CLUB NEWS

SAN JOSE AREA

SEE SAWS ... We would like to extend a warm welcome to our newest members, Attie Maxfield and Nonny Arena and birthday wishes to all of our January Birthday members. As we all know the Winter Festival was a great success, and how about those white tuxedos! Bigger and better things are planned for 1984 with more RV spaces and hook-ups. Tickets are selling fast so don't get left out. On Jan. 28th, we joined the WHEELER DEALERS for a night of fun a great dancing. Thank you for your gracious hospitality, and Mike keep those heads watching while the sides do their thing! The statistics are out on the Newer Dancers hoedown which took place at Walters Jr. High on January 29th. A great big thank you to all of the 41 squares that participated. What a great way to show our newer dancers that we appreciate them and are happy to have them with us.

NORTH BAY AREA

FIVE STAR SQUARES ... Congratulations to our club caller DAVE HOBAUGH & SANDY. They are now proud grandparents and also to Henry & Evelyn Rohrkemper who also have their first grandchild. We are happy with the excellent turn out of couples for our new beginners class. Ernie Sire & Harold Bergren did a great job in organizing the beginner class. It was like a Saturday night hoedown last Tuesday night with so many beginners and two squares from the PALS & SALS. It was also party night and DAVE'S family sur-prized him a bought a birthday cake to celebrate his birthday and we got to see his new granddaughter. Come join us at our Hoedown. ROSS JOHNSON & MILLARD MCKINNEY. See our ad.

CATCH ALL EIGHTS ... We are now getting in it together, we won the coffee at Golden Eagle Ranch, Jan. 22nd. A good time and dance is our goal when we entertain the OLD CAPITOL SQUARES and TWILITE TWIRLERS in Feb. Valentines dance. Our beginners are all looking forward to our St. Patrick dance (1-54) on Sun. March 13th. See ad in this issue. Millie St Pierre flew up to Alaska, to visit with her son's for a few weeks. BERT SWERER'S father and Merrilyn Swanholt's Mother departed this world, the first of the year. First lady Edna Jensen has been missed because of minor surgery.

CLEARLAKE AREA

CLEARLAKE SQUARES ... The month of January has been a very busy month for us. Our hoedown on Jan. 22nd with ROSS JOHNSON was a success. Of course ROSS makes it very interesting. The following day on Sunday afternoon we had a newer dancers hoedown with our own CHICK THRASHER, VERN CHURCHILL and GLEN BYLUND calling. It was a whopping success. Of course it was followed with a super potluck. Several of our club members also went to the Winter Festival at Watsonville. What a great time. We have bought our ribbons for 1984 already. We are looking forward to our Hoedown in Feb. due to it being our Anniversary dance. We hope to see you there. We are also planning on going to BenBows for the Square Dance Weekend the first week of March.

KONOCITI KICKERS ... Our Jan. Hoedown, was great though we had a lot of regulars out with the flu. TERRY MOSIER brought a nice group with him to help us out. Your's truly didn't make the hoedown either so I'm afraid the report will have to be very short. We are having a Red Light Green Light Hoedown in February. Hope everyone is well and able to make it. Our next big project is in conjunction with the CLEARLAKE SQUARES. The Pear Blossom Festival in April. Sure hope everyone can make that one.

MARIN COUNTY

TAM TWIRLERS ... The first event of 1983 was our successful Winter Hoedown on Feb. 26th. The Mardi Gras theme, and decor, made it a very colorful festive occasion. Some especially unique prizes were given away including delicious wine from Tiburon Wineries with our own personalized TAM TWIRLERS designed lables on them. On the 5th Monday of the Month we have a special "party night" at our workshops. Generous refreshments are served and any member has the priviledge and opportunity to call a tip. These talented courageous individuals receive a special honorary ITCC badge. (I've Tried Calling Club).

SQUAWS & PAWS ... Our Jan. Red Light-Green Light Hoedown was very successful, thanks to Betty Telfer and all her helpers. The TAM TWIRLERS won the evening coffee. Our large Beginners Class continues with enthusiasm and skill in dancing. The Newer Dancers went to the NOVATO SQUARES Hoedown and brought home the coffee. Anniversary congratulations to Clara and Tony Thomas. Happy Birthday to WEDA DICKEY, and to Suzanne Davidson, Jean Gross, Fran James, Mitzi Kemp, Herb Kristal and Ray Schmitt. Plans are underway for attending the Silver State Round-Up. We are having a hoedown on April 9th. You are all invited to attend. GLEN DICKEY will be our caller and LARRY WILLIAMS will cue the rounds. PIONEERS ... We have some new members who have joined our club, Mac & Dee McEwen and Jack & Madalyn Nolte and wish them many happy years of dancing. Ray Lyons has now fully recuperated from his eye surgery and hopes to go back to dancing very shortly. Our New Years Eve Party was a huge success and vote of thanks must go to all who worked so hard to put it together, not forgetting DAVE HOBAUGH who did a wonderful job on calling for the tips and ballroom dancing. LARRY & KAREN WILLIAMS also did a beautiful job with the rounds. We intend to repeat the New Years Eve Party for 1983. We had two tragedies in the club, Charlie Meyer is on the sick list but is now recuperating, and May Crane passed away. May was a very valuable Charter Member who devoted her whole life to square dancing, she will be missed. STUMP JUMPERS ... Many thanks to hosts' Angulo and Bernard for getting 1983 started in style, 76 dancers celebrated. Thanks also, to our past officers for a successful term. New officers installed at the Koenigs' Potluck were: Joe Killiam, President, Cal Mellor, Vice President, Ingrid Koenig, Secretary, Joan Almeida, Treasurer. Michel Elizabeth Parker born Dec.

26th made her debut at Jan. 19th's workshop. Sheriff Elly fined our President Joe, Bill Almeida called another good "tip", and we welcomed Al Angulo's Columbian family. Cal Mellor is finalizing Reno. Holsinger's and Angulos' are planning April 16ths Hoedown. We were saddened to hear Sue Bacon recently lost her mother. Good news. Carl Unger is home after surgery.

NOVATO SQUARES ... 8 of our couples helped bring the new year in by attending the STUMP JUMPERS New Years Eve party. A delightful buffet was served including marinated chicken. Thank You! Our Beginners Hoedown held in January was very enjoyable. A great appreciation goes to host & hostess Bill & Lee Larson and to all the beginners including Dick & Sue Brennan, co hosts, Bill Bayles & Sally Milani. Callers from the floor were BOB ELLING & RAY BETTENCOURT. A job well done. Members of our club danced at the Richmond Auditorium Jan. 9th. After the dance, couples dined at the Port Orient Restaurant in Richmond. Ed Deardurf had made arrangements for the dinner for us. Thanks.

M.O.D. SQUAD ... The first workshop of 1983 saw the return of Orville Koenning who had broken his foot two months earlier and the Ralph Pelto's who had holiday guests as well as a "house of tour" for the University Womens fund raising project. Welcome back. We missed you. Three and a half couples attended the NCSDA Anniversary Dance in Richmond. It was fun to meet friends from other Bay Area Clubs there. Later, most of us dined at Celas. President Jim Hallstrom and wife, Nita hosted their first Open Board meeting in January. The club will sponsor a Beginners Square Dance Class for the new dancer beginning Tuesday February 15th, at 7:30. Tell your friends. Plans are continuing for our March 5th Hoedown.

MAVERICKS ... First came the darkness, no lights, due to storm, blacking out our Xmas party. Next week, and lights we had our Xmas and New Year parties together. Aileen & Dick Taylor travelled to San Diego recently. LON & JEAN FERRELL along with JEAN'S parents visited family in Fresno. Hal & Hazel Rider are all aglow recapitulating the December wedding of their daughter. The newlyweds are back in Davis where their new son-in-law attends the School of Medicine. We attended the NCSDA dance in Richmond, followed with a dinner celebration for Connie Judson. LON & JEAN called Rounds at OLD CAPITOL SQUARES dance Jan. 22nd. JEAN is teaching a Beginner Class, Tuesdays at 8:00. Welcome to Julius Czimerer, our newest member.

REDWOOD EMPIRE

MARKWESTERNERS ... We are busily preparing for a celebration of Spring at our Annual Spring Fling Hoedown on March 5th. Hope to see a lot of you dancers at Monroe Hall. You all make it fun for all of us! Thanks, Joe Steinberg for your faithful "door duty" service. We hope to see you and Selma dancing with us too. All work and no dancing is a drag, no? Whatever happened to Arlene and Wendel Kiltz on Jan. 18th? It must be the only time they have ever missed a Tuesday evening of dancing. Real steadies, they are. We enjoyed a trio of visiting couples from Texas, Arizona and San Jose recently. Nice to know folks from our neighboring states are aware of us and KEN RICKERT. Speaking of KEN, we want to send Get-Well wishes to BOBBIE who has been under the weather recently. Glad you are home again.

WHISTLE STOMPERS ... We are starting the year off with another caller. LARRY HUDSON will be doing the instructing. The dance night has changed from Monday to Tuesday. We have a new board. President, Pat Watkins, Vice President, Art Dewall, Secretary, John Pankovich, Treasurer, Lillian Dunivant. We were invited to Hap Kinneys lovely home for a delicious pot luck for the outgoing and incoming officers. We had a meeting afterwards to discuss the forth coming beginners hoedown at Monroe Hall which is scheduled for Feb. 20th. Come join us.

SAUCY SQUARES ... New Officers were installed at our monthly board meeting. We also enjoyed a potluck on that night. Plans for our April hoedown with ROSS JOHNSON were discussed. Discussion on club jackets being ordered were tabled with DAVE WISCHEMANN said he might be able to get some surplus carpeting from the coast guard base. It was suggested that we could make sarapes. Daniel Minkin started a filibuster that threatened to bring proceedings to a halt until his mother put him to bed. Our banner was retrieved from the SINGLES & PAIRS. Theirs disappeared the same night and ended up in our hall. Nobody knows how.

QUESTION MARKS ... We started the year off with a New Years Eve Hoedown with TOM WALTON calling. The midnight dinner prepared and served by the Palmers was excellent! Our thanks to the Masseys, Perrys, Palmers and Krantzes, the committee. A special thanks to Marylin and Leonard Lamerton for helping the committee with decorations. We held our fourth annual Mad Hatters Ball with BILL PETERS calling the Jan. 7th dance with many clubs represented. Marge and Jim Pool did a great job coordinating and hosting the dance. Many novel and creative hats were displayed during the annual hat parade. TOM WALTON won the drawing for the dress, but has yet to model it for us! We are proud of our beginners as they are attending many hoedowns. Our new club officers are, President, Bill Massey, John Storck Vice President, Jan Palmer, Secretary and Bobbi Grant, Treasurer. Please join us for our March 26th dance with MIKE WRIGHT calling.

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES ... On January 8th, after many of us recovered from the flu or to many Holidays, KELLY MIZUNO called a fast & fun hoedown. Chairperson for the dance were Urtons, Brutons and Yeagers. Jim & Bickie Paine have certainly been busy lately. Besides the normal holiday hustle and bustle, they welcomed in a new grandson, Scott Steven, enjoyed a 35th Anniversary party via their children and enjoyed the wedding of their daughter Janet. I hear they will soon be off travelling again. Wonder why? I am sure they could use the rest. Ken & Bea Cunningham also became grandparents over the holidays. They have a new granddaughter. Learning the Hula is Adeline Smith, who is on a holiday in the islands. Come join us in March to dance with JET ROBERTS with rounds by LARRY and KAREN WILLIAMS.

SINGLES & PAIRS ... We voted in new members Russell Jones and Oscar & Marge Montgomery at the January business meeting. Brice Williams volunteered to do the yearly audit of the books. Before the meeting the club had a potluck with Mr. & Mrs. Harry Sharkey as guests. (I never knew our club had such excellent cooks.) Anyone with news concerning newer and regular dancers contact Darlene Dobrovolny for her next News Letter. At the January Hoedown DAVE HOBAUGH called to a full house with every newer club in the area being represented. This month our new dancers will hold a Hoedown on the 19th with JACK MURTHA calling floor level basics 1-68 at Monroe Hall. All clubs are welcome.

RAINBOW STROLLERS ... The response to our first A-1 level dance was overwhelming! We had 17 squares of energetic dancers enjoying RON WELSH'S calling. It was a chance for us to practice all of the calls we've been learning in our workshops, plus RON taught us some new calls. There were 17 different clubs represented at the hoedown. Thank you, dancers, for helping us prove that A-1 level dances are successful.

CONTRA COSTA AREA

ANTIOCH AMBLERS ... Those of you who did not attend our Dec. 3rd Beginners Hoedown missed a real good time. Our own DREW ANDERSON and many other callers from the floor helped to make it a memorable evening. The after party was the largest and most successful one in years. Our Christmas party was another block buster for 1982. Everyone enjoyed themselves. Our thanks to the Shaws & Bergers for their much appreciated efforts, and to Jan & Frank Stokes for the country western music. 1983 began for us on Jan. 22nd at our Anniversary Hoedown, featuring DICK HOULTON and we all had a great time. Special thanks to the group of beginners who came and helped out in the kitchen. We are now busy getting ready for all of you at our fun level hoedown on April 16th. Remember, this is your last chance before Reno.

TEEN TWIRLERS ... The beginners hoedown is going to held on Feb. 11th. The caller will be ED TAUSIG with guest BILL BANKERT. Congratulations beginners.

CONCORD STOMPERS ... Congratulations to Ben Coats and Shirley Shepherd. They met as beginners in the STOMPERS, and decided to spend the rest of their lives dancing together as a married couple. Betti Brewer, President of our Bowling League, has a new image to maintain, she bowled a 256 game. Hats Off to Dinky & Jack Terry, who have started a new square dance class for elementary students. Our Mainstream Plus Hoedown, with FRANK LANE calling was a huge success. It was a fun filled evening of good dancing and fellowship. Equally enjoyable were the rounds led by HANK & RUTH FITCH. We are delighted that Sheppie and Ron Woods have agreed to handle our new Beginners class. They will benefit from your expertise.

SUN VALLEY SQUARES ... Past Presidents, Tom & Dot Mercer, celebrated their 25th Wedding Anniversary in Hawaii and we all know they had a wonderful time. The club's Anniversary

Hoedown in January, with LARRY WARD calling, provided fun and great dancing for over 48 squares, and we hope to continue the tradition again next year. The after party at Paul & Kitty Clausen's gave everyone a chance to bid fond farewell to Tom and Maura Eastman, also club Past presidents, who are moving to Fortuna to open their own business. Although we will miss them, we wish them good fortune and much happiness in their nursery.

GUYS & DOLLS ... We are happy to welcome our new members Fred & Joyce Grabner, Gary & Joyce Sizer, Rich & Linda Silverman and "Fitz" & Ilene Fitzgerald. January was a very exciting month for our caller, DAVE HOBAUGH and his family. The big event was the birth of their new granddaughter, Stephanie Jean Brown. We know she is a star, DAVE says that she has mastered calls 1-50 already! We are pleased to hear that Jean Cook is recovering nicely from her operation. We hope to have her back dancing with us soon. The major event for February is our second annual Box Social Extraganza. This year we are preparing the feast and the Dolls are anxiously awaiting their chance to bid on the fancy boxes and baskets.

RIPSNORTERS ... We should all be excited about our exuberant, electrifying, exciting ERIC HENERLAU & ED TAUSIG. ED is our newer dancers caller and did a great hoedown for us all in February. Our Short Horns are dynamite! Some of our Short Horns attended our dinner in January which was rather a gala occasion. We have had some of our good friends and dancers be a bit under the weather in the recent past and pray for their speedy recovery. We have to see some of these people out on the dance floor or go over to their house and raise so much ruckus that they have to get well to get rid of us. Get geared up for all the big doings in 1983. We are going to Silver State, Golden State, State Convention and Spring and Fall Hoedowns. Check your shoes and check your clothes we are jumping on the fun train here we go!

TWILITE TWIRLERS ... Our Christmas party was small but a good time was had by all. We had decided that instead of exchanging gifts we would donate money to the childrens shelter in Martinez. We are busy with plans for our March 5th Hoedown at Concord High School, with ED TAUSIG doing the calling. Come dance with us and have a good time. We were sorry to hear that BERT SWERER'S father had passed away. Our deepest sympathy to BERT & RONDA. A group of us attended the OLD CAPITOL SQUARES Hoedown for a night of really great dancing. They have a unique place to dance and that wood floor is super to dance on. Some of us attended an afterparty, with apple pie, ice cream and brownies being devoured by the hungry bunch.

CLUTCH BUSTERS ... With the holidays behind us and the Cast of the Christmas Program and the "CLUTCH BUSTERS all Participants Choir" refusing all offers to go on the road, the club moved on to more important business, setting the stage for a new cast of Officers: Ralph & Betty Brys, President, Kirt & Carol Neal, Vice President, Earl & Bobby Horne, Treasure & Olive & Dean Schnaible, Secretary. January also sees us with a new Brush Up Class included with the Beginners Class. Our own ELMER RADCLIFFE will be calling a Beginners Hoedown on March 11, at College Park High and DICK HOULTON at Ygnacio Valley High, March 19th, with HANK & RUTH FITCH calling Rounds. February 26th ELMER calls at Clearlake for the 19th Anniversary of the CLEARLAKE SQUARES. A caravan will follow him there! Hail to our new leaders, cheer to a great new year!

DIABLO SINGLES ... Thanks to the imagination of badge-creator/maker, Bill Ludwig, members and visitors of our club that "Devil Expressed" down to the 3rd Annual Square Dancers Night at Disneyland last September were presented with special badges. Mickey and Minnie are in a heart, Disneyland is engulfed by a rain cloud and rain drops are scattered below. The Devil Express was presented with a plaque that similar bearing all the names of her riders. Thank you, Bill! We are hosting a "Red Hot" Association of California Single Squares 5th Friday Dance on April 29th, featuring, JET ROBERTS. Advance tickets are available, see our announcement in this issue. Happy St. Paddy's Day! BUZZIN CUZZINS ... We have moved. We are now dancing at the Veterans Hall, 6401 Stockton Ave. El Cerrito. Hope you square dancers in that area will come join us. 22 of our members attended NCSDA Anniversary dance in Richmond. Enjoyed some very good dancing. Looking forward now to our own Hoedown, March 5th, with DAVE HOBAUGH & MIKE WRIGHT calling. Hope to see a lot of our old friends there.

SAN FRANCISCO AREA

LONGHORNS ... What a pleasure it was to celebrate John & Elfreda Parson's 50th Wedding Anniversary, Tues. Jan. 18th at our Tuesday club night. Margaret Davoli baked the beautiful cake. John's 80th birthday coming up. What a slim, trim figure he presents on the dance floor. Only square dancer who can dance on a 12" X 12" space and never miss a step. Vera and Harold Dowdy back from touring the USA. Cookie and Joe Montalto toured the Central States and Florida. Plans are being made for the Spring dance. Save a Saturday in May for that special event. WHIRL-A-WAYS ... Thanks to George Sailor for sharing his fantastic coin collection displayed at our New Years Eve Dance. January found Irene Medina and Ann Buksa in Pasadena welcoming 1983 at the Rose Bowl. Calderia's announced the birth of a grandson Christmas Day named Nickolas! Members complimenting the calling of GEORGE DRIER and DALE HOUCK at the CLODHOPEERS Hoedown. Ditto for JIM WYLIE at the S.F. B. & B's Anniversary Dance. Feb. brought our Annual Silent Auction and found our ladies readying new club dresses under the guidance of Betty Rogers for our 30th Anniversary Dance which is one we will long remember. Others reminiscing about the Fresno Squarearama and anticipating the social events and dances in March. CABLE CAR SQUARES ... Another big thank you goes out to our friends and guests for their support of our Sweetheart Hoedown in early Feb., and for their enjoyment of the special refreshments and goodies that the taws of the club traditionally provide for our guests.

Coupled with the acoustics of the Daly City Memorial and its spacious wooded (polished) floor, the calling of DAVE HOBAUGH and the rounds of JOHN RETTER, combined for a memorable evening of square dancing. Again, thanks!

ROADRUNNERS ... Our Beginner Class is moving into the second stage of mainstream calls with enthusiasm. Club members joined them for dinner and a hoedown in Fremont on January 29th. It was almost a mystery trip for some who never found the restaurant, but everyone found the dance 20 couples altogether. It was the first hoedown for several couples, but ROBERT has taught them well and all had a fine time. The Bodles are always travelling, their last trip was to Las Vegas. Bill wouldn't talk about his winnings but we have rave reviews of some of the shows.

SPINNING WHEELS ... Sues & QUES & SILVER DOLLARS joined us in ringing in the New Year at our Annual New Year's Eve party. More than 16 squares danced to callers CHARLIE BROWN & MIKE WRIGHT. Some of us even added Cotton Eye Joe and the Texas Ten Step to our dance repertoire! A delicious continuous buffet was served, and at midnight balloons cascaded over the crowd, streamers were tossed, and a big brass locomotive bell was rung by Don Van Stratten. Good dancing, good food, good company, what a way to usher in the New Year! Thank you, Chairpersons Lou & Irv Martin and your great committee. Remember to reserve March 12th for our Annual Shamrock Shuffle at Cubberly High School in Palo Alto with caller RANDY DIBBLE.

CLOVERLEAFS ... At a recent sing-a-long we were surprised and delighted by John Mazurek's talented playing of the harmonicas. We're going to want to hear more from John and those harmonicas now that he has been "discovered"! Rich Piombo is stiff and bruised, but feeling very fortunate. It could have much worse. A ladder Rich was on collapsed, spilling him onto the floor. We missed BOB ELLING who was unable to call for us twice in January. But we enjoyed dancing to DOUG SAUNDERS & DALE HOUCK who filled in. First time visitors to the Asilomar in January were Pat & Bill Robles who thoroughly enjoyed their three days. Other January dancers at the Asilomar were George & Verda Sailor who stayed 6 days. No first time for them. They're regular visitors and love it! March 18th is the date for our Square Dance Quilt drawing. Do you have your tickets?

GINGHAM SQUARES ... Early January saw a contingent of us trekking over to Richmond Auditorium in support of our popular caller DALE HOUCK, once again selected as one the top callers in the area by the NCSDA. We couldn't agree more! At a joint meeting, hosted by the Alexanders, the 1982 and 1983 Board members met to officially transfer over the various duties. The new Board has every intention of continuing the fine example of its predecessor in providing many fun activities for our square dancers. New President Randal Yorks brought the yummy cake enjoyed by all.

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS ... Had a good time at the NCSDA dance in Richmond with the "Best Caller" although the floor level was not up to the callers level. A group of club members accompanied some of the beginners in a car pool to the SUES 'N QUES dance called by our own VICKI WOODS in Palo Alto. Great dance. PHIL PAYTON, our beginners caller, even did a tip! We joined them again at the KIP GARVEY & JIM OSBORNE "Ball" in Fremont. They are really enjoying square dancing. Some of the Taws are buying new dresses! We are having a beginners hoedown in late March on a Thursday at the Stevenson School. See our flyers!

CAPER CUTTERS ... We elected 1983 Officers: Wendell Lathrop, President, Frank Fadhl, Vice President, Patsy McMurtrie, Secretary, Helen Allen, Treasurer. A gala February installation dinner is in the planning stages. We are welcoming Wayne Smith as our newest member who, hopefully, will be followed by our beginners class. Remind people who would like basic step brush ups that they are welcome to join the Jr. CAPER CUTTERS.

TWO BY FOURS ... Started the year with a great New Year's Eve Party. Thanks to Anne Dreier for getting the hall for us. Installed new officers in January. President, Bud and Alice Bernard, Vice President, Larry & LaVonne Ingenthron, Secretary, Mark & Janet Oliver and Treasurer, Les & Mary Davis. Our newer dancers are doing great and will have a hoedown on March 26th at Burlingame Rec. Center.

49'ERS ... We are planning our 34th Anniversary Hoedown to be held at South San Francisco High School on March 19th. Dancing will be from 8-11:15 with pre rounds. DALE HOUCK will be the caller with the WRIGHTS doing the rounds. The hoedown committee is hard at work and hope to see you all out and dancing with us on March 19th. Bus groups and Mystery Trips welcome. For information contact 345-5689 or 583-8915.

PAIRS 'N SPARES ... A happy crowd enjoyed our Newer Dancers hoedown and fashion show. Our V.P. team, Clarence & Fern Barnes, with their kitchen helpers did a fine job on the refreshments. Models and their escorts also performed to perfection. Fun for all. The Board dinner at Nick's Restaurant was the occasion to say a hearty thanks, well done to outgoing Pres. George Anderson and his team, and congratulations to incoming Pres. David Copland and board. KEN KENMILLE will be calling our Spring Hoedown, Saturday, March 26th. With much sadness we bid farewell to Dale Burrious, one of our long time members. An enthusiastic and friendly dancer. He will be greatly missed. Our sympathy is extended to his family and friends.

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETES
San Mateo Chapter ... New officers have been elected and installed and retiring officers honored with appreciation dinner. Guiding the helm for the next six months are Judie Jobak, President, Tony Vella, Vice President, Lou Bruschini, Secretary and Diane Shemanski as Treasurer. Starting the month on a high note, our newer dancers did a super job on their half-way (thru class) Hoedown. In appreciation, the club hosted a mystery trip for the Class to the ever popular GARY CARNES/LAST TRAIN HOME Hoedown. Club and Class alike are eagerly anticipating the Turlock Wing Ding coming up in March. See you there.

SQUARE CUTTERS ... We welcomed back all our members and visitors after the holidays. Our caller and his wife, HARRY & LAVERNE WHITLOCK celebrate their 40th Wedding Anniversary the end of Jan. One square of our members attended the district dance at Richmond and had a great time. During February we had a pot luck dinner to celebrate Valentine's Day and many of our friends came and enjoyed a fun filled evening with us. We are learning the new round dance of the month. Visitors are always welcome, so come join in the fun and bring a friend.

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTEs San Francisco Chapter ... Enjoyed DICK HOULTON, calling for ROADRUNNERS, always a pleasure to dance to his smooth calling. Joined our sister chapter of San Jose for their 19th Anniversary with BOB HENDERSON, calling to a full hall. We followed with our 20th Anniversary, with our own JIM WYLIE calling a great dance, with the WRIGHTS on the rounds. Our members showing off the new club outfits. Good friends, good food, (and lots of it), and to make it complete, a bus load from L.A. arrived. A big thanks to all our hard working members, who made it a big success and a lot of fun.

CLODHOPPERS ... We were taken on a wild mystery trip. Although it hasn't happened yet as usual we have the most fun. About 2+ square were down at the Asilomar. Had a great time even though all the power went out Friday night. Bet they have some wild tales to tell! We are looking forward to our Anniversary Dance at CSM March 5th. RON WELSH calling and JACK & DOROTHY WRIGHT on the rounds. Joe & Diana Mitchell are the Square Heads.

EAST BAY AREA

SPINNING WHEELS ... To recap the past three months, in Dec. the Beginners and Intermediates combined talents for a deluxe potluck dinner and dance. Our caller, "MAC" MCDEVITT, was presented with a handsome new Stetson. In January, for his birthday, we added to "MAC'S" wardrobe a new shirt, belt and buckle, making him easily the most dashing caller around! Also, in January we said a reluctant farewell to our President Paul Anderson and his wife, Gene, who have left Alameda for Japan on a prolonged assignment with the Red Cross. The Monday and Tuesday night Classes combined and hosted a surprise farewell party for them. Vice Presidents, Nita & Jim Zenos, have taken over the reins of both clubs for the remainder of their term of office. We are now looking forward to a Beginners Hoedown in March.

ACES & LACES ... Our newer dancers have been very active this month, attending hoedowns on Jan. 7,9,14. Jan. 15, our 3rd Saturday dance found 15 squares dancing and having fun. A delicious Strawberry Cream Bavarian refreshment was served. Jan. 21, 2 squares attended another newer dancer's Hoedown. Jan. 22, 5 couples attended a plus dance in Fremont. Jan. 28th 5 squares danced at the Armory with the C.V. REBELS. Our Progressive dinner of Jan. 29, was a fun filled evening, after the dinner we danced at the Cerebral Benefit Dance. We're looking forward to our 2nd Annual Badge Dance of March 19, our guest caller JOEL KADISH, see our ad!

VALLEY TRAVELERS ... January brings a new year and we hope you all have a very prosperous and happy 1983.

January also brings the Winter Festival in Watsonville. Many of us attended and we all had more fun than you could believe. Two of our members won in the T Shirt contest, prizes were tickets to next years Festival. Congratulations to Joan Von Buskirk and Jenny Castner. This month also brings our annual progressive dinner. This year we went Polynesian in Dress and food. It was fun to dress and eat in the Hawaiian style. A big thank you to all the hostess and hosts. Hope to see everybody at our March Hoedown on the 18th with JAY HENDERSON.

SAN LORENZO SINGLES ... The big news is that we now have a new hall to dance in. Carpenters' Hall at 1050 Mattox Road in Hayward, and that club and class will both be dancing here. The "Fun Club" has been very active with lots of hoedowns and special parties and exhibitions at some of the local pubs. Thanks to Organizer Lou Peterson. Georgina Kamlin and her committee did an excellent job on the very successful progressive dinner. Thanks to Georgina, Lottie Roe, Madge Drumm and Marcia Johnson for opening their homes for this. Valentine Party was "Sweet-heart Night" with many married couples attending who had met at club. Our enthusiastic class of newer dancers is having a Hoedown on March 25th at the Armory in San Leandro. See you there!

BOOTS 'N SLIPPERS ... Round

& Round she goes, where she stops. Thats the big question this month as we set off on our annual Mystery Trip. As we load the bus with goodies to munch on we are full of anticipation wondering what delectable destination has been selected this year. We all wish Virginia Haney, our club NCSDA Delegate, a very speedy recovery and early return to dancing after falling and breaking her wrist and hand at a square dance recently.

EAGLE SQUARES ... We really enjoyed the calling of DICK HOULTON at our January Hoedown. He was delightfully joined by RAY & JEAN HANNA calling the rounds. Thank you DICK, JEAN & RAY. This month Linda & Travis Gainous hosted the great afterparty. It seems Harold was still there at noon on Sunday! Our newer dancers are dancing up a storm, going to many hoedowns. We had a party night within the club where NONIE MOGLIA announced the names of all the Anniversaries and birthdays for two months. What a large group! We haven't seen much of Grover & Delores Kagee lately since his mother is very ill. Our best wishes for her speedy recovery. We hope you will all join us on March 12 at our Hoedown featuring BILL PETERS and the WEBERS.

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS ... Lots of us wear different hats, one of them is unique. He is probably a better farmer and produce man than Joe Carcone, he is the number one fan to his wife's organ playing expertise, one of our better square dancers and we just found out that he makes one of the best carrot cakes ever baked. We all know that Charlie Banks could grow anything from apples and apricots to zucchini and yuccamellon, but none of us were aware of the fact that this genius was also an expert cook. Anyway, we really enjoyed his talents when he showed up on a Thursday night with this beautiful cake that he made for Ruth & Bill Jasvin's Anniversary/ Talking about food, Harry and Fern had a ball eating their way all over the beautiful city of New Orleans. They loved the whole thing, but they both agreed that the food was outstanding.

KEEWAY SWINGERS ... We are off and dancing with the new year. Our Activities Director, Fitch and Betty Fitchnel are planning to keep us busy. A trip to Marine World for the club is coming up in April. Our beginners class will be having a Hoedown March 18th. Everyone is invited to attend. Fresno will be attended by a large number of us. Should be an exciting weekend. The club round dancing is gaining momentum with all our newer dancers learning more dances. KEN KENMILLE, our caller for the squares, has come up with some new dances. Grand Spin continues to be an interesting move with lots of variations and styling by our dancers. We'll get it yet. KEN'S newest record is Jailhouse Rock. I guess it will be another sing a long. We'll all be seeing you at the hoedowns.

SUNDOWNERS ... We had a beautiful New Year's Eve Party at Leona Lodge, as usual, and the year got off to a fine start as far as dancing goes with a whole bunch of us going to surf city for our major monthly outing. We are saddened by the loss of our dear Melva Brooking who seemed her usual delightful, energetic self for the New Year's Eve Party but died suddenly on January 4th. We extend our condolences to Howard, we will miss her too. ODD'S & END'S ... Our caller, SCOT BYARS is back in school, temporarily. He will be working towards a masters degree. DOUG SAUNDERS filled in for him the first two Thursdays in January. He is also a good caller and has a great singing voice. Thanks DOUG! Nate and Rosalie Fisher are back dancing with us. Our Vice President Adelbert Scoville is also back with us after an absence resulting from an eye problem. Good to have him back too! John Stanisich entered Doctor's hospital in San Leandro on Jan. 18th for surgery. He hopes to be active again in about three weeks. We wish him a speedy recovery. If you go to weekend hoedowns, don't be surprised if you bump into a bunch of us. We recently won three of six door prizes at Ygnacio Valley High. Take a look at our new badges. See you in this same spot next month. Have you hugged your corner lately?

UC SQUARES ... Our members really enjoyed their annual trip to Yosemite in a big way. With a special wave and hello to her Majesty and Prince Philip. During the day all managed to spread out in many directions. Yosemite has so much to offer. But after a wonderful dinner, we gathered together for a songfest. Never knew there were so many rare and interesting voices or variations to some songs! An invitation is extended to all for our Beginner Level Hoedown scheduled for Sat. March 19th. RON HAGGERTY will be the caller and we have some extra special plans for this dance. Be sure to mark the date!

EDEN ROCKERS ... January has been a rather quiet month as far as activities go. An Executive Board meeting was held on the 7th at which plans were discussed for our coming hoedown on March 5th. Our own CHARLIE BROWN is calling this Newer Dancers's Hoedown and it includes the Basics 1-60. Also, at the meeting, a Nominating Committee was appointed. Yes, it's that time again. We are looking forward to Friday, the 28th of January, when a large group of us will dine at Carrow's Restaurant and then proceed to Chabot College Aud. to enjoy the Chinese Magic Circus. On Wednesday, Jan. 19th, Jim and Elanor Davis came to visit us. Two delightful people who always seem to make dancing more fun.

RANCHERO SQUARES ... In Dec. we enjoyed our Christmas Party and potluck dinner. Everyone was delighted when Santa arrived with gifts for the children. Our generosity was extended to playing Santa in the community. Christmas gifts and a huge food basket were given to a special family. They were extremely appreciative and we were happy to be able to help them. The first weekend in January, several couples trekked off to Clearlake to hear our own TERRY MOSIER call a hoedown for the KONOCTI KICKERS. It was a fun filled weekend. Of course we stopped at some wineries on the way home. We've also been busy attending hoedowns on weekends and planning our plus level dance with guest caller HAROLD FLEEMAN on Feb. 19th.

FARMERS & FARMERETTES ... Our 21st Anniversary Hoedown on Nov. 6th was a big success, despite all the confusion. TERRY MOSIER and JOEL KADISH did an outstanding job of calling. Our new club outfits were worn for the first time that night, lighting up the room with a rainbow of colors. A big thanks to Linda & Gary Cordano and Jim & Barbara Eckersley for a great job on the decorations.

Also a special thanks to Linda & Gary for a fabulous after party at their home. We would like to welcome new club members Ron & Becky Johnston. 8 squares went to the Masonic Home to dance. For some of the residents it brought back memories of when they used to square dance. It felt good to see them all with big smiles on their faces and tapping their feet to the music. It made the evening very enjoyable and fulfilling.

FAR WESTERN DANCERS ... Oops I missed December somewhere along the line and did not get any news in January. Forgive me group. Rain does not seem to dampen the spirit of our dancers as they have waded through some pretty deep puddles on Wednesday nights in January. Most of the credit for their enthusiasm has to go to our great caller, DAVE BELDEN who has brought our Tenderfeet along in great style. They have been going to Beginners Hoedowns and dancing exceptionally well. A large group visited the CIRCLE SQUARES one Thursday night and had great fun dancing with them to TERRY MOSIER'S neat calling. We were forced to bid a fond farewell to our Charter President, Neil and Jackie Dillon this month as they are moving to Roseville, but we all look forward to seeing them in Reno this spring, if not before. Our last hoedown with them was at the EAGLE SQUARES which was great fun, even though we got lost in the fog looking for the pizza parlor. Good luck, Neil and Jackie and keep dancing.

SOLOS & PAIRS ... Our Jan. Board Meeting was held at the home of Helen Peters in El Cerito, who is sister to Betty Maine, one of our club members. Helen is a long time member of the CATCH ALL EIGHTS and dances with our club frequently. The two gals go all out in the hospitality department. Our party night was almost rained out with one of the big storms but we managed to accumulate 2½ squares. Our guest callers for the month included HOWARD PARKER, BUD WOLKINS and JIM HAWKINSON. Next month we are looking forward to hearing ED TAUSIG. We have a number of new people interested in joining the club, names are forthcoming when they are confirmed. Our President, Jim Haney is enthusiastic about the coming year for our club and for square dancing.

KUNTRY KUZINS ... We have had quiet a social calendar for the past two months. Dec. was highlighted by our Xmas program. Ginger Hodges was the chairperson of a most enjoyable variety show. She was able to involve most of the club, including our tiny tots. We said our good byes till New Years Eve. January started out with a bang with our New Year's Eve party. This years party was hosted by Gordon & Polly Cleaver. Great time! Another January event held on Jan. 21st with TERRY MOSIER calling the entire program. A real fun evening. We are quite sure our upcoming Benefit dance will be an equal success. Last, but definitely not least, our thanks to the SQUARE WHEELERS and TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS for making our party night a foot stomping success. Not to mention that we had a surprise visit from the IN-BETWEEN-SQUARES who travelled in a big storm to dance with us along with their caller JIM MCDONALD.

ROUND-UP CORNER

The 1983 Round-Up Program is being finalized and it promises dancing pleasures for all levels, Friday, Saturday and Sunday May 27, 28 & 29th. The well known national callers will be, Larry Letson from Indianapolis, Indiana, Jon Jones, Arlington, Texas, Johnny Preston, formerly Michigan, now from Mission Viejo, California, with Charlie & Bette Procter, from Red Oak, Texas as the Round Dance Team. A little bit of interest about our featured callers, Larry Letson began his calling career in 1967 at the age of 12, has been a member of Indiana Square Dance Callers Ass'n. since 1969 and a member of Callerlab since 1976. He has been the featured caller at various festivals and square dance weekends throughout the Midwest and also at the Sequoia Stomp in Visalia, California. Larry records on Lou-Mac Records and since 1980 has been a full time, professional caller. Larry and his wife, Vicki make their home in Indianapolis, Indiana. Jon Jones started square dancing in 1954. Today he calls regularly for two clubs, teaches beginner classes at University of Texas and has been featured at festivals and weeklong institutes in many state and Canada. Jon and his wife, Shirley live in Arlington, Texas with two sons and one daughter. Jon has recorded on the Square "L" Label and is currently recording with Kalox. Next month, a bit of news on Johnny Preston and the Round Dance Team, Charlie and Bettye Procter. Look for our advance registration flyers. Take advantage of the special savings offered those who pre register for this great week of dancing.
