No. Calif. Square Dancers ASS'n 'President's Message' DON & WILMA TINSLEY

Our Association recently donated $100 to Santa Clara Valley Square Dancers Association to help with the expenses of trying to make square dancing the National Folk Dance. To raise money they are inaugurating the sale of badges. The same style and type that were sold some time back. Information should have reached you by this time as I brought this out at the February General Meeting. The Resolution will be introduced by Congressman Norman Mineta of San Jose. Should you have a friend in Congress, please ask him to introduce this resolution or sign as Co-sponsor with Congressman Mineta. If we all concentrate on this thing there is a good chance of success. Please direct your questions to SQUARE DANCER, P.O. Box 5775, San Jose, CA. 95130. Ask your Delegate for availability of the badges.

The Golden State Round-Up is just around the corner. All the Committees are working hard to make this a worthwhile event. To do this, a request for help has been sent out to all the clubs. Registration and Reception, one of the largest areas of need, will be needing help at the doors. This is for our own security. Possibly no more than one hour of your time will be needed. Decorations will need help on setting up and tearing down. Hall Manager will need help for some setting up. Let your Delegate know if you will be available. Remember, we are still the lowest cost per person for a full professional program of any Convention in the country. We need your help to keep it that way. For further information, read the Round Up corner. Ask - if you have any questions, someone will have the answers. Pre-registrations are available, at a real cost savings. Take advantage early.

With the greatest competition in the world, "Super Bowl Eleven", the Anniversary Dance drew 82 3/4 paid squares. The Northern California Square Dancers Association says "THANK YOU".

ROADRUNNERS of San Mateo have had a very busy activity list the past few months with two hoedowns, a delightful Christmas party and another really great New Year's Eve party. We have had requests from many members who have had to take leaves of absence or drop out for a time, and who would like to attend a Brush-Up class. Such a class is now being planned and will be offered on Thursday evenings beginning Feb. 3 at Lake Shore Recreation Center in San Mateo. Check our advertisement in Square Dance-Where? for details. Congratulations to JUDY & FRANK PULMBO on the birth of their newest addition, a baby girl.

CABLE CARS... Our Sweetheart Shuffle on Feb. 3rd proved once again that our club really knows how to prepare for a great hoedown. We want to thank Charley Watts on his fine decorations and all food committee members for doing such an excellent job. The very best of wishes from the club to our president, OSCAR DESCIOLO on his retirement. He is now a man of leisure. Our former members, HARRY & EADIE DUFF, are now comfortably settled in their new home in Hayward. They have promised to come and pay us a visit. Welcome back to BUTCH & THULA CARR and the many dancers whom attended the 13th Aloha State S/D Convention. A good time was had by all. Also welcome back to JOHN & MARY LOU KAUFER from a visit to the Grand Canyon and most of the great sites in Arizona.

SUNSET TEENS would like to extend a special thank you to the REBELS of San Francisco for having us as guests at their club on the last Wednesday of December. It was a real treat for us to be able to dance with them. We hope that we can return the favor sometime... We are proud to announce that we have just had two of our members graduate from the fabulous John Strong school of square dance calling. It all happened on January 16 at the Weeks Park Community Center. JEFF FRENTZ and LEONARD PEOPLES, both members of the SUNSET TEENS were two of the five featured graduates on this day. JEFF and LEONARD had practiced long and hard for this goal and the TEENS had helped by dancing to their calling. What patience! No, just kidding! In fact, if the calling JEFF and LEONARD did on their graduation day is any indication, they are both going to be top-notch callers. The day was packed with enjoyment. Two squares of TEENS danced three hours to five promising young callers. Mrs. Peoples, LEONARD'S mother, supplied the group with a huge cake that was most delicious. The SUNSET TEENS wish JEFF and LEONARD the best of luck with their calling. We know that they will succeed.

CAPER CUTTERS - San Francisco - Yes - 1976 is gone and now we start a new year. Yes - and that means new officers - so we shall be having our Inauguration also. From all reports a very splendid party which is to be held in the Officers' Club at the Presidio. Our caller KEITH GYLFE and round dance teachers, KEN & ELENA will also be on hand to help make this a great party... Some of our members that had been on trips: LABELS - IACOPIS and HOWARD COCHRAN have returned. They always seem happy to be back and get in the swing. We have just had a membership meeting and our Special Events Chairman, FERN, informed us of the coming events and they appear to be very inviting. Also happy to see visitors and especially some friends - BRILLIANTS!

DUDES 'N DARLINS of San Carlos... Many of our newer dancers are getting out and enjoying themselves on weekends at the newer dancers hoedown, and we hope many of your newer dancers will join us at our Cherries Jubilee Hoedown. Plans are being finalized now... In January, we hosted the 4-D Meeting for District 10, and really enjoyed having so many delegates and alternates join us for dancing after the business meeting. It's always fun to have a party night. In early February, our caller BOB SHERWOOD and his taw PEG attended the square dance vacation at Asilomar.

ISLAND SQUARES of Foster City wish to thank each of you who came to our January 15th Beginner's Hoedown, those of you who took an active part in it, and all of you who made it a fantastic success. We ended up with 33 clubs being present, and had 28 colorful squares of people dancing and getting acquainted. Our guest callers included ARLAN WIGHT who calls for about four clubs, HAROLD DAVISON, caller for the HIGHLAND SWINGERS, and JOE HUDIN who calls for at least three clubs. JOHN LINDERMAN, caller for ISLAND SQUARES and GENE ALLSOP, caller for CISCO KIDS of Foster City, also called during the evening. We all enjoyed the talent of each caller, their individual style, and the variety of tempo.

GENE ALLSOP brought two squares of his CISCO KIDS with him. It was a joy to see these young people well in command of square dancing. DORIS & LOU TINSLEY held an after-party in their home. BARBARA WALLQUIST, an accomplished pianist, played for a large group of singers. Another group played pinochle. Everyone must have had great fun because there were some revellers around 3:30 a.m.... We have amateur callers' night every New Year's Eve so that all budding callers can have their fling. This year, GENE ALLSOP made a tape to each of the following amateurs: DAVID REZNICK, NANCY STITLER, CINDY FARRELL, ROGER DEUTSER, JULIE LENO, MARLON LENO, PEG SHERWOOD, BOB SHERWOOD, LARRY SHAIN, EILEEN SHAIN, MARILYN SMITH, NICK COIRO, BOB WALLQUIST, LOU TINSLEY, and BERNIE BATCHELOR, a visitor from SQUARES AND FLARES of San Jose... We're looking forward to having many of you join us for our Spring Hoedown on April 9th. ERNIE KINNEY will be our caller for the night. See you then.

CLODHOPPERS of Belmont had another fun-filled month, and President HARRY & DOROTHY WATERS kept us hopping with activities. The year got off with a bang with a successful New Year's Eve party under the leadership of BILL & PENNY TRIPP. FRED & LOUISE WILLIAMS did a great job of organizing everyone for our great hoedown. BOB SOUTHERN did his usual fine job at the mike and JACK & DOROTHY WRIGHT were excellent cueing the rounds. Thanks to all those who attended and made it an exciting evening. By the way, what was the secret ingredient in your jello, HELEN? The MAINLINER STARDUSTERS joined us for a party night and both DONS kept us on our toes. Last but by no means least, the CLODHOPPERS want to welcome DON SHOTWELL and his lovely taw BOBBIE as our new club caller. DON has been really keeping us moving since he took over calling. We want to invite you all to stop by on a Wednesday and dance with us. Hope to see you all at our GALA 30th Anniversary dance on March 5th with LEE HELSEL calling.

GINGHAM SQUARES of Millbrae...and their beginner class, the GINGETTES, enjoyed the WHIRL-A-WAY beginner hoedown on January 23rd and went from there to a very enjoyable dinner at the Golden Coach. Good to see WALT & MARIAN JESSEN back after their winter vacation in Palm Springs. STEVE NEELEY continues to travel slowly down the path to good health. Make plans to attend our "Rain Dance (if the Indians could whoop up a storm, why can't we? Maybe even a real one!) on March 19 with BOB FISK calling at the College of San Mateo (see our advertisement).

CLOVERLEAFS of San Francisco were happy to have their caller JOEL KADISH back fresh from the Aloha Square Dance Bash in Honolulu to call their Valentine Dance at Lowell High on Feb. 12 - it was a great success - great calling, great food and great dancing. Thanks to all the friendly dancers who joined us. Also back from Hawaii with Rover Badges are the HURLEYS, PARTMANNs, ANN HARDEMAN and VIRGINIA ROUCHE - everyone reports a great time in the Islands - our next bash will be a corned beef and cabbage nite which our gals are working on in honor of St. Patrick's Day - thanks to ANN PIOMBO who is working on a traveling banner for our club. First and third Friday of every month we have KEN CROFT and ELENA DeZORBA teaching us the Rounds - come join us in the fun!

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS: Congratulations to the newlyweds in our club - STEVE JANOWICZ and JANICE LAROCCA. They became Mr. and Mrs. in December. We wish them both much happiness. Both the REBELS and REBEL RECRUITS had a very enjoyable evening at our Christmas Potluck Dinner on December 22...The big event of the evening was a surprise visit by our caller MILT ADAMS who is recovering from a heart attack...It sure was good to see him looking and feeling so well...We also had another visitor that night...Actually it was a debut by a possible future REBEL: DAVID WILLIAM DAVIES, Jr., newborn son of JOYCE & DAVE DAVIES...As usual with our dinners, we had a lot of delicious food. So good in fact that it was a little difficult to dance. We were also treated to entertainment by some of our members. V.P., FER-NANDO NAVARRETE and his wife BEATRIZ did some beautiful Spanish dancing and JANICE LAROCCA JANOWICZ performed a gymnastic routine. On behalf of all the REBELS, I want to say thank you to DALE HOUCK for the wonderful job he has done in calling for us since MILT has been sick.

Thank yous are also in order for DOUG SAUNDERS who gave us an enjoyable evening when he called for us. And also a thank you to club member JERRY NITSCHKE for the great job he has done with teaching the REBEL RECRUITS...Happy New Year Birthdays to BARBARA MANSS, NADINE GILLE and PATRICK SENNELLO.

KALICO KATS hope you'll make plans to attend our "Beginners Hoedown" on March 19th at Colma School. Look for our ad in this issue. We installed our new officers for 1977. JAN HOFFMAN, Pres., JOE BUTTON, V. Pres.; ELINOR CHARLESTON, Secty.; CARMA ANDERSON, Treas.; EMMETT CARTER, Membership; FELICE GALLOWAY and ADELE DUCKETT, Program Chairmen; LU FLIEGLER, Publicity and BILL ARP, Sgt. of Arms...BLAKE WESTMAN stepped in for CHARLIE BROWN with our beginners and regular club night. You did some great calling BLAKE and we all enjoyed the dancing. Thanks to you and ADRIENNE for a most enjoyable evening... Our Party Night and Silent Auction was a very interesting evening. Many strange and unusual items were auctioned off. Some of our group had travel plans early in the year. MILLIE SHELTON'S Christmas present was a trip to Savannah, Ga. First time home in 20 years. HAZEL EAGLETON visited Ireland. The ANDERSONS and CHARLESTONS were at the Sequoia Stomp in Visalia. JAN & LAURA went to Sacramento for a very interesting weekend. No square dancing involved! It was good having JACK TOMCZAK back dancing again. Glad you're doing so well JACK! Keep it up.

TWO BY FOURS of Burlingame...The 1977 officers were installed January 18: Pres., BRUCE & NORMA ROUDABUSH; V. Pres., LARRY INGENTHORN & LAVONNE HORMAN; Secty., MY & V.M. REMBOLD; Publicity & Splinters, HOWARD & MARY PETERSON, and Hospitality, BILL & JOAN HAMILTON. The TWO BY FOURS are looking for an active and exciting 1977 and planning is well underway for a caravan trip to the 1978 Montreal Convention. Ten couples attended the NCSDA in Richmond on January 9th followed by dinner at Oliver's in So. San Francisco. On Jan. 22nd thirteen couples dined at the Black Angus Restaurant and attended the Hillbarn Theatre for a splendid rendition of "They Knew What They Wanted". An after-party was hosted by TOM & MARGE HAFLEY. JIM SULLIVAN is home from the hospital and we are pleased to learn he and GLORIA will be dancing again in three months - even sooner we hope! On Feb. 8th the TWO BY FOURS were honored to present and dance to the calls of MARSHALL FLIPPO.

PAIRS 'N SPARES had big doings in January - two very successful hoedowns, one for beginners, with GEORGE DREIER and HOWARD HILLYER as co-callers; and a 4th Saturday hoedown, with HOWARD HILLYER and DON SHOTWELL as co-callers. Especially notable that night were the tasty little pizzas served by the club. Club dinner was given at Russo's/San Bruno for outgoing board: LEE ALTMANN, Pres.; PAULA CORONA, V. Pres.; SIMONA POSADAS, Secty.; VIC JIMINEZ, Treas.; TOBA AYERS, Publicity, and Delegate JIM KENNEDICK with alternate BOB PETERSON. New Board Members are: Pres., GABE PERSAU; Vice Pres., HOWARD BAKER; Secty. FRED GEMACHE; Treas., RANDY RAND; Publicity RUTH HARRIS. The Delegate and Alternate remain the same. Club news - RAZURAS and BELDERS attended the Annual S/D Conference in Aloha Land! And on club night, January 18th your correspondent RUTH HARRIS became a grandmother of a little girl (already have a grandson). JIM MCINTYRE was hospitalized with a knee operation.

LONGHORNS...MAINLINER STARDUSTERS shared our party night on the 1st Tuesday with a large group along with their caller DON CAMPTON, who shared the mike with BLAKE. We had a full house, which made for a very enjoyable evening. CARL FARBER is still looking for his jacket - he ended up with an extra large size that gives him excess length and breadth. Someone - somewhere - has a jacket that is too small for him. DON & GLADYS BUSH are off to Arizona for some warm weather and will be away several months. CHARLES & MARTHA STEVENS are back dancing with the club - we are happy to see them after a long absence. LOUISE JOHNSON paid a visit to the club and we look forward to her rejoining us as a dancer. AL & HELEN DORSEY, our snowbirds, enjoyed a recent ski trip to Washington, then another weekend they ventured to the Sierras, where a sparse covering of snow was still around. JUDY RASMUSSEN'S mother paid a visit from Wisconsin. Our Newer Dancer's hoedown is scheduled for March 12 and the RANCHERO - LONGHORNS co-sponsored beginner class is looking forward to the expert calling of our own BLAKE WESTMAN. Hope all newer dancers will be attending to enjoy this fun-filled evening. You can always be assured of BLAKE adding much humor when he is at the mike.

MUSIC SQUARES of San Francisco - Grace Notes, meaning small notes of music, but their enthusiasm and joys are huge when they attend Newer Dancer Hoedowns. At least two squares of them haven't missed a dance, and their anticipation of the next one brings pleasure unmeasured to callers and teachers alike. Great going gang - and they take advantage of every opportunity to practice - some are dancing three and four nights a week... "Gray Panthers" or the North of Market Street Seniors are organized ready to square dance Thursday afternoons at the YMCA, 121 Leavenworth Street, JOE is their instructor also... The Seniors who have been dancing for a year at the old police station on Fourth Street are considering a name for themselves - JAIL HOUSE SQUARES or the JAILBIRDS.

RANCHEROS of Redwood City... the strenuous pace of modern square dancing occasionally (although rarely) results in a dancers collapsing into unconsciousness so... our club appreciated the recent visit of District 10 Director DICK NODINE who gave us an informative presentation on Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR)... DICK was ably assisted by his 12-year old son, ERIC NODINE, who, incidentally, is a very fine square dancer... Out of town club guests this past month included FLOYD & CLEO DAVIS of Hoquiam, Washington... Caller ARLAN WIGHT reported good post-Christmas progress by our newer dancers class which we jointly sponsor with the LONGHORNS of Redwood City.

REDWOOD EMPIRE

SINGLES & PAIRS... The month of December was a festive and colorful month for the club. It started with a busload of dancers, accompanied by club caller VERN CHURCHILL, and lovely wife, JOANNE, traveling to Roseville for a hoedown called by VERN. After an early breakfast, and very little sleep, VERN called for our first newer dancers hoedown the following day. The hoedown was a success with several clubs represented with dancers bringing their callers with them. Our committee carried out the theme of the holiday season putting everyone in the Christmas spirit for our Christmas party for the newer dancers and club members which followed on December 26... New Year's Eve brought newer dancers and club members together for a party at the Veterans Memorial Building in Sebastopol. There was ballroom dancing to records supplied by STAN PIERCE and square dancing to the calling of LARRY HUDSON, RALPH JOHNSON, and DARREL MARK. After seeing the old year out and the new year in we packaged food and champagne and followed President DANA HONSINGER to her home to get the new year off to a good start until the wee hours.

QUESTION MARKS... Big news this month is that we have moved our workshop and hoedown to the Penngrove Clubhouse in Penngrove due to the sale of the Cotati Women's Club and the many changes that were taking place. We had many years of great dancing there and we said a regretful good bye at our last hoedown on Jan. 22, but our new home at Penngrove looks pretty good and has some great things going for it. We will still have wooden floors and other good accommodations. We are looking forward to holding our first Hoedown on the 4th Saturday of February. We are looking forward to welcoming all of you there.

RUSTLERS of Santa Rosa... On Dec. 31 we had our New Year's Eve hoedown, at the Veterans Memorial Building in Santa Rosa. It was a great turnout for the fine calling of WADE WEST. Later in the evening (almost midnight) we passed out noise makers and party hats. Then we danced another tip with the noise makers and hats. It was a lot of fun. Our caller KEN RICKERT celebrated his birthday with us at workshop. The club surprised him with a cake which was enjoyed by all... KEN started a new Round Dance class in January.

SEBASTOPOL SAUCY SQUARES... On Jan. 4th we had the Inauguration of our new officers: WILL ROBERTS, Pres.; HARRY SAN-DERS, V. Pres.; BONNIE PARKER, Secty.; MICHAEL FOWLER, Treas.; HAP KINNEY, Social Chairman; IDA NEWTON, Publicity; and EARL ENOS, Sheriff... On Jan. 15 we staged a raid on SINGLES & PAIRS' hoedown. DAVE WISCHEMANN did a fantastic job of leading this raid; his disguise was so good that no one knew who he was. The raiders wore Mexican outfits marked Saucy Burritos and made SINGLES & PAIRS' President, PHIL SCHLEYER, call part of a tip. He did so well he even surprised himself. Then their caller, VERN CHURCHILL, had to call a tip while eating tortilla chips. Both raiders and raidees had a good time. With the help of our newer dancers we marked a milestone - the first time our club won the coffee for having the most dancers at a hoedown... On Jan. 22, the executive boards for both 1976 and 1977 enjoyed a combined meeting and a delicious buffet served by outgoing first lady BARBARA SANDERS.

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES started out the New Year with a fantastic New Year's Eve party held at Monroe Clubhouse. Many thanks to the CADMANS and their committee... On Jan. 8th we had RON HAGGERTY doing a fine job of calling for the evening. The hoedown committee: WILL & MAY PRICE, RON & NADINE WINTERS and CRAIG & SUZANNE THOMPSON... RALPH SILVIUS will be calling for our 5th Saturday hoedown on Jan. 29th. Committee members for the evening will be BILL & PEGGY AYLRWARD, HERB & RUTH CLOUGH, BOB & DORIS DICKINSON. An after party will be held after the dance. Our mystery trip is scheduled for February 26th.

San Joaquin Valley Square Dancers Association... Our new officers were installed at the Inaugural Ball Jan. 2nd, with a Pot Luck Dinner afterward. LARRY & JOANIE TROTTER were re-installed as Pres. LLOYD & JOYCE ALLEN as Vice Pres.; LLOYD & EILEEN SEILER, Secty.; DAVE & STELLA HERNANDEZ, Treas.; GEORGE & VEL TAPKEN, Publicity; and ERLE & HELEN WRIGHT, Program...All enjoyed dancing to calls by RICK MORE, JIM PENROD and JOE VALLERY...Thanks again this year to WILLIE & LOUISE GRASMICK, 1972-73 Past President for presiding over and planning this Inaugural Ball. The regular 4th Sunday Association meeting was held with good attendance. Jan. 29 saw some busy dancers. With a good number of clubmembers going to Merced to attend the Central California S/D Association's 25th Anniversary dance, which was enjoyed by all. At which time LARRY TROTTER presented LEN & PAT YOUNG, their Association President with the Trophy that was won at the Frog Jump at our Fun Festival in September. The group returned to Stockton the same evening to attend our 5th Saturday dance and enjoyed dancing to calls by KENNY STEEN, and Rounds cued by NELLIE MORE. All clubs were well represented.

STARS & BARS ... January started off with election of officers and we wish to congratulate them...Our Beginners Hoedown on January 22nd was a fine success. JOE VALLERY, JIM PENROD, and RICK MORE kept our feet moving, and NELLIE MORE cued Rounds for the more experienced dancers... We won the coffee at our Jan. 29th Association dance, for having the most members present. We all enjoyed our evening dancing to one of our favorite callers, KENNY STEEN. KENNY will also be calling our Anniversary dance in March...RICK MORE is still on crutches, but his foot is much better. We all wonder if he isn't getting a little too comfortable calling from a chair! STARS & BARS, as well as many other dancers in the area are anxiously waiting for "Bound for Glory" to show up at the movie theatres here. The last we heard it should be here some time in February. Perhaps we have a few potential movie stars among us.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS...over 20 squares turned out for our annual beginners hoedown on Jan. 22. RAY SANCHEZ did a great job calling, as usual. PAT SPAIN and JIM Mc DONALD also did some great calling. A great time was had by all. A big welcome to five couples joining our club: BILL & JUANITA DAVIDSON, GENE & LILLIAN O'BRIEN, TED & ANN SHENE, WALTER & BETTY MCCAIN and WALLY & ANN SMITH...We are proud of our club caller, JACK PETRI, who has been elected President of the SDCANC. Keep up the good calling! Our club donated five turkeys at Christmas time. Enough to feed 250 needy persons. Our thanks to PETE BAILEY for taking on this task. Upcoming events include pee wee golf in Castro Valley, bowling at Manor Bowl and on March 25-27 a trip to Reno via Amtrak.

ODDS 'N ENDS...We are happy to report that many of our clubmembers have returned well and happy after bouts with colds and flu, especially happy to have DAVE back again, though we enjoyed dancing with his substitute RON HAGGERTY. We miss our Pres. VIRG who had surgery but who is doing well and soon will be back dancing with us. Glad to see FERN back dancing and almost like her old self. Sorry to report that AL PACKARD is still in the hospital and not doing so well. Our prayers and thoughts are with him. We welcome new members: GENE & BARBARA PALMER, JOYCE & VERN CUMINS, ELLIE & GUY PALM, ED & PEG CONNELLY, LOU & JUDY DOBIN, MARY HARRISON and BETTY FRUZETTE. Several of our members are planning to attend the Asilomar workshop the first week in February. Our holiday parties were great, thanks to our sweet ROSALIE PARKER.

Several couples visited the Sadie Hawkins dance given by KEEWAY SWINGERS. Because we had the largest number of couples attending we were presented with a fantastic trophy-guess what?

ALAMEDA WAGON WHEELERS...New officers: Pres., CLIFF NEVINS; V. Pres., A. D. MORTENSEN; Secty., ALBERTA WANNACUT; Treas., ELEANOR ROBINSON. Plans have been set up for a reunion of all past and present WAGON WHEELERS for February 16th. Our caller ED went to the Super Bowl and someone spotted him with all his money and picked his pocket. Broke and in Pasadena was a problem??? Several members attended ACES & LACES and danced to BILL PETERS. It was a great dance. Will be dancing as guests of ALBERTA at the Recreation Center in their mobile home park for the holidays of Feb. 11 and 21. Our thanks again to WES, our Past President for the great New Year's Eve party. Everyone reported a fantastic time. Looking forward to our dance Jan. 29 to benefit Meals on Wheels program in Alameda... District 3 is sponsoring the dance, and many are working hard to make it a success.

HICKS 'N CHICKS... We would like to thank all the newer dancers that showed up to make our beginners hoedown a big success, and a big thanks to DON ATKINS for his fine calling and a special thanks to JUNE & MILLARD McKINNEY for their help with teaching rounds. The club is looking forward to a full report from our President, NORM & JOYCE ROSS who are taking a Silver Anniversary trip to the Aloha State convention during the first part of February. Congratulations to RAY CABRAL and JACKIE BIBLER who became Mr. and Mrs. recently.

STARS & BARS... Back again after the holidays and a great turnout it was - everyone in good health and fine spirits. TERRIL "MAC" McCHEANEY was sporting a new opentoe shoe due to a foot injury, and JACK SMITH was home with the same... MIKE LUNA called for us most of that first evening and his calling was a challenge to us. There were many nice comments from both members and prospective members. Our JIM "BIG MAC" decided the beginners were far enough advanced to dance with us and they certainly proved their worth. Some of us attended SKIRTS & FLIRTS' beginner's dance and enjoyed the calling of RAY SANCHEZ and guests, including our own BIG JIM. Highlight of January... graduation of several newer callers, including FRAN BARTOSEK, Secretary of STARS & BARS, our former President, GENE MELDONADO and CINDY OLSON of CONFEDERATE TEENS. We expect great things from them in the future. Had many visitors in January and two newcomers, BETTY & BOB STANLEY, joined our ranks. Planning a mystery trip in the near future, and our sister club of Stockton will stage their Anniversary Hoedown in March.

BAYWOOD PROMENAIRES... Looking forward to our Reno trip scheduled for the weekend of Feb. 26th. It should be a fun trip and let's hope there will be a few happy winners coming home on that bus. Plans are being made for our 22nd Anniversary dance to be held in March. This should be a gala occasion and special evening for all PROMENAIERS and their many guests. Our own favorite caller, JACK LOGAN, will be our featured caller.

BERKELEY SINGLES... wound up the first fifteen weeks of their beginner's class and signed up a great bunch for the second half of the course. Caller, RON HAGGERTY has really done a sensational job with this lively group of young people. The dancing has been fun level and the teaching great. We had an interesting business meeting at the Betterway Restaurant. The discussion was lively and the Chinese food good. It was decided that MIKE LUNA would continue to call for our Tuesday night dancing.

EDEN ROCKERS... started the New Year with two squares attending the NCSDA'S 26th Anniversary Dance Jan. 9th. One square of EDEN ROCKERS' was asked to dance on Hayward Cable T.V., the caller was HOWARD PARKER. The program was shown on Channel 3 on Jan. 20th. The BRUHNS, SCOVILLES, KOUGHS and EARL CONNOLLYS participated. On our club night we attended ACES & LACES' hoedown and danced to BILL PETERS. The after-party at President BOB & JANE BARTHOL'S home - where delicious snacks and drinks were served - was a nice climax to a delightful evening. Our annual dinner dance in Alameda at the Sugar and Spice was a real fun evening with great food and drink and dancing to our caller CHARLIE BROWN. Please check ad in this issue for our March hoedown.

KEEWAY SWINGERS... Started out the New Year with a party at the home of the ELWOODS. Some came from other parties, square dancing and dinner, but all made it for midnight. Quite a few of us kept busy in January dancing on both Friday and Saturday nights. Our January hoedown with GARY CARNES and the last train home was a huge success with 45 squares in attendance - GARY did a fantastic job of calling and the TULLUS did their usual fine job on the Rounds. The after-party was held at the MURPHYS' about 30 couples showed up.

The LAST TRAIN HOME were special guests and supplied the live music. We are looking forward to hosting a special ticket dance Jan. 28th with guest caller MIKE SIKORSKY from Sepulveda.

EAGLE SQUARES ... Started the month of January with a DICK HOULTON hoedown. What a nice way to start the New Year. Thanks to all the attending clubs who made it a fun evening. Attending the KEEWAY SWINGERS and ANTIOCH AMBLERS hoedowns with good reports from both directions ... EAGLES & EAGLELETS wandered over to the TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS' beginners hoedown. It was a fun dance for all. The EAGLELETS were out in force at the Square Dance Callers Newer Dancers Hoedown. On the 25th a group of us swarmed on an Oakland Restaurant, the LaPetite, which is now run by previous EAGLE SQUARES' FRED & BEV SELLERS. Excellent food, good talk and fun around the tables. Thanks FRED & BEV! What a nice way to end the month of January.

KUNTRY KUZINS...Our Christmas party gets better each year, as well as the New Year's Eve party, which was held at the home of GARY & CONNIE HOWARD. Thanks for having us. We had a good turnout Christmas caroling on a truck and dancing at various convalescent homes. After which we finished the evening at the GLESSON'S. Hear ye! Hear ye! We started our beginner's class on Jan. 5th with JOHNNY BARBOUR as instructor. Had a wonderful turnout. Plans are being made for our yearly Cerebral Palsy Dance on Feb. 12th held jointly with Fremont's Elk's Club.

RED HOTS...Hi, guess what! We're going to have our own hoedown in March. It sounds exciting. Especially after going to everyone else's dances. (Sure hope we do everything right!) A lot of CHARLIE'S friends are going to call. TERRY MOSIER, PAT SPAIN, BOB BUNCH, and a lot of others. We're going to use a Saint Patrick's Day theme for the dance and have lots of food! The Silver Buckles Jerrimia Jump Dance was great! A lot of us went and had a ball. Hope ours is as much fun.

RANCHERO SQUARES ... Hello again. Well, time to get busy. Our club hoedown is February 19th and there's lots of work to be done! Our club dance for January is the Meals on Wheels Benefit Dance in Alameda. Hope to see and dance with a lot of you there. This month we enjoyed visits from CHARLIE & DOROTHY WOLF, RED HOTS, BOB & CHERYL KNOWLETT and JUEL & MILDRED BERG, MB BELLES & BEAUS - don't be shy, folks, come again it was fun. We'd like to compliment KEEWAY SWINGERS on their Sadie Hawkins dance. Great band, great calling, and great dancing.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS...visiting from Illinois is CHUCK BUNCH, son of BOB & MARY BUNCH. Also, he's an excellent dancer, ask CHERYL! The ANDRES spent the holidays trying to keep warm, in Chicago. We enjoyed dancing with BOOTS & SLIPPERS on their party night January 11. Ending up at the SUMMERHILLS with wall to wall TWIRLERS. New officers: Pres., JACK & RAY CARLOS; V. Pres., BOB & PAT McALLISTER; Secty., FRANK & MAGGIE PERKINS; Treas., CHUCK & TUFFET SHARP. Our thanks to our wonderful outgrowing officers. Our thanks to the members who are helping out with our newer dancers. A little late news from December, Santa visited us on Dec. 14th. Our thanks to BILL & BETTY TERRELL for their chairmanship. Attended EAGLES hoedown with our newer dancers on Dec. 11th. Ending a fun-filled evening at the home of the BUNCHES. It was nice to see MARIE ROTH at the Christmas Party, after her long illness.

GUNS & GARTERS...December and January have been busy months. Started off December with installing the following officers: Pres., KREG HARSHA; V. Pres., FRED ZEGLIN; Secty., PAM THOMPSON; Treas., KIM GUNDERSON; and Sheriff, LINDA LIEN. We attended SHINING TEENS' hoedown called by our own BEN GOLDBERG, our beginners were wonderful. During Christmas vacation we had many enjoyable visitors from BARNSTORMERS, BOOT SWINGERS, CONFEDERATES, MERCENARIES and YOUNG REBELS. Our new advisors are: HARRY PINKLER IV, MRS. KAY CHENCWETH, MRS. NANCY STANDIFORD, MR. LEO TUTTLE and MRS. LETTIA CORNWELL. We hope they get a chance to enjoy the job if we don't drive them crazy first. Welcome new members, MOLLY DODGE and SCOTT STYMEN. Our anniversary dance is scheduled for March. We are frantically working on this and our new club outfits. Any and all dancers are welcome to visit us, we'd love to have you.

VALLEY TRAVELERS ... 1976 passed with many happy memories, a Christmas party shared with old and new members with Santa making everyone happy. The New Year's day square dance float was great! We had the pleasure of assisting two Swedish students who are learning our folk dance to share with friends when they return to their country. MAYA JORGENSON'S mother has really enjoyed sitting on the sidelines on club night hoping to share her experience on her return to Switzerland. We have been working hard with our newer dancers and watching them at our annual beginner's dance and taking them to others will be fun. We are happy to have MARY LEE WALKER and HELEN HELZ back with us.

The past year was not a happy one for them, but they are back in full swing now. Our Charter Member, dear RAY WALKER will be remembered as a sharp photographer and an accomplished dancer. Sharing a dance in his memory was only a small way of saying we lost an unforgettable guy.

COTTON PICKERS ... had our Halloween potluck and party and everyone had a great time. Thanks to RICK & JENNIFER RAUSON our new Vice President. The Christmas party was a very entertaining evening with a potluck, gifts, square dancing, and mixed dancing. A good time was had by all. The COTTON PICKERS and their caller, DREW ANDERSON, announce an intermediate brush up workshop reviewing 38-68 plus mainstream. Open enrollment is March 4-18th. Come down and improve your dancing. We dance at Ashland School on Friday nights.

CHECKMATES...Got together for a New Year's Eve party with dancing to our club caller, ROD BERTLSHOFFER. Thanks to LEE & UNA COLYER for the decorations and arrangements. We've been working hard on club nights that first half hour to master the round dance "Folsom Prison Blues," and it's starting to look pretty good. Over two squares attended Meals on Wheels benefit dance in Alameda and they felt they got "double their pleasure" with an evening of fun and the knowledge they were helping the worthwhile meals program. LEE PEREZ and her committee of busy ladies are planning a new club outfit to be shown at our March meeting. MARILYN BERTLSHOFFER is providing them with moral support, literature she's collected on the subject, etc.

FARMERS & FARMERETTES...If January is any indication, 1977 will be a very busy year for us. It started with a great New Year's Eve party at the home of our own JOEL & SUSIE KADISH. The street looked like a KOA Campground and the party lasted until sometime during the Orange Bowl game. Thanks a million, JOEL & SUSIE, we're looking forward to next year! Is it true that the WOODS, BURPEES, CHAMBERLAINS, and GOODWINS wore their Silver and Black square dance clothes to the Super Bowl? Our beginners hoedown was a "nutty" affair, STEVE & ANDY along with GAYLE & NANCY did a terrific job of organizing the dance. We followed JOEL to the BACHELORS & BACHELORETTE'S El Dia de Reyes in San Jose, where he called a super dance and was so good on that Italian singing call that another club made him an offer he couldn't refuse...Danced at KEEWAY SWINGERS featuring MIKE SIKORSKY. MIKE will be calling our April dance...A new board will be taking over in February. We wish to thank the outgoing officers and a big thank you to President MIKE CALLAHAN and his wife BETTY for an outstanding job.

MELODEE DANCERS rounders...Flash! We are delighted that our Round Dance teachers chose our teacher's dance "Give Me 5 Minutes More" as Round of the Month...JOHN & SHARI'S newest dance is "Rhapsody", hot off the press, already picked as Texas ROM! Our thanks to GENE for his partner, MARTHA - she spoils us with the best of cookies - thanks MARTHA! Went to DICK HOULTON'S at ROADRUNNERS. He was fantastic. Had a ball! AL & EMMA cued the Rounds. AL in wheelchair after surgery - he was "Ironside" and great. Club members were seen at KEEWAYS and ACES & LACES and several went to the Means on Wheels' benefit in Alameda and had a good time. JOHN was superb on Rounds as always! Some went to B-SHARPS to dance to JOHN & SHARI. We're all going to the Triple Stampede in April.

SQUARE CIRCLE CLUB...Everyone back in the swing of things after the happy, but hectic holiday season! '76 was a good year for the club, and looking forward to '77. The year started with Pres. CHARLES WILKINS and first lady MAE having a successful New Year's Eve party. Went into the wee hours of the morning. The middle of January, beginners had a hoedown with our own JOHN FRERICHMANN calling a fun-filled evening. Beginners are also planning a mystery trip the end of February. MAE & CHARLES, with several members, journeyed to ACES & LACES to dance to ED LOONEY and BILL PETERS. We are looking forward to our Anniversary Dance in March.

BOOTS 'N SLIPPERS....nada fantastic holiday season. Had a beautiful Christmas party with the children of the members being invited and there were presents from Santa for all of them. A large group attended a New Year's Eve party at the HARPER'S home. We thank them for opening their home to us. It was a great evening. 28 squares attended our Beginners' Hoedown on Jan. 7. BOB HOFFSETZ, our club caller, did his usual fantastic job, and he was ably assisted by selected guest callers. We are really proud of our beginners. Party night in January we hosted TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS. We really enjoyed having them. Our club dress committee are busy working on samples of our new club dress. Those people are something else. They're coming up with another outfit that's a real knockout.

ROLLING SQUARES of San Pablo...DOROTHY & FRANK FILIPPI hosted a great dinner after the Anniversary Dance. Our best wishes to MARY FITZGERALD who is recuperating from major surgery; the flu bug has bitten one of our most active members, FLO TORIX, hurry back FLO we miss you. Visitors from LUMBER JACKS & JILLS of Greenville were JOHN & MARGIE YOUNG (MARGIE is the sister of our President, BILL DRAKE). Caller for their club is BOB THOMSON. It was our pleasure to dance to CHUCK KEIST on workshop night when DON was absent due to minor surgery; thanks CHUCK ... Monthly board meeting was held at the home of President BILL & VONDA DRAKE - delicious refreshments were served by our first lady...With the New Year, members are out dancing in full force by attending LAZY EIGHTS dance with DAVE HOBAUGH (one of our callers for our April dance), SQUARENADERS' Anniversary, and PAIRS 'N SPARES' hoedown with the great calling of DON & HOWARD HILLYER.

FIVE STARS...Happy Saint Patrick's day to all you Irish square dancers! Our Mystery Trip will be a thing of the past by this printing, but HADLEY THOMPSON and JIM FIDLER have assured us of a great time! The FIVE STARS' holiday party was held later in the month but we wanted to share a few ideas with all of you. Have you ever considered a 'Club of salami' or wrenches and screw drivers for the men's gift exchange? Caller DAVE HOBAUGH received his usual gift from the club, which is indicative of the Napa Valley. Squareheads JERRY & MARY LOU LUNDEEN and ROLAND & VI LECLERC did a fantastic job with the decorations and food. Potluck dinners are held every other month and RICH & BARB McLAY and PHIL & JUDY MORRIS, some of our newer members, arranged a tasty and well planned affair for us. Our sincere sympathy is extended to MARY LOU LUNDEEN and family with the death of her mother. The NCSDA anniversary dance was enjoyed by FIVE STARS and the celebrating continued into the evening for dinner out at Curley's was enjoyed by JERRY & MARY LOU LUNDEEN, HAROLD & MARY NYSTROM, ERNIE & RUTH SIRE, CHUCK & JERRY REILAND, KURT & ROSE EID, BOB & RHEBA CARNER, JIM & MAXINE FIDLER, HADLEY & WILMA THOMPSON. While in between, we have been busy supporting the Silverado Association hoedowns including the Association's dance where DAVE HOBAUGH and MILT ADAMS called to the enjoyment of dancers from the 13 member clubs and other dancers from distant areas. Interest is mounting among members with the thought of attending the Silver State fun weekend, especially in new club dresses, and the NCSDA Round-Up at the Oakland Auditorium. See you on the 26th when BILL PETERS will call our Spring Fling!

MUSTANGS...Our first Association dance of the New Year was very well attended and all enjoying the fine calling. A real challenge - especially with the Oakland Raiders Super Bowl game on at the same time. To celebrate the occasion - a large group gathered at the Elk's Club - for social hour and dinner. Travelers - KEN & GEN PIKE, in Texas - say it is just too cold for sight seeing but perfect for dancing. They will leave in early spring - our best wishes follow them. HARRIET & JIM WHEELER - off to Mexico - and wintering in Texas in their motor home. On return, will be in their retirement home in Rumsey - we will miss them. EDITH & ROY NIOSI - spent the holiday season in Beaverton, Oregon, visiting her daughter and grandchildren. We are happy to see NAOMI PETERSON back - after a bout with eye problems. We hope it won't be too long before she receives the green light to start dancing again. Our thanks to NONIE MOGLIA for an excellent workshop - substituting for BOB PAGE while he was away. MUSTANGS meet at Fairmount School on Mondays.

BOOTS & BELLES of Napa...were sorry to lose their caller and good friends, JIM & LESLIE DIFFEY. They were recently transferred to Grass Valley. We are looking forward to seeing them again February 12 when JIM will be calling our Anniversary hoedown. We consider ourselves very fortunate in obtaining JIM GADBERRY as our new caller. He and his wife, CHRIS, live in Vacaville where he works for the Telephone Co. JIM has been calling about seven years. He is a master caller with a great singing and yodeling voice. He also calls for RANCHEROS in Sacramento and DIABLO SINGLES in Walnut Creek. Anyone wishing an evening of good, fast dancing are welcome to join us any Wednesday from 7:30-10, at Los Carneros Hall on Highway 12 between Napa and Sonoma. I might add that our new dancers are now dancing with us, alternating tips with intermediate tips. So new dancer guests are also welcome. We are happy to report that ALMA CLEWETT is recovering from her automobile accident and has visited the club several times. We hope to have her back dancing with us again soon. GENE PURCELL is also recovering from knee surgery and hopefully will be as good as new in a few weeks. 1977 looks to be an active and productive year.

TWILITE TWIRLERS started the month out great with our annual January hoedown with DAVE ABBOTT calling, a great time was had by all who attended. The BROOKLANDERS, COLES, and COOKS attended the Silverado Association hoedown with DAVE HOBAUGH calling and a visit from MILT ADAMS. Some of our "surprise" members will be spending the 4th Saturday at Pleasanton, while the COLES go to Salinas to dance with THE GHOST RIDERS.

DIABLO DOPPERS ... GLEN & CONNIE GOURLEY entertained the club at a between holidays' wine tasting party. It was enjoyed by all who attended. The NESBITTS attended the association dance in Richmond. They also attended the TWILITE TWIRLERS' hoedown. The SEWELLS, LEIBERS, and the MUSSEYS attended GUYS & DOLLS dance. Wedding bells rang for two of our members in November - REBA BURDG and DON MILLER. Congratulations and best wishes! DON has also undergone surgery this month and we wish him a speedy recovery...Our beginners class has started and is dancing on Thursday nights. Dancing at the ANTILOCH AMBLERS' anniversary hoedown were the TRUEBLOODS and NESBITTS.

CONCORD REBELS...This has been another busy month for us with all the holiday parties and still keeping up with our square dancing. We would like to welcome CARMEN & HERB ENDLE as new members of our club. A group of us went to the NCSDA in Richmond and after the dance JERRY & IRENE RILEY made reservations for a great dinner at Viera's in Crockett. We also have attended the TWILITE TWIRLERS and ANTILOCH AMBLERS dances this month. We would like to thank ROGER & WANDA for another great holiday party held at the Sportsman's Club. It was sure nice to see some of our old members. We would also like to tell our visitors and our beginners how much we enjoyed having them attend the party.

JACKS & JENNYS...What a way to start the year with a super New Year's Eve party held jointly by JACKS & JENNYS and the SHELL SWINGERS and friends at the Farm Bureau Hall. Our thanks to GWEN WHIPPLE and all of the committee. We're all glad GLENN DURSTON is out of the hospital and home recuperating, we miss you at the ice cream tree, GLENN. The club visited GUYS & DOLLS, LAZY EIGHTS, TWILITE TWIRLERS in January and we're looking forward to the AMBLERS' 22nd Anniversary dance. It seems like we just got TOMASINIS back from Hong Kong and VALENTINES from Hawaii now we're sending the EMDS off on a Far Eastern Tour. That's a traveling club.

TEEN TWIRLERS of Concord started off the new year with the election of officers, the new board members are: Pres., PENNI HUTCHINSON; VicePres., LYNN DAVIS, Secty., LISA SHUFF; Treas., CATHY HENLEY and KAREN KNIGHT; Delegate, KEITH HUTCHINSON; Asst. Delegate, TAMRA DAVIS; Publicity, FRED ENGLEHARDT; Hostesses, BRENDA MARTIN and RAINE STUBLASKI; Sheriff, STEVE HENLEY. DAN STOLHAND, FRED ENGELHARDT, LINDA DOMAN, BO STARNES and GAIL MARTIN attended GUYS & DOLLS January 8th dance and it was fun. We plan on getting a gang to go to the ANTIOCH AMBLERS' dance on the 22nd. On Jan. 17th we had a party for the out-going board members and up-coming new year, we were visited that night by the ANTIOCH AMBLERS, who claimed the Buckskin which we had gotten from SWINGING TEENS of Fremont on Oct. 18th. On Jan. 18th our club went to Antioch and claimed the Buckskin back from the AMBLERS. We went to thank all of last year's board members for a fine job.

ANTIOCH AMBLERS have been busy this month, some of the hoedowns attended are: Newer dancers hoedown the CONCORD STOMPERS, SUN VALLEY SQUARES in which 6 couples attended. BILL & MARTHA WHITE, of course, belong to Sun Valley Squares and also our club, they also traveled to the Richmond Auditorium, Northern S/D Association Dance and to DO C DO'S of Vallejo and to Stockton to the SJVSDA Inauguration Dance. GUYS & DOLLS was a fun dance. A group of us went to visit TEEN TWIRLERS of Concord in which we claimed the Buckskin on Jan. 17th, then on Jan. 18th they came and claimed it back. Darn them anyway! We had a lot of fun dancing with them anyway and enjoyed dancing with their club caller RICH MANSFIELD. We hope they enjoyed coming back up and visiting us. We are looking forward to our own Hoedown this Saturday night to the calling of JOHN CADIENTE. Good luck to HAL & RUTH QUICK who are going to travel, we are sure going to miss them every week but hope they enjoy retirement and know they will come visit us periodically.

CONCORD STOMPERS ... Our Christmas party was super. Everyone decorated our tree. CHERENE SMITH arranged for the tree to be donated to Hacienda Convalescent Hospital. The folks really appreciated it. ED KUTZ dropped it by...MARY & ERNIE BORATH are expecting a baby! Congratulations! JOHN VAN ESSEN presented CHERENE SMITH with a stunning diamond ring! PHYLLIS & GORDON COOPER'S daughter have given them a wedding to plan for! Best wishes! BOB & LOIS ELLING are singing together! "Mercy-Mercy!" President GEORGE KAUFER and wife DIANE put forth much effort and graciously hosted our New Year's Eve party in their lovely home. Our September beginners class hosted their first hoedown Jan. 15th. BOB ELLING called. DIABLO MOUNTAIN CLOGGERS paid us a visit and danced their "V" routine ...CHERENE SMITH will run our New Youth Beginners Class on Monday nights. BOB ELLING will call.

CLUTCH BUSTERS have elected new officers for 1977. Pres., TED & JUNE TURGEON; V. Pres., STAN & DENISE BENNESEN; Secty., KEN & GLADYS HALLE; Treas., RICK & BARBARA TOWNER; Welcoming, BILL & PAT SCOTT; Refreshments, BUD & DOROTHY PARKER for the first six months, LEW & TREVA DEWEY for the second six months; Publicity, BOB & EADIE McDOWGALD.

CURLY-Q's of Walnut Creek (formerly the WALNUT WHIRLERS) announce we have renamed our club. WALNUT WHIRLERS is a FOLK DANCE club and we apologize for coming up with the same name. Club caller is DOROTHY PEELER and we have two beginners' classes going. We will elect permanent officers at our February meeting.

BUZZIN' BOOTS... Balloons bursting, noise makers toasting and confetti flying all helped usher in the New Year as some 80 members and friends gathered for an evening of square dancing on New Year's Eve. The evening culminated with a delicious smorgasbord table loaded with goodies. Many thanks to BRENTLINGERS, DAUMS, DIXONS, NICK GARCIA, MIKE KUTLIK, NEWLONS, TAYLORS and HOWARD VAN HOUTEN for all their hard work in making a successful party. Many members danced at the NCSDA 26th Anniversary dance at the Richmond Auditorium. After the dance all club members were invited to the SELMERS for a delicious sitdown supper. Various members danced to BILL PETERS at the NOVATO SQUARES hoedown and ROGER MORRIS at SQUAWS & PAWS hoedown. We wish to extend a sincere welcome to new members EALINE & DENNIS DUTRA. Our spring hoedown will be held on March 26 with DAVE HOBAUGH at the new San Rafael Community Center building.

HUFFS 'N PUFFS...January leaves us with memories of some unique dancing experiences.

Our mystery trip was indeed a surprise mystery! Members boarded a bus bound for Occidental where the evening began with dinner there. Afterwards the bus, loaded with its passengers, defoured in circles around the Occidental area. Members were taken by complete surprise to learn their destination was to be the Occidental Community building for a real barn dancing hoedown, planned with only HUFFS 'N PUFFS attending! BILL CASTNER, guest caller, gave an outstanding performance of calls ranging from the good old days of the 1920's, with a Virginia Reel to waltzing to polkas. Many thanks to MARY LOU BAILEY, BILL DOWNING and DOUG DOWNING for arranging this cleverly planned fun evening of something different. Our monthly workshop party night found amateur calling members B.J. DENNIS and DON WATTS relieving KEITH GYLFE at the mike. We know what "Contra Dancing" is! If you don't know - come dance with us some 2nd Thursday night. Maybe we can talk B.J. into calling it again! Thanks to PAT & DICK LANE for hosting our January board meeting...Have you ever seen "pink elephants" from having a dessert? Try PAT'S flaming Cherries Jubilee sometime! SHARON KUCZORA'S dancing activities came to a halt due to a sprained ankle.

MARIN MAVERICKS celebrated Christmas with a party for its members and their families. In addition to dancing, carols were played and led by guests VALERIE GRASSO, DAN MUNTUN and DIANE OLSEN. An assortment of Christmas cookies and cakes added to the party atmosphere. On Jan. 7 the club conducted its first mystery trip. 46 members (standing room only) boarded the bus for dancing at the CONCORD VALLEY SQUARES. With support like that, the club won the coveted prize - the coffee!

MARIN SOLITAIRES...Everyone had a great time at our Christmas party on Dec. 13 at the Alvarado Inn which included dinner, square and ballroom dancing. 40 people attended and the club picked up the tab... New officers elected were: Pres., HOMER RAIL; Vice Pres., LES FARBER; Secty., ISABELLE BIRD; Treas., JANET SMITH; Publi-city, BLANCHE HURLEY; Delegate, VIRGINIA CHIRCO and Asst. Delegate, KEN TRULSON. Board members include MEL LEVY and MARY THOMPSON. We are all happy that HENRIETTE VSAUROU has recovered from her illness and is back dancing again. Thank you MARCELLA & DICK MURPHY for your frequent visits to our club.

MILL WHEELERS...Starting the New Year off right - the BERRYMANs, BOWMANs, CUMMINGs, ELLIOTTs, MURPHYs, and WHITTINGHAMs danced to DAVE HOBAUGH and the live music of THE GHOST RIDERS at Downer High. BETTY & JOHN RETTER were in charge of the rounds and that's a sure fire combination for a super Saturday night dance. The following Saturday night, ROGER MORRIS, a special favorite of the MILL WHEELERS, drew a large group of club members. MARGE (mouse) and KEN BOWMAN hosted the ALLIS, BERRYMANs, ELLIOTTs, RETTERS, and WELLS at a Sauer Brauten dinner before the ROGER MORRIS dance. ROGER always provides an entertaining and fun evening. SQUAWS & PAWS were big on friendly hospitality - a fun filled evening for all who attended... We welcome THELMA & BEN PULLIAM as new members of the club. They joined us this month and then invited several couples to attend their idea of an open house post-holiday celebration. What a party! Caller DAVE HOBAUGH was such a delightful surprise - he is so versatile and a real entertainer. The buffet table was so loaded with delicious food it groaned under the weight. Everyone wanted recipes and we hope THELMA will share them with us. NOVATO SQUARES...The month of January got off to a good start with BILL PETERS doing a fine job on the mike for our dance. We had 16½ squares in attendance. GRANT & THELMA NELSON became the proud grandparents of a baby girl and they even had pictures of the new baby to show at the dance. They are just glad they don't have to change all those diapers! There were 22 couples from our club who went to the NCSDA Anniversary dance. Lots of fun dancing. After the dance the group went to Point Orient for dinner. Our club won the coffee prize at SQUAWS & PAWS dance with 3½ squares. With the price of coffee we ought to do that more often! We had several couples travel to Cotati to dance with the QUESTION MARKS ... We are planning a dinner-dance with a mystery caller for members in February.

STUMP JUMPERS ... A gala New Year's

Eve dance and party including hats, merry-makers and streamers was held at IDESSI Hall. We all enjoyed punch and canapes, and shortly after the magic hour, a delicious buffet was served. DAVE MILANO called and entertained all with a fun-filled evening while MARIBELLE & LEFTY IVERSON cued rounds. Our talented amateur caller, AL ANGULO, BILL ALMEIDA, and RICH SMITH-ALLEN did a great job. A special thanks to hosting couples, the ANGULOS, BERNARDS, NUNES' and SPONSKYS. We were happy to have former members KAY & RAY DONDERO of Clearlake with us as members of other clubs who came to help us celebrate. ELLY & AL ANGULO hosted a delicious buffet dinner at our January board meeting in honor of past and present board members. AL read a poem he composed including our board member names which showed real talent. Thanks to PAT COENEN and JOAN & JOHN WELCH for hosting the special board meetings... Welcome to new club members JO & CARL SMITH and JULIE & HAROLD BURKE..

CORNHUSKERS... Jan. 5th, ANDY RAWLINSON called for DAVE STEVENS who was ill with a cold. Our class really enjoyed having ANDY and he did a great job as usual. RON HAGGERTY called for the CIRCLE & SQUARES and a square of CORNHUSKERS attended. The same night BILL PETERS called for NOVATO SQUARES and we almost won the coffee. The Anniversary dance at the Richmond Auditorium had many members attending and it's especially nice when your own caller is one of the top ten. Our club only missed bringing home the coffee by one person at the hoedown given by SQUAWS & PAWS, called by ROGER MORRIS. DAVE HOBAUGH is always a welcome caller and our club enjoyed him at the Cotati Women's Club which was the last hoedown that will be held there.

SQUAWS & PAWS... The new year has gone well so far with the club getting a beginners class started with an enthusiastic group. TOM is such a good teacher and is moving them with that old square dance spirit. The KRISTALS reported that Palm Springs had just great weather for their visit during the holidays. Members took a bus trip with the QUESTION MARKS to Sacramento to dance with KEN BOWER for WHIRLAWAYS and had a fine time in spite of the large crowd. Other members stayed in Novato and danced to BILL PETERS' calling for NOVATO SQUARES - a fun dance. We had our own Novato Inaugural Square Dance Ball the next week with ROGER MORRIS keeping us all moving fast - guess it must have been the good meal TINA MARTIN served them before the dance. Our thanks to the BRUZONES and the CAMPBELLS for organizing the delicious food and to the WHEELERS for the Inaugural decorations. The HESLAS had a great party after the dance with much food, drinks, and conversation into the wee hours of the morning for those night owls. The QUESTION MARKS dance with DAVE HOBAUGH was the last one of the hall and was so crowded we nearly pushed out the walls for the new owners. Everyone had a fine time with a fantastic after party at the CLOTHESIS with the HUGHES co-hosting.

ROUND-UP CORNER

John & Lorraine Shubunka

Grand March Chairmen GEORGE AND AUDREY ROHM will have to see that the colorful Saturday night pageant goes smoothly - remember the proper protocol, arrange for the color guards and bands, visiting dignitaries, etc. They will be assisted by Bob and Bernetta Bleile, Glynn and Joan Bentley, and Bud and Mary Fields.

BOB AND BETTY COATES who have already been through four years on the Board, including President and General Chairman and Advisors for the Round Up, will still be in there taking care of the Badge Board - this is the large glass display case holding all the badges from all clubs in the NCSDA.

Housing Chairmen SKI AND MARGE PO-

GORZELSKI and DICK AND MADELIENE WARD will be trying to please all the overnight guests - noisy groups in one section - quiet sleepers in another. Where to get a meal - where to park a car - whose reservations didn't get in - whose were changed at the last minute. Keeping people happy is sometimes a trying experience.

Breakfast Chairmen HARRY AND DOROTHY WATERS, assisted by WILL AND LORI BERNARD have the task of preparing for last minute guests, seeing that a good breakfast is provided at a minimum cost, securing and dispensing door prizes, decorating tables, seating guests, etc. Being an early morning host is tough - help is always needed. The fun and frivolity doesn't just happen - it's well planned.

Breakfast Master of Ceremonies BOB AND JANE BARTHOL never know what to expect from one minute to the next - being prepared doesn't help as one remark can throw the entire script out the window and into another channel. He may appear to be having a great time, but he has done his homework.

Caller Escorts JOHN AND MARY LOU RICHTER, JIM GIESBRECHT, LAURIE COPLEY, and NORM AND SHARON FRANKS virtually spend their entire time with the callers - meeting and escorting them to the convention headquarters at odd hours of the day or night - seeing that they have everything necessary to make the trip enjoyable, trying to show them sights of the area and planning for their meals, but still getting them to the hall on time to do the job for which they were contracted - up to and including getting them to a plane on time for the flight home very late on a Sunday night after a tiring weekend.

Emergency Medical Chairmen DICK AND JULIE NODINE have been working for the past year in Red Cross training classes - many of your Directors and Assistants were trained in CPR in order to prepare for emergencies.

Nurses will be needed to attend the Medical Room.

In the background we have Photographer BILL AND IRIS BAKER taking pictures all year - shots during the dancing and exhibitions, having prints ready for publicity releases, and spending much time later making prints ordered by the dancers.

Sewing and Panel Chairmen DENISE MEDFORD and LINDA MARTIN have also been gathering ideas, patterns, information, etc. on the latest in fancy dress and simplifying instructions in order to pass information on to you.

Under Hall Management we have HARRY AND LORETHA SHARKEY as assistants to BILL AND ANN RIGSBY - they had the problem of revamping from San Francisco Auditorium to the Oakland Auditorium with less space on matters of providing proper space for booth rentals, space for dancers, lighting, etc. In addition to these Round Up duties, the Sharkeys work all year on providing school cost figures and help all ten districts in any problems arising from school usage - without his help it is doubtful that Lowell High School would have been available for District 1 hoedowns.

It's your ROUND UP - these are the people who have volunteered to do the work in order for you to enjoy the dancing. If you have any ideas on how to improve the operation, any inclination to help, or wish to be included in next year's operation, please get in touch with any of the above individuals - they are all members of NCSDA clubs - is yours included?

San Jose

GADABOUTS... We had two very successful hoedowns last month. The newer dancers really enjoyed themselves at their dance, and we thank the SEE SAWS for co-hosting it. Our hoedown was also lots of fun. Thanks to JAN FLEGEL who headed the decorating committee and also BILL ZWICK for his clever tumbleweed snowman.
