SQUARE DANCE CALLERS OF NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

SDCANC PUBLICITY by Jim Mc Donald

A SPECIAL BOARD MEETING WAS HELD AT DALE HOUCKS HOME. A GREAT DEAL OF UNFINISHED BUSINESS WAS ATTENDED TO, AND PLANS WERE PUT INTO ACTION FOR A PANCAKE BREAKFAST SPONSORED BY THE CALLERS ASSOCIATION. THIS WILL PROBABLY TAKE PLACE IN LATE SEPTEMBER OR EARLY OCTOBER, THE NEXT QUESTION IS CAN CALLERS COOK? OUR RESEARCH CHAIRMAN, DREW ANDERSON FOUND IT NECESSARY TO RESIGN, SO THE NOTES WILL NOW BE WRITTEN BY ONE OF OUR PAST PRESIDENTS AND LONG TIME MEMBER JOHN STRONG.

30 YEARS OF SERVICE MANY HAPPY YEARS OF RETIREMENT

Harry & Eileen Cullum

We are honoring a couple who, for the past 30 years have unselfishly devoted their energies and loyalty to the Square Dance Caller's Association of Northern California. Harry and Eileen Cullum we salute you.

The Cullums live in a spacious home in Hollister, which is about 75 miles from Alameda. (They make the trip once a month.) Harry is retired from the business of pumps, maintenance and installation, a very successful business he started from scratch. Besides the hobby of square dancing, Harry is an exceptionally fine photographer. He won many prizes and Square Dance -Where? has published many of his pictures. Harry is also the official Association coffee maker, and has never turned out a bad brew.

Eileen, as our Association Secretary, is absolutely indispensable to every President who has ever served NCSDCA. Without the benefit of Eileen's experience, our Association could have never enjoyed the National eminence it now does.

We salute Harry and Eileen on their great service to our Caller's Association. Without their unflinching devotion year after year (they travel 150+ miles every month) our road to travel would have indeed been a rough one. We wish them continued good health, and pray they will continue on the same path of unselfish devotion as in the past, because we need them.

CLUB NEWS

NORTH BAY

CATCH ALL EIGHTS ... Our 1982 Officers are, Al Jensen, President, Howard Cross, Vice President, John Jakobson, Secretary, Jim Strachan, Treasurer. Jean Levanague gave Al a new Olds for his birthday, thats a wife to have. Alma Heath attended a family reunion at Turtle Beach and 105 attended. Dorothy Filippi just returned from four weeks at Cherokee Lake, where she visited with some long time friends, also went to Worlds Fair in Tennessee. Ava Bently will soon be back on the dance floor, so reports Bill.

FIVE STAR SQUARES ... Graduation time came for our brush-up class. They did an excellent job. Now we would like to welcome them into membership. They are Jack & Madlyn Nolfe, Bud & Evelyn Penzel, Bill & Jerry La Voy, Ed & Sue Rogers. We are looking forward to having the TWIN CITY STEPPERS of Fairfield as our guests at our next party night. Also plans are under way for our annual picnic.

SAN FRANCISCO AREA

GINGHAM SQUARES ... Our ladies in their pretty blue & white checked dresses, and their partners looked great in the Grand Parade for the Golden State Round-Up. The Benefit Dance for DON SHOTWELL was well represented by GINGHAMS. Our DALE & PHYLIS HOUCK along with JACK & DOROTHY WRIGHT were among the many callers that helped make the Benefit such a success. With our Golden Chain growing, our barbecues are getting larger. We are fortunate Millbrae Rec. Center has large barbecue pits, we can use. The smell of steaks, hamburgers, polish sausage, and yes even hot dogs, were enjoyed along with all the gourmet dishes everybody brings. The dancing afterward is a great way to spend a wonderful evening.

BUZZIN COUSINS ... We enjoyed dancing to ELMER RADCLIFF, with his wife BLANCE calling rounds for us while MIKE & JANYCE WRIGHT went on their honeymoon. They were married June 12th and many of us were there. Congratulations! Congratulations also to T.J. Douglas and Teresa Rowe, wedding plans in the making. The Nationals in Detroit were attended by Whitey & Adele Bachman, Mark & Carla Bachman, Dave & Helen Roach, and Ed & Gennie Martin. Some people have all the fun. We elected the following slate of Officers to serve through June of '83. President, Truman & Theresa Montgomery, Vice President, Forrest Brown & Lois Ballance, Secretary, Gary and Theresa Larue, Treasurer, Ray & Pat Jeffre. Come join us for summer dancing at the United Methodist Church at 6226 Argyle Road in El Sobrante, Just off of Applan Way.

REBELS ... We are now at the Church on 29th Avenue at Noriega for the summer. Had a terrific turnout for the beginning of our refresher class. Have a new member, Phil Paton, from New Hampshire. Elaine and Esther introduced him to a California Hoedown with the 2 X 4's dance. Had lots of fun. Gave BUD WOLKINS and his law, ANN, a check in appreciation from the newer dancers after graduation. The De Lorenzi's spent some time in Reno where their daughter was ice skating in competition. Janet Bemis and Jay Koff tied the knot in late May. Joined the beginners class together and look what developed! Our best wishes to them. Hope everyone had a good summer with vacations to all.

TAM TWIRLERS ... We celebrated a successful Fourth Birthday Hoedown on June 12th in San Rafael with Club Callers, GLENN DICKEY and LARRY & KAREN WILLIAMS providing the rounds. July brings in the "reign" of new Officers to our club that boasts an active membership of 146 dancers. Joe Moser, President, Bob Marelli, President Elect, Debby Williams, Treasurer, June Hunt as Secretary. A potluck dinner is planned on July 6th at Joe & Ruth Moser's home as a "Farewell" to the old and "Welcome" to the new board.

CLOVERLEAFS ... We enjoyed hosting the 5th Friday dance in July at the Boathouse. It's always fun dancing with the KALICO KATS and the B & B's. We wish to thank all of you who attended our June Hoedown and made it the success it was. We also want to thank BLAKE WESTMAN for his lively calling which made the dancing so much fun. Congratulations to KEN CROFT for his Round Dance, "Remembering"! It was first introduced at the Golden State Round-Up by the ESTERDAYS. If you've danced it, you know how smooth it is. Eileen Winters, a regular visitor, surprised us with a treat at a recent workshop. Home-made miniature chocolate cupcakes! Dee-lic-ious! Verda and George Sailor were enthusiastic about their week of dancing at the Asilomar. We were sorry to learn of the recent death of Alberta

Hurley's mother. We extend to Alberta and her family our sympathy and prayers.

SPINNING WHEELS ... 10 or 12 couples helped Raychem Corporation celebrate its 25th Anniversary Sunday, June 6th, at a delicious steak barbecue luncheon. Square dancing with us was scheduled at 4pm. When we performed do-se-does, promenades and other "you-call-em, we-dance-ems, to caller HAROLD DAVIDSON. Other entertainment included several bands, jugglers, clowns, puppets, magicians, mimes and folk music. Tours of the facilities, with special exhibits and product demonstrations, were given to all. Our youngest SPINNING WHEEL arrived May 7th. Ladd & Cathy Fowler are the proud parents of Juliana. Congradulations and a Yellow Rock to all three. About 12 couples caravanned to Sonora June 21st and 22nd for the Cup-Of-Gold Hoedown. All enjoyed the promenades, parties and repartees. Several of our club members assisted SCVSDA in building a permanent slab for square dancing at the Santa Clara County Fairgrounds in June. We will appreciate all their hard work while dancing on it August 5th at the Santa Clara Fair.

SQUARE CUTTERS ... 1948-1982 We were organized 34 years ago in the month of June. The Club celebrated with a delicious cake for members and guests. HARRY WHITLOCK called a special party dance for the occasion. Our Sunday picnic at the Cheese Factory was a tremendous success all planned by the "Wasserdrugs," with fun and games. Next big event will be looking forward to another fifth Thursday with the 49'ERS and FRANCISCAN STOMPERS. Our round dance program is progressing very well. HARRY & LEVERNE WHITLOCK, with the assistance of FRANK MILLER are now teaching "Cream & Sugar". Visitors are always welcome, so come join us. Square dancing is fun.

LONGHORNS ... Special notice: be sure to attend our Annual Harvest Hoedown on October 23rd, because we will have one of Oregon's very few professional callers, MARTY FIRSTENBURG of Salem. At a "gorgeous" potluck on June 29th, Our new Officers for the coming year were launched. We are always represented at the National Square Dance Convention. This time Cleo & Henry Manning will be in Detroit. At the recent Round-Up our dancers learned "Bounce the Woman (Bounce the Man)". Did you know we will have a beginners class starting the third week in Sept.? BLAKE WESTMAN welcomes requests from members to learn or review certain SD figures. This past year has been a pleasure for me to serve square dancing with this column and with best wishes the pen is passed along to Fran & Hal Eckes.

CAPER CUTTERS ... If you haven't danced at the Lake Merced Boathouse, do make a special effort to join us this summer. Located at the waters edge, the hall and deck provide a lovely setting for dancing and admiring the close of day. Gail Roueche, our Special Events Chairperson took a bus of us on a mystery trip to the TWILIGHT TWIRLERS Tenth Anniversary dance in Concord. Superb dancing music was provided by DAVE HOBAUGH and the GHOST-RIDERS. Aloha's from Jim and Elsie Nulty & Mert and Kathy Jones, vacationing in Hawaii. Kudos to our KEN CROFT and ELEANA DE ZORDO who choreographed "Remembering", the featured round dance at the Round-Up.

PAIRS 'N SPARES ... Our club caller, HOWARD HILLYER and wife GERRI, recently returned from their first Hawaiian Islands vacation, both looked tan and terrific. A speedy recovery to our club Treasurer, Kelly Kallevig, who underwent Heart Surgery. Hope to see you back dancing real soon. Richard Luty was most surprised and delighted when he received Birthday greetings from none other than President Reagan and Nancy. Rich recently celebrated his 82nd birthday. It think it's the dancing that keeps him so young. He can whirl and twirl with the best on them. Happy Anniversary to Lee and Ethel Altman who celebrated 41 years of wedded bliss on June 15th. Mark your calendar for our August 26th Hawaiian Hoedown.

ISLAND SQUARES ... Installation of new officers will take place on Friday, June 25th. A job well done, good bye and best wishes go to our Captain and his lady, Lou & Doris Tinsley. They started the club many years ago and now will be leaving us to retire in Paradise, Calif. We'll all miss you. Incoming Officers are Bob & Flo Beaman, our new Captains, Herb & Joyce Eldred new 1st mates, Herb & Lois Nieman, new Pursers, Gene and Alice Hetzer, new Yeoman. Good luck to all of you.

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTES San Mateo Chapter ... Another month of dancing and fun has passed. We started the month with a bus load of dancers going to the Chicken Hop at Boulder Creek. Our Monday night workshop is proving to be a great success. Our new dancers are having alot of fun learning the plus moves under the capable instruction of BILL PETERS. A big "thank you" to Anndrea Stephan and John Olson who headed the committee for the "Glad Grad" dance. The dance was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended. We'll be dancing on Monday nights during summer vacation at the same place. See you in a square!

PIONEERS ... The 31st Anniversary Hoedown was a great success when 14 clubs were represented. DAVE HOBAUGH as usual did an outstanding job on the tips & BOB SCHINDLER who is now in Lake Tahoe, drove down and called the rounds for the evening. Betty LaFaunce, Dolores Lyons and Evelyn Drew were in charge of the refreshments which were elegantly served. Dolores Lyon's daughter, Denise Martinez, baked a beautiful Anniversary Cake for the club. May Crane as usual had the hall decorated in right, white and blue as it was so close to flag day. Several of us attended the Golden State Round-Up and enjoyed it. The next trip being planned by some of the club is to Fort Bragg with DAVE HOBAUGH and are looking forward to it. Ray Lyons will soon have tickets for sale for the New Year Eve Party at the community Center and DAVE HOBAUGH will be calling the tips.

49'ERS ... Four members, Gene George, Anne Bishop and Jim and Janice McCraney were honored on June 10th with silver pins commemorating their 25 years of membership in the club. Dick and Pat Mudge, President, made the presentation. 26 members attended the Cup of Gold in Sonora on June 18th & 19th. Five of the couples in this made special outfits and participated in the fashion show. The club members have a mystery trip planned by Al & Carole Reine coming up June 27th.

ROADRUNNERS ... We have really been running around in June. The Schmitts, Trimmers and Shaners danced away the weekend of June 11th at Beulah Park in Santa Cruz. The McIlmoils, Blundells, Richys and Haukoms travelled to San Pablo to the June 19th Hoedown called by our ROBERT ALGAE and SCOT BYARS. They reported a fun dance and a fantastic Chinese dinner beforehand. The Schmitts had a great time at the Challenge Square Dance Convention in Philadelphia. the Haukoms returned from their trip to Scandinavia. They didn't need their cold-weather clothes until they returned to the San Francisco Airport. Our new Officers take over in July, headed by President, Howard Knight, and are looking forward to our July 10th Hoedown with DAVE STEVENS.

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTE'S San Francisco Chapter ... We went to the S.M. B & B'S Glad Grad Hoedown. There was a slight problem, getting into the school, but once in KEN KENMILLE kept us on our toes all night. SQUARE CUTTERS had their 34th year party, BOBBI & MARTY SHOTWELL and past Caller JACK MCKAY were guests, happy to see BOBBI dancing again. Went to hear MARLIN HULL, call for the SAN LORENZO SINGLES 6th Anniversary, very good hoedown. PAIRS 'N SPARES 25th Anniversary Hoedown had JACK MURTHA teaching what square dancing was like in the 50's up to the 80's and 25 years from now, it was a fun level night, and delicious cake and ice-cream was served to make it complete. Join us on Friday's, for fun dancing. See you in church!

WHIRL-A-WAYS ... Two squares spreading the square dance word by doing a exhibition to the calling of AL STAGNARO for the South San Francisco C.B. Club, then AL encouraged the C.B.'ers to join the squares. An evening of fun and goodwill. Nothing but raves about the Casa de Fruta club camp-out, especially for the fantastic Saturday night potluck. Plans coming right along for our refresher A-1 workshop starting in September. Many members spent a day at Candlestick Park rooting the home team, another of the many social events planned by Lillian Mudrick. Get well wishes go to Larry Lane a former member who still keeps in touch, recovering from a recent stroke. Visit and join us for computer squares now a part of our Wednesday workshop.

CABLE CAR SQUARES ... We are still recovering from the pair of hoedowns the club sponsored in July. One for the Club's 16th Anniversary, and the second one for the five squares of visiting New Zealand dancers and their caller. Our thanks to our many friends for their support of these two ventures. With Cal Lapuyade continuing on as President, as is Lillian Sevier as Treasurer, new Officers Maxine Mares as Vice President and June Roberts as Secretary. The club, once again, finds itself in good hands.

MARIN COUNTY

SQUAWS & PAWS ... Jean & Al Levesque are now honorary Squaw and Paw in recognition of their many contributions to square dancing. The club won the coffee at the TAM TWIRLER dance and also won a lovely door prize. Said prize will be offered to some lucky club at our Anniversary Dance on July 17th. Tina and Jim Martin are hosting a club picnic the next day at their home. Plans are being made for an August Weekend of camping at Spring Lake. On Aug. 25th and Sept. 1st, Lu Sutton School will not be available to the club for dancing. An alternate location will be announced. We will be back, however, on Sept. 8th at Lu Sutton. The date has been set for a Beginner's Class, Sept. 15th. GLEN DICKEY will be the teacher. We're happy to hear that Mitzie Kemp is recovering from back surgery and that John Bruzzone is recovering from heart by-pass surgery. Helen Pockrus is dancing again. GLEN & WEDA DICKEY are vacationing in Hawaii.

NOVATO SQUARES ... We held a farewell party for our club caller BOB ELLING and wife LOIS at our May 20th workshop. Punch and cake were served, and a gift was presented to BOB & LOIS from the members. We all extend them our best wishes for happiness in the future. With the summer season here, some of our club members are taking vacation trips. Chuck and Audrey Mathis, along with their daughter and granddaughter are traveling to Iowa in their motorhome. Elwyn and Helen Baker are traveling to Colorado in their newly acquired motorhome. Happy vacation days to all! We are looking forward to the July 4th picnic which Bill and Lee Larson will be hosting at their home.

BUZZIN' BOOTS ... JEAN GRASS

is on an extended trip and when last heard from was in Washington, D.C. Carolene Ginnoccio has opened a tee-shirt shop in Novato at 1400 Grant Ave. She has some specialty items for square dancers. Nick and Ollie Nicholson were given the first Board Award for 55 years of marriage. I hear they had a surprise guest at their party. Who was that in the red outfit? An Ape? Peter Oser hosted an after party on Saturday night after the Golden State Round-Up. One June 13th there was a club sponsored hike on the Tennessee Valley Trail. Attending were the Beltons, Brennans, Kutliks, Woods and Dee Garcia. We welcomed new members Dottie Jordon, Russ and Evelyn Bliss and Don Taylor.

REDWOOD DIAMONDS ... Marin County's newest square dance club is pleased to announce that ERIC HENERLAU has been selected as club caller. We wish to extend our warmest welcome to ERIC & JENNIFER. We will officially be in our new home at the San Anselmo Recreation Department Hall on Tuesdays in September. Please watch for our ad in next month's issue when more information will be available.

M.O.D. SQUAD ... Summer sounds, Graduations, vacations, all this and square dancing, too. Larry and Petra Luchetti from MOD SQUAD, Al & Jean Lavesque from TAM TWIRLERS, Ray & Helen King from MAVERICKS, Pete Andersen from HUFFS & PUFFS and his partner Florence Muller came together recently to dance at the Hill Road Convalescent Home. Elton and Opal Grey are traveling through the Northwest visiting relatives in Oregon and Idaho. The Bob Rohner family drove to Vancouver, B.C. then flew to White Horse where a bus took them to Skagway. They boarded the S.S. Prince George for the Inland Passage Cruise to Vancouver. MOD SQUAD has 4 new members. Norman & Ethel Vaughn, Ed Wood and Helen Gilstrad joined the club graduation night. Welcome aboard.

STUMP JUMPERS ... Our latest elections brought the following results: Joe Killian, President, Gordan Adams, Vice President, Ingrid Koenig, Secretary, Joan Almeida, Treasurer. The officers for the past 6 months did an outstanding job under the direction of Ken Place. In the STUMP JUMPERS June has been grandparents month. The Seguras, Koenigs and Vannuccis welcomed grandchildren. The first grandchild for Koenigs and Vannuccis. Ken and Blanch Place have been busy with the graduation from UC Davis of their daughter and with her wedding one week later. The Powells' twin daughters and the Seguras' daughter all graduated from high school this month.

BUZZSTEPPERS ... Things were buzzin for us in June. The Club assaulted the Casini Ranch for the Annual camping and canoe trip and the Russian River will never be the same. The following weekend we held our Annual picnic with great fun, food and a surprise visit from Smokey Bear. On June 19th, we held a Hoedown at Redwood Jr. High in Napa. Traditionally, this is the time of year when we install our newly elected officers. They are: President, Pat Watkins, Vice President, Dennis Williams, Treasurer, Lori Williford, Secretary, Madeline Vavricka. Plans are already in the making for our first hoedown of next season. See you there.

MAVERICKS ... The Golden State Round-Up, at the San Francisco Civic Center, with Callers, WADE DRIVER, RON LIBBY, ALLEN TIPTON and the EASTERDAYS on Rounds was much enjoyed, by all. Our Caller LON FERRELL, enjoyed relaxing vacations, recently to the Eel River and Bass Lake. A lovely "going away" party was tendered Kirby & Gloria Hanson, recently, by the MAVERICKS. Kirby was re-assigned to duty, at a military station in Virginia, near Washington, D.C. We shall miss them. Barbara Hauge is excitedly planning a three weeks trip to Australia. Happy Birthday Fred Judson and Jane Schwed. Anniversary Greetings and happiness to Darrell & Peggy Grater, Leon & Kathy Ring and Neil & Jane Schwed.

CLEARLAKE AREA

KONOCTI KICKERS ... Two pickup trucks filled with square dancers joined the Lower Lake Daze Parade. Our newer members walked between the trucks carrying our banner. A mannequin stood on top of the lead truck in full square dance dress. Streamers were flying everywhere. A demonstration dance, called by our club caller, VERN CHURCHILL, was held at the park following the parade. Later VERN had the audience participate. Fun was had by all. Our refresher course has brought us many newer dancers who would like to get back into square dancing again. We welcome them all and hope they continue dancing with us. BLAKE WESTMAN guest caller for our Hoedown, did a superb job. We all look forward in having him every year.

CLEARLAKE SQUARES ... Graduation for our new dancers is over, and their work and fun has just began. Congratulations to all of you. Also, a big thanks to the many Angels who gave of their time and efforts to make our beginners class such a big success. A very special thanks to CHICK THRASHER our club caller, and his wife NORMA for all their work. BILL PETERS called a fantastic hoedown for us, and the CLEARLAKE SQUARES are all looking forward to July of 1983 when BILL will be calling for us again. Our change to the Tuesday night workshop is working out fine. Giveing members and caller, both the weekend free to square dance elsewhere.

BIG VALLEY

DANCERS CHOICE ... Due to former date: checked in Fran Dor Hall, had a good attendance for DICK HOULTON, caller with Glenn & Betty Conner, Chairman. Again, you can see the great times in square dancing as you drive 99 Highway and Salida on Sisk Road. Doubled with Joe and Dorothy Pohl of Manteca and had a great time. All frist & third Tuesdays are Stockton Growers Hall dances with members and local dancers in need of review and good workshops. Will have announcement for Festival callers with added surprise cuers in near future. Support our National Folk Dance. Thanks.

SAN JOSE AREA

DANCERS CHOICE ... Many of our club members have been grateful for a cool dancing summer. Rumor has it that HAROLD FLEEMAN Is working up a singing call for Raindrops Keep Falling On My Head. Other club members thought that it might be popcorn that was striking their person-left over from our mystery trip to the Gaslight Theatre Melodrama last month. We hissed and booed at the villain, sent popcorn through the air, laughed alot, and had a generally grand time of it. We would especially like to thank Barry Binge and June Hoerler for their help in making this evening most enjoyable. HAROLD & LEE FLEEMAN celebrated their umtieth wedding Anniversary with the club. We all enjoyed a cake that Bev Geitz provided for the evening. Our beginners' class is coming along great and moving rapidly toward a graduation date sometime this fall. They should be ready to participate in the Santa Clara County Jubilee this year. We would like to thank BOB LITTLEFIELD and the BOOTS AN' BLOOMERS for putting on a fabulous June fifth Tuesday night party. We all agreed that the Tuesday clubs know how to provide the goodies, wow, what a spread-on the table and around the waist. Enjoy the rest of the summer. SINGLE SQUARES ... A good time was had by all who attended our Strawberry Festival. The sound at Peterson is now so good that I could actually understand and enjoy dancing to KOIT there. NELSON WATKINS can actually yodle. He is goooood! Plaudits to David George and co-chairman Amy Durden on a job well done. A preparty at Ivy Dale's and an after party at Cindy Batie's culminated this festival. Our class graduated 85 dancers June 29th and we are looking forward to their joining us on Thursdays. Our new class will be starting Sept. 14th so be sure to tell your single friends to contact us now as we are expecting an overflow and would like to be prepared. Come dance with us and our new graduates.

REDWOOD EMPIRE

MARKWESTERNERS ... Summer-time brings more news from our vacation travels. Val Lagunoff has returned from a visit to his homeland, Russia. The Abbots are home again sporting French Riviera suntans, a cut above the California variety. Louise Dunford's sister, Elaine visited us recently, traveling from Seattle for a family get together. We are just delighted to see Bobbie & Joe Strongone back with us. Joe has made a remarkable recovery heart surgery. I tell ya', square dancers are a healthy lot. We seem to keep bouncing back from all sorts of detours. We'd like to add a word of welcome to Doris and Gene Smith who have become relatively new but frequent guests at our Tuesday night workshops. Thanks for coming. Hope to see you all at our September 18th Luau!

SAUCY SQUARES ... The train trip to Reno, organized by Hap Kinny was a big success. We even had a wedding party aboard. Much happiness to Newlyweds Gary and Diane Heilig. Hap is planning her next adventure for the club and anyone else who is interested. A Mississippi riverboat trip. Mail to the SAUCY SQUARES should be addressed 640 Eddie Lane, Sebastopol, Ca. 95437. Our fine bunch of newer dancers are now attending Bridge the Gap Classes. This fall STEVE MINKIN will be calling for the regular club dance night and DAVE WISCHEMANN will call for the beginners. DAVE hopes to catch up on the things he hasn't had time for with all the much appreciated work he had done building this club.

SINGLES & PAIRS ... Back after a long absence is Ben Pidcock as our new NCSDA rep. To show our appreciation to the Joosts of Calistoga Rd. who so graciously donate their picnic and dance area for our annual picnic June Bache presented to them, on our behalf, a hot and cold water cooler. Past President Joe Dreyer hosted members Larry & Sheery Hudson, Stan & Marge Pierce, Brice & Pearl Williams and June & Bob Bache at a square dance demonstration and potluck given by the residence of the Brookwood Estates. Looking ahead, BILL PETERS is calling our hoedown on Aug. 21st with BOB & JOANNE SCHINDLER on the rounds. And our new Beginners Class will start on Sept. 13th.

CIRCLE 'N S UARES ... RALPH SILVIUS called an outstanding dance for us on June 12th. Chairpersons for the evening were the Paines, Hads and Merritts. On June 17th a graduation ceremony was held for three squares of newer dancers. We wish to thank our caller TOM WALTON for all his hard work. We hope the newer dancers will continue to have fun making new friends while they enjoy many years of dancing. On August 14th, we will be dancing to HAROLD FLEEMAN. See you there!

WHISTLE STOMPERS ... On Sunday, June 6th, we held our Beginners Graduation Hoedown with LARRY HUDSON calling a great fun level dance. The Newer Dancers did a terrific job on decorations and refreshments, and a good time was had by all. Pat Hansen has returned from a "Camera Safari" in Africa. We are so glad to have her back and are looking forward to seeing her pictures. Looking ahead, on Thursday, Sept. 9th, we will start our new Beginners Class. LARRY HUDSON will be the instructor for the class.

SINGLE SQ'IRCLES ... Formerly the MINGLING SINGLES. In 1979 as members of the SAUCY SQUARES, WHISTLE STOMPERS and SINGLES & PAIRS, Carleen Watts (now Bigelow) and Ben Bigelow, dancing DAVE WISCHEMANN and VERN CHURCHILL'S SQ'IRCLE LEFTS" and "SINGLE SQ'IRCLE to Ocean Waves," conceived the MINGLING SQUARES. Their mingling successful and no longer all single, are reorganizing as a dates & mates active fun club with a single emphasis, SINGLE SQ'IRCLES. With pride we have as our regular Monday club callers TOM WALTON, MILT ADAMS, GEO. KNOX, mystery caller, MR. X and on the 5th Mondays LON & JEAN FERRELL. Beginners class of rounds and squares will be on Wednesdays with VANYA LEIGHTON calling. We've been invited to dance for the full grandstand at the Sonoma County Fair, Sunday, August 1st. With more Redwood Empire clubs joining in, plans go well for the September 4th Dean Tolle Benefit Dance in Sebastopol Vets Building's 3 halls. Y'all come, won't you, please?

CONTRA COSTA AREA

SHELL SWINGERS ... A great time was had by us and our guests at the Champagne Supper Cruise and also at our Annual Picnic. Our annual Steak Fry will be held Sat. August 7th at the Shell Clubhouse with dancing to follow. "You all come". We are also gearing up for the Harvest Hoedown to be held on Sept. 25th. Mark your calendars now and come to dance to RICH MANSFIELD, guest caller. Congratulations to Max Sherwood on his 83rd Birthday. Sharing your ice cream and cake with us was great. September 22nd, starts our beginners class and we welcome any and all who would like to join us in fellowship fun and good dancing.

CONCORD STOMPERS ... Who ever described summer as lazy, languid? Not us. On June 26th 22 couples from Tuesday night (with a few lucky Wed. couples) had a great mystery trip to Salida where they danced and enjoyed a Midsummer Dream dance. Of course, the dinner and after party were something else! Love those 5th Wednesdays! June 30th a fantastic Hawaiian party complete with appropriate foods and dress was enjoyed by all. Aloha! Then July 11th we had a huge picnic at Larkey Park including all the games and food we could want. (I'm tired just thinking about all this.) July 27th our Monday mainstream graduate to join Tuesdays learning the plus calls. That's just in time for the August 7th mainstream hoedown called by our caller, BOB ELLING. Now, if we survive all that, there are plans for wine tasting in the wine country. No dancing, just "tasting". What a dull summer. Wonder why we're so tired.

DIABLO SINGLES ... Fun times at Golden State Round-Up. Dave and Gloria picked a fantastic restaurant. Jim Barber was found with hat in hand asking for alms for a poor square dancer (was he referring to his financial status or dancing abilities?) We squared up on "The streets of San Francisco" to the calling of our own CLAY. Newer Dancers earned their Bart badges. June 4th, Grad Hoedown. Sweet Success. We have one great bunch of new club members. Thanks to Bea, Jim, John and Sue on the decorations. With Dale hosting our July 4th BBQ it is likely to be one big bang! We're all looking to our Summer Hoedown on July 17th with KIP GARVEY. Hope we saw you there. White water ahead as we look forward to our raft trip down Cache Creek the 1st weekend in August.

GUYS & DOLLS ... Two gala events highlighted the month of June for us. The first was a fund raising box social which helped finance the SQUARENADER trip to the Nationals. We prepared dinners which were wrapped in attractive boxes and baskets. The boxes were auctioned by DAVE HOBAUGH with a maximum bid of $5.00. The GUYS dined with the DOLL who prepared the dinner. The second event was a square dance weekend to Sornora by 10 couples. Nine couples camped at Marble Quarry campground. During the weekend two new rigs were christened with a champagne party given by the proud new owners, the Smiths and the Lockharts. Other highlights included touring a winery, visiting Columbia and dancing Saturday evening to MARTY FIRSTENBURG. A good time was had by all.

SQUARENADERS ... We had the pleasure of joining the GUYS & DOLLS on Wednesday, June 16th for an old fashioned "box social". the dinners were raffled off and the money collected was donated to our group for our travel fund. Thank you, GUYS & DOLLS, from all of us. this year's Golden State Round-Up was very enjoyable and we were happy to be a part of it.

CLUTCH BUSTERS ... Our annual picnic, held at BALDWIN Park, was attended by 100 people. All had a good time with plenty of food and games to keep everyone happy. Thanks, Roger and Else for the fine job. Golfers in the club are looking forward to a golf tournament planned by Ken & Winona Foltz. After the tournament at Lake Chabot in Vallejo, Ken and Winona will welcome the golfers to their home for a barbecue and swim party. For the rest of the summer we will be dancing at the Woman's club building located at 1700 Farm Bureau Rd. in Concord.

ANTIOCH AMBLERS ... June has been a busy month for us. The newly elected board has finished the rough planning for the coming year. With hoe-downs, parties, trips, and special events, the calendar is crowded, as always. Exuberant AMBLERS attending Cup Of Gold incorporated camping and water skiing on Tulloch Reservoir with their dancing. They came home sunburnt and sore, but vowed to return next year. The more creative and ambitious AMBLERS are deeply involved in preparations for Antioch's Fourth of July Parade. Through the imaginative talents of AMBLERS members, a float is being constructed to add the flavor of square dancing to the festivities, with the theme: Square Dance-America's National Dance.

TEEN TWIRLERS ... We would like to mention that our 27th Anniversary Hoedown is on August 28th from 8-11. We invite everyone to come. It will be held at Ygnacio Valley High School, 755 Oak Grove Road, Concord. We also held a meeting on June 10th and changed a few rules. the beginners graduation is coming up in September. We wish to express our happiness for them.

EAST BAY AREA

RANCHERO SQUARES ... Congratulations to the newly elected Officers: Marilyn & Jim Long, President, V.P. Harriet and Gerald Mosier, Secretary, Jean and Joe Hattabaugh, Treasurer, Marie and Wayne Thompson. A big thank you to the retiring board for all the hard work and help they gave the new graduates. Our 5th Tuesday Party Night was great. It was fun to meet and greet friends from the other clubs. Our Anniversary Hoedown will have been on July 10th by the time you read this. It's sure to be fantastic. Remember the M.D. Benefit Dance on August 14th, sponsored by District 6 & 7. The line up of guest callers assures a grand night of dancing for a most worthwhile cause. Congrats or condolences? to our club caller, TERRY MOSIER. We now share him with two other clubs. Busy, busy bee.

SAN LORENZO SINGLES ... June was another busy month. New President, Roger Slaikeu, announced new club chairpersons and club plans for a very active summer. We would like to thank the outgoing officers and committee people for a job well done over the past year. Thanks to all of you who came and helped make our 6th Anniversary dance with MERLIN HULL and the VERNONS a great success. We have about 35 squares including a busload of Sacramento MAVERICKS. Some of our members are attending the National Convention in Detroit and we're looking forward to the fifth Friday dance hosted by the Association of California Single Squares. Our own RICHARD MANSFIELD is calling this dance.

KUNTRY KUZINS ... this past month we had installation of our new club offices. We are honored to have Norm and Barbara Steele as our Presidents, who received the title of "Premium Bandag". Translated, this means the best retreats or second time arounders. followed by Dave & Sandy Barrow, Vice Presidents, Juanita and Rich Wilcoxson, Recording Secretary Rich & Lois Miller, Treasurer. Our annual campout was held at Columbia, where some of the group attended the "Cup Of Gold" dance, besides enjoying the historical towns of Columbia and Sonora. Club members also attended the SQUARE CIRCLES Hoedown at the Barn to enjoy TERRY MOSIER'S superb calling.

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS ... Everybody went over to the Spains for a Change Over party and to watch the Century Plant bloom. We had a great time with games, eating and drinking, but alas, the dumb plant didn't bloom and the Wolfs won all the money. Now we will have to have another party when it does bloom. Two fellows that were having an especially good time at the party were Nels & Sully. These guys sure act different when their wives aren't with them. Talking about Nels, Congratulations to him & Thelma and the new addition to their family. Happiness is being a Grandparent. Now that the vacation season is upon us, we are starting to hear about some really neat vacation plans. The best one I've heard so far, is Harry & Fern's great trip to Winnemucca. They had an absolute ball and can't wait to get back there again. They stayed at the Winnemucca Hyatt Regency, and there was a bunch of movie stars, rumor has it that they were just painted ladies of the night. Anyway Fern won a great deal of money at the gaming tables Fern also lost a great deal of money at the gaming tables, in fact she lost a little more than she won. She doesn't care because if she had won, she would have turned the winnings over to charity.

GEORGIAN SHUFFLERS ... We wish to thank our outgoing officers for a job well done. Our officers for next year are: President, Norm & Millie Shaw, Vice President, Ammon and Ardath Powell, Secretary, John & Rosalie Wisecup, Treasurer, John & Altoona Lawson. We appreciate them giving their time for our club. Our club picnic was held June 13th at lake Elizabeth in Fremont. Everybody enjoyed barbecued hamburgers, hot dogs and all the goodies that go with them. Congratulations to all the graduates of our members.

EDEN ROCKERS ... Our most important news item this month is the graduation of our newer dancers which took place on June 16th. They are a fine group and we plant to keep on working with them until they have reached a confident "Plus 2" level. We want to thank our caller, CHARLIE BROWN, not only for his expertise as a teacher, but for his supreme patience. Although he stands his ground whenever he must, we have never heard him speak a cross word to anyone. It surely seems to be time for vacations. Bob & Jane Barthol are off to the Scandinavian countries for a few weeks. We wish them a safe and happy trip. Bill & Doris Krantz, who have been visiting their homeland, England, and also Wales and Holland, returned the 9th of June. They had a wonderful trip, seeing once more all the old familiar palces and reuniting with family and friends. Unfortunately, Doris became ill, apparently from a virus, shortly after returning home, and won't be dancing for awhile. We hope that she will give herself plenty of time to get completely well before getting back into the whirl.

SQUARE CIRCLES ... June 17th was a very emotional evening, Our members past and present were at the Barn to say goodbye to JOHN & JEANNIE FRERICHMANN, after 17 years calling for the club. JOHN & JEANNE were presented with a Bird Bath for their new home in Jackson, one of JOHN'S favorite calls was "one now, one later" this applied to his gifts. The later was at Ben & Sharon's home, a goodbye party was held in their honor. JOHN & JEANNE received an engraved plaque and a money tree, also George & Judy presented them with a framed photograph, and Neal & Susie gave them a suitable Tee Shirt. Goerge and Judy also presented the club with a framed photograph of JOHN & JEANNE and a plaque commemorating the 17 years of calling and this will be hung in the barn. As we say goodbye to JOHN & JEANNE, we welcome our new caller and his wife, TERRY & CRICKET MOSIER, we look forward to many fun years with them.

SPINNING WHEELS ... In June

new officers were unanimously elected. Our Presidents will be Paul & Gene Anderson, Vice Presidents, Jime & Nita Zenos, Secretaries, Chuck and Gini Knudsen, Treasurers, Tom & Lynn Ihlenfeldt. As well as a slate of new officers we are are dancing at a new location. Our Monday night workshops will now be held at the First Christian Church in Alameda at Park and San Jose Avenues. We are all looking forward to an exciting new year of dancing and other activities.

VALLEY TRAVELERS ... Round-Up was fantastic. We would like to thank and congradulate everyone involved with it. It will be very hard for this years Round-Up to be improved upon. We especially enjoyed he Halls for each type dancer and the color coded program that allowed all to locate the dancing of their choice. Many of us attended the Breakfast and all were very impressed with everything. We are sorry to see Bob & Betty Barthol go and wish them well. His successor has a tough act to follow. Congratulations to our club members Jack & Linda Aydelott, the new Asst. District Directors for District 7. Good Luck. June is picnic month and we had our annual club picnic, wet and wild. Fun, food, games and a wet camper enjoyed by all. Dublin our neighboring town, had a Western Days Fair on June 19th & 20th. We were proud to participate with three dancing squares.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS ... The beginner class had 22 graduates. Lori Bernard and JACK PETRI conducted the candle-lighting graduation ceremony. A candle was lit for each of the four benefits of square dancing, friendship, duty, democracy and fun. After the ceremonies, everybody celebrated with hand cranked ice cream. They should have lit a fifth candle, for good food. The graduates gave JACK a beautiful silver and turquoise bola tie for his patience and understanding. Thanks to all of you who showed up for strawberry shortcake and dancing to MIKE SIKORSKY at our last hoedown. Karen Terpstra did a super job of heading the hoedown committee. We're happy to hear Paul Miller is home from the hospital after a heart attack. We helped Leroy and Marlene Hintzman and Jerry and Bernice Winslow celebrate their 25 Wedding Anniversaries with a cake at the clubs usual party night.

SOLOS & PAIRS ... June was the first month for our newly instituted party night. The Gals outdid themselves with elegant strawberry shortcake. We must be on the official visitors circuit, we get lots of new faces every month, people visiting in the area, it is very interesting and we meet some excellent dancers. The voting results are in, Jim Haney is the new President, serving his second stint at this job, Dot Anthony stepped down from Pres. to Vice Pres. and Treasurer, and Betty Maine remains as Secretary for a second term. Thank you to all our old standbys and standins, the ever faithful. Get Well cards are in order for Jeannie Lee who is recovering at home from a series of operations, 2401 Rampart St Oakland. A group from the club attended the Chicken Hop at Boulder Creek June 6th and visited at Jim Haney's cabin at Brookdale, also attended the really great MIKE SIKORSKY dance at Mt. Eden on June 11th. Now that RICH MANFIELD is calling at a plus level every dance night seems like a hoedown, we are all re learning the calls you hear at every hoedown. Please join us for some Summer fun.

FREMONT SINGLES ... Congratulations to our newly elected officers, President, John Toliver, Vice President, Joe Nelson, Treasurer, Shirley Moody and Secretary, Carol Janshen. With these outstanding board members the club can look forward to another great year. We had a good turn out for our wine tasting trip to Morgan Hill and San Juan Bautista. A good time was had by all. Summer is the time for club activities, a campout at Lake Berryessa and a Beach Party are coming up soon. Don't miss our Anniversary Hoedown this month. JAY HENDERSON, our guest caller, is certainly a delight to dance to.

UC SQUARES ... Congratulations to our 1982 graduating class. We welcomed them into the club with a pot luck dinner and party. A special thanks to the Bay City Bombers who added more amusement to an already amusing evening. Club members Pat Klassy and Bob Taay were recognized for all the help they gave to this years officers. Our club welcomed summer with our annual camping trip to Pinnecrest. When DOUG CLARK called "load the boat" we all boarded a party boat for some square dancing on the lake. Hiking, photography, and good food helped make the trip lots of fun. A warm goodbye to our current President David Antick who will be leaving us for Boston via Sweden.

BOOTS 'N SLIPPERS ... Here we are, well into summer with all the vacations and special events. We had our club picnic in June. It was a fun packed day for everyone at Blackberry Farm in San Jose, with swimming, volleyball, games for the kids, good food and good company. We're all looking forward to the campout comming up in August. It should be a weekend of fun for the entire family. Our caller and his wife, BOB and MARGRETTE HOFFSETZ are all set for there three week European vacation. We all hope you have a great time. Also a special thanks to Hix Hixenbaugh and the other members of the Fremont Elks Lodge for the use of their hall on Monday nights during the summer.

FARMERS & FARMERETTES ... I think the highlight of the month of June would be the Mystery Trip. It was held on June 12th at the Mt. Eden School in Hayward. The thanks go to the SKIRTS & FLIRTS for putting on a great dance. Our club meet at the Cattlemens in Newark and made it to Hayward by way of Milipitas up to 680 and across 580 to Hayward. The F&F's were caravanned to the dance with 15 couples in 4 motor homes. After the dance the Round Table had discount prices for the dance crowd. Also in June the nominations are open for new officers for some of the governing body. Our money maker is set up again for the fourth of July. Thanks to all who have helped with the fireworks stand. It's another great big job well done.

CHECKMATES ... Our super special former sheriff and delegate, Barney Maciolek, was hospitalized recently for surgery. He says he thinks they removed his Zip, cause he hasn't had any since he was "worked on". His beloved Ivy brought him over for our last party night, and there were some tear filled eyes when ROD called Barney's favorite singling call, 76 Trombones. Our prayers are with you, pal. About two squares of dancers went with ROD & MARILYN to put on an exhibition at a beautiful retirement home in Oakland. ROD treated us to ice cream afterwards at Fentons, and we made pigs of ourselves. Only Aubrey Elliott had the self-discipline to not eat all of his, so to disquise our jealousy, we're teasing him about the "Sampler" he ordered. EAGLE SQUARES ... We had 5 squares dancing in the street before the Livermore Rodeo Parade, then on the Stoneridge and dancing around the pond. We had a large dontingency at the Golden State Round-Up with an after party in the Kagee's room. Our Anniversary Hoedown was celebrated with our own NONIE MOGLIA calling with RAY & JEAN HANNA calling rounds. The Lords had a marvelous after party. We are delighted to have MARY MOGLIA, NONIE'S taw, again joining us on a regular basis at our Wednesday night workshops. Welcome MARY. Our new officers are Dolores and Grover Kagee, Presidents, Harold Pattie and Barbara Thiele, Vice Presidents, Jim & Louise Morris, Secretaries, Brian and Diane Bonner, Treasurers, Liveo and Harriet Olivotti, Angels.
