SAN FRANCISCO AREA

BACHELORS & BACHELORETTESS

San Francisco Chapter ... We are on the move again! We will be at the Francis Scott Key Grammar School at 43rd and Kirkham St. until June vacation. Our last night at the church was party night, we had many guests, including Autumn Wagner, a former member, we were happy to see again. Went to PAIRS 'N SPARES to hear KEN KENMILLE call a fun dance. We are working on our plans for our annual bus trip, to the B 'N B's Chicken-Hop, in June. See you all at the Round-Up.

LONGHORNS ... The raid on the ROADRUNNERS club was attended by 18 couples on 3/22. The callers BLAKE WESTMAN and ROBERT ALGEA called a varied and fast program of fun dancing in beautiful Beresford Rec. Center. Our board members elected to present Sarky & Helen Boghosian with Honorary Memberships in our club. Six squares danced with the newer dancers, Fri. 3/25. Lots of cookies and good fellowship was enjoyed. The Mannings, Stewarts, Rideouts & Urreres took a spring vacation trip to Death Valley. Remember our Spring Stomp coming in May!

HIGHLAND SWINGERS ... Our beginners class in progressing nicely and we enjoyed our second Beginners Hoedown on March 26th. The decorations were beautifully done by Bunny & Cluff Hanners. The food baskets were filled with all kinds of super food done by the whole club. Our next few weeks we are having guest callers while ART & MARIE HANSFORD are away at Caller Lab in Philadelphia. Many of our club members are getting together to go to the Casa De Fruita weekend in April and the 36th Silver gate Square Dance Festival in Reno in May. Hope you'll join us for our June 4th Hoedown at Carlmont High School in Belmont. Our caller is GARY CARNES and JACK & IONE KERN will be calling rounds. Join us for Wednesday night dancing in San Carlos.

BACHELORS & BACHELORETTESS

San Mateo Chapter ... Conventions! Festivals! Good Old Fashioned Fun! Shine up those dancing shoes and get the foot baths ready. It's that time of year again. April started early with our Easter picnic March 27th. A large group supported our caller, BILL PETERS, at the ADOBE WELL-DIGGERS ticket dance April 2nd. Golden Doors for Newer Dancers was well attended and followed by dinner afterwards. The Club was respectfully represented at both "The Best Little Weekend" and the State Convention in San Jose. Looking forward to seeing many friends, old and new, at Silver State, Reno, California Single Squares in Bakersfield and Golden State in May.

GINGHAM SQUARES ... Our mellow voiced caller DALE HOUCK in practicing lullabies along with singing calles since the arrival in early March of a tiny (5 lbs. 2 oz.) new granddaughter, Katie Marie. For PHYLLIS & DALE this now brings the total to two granddaughters and one grandson. Perhaps that score can be evened up in the future. Congratulations to the whole family. Dancing at a recent workshop came to a complete standstill when the earsplitting fire alarm was touched off. The first mystery is what triggered it and, second, why it took the Fire Department at least 15 minutes to respond, with the station only a few blocks away!

WHIRL-A-WAYS ... Congrats to Virginia Caldeira for a fine Reno trip. The losers consoled themselves with eats and bubbly while the winners counted their coin. Surprise, Tony Priscoe and his lovely wife paid us a dancing visit. Looking good Tony, marriage agrees with the former WAW. Members completed their plans for the California State Convention in San Jose. Hope you were one of the many who shared some good experiences. With the departure of John Mazurek, Vice Pres. to Rohnert Park, we're pleased to announce Irene (Tony) Medina as our new Vice President. Have you see Butch Carr? Look quick before he disappears! May brings anniversary congrats to John & Eve Pericic (Club Treasurer). Birthday candles for Wally Kilgore, Walter Caldeira & Paul Grace.

CLODHOOPPERS ... At this time our Anniversary Dance held at CSM is a happy memory. We would like to thank all of you who helped us celebrate. And to thank our Square Heads, Dianne and Joe Mitchell and their hard working Committee. Our 5th Wednesday dance night was well attended not only by us, but also by members of several other clubs in the area. Thank you for coming and for the delicious cookies and bread that you brought for refreshments.

CLOVERLEAFS ... Now that income tax time has passed, our President, Muriel Less is back dancing with us! She was one of those who helped you figure out that tax form. We're glad to have her with us again! However, we weren't without able leadership those many weeks. Rich Piombo, our vice president did an excellent job. Congratulations to Margaret Costello! Margaret, a member of the CAPER CUTTERS won the Square Dance quilt made by our members. Another winner was member, Dede Kenepp who won the pillow made by Ann Piombo. We're sorry to lose a good friend and member, John Mazurek who has moved to Rohnert Park. Our loss, their gain. To send him off properly Dede Kenepp baked a "fare well" cake with a big, what else, Cloverleaf decorating it. Tasted as good as it looked! We miss not dancing with Lee Moscone who is recovering from a bad back.

PAIRS 'N SPARES ... Square dance language is definitely spoken on Tuesday nites. Great to have six squares working and enjoying Caller HOWARD HILLYER bringing us up to date. (Where does he get his patience?) Several couples recently attended the WHIRL A WAYS, CAPER CUTTERS, CLODHOOPPERS and 49'ERS Hoedowns. Lenny & Olivia danced at the Napa hoedown called by JOEL KADISH. Congratulations to Bill Merellas on his retirement. Understand he and Betty are making great travel plans. It's Bon Voyage, happy Mediterranean cruising for David, Betty and Peter. Hard to say who had the most pleasure when a few of our members gave an exhibition for HOWARD'S beginner class at San Bruno Senior Center.

FRANCISCAN STOMPERS ... Our President Hal Ward and his wife Marian are back dancing with us after a trip to Phoenix. They were checking out the action of the Giants Baseball team as well as others. We welcome two new members, Ike and Josie Fortson who will be dancing with us now on Thursday nights. On the fifth Thursday our Club-house will be dark as the STOMPERS will be guests of the SQUARE CUTTERS at the Lake Shore School.

49'ERS ... Have had a busy start to 1983 with our 34th Anniversary Hoedown that was a success with DALE HOUCK doing an outstanding job of calling. We had our Pot Luck, Open Board meeting with plans for this years activities including our annual picnic, Reno Trip and Hoedowns being set. Janice & Gary Young and Cathie & Mark Peluffo will be working to start our beginners class we hope to have for September.

ROADRUNNERS ... We had a great potluck dinner on March 15th to celebrate St. Patrick's Day. Good food and much fun. Joan's chocolate cheese cake was so delicious all the cooks were begging for the recipe, and there was a heavy vote for at least one potluck a month. On March 22nd we were raided by the LONGHORNS and caller, BLAKE WESTMAN. Another very enjoyable evening. Our thanks to PAIRS 'N SPARES for hosting fifth Tuesday. Some of us, however, were so interested in watching "Thorn Birds" that even a good square dance couldn't pull us away from TV. The Richys are in Greece. Marie Casadei had a lovely time entertaining her two daughters from New York State. The Haukoms are still in Hawaii getting good tans while we slush around in the rain.

SPINNING WHEELS ... We are selecting a hoedown of the month for club members to attend in club costume. Our Feb. selection was the San Jose SEE SAWS' Yellow Rock Stomp with caller KIP GARVEY at Gunderson High School, Feb. 26th. Many of us turned out for this fun-filled event in spite of rain. March 12th found us hosting our Annual Shamrock Shuffle at Cubberly High School in Palo Alto with Caller RANDY DIBBLE and Cuers COIT & HELEN TULLUS. Bouquets or Irish shamrocks to Helen and Ray Woods, Carmen and Fred Rios and Evelyn and Bill Benson for the organization and decoration of this event. Your efforts are appreciated by all. Welcome to new members Joyce & Mike Carney from Sunnyvale.

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS ... Carol Vella took a trip to Ireland to meet for the first time her Pen Pal of many years. Then she is on to her new job in Fresno. We will miss her. Enjoyed the calling of ERIC who? and the RIP SNORTERS dance. Especially seeing RUTH FITCH cueing the rounds. RON WELSH and the CLODHOPPERS 36th was great fun. Duane Miles and his partner, Lulu Kirby and all our beginners still finding hoedowns to go to. Good to have Bev Olson back from a trip back East. We really had interesting fortune cookies at our Newer Dancers Hoedown! See you in Reno and at the Round-Up.

CAPER CUTTERS ... We are extending hurry and get well wishes to George Ossy who is satisfactorily recovering from surgery. We miss your dancing with us. Our beginners class is moving to the Sunset South Playground, 40th and Vicente, effective April 4th. We are sad to report the death of former member Leanne Yalon. Our sympathy to Jerry and family.

SQUARE CUTTERS ... It was great to see Kay and George Tilton at our Pot Luck dinner for Valentine's Day. George has been ill for over two months but is steadily recuperating. Keep it up George. We also welcome new members Winn and Leon Boudon. So nice to have you join us. Two squares of us and friends attended the M.O.D. SQUAD Spring Fling in Novato which was called by HARRY WHITLOCK and we had a great time with dinner before and dancing after. Visitors are always welcome, so come join the fun and bring a friend.

EAST BAY AREA

SKIRTS & FLIRTS ... March 5th, the club has its Mystery Dinner? With a good turn-out. We were all kept in suspense to the last by Doris & Pete Bailey (Chairpersons.) From Corvallis school to Hwy. 17 to the Farm House in Fremont where the food was excellent and we all ended up stuffing ourselves. We then continued on to Gunderson High School in San Jose to a Hoedown by the WHEELER DEALERS. The Callers were KEN BOWERS and JIM & BARBARA BARNES for Rounds. It was a fun evening and the weather even cooperated with no rain. March 13th the club did a demonstration dance for the SHOE TRAVELERS at the Galerena in San Francisco. There were 14 couples in all. After the demonstration we were rewarded with a free dinner and drink. A band played and some of the club members joined in the ballroom dancing. We would like to express our sympathy to the Welch and Kappler families in the loss of loved family members. Welcome back to the club Ken & Denise Morris and Bill & Bobbie Scott.

BOOTS 'N SLIPPERS ... Here comes summer and our schedule is really heating up. We are awaiting the Silver State in Reno again. And of course the Golden State Round Up in San Francisco. Plus we cordially invite you to our own 8th Anniversary Dance with caller BOB AUGUSTIN from New Orleans. This gives us many chances to renew old friendships and meet new "corners." Want to thank the TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS for one grand 5th Tuesday party in March, those cakes were delicious. Congratulations to all of the new "Graduates" you have really earned your club badges. Welcome, to you all.

SOLOS AND PAIRS ... We attended a St. Patrick's Day board meeting at the home of Aileen Witts who served a wholesome corn beef and cabbage entree, Claire Rotko brought a dream cake dessert that was just that. The May meeting is scheduled for the 22nd as our Pres. Jim Haney is saving the weekend of May 14/15 for the Barbershop show to be held again at Alameda High School. ED TAUSIG, our caller, is proceeding nicely with the A-1 calls and DAN KILLINGSWORTH our round dance teacher is teaching "Feelin's" which is more advanced than we usually do, so we are gaining by leaps and bounds (literally). We want to send our most sincere sympathy to members Hazel Eggett and Claire Rotko who each recently lost their mothers, we hope to see these ladies back with us soon. Our world traveler Aileen is at it again, this time to Hawaii to visit relatives for 3 weeks, last year she toured England, Ireland and Scotland, and the year before it was Canada with Florence Moniz.

KUNTRY KUZINS ... This has been a fabulous month for us. One evening, we all boarded a bus to embark on our annual mystery trip. The destination ended up to be Healdsburg for the Prune Festival hosted by the HEALDSBURG COUNTRY DANCERS. RON WELSH was the guest caller. Much thanks to Barbara and Norm Stelle for planning a terrific evening. Another highlight this month was a surprise visit from JIM McDONALD and the IN BETWEEN SQUARES. In addition, the CASTRO VALLEY REBELS helped make our party night a fun filled evening. Happy Dancing. EAGLE SQUARES ... February and March both have been exciting months with our hosting the FAR WESTERN DANCERS and later traveling to Pleasant Hill to be guests of the SUN VALLEY SQUARES. Our March Hoedown with BILL PETERS was a fantastic dance. BILL is a great caller and the WEBERS did their regular beautiful job of round dance calling. The Bonners had a fun afterparty. We surely knew that March was a month of green with St. Patrick dominating. The SUN VALLEY SQUARES and our own newer dancers went all out to celebrate. Don't forget our Newer Dancer Hoedown with NONIE MOGLIA on the 20th of May. Hope to see you there. ACES & LACES ... Our Beginners are dancing with so much enthusiasm, it's keeping us regulars hopping just to keep us with them, they are just super. Congratulations to Vince & Diane Weber a beautiful baby girl born in the month of February. March 19th our 1st annual badge dance found 35 squares dancing and having a great time. Thanks to all who helped in making this dance a big success. Our Easter party a fun filled evening with visitors from the SPINNINGWHEELS. We're looking forward to another fun filled evening May 21st, to our Spring Fling Hoedown, featuring our Guest caller from Santa Cruz, HAROLD FLEEMAN. See our ad in this months Square Dance-Where?

THE YOUNG REBELS ... Here is a brief note on what is happening with us. Welcome our new caller, STEVE MINKIN and his wife RITA. Everyone has been having a great time on Friday nights enjoying his calling. We are pleased to say that we will be preforming Easter weekend at Disneyland and Knotts Berry Farm. We are also real excited to be preforming April 22/23/24th at State Convention in San Jose and May 6/7/8th up in Reno. Memorial Weekend we will exhibit at the Round-Up. Of course preparations for our European trip to Romania and Hungry in July is a major part of the clubs excitement. EDEN ROCKERS ... We're happy to report that our Newer Dancer's Hoedown of March 5th was a really big success. We are most grateful to our fine caller, CHARLIE BROWN, and to all the good people who came to dance with us. Our Jane Barthol is now out of the hospital after having a tough struggle with pneumonia. She's back again in the busy stream of live, but taking it quite easy to avoid a relapse. We wish you well, Jane. We installed new officers on Wed. March 23rd. They are as follows: President-Jack & Marie Townsend, Vice President-Bill and Doris Krantz, Secretary-Jim and Mary Martin, Treasurer-Ralph Chambers. We extend to this fine group our pledge of support in the year to come. We also wish to express our gratitude to the outgoing officers for a job well done. RANCHERO SQUARES ... We have had another happy and busy month. We visited the SALS & PALS in Vacaville to enjoy the calling of our terrific TERRY MOSIER. The dance was great and the refreshments were fantastic. Next, we danced a benefit exhibition for a convalescent hospital. It was our pleasure to see the patients enjoy the performance. Then, for our dance of the month, we visited the SQUARE CIRCLES and enjoyed the calling of our TERRY MOSIER and JOHN FRERICHMANN. The SQUARE CIRCLES were glad that someone else won the 50/50 drawing besides the guy with the "lucky-red-socks". He wasn't there is time. A little bird told me that our illustrious Prez. Jim Long, played in a donkey basketball game against a girls team. You guessed it, the girls won. Our "April Showers" Hoedown was a great success. Thanks to everyone who come to enjoy it with us.

SAN LORENZO SINGLES ... We have been very busy with club and class dancing, Hoedowns, and various other activities this month. There was the Crab Feed and dance sponsored by Lions Club of Castro Valley. 18 hungry people attended this and were well rewarded with all the food you could eat (true, John Lutz?) and good dancing. There was the Birthday party for Emma Drabec and Pete Peterson with surprise guest "Miss Piggy" (Gloria Griswold) singing Happy Birthday. There was the exhibition dance at Hayward Convalescent Hospital with RICHARD calling and 1½ squares dancing and cutting in. These people were so appreciative. We should do this more often. They Mystery Bus Trip to Santa Rosa SINGLES & PAIRS was well attended and so much fun. There were several after parties after our Newer Dancers Hoedown.

SQUARE CIRCLES ... We celebrated our 33rd Anniversary on March 26th with a most enjoyable hoedown. JOHN FRERICHMANN, the club past caller, was the guest caller and shared the calling with TERRY MOSIER, they both made it a fun evening. We were pleased to welcome other dancers from 21 clubs, some as far away as Burlingame, Palo Alto and San Jose. The weather didn't deter them one bit. The disappointment of the month was having to cancel the mystery trip for our beginners due to have taken place on March 19th, they are now looking forward to the graduation dinner coming up in May thank goodness for square dancing, it helped to brighten up these cold wet evenings this winter.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS ... Despite the rainy weather, our members are going to different hoedowns every weekend. 11 couples attended the SEE SAWS Yellow Rock Stomp at Gunderson High School in San Jose. Before the dance we all met at the Lyons Restaurant in Milpitas for dinner. After the dance we ended up at Linda and Bob Battaglia's for a social hour. A good time was had by all. Our Newer Dancer Hoedown on March 11th was a huge success. We thank our newer dancers for helping with the food that night. After the dance 25 couples journeyed over to the presidents house, Cletus and Lois Brown, for an after party. More food, drinks and socializing. Our party night was held on March 15th with a St. Patrick's theme. Many members decked out in green and the dessert, lime pie, pistachio dessert finished the evening.

ODD'S 'N END'S ... We have been enjoying the calling of DOUG SAUNDERS, MIKE WRIGHT and currently ED TAUSIG. On March 4/5/6th, our President Joe Kalinsky and Gertrude, Herb & Betsy Worster and Zep & Dora Bennett joined 3000 other square dancers at the wing ding at Turlock. Great calling by MIKE SISKORSKI, MARV LINDER & SKIP STANLEY. We were saddened by the news that our Lou Dobin suffered a heart attack. We wish him a speedy recovery. Bill and June Harris are back dancing after a siege of sickness. Do you know of any square dancers that were one time members of the "BOW and ARROWS"? We would like to have a reunion party. If you have any information, please call Zep Bennett, 534-9576. Some of us are helping TOM JOHNSON with his beginners at the Jewish Community Center in Oakland. George Sougey has his foot out of the cast and may be able to dance again soon.

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS ... The galavanting Nielsons are back from a wonderful trip to New Zealand and you would think they would be satisfied to prune a few trees, pull a few weeds, turn the mattress and wash a few windows. Wrong! They are getting ready for another trip, this time to Germany. They have more miles under their belts than the entire club together. Norvella also just got back from a trip but hers was more for kindness than for fun. She was helping her daughter-in-law who was ill. Sigh could have gone down also to give a hand but decided he would rather stay at home and baby sit the house and dogs. Talking about illness, Rudy is recovering from a detached retina and we hope he will be back with us soon. We had a great pot luck for our fifth Thursday dance and were hardly able to dance after eating all that wonderful food. Our beginners are not only very talented dancers but also excellent cooks as are all the REBEL ladies (and a few men). Welcome back, Elsie, you too, Pete. Will the Sheriff please lay off that lady that keeps forgetting her badge, she's running out of quarters. VALLEY TRAVELERS ... Many thanks to all who joined us in a great hoedown on March 19th with JAY HENDERSON. Thanks also to the HANNA'S for the rounds. Our appologies for the floor. The school promises to take care of it. Congratulations to our newly elected officers who will take office April 1st. Dick & Arlene Girouz, President, Joe & Cathy Mazrimas, Vice President & Secretary, Mike & Sandy MacCraken, Treasurer. The club also showed their appreciation for a job well done to our outgoing board with the largest turnout for the officers dinner we've had in a while. Special thanks to George & Joyce Roust for making the arrangements. We say thank you to all.

FREMONT SINGLES ... We all enjoyed our evening of Pizza with our new Beginner Class that started in January. It is so nice to see so many new people start this marvelous activity. Our progressive dinner was alot of fun. It all started at Miranda's, then on to Jeanette's (love that player piano), then on to Donna's and winding up at Sue and John's for dessert & dancing. We want to thank all of you who opened your homes to us. Our annual hike up Mission Peak was April 17th. Square up on the Peak, what a view, what a workout! We are looking forward to Silver State and Golden State and our beginners are anxious to participate in these great get togethers. June 12th will be our Sunday Afternoon January Level Hoedown, we are hoping for a warm day for ice cream to be served. May is election month and we await the results to welcome our new officers.

MARIN COUNTY

REDWOOD DIAMONDS ... We have enjoyed our first year of dancing. Club members have received numerous compliments on their sharp (ouch) new badges. Guest caller RAY BETTENCOURT recently called for our "Bunny Hop". Lots of dancers from neighboring clubs joined us for a fun evening. Even the Easter Bunny (Eric Bendure) hopped on in to delight us. Watch for our ad in the June book, announcing our First Anniversary Hoedown to be held June 25th.

M.O.D. SQUAD ... Our best wishes to George Bruce who has been hospitalized but is now recuperating at home. We miss you and Peggy. The SQUARE CUTTERS from San Francisco who braved the storm to attend our Hoedown won the coffee. Congratulations! The Committee organized by our President Jim Hallstrom and wife Nita did a great job at the registration table and in the kitchen. Our caller HARRY WHITLOCK and guest caller RAY BETTENCOURT made the evening fun for our visiting dancers. Our newer dancers are learning fast. The Ralph Peltos have taken a leave of absence for travel. Larry and Petra Luchetti are our new Vice Presidents.

Suzanne Roady resigned as Secretary-Treasurer because of college studies. Ethel Vaughn accepted the office. Congratulations! First Anniversary, Elton and Opal.

STUMP JUMPERS ... We are really jumping. 5 couples attended the NOVATO SQUARES Hoedown and brought home the coffee. 5 couples attended the Grande Fling. 3 couples attended the MOD SQUAD Hoedown. 9 couples made the Prune Festival. Thats a lot of jumping. Joan, Bill & Wags Almeida hosted the March Board Meeting. We soon found out why Bill was so happy when we adjourned. It was the "homemade apple pie" ala-mode and it was delicious Joanie. Mary Bernard is home and doing well. She loves you many people who have remembered her with cards & visits. NOVATO SQUARES ... Our caller LARRY HUDSON has recently accepted a position up north with a local paper. He will be leaving us. The members extends their wishes for a good fortune. Larry & Sherry you will be greatly missed. Thank you for sharing your family & being part of our club. Larry was able to share his birthday with us at workshop. Sweets were served and we bestowed gifts consisting of a variety of teas & olives. It also was Sherry's birthday. One of our dear long time members, George Bruce recently under went heart surgery. Our sincere wishes goes out to you George that you are up and about soon. We miss you. Thanks goes to Ken & Dee Strom, host & hostess for our March Hoedown. Our guest caller fell sick during the evening. LARRY HUDSON, SKIP GRAHAM and RAY BETTENCOURT graciously carried thru the rest of the evening. The STUMP JUMPERS won the coffee. BUZZIN' BOOTS ... The nominating committee's new slate of officers for 1983-84 is: Carol Howenstein, President, Betty Wood, Vice President, Lorraine Hall, Secretary, Andy Kristensen, Treasurer. Cooks for the St. Patrick's Day dinner held March 18th were Andy & Jackie Kristensen, Nice & Ollie Nicholson, Ed & Virginia Brennan, Jack & Nancy Cover and Barbara Payne. Club caller DAVE HOBAUGH, was TP'ed and presented with a T-shirt with the club name in honor of his first anniversary with our club. The Spring Fling held on March 26th was called by our own DAVE HOBAUGH replacing BILL PETERS who was attending a caller's workshop in Philadelphia. Jackie Carr will be visiting from Alaska in May and Jim in June.

TAM TWIRLERS ... What a mystery was had by the bus full of us on Saturday eve, March 26th! It was the best mystery bus trip our club has every had! The destination was to the 5 STAR SQUARE Hoe-down at Napa. Ruth & Jim Corter were responsible for "dreaming up" crazy games & entertainment that provided grand old fashion fun all the way up to Napa and back. We won 4 out of 5 prizes and 2 pounds of coffee for the most dancers in attendance. We wish to congratulate Alma & Gerry Wehr who will be celebrating their 40th Wedding Anniversary with us at our Monday Night Workshop, on April 25th, with festivities and refreshments.

MARIN MAVERICKS ... Rain, rain, we wish you'd go away. So would Judy Bardwell and Dick DeGrif who's property suffered some damage. We won the coffee at the TAM TWIRLER dance. JEAN FERRELL'S beginners round dance meets at San Clemente School, Tuesdays, 8:30 follows with Easy Rounds for all. Join us. Aileen Taylor visited her mother in Oklahoma this month. Our condolences to Vee and Joe Saunders. Vee's mother Mrs. Carrie Monroe died recently. She was our club adopted Grandmother. We share your sadness, we'll miss her. Can't keep up with June Rittenhouse. She's always up in the air, United. Happy Birthday Marie Boehm, Peggy Crater, Adrienne Carter, Woody Woodruff, Sandy Herrman, Freda Farber, Larry Lucchetti, Ray King.

SQUAWS & PAWS ... Our new slate of officers for this year was inaugurated during a fun filled evening which included a great potluck dinner. Our outgoing President, Jim Martin and his squaw Tina, were given a special gift of thanks from the club for a job well done during the last year. The slate of officers was duly and officially voted on and are now hoping to carry on the "good call." Our new President is Earl Beyers with the help of Mary Gail, Keith Holmann and his squaw Terry will bring their good ideas to the group as our new Vice-President, June McClanahan will bring her expertise as Secretary, Helen & Tex Pockrus will handle the Publicity and our new Sheriff will be Sam Krummes, ably assisted I'm sure by Lynn.

NOVATO SIDEKICKS ... After much earnest discussion, the club is going to make a major change in format. Instead of being primarily a workshop/teaching club, we are going to make it a more "dancing for enjoyment" group. We have a core of "Easy C-1" dancers, to form our nucleus, and they will dance from 4:30 to 7 Sunday evenings at HAFB School. A regular Beginner class will be started after that, dancing till 9pm. Hopefully, they will eventually become our Mainstream Plus arm, to be the main body of the club, and engaged in all the social amenities of a socially-oriented club. As time goes on, a decision will be made on whether to "Bridge the Gap" with an Advanced section, to open all options to those who are free only on Sunday evenings. Time will tell whether there are enough people in that category, to keep a Mainstream club viable on Sundays. RON HAGGERTY promises that he'll do his darndest to make it "go". We think a fun C-1 club is now a viable idea. Join with us!

SAN JOSE AREA

SEE SAWS ... We have lost two of our long standing club members. Pam & Monty Wilson have moved to Florida. We will miss them and wish them all the best in their new home. Skip and Diana Ferreira hosted a successful surprise party for Pam and Monty on March 19th. 38 people attended and the party lasted until about 3:30 pm. We said a final farewell to Pam & Monty with a party night at club on March 25th. March saw us movin' on again to McCullum school and to Walters Jr. High in Fremont for a newer dancer Hoedown. As always, JIM, our caller, did a super job of calling. We closed out March by attending the TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS fifth Tuesday party nite. The GEORGIAN SHUFFLERS and their caller BILL CARROL were there, also the BOOTS 'N SLIPPERS with caller BOB

HOFFSETS, SAN LORENZO SINGLES and RICH MANSFIELD, and RANCHERO SQUARES with TERRY MOSIER. See you all at the State Convention.

NORTH BAY AREA

CATCH ALL EIGHTS ... Our St. Patricks dance was a big success with beginners dancing and lots of corn beef sandwiches. People from Lake Co. Fairfield to Hayward helped us eat and dance. Thank you all. Bill Stamp and Ava Bentz are back dancing again. John and Carol Ozanich have been doing a bang up job keeping us informed of the NCSDA meetings and doings, thank you for doing a good job. David and Vera Rowsey have been bringing a third Rowsey to our workshops, but soon now Vera will be too busy to come, April or May will see the big event. Dorothy Filippi and Eva Black are quiet about their Reno trip with the AARP group but its rumored some one hit it big.

FIVE STAR SQUARES ... Our March Hoedown was a success even tho the weather was wet. Enjoyed the calling of ROSS JOHNSON and rounds by MILLARD & JEAN MCKINNEY. Our thanks to all who attended and especially to the TAM TWIRLERS from Marin who came by bus on a mystery trip. Our club was awarded the coffee prize for the most members attending the PIONEER'S Hoedown. Our beginners class is still doing great and we enjoyed having them with us for our Potluck dinner. DAVE HOBAUGH, club caller was sick with the flu last week and we want to thank ROGER STATUCKI for calling for us. Myrtle & Bob Weins celebrated an Anniversary. Katie & Chuck Quesnel and Harold Bugrum were serenaded for their Birthdays.

FAR WESTERN DANCERS ... Despite soggy conditions in March some brave souls ventured out and attended two benefits for which our own DAVE BELDEN called. The first, in Concord to raise money for "Rachel", and the second for the Hope Education Center in Livermore. In fact, the same night we also attended the Hoedown at the VALLEY TRAVELERS, a busy and fun filled evening. We really like JAY HENDERSON. Seems every where we go we see familiar faces from the RANCHERO SQUARES & SQUARE CIRCLES. Seems we run in the same squares and circles. We enjoy your company and thank you for attending as they were both worthy causes. Our Tenderfeet are looking forward to graduation and the trek to Reno. We are all busy making club dresses for a "new look" so watch for us. Hope to see you all in Reno and at our Hoedown in May with live music for the GHOST RIDERS.

OLD CAPITOL SQUARES ... Our MS dancers enjoyed a Mystery Trip Sat. March 12th to Circus Circus at Leight High School in San Jose. We were hosted by the RAFTER ROCKERS. Four squares boarded the bus at Benicia and stopped for an early dinner at Mitch's in Martinez on our way to San Jose. What fun! We are looking forward to our beginners hoedown this Fri. March 18th. Good food, lots of prizes. See you at the Clock Tower!

BUZZIN CUZZINS ... We have as new cluple for our office of President. Forrest Brown & Lois Ballance. They are doing a great job. Our former President, Mr. & Mrs. Truman Montgomery resigned. We miss them and wish them well in their round dancing. We have been enjoying several visitors since we moved to the Veterans Hall in El Cerritto. Everyone who showed up for our pizza party had a good time. Eating pizza and talking about square dancing.

CLEARLAKE AREA

KONOCTI KICKERS ... At our last meeting, we had elections of officers. The new officers will take charge the meeting in April. Our new President will be Don Gibson, Vice President, Gene Innman, Secretary, Eleanor Fisk, Treasurer, Rose McGill. Our hoedown will be this Sat. March 12th with ROGER STATUCKI calling. Sure hope we have a good turnout, with the weather the way it's been it hard to judge. If you can make it all of you come. We don't have a Hoedown in April due to the Pear Blossom Festival. Hope everyone will make it to that one.

CLEARLAKE SQUARES ... The month of February has been a wet busy month. Our A-1 class with caller CHICK THRASHER has been doing very well, along with our beginners class. Our hoedown with ELMER RADCLIFF was enjoyed by all. What a fun caller he is. A very special thanks to ELMER and all of his dancers who came with him and made it such fun. On Sunday, Feb. 27th, 44 dancers traveled to Loma Rica to dance a Newer Dancer Hoedown with callers, CHICK THRASHER, GLEN BYLUND and VERN CHURCHILL. What a grand time we all had. We are all looking forward to dancing with the same 3 callers on March 27th, at Lower Lake. All club members are very busy with the planning for our Pear Blossom Festival. We hope to see all of you there on April 8-9th.

REDWOOD EMPIRE

MARKWESTERNERS ... Sorry we missed our April bulletin. These deadlines for headlines are shorting out your correspondent. On the other hand, we have Danny Johnson relaxing and polishing her water color skills in Mexico, while Abbott tends the home front. Roy Warmell is intent on turning us all into farmer/gardeners with his mobile nursery of berries, bulbs and cuttings from everything that grows. Roy has green thumbs up to his ears! If you're bored with the homefront you should look up Valle Vista Travelers. They are on the move everywhere with the Rowdens tending to baggage detail. We wonder if there are any non rainy spots left to visit. Our September Luau was a great success. Well see you at the Rose Festival on the 21st.

RAINBOW STROLLERS ... Five of our couples enjoyed the beautiful surroundings of the Villa Chanticleer at the 12th Annual Prune Blossom Hoedown. Thanks, HEALDSBURG COUNTRY DANCERS, for a great hoedown, good door prizes and delicious refreshments (especially those chocolate covered prunes.) A star-spangled evening is planned for all you A-1 dancers. Our Friday, July 1st Hoedown will feature the dynamite calling of KIP GARVEY. The Petaluma Veterans Memorial has ample parking for RVs and buses, so mystery trips are welcome. What a way to start the 4th of July weekend! Club caller ERIC HENERLAU is journeying to Philadelphia for the annual Caller Lab Convention. He'll bring back all the latest information about quarterly selection lists, any list changes at our club level, A-1, QUESTION MARKS ... February and March have been busy with many events. We received many compliments for the decorations at our last two hoedowns. Thanks to the committees! Our beginners joined the SQUAWS & PAWS for a mystery trip to Sacramento, a good time for all. The club jackets are in. In March Cookie and Edie made a trip to Egypt and England. How did TOM and SANDY WALTON (our caller and taw) arrange to have a sunny day for that special occasion, their daughter's wedding. Heard everything went well. How come Paula gets to go to New Orleans? Headed for Reno. No Hoedown in May, see you at our June 25th dance.

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES ... We had JET ROBERTS for our monthly hoedown. He called a fast dance and kept us jumping and warm on a cold wintery night. Chairpersons for the evening were Marv & Nancy Hubbs, Don & Nancy Woodside and Louie & Nancy Azevedo. We are all looking forward to March 26th for our spring activity, a mystery to us all. It had definately rained enough this year but it has not kept the square dancers away. It has been a definate plus to our caller TOM WALTON to have the hall filled on our workshop nights.

SAUCY SQUARES ... We are looking ahead to our June 4th "Bridge the Gap" Hoedown. Our newer dancers have been complaining that there aren't enough mainstream hoedowns in the area. So we decided to give'em what they want. DAVE & STEVE will call and workshop 2 plus movements. Our regular "Bridge the Gap" session will start in June. DAVE WISCHEMANN will call and all dancers are welcome. It will be Thursdays. Tal

Mather, our Treasurer, is hospitalized and missed. June Koepke is our new exhibition coordinator. Susie and Luther Urton are off for a Death Valley Vacation. Ray and Bobbie Boltz are now living near the Grand Canyon West. SINGLES & PAIRS ... We had a great turnout at LARRY HUDSON'S farewell night March 16th. As of this writing (3-16) there was no caller selected. On a previous Wednesday two guests, Manuel and Verna Sharola were congratulated for their Golden Wedding Anniversary. On May 21st at Monroe Hall the newer dancers will have a hoedown, basics 1-68. There will be two callers VANYA LEIGHTON and LARRY HUDSON. And on May 23rd, for those who wish to attend, the newer dancers will hold their graduation. Nominations are still wide open for all members who want to run for office. The election will be held on the second Wednesday in May at the meeting.

CONTRA COSTA AREA

ANTIOCH AMBLERS ... Our Annual Garage Sale has again been a success. Our thanks to all those who contributed goods and time, especially the Bergers, Biglows and the Engelhardtts. April's events have us hopping. We have completed plans for our fun level, mainstream Hoedown, and we are looking forward to seeing our friends from other clubs. Our graduation of the newer dancers is fast approaching, and we are preparing to receive them into our ranks as AMBLERS. The graduation ceremony is sure to incorporate fun along with reinforcing the basic philosophy of sociability and good fellowship. Silver State is just around the corner. We are recalling the enjoyment of years past, and preparing for this year. Who will have the party room!

CONCORD STOMPERS ... We celebrated our 27th Anniversary with a wonderful dance at Ygnacio Valley High. A good time was had by all. Our Tuesday and Wednesday nights joined together for the "Spring Fling" earlier this month. It was very interesting to see the fantasies of spring of some of our members. Circus circus will never be the same, since the STOMPERS used it as "home base" during Silver State. With over 150 of us roaming around in Reno, gambling ran a close second to our dancing. Good News for all of our old timer STOMPERS come September, we will begin an A-1 class on Monday nites. So polish up those old dancing shoes. Keep Stomping.

SHELL SWINGERS ... We were recently shocked by the death of beloved member Bertha Mitchell who had been valiantly fighting cancer with Chemotherapy and Radiation Treatments. We will all miss her. Good news! John Bennett is back dancing after lung surgery at the VA hospital, even hear tell he's playing golf and basketball. The news from Wyoming is that Roy Bonney is still in the hospital in Casper byis improving. Our Anniversary Hoedown was a lot of fun and good dancing with CHARLES BRIDGES from the Cal Agees of Davis, with rounds by RUTH FITCH. Thank you to all who braved the lousy weather to join us, especially the 2 squares from Davis. Our new officers take over this month but we thought the last bunch was so great we re-elected them for another year! GUYS & DOLLS ... Our Annual dinner dance was a wonderful success. Our thanks to the Smith's as hosts, DICK HOULTON for surperb calling, Fritz for a wonderful dinner and Betty & Ralph Johansen for organizing the event. It was nice to have our own caller, DAVE HOBAUGH and his wife SANDY, having the opportunity to enjoy themselves dancing. Red and Dot Morse were honored for their 10th Anniversary as club members and for being club Treasurers for the last 8 years. In appreciation of their efforts, the Morse's received a silver tray. More news, Gus & Joyce Lockhart moved to a new home. Connie and Tom Hodgson are skiing in Austria. Medical research now concludes that square dancing in Turlock may contribute to the spread of disease.

CLUTCH BUSTERS ... Our dancing has helped drive away the "I get the blues when it rains" syndrome. Our DAVE HOBAUGH dance drew a lively and happy crowd. Retirement has blessed two couples in our club, the Jay Pridmore's and the Bob Gills. Congratulations. The Pridmore's were feted at a square dance including refreshments as they will be leaving the area but we'll be calling them back occasionally for some good dancing. Reno at this time is being anticipated by all. Vargas's are heading the arrangements and Brys will be our leaders. If you like good company and good dancing come join the CLUTCH BUSTERS and get even more!

ROUND-UP CORNER

Made your plans for this month's Biggie? Round-Up '83 will soon be a reality, 3 days, May 27/28/29th, of square dancing, all levels, Mainstream, APD, A-1, A-2, and Challenge, Round Dancing, EZ Rounds, Intermediate and Advanced, Styling, Workshops, Clogging, Exhibitions, a planned sewing clinic, good ideas for new looks and short cuts, Vendors with everything square dancers need and like to browse through. Something new has been added this year, a Saturday night Buffet, at the Golden Gateway Holiday Inn. The buffet will be served from 5-7pm, no reservations needed. Tables will be set in groups of 8. $10.00 for the buffet, tax and tip included. Ample time is allowed to get back for the Grand March, an exciting display of Square Dancers Unity. Be a part of it. Sunday breakfast is always a happy way to start your last fun day of square dancing, a roomful of friendly faces, good food and loads of prizes, some useful and some for laughs, all for $7.50. The rates for hotel accomodations have been kept the same as last year. All these special events will be held at the Golden Gateway Holiday Inn. It is located at Van Ness Ave. and Pine St. a short direct ride by bus or car from the Civic Auditorium. See flyers for more details and send in your reservations. Pre-register for savings on adult admissions, also, great savings on youth (19 yrs. and under). Youth prices are not available at the door. The whole weekend is planned for 3 enjoyable days for us square dancers! See you there!

A NOTE OF THANKS TO YOU ALL

Our family has been deeply saddened by the loss of Hank. He was a very loving and gentle man. He leaves a great void in the lives of his family and friends. The family and I wish to extend our very sincere thanks to all of you for your support and love. The response to our S.O.S. for blood donations for Hank was overwhelming. I wish I could thank each one of you personally. The cards of sympathy, love and support to me and the family are most gratefully received. My respect and love for square and round dancers has increased to unlimited bounds. Your support has been tremendous! My belief has been reinforced, that square & round dancers are a very special breed of people. Thank you all so very much.
