CLUB NEWS

SAN FRANCISCO AREA

ROADRUNNERS ... All of us would like to thank Lynn & Archie for arranging such a great mystery trip which many of us enjoyed, with dinner at Le Camebert and dancing in Marin County. Welcome back Eleanore Shaner, and also welcome Doris and Lou to our group on Tuesday evenings. We are now really enjoying our APD workshops with a few advance calls here and there. Congrats to ROBERT and his great new singing calls. We love 'em. We are all working very hard these days to make our fall hoedown a big success. Thanks again to JOHN RICHIE for the fantastic cruise in San Francisco Bay at sunset on board his new catalina.

LONGHORNS ... "Them bones, them bones. The body of an organization has four kinds of bones: The wishbones, who spend all their time wishing someone else would do all the work. The jawbones, who do all the talking, but very little else. The knucklebones, who knock everything that everybody else tries to do and then there are the backbones, who cheerfully get under the load and do the work. Now check carefully. What kind of bones are you rattling this year? (Thanks Jack Wall). The Walls toured the Far-East in October. Gary Reimers hit a car in SF and was thrown 14'. No broken bones and will be dancing soon. Our 27th Anniversary Hoedown jammed with dancers enjoying the calling of RON WELSH. Come dance with the friendly LONGHORNS. SUNNYVALE SINGLE SQUARES ...

Our club elected a new board in October and they were installed at an impressive banquet held Nov. 14th at the Look Out Inn, Sunnyvale. Our new Leaders are: Pres. Stan Kelly, V.P. Dee Crouch, Secretary Dan Smith, Treasurer Jon Mikkelsen. Our Club continues to grow in size, By the latest count we are over 300 members, and we attribute this not only to our great caller, GARY CARNES, but to the very capable leadership we have found amongst our members. Another very attractive feature must be our round dance program, one half hour from 7:30 to 8:00, with double rounds between tips. LARRY SEGALL calling. Visitors are always very welcome, at Ellis School, on Olive Ave. near Fair Oaks Ave. in Sunnyvale. If you're single and looking for a live club (all ages!) drop by and check us out.

49'ERS ... Our activities planned this month included our Annual Christmas Party with our Nuggets (beginners) participating. We will not be dancing the last two Thursday in December, Christmas and New Year's Eve. A benefit dance recurring yearly is for the Handicapped Center in San Francisco. The callers, all of whom donate their services are to be commended for including DON SHOTWELL via tape for one tip at the October dance. 49'ERS were represented by a square plus. We enjoyed the dance, dinner following and knew we had aided a most worthy cause. Season's greetings to one and all!

ISLAND SQUARES ... On October 17th, we held our 12th Anniversary Hoedown in Foster City. The theme for the evening was "Pearly Shells." Each guest received a homemade lei as they entered the beautifully Hawaiian decorated gym. The decorations were homemade by Gene and Alice Hetzer, George and Lois Stokes and Lou and Mary Seigert. Also helping with the decorating was Vern and Pat Stokes. Thelma Swetlik our food chairman, did a fantastic job with the help of the gourmet chef of our club. KEN KENMILLE, club caller, had his work cut out trying to dance the claories off members and guests. Everyone agreed it was one of the best hoe-downs ever. Our beginners are looking forward to their first hoedown with the KEEWAY SWINGERS in Fremont in Nov. BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTES San Mateo Chapter ... Many of us note with sadness the passing away of a former member, Sally Cote. Our deepest sympathy to her two young daughters. As usual, it was another busy time fo dancing here, there and everywhere. Some of our members are sharpening their skills at advance workshops and some are learning the basics of round dancing at LAMBERT KNOX'S class on Wednesdays. Our Halloween party was alot of fun and some very imaginative costumes were worn by club and class. Our well-packed mystery bus trip to an out of town new dancers howdown was enjoyed by all. After Thanksgiving with our families, we're looking forward to seeing you at our New Dancers Hoedown on Dec. 12th and our Dinner-Dance on Dec. 21st. To all our friends, we wish much happiness during the holidays and may the good cheer continue throughout the coming year.

REBELS ... Our four squares of very enthusiastic and interesting beginners are really taking to square dancing! They had some very unusual and scary costumes at the Halloween party. Prizes were kind of goofy, also! We enjoyed the annual benefit for the Center for the Handicapped put on by the CABLE CARS. Sol Stecklow really works hard. Missed DON SHOTWELL and know he will make it next year. Elaine Redler hasn't missed winning a prize at hoedowns lately! Enjoyed the LONGHORNS doings with RON WELSH. Lots of refreshments of various kinds! The Greens made a trip to Los Angeles to see their grandchild. The Suslows became first time grandparents with the arrival of a little girl. Congratulations. We collected gifts for Laguna Honda Hospital as is our usual custom. Had many lovely ones. Hope everyone is enjoying all the holidays. See you across the square next year?

SQUARE CUTTERS ... Congratulations to our new President and Taw, Bernie & Barbara Vas, who will serve for the coming year. It was so nice to see Emma Harper visiting the club, with her sister, after being out on a long illness. See you back dancing real soon. Larry LeGuennec & Josephine Moss are taking off on a trip to Spain with the CONTINENTAL SQUARES. HARRY WHITLOCK calling for the club, while DON SHOTWELL is recuperating from his operation, has been working on the new Callerlab selections for this quarter. They are "Star the Route and Chain Down the Line". Come join us, visitors are always welcome. From all the SQUARE CUTTERS, best wishes to all for a "Merry Christmas".

FRANCISCAN STOMPERS ... Nov. 1st is a day eagerly looked forward to by us. That Sunday is our Mystery Trip planned by Margaret Valdez and destined to be full of surprises after a dinner of turkey and ham with all the goodies that go with it. Members and their guests will be forming their squares after eating and dancing to the calls of HOWARD HILLYER.

GINGHAM SQUARES ... Our chain of friendship was broken with the passing away of Ray Schoen. The GINGHAMS will feel the loss of his friendliness, his always being there to serve the club in any way he could. He had a great love for Square Dancing. Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to his loving wife, Lydia, and their family. With DALE HOUCKS terrific calling of the squares, and JACK & DOROTHY WRIGHT on the rounds the first Tues. of each month, we have added six new links to our chain of friendship. Roger Frey, Betty Campbell, Virgil Campbell, Helen Rogers and Frank, Mary Laughridge. Congratulations.

Happy Holidays to everybody.
CAPER CUTTERS ... Had our 31st Anniversary party at the Boat House. Good food was brought in and this included a large cake. This was a special party as we were honoring Mary Sargent who has been with us since the beginning of this Club. Mary was speechless but she remarked, "thank you" to all. Our first caller JACK MCKAY and his wife made their appearance, so good to see them and asked them to come more often. We still have travelers on the go. The Sutters taking a long trip to New York via the Canadian Route and stopping at many important places and now the Shubunkas are on their way to Australia and New Zealand, another fascinating trip.

MAINLINER STARDUSTERS ... From the desk of our President, Mary Sheehan, this will be our farewell message. After 14 years, the STARDUSTERS will be disbanding due to lack of membership and the uncertainty of the use of our hall. Most of us will be joining other clubs in the immediate area, so we will still be seeing you in squares. We want to thank you for supporting our hoedowns over the years.

EAST BAY AREA

THE YOUNG REBELS ... Our canoe trip on the Russian River in October was a big success. Everyone had a wonderful wet time. The dubious award for tipping over the most times goes to our directors Ron & Helen Lockie who reportedly tipped 4 or 5 times. Afterwards we had chicken, french bread and the works at our campsites. Without our caller and taw leading this expedition it wouldn't have been half as much fun. Also thanks to Mr. Middleton who arranged this whole event. On Dec. 4th we are going on a mystery trip since our Club Caller has other commitments. Thank you to callers SCOT BYARS, MIKE WRIGHT, ERIC HENERLAU and DREW ANDERSON for calling our March of Dimes Benefit. Our school was changed on us at the last minute so it was slightly overcrowded however everyone enjoyed themselves.

BUZZIN CUZZINS ... On October 26th we celebrated Halloween with costume night, and what a treat for those present. The ingenuity of those that participated was graphically displayed and enjoyed by everyone. We have 3 beginner squares who are proficient enough to attend beginner hoedowns in November. There will be no stopping the group now! The intermediates workshopped Z coordinate and the other quarterly calls to keep one step ahead of the beginners. Whew! We wish everyone a Joyous and Happy Holiday Season.

ACES & LACES ... Fall is always a busy time and especially for us. Wed. is club night and Thursday we have a good group out to help with our large beginners class. They are all so enthused about dancing. Five couples enjoyed Jubilee at San Jose. The 24th was our Progressive Dinner, 16 couples traveled from San Leandro to Castro Valley, then Hayward and on to San Lorenzo for our after party at Ed & Dorothy's. Ed put on good dancing tapes and then "Homer & Gethro" party records. A fun evening was had by all. One sad note this month, our Historian, Bill Eaves, is very ill at Eden Hospital. We are all praying for his speedy recovery and looking forward to seeing his smiling face real soon.

GEORGIAN SHUFFLERS ... John Lawson and Barb Henson had the misfortune of being hospitalized this past month. We're happy that both of them are back dancing with us again. Ardath & Ammon Powell spent a wonderful week in Denver visiting with their daughter and son-in-law and his parents from England. The incoming officers treated themselves to a dinner. Good officers, good food and a good time. Our beginners danced with the regular club twice this month. They are going to be good dancers, thanks to the efforts of our caller, BILL CARROLL. Our October party night turned into a Halloween party and pot luck dinner. Really had some original costumes. Our members aren't only good dancers but also the best cooks around. Our thanks to Jeanne & Kelly Wilson, Larry Bitz, Evelyn Hanson and Evan & Nita Jenkins for planning such a fun evening. You did a splendid job.

SPINNING WHEELS ... What a wonderful time was had by all who attended the benefit for Meals On Wheels co-sponsored by ODDS 'N ENDS and us in September. THE YOUNG REBLES entertained everyone with a fine dance exhibition. We were all very happy to have the opportunity to contribute to this worthy cause. Dal & Ruth Boyer spent two weeks vacationing in the Fort Bragg area and visited the REDWOOD COASTERS for an evening of dancing. We are very happy to welcome a new class of beginners and are looking forward to a lot of good dancing with them in the months to come.

VILLAGE STOMPERS ... Last month many of our square dancers took awards in a ceramic show. Jean Vanriette won highest award in her category, with Norm Johnson, Vera Flint and others also taking honors. We enjoyed a pot luck dinner for our Halloween party, with our guests the BELLES AND BEAUS, plus their caller, BILL STEINBROOK and his wife. Adrienne Lemos did a beautiful job in getting the women to bring a nice variety of hot dishes, salads, and cakes for desert. We had a real nice evening and we thank you BELLES AND BEAUS for helping us make it so. Freida Real has been out sick for awhile. We hope you'll hurry and get well, so that you and Bob will be back dancing with us.

EAGLE SQUARES ... The past month has been a full one for us. We visited the SKIRTS &

FLIRTS, along with several other club, and enjoyed the dancing with NONIE MOGLIA and other callers sharing the bill. We also turned out in force for the FAR WESTERN DANCERS' 1st Anniversary Hoedown, and experienced a first (for most of us), a tip of ballroom dancing. We also did a demonstration dance in the Annual Cultural Arts Fair in Livermore. Last but not least, we celebrated NONIE'S Birthday with a potluck Sunday brunch at the home of Bill & Joan Bankert. Looking ahead, we're preparing for our own Hoedown in November.

UC SQUARES ... Our Halloween potluck party was a tremendous success! Prizes were awarded to the following people for their "bewitching" costumes. Dennie Burgess (best woman), Doug Miller (best man), Paul Michaels & Karen Blair (sexiest couple), and Marcel Burlet and Karen Rosmarin (most original. A wandering gorilla added mystery to the festivities. The evening's "treat" was a "spirited" performance by the GHOST MOUNTAIN CLOGGERS.

EDEN ROCKERS ... We're alive and well. We have 4 squares of beginners, and they are a nice group of people. There are activities planned for the year that sound great. This club has some of the best party planners around. Our first activity was to go to the Big Band concert at Chabot, of course we had dinner first. It was a really enjoyable evening. Good music, and good company. Our next is our White Elephant Sale the 18th of November, which is always a fun night. Does not seem possible that we are planning for Christmas, but we are. Our Potluck is planned and it is always a fun night. With our new beginners, it will be even more so. Our traveling fisherman is home from Smith River, and John Bowen did not catch any fish this year, but he warned all of the steelhead that he would be back next year.

KUNTRY KUZINS ... Our Lake Elizabeth family picnic began early for several families who arrived for breakfast to reserve our spot. Food, fun and football were arranged for by Don & Marguerite Zolman. Two Halloween parties highlighted our months dancing. Several from our club enjoyed a visit to the RANCHERO SQUARES party. A good crowd attended ours to dance to the calling of NONIE MOGLIA, ED LOONEY and our own TERRY MOSIER. Winning awards for outstanding costumes were: a bouquet of flowers, two professional clowns, a pumpkin and our own Bud & Donna Plant as true spirits of the season. Our beginners class are looking forward to their first hoedown and having our Little KUZINS and their families as our guests at our Christmas party.

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS ... Our 16th Anniversary Hoedown was lots of fun and it was especially nice to see so many of our old friends having such a great time. RON WELSH is a fantastic caller and he never sounded better. Jean Wolf was the Chairperson and the refreshments were tasty and plentiful. Pat Spain gathered together all the club dresses over the years and they were used as part of the decorations. JIM and ANNA MCDONALD were introduced by Club Caller WAYNE JANSSEN as JIM was the first caller for the REBELS. The only negative comments concerning the dance were when Ethel Deems spilled 90 cups of coffee in the back of her car and when Jean Wolf also spilled coffee. Jean was lucky though, because she only lost half of her 90 cup pot to the back of her car. All in all it was a most nostalgic and delightful evening ending up with cokes at the ice cream store.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS ... The Halloween costume party was well attended. The publicity Chairperson's awards are as follows "Best Male in Skirts", Jim Seaver, "Best Feline", Harry Todd, "Best Cartoon Characters", Ken & Helen Mero as Yogi Bear and the Park Ranger, "Best Sports Costume", Dan Leon and his admiring fan Martha, "Best Hillbilly", Pete Bailey, "Best Period Costume", Wally McLane & Maxine Ward, in their 1890's swimming suits, "Best Mechanical Costume", Slot Machine Doris Bailey. The mini-prize this year went to Pat & Ron Kelly and Walt & Beth Schneider for their little people costume. A special award goes to Wally & Verl Clark for the largest fig leaves ever used on Adam & Eve costumes. Thanks to John Moniz, the Reno Trip was a great success. It must have been wild if Pat Kelly told her Snow White & The Seven Dwarfs joke.

SOLOS & PAIRS ... October was the month that was. Changed our name from BERKELEY SINGLE SQUARES to SOLOS & PAIRS, hosted the annual hoedown at King Jr. High on the 3rd with HAROLD FLEEMAN calling a terrific dance. Hosted the Sequoyah Lodge Chicken Dinner Dance on the 11th to a complete sell-out. RICH MANSFIELD calling, his lovely wife BEV came along. Started a basic round dance class with TOM JOHNSON teacher from 7-7:30 preceding our Wed. dance. Congratulations are in order to Florence Monize and Aileen Witts on completing a 2 week trip to Eastern Canada and Eastern U.S. plus New York. Welcome back gals. On the 28th we closed the October chapter with our Halloween Party. Hazel Eggett stole the show with her Princess Di outfit. Jim Haney and Arabian sheik, John Weiss the hunchback of Notre Dame, Maxine McCoy a red cross nurse, and dozens of other good costumes.

FREMONT SINGLES ... The club wants to thank each of you who let us use your home for the progress dinner. It was great dancing in John's garage to tapes and records. When is the next one? The hayride was very enjoyable to the 30 of us. We played volleyball then we had hot dogs, beans and salad with a little hot wine. Who got buried on the hayride who's name starts with Sharon B? Have you got all the hay out yet? We had a big fire to sing around afterward. Our next general meeting is to plan our beginner hoedown Dec. 4th and our two New Year Eve Dances with our cracker and sipping good milk. So come help us plan your club good times. Bring a friend.

DEUCES WILD ... Our first month has been a big success with 2 or 3 square each night. We're still accepting beginners through Nov. 10th so bring the whole family 12 and up for some fun and learning. We're also planning a halloween party on Oct. 27th so why not drop by.

KEEWAY SWINGERS ... It was a glorious day down in the "pumpkin country" for our annual beach party at Pescadero State Beach. Several couples made a weekend of it by staying overnight in their RV's at nearby Memorial Park.

Lots of sun, sand and food, some food with sand! The following weekend saw several squares of KEEWAYS dancing at the Silver Anniversary Jubilee in San Jose. Several "old timers" agreed it was one of the best they've attended. Thanks to all of you who helped make our 15th Anniversary Dance such a tremendous success. It was great to see so many old friends and to welcome many new ones. Wound up our active month by raiding the SUNNYVALE SINGLES. Great dancing was enjoyed by all.

CLEARLAKE AREA

KONOCTI KICKERS ... Our Oct. Hoedown was great fun with guest caller JOHN FRERICHMANN and we want to thank him for bringing his fine dancers the SQUARE CIRCLES from Pleasanton. Also wish to thank the other fine clubs for attending. Glad to have some of our vacationers back again. Welcome back the Hannigans, Mary Foster and Helen & Elton Greer.

NORTH BAY AREA

FIVE STAR SQUARES ... Election results: VP Paul Avery, Treasurer, Elaine Starin, Secretary, Ginny Butler, Executive Board, Roland LeClerc. At our Halloween dance the judges selected costumed couples in the following categories: "the scariest", Ed & Ginny Butler, "the funniest", Dave & Maryellen Martin, "the best matched", their identical clown outfits were superb, Rick and Barbara McLay, "the most original". All who wore costumes were rewarded, prompting some uncostumed couples to vow to compete next year. Traditional apple cider (some spiked) and doughnuts were served at intermission. Our next gala will be the Xmas Hoedown on December 12th. Your correspondent failed to get news of DAVE HOBAUGH'S retirement from Mare Island printed last month due to a typing error.

PIONEERS ... We celebrated DAVE & SANDY HOBAUGH'S 23rd Wedding Anniversary and Dolores Lyons and Betty Lafaunce furnished a cake and a singing telegram was organized for them with dancing to follow. The beginners class consists of 7 squares and are advancing very rapidly and a hoedown is being planned for them in the future. A potluck with a halloween theme was arranged on October 26th and there was a large crowd present and of course workshop followed with DAVE HOBAUGH calling the tips. It was voted that the club would not hold workshop on the 5th Monday of each month but would visit various other workshops. A donation in the form of a contribution was sent to the BARNSTORMERS for the two teenagers who were injured in a motorcycle accident. Cheryl and Dave Rudd did a stupendous job in recruiting members for the beginners class and are very good for the morale of them. Barbara and Darrell Nystrom also make a wonderful President and First Lady.

FAIRFIELD SWINGERS ... A new beginners group in Fairfield, are now meeting on Friday evenings at the Ki Jones School on Winston Ave. VANYA LEIGHTON, club caller, has put these newer dancers through the beginning basics so that they can all enjoy the Harvest Hoedown in Roseville the 3rd weekend of October. We are also looking forward to our first party night on October 30th.

INDEPENDENT SQUARES ... We are dancing at Amy Blanc School on Atlantic Ave. in Fairfield on Thurs. evenings. VANYA LEIGHTON, caller of this A-2 group, called an experimental dance for us on Oct. 9th. The last weekend in September, we motor homed to Windsor for a weekend of wine tasting in the Sonoma County wineries. VANYA called for a square dance at the Windsor Mobile Home Park.

CATCH ALL EIGHTS ... On Oct. 27th we had a halloween party dance, costumes optional, we also snuck in a 50th Anniversary cake for Elvin & Mildred Williamson. On Nov. 1st their children gave them a surprise party at the Richmond Moose club, we all had a good time. Oct. 28th we entertained the employees of Mechanics Bank in Richmond at their Western Party. BERT called two tips to demonstrate square dancing. Then we each got a partner from the audience and danced with them, they learned fast and were doing simple dances after a very short lesson. We lost our building on Nov. 3rd so we went up to the Clock Tower in Benecia and danced to the calling of DOROTHY PEELER. They are lovely hosts and hostesses.

MARIN COUNTY

MAVERICKS ... In the fall, clocks move back, in square dancing the tempo springs ahead. Our beginner class had their initiation into the club, October 7th, amidst much laughter and celebration. Their first and very successful hoedown, with LON FERRELL, calling was Oct. 9th. LON is teaching an A-1 class at Terra Linda Rec Center, Tuesday, at 8:00. We had a great spirited day at our Annual Picnic and Barbeque. The Maverick Entrapeneurs put on quite an extravaganza. The amateur callers and food was excellent. JEAN FERRELL, recently attended Roundalab, dance teachers convention in San Antonio, Texas. Bill & Shirley Perry had Open House for the MAVERICKS, October 25th. The club party was October 28th. Both, fun times. Aloha, Dick & Ailene Taylor. Happy Birthday Donna Johnson.

NOVATO SQUARES ... A hobo dinner was held for our potluck and installation of new officers. Our two hobo cooks, Helen Baker and Marge Montgomery prepared a delicious dinner of hobo beans. Club members shared salads and desserts and a fun time was had by all. New officers are: President, Schmidts, Vice President, Larsons, Secretary, Roadys, Treasurer, Reids. We are looking forward to a busy six months along with happy dancing. On October 15th, the club honored long time members George and Peggy Bruce on their 59th Wedding Anniversary. An honorary life membership was presented to the couple. Guests included family members, friends from Newcastle and Ukiah, as well as local guests. Many, many more happy years, Peggy & George!

STUMP JUMPERS ... Congratulations to Shirley Blanch and Frank Holsinger, now Mr. and Mrs. Holsinger. They are taking steps to get into the swing of square dancing together (new for Frank). Good luck, Shirley & Frank. Caller DAVE MILANO is off on a three week trip to Texas. this is DAVE'S usual hunting season, Texas, DAVE? RAY BETTENCOURT is standing in for DAVE at workshops while he is away.

RAY is giving our newer dancers a real workout in learning Plus 1 and quarterly selections. They like it! The Club's October hoedown with BILL PETERS calling squares and LARRY WILLIAMS calling rounds was a great success and enjoyed by all. Many thanks to hosts Pat and Joe Corby, and Lenny and Chuck Johnson.

SQUAWS & PAWS ... Happy Holidays from the SQUAWS & PAWS. 23 couples enjoyed our Mystery Trip in October. We all traveled to Ukiah to dance with the UKIAH PROMENADERS. Our own Club Caller GLEN DICKEY called the Hoedown and was surprised to see his own club arrive to win the coffee for having the most couples attend from a visiting club. October 28th we all danced in costume, a real fun time with many laughs. Plans are in the planning stage by our Mitzi Kemp for our Xmas party to be held in Marinwood. Birthday greetings go to Clyde Noe. Best wishes for a pleasant Holiday Season.

BUZZIN' BOOTS ... Lee Eckles had a great time on his trip to Anchorage and stayed with former members Jackie & Jim Carr. Membership Chairmen Diane & Sam Young have been busy. The BOOTS welcome new members Lorraine & Bob Hall, Jeanellen & Joe Killian and Valerie & Dave McClelland. The annual summer picnic was held in October at the Cheese Factory. A big thank you to Warren Brentlinger and the cooks for the delicious oysters and steaks. Congratulations to the Lackeys on the birth of their son Jimmy. Buzze & Chuck Kopf enjoyed their vacation but missed the picnic as did Barbara Payne who was vacationing in Russia. Thanks to the Fyes for the annual Fye Halloween After Party. Happy Holidays!

REDWOOD EMPIRE

KENWOOD WHISTLE STOMPERS...

In late September, we danced at the Sonoma Vintage Festival. ERIC HENERLAU called for us and couples from the SONOMA MISSION SQUARES joined us in fun square dancing. Carole and Art Dewall attended the "Grand Ole Oprey" for their 25th Wedding Anniversary. Their children, Janet & Russell, who also dance with us, surprised them with the tickets and all the arrangements. Our President, Larry Dunaway and his wife Vivian, celebrated their 12th Wedding Anniversary on the 8th of October. Kenwood has a new shopping center and our club enjoyed dancing for their Grand Opening. STEVE MINKIN of Sebastopol, called for us. UKIAH PROMENADERS ... We are looking forward to the start of our new beginners class. To promote these classes a couple of exhibitions were held, one of which combined the talents of our club caller, MILT ADAMS, with a local band, the COUNTRY NOTES. It was a lot of fun and many of us are looking forward to the possibility of MILT and the COUNTRY NOTES getting together again.

SINGLES & PAIRS ... Our new class of 18 squares of dancers are so enthusiastic they can hardly wait for Mondays. Seems like everyone wants to learn to square dance. A surprise reception was given for Stan & Marge Pierce at the home of Bob & June Bache. After weeks of planning and complete secrecy their friends were able to pull it off. Along with the Bache's hosts were the Bob Leonards, The George Taylor and the Daryl Marks. About 30 guests helped make this a fun Wedding Reception. MARKWESTERNERS ... We are still reporting in from far flung corners. Our First Lady, Nina Antipoff from the Hawaiian Islands. We are hoping she will demonstrate an A-1 Hula for us. Keith and Agnes Calden had a great opportunity to get acquainted with the South Pacific, visiting New Zealand, Australia & Tahiti. Closer to home, we had Marian and Ed Haczela heading for the beach for a spot of abalone gathering. What a treat! Getting things done at home, Neva McClelland recently sewed an entire wardrobe for a lucky little granddaughter. Everything from a quilted robe to playpants then took time off to knit a sweater. This reminds us that Christmas is in the air. We send Holiday Greetings of Peace and Joy to all of you out there.

RIDGE RUNNERS ... Plans are well under way for the dinner and party dance with our beginners class, which is an annual event for Christmas. BOB TRIPP & JACK MURTHA share in calling the squares, it is an event the club always looks forward to, it always lifts the Christmas Spirits. On December 5th we will have a Club level Party Dance with PAUL HARRIS from Livermore as our guest caller, with RAY & JEANETTE GILBERT cueing the rounds, our pre-rounds start at 7:30-8:00, square dancing 8:00-11:00. We will be in the Veteran's Memorial Hall Skyway & Elliott in Paradise. We extend a hearty welcome to all guests.

were Smiths, Shores & Carters. Lots of fun was had at our first garage and bake sale. We discovered that square dancers sure are collectors. Jim & Bickie Paine are grandparents again! The baby's name is Thomas and I hear he is a cutie. Nice to see Marv and Nancy Hubbs back from their trip to Hawaii! They are making plans for their next trip to be taken soon? JACK MURTHA will be calling on December 12th with JOHN RETTER cueing the rounds. See you there!

CONTRA COSTA AREA

SHELL SWINGERS ... Don and Shirley Elliott and Dorothy Reck and Leonard Klima did much dancing on the road traveling to Dublin and to Fairfield, not to be left out the Mitchells enjoyed the calling of ERNIE KINNEY. When they were not on the road dancing or at workshop you will find them at the table of a nice pot luck supper on Monday. Then many of the club members along with a gang from the DO C DO'S had a happy evening as guest of Chief Kinningsmith at the Chiefs Club at Treasure Island a fine Chinese Buffet was the menu. Glen and Reva had a chance to visit many fine places in Colonial America on their last trip. Nomi Petersen spent sometime at U.C. Medical Center, but all is well now. Monday is a good night to be in Martinez and enjoy the work of the Boston Strong Boy, come by a visit with us.

GUYS & DOLLS ... Remember that ole Thanksgiving song, "Over the river and through the woods, to Grandmothers house we go"? By the time this gets into print Thanksgiving will be past. The river we once drove over has been turned into a Freeway, the woods are now a new Home tract and Grandma lives in a Condo! But whatever, as long as we celebrated the day with friends and family, had lots of Tom Turkey, it was a good day to give thanks. Now, onward into Christmas. New members, Pete Fraser, Bev Olson, Judy & Alan Roemer will join us this year. We will only stop our Christmas shopping and decorating to enjoy the Beginners Hoedown Dec. 18th. Our Christmas Party will be something special this year. We are combining Party, Potluck and inviting our 35 beginners to join us. Santa will really be shook up if he makes it down the chimney! So Merry Christmas to all, and to all a good night. Feliz Navidad. Ho! Ho! Ho!

DEARS & DOES ... Hi everybody! Christmas is just about upon us. Everybody is buzzin around getting ready for the holidays. Hope all of you have safe and happy holidays. Rose Ann and Maynard Jostad took a trip South to see the "new" grandbaby! Their just thrilled of course. John Maynard just recently came back from Japan and he said it was just lovely over there, and the people were very interesting, and friendly. Buford and Dixie Armstrong recently celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary, Congratulations. We were sad to hear about DON SHOTWELL'S illness, and our prayers and thoughts are with DON and his family. We are looking forward to seeing all of you at the Hoedowns in the coming year, or just drop by and see us on our club workshop on Thursday. My Christmas thought for this year is: Good Health, love and communication for all square dancers, and all people everywhere! Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

CONCORD STOMPERS ... Our Annual horseshoe tournament came up with Dianne Kaufer the big winner. Our Tuesday nighters (Mainstream) hosted our Wednesday nighters (Plus 2) at a big potluck with 104 STOMPERS putting away wonderful food. We also voted for new club outfits for the year 1983 when we will be hosting the Golden State Round-Up. Our Halloween Party brought out ingenious costumes. Every year gets better and crazier! We hope you enjoyed our SHELBY DAWSON Hoedown. Thanks to the Haynies for the great after party! We are looking forward to our biggest social event, the Christmas party. The Perrones tell us to wear our party clothes for a sit down dinner, live band & dancing. Our beginners (50 strong) had fun attending their first hoedown. A new beginner class will be starting in January. Please check this issue for details and tell your friends. The CONCORD STOMPERS wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

DIABLO SINGLES ... We had a very good summer, with a good group of graduating dancers ready to dance and to work. We have gone to some very good hoedowns, had some really good after parties, plus barbeques and swim parties also. Good dancing at Danville (SQUARE WHEELERS) ED TAUSIG calling, barbeque and swim party afterwards at Rosemarys home. Bus trip to Napa County toured a winery (we all stayed sober) danced at the Grape Festival later. Danced at the Antioch fair with the ANTIOCH AMBLERS, ED TAUSIG calling. Good workshop, with our very own MIKE WRIGHT, celebrated his 29th ? birthday. We have the makings of another good group of newer dancers. Good dancing to all.

SQUARE WHEELERS ... We have a great beginners class going. Our club members each spend a Tuesday night as an angel and dance with the beginners class. All club members visited the beginners on Tuesday the 13th. We also enjoyed visiting the HARMONY HOE-DOWNERS on the 20th. Our caller JOEL KADISH and his wife SUSIE were busy on their cruise these 2 weeks. We missed them, but hope JOEL learned some new and funnier jokes. We're having a masquerade party for the beginners class on Friday the 30th. Best costume wins a prize. Looking forward to our beginners Hoedown on November 20th.

TWILITE TWIRLERS ... Election time again. Our new board: President, Angelo Colon, Vice President, Larry Potter, Treasurer, Warren Hickman, Secretary, Gwen Pyle. Thanks to the old board for all their hard work, and to the new board. We wish them success in the year ahead. One of our newer dancers brought friends from Holland to workshop to watch us dance and before they knew it they were dancing, doing left allemands and weave the ring with our newer square dancers. We hope they take back lots of good thoughts about square dancing as we certainly enjoyed dancing with them. The October-fest was fun, hard work and lots and lots of apple pie. Thanks to all the club members who made this a success. The T-shirts were great too.

JACKS & JENNY'S ... The month of October found Lindsay Reeks, Sud Sundsten, Ilene Fitzgerald, Ray Dod, Wayne

Price, Ted Taylor and Herm Winkler all celebrating Birthdays. The club wishes them many happy returns. Jack & Vera Lewis celebrated their 36th Wedding Anniversary on the 13th. Many more happy years to both of you. Ray and Ann Dod held a house warming on the 18th to celebrate the completion of their new home. The club held their annual Halloween Party during the workshop of the 29th and were joined by the beginners and 4 squares from the SHELL SWINGERS. Note our new beginners and regular club dancing hours in the club listings.

DELTA DARLINS ... Fall has found us moving to a new facility, starting a beginners class and our first birthday. Sept. 14th, we had 18 beginners come to learn square dancing. We also moved to the Delta Community Service Center in Brentwood. We were so busy with all of this our first birthday slipped by us. We'll celebrate sometime soon. 18 new dancers doubles the size of our club. We're realizing growth is a slow process. Several of our members have had the opportunity to visit other clubs during the summer. We worked on Plus 1 & 2 during the summer and are looking forward to fall hoedowns.

READ

DEAR READERS:

Due to the extreme increase in printing and marketing costs, over the last $1\frac{1}{2}$ years, we are forced to increase our prices comparable to the other publications in our area. We have had printing increases of 37% and 3 postal increases, not to mention supply costs going up. We regret this, but hope the economy will let us hold our prices in the future.
