LAURIE COPLEY &
JIM GIESBRECHT

We are at the threshold of another year. I will take this means to thank you all for the confidence you have placed in your new board for the coming year. We shall do our utmost to uphold the excellent work that has been done in the past. Your Association is one of the very best in the Country. With all of the hard working people that you have elected I'm sure that we shall continue to keep up the good work.

All of the figures are not in but from what preliminary ones that I do have, I feel safe in saying that your Golden State Round Up was a success. We owe a lot to many dedicated people that work behind the scenes. I won't try to name them here because of limited space but perhaps throughout the year we shall try to get into this area a little deeper. No matter how hard the Committee works it still comes down to you, the Dancer, to determine whether or not it is successful. For this the Committee gives you a great big "Thank you, well done."

A few of the comments that were heard from the Callers were: "Fantastic, you have something here that is lacking at many other festivals around the Country. The enthusiasm, Club oriented Grand March, the noise just doesn't happen at other Festivals." Kip Garvey. Jerry Schatzer told us that he had a great time. The good dancers, caller escorts, accommodations, are such that he will remember this weekend for a long time. Ron Schneider had been here before but was still amazed at how well everything was run. His words were "I had a ball." All of the Callers were astonished that after three days you, the dancers, didn't want to go home. They felt that they had done what they were hired to do. The Proctors were delighted that they had been asked to return for this year. We can look forward to having them back again.

Again the committee thanks you for your continued support and participation.

That's all for this month.

REDWOOD EMPIRE

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES ... On May 14 the club celebrated its 16th Anniversary by dancing to the fine calling of ROGER MORRIS. As usual he kept all of them on their toes. Members enjoyed an after party at the Clubhouse when new officers were installed. They are: Pres., CLARENCE FREITAS; Vice Pres., BOB DICKINSON; Secty. JOY SOLHEIM; Treas., MARIA HULL. Congratulations. Many thanks to BURT HANKS, CHUCK CADMAN, GLENN BUCK and GENE KAYSER and their committee, for all their fine work during this past year.

During our after party, SMITTY & ADELINE SMITH were presented with a lifetime membership for all their hard work and support to the club... We had a visit from GEORGIE HUNGERFORD during our dance. It was nice to see her again. On May 21st several members went to the Rose Festival dance put on by MARK WESTERNERS. As always, all had a great time... June 11th BILL PETERS will call for our 2nd Saturday dance. June 26th is our annual family picnic at Cassini Ranch.

RAINBOW STROLLERS of Petaluma would like to take this opportunity to express sincere sympathy to Mrs. EVA DUCKETT on the loss of her husband HUGH. He will be sadly missed.

RUSTLERS of Santa Rosa... We had a hoedown at the Monroe Clubhouse. It was a good dance. We had a nice crowd. BRAD BRADFORD was the caller. On Saturday night, May 14 the club attended CIRCLE 'N SQUARES' hoedown with ROGER MORRIS at the mike... On May 22 we had a newer dancer's hoedown at Monroe Clubhouse. We had a great crowd with KEN RICKERT at the mike. After the dance one of our club members, ELIZABETH FULLER, had a potluck at her home with many of the club members and newer dancers attending. Thanks Elizabeth... At workshop on Thursday May 26 our newer dancers graduated. We had a lot of fun at their graduation. We are planning to attend the Golden State Round Up in Oakland.

QUESTION MARKS are giving some serious thought to having a beginners class again this year if the details can be worked out; so if anyone has someone interested in becoming a square dancer they might contact us. A delightful time was had by a group of club members who went to dance with our caller TOM WALTON in Ukiah for the PROMENADERS and did a little camping over that weekend. Also seen dancing at HUFFS & PUFFS recently were a group of our club members who remarked that a good time was had by all.

MARKWESTERNERS ... We had a very successful 14th annual Rose Festival Dance this May. As usual this is a highlight of the Santa Rosa Rose Parade and Festival. We were proud to have had the opportunity to be entertained with an exhibition by the STARDETTES. Everyone seemed to enjoy our yodeling caller from San Diego, NELSON WATKINS - and we will be having him return next year for our Rose Festival Dance. ... During the month of May our new officers were elected for the coming year. We would like to acknowledge and congratulate the following: Pres., LENARD HARRIS; V. Pres., BILL REIER; Secty., AUDREY GAMMA; Treas., BETTY REIER; Publicity, LOUISE DUNFORD. They are looking forward to a successful year and are a very enthusiastic group. We also want to say "many thanks" to our Past President BEN PIDCOCK and his First Lady MICKEY for a job well done. We are happy to hear that our loyal and long standing member ROSE TIFER, is well on the road to recovery from her recent illness.

ANTIOCH AMBLERS... It has been a busy month for our club. Many hoedowns were attended. SUN VALLEY SQUARES held a newer dancers hoedown and we really enjoyed that one. The next night DICK HOULTON called for GUYS & DOLLS. We had lots of fun. Thirty-three couples attended the Silver State Festival in Reno. The grand march was terrific and the whole weekend was so much fun we can hardly wait until next year. We are now getting ready for our campout at Anchor Bay.

CLUTCH BUSTERS ... NEALS, HALLES, TURGEONS, ADAMS, IRELANDS, SCOTTS, TOUROS, WILSONS and KENNEYS enjoyed the NCSDA dance at the Alcanes

High School and had a preview of the great calling that can be expected at the CLUTCH BUSTERS' anniversary dance in September. Fourteen couples traveled to Reno for the Silver State Square Dance Festival and had a marvelous time at the planned activities and parties. Great planning by JACK & ROSE BREE! The IRELANDS are driving a car with an expensive coffee aroma. Have they been to Brazil?

JACKS & JENNYS... Our congratulations to the District II Delegates for a most successful April Stampede with MARLIN HULL calling, I'm sure he will be back soon... Our sympathies to JEAN DURSTON on the loss of GLENN. He was truly a gentleman and a good friend. All of us will miss him. The 28 members at the Silver State had a hard time getting together. We missed our program chairman MARGE NEIBER. It was all her fault that we didn't get to see FARLEY PARKERFAGER, Farley Who? At least BRIGETTE LIMON taught us how to properly drink Tequila. The JACKS & JENNYS are practicing hard for their softball meet with the DOPPERS. If we win we claim the Dist. II championship and will rest on our laurels.

SQUARE WHEELERS of Walnut Creek - After hearing RALPH SILVIUS talk at two different hoedowns about plans for his SIERRA SQUARES' 4th annual Springtime Festival in Sonora, we started making plans. Motel reservations were made by the BLENDOWS, CARYS, CEXTONS, MENSISKS, RYANS, and STAUFFERS; and the ADMUNDSENS, BEAUBIENS, COOKS, MATTHEWS, and OLDERSHAWS geared their trailers and RV'S for the weekend. The McCLELLANDS stayed with their daughter and family who live in Sonora. In between the scheduled dances and workshops during the weekend, the group met for meals, trips to Columbia, and hospitality stops. Our club left Sonora with some special memories: the STAUFFERS' Friday night SOLO Badges, the MENSISK'S at the clothing concession frantically looking for left-at-home necessities, the RYANS with their Deguarrean-type pictures the ASMUNDSEN'S flea market treasurers, the BEAUBIAN'S locking their keys in their van, and GENE CEXTON'S seat of honor, on Friday night. I'm sure everyone is looking forward to our next adventure since this was such a huge success. A definite highlight to April was the return of RUTH & CHUCK PENNY to class. CHUCK has been feeling under the weather and was unable to dance for six months. WELCOME BACK! Still waiting for the return of JACQUE & DUDIE WARD who are anxiously waiting for a doctor's release. We sure do miss them.

TEEN TWIRLERS... The club, at the beginning of May put on an exhibition for the Senior Citizens who enjoyed it very much; our caller for that night was ELMER RADCLIFFE, the members who attended were: PENNI & KEITH HUTCHINSON, TAMYE & FRED ENGELHARDT, HOWARD RADCLIFFE, DAWN NELSON, EVE WELLS, SANDY MASON, KIM REINEKE, DAVID & SHARON GOURLEY, CHARLES RAWLINSOIN, JOEY BRENZEL, LINDA HAMBERGER, SCOTT THOMPSON and MIKE VARGAS. The senior citizens enjoyed it and we had a fun time also. We also attended the Silver State Festival in Reno DIABLO DOPPERS ... Congratulations and best wishes to our new officers: Pres., CARL KINNARD; V. Pres., JOE LIEBER; Treas., JOHN MUSSEY; Secty., DOROTHY DEGGAR and Refreshments, MAURINE BONNEY. TED & LAUREN BROWN are vacationing in Europe. We are welcoming our refresher class to Wednesday nights and dancing with our club. Our caller DREW ANDERSON resigned so we are auditioning callers. A real fun time was had by all at the Silver State Festival in Reno and the Golden State Round Up in Oakland.

SHELL SWINGERS ... At our gala graduation we welcomed new members ARCH & MARGE ARMFIELD, STEVE & MARIE HUCKABY, DICK & JO RICHARDSON, TONY & JANET SULLIVAN and CARROLL TANNER into the club and wish to introduce them to the square dance community. May became a traveling month with a Mystery Trip, Festival, Stampede, Round Up, and Hoedowns. Our bus driver and club member FRED CLINGINGSMITH drove a full bus of SHELL SWINGERS and DO-C-DO'S on a Mystery Trip to dance to BILL PETERS calls at the ADOBE SQUARES in Petaluma. Ten club members traveled to Reno for the Silver State Festival, many attended the Golden State Round-Up and Shirley Elliott danced with the KNIGHTS & LADIES in Fremont. The 5th Saturday Stampede and DO-C-DO'S Anniversary hoedown had two squares of club members. We are waiting as this goes to press for BUD & MATE WEISER to join us again on Monday nights and share with us their experiences while touring Israel. Fourteen out-to-lunch ladies chose Rumsey's, a new restaurant in Martinez for their May luncheon. Elected as Association Delegates are GENE & LENNIE MASON and as Association Alternates, DON & SHIRLEY ELIOTT.

SUN VALLEY SQUARES had a really big celebration on May 10th for graduation of 4 squares into our club, with games, food, and a thrilling exhibition by DIABLO MTN. CLOGGERS. Cameras were clicking to capture those lovely "ladies" in some squares who had their partners - and everyone else - doubled up. Some frantic stitching preceded the tumout of 25 couples in black and gold club dresses at the Silver State Festival for round-the-clock activity, not all of it profitable. We are under new management with election of new officers this month: Pres., SANDY & GARY FRYER; V. Pres., BETTY & JIM RYAN; Treas., VIVIAN & CLYDE TOWER; Secty., BETTY & JOHN KILGORE; Sheriff, RON HAYMAN. For our outgoing officers - a very big huzzah for a super job.

HUFFS 'N PUFFS... Your Associate Editor and husband, Dick, arrived home on May 21 to find that their home had been burglarized. It was as though a hurricane had hit every room! Our losses as near as can be determined to date totaled over $38,000. We have learned through the Sheriff's Department that the burglars had been in our house for three nights before we arrived. If you don't have a burglar alarm system, please, we implore you, get one now, before this nightmare may happen to you... My apologies to HUFFS 'N PUFFS for not getting your club news written for this issue... A very warm welcome to all our graduated beginners. It's great having you nice people as members in our club. Keep smiling, and keep on dancing! Many thanks to EULA & MARK WALKER, and our square dancing friends for their kindness and concern over our recent ordeal... Words cannot fully express our appreciation - bless you all.

MARIN MAVERICKS had a busy month. Our beginners graduated and their happy occasion was shared by the intermediates at a party. While all passed with flying colors, one must admit that dancing while blindfolded is a serious disadvantage. Our club hosted a newer dancers hoedown. Thanks to NEIL SCHWED and FRED MEYERS we were able to dance at the San Rafael Community Center - what a yummy floor! BUZZ KOPF handled the refreshments and decorations - such beautiful flowers! VICKI McDAID was our able prize chairman. Our special guests came all the way from the East Bay - the SPINNING WHEELS from Alameda. Of course, HUFFS & PUFFS won the most members present. 18 clubs were represented... Previously our caller, LON FERRELL, was a guest caller at Sacramento. Club members who attended were NEIL & JANE SCHWED, CAROL & AL HOWENSTEIN, PEGGY & DARRELL CRATER, OLLIE & JEAN BEALE, PAT & MARTHA SKINNER and HAL & HAZEL RIDER... Our graduates, BETTY & EK MAHL, JOE & VEE SAUNDERS and EDNA & DICK RAY attended NOVATO SQUARES hoedown on the 14th. Celebrating birthdays this month were ANDY & DIANE BAUMSTEIGER and LON FERRELL. JIM & ANIQUE WHITWORTH celebrated an anniversary.

MARIN SOLITAIRES ... The three "Introduction to Round Dancing" sessions taught by LON & JEAN FERRELL were such a huge success that they will continue them for two more Sundays. AL & JEAN LEVESQUE, KEN TRULSON, STEVE FLOOD and BARBARA PAYNE had a great time at the Silver State Festival in Reno. SOLITAIRES who attended the hoedown sponsored by MARIN MAVERICKS, with LON FERRELL calling, said it was a fun dance. We all wish PAM GILROY a speedy recovery from her operation. Come back soon we miss you.

STUMP JUMPERS of Novato... Lady luck was with PAT & TONY SEGURA at ADOBE SQUARES' dance in April. They were winners of a Black & Decker drill... The BURNES, SEGURAS and WROSCHS' enjoyed dancing at the Vallejo Stampede. ROWDY REELERS Teen Club is having their first hoedown. We wish them a successful dance. Our condolences to NOVATO SQUARES for the unfortunate luck of having their Anniversary dance fall on the same weekend as the Silver State Festival in Reno... We are glad BILL ALMEIDA and JIM HALLSTROM have recuperated and are dancing with us again. It is also good to see ADRIAN McNEAL looking so healthy and kicking up his heels at workshops... Sixteen couples had a marvelous time in Reno for the Silver State Festival... Thanks to RALPH THOMAS for filling in at our workshop while DAVE was in Hawaii... Welcomed as guests this month were DOROTHY & BILL ALLEN, MICKEY & BEN PIDCOCK, LOUELLA KNOTTS and BERT KNUZLER... STUMP JUMPERS will be sporting new window stickers; be on the watch for them... Happy birthday to BILL MANGES and CAROLYN WHITAKER. Anniversary wishes to ELLY & AL ANGULO, PAT & TONY SEGURA, SHARON & RICH SMITH-ALLEN.

NOVATO SQUARES have been a traveling caravan this month visiting many clubs. A lovely time was had by all who attended MARIN SOLITAIRES first hoedown with LON FERRELL calling. This is an active new club... Our 24th Anniversary was called by BARRY MEDFORD and 25 squares danced the night away. We had a lovely dance even if we were in competition with Reno. Nine couples went to represent us there. May 15th two squares danced at a private club as a promotional thing as well as entertainment and then were treated to a spaghetti dinner. HELEN & AL BAKER hosted a pre-party for the club May 21st, then dinner at Happy Steak and on to CORNHUSKERS' dance called by DICK HOULTON. NOVATO SQUARES and BUZZIN' BOOTS tied in attendance for the coffee. On our ailing list is LEROY JONES who was in the hospital for two weeks but is home and doing great. SHIRLEY VARGAS is still not feeling tip top. Our first lady, LOUISE GATES had a bug and missed the fun breakfast. We are truly sorry and miss these dear people in the squares... Happy 25th Anniversary to MABLE & BILL McCALLISTER! Their son and daughter surprised them by bringing a beautiful cake and sharing this lovely occasion with their friends. Also congratulations are in order for LEE & BILL LARSON and JEANETTE & JOHN SANCHEZ who are celebrating anniversaries... Three cheers to JACKIE COLE who has recently graduated from Indian Valley College. We are very proud of you, JACKIE... Bouquets to AUDREY & CHUCK MATHIS who so graciously offered their home for our G in Fizz breakfast when the previous plans to hold it at Parkhaven were canceled at the last minute. Loving thanks to ALVA & ERNIE FINGERLOS who were chairman for this annual event and managed as if they ordered and fed sixty people every day. Their very capable helpers were DOROTHY & ED DEARDURFF and FAYE & TED REID who served the fizzes. GATES, LARSONS, MONTGOMERYS and NELSONS were the cooks. After this they journeyed to the BAYLES' home and danced to the calling of HARRY WHITLOCK all afternoon.

MILLWHEELERS were delighted to welcome the 49'ERS on the 5th Thursday. It was a three-caller evening for us with BILL CASTNER and GEORGE KNOX joining our JIM MORK to provide real variety for our dancing pleasure. All the ladies of our club brought their favorite homemade cookies and we have some super bakers, the only problem with such variety was making decisions, they were all so good. We enjoyed having the 49ERS and hope they become regular visitors...Several couples traveled to Reno for the Silver State Festival. NOLAN WILSON and partner TERRY THOMAS reported having a great time...We had a good turnout for CORNHUSKERS' dance with DICK HOULTON. DICK is a really "big" favorite of MILL WHEELERS. DOTTY & JOE MURPHY and SUZIE & KEN WEBB spent the afternoon with DARLENE & DICK showing them all the wonderful sights of the Bay Area. They rode the ferry, had cocktails at the Hiatt Regency and climaxed the day with dinner at Sabellas in Tiburon. Then on to the dance for an evening of warm hospitality which the CORNHUSKERS can always be counted on to provide...Our flying square dancers, JOYCE WELLS is busy plotting her flight plan for the annual Powder Puff Derby. We all wish you well... We are anxiously looking forward to the Golden State Round Up over the Memorial Day weekend ... MAY O'SULLIVAN was able to return to dancing, with a cast on her hand, after surgery on her hand and arm. Good to have you back, MAY. We have to keep a close eye on JOHN RETTER to see he follows doctor's orders and sticks to round dancing for a while following surgery. He tends to slip into a square now and then.

Office manager to computer salesman: "I'll buy one. And I want you to deliver it in the middle of the coffee break."

Big Valley Ass'n. Tom & Maybelle Pope

May is a month long to be remembered by many wonderful people who took time out to be thoughtful and kind to send get well cards, visit sick friends and phone other clubs to make you feel good and wanted. Don't fail to make a happy day - get in a square and visit all the dancers with something called friendship...May 9...MAYBELLE attended many get-togethers and there is the good side that many should get involved in - sober people concerned about your corner with do unto others...May 8th Mother's Day, we are sure, carnations and caring because we all had a mother, right! For the many orphans this is a beautiful insight to people who care...May 13 & 14... Visited CHECKERBOARD SQUARES and watched the Durham Parade and Picnic with all family acquaintances returning to visit early friends and relations...May 15 PINEBROOK SQUARES have a fine club and doing fine with four squares - many will come to September Festival in Stockton, Sept. 17, and 18 ... May 18, spread sunshine down Ceres way and Turlock, Main Street Mall, sidewalk displays and Merchants...May 23 Growers Hall with everyone showing interest and caring to be back to meet new dancers. May 26 DICK HOULTON has the greatest patience and ability to call a wonderful workshop...May 27, San Mateo open workshop is always well attended with AL & EMMA BUONCRISTIANI, Rounds and DICK HOULTON calling for smooth and stylish dancing.

CALLERS CHOICE...May 28th Memorial Day traffic was quite heavy going to lakes and mountain resorts and many to see their families; however, there were quite a few who came to Oakland Auditorium for the Golden State Round-Up Convention with a great gathering of friends and well wishers: exhibitions, photos, exhibitions and the grand march - look for the photos soon in this magazine; the PROCTERS (CHARLIE & BETTYE) Twelfth Street Rag - what a chase; STARDETTES and SQUARENADERS really put the crowd on their feet; with a great ovation to all participants.

CLODHOOPPERS of Belmont had 12 couples representing them at Reno this year and from all accounts, joy reigned unconfined. We didn't heartoo much from the "winners" but judging from reports, there weren't any losers either—except for one, who lost his clothes somewhere in the hotel and found himself streaking for cover! Is everything under control now, Silver Streaker Bill? It was nice to see so many of our East Bay friends again at the Oakland Auditorium this year. HARRY & DOROTHY WATEKS did their usual excellent job arranging the breakfast down to the last detail...Have a happy summer.

HIGHLAND SWINGERS San Carlos supported the Caller Graduation Hoedown on April 24 when our President, JAY ERWIN, and another club member BOB VONGLUCK (Mr. Roberts) officially became Callers. Congratulations JAY and BOB, you're both good...BOB & DORIS NADLER gave a nice party after the Stampede at C.S.M...IRENE WILLADSEN'S niece put on a square dance clothes fashion show at IKENE'S home May 1st. Many lovely things were displayed and modeled...May was a busy month for us and our caller, HAROLD DAVISON, who put on six exhibitions: May 6th at the Villa Charier; May 7th at the Lutheran Church on Woodside Road; May 20th for the Masonic Lodge at San Carlos High School and the 21st there was street dancing in San Carlos in the afternoon and later at the Garfield School. May 22nd two squares danced at the Concourse in Hillsborough...Our graduation Party was the 17th and the program planned by PATTY JENSEN, TOM PUTNAM, JUNE & IRV TERZICH, DORIS NADLER, and of course, our first lady, PAT ERWIN, was a lot of fun for everyone. JOYCE & BOB TOTTEN who just became grandparents for the first time, were in charge of refreshments. The following weekend they flew up to Oregon to see the new baby. Congratulations JOYCE & BOB.

WHIRL-A-WAYS of So. San Francisco extend their sincere thanks to all the club members who participated in our recent Newer Dancers Training Program, especially to GLORIA & BILL HAYWARD and KEN & AUDREY SCHROLL who coordinated the program. A great deal of personal time went into making the program a success and a tremendous success it was...Thanks have to go to KAY & FORREST RICHARDS during our April hoedown as they averted a disaster by extending the prerounds to more than an hour due to the unfortunate delay of our featured caller. Our guests prove the fact that square dancers are the nicest people in the world by taking this delay in stride... The Nevada Festival and California Round Up are now behind us but no time to relax because summer is dead ahead, hopefully we'll make the time to relax our feet and refurbish our pocketbooks.

TWO BY FOURS of Burlingame...As mid-summer approaches we look back at an active spring. GEORGE DREIER called at the Silver State Festival supported by seven club couples. Plans for the caravan to Edmonton were advanced at a meeting at the home of President BRUCE ROUDABUSH on May 19th. On May 25th GEORGE & ANNE DREIER graduated a fine class of strong dancers to swell the club ranks. GEORGE called for the opening of the Golden State Round Up and helped to coordinate activities on the 28th while 48 club members joined him at Oscars in Oakland for a Trail Dance dinner. Special thanks are due to LARKY & LAVONNE INGENTHORN for making all the dinner arrangements. On June 7th we held new member initiation ceremonies with a potluck dinner and dancing; June 11th we had a hoedown featuring DON SHOTWELL and JACK & DOROTHY WRIGHT; and on June 18th enjoyed a picnic at Currie Camp. Our District 10 Delegates, GEORGE & JAN NIELSEN, announced that BUD & ALICE BERNARD, Jr. Past Presidents, have accepted the position of Alternate Delegates to the NCSDA'S effective June 1. We have been invited to dance at the San Mateo County Fair on July 26th. We hope to see all of you at our August 6 hoedown featuring PAUL HARRIS and GEORGE DREIER calling and AL & EMMA BUONCRISTIANI on the rounds.

MUSIC SQUARES of San Francisco thank the many visitors who come and enjoy workshops with us. The Senior Activities during daylight hours are truly becoming active and adding new figures to their repertoire, each week - more power to them...Urban

School of San Francisco have just added a course of square dancing to their P.E. Program which JOE has enjoyed teaching - some difference between Seniors and Teenagers but there's always a place for all square dancers ... Somehow in our busy schedules we have found time for at least a square plus to spend part of their precious Sunday afternoons visiting and dancing for the shut-ins at Sheffield and Hayes Convalescent Hospitals this month - we thank you all from the bottom of our hearts. See you all at our next Potluck Sunday. Lakeshore School, July 10, 2-5:30.

RANCHEROS of Redwood City ... Square dancers in wheelchairs? Yes! And done very nicely, too, according to the report of ARLAN & DONNA WIGHT on their return from the Silver State Festival. Many club members enjoyed a dinner arranged by GLADYS BLAND with District 10 Directors and caller LARRY JACK preceding the NCSDA hoedown at San Mateo College... Something new and different for us will be sponsorship of a summer hoedown at San Carlos High School on July 16 with caller JERRY SCHATZER from Connecticut. A Minnesota upbringing is the common heritage of CARL & DORIS STEINHOLM and MONTY & MICKI PEHRSON. DORIS paid a visit back home to Minneapolis last month and the PEHRSONS are headed there shortly ...DON & HARRIET LOCKMAN report on an enjoyable camper outing to Sonora with several other club couples including a week end of square dancing at the fairgrounds.

ISLAND SQUARES had twelve couples who thoroughly enjoyed the Silver State Festival in Reno. At this time our beginners are looking forward to graduation. This will take place on June 10 at the Foster City Recreation Center. We will graduate ten couples and three singles. It will also be amateur night, giving all our budding callers their chance. GENE ALLSOP will organize the callers. A real celebration will follow our graduation. New officer nominations are as follows: MEL & KATIE HORNE Captain; GENE & ARLENE ALLSOP, First Mate; ROBBIE & JEANNETTE ROBINSON, Purser; JOHN & KATIE CHRISTIANSEN, Yeoman. Installation has been planned for June 24 at Bowditch Middle School. A potluck dinner will precede our installation ... Many of us are looking forward to attending the Golden State on May 30 in Oakland ... The NOLANDS left our May 20 dance early to make sure they made their May 21 departure for Hawaii. MARTHA & BILL will vacation in both Oahu and Vancouver before returning. TOM PEARL attended square dances while his wife, DOROTHY, was visiting with her parents in Bellaire, Ohio. DOROTHY returned to help following her father's surgery...EVELYN COIRO has been experiencing a rough bout of flu. This means NICK, who is now Purser, ends up a lone collector.

KALICO KATS want to thank all of you that attended our "Charlie Brown" hoedown on May 21st. We all had a good time because you were with us. Starting June 24th we will be in our summer location, Clarendon School on 7th Avenue in San Francisco. Do come and join us. We would like to welcome our new members FRANK & ELEANOR MILLER. A get well to CHUCK NEIGHBOR and ERNIE RUFF. We miss you both ... Our travelers last month were PAT & BERNICE SMITH. They couldn't make up their minds where to leave their money so they visited North and South Tahoe. JOE & LAURA LIVRAMENTO went to Reno and paid their dues. Our beginners also traveled about attending JOEL KADISH and DAVE STEVENS' beginners hoedowns. Our favorite commuters the MORRESSETTES car broke down on Highway 24 and had to hoof it for help.

CAPER CUTTERS...As we are approaching summer, already we learn of the many trips that are in the offing, or so it seems. Our President with his wife, the CORDINIS, are on an extended tour of the Orient; what beautiful sights we shall hear about on their return. Another beautiful trip, our Round Dance Teachers, KEN CROFT and ELENA DeZORDO are going to Japan to teach the folks there Round Dancing for 3 weeks, that certainly is exciting. DAVE & MARGARET COSTELLO will be on their way to Colorado, DAVID making a stop at the Air Port Academy; and our own KEITH GYLFE & TANYA intend to look over Reno with high thoughts. Some have returned: ALBERT & IDA KRAUSE attended the Rhododendron Festival at Eureka, and while in that vicinity stopped over in Oroville for the Golden Festival and also stopped over at Willow Creek and Anderson - and at each place were able to locate a place to square dance - a great trip. AL & FRANCES MENDOZA drove to Novato and danced to caller BARRY MEDFORD. A number of our members had gone to Reno and witnessed a snow storm - some were lucky and some ?? Our Outside Events chairman, FERN, had plans for an outing for the group, but it was necessary to change the date, but being good waiters, we shall wait.

MAINLINER STARDUSTERS - three squares danced for United Airlines employees' open house early Sunday morning. Some of the girls were late arriving, they got lost in the men's locker room. Afterwards all enjoyed brunch at the Hyatt House. Four squares danced again for United Airlines at their dinner. Hope we get some new dancers for the fall. May was also graduation month, two squares were put through their paces by dancing with mops and sacks over their heads. Among the guests were BUTCH & THULA, BUTCH being his normal stoic self. Thanks to ARINE & IDA who cooked the delicious dinner for the crowd. Welcome to BILL HAMIL who joined the club this month. Reno, here we come!

CABLE CARS wish to thank the REBELS for allowing us to join them on the 1st Wednesday when we were blacked out. We enjoyed dancing with them and we know they were pleased that we brought our fine caller, JIM WYLIE, to join in on the calling. Our party night this month will be a very special one. On that night, our KITTIE KAR beginner class will graduate. In recognition of their graduation, the CLOVERLEAFS have invited our club to join them on their party night. Pres., OSCAR DESCILO and ROSE making final preparations for hosting all Wednesday night clubs this month. Best of get well wishes to our loyal and faithful secretary, ENID ZIEGLER... Ex-Pres., VIRGINIA ROUCHE is very proud of her intelligent pet rabbit. She is even thinking about starting him in our next beginner class.

ROADRUNNERS of San Mateo...welcomed new couple with a delicious potluck dinner of home made casseroles, salads, breads, cakes and coffee. Joining and re-joining our group, in some cases, were: JOE & COOKIE MONTALTO, JOHN & MARY JOHANSEN, CRIS MYERS and BERNICE HENSON, DORIS & PAUL O'DELL, CARL & MARIE RUETZ, JEAN & HAROLD OVER-

BY, and MAKIE & MILT CAVALLI. Many thanks to all who helped and a hearty welcome to our newcomers. Thanks also to those of you who joined with us for our May hoedown at San Carlos High School. Its success was attributed to the first Bay Area appearance of caller DALE LEWIS whose style and excellent singing voice made dancing a delight. Many congratulations and good luck to DARCY PERUCH upon her graduation from San Francisco State. New officers will have been installed by the time you have received this issue, and since CLARENCE RAMER will be taking over by fireside chats, this is "30" for VEDA.

DUDES 'N' DARLINS of San Carlos welcomed into the club 11 new members at graduation in May. A potluck dinner opened the evening's activities which were climaxed by a very meaningful graduation ceremony conducted by caller BOB SHERWOOD. Diplomas and badges were awarded to each graduate. Cake and coffee followed, along with laughter, fun and more dancing for all...Earlier in May, one square performed the opening act of the Miss San Carlos Pageant...The Round-Up was great! Those of us who attended really enjoyed the dancing program. Prior to the Saturday evening event, several couples met for dinner at the Rusty Pelican in Alameda. Always enjoy a good dinner when shared with fellow dancers. Thanks to all who helped make our Anniversary hoedown a success. Glad you could come celebrate our 4th year with us...Looking forward now to dancing at the San Mateo County Fair in July and to our annual family picnic later this summer.

SUNSET TEENS...held their second annual roller skating - square dancing night on May 16. The first such event was held in November of 1976 and was a huge success. Because of this the TEENS decided to stage this event early in '77. The evening was presided over by club president, DEBBIE KNUTSON, club caller, JIM RODRIGUE, got everybody acquainted with a round of roller-BINGO. The roller dancers were allowed to brush-up on their roller skating before being put through the round of BINGO on skates. In fact, the roller rink was open from 7 to 9:15 for lots of plain ole roller skating. Everyone was invited, even non-square dancers. After a tip on roller skates called by JIM RODRIGUE, club caller, the SUNSET TEENS held a mini-hoe-down. Guest callers included BOB BAUMGARDNER from the LONG RANGERS and KEN BROWN from the SUPERSTARS. JEFF FRENTZ and LEONARD PEOPLES who are aspiring club callers, also called a tip each - there was a lot of fun to be had at this roller-dancing get-together and the Teens promise more of them.

GINGHAM SQUARES of Millbrae...had 21 models (club members) present fashions from absolutely stunning, to those guaranteed to get the wearer on the worst dressed list. Each model carried a long stemmed carnation which she presented to a member of the beginner class. Welcome to the newest GINGHAM SQUARES - CLANCY & GLADYS STEINHOFF. The club and their GINGETTES joined forces for a barbecue with super food, lots of the juice of the grape and inspired dancing. Summer plans also include a club picnic at Huddart Park. Vacations, graduations, and weddings have kept many members busy when they are not enjoying their leisure hours of square dancing.

SQUARE CUTTERS - San Francisco - DON SHOTWELL'S birthday was the perfect excuse for a second party night in May. There was a delicious cake, singing and, of course square dancing. Many of our members were part of the large crowd at the 5th Saturday dance at the College of San Mateo. Great to see so many dancers enjoying a very successful affair. President RAY THOMAS and his MARY attended the Silver State in Reno. DOC & EVELYN KOCH also made their annual trip to the "Biggest Little City" for the weekend. The MIHALYS reported BEACH-NUTS' hoedown was well attended and the refreshments excellent. Did you know SAM MIHALY is into tennis in a big way! Sorry to learn PHYLLIS WAGGONER is having more problems. Hope to see her in good health and dancing soon. DON SHOTWELL has been making our workshops interesting for visitors and members, teaching new calls and reviewing the basics. AL & EMMA BUONCRISTIANI cue the rounds on the 2nd and 4th Thursdays.

CLOVERLEAFS of San Francisco...As usual the club is not letting any grass grow under their feet...happy dancing was reported by those that attended the Reno bash in May and our new banner was proudly displayed. Our club was well represented at the Oakland Round-Up which we all enjoyed...BILL

& CLAIRE FISCHER are planning a trip to Alaska via five different modes of transportation ... HELEN RAZURA is back dancing after her recent surgery. We are sorry to report that we are losing MARGARET LUNDBORGH to the Seattle area, where she is moving to be near her family - and RALPH SHEEHAN will be doing some extensive traveling. Good luck to both of them, we will miss them. The HURLEYS spent some time in the Tahoe area recently. We hosted CABLE CARS in June and enjoyed meeting some of their new graduates. Our Special Events gal, ANN HARDMAN, is working on plans for a dinner dance for us in the near future.

LONGHORNS...The Round-up lured many club members, but all were ready to dance again on May 31st and compare notes on a super weekend...One evening recently we squared up for the folks at Sharon Heights Convalescent Hospital, who really know how to make us feel appreciated. TRES WHITE'S enthusiasm for golf and the instruction available at the junior colleges has rubbed off on MABEL BONES and DOT-TIE & HERMAN SCHLAPFER, who declare they're thoroughly enjoying this new type of frustration. LARRY & JUDI RASMUSSEN couldn't hold out any longer, now have a trailer and are joining friends in dancing excursions...Our beginners danced beautifully, in spite of overeating along with the rest of us at our June potluck. Bouquets again to CLAIRE & DAN URRERE and DON & GLADYS BUSH who put it all together. Recent visitor was BEV FRY'S mom, down from Spokane for Mother's Day and sight-seeing plus checking out the square dance activity in this area. NANCY & GUY HOFFMAN backpacked in the Sierra which according to them, triggered the snow and rains of May. We'd better send them in January next year. Home from Kansas with a gold medallion memento of her high school's 50th reunion was ALFREDA PARSONS. Other travelers were the STOREYS, to Omaha for DORIS' class reunion; the WHITES who completed their presidential year with a trip to Albuquerque and the southwest; and MABEL BONES who left GEORGE at home and spent most of a month in England visiting his relatives. Our hero award of the month goes to TRES WHITE who came to the assistance of a policeman trying to wrest a gun from a suspect. LONGHORNS make us proud of them in many different ways.

KEEWAY SWINGERS ... Began May on a very proud note with the graduation of our beginners class. Congratulations class of '77, welcome to KEEWAY SWINGERS. 32 couples caravanned to the Silver State Festival in Reno, stopping for breakfast at the Nut Tree and Black Oak. The CB Chatter' kept the communications alive and shortened the otherwise long trip. The calling and dancing was great. However, the Reno nights are too short. We had to go home to get rested. Saturday night included the grand parade and an after party in BILL & BETTY GILLS' room. We had a big turnout at the Golden State Round-Up as usual. We had eight couples camp out in the camping area. They enjoyed a potluck dinner Saturday night. Besides all the Round-Up's we attended the BOOTS 'N SLIPPERS; BARRY MEDFORD; The KNIGHTS & LADIES; THE GHOST RIDERS and BRAD BRADFORD.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS ... Five couples enjoyed the week of May 21 in Santa Rosa. The parade was great and dancing to the IVERSONS and NELSON WATKINS was really a night to remember... ED & BETTY FERRARIO are to be congratulated for the fine job and hard work in the exhibition put on by the STARDETTES... Two additional couples have joined our club, WALTER & PEARL TAIT and DAN & FERN DUGGAN. Welcome ... WILL & LORI BERNARD and PHIL & LU SOHN hosted a fantastic get-together Saturday night, May 28, for all the club members who could attend. Wow! Wall-to-wall people enjoyed every cracker they dipped ... What a way to wind up the 24th annual Golden State Round-Up.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS ... Welcome back, DAVE & MARY HOBBS from a vacation in Mexico. Three couples of TWIRLERS attended a recent hoedown, captured three prizes. How is that for percentage? MARY NESTER is nursing a brokentoe, a freak accident in a super market. CHUCK & TUF-FET SHARP have moved into a new mobile home. It's good to see JOHN P. in our midst again.

SQUARE CIRCLE CLUB... What a great time we all had at our beginners graduation held at the Sunol Golf and Country Club on May 14th. Our President, MAY & CHARLES WILKINS received a beautiful casserole dish in a silver tray. Club caller JOHN & JEAN FRERICHMANN received a barometer for their boat. It was a well deserved token of appreciation from all the beginners. They did a fantastic job this past year. Hope to meet a lot of new people at the Round Up.

VALLEY TRAVELERS ... had a great time dancing in paper bags with brooms as partners at the graduation ceremony for our new dancers. We welcome the HICKMANS, PHILLIPS, PATTERSONS, CARLISLES, PAYNES, TERRYS, CORREAS, McNELYS, JORDERS, WILLS, JORGENSENS, ANASTASIA REPCHINUCK, KEN DAVIS, JUANITA LETTERMAN, DOROTHY McFARLANE and MARGE SILVA. We all adjourned to PAUL & JULIE'S for a little celebration after... 75 people! All gathered in one room! The next night went to the EAGLE SQUARES' graduation hoedown. A great time, NONIE MOGLIA was in great form as always. Our BURLIN DAVIS hoedown was a great success. We thank all who attended.

EDEN ROCKERS... Our party night in April turned out to be a very interesting evening trying to match us to our baby pictures, which was no easy task. THELMA DERBY was the most successful in matching up 7. Think it's easy? Try it sometime, it's fun! One of our members is to be commended on her success with her weight loss program in losing 65 pounds in a little over 6 months. We admire your perseverance PAT and know you will reach your goal. PEG & ED CONNELLY have returned from their two week Caribbean tour from all reports had a marvelous time. Some of our members attended KALICO KATS' hoedown in May, enjoyed dancing to our own CHARLEY BROWN.

HICKS & CHICKS... Since this is our first year as a member in the Association we are looking forward to the Round Up and expect a large turnout by our members. Also can't wait for another fantastic time at our annual club hayride and dance coming up in mid-July. Had a potluck on our May 24th party night which was a huge success. Our thanks to all who helped out.

KUNTRY KUZINS... We celebrated our 15th anniversary April 16 with our many friends.

It was such a joy seeing so much enthusiasm throughout the evening. There is more in the club than we realize until our amateur calling night; the gals did a great job as well as the fellows...A good turnout for the NCSDA Stampede held in Lafayette! Oh, what a great time we had! Rain didn't keep us away from BOOTS 'N SLIPPERS' 2nd Anniversary dance; this was listed as our "dance of the month"...Am sure RAY KIRZY can tell fellow motorcycle friends how important wearing a helmet is; he took quite a spill when a tire blew out while going around a curve on the highway (a car running over him didn't help matters either.) We are all wishing you a speedy recovery RAY!

COTTON PICKERS...Last month I reported ROY & PAT were back with us after ROY'S illness, however, ROY is retiring and he and PAT are moving East. We'll miss you both! Our workshop continues to grow... DREW'S calling remains outstanding and our dancers are enjoying learning the newer calls. Election of new officers will open the month of June, while a mystery trip will close the month with much fun. Our anniversary hoedown will be coming up in August...We are all working hard to make it an outstanding dance. DREW will be calling, so plan to attend and enjoy yourself.

BERKELEY CLUB SINGLES...Are celebrating the success of our recent changes. The regular club group moved to Wednesday nights and dancing mainstream plus level with caller, RON HAGGERTY. RON is also calling the Rounds and the group really bubbles with enthusiasm and fun. Our Tuesday night venture has also proved to be very successful. On the first night of our new beginners' class eight squares showed up to dance with MIKE LUNA. MIKE is an excellent teacher and has some fine candidates to work with. Some of our old members couldn't make the move with us to Wednesday nights. We miss you and hope you all can come and dance with us sometime.

BAYWOOD PROMENAIRES...have a nominating committee busy lining up a new slate of officers for our club. A joint meeting of the old and new board is scheduled for 6/5. Club members going on the Reno-Sparks weekend trip will be leaving Oakland May 21. We wish all of them good luck at the Casinos. PROMENAIRES are looking forward to May 31 when we will be guests of RANCHO SQUARES in Hayward. It should be an evening of great dancing and the start of new friendships. We will be going to OSCARS' Restaurant for dinner prior to attending the Round Up.

ACES & LACES...April and May have been busy months. Started off April with welcoming two couples to our club, MARVIN & CAROL WAAGE and BILL & ROSALYN MARTENS. Twelve couples attended the State Convention in Sacramento. A good time was had by all. We had our annual Dime-A-Spoon Dinner and it was a great success, thanks to DONNA STOVER and RUTH GERMUNDSEN. At our Fashion Show, FRANK & LANA PERRY won, and will represent us in the Fashion Show at the Golden State Round-Up, with a beautiful dress, purse, shirt and tie created by our LANA. Sorry to report that RICHARD JEFFERIS had a severe heart attack, and happy to report he is now doing nicely. New officers installed in May: Pres., JIM SMITH; V. Pres., JERRY ANDERSON; Secty., CAROL WAAGE; Treas., FRANK PERRY. Several couples went to the Silver State in Reno, had fun, but came home with empty pockets. Our JOHNNY BARBOUR hoedown in May was enjoyed by all, thank you square dancers for coming... BE SURE TO USE NEW ADDRESS WHEN WRITING -- POST OFFICE WILL NO LONG FORWARD MAIL.

CHECKMATES were proud to have our caller ROD BERTLSHOFFER attend the National Callerlab meeting. CHARLIE WOLFF called for us the Monday he was away. ROD attended a workshop on calling Contras while there, and called one for us as part of his report on Callerlab. We've also danced Progressive Squares several times recently. GENE DYER missed a couple of weeks of dancing due to illness, but he's making up for lost time. GENE & BARBARA LEWIS have announced they are going to be moving to the Tahoe area, and they will be missed by all of us. New officers to be taking over in July are: HUGH COLLETT, KEVIN PEKOWSKY, IVY MACIOLEK, MILLIE CLAYTON, DICK AMOS, FRANK BANKSON and CHARLIE WOLFF. BARNEY MACIOLEK will continue as Dog Catcher, er, I mean Sheriff. Did you see us at the Round-Up in our new navy and white seersucker plaid outfits with eyelet trim? Our dress committee was headed by LEE PEREZ.

FARMERS & FARMERETTES... Another busy month for our club featuring some great dancing at Reno, the Rose Festival in Santa Rosa, the Golden State Round Up and our own OPGAJTFOI Hoedown. However, the highlight of the month was the graduation of this year's beginner class. Congratulations and welcome to our new graduates the BURGESS, FANCIS, HALLS, HARRIS', HORDS, HULS, RODRIGUES and MOSS', SHELTONS, SMITHS, VAUTIER, and VORBRICHS. Happy to have them all as members. Our thanks to SUSIE KADISH for her assistance and support, and to JOEL for his great teaching. To all the recent graduates we would like to extend our congratulations and a welcome to the wonderful world of square dancing.

STARS & BARS... We are pleased to announce our new slate of officers: Pres., HANS BARTOSEK; V. Pres., WILLIAM WENDLAND; Treas., BETTE STANLEY; Secty., LOIS KEATING; Delegates, TERRIL McCHESNEY; Alt. Del. STAN SCHREIBER; Publicity, DEAN PENKA; Sgt. at Arms, GENE ABRAHAMSON; Past Pres., LOUIS WARREN. Most of our members were present at the Round-Up and took part in the Grand March. It was a memorable occasion with guest callers, good sound, and spectacular exhibitions. It takes a year of hard work for the NCSDA to prepare for this event and we should all show appreciation in every way we can. We were proud to see our little sunshine girl, TONI LOCKE and brother PHIL standing in the line of winners of the square dance apparel contest - we are looking forward with great expectations to a new year of working under our new officers.

SWING ABOUTS ... Our new officers for 1977-78: Pres., GORDON & JANICE MOODY; Vice Pres., FRANCIS & PAT GEARHART; Secty., AL & EVELYN FERREL; Treas., BOB & HELEN OLARI; Publicity, FARNK & VENITA HAWKINS; Delegates, GENE & FAYE SCONYERS; Alt. Delegates, RALPH & RUTH LOCKHARD; Historians, KEITH & ROXANNE PYLE. Several couples went to the Oroville Festival in May. Great square dancing to BOB FFSK, fun skit and good eats plus an interesting conducted tour of the Oroville Dam. Everyone enjoyed the Round-Up. The Fashion Show was fun and FAYE & GENE SCONYERS were one of the four models chosen out of 46 entries to appear on Saturday night in their outfits. Congratulations.

EAGLE SQUARES... May was an interesting fun month. Six couples went to Silver State in Reno. A good weekend of dancing, but didn't win their fortune. We can hardly wait for next year for more dancing, winning, and strawberry shortcakes! 5/19, our newer dancers graduated, all 10 squares of them! They are all such sweet people - so they got to dance with a femon in their mouth. With the group, three exchange students graduated, one from Switzerland, and two from Sweden. We hope they go back with fond memories of square dancing and of our country. May 20, the newer dancers put on their own graduation hoedown. Boy, they did a tremendous job. There was a great turnout. A pick-up truck loaded with canned food was donated to the local emergency fund center. One dollar per person was the donation to this great hoedown. After the dance we went over and took over the new Straw Hat in town. It sure was a fun evening and morning!

MELODEE DANCERS ROUNDERS... Were delighted to have our instructors on the cover of the National Round Dancer Magazine, April issue! Congratulations again on your 18th Anniversary, JOHN & SHARI! Congratulations class!... Great JIM & taw EVELYN! Several couples attended triple Stampede in Lafayette to dance to JOHN and SHARI and MARLIN HULL... What a fantastic stampede and turnout! Best yet! thanks to all couples who came to Southern Hospitality dance, especially THELMA & RAY BAILEY from Sacramento and CHARLIE WOLFF and taw, DOROTHY; the RED HOTS' caller and all the other 17 clubs who were represented! Several of us went to VALLEY TRAVELERS to dance to BURLIN DAVIS with superb Rounds as always by JOHN & SHARI - See you all Round Dancing!

FREMONT SINGLES... At this writing, we are anxiously waiting our own Round-Up... We were well represented recently at the Silver State in Reno; the California Singles convention in Santa Maria, and also the California State in Sacramento

ODDS 'N' ENDS... May 13 many members traveled to Reno to attend the Silver State Festival with a little gambling and after-partying. We are now looking forward to our own Golden State Round Up at the Auditorium in Oakland. May 14 several of our dancers attended the MUSTANGS at Downer Jr. High with LEE HELSEL calling... Our travelers this past month are LEATA and BOB FISHER, and PEG & ED CONNELLY who are on a cruise to the Caribbean, with some square dancing enroute. We are happy to welcome as new members LEE GILES from San Francisco. It is good to have NORMA & LEE PERRY dancing with us again.

ALAMEDA WAGON WHEELERS ... May 7 our recent newly weds DIANE & EDDIE ANDREA held their wedding reception in Hayward. Many square dancers were there including our WAGON WHEELERS. So naturally squares were formed and the bride's son and a friend did the calling. Great ballroom dancing to the music of MEL ROCKWELL and his group. It was a wonderful party. The food was delicious and the liquid refreshments fantastic. We all wish much happiness for our bride and groom - happy days to you! NINA & CLIFF NEVINS have returned from Denver, Colorado where they attended the funeral of NINA'S aunt. We are all looking forward to the Golden State Round-Up with all its fun and glamour. On June 1st we are planning a potluck dinner to be followed by graduation. Ceremonies for the group just finishing their class. We as a club have been invited to participate in the Parade in Alameda on the 4th of July with a party after.

ROLLING SQUARES of San Pablo... Our thanks to CHUCK KEIST for filling in for DON when he was ill... Vacation time is upon us and Vice Pres., HAROLD & LEE SCHULTZ have returned from three weeks in Canada; reporting a super time... We didn't attend the Silver State in Reno this year, but were well represented at the Golden State Round-Up in registration, the DELBERT ROSS' doing the Breakfast Decorations; and EDITH NORRIS modeling her own black and white creation in the fashion show. HAYS & MARIE PIERCE, DEAN & JIM COWELL and FLO & SIBTONIX accompanied DON to Vallejo when he called for the DO C DO'S 25th Anniversary...

Birthday time for DON and all the members lots of cake and hot coffee... DON & BOB-BIE SHOTWELL are all smiles lately, their son MARTY is home on leave enroute to a new station in Germany (MARTY was a member of ROLLING SQUARES and the exhibition group STARDETTES) ... ROLLING SQUARES were saddened by the passing of a longtime member LILA VAN ROEKEL, she held the position of Treasurer for the club over five years.

FIVE STAR SQUARES... Travel was the name of the game this month for our club. One contingent, including club caller, DAVE HOBAUGH and his SANDY, danced their feet off and tested the one armed bandits at the Silver State Festival. The same weekend, HADLEY & WILMA THOMPSON, CARL & MERTIE QUARTERMAN, BOB & DOROTHY JOHNSTONE and JERRY, MARY LOU & JEFF LUNDEEN were in Oroville for the Golden Fiesta Days. They attended square and round dance workshops, enjoyed an all FIVE STAR potluck dinner on Saturday night, went on a sight seeing tour including the oldest Chinese Church in the area. The JOHNSTONES attended the Sunday Brunch and Fashion Show which consisted of lovely handmade fashions. Featured callers were MARV LINDNER and BOB FISK. The TRAVELIN' STARS were seen at the NCSDA Stampede with DAVE ABBOTT while others opted for the dance featuring MARLIN HULL ... Anniversaries of several varieties were celebrated in grand style! MOON CAFFO was honored as one of the five remaining Charter Members of the Italian Catholic Federation at the 50th Anniversary celebration. CAFFO was presented with an engraved silver tray. He doesn't show his age whatever it is! CLAUDE & HELEN RHINE have completed 45 years of wedded bliss and CHUCK & KATIE QUESNEL settled for 31 years of happiness! FIVE STARS danced with DOC DO'S at their 25th Anniversary dance along with the NOVATO SQUARES at their big 24th Anniversary hoedown.

CATCH ALL EIGHTS... We had a surprisingly large turnout at the Round-Up and the girls certainly were cute in their new club costumes. Everyone enjoyed themselves and took part in most of the events. RUBY NORTH was assigned to the emergency station as a nurse for a period of time. It brought back memories of her duties as a nurse with the U.S. Navy and with civilian hospitals. Other members served on the doors for periods of time. Most were glad to have the Round-Up back in Oakland and hoped it would be there more often. Our club is going through a growing cycle, and we hope the growth will continue. Up to a point, the larger the club the more the fun, and the more easily the caller can be paid adequately. You are welcome to drop by any Tuesday evening at our workshop and enjoy dancing to the expert calling of RON HAGGERTY.

BOOTS & BELLES of Napa wish to welcome the new dancers who graduated May 18. May they enjoy many years of fun and dancing. Several of the newer dancers traveled to Reno for the Silver State Festival and reported a great time. They are now looking forward to the Golden State Round-Up. A busy schedule is ahead for the club. A mystery trip is planned for June 18 and a hoedown with SCOTTY SCOTT on June 25. Wagonmaster, BOB EDWARDS, has hinted of plans for further travel to be announced later. And we are looking forward to the campout on Oct. 8, 9 and 10 to be held at Casini Ranch near Guerneville. Club caller, JIM GADBERRY and wife, CHRIS, will be attending so we are assured of some good calling. Also there is an excellent floor for dancing. Everyone is welcome. PEARL OGDEN is recovering from recent surgery and expects to be back dancing with us soon. RAY & BOOTS MILLER are proud grandparents of their first grandchild—a little girl born in May. The grandparents are recovering satisfactorily.

RANCHO WRANGLERS ... Although we haven't had news in for some time, the club is still around. On May 11 we were surprised with a visit from one of our former members, FREEMAN & ALINE DIETRICK. They moved to Lincoln, Calif. about two years ago and always drop in on us when they come to see their son. We have missed them and enjoy having them visit us. May 13 we danced for a church youth group at the Christ Lutheran Church in El Cerrito. We got them up to dance and they had a ball. They didn't know that square dancing was so much fun. The schools in our area will be closed for July and August so at the present time it hasn't been decided where we will be dancing. For information phone 415-234-7273.

MUSTANGS...Our thanks to all the club visitors who helped make our May hoedown a success. LEE HELSEL, as always, called a superb dance. Two squares enjoyed an exciting evening promoting square dancing - at the Cow Palace - a truly western evening, including a delicious barbecue with all the trimmings. BOB PAGE calling a demonstration dance to prospective dancers. Our special thanks to Delta Airlines for their hospitality - and we hope that Delta's clientele will be sufficiently inspired to take square dancing enmasse...Off on an extended vacation are VIVIAN & BURLEY BULLOCK - to England, Ireland and Scotland. We are looking forward to our July hoedown - with BARRY MEDFORD calling - hope to see you there.

KONOCTI KICKERS held their May 14th hoedown with a lively group present, made up of CLEARLAKE SQUARES, RENEGADES and visitors from Oakland and our own club dancers, with BERT SWERER as guest caller. We are so happy that VI ADAMS is out of the hospital and doing great and will be dancing again before long. The club was invited to put on an exhibition dance for the Fellowship Group at the Methodist Church. GLEN BYLUND called a lively dance and had the audience participate in simple figures. The group was impressed with square dancing and we may have new members soon.

THE RENEGADES enjoyed a good dance to the calling of VERN CHURCHILL on April 28th. A surprise wedding cake for JOE BREATTON and LOUISE TOWNLEY who were married on the 23rd of April. SPARKY SPARKS & LOUISE, with several couples from the RENEGADES went to WILLITS to a Newer Dancers' Hoedown with JOE SAUTEL calling. JERRY & QUENTON JACKS became grandparents, baby girl. HELEN & PETE PENICK were welcomed home after a 3 month vacation dancing in several states including the Alabama Jubilee. Lots of travelers this year. The COSTAS enjoyed a cruise to Mexico; PHYLLIS COX to British Columbia; MARGARET & PAUL ESCHENAUER to Mesa, Arizona; and the COURTNEYS are in London and thence to Egypt. May 12th SPARKY & LOUISE went fishing and the club enjoyed a workshop called by SCOT BYARS. PENICKS went to Oroville for the Golden Fiesta. One of the highlights of the month was the trip to Eureka to the Rhododendron Festival. Twelve rigs caravanned up and were joined by two others after arriving. The weekend was thoroughly enjoyed with dancing, hiking, potlucks, trip to Azalea Reserve and through Ferndale seeing all the well kept old buildings and then breakfast at the Samoa Cookhouse. In all there were between 35 and 40 from Lake County enjoying the weekend.

CLEARLAKE SQUARES had DON CAMP-TON from San Jose as guest caller for their hoedown in April. We had a wonderful crowd - lots of DON'S dancers came with him - lots of food and good dancing. So nice when a group can come and enjoy the weekend here. Our beginners class is going great and they are such an enthusiastic group. VIOLA ADAMS who has been ill for the last month is now recuperating. We graduated three great couples in our last class. Welcome BILL & ELAINE NORTH, AL & EILEEN NORTON, KATHY & RUSS SMITH. Some of the CLEARLAKE SQUARES were with the group from LAKE COUNTY enjoying the trip to Eureka. The SHAYS & ELLISONS also included in their outing some golfing.

SQUARENADERS - Our President & Taw, ART & PHYLLIS GIFFORD have been elected for a second term as President of our club along with Vice President, LOUIS & FLORA BORGES; Recording Secretary, for a 2nd term, TAK & MAY TOYOTA; Cor. Secty., for a 4th term, DICK & ETHEL TINGLEY; Treasurer for a 2nd term, LORRAINE MEADE and Cashier, for a 2nd term, RALPH & MARIE KIRBY. These are truly dedicated club members and we are proud to know them. Our members have traveled near and far to attend our area club's anniversary dances and party nights. We have won the coffee and various prizes for having the most members in attendance at the DING-A-LING'S 1st Anniversary; PEAT DUSTERS' 21st Anniversary; and Manteca

TRAILBLAZERS' 15th Anniversary. Our April party night with PAUL CAMERON as guest caller was well attended as was our May, 4th Saturday with BURLIN DAVIS as guest caller. Ten of our couples led by our wagon master, JOE & DOROTHY NORTON took their RVS to the Golden Fiesta at Oroville Municipal Auditorium. All enjoyed the calling of MARV LINDNER, BOB FISK and the round dance program by HORACE & BRENDA MILLS. A special bow, this month to our committee of the month chairpersons HERB & LORRAINE AHART and committee: WILL & PAT WINFREY and LLOYD & VERNADAMIN for a wonderful job of decorating the hall for our dances. The decorations made by BILL WINFREY are spectacular and we appreciate his donation of time and talent.

PEAT DUSTERS - Four teens and 24 adults graduated into the world of square dancing and seem very proud to wear their new badges and we are very happy to welcome them into our club. BILL & NANCY ULMER will be our President for a second term. 1st Vice Pres., RAY & CYNTHIA TAYLOR; 2nd Vice Pres., ROXY & JANICE CAERBERT; Secty., GALE SHORT; Treas. for a second term, ROY & DOROTHY NICKOLA were all installed recently. We had a terrific turnout at our 21st anniversary dance with 35 clubs represented. We are happy to report that BECKY POWERS is doing fine after recent surgery. Our friends, VITYLEK of the TRACY TUMBLEWEEDS is in the hospital. We wish her a speedy recovery. All the PEAT DUSTERS are pre-registered for the Cup of Gold Promenade for the 4th year. We are having our workshop every Thursday night and JOANNIE TROTTER will be cueing the rounds. Come dance with us for an evening of fun and friendship.

SWING DING DANDIES have elected new officers: Pres., CAL & JANE CRITCH - FIELD; Vice Pres., KEN & DOROTHY PANZ; Treas., DOUG & CAROLYN ANDERSON; Secty., DOROTHY WYNN. We are looking forward to great things for the coming year. BERNIECE ALLEN, DICK & JOY PRICE and DELOREA ADAMS attended the State Convention at Sacramento and were proud to hear our caller, GENE WELSH call the first tip after the grand march. The THOMPSONS, BRUNETTES, KITCHFIELDS, BARBARA KEECE, CARRIE WEALTY, KATHY LABARTHE and ROGER KOBINS all attended the PEAT DUSTERS' 21st Anniversary and enjoyed the calling of BILL DAVIS. We are still working hard to earn our Anniversary Badge. We had a good turnout at our Hard Times dance and had to look twice at EARL HAMILTON to recognize him. Wondered why he hadn't been shaving lately ... We all enjoyed BURLIN DAVIS' calling! The SIERRA SQUARES' Spring Fling was a lot of fun and quite a few SWING DING DANDIES turned out for those three days of dancing.

TURLOCK STEPPIN' PARDS - LEE & LOUISE STARLING received a money tree, a gorgeous apron for LEE and a beautifully wrapped box containing a set of hub caps that looked remarkably like the ones that were stolen off their car the day before at a recent house warming in their honor. We had a delicious Mexican potluck at our business meeting. CLYDE & MILDRED ELLSWORTH are visiting Oklahoma and celebrating their 1st Anniversary. HERB & CLARISE HOLTZ have returned home from a trip to Wisconsin. The PARDS are paying the rent on the hall for the first dance of the newly formed TEEN CLUB. We support these TEENS fullheartedly and hope they can get enough members to start a new class.

GOLDEN SQUARES - Our 7th Anniversary is now history and what a dance it was! BRAD BRADFORD was guest caller, LEONARD BLOWER called some contras and BETTYE WELSH cued the Rounds. It was a memorable evening and we thank all the dancers who made it the success that it was. DOROTHY DAVIDSON, IMOGENE Mc DANIEL, ANDY ANDERSON, and LEONARD & HELEN BLOWER attended the Silver State Jubilee and all reported having a very good time. LYLA MELLUM and RUTH YADOW are still not able to join us in dancing but are on the mend and will hopefully be dancing with us very soon. The WENDALL JOHNSONS took off for a six-week tour through the southern states and will visit their daughter who is attending Medical School in St. Louis. We will miss them, but hope they will have a safe journey.

ROMP 'N STOMPERS - Time flies by when you are on the go a lot, and our members have done a lot of traveling. By now, graduations are over and there are many new dancers joining in on the fun. Several of us traveled to the Y-NOTS' Mad Hatter's ball and on the same evening, several joined the ROCKING A's for a fun evening of visiting and dancing to the calling of BILL PATTERSON. Our Annual Dirty Bird dance was a huge success with more dirty tricks pulled on our caller, ROGER GOAD than ever before. This year along with the Dirty Bird Badges, JOHN STAEDLER made Penney Badges, these were sold out in a hurry. The weekend of the State Convention found our members going two ways, some to Sacramento and others to the PEAT DUSTERS' 21st Anniversary dance in Manteca. Madera has started a square dance club again, so a group of our members went to visit them recently. We would like to send special greetings to CHARLENE ARMSTRONG who had recent back surgery. The good news is that she is getting along fine and we hope to see her on the dance floor soon.

Y-NOTS - On April 2nd, we combined forces with FOOTHILL SWINGERS for a super party night. Our Madhatters Ball was just that - a parade of crazy, colorful, big, little, silly, ingenious, outlandish, and delightfully different hats. It was quite a sight to see! The judges faced a difficult decision trying to pick the most original hats from the 11 1/2 squares present, but they managed to come up with four prize winners. Speaking of prize winners, the homemade pies served at the dance were delicious. A few Y-NOTS enjoyed the State Convention in Sacramento and two squares of our members attended the PEAT DUSTERS' Anniversary. This was their 21st Anniversary and the Manteca Brick Hall was crowded with happy dancers, enjoying the calling of guest caller BILL DAVIS. We all know it takes a lot of effort to keep a club running smoothly. Aside from our hard working regular officers, we are fortunate to have quite a few members willing to contribute time and talent for the betterment of our club. STEVE & MERRY HENDLEY and SANDY STILES always see to it that the hall is beautifully decorated, which makes our party nights even more festive. We are looking forward to our June Triple Treat dance with co-hosts, ATWATER A'S and the CERES TWISTERS.

MANTECA TRAILBLAZERS are proud of our graduates who are really visiting area clubs. We had a good turnout of members attending a recent PEAT DUSTERS' party night with guest caller, ERNIE KINNEY and also at DRAGGIN' WAGONS' 1st Anniversary Dance with BOB HENDERSON calling and MARGE & VERN CARRIKER in charge of the round dance program. We had a nice crowd at our own recent party night with RON WELSH calling and MARGE & VERN on hand for the Rounds.

TWAIN HARTE TWIRLERS - Several of our members attended ROMP 'N STOMPERS' graduation dance, which was a lot of fun. April was a very busy month with some of us traveling up to Plymouth to dance to the great calling of JOE VALLERY and others traveling to the valley to attend Y-NOTS' and FOOTHILL SHUFFLERS' Madhatter's ball. Y-NOTS' caller, RAY STRICKLAND called a fun dance and ERLE WRIGHT was in charge of the round dance program. Our recent Sunday afternoon dance was most enjoyable, thanks to all the dancers who attended and the great calling of CASEY PARKER and Rounds by SHARON STRICKLAND. Several of our members also attended the SWING DING DANDIES' recent party dance with guest caller, BURLIN DAVIS. We will be attending the Cup of Gold Promenade. Hope to see you there.

San Jose & South Bay

GADABOUTS ... We want to congratulate the seven couples who graduated beginners class. They are KAREN & RON LECHNER, LEE & MARION MALROSE, DON & SHERRY PATON, SUSAN & SAM PORROVECCHIO, LYNDY & RICH POOLER, ELEANORE & SOL MILLER and LOIS & DORAN HILLE. The club welcomes you as new members. We are proud that you have become such good dancers ... Our new club officers have taken office. They are: Pres. BOB & JAN FLEGAL; V. Pres., HERB & NADEEN WEBB; Secty., MARSHA & WALDO IVIE; Treas., JACK & ETHEL TODD; Hospitality, DAVE & WANDA RECORD and DON & SHERRY PATON; Membership, KEN FAULKNER; Publicity, NORM & HELEN GARCIA; Delegates, RON & MARLENE PODANY and LEE & MARION MALROSE. Congratulations to the new board, and we thank the outgoing board for a terrific job. Eight couples went to the Silver State Festival in Reno. We had a great dinner Saturday night, lots of fun dancing and lots of merry-making after.

CALLERLAB

The International Association of Square Dance Callers

Pocono Pines, Pa. 18350
717-646-8411

CALLERLAB, the International Association of Square Dance Callers, recently completed its fourth International Convention. The major issue discussed by callers from all over the United States, Canada and several foreign countries dealt with the relationship of CALLERLAB to the National Square Dance Convention.

CALLERLAB shares the concern to improve major dance events and recognizes that many areas of running a convention do not lend themselves to simple solutions. A resolution was presented calling for the support of the concept of National Square Dance Conventions. This resolution was defeated.

WHAT THIS MEANS:

What it did do... Essentially it maintains the status quo. This still allows the individual CALLERLAB members to choose to go or not go, to support or not support individual National Square Dance Conventions. This enables CALLERLAB to devote greater energies to problems and concerns that are primarily of interest to callers.

What it did not do... It did not rule out future discussions between CALLERLAB and the National Executive Committee or between CALLERLAB and a sponsoring National Square Dance Convention group. CALLERLAB, as a body, will not take on the responsibility of programming at this time. It did not condemn the National Executive Committee or any sponsoring National Square Dance Convention.

CALLERLAB feels that solutions to problems are only brought about by analysis and discussion of those problems. The defeat of the resolution does not rule out the possibility of the governing body of CALLERLAB from setting up a committee to respond to specific requests from the National Executive Committee or a sponsoring National Square Dance Convention Committee.

For additional specific questions, please contact the CALLERLAB office. P.O. Box 679, Pocono Pines, PA 18350; Phone 717-646-8411.

salute to ROSALYNN CARTER

How do you go from a Georgia Peach
To be first Lady in the Land?
When you see and hear Rosalynn Carter
It's easy to understand.

She is friendly, vivacious, attractive;
So many qualities that appeal.
Lots of spunk and courage,
With zip and pep and zeal.

Rosalynn worked hard on the campaign trail,
But it was time well spent.
For Her sweet and loving ways
Helped Jimmy become President.

Americans relate to Jimmy and Rosalynn.
They are like "neighbors down the street."
Two People you love and cherish.
The kind you are glad to meet.

They are the pride and joy of square dancers.
It's the folk dance of our Land.
We hope They dance in the White House
And have fun to beat the band!

On the Barbara Walters T.V. Show;
When we looked into Rosalynn's eyes,
We saw why America is great,
Women- - knowledgeable, sincere and wise!

She's so proud of Their two Sons.
But, Her greatest thrill of all,
Was on that time ten years ago
When Amy came to call

We salute You Rosalynn Carter.
Our first Lady so kind and true.
A credit to Jimmy and our U.S.A.!
May God's love abide with YOU!
