had a safe and fun-filled time attending all the dances in July.

TURLOCK STEPPIN' PARDS personally hand made a beautiful red, white and blue float with one square of dancers on it for the Chamber of Commerce parade and also for the July parade. A large group went on a Turlock Irrigation District tour boat on beautiful Lake Don Pedro. Several went the day before to fish and JEAN WEMKEN caught a 5 lb. trout - honest! We had a great time at the Hacienda (thanks to the MAHLERS), dancing, swimming, laughing and partaking of a great potluck. The WELSHS, DONALDSONS, MAHLERS, BLOMQUISTS, BOYDSTUNS, MENSANIDES and STARLINGS all traveled to the National and reported having a great time.

T-SQUARES...I hope you have made reservations for the Square Dance Weekend at Camp Sacramento, on Sept. 10, 11, and 12. This includes dancing to the calling of TOM HIGHTOWER, lodging and six meals. Also included is a program for children..The club is also hosting a weekend on Sept. 24, 25, and 26. SQUARE DANCE CONVENTION

San Rafael, Ca. 94903

WELCOME MARIN MAVERICKS!!!

MARIN MAVERICKS...We'd like everyone in the area to know that we are a newly formed group of beginning square dancers in San Anselmo. We started in January 1976 and meet every Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Isabel Cook School Auditorium, 1024 Sir Francis Drake Blvd. in San Anselmo. We sincerely hope that many of you who read this will come dance with us on any Wednesday...Our caller is LON FERRELL of Corte Madera and his wife, JEAN, instructs Round Dancing. We feel we are a little unique in that it is a little unusual for a group of beginners to be an organized group with officers, by-laws, dues, etc. July 25 was our first hoedown. Perhaps we will have the opportunity to meet many of you at that time. We have enthusiastically looked forward to that. If you did not attend this dance, please do come another time.

HUFFS 'N PUFFS...Headliner news of our annual family picnic at Paradise Park was the star attraction of "TOMMY SMOTHERS" surprise attendance. What a good sport he was over his first attempt at square dancing. The WALKERS, chairmen of the picnic, extend their grateful thanks to the committees and all members who worked so hard to make this event a resounding success. Your club thanks you, EULA & MARK, for the enthusiasm and help that is always a part of everything you do for our club! Bouquets to you. Loyalty is the TYNES cutting their vacation short to hold a family reunion at their home - this first time occasion such a joyous gathering that all 50 attending decided to make it an annual event. How beautiful it is for a family to all get together at least once a year. Sister EULA WALKER and brother CLYDE TYNES planned it all. Conversation piece of the day was the spectacular 24 x 18 cake made with lots of T.L.C. by EULA, depicting their family tree. Sounds like a party we'd all enjoy. Our Bicentennial Fair drew thousands of visitors to magnificent Marin. But - heading the list was square dancers doing their part, among them many of the "young at heart diehards" of our club dancing all five nights of the Fair. It is really true that almost 100 per cent of our membership turned out in support of KEITH as he called for the HUFFS 'N PUFFS night at the Fair. Speaking of annual events, simple pleasures become life's treasures as PAT LANE, JUNE SCHULZ and EULA WALKER banded together for the 5th annual luncheon to celebrate their mutual zodiac birthdays again. Happy birthdays and happy anniversaries to all our members. We hear that DICK BRENNAN is sporting a different kind of square dance boot these days? Sorry about your mishap, DICK. Hope that cast will be off soon. Hope to see everyone at our Oct. 2 dance with KEN BISHOP of Redding calling and LARRY & KAREN WILLIAMS cueing the Rounds.

MILLWHEELERS...Marin County Fair was a super attraction for square dancers. Many club members took advantage of the free admission for those in square dance attire and enjoyed the exhibits as well as the dancing. Our ENNIS GICKER performed with the Marin Barbershop group at the Fair. A fine performance and always so entertaining. We were delighted during our first Thursday workshop to have three couples visiting from Arlington Heights, Illinois. They were the finalists competing in the National Barbershop Harmony meet in San Francisco at the Cow Palace. If they sing as well as they dance, winning top prize is a sure thing for them. JOYCE WELLS is up, up and away again on her 5th Powder Puff Derby. What a gal - sure takes guts to pilot your own airplane cross country. JOYCE has the complete admiration of this writer. It takes all the courage I can muster just to step into a commercial airliner. RON KNUTSEN has been elected to another term as club President. RON has done such an excellent job this past 6 months, we couldn't let him retire yet. JOANIE & RON will be spending the rest of summer at their home in Lake County - we will surely miss them. VIRGINIA & AL SMYK will be guests of the KNUTSENS for the first two weeks in August...ALMA ALLIS is still unable to dance. As if spraining both knees while skiing isn't enough, ALMA has since injured her back and will be out of commission for several months. We all miss ALMA and wish her a speedy return to dancing...DOTTIE & JOE MURPHY celebrated their 30th Anniversary with a lovely party attended by their family and many square dance friends. DOTTIE is such an accomplished hostess - always serves a perfect meal and yet never seems too busy for her guests. They say that is the mark of a perfect hostess. Whatever it is, DOTTIE has it. The party turned out to be a multi-purpose one, as the MURPHYS burned the mortgage on their home and their granddaughter announced her engagement, all in one perfectly delightful evening...Many club members are vacationing and we pray for a safe return of all travelers.

NOVATO SQUARES were represented at the National Convention by ten couples who were joined by former members LORNA & ROY BOUCHEY from their home in Borrego Springs...Marin County and the NOVATO SQUARES celebrated our country's Bicentennial at the Marin Fairgrounds. July 4th was designated Novato Day with square dancers in abundance as they danced to the calling of our club member, HARRY WHITLOCK and to DAVE MILANO of the STUMP JUMPERS. DAVE is also Mayor of Novato. LEFTY & MARIBELLE IVERSON cued the rounds. After dancing, our club adjourned to an after party hosted by WESTERLUNDS in their home...Our bi-monthly party hoedown on July 10 was hosted by hard working President, JIM SEAWRIGHT, and his lovely wife, SHERRY. DAVE STEVENS called with LEFTY IVERSON cueing the Rounds. Thirty six squares were in attendance with thirty eight clubs represented. Assisting the SEAWRIGHTS were the AHERNS, CHECCHIS, GATES and MONTGOMERYS...Seventeen couples of club members attended SQUAWS & PAWS dance. DAVE HOBAUGH called and THE GHOST RIDERS supplied the music for a great dance. On the same date several other couples journeyed to Lake Mendocino for the weekend...On July 24th virtually the entire club attended an old fashioned hayride followed by a steak fry at Five Brook Stables near Point Reyes National Seashore. OSCAR MONTGOMERY and JIM SEAWRIGHT handled all details for this catered affair...Tickets sold well for the NCSDA dance held on July 31...CLAIRE JOSLIN remains hospitalized recuperating from a serious auto accident. Hurry and mend CLAIRE, we miss you. VI SMITH is slowly recovering from surgery and is able to attend workshop, but is not dancing as yet. KARIN WESTPHAL is enjoying a visit to Germany this summer for several weeks.

SQUAWS & PAWS...Vacations have a way of taking their toll in getting the news written and in keeping in touch with people in the club. We had a good number of club members attend the National in Anaheim - included were the STEACYS with daughter SANDY, BAERS, HESLAS, LEVESQUES and the WHEELERS. The MARTINS and all the WALTONS really made a vacation of going to Anaheim as they left a week early taking in the sights along the way in Los Angeles and Anaheim. The events in the arena at Anaheim were interesting and much credit goes to all who worked so hard. The crowd was too big for much dancing and the heat didn't help but it was fun to dance and talk with people from all over the country. Dancers were like children again having fun at Disneyland. The club enjoyed the calling of a new caller, BILL MARTIN, who is the brother of club member JIM MARTIN. BILL called while TOM was in Anaheim and on vacation at Clearlake. We also had HARRY WHITLOCK on Wednesday night when TOM got held up on his job and couldn't get away. Thanks HARRY for coming to the rescue...Our 5th Anniversary dance went well with DAVE HOBAUGH and THE GHOST RIDERS doing a great job. Some of our beginners came to help and enjoyed the music and dancing. JOAN RUSSELL made a Bicentennial Anniversary cake, so pretty that it was hard to cut it up for serving. She also made another delicious cake for husband DON'S birthday for workshop. Our beginners are now dancing on Wednesdays with us and are doing well and getting anxious to graduate...Happy anniversary to the KRISTALS and LOESCHS. Birthday greetings to CAROLYN STEACY.

STUMP JUMPERS wish to extend a warm welcome to another recently formed club in Marin - the MARIN MAVERICKS. Square dancing is really growing. Our club was well represented with four squares at the July 4th Marin County Fair in support of DAVE calling there. Dancing and other festivities drew favorable comments in spite of the large traffic jam! A special thanks to hosting workshop couples this past month - the BLANCHES and HOUCKS. Dessert night was held in honor of our new President AL ANGULO and first lady, ELLY and their board...A big "thank you" to ED JONES for having those excellent copies made of our revised by-laws...Our club is sporting a new bulletin board on the wall at Idessi Hall - very artistically done by President ANGULO. Feast your eyes on it, all club members, to keep informed on club happenings... Lucky winners of our weekly drawing at workshop were PAT COENEN and the BLANCHES... The ANGULOS were hosts for the July board meeting with ELLY & AL serving a most delicious cheese cake!... Our annual picnic was held at the Marin French Cheese Factory. Barbecued chicken and hot dogs - cooked so perfectly by ED JONES and GEORGE SPONSKY - were at the top of the menu along with other delicious foods brought by members. Everyone enjoyed the homemade ice cream made by the ANGULOS and BLANCHES. Drawings for a table full of "White Elephant" items brought many laughs. And the "KIDS" of all ages participated in the games! A very big thank you goes to the committee - PAT COENEN, VIRGINIA CHIRCO, RALPH DAWSON, ED JONES, RYANS and SPONSKYS ... July birthday wishes to DORIS BULLIS, RAY DONDERO, PAT LANE and JEAN NUNES. Anniversary congratulations to the DONDEROS on their 31st...

BUZZIN' BOOTS... The 25th National Convention was truly an exciting experience for attending members: ALPERS, STUART BURT, DICKEYS, GIBBS, KIMBALLS, LEDOUX, NEWMANS, O'LEARYS, ED SABO, JACK TABER, VAN HOUTENS and VELASCOS. Our thanks to GENE VAN HOUTEN for the beautiful embroidered square which was our part of the Bicentennial quilt and pillows on display at Anaheim. July 2nd about 6½ squares of our members danced at the Marin County Fair to our own great caller, BUD GRASS... The following weekend found ALPERS, BRENTLINGERS, STUART BURT, DICKEYS, GARCIAS, LEDOUX, NEWMANS, O'LEARYS, VAN HOUTENS and WHITLOCKS dancing at the NOVATO SQUARES' hoedown to DAVE STEVENS. A good turnout of our members were seen at the SQUAWS & PAWS' 5th Anniversary dance. Among those who danced to the fine calling of DAVE HOBAUGH and the GHOST RIDERS were: ALPERS, BELTONS, DOROTHY BOSWELL, BRENTLINGERS, BULLIS, MELISSA BUSCHING, GORDON DAUM, ECKLES, GARCIAS, MARSHALLS, CAROL NEWMAN, NEWMANS, NICHOLSONS, NOES, O'LEARYS, RICES, DIANA WILSON, DENNIS REGAN, RUSS JERNIGAN and STUART BURT... This year about 100 members, family and friends gathered at Arequipa Girl Scout Camp in Fairfax for an afternoon of games, dancing, fellowship and good food during our annual picnic on July 18... We wish to welcome new members DENNIS REGAN and BARRY JACOBS.

CORNHUSKERS travels in July included two big visitations to Saturday dances that were called by our own DAVE STEVENS - NOVATO SQUARES and the QUESTION MARKS. Both were most enjoyable. At months end, two squares attended the North Bay Stampede, to hear DALE SMITH of Michigan, and man of most remarkable range of material, that could please dancers of all skills. To wind things up, the Beginners and the club members had a great picnic on August 1, with both DAVE & CARL KANSKI calling, while the dancers did their thing on the bottom of a dry wading pool! CARL introduced the new people to Contra dancing, and DAVE showed the Beginners how to do more A.P.D. on figures that were new to them. CARL'S beginners have learned APD from the start, and are quite at home with the concept, as far as it concerns the Callerlab Basics. Our friends should also note that we will be DARK on Wednesday, Sept. 1 and Wednesday, Sept. 8, while DAVE is on vacation, and that DAVE HOBAUGH will fill in for DAVE on Sept. 15. New members are: JIM WITTMACH & ANN ZIMIN, DOYLE & MARILYN BLAIR, and DOLORES MILLER and JOHN ALLMON. Welcome to the life of a CORNHUSKER, you all.

LONGHORNS participated in the Bicentennial Celebration at the Fair Oaks Community Center and the Marsh Manor Shopping Center in Redwood City... After dancing we were welcomed by the URRERES and McLENNONS for a delicious buffet.... ADRIENNE BLAKE was unable to participate because of illness. Several couples danced at the San Mateo County Fair with Exhibitions of square dancing. Approximately three squares of club members enjoyed a beach party and barbecue at Clear Lake and later joined the KONOCTI KICKERS at the Airport Hangar to dance to the calling of JACK MURTHA... FISKs and FARBERS provided sleeping facilities for some and others brought their motorhomes, trailers and campers...MARGARET STEWART is home from UCLA and dancing with us...Welcome MINTERS, our newest members...We are growing by leaps and bounds...WHITES stopped at Yosemite enroute home from the National...MARY RASMUSSEN went home to Minnesota via Redwood City...visiting her daughter here and dancing with us...AMBROSES, former members, who now live in Palm Springs visited us recently on their way to Canada...FARBERS brought guests to our club recently, MARY'S sister JANE, who lives in Arizona and NINA & ANGIE LOVEGEEAN ... PARSONS attended the Monterey Festival and enjoyed their Motor Home and dancing...Watch for our beginners class in September.

WHIRLAWAYS of So. San Francisco...four squares of us attended the National. There was much to keep us going at Anaheim and we're glad to have been a part of it. Among thousands of dancers we saw many familiar faces from the Peninsula and San Francisco areas, as well as ED & DOROTHY LOONEY with ACES & LACES, JUANITA & FRANK ECONOMOU from Sonora, and DARLENE & BOB FOURNIER from Mariposa. This summer we've enjoyed dancing afar; in the Sierras, in the Valley, at Ben Lomond, Terra Linda. "Wagonmaster" WALT CALDEIRA has organized an RV group who will be square dancing in Gold Country the whole Labor Day weekend! Several will be going to Angels Camp this month...We had a full weekend in Santa Rosa when the GROMMS hosted a potluck supper and later on after party, so that we could attend a dance there by our own caller...Our Mystery Trip was a BIG guessing game, taking us some distance, and fun all the way! Our 5th Wednesday workshop in Belmont was terrific with all club callers plus a great caller from New York! Our family picnic was a gastronomical success, again proving that our taws are excellent cooks. Fun games for all, enlivened the day. Bouquets to WRIGHTS ROUNDERS, including some WHIRLAWAYS who are making it possible for GLADIE 'N' ROY HARBAUGH to go to Hawaii this month for their 44th wedding anniversary - a most deserving couple, always willing to help others ... We're busy recruiting adult couples for a beginners' class - see ad for details.

PAIRS 'N' SPARES of San Bruno... 50 members journeyed to Anaheim for the National. For those who thought it strange to see two Californians marching with the Minnesota group, they were none other than our own PHYLLIS PERSAE and JACQUIE BERMUDEZ who originally came from there. Happy 49th Wedding Anniversary to our members RUBY & RICH LUTY. The welcome mat is out for guests vacationing in this area ... Enjoyed dancing with TOM & CONNIE BARNABEE of the MOTIVATORS from Sylvan Lake, Illinois, brought by KEN & DOROTHY KNOX, also RAFAEL ATHENS of the LUMBER JACKS & JILLS from Arcata. No hoe-down this month, but we're busy with plans for our September picnic and are looking forward to our Halloween Hoedown on Oct. 23rd. Calling the program will be our own club caller HOWARD HILLYER and guest caller JIM WYLIE.

SUNSET TEENS of San Francisco thank all of you who attended the DICK JONES Hoedown and helped make it a success - he's fantastic isn't he! We were pleased to dance to his calling again in Anaheim. Several of our club members attended the National: BRIAN ESPINOZA, JIM & COLLEEN RODRIGUE, SHARRON, LINDA & TRACY JEWETT, VIRGINIA WATERS, LARRY KAVERT, IRENE MURRAY, GREG WOLKINS, DEBBIE MESSIER and of course our caller BUD & JAN were among the crowd that stayed at Disneyland the whole time for the after party where we saw the sunset and sunrise... We danced our way through Golden Gate Park in the July 4 Parade... July 19th we were all at the beach at Santa Cruz and our thanks to JAN & BUD for their "bus service" without which we could not do half the things we do - they are the greatest... If the BARNSTORMERS are looking for their Banner, they might just start thinking - SUNSET TEENS... Welcome to all of the Newer Dancers who have just joined our ranks. PEGGY, we hope your bruises are disappearing.

CLODHOOPPERS of Belmont had a quiet month. Two special events did highlight the month, however. We really enjoyed hosting the 5th Wednesday "fun night." It was wonderful seeing all our friends and hearing the fine calling of so many great callers. We even had a special treat and danced to "Yodeling Joe" from New York. A special thanks to HAROLD DAVIDSON for emceeing the evening for us. The club got into the swing for the 4th of July by dancing at the Belmont Bicentennial Celebration. Everything combined to make a lovely afternoon for the three plus squares who put on the exhibition. We really have been enjoying the variety of callers we have had this summer. Welcome back to all our vacationers - we've missed you.

CABLE CAR SQUARES... On Sept. 19 the club will hold its annual Benefit Dance at the War Memorial Building in Daly City. Popular name callers JOEL KADISH, JIM WYLIE, DON SHOTWELL, MILT ADAMS, and KEITH GYLFE will participate in this super benefit dance. 1st prize will be a color T.V. set; 2nd prize a $25 savings bond. All proceeds will go to handicapped children. Try to attend - enjoy yourself - make it a little easier for the children... JOHN & BETTY RETTER continue teaching and cueing the latest ROM on 1st Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Come and visit us, dance with our talented caller JIM WYLIE, and meet our friendly members. Our anniversary dance in July was a tremendous success, thanks to the CHARLEY WATTS and SOL STECKLOWS and food committee who made it all possible. President OSCAR DESCILE announced plans for a new beginner class to start in September.

CAPER CUTTERS of San Francisco - it is that time of the year when folks go on vacations and that plays some havoc in the membership. But we do get good reports and all are enjoying themselves. We have been adding new members to our club; this is due to the last graduating class, and we sincerely welcome them to our club... We were well represented at the National in Anaheim... Some activity is taking place in the club, and that is selecting the style and color for new dresses. This isn't always so easy as it appears. Always good to see friends, especially when a former member, JAMES BRENNEN, surprises us. Everyone welcomed him. We also had TOM & DORIS LUCKS from Charakee, Iowa and these folks were presented with our Friendly Badge.

GINGHAM SQUARES of Millbrae enjoyed the company of the MAINLINER STARDUSTERS on July 13 at our 4th Friendship Night, and along with club members and other guests there were 14 squares on the floor... more like a hoedown than workshop - lots of good dancing. Our club picnic will be July 25, hope we have good weather... We are looking forward to our barbecue cookout on August 24 at our own Millbrae

Recreation Center. It is always such a good time for all of us and our invited guests to enjoy the good food and seeing old and new friends. The club will sponsor a beginners class to start Sept. 21 at the Millbrae Rec. Center. DAVE STEVENS will be the instructor and the class will run a minimum of 6 months, with the first 3 lessons free. So if any of your friends are interested, pass the word along to them.

ROADRUNNERS' Bicentennial Anniversary hoedown on July 10 was a tremendous success! At the door to greet our guests were ROCKY & DARCY PERUCH assisted by ED & ARETA RENEAU. Many thanks also to LYNN SCHMITT and her hard-working committee, "hubbie" ARCHIE, EBEN & PEGGY COLE, VIC & ANN SHRADAR, and HARRY & EVELYN THOMSON, plus a helping hand from many other great members. Our hot dogs and apple pie were enjoyed by all who attended. FRANK & JUDY PALUMBO and their committee AL & CAROL HEMINGWAY and GEORGE & VICKIE KANE, did a bang up decorating job in the Bicentennial style, and to round out the fun, door prizes in the mood of the evening were awarded by DOTTY & PAUL SMITH and HARRY & MARG CLARK. Thanks also to our busy clean-up committee TONY & MARY ANN GREGG, RUTH & CLARENCE RAMER, CARL & MYRTLE CURRY, and JACK & AGNES HAUKOM who left things spic and span afterward. A great time was had by all! At our board meeting, July 13 we began making plans for our annual picnic and mystery trip. We thoroughly enjoyed dancing to the expert calling of BOB TRIPP on July 20.

BOB filled in for ROADRUNNER caller BILL DAVIS who was helping out at the Square Dance Camp at Fallen Leaf Lake. Last but not least, the ROADRUNNERS together with LONGHORNS of Redwood City, had a great evening of dancing and entertainment on July 27 at the San Mateo County Fair.

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS... Well the summer vacation months are really going by... This has been the summer for vacations... Many of our members had a great time at the National in Anaheim. About 25 of our club members attended. BETTY & LOUIS DREYFUSS have returned from Switzerland. They really enjoyed the food and scenery.... MARIANNE GARD is enjoying the sights that El Paso, Texas has to offer. She is spending her summer there. CATHY & MARY

SUE WALSH have been enjoying their favorite pastime and hobby - following the rodeo circuit...Each weekend they can be found in a different town cheering on the cowboys...We wish BETTY & ED MEDLEY much happiness in their new home. They have moved to Sonora. Birthday greetings for this month go to PAUL HUNGERFORD, LEN JOHNSON, HAZEL LAWRENCE, KATE PERFECT.

CLOVERLEAFS...Congratulations to JOHN & LORRAINE SHUBUNKA - new NCSDA Directors of District #1. The pride is ours alone to say you're CLOVERLEAFS and have both served us so well as Presidents. A bit of exciting news, KEN CROFT wrote a new round, "Un Amor". It was selected as one of the Top Ten to teach. Congratulations, KEN & ELENA - so grateful to have you two as our Round Dance Teachers. What fun for those who attended the square dance with the Japanese callers, who were on their trip back from the Anaheim Grand National. The courtesy and friendliness of square dancers was strengthened and proved a common bond of happy dancers is international..... KADISH KORNER: JOEL went along with the Roarin' 20's theme of the HIGHLAND SWINGERS hoedown at San Carlos - swim trunks and striped shirt complete with a shower cap and a rubber ducky tied around his neck. Five CLOVERLEAF couples were present - we all agreed, JOEL, since your legs are not 'a la Dietrich', you look better in long pants. 2 squares helped make the Shriner Hospital Benefit a success. The O' SULLIVANS are on a 4 month cross-country trip with a stop at Penticton, Canada for a weekend of square dancing and on the way home the PARTMANNs will join them at the Grand Canyon for sightseeing and square dancing. The BRADFORDS and PIOMBOS went north to Fortuna to surprise JOEL where he called a great FUN hoedown for REDWOOD RASCALS. JOEL was presented with a plaque with a fun quote. SUSIE said she will let him hang it in his square dance room to add to his collection.

FORTY-NINERS of So. San Francisco..... Good to see many of our vacationing members: ROOSOVICHs, HANLYs, PERRITTS and the McCRAINEYS back home and attending class, they all look great, beautiful tans and full of vim and vigor. Also enjoying the sun and our annual picnic at Mitchell Park, the SMITHs, SCHREMPPS, ANNE BISHOP, SCHWIRIANS and practically the entire club and guests. We thank MARY DENSON, our Activity Chairman, and her committee for a lovely outing - everyone had a grand time. MARY has a mystery trip planned for us in October and a potluck dinner and a membership meeting at Siebecker Hall. Our dance committee busy making plans for our September dance, with the popular PAUL HARRIS, many of his club members, join us for an evening of fun and dancing. Still receiving many compliments, on our Souvenir Program Book - credit for this fine book goes to Editor, RAMONA GAUTHIER. Special guests from Pennsylvania, DORIS & BOB WAYBRIGHT. Also, LEOPI HENDRICKSON'S sister and husband; and ESTHER LANE'S sister and husband. It was great to have GRETCHEN CASTNER visit, she is a lovely person and admired by all. Hope to see MARY DEEM and the CARROLLS dancing again. Sept. Birthdays LARRY LANE, RAMONA GAUTHIER, and DON THOMAS. Happy Anniversary wishes to the MEDINAS, SCHWIRIANS, BRILLIANTS, and our terrific caller BILL and his lovely wife GRETCHEN, and a future caller, member RICHARD ANDERSON, and his greatest fan, wife BERDINE.

DUDES 'N' DARLINS of San Carlos are looking forward to their annual Family Picnic Sept. 19 at Huddart Park. A barbecue - games for the kids - volleyball - and square dancing are planned for a fun-filled afternoon. On July 29 we danced at San Mateo County Fair to the patter and voice of club caller BOB SHERWOOD...Thank you LONGHORNS for inviting us to dance with you at the 5th Tuesday Party. We look forward to an enjoyable evening...This fall our new beginner dancers and club members will be joining forces on Tuesday nights. Classes start Sept. 14.

SQUARE CUTTERS of San Francisco were visited by 13 Aussies with their callers, LESLIE & CONNIE JOHNSON from Perth and RON & JEAN MENNIE of Melbourne. ...each calling a couple of tips. DON was happy to see his friend, whom he had never met but had been corresponding with for the past few years. They were a very happy bunch...everyone had a great time...the Australians presented us with a beautiful banner...we in turn presented them with souvenir badges. The SQUARE CUTTER club is looking forward to their visit with FORTY-NINERS on Thursday. We are all

Looking forward to our potluck last week of August - it will also be the night we elect officers for the coming year.

ISLAND SQUARES... Bolata Park was the location of our annual picnic this year. Everyone who attended enjoyed baseball, swimming, volleyball, and of course, eating, and I might add everyone enjoyed drinking too. BOB SHERWOOD brought his equipment so we square danced. Some of GENE ALLSOP'S teens joined in the fun - pretty good dancers, I might add...In two mobile homes, the HOLLIS' and JENSENS came loaded with club members. That's one way to save gas. Most say the whole day was very relaxing and enjoyable. BERT & HELEN KUYKENDALL will be our NCSDA delegate. They will be replacing DWIGHT & MAXINE MILLER who have done a fabulous job for the past five years...Our installation of new officers was a night to remember. The evening started off with a potluck dinner. I think the girls try to outdo themselves each year with the food. The next event was the amateur calling, this is an annual affair and the ISLAND SQUARES really have some great talent. EILEEN & LARRY SHAINÉ, JULIE LENO, MARILYN SMITH, MERLE KOHR, LOU TINSLEY, BOB WALLQUIST and BOB CORBRIDGE. GENE ALLSOP coordinated the callers evening and also joined in the calling.

RANCHEROS of Redwood City...While we, RINA & BUD RUNNELS, were up in the beautiful Sierras enjoying our vacation, our club was quite busy. We are pleased to announce that DORIS STENHOLM is now our Secretary and HAROLD SEE is our Vice President. We are sure they will do a good job. Our President and First Lady, JIM & GLADYS BLAND have just moved into their new mobile home and we hope they will be very happy there. Our caller ARLAN WIGHT is now the club caller for SKIRTS & FLIRTS of Campbell. We know they will enjoy his calling and workshop as much as the RANCHEROS do. In the "not too well department" is JOHN WOODSIDE who is recovering for surgery and MURIEL BROWN has been having some neck problems. We hope they are both back dancing soon. We enjoyed having some of the ANKLE KNOCKERS from Palo Alto visit us. Come back soon. Our club won't be meeting in August however we are looking forward to dancing at the San Mateo County Fair and also to a potluck dinner at the home of DONNA &

MAINLINER STARDUSTERS... Our club was honored to have as guests on June 16 FRANK & MARGE HUNTER, MARY FIELDS, DAVE & SHIRLEY HIRSH, all of the WHIRLWAYS...5th Wednesday party was at CLODHPERS last month...Two weddings in July. JOHN & MARY CLARK'S daughter PATTY and KEN & EILEEN RADA'S daughter KAREN. Their son STEVEN has also joined the Navy...SHARON & MIKE DALEO are the parents of a 7½ lb. baby girl named JENIFER. Grandma ANITA RUSH won the bet from KEN RADA...ED GUINASSO has been under the weather lately. We miss ED & EMILY...BURT & MARY DIETEL have returned from a 10-day vacation in Iowa...FRANK & MARGE LAUGHRIDGE had to make a rush trip to Kansas when FRANK'S mother passed away...Two squares were guests of GINGHAM SQUARES recently - good dancing to caller DAVE STEVENS.

BACHELORS 'N' BACHELORETTEs... San Francisco Chapter...The CROSAS & STRADFORDS found Anaheim "terribly hot". They enjoyed the balmy night at Disneyland 'till 5:00 a.m. We (9 squares) at home, had "cool" dancing to JOHN SLOPPER'S calling. Next week, JOHN again called when the KALICO KATS unexpectedly brought their party nite to us. Ten squares had a great evening. Region North's "We and Japan" event at San Mateo College was truly memorable, with BILL PETERS, caller and M.C. and three Japanese callers. Americans partnered with Japanese, especially at buffet, and language barriers evaporated - our grateful thanks to our honored guests who surprised us with Japanese traditional dances in which we were included, and with gifts, beautiful Hapi Coats, presented to our regional director, assistant regional director, chapter presidents, and M.C. ... We missed SALLY MADRON and RUBY HUTCHINSON, both hospitalized in July: RUBY because of a dislocated elbow and two broken bones; SALLY because of two major surgeries. RUBY wearing a sling, is back on the scene; SALLY is at home.
