CLUB NEWS

EAST BAY AREA

EDEN ROCKERS ... There has been a flurry of excitement over planning new dresses. Bright pink and cranberry is finally passe and something different is the order of the day. We ought to have everyone well outfitted at least by the time the Round-up rolls around again. This year's officers are doing a good job. We have from 5 to 6 squares dancing every Wednesday. Our club combined with PARTNERS IN PROGRESS on the 3rd of June for a fun level dance. With KIP GARVEY and CHARLIE BROWN calling, it had to be a good dance and it was.

BOOTS 'N SLIPPERS ... Best wishes to our new officers for the coming year, Pres., Len and Mary Newsom, Vice Pres., Mickey & Linda Pattison, Sect'y, Jon & Sue Rombough, Treas., Bob & Patti Stilwell. Many, many thanks to all of the outgoing Board for keeping our club running so smoothly this past year. Thanks, Andy & Lois Anderson. We enjoyed many fine activities and are looking forward to more of the same in the future. All of us who attended our club picnic in June want to thank Cap't Rice (Floyd & Ruby) and the U.S. Coast Guard for a super time, also, Ray & Cherie Canada for organizing everything plus cooking up some great hamburgers. Aloha to everyone from Hawaii as some 10 couples and friends are spending the first 10 days of August soaking up some rays in Maui & Kanai.

FAR WESTERN DANCERS ... We want to say thank you to our new officers for taking on the work and responsibilities of their new jobs. Summer activities are in full swing. We decorated a float and marched in the parade opening the Alameda County Fair. The float decorators enjoyed a barbecue at Gerry Donaldson's after the work was done. We had a night of exhibition dancing at the Fair and at Stoneridge Mall. Our summer refresher course starts this month and is always fun. By the time you read this we should have a new baby. Proud parents, Jime & Silvia Vanderbilt.

SQUARE CIRCLES ... May 26th, Jack Rockaway of L.A., Chairman of the Square Dance Committee for the Rose Parade Float visited the Barn, and joined our group again in the Grand March at the Round-Up. TERRY & CRICKET must have been proud to see the big splash of red the SQUARE CIRCLES made in the Grand March with 70 members, 50 in the new club dress. Roberta Wilson, our First Lady, will be able to let her sewing machine cool down after making 12 dresses and 14 shirts. June 18th, Scotch Bowling at the Granada Lanes, Livermore followed by an after party at Chas & May's and a video showing of the graduation dinner. June 23rd, another fun evening when many of the VALLEY TRAVELERS joined us to dance at the barn, come and see us again.

SAN LORENZO SINGLES ... Graduation was a fun night, special dances for the new graduates climaxing with the candlelight ceremony. Many club members joined the dedication festivities of the Tony Lima Golf Course at San Leandro Marina. Thanks to Kay Erven for organizing the square dance exhibition, our RICHARD MANSFIELD called.

Our 7th Anniversary Hoedown was a great success. Myrna Brandes did her usual great job organizing the food, superb! Georgina Kamlin, Velma Ladd & Betty Thomas worked hard decorating. Plus workshop on Thurs. evening is going great and looking forward to seeing you on Aug. 18th, Mainstream Hoedown. It's becoming "the in thing to wear an arm cast." Three club members are wearing them. Wedding bells rang out for two of our club members Maxine & Jim Lewis, Congratulations!

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS ...

We had a ball at the Round-Up and as usual our new costumes were beautiful, everybody looked lovely. The girls also looked real nice. After dancing all day and night we had a great after party in the parking lot. Everybody groupied their RV's in Indian Circle fashion and spread out food and stuff all over the place and we carried on until the wee hours. We also had our annual officer's change over party at the Spain' patio. (The new board is headed up by Harry & Fern Miller as President). And lucked out with a beautiful day. The weather couldn't have been better. We also enjoyed a delicious barbequed steak dinner with all the trimmings and even had a little glass of wine to celebrate the new board. Talking about food, actually we do square dance once in a while and rather well) we had our Fifth Thursday Pot Luck Dinner and it was lovely. Almost two pretty to eat. We should just set up the food and take pictures of it.

ACES & LACES ... We have all spent the month recharging after dancing our ACES off at the Round-Up. A hearty welcome to all our new member-graduates who have added such fun to our Wednesday Club night. June included a "Fifth Wednesday", thanks to the SKIRTS & FLIRTS for hosting the combined Club's dance and all the Callers who made this mini hoedown such fun. (Do you suppose it could have been ED LOONEY who sabotaged JOEL KADISH'S car?) August 20th is our 28th Anniversary Dance and will feature EARL RICH from Reno and LARRY SEGALL for rounds. See our ad in this issue. See you there!

KEEWAY SWINGERS ... I know this is late news but just to let you all know that we are still around. Reno's Festival was enjoyed by all, with part of the club staying at the Comstock and the rest at the RV park across the street from the dance. On May 21st we had our Spring dance with KENMILLE & DEGMETICH calling and the KERNS on the rounds. Thanks to all who came. The Round-Up was next. It was great to see KENMILLE MC'ing and calling some of the program. The Breakfast was excellent again. The multi level halls and rounds allow everyone to have a good time. June 2nd we raided the SQUARE HOPPERS with BILL PETERS calling, a fantastic time was had as usual.

RANCHERO SQUARES ... The new Buckskin is ready so please will some club come and get it. Our Newly elected Officers are Pres., Gerald & Harriet Mosier, Vice Pres., Wayne & Marie Thompson, Sec., Steve & Gigi Singleton, Treas., Albert & Karen Mosier. Herman & Sue Laffely went to Nationals. Don't forget the MD dance Aug. 13th. Please help Jerry's kids. Thanks to the TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS for letting us visit them. I just heard that some of our new & old officers tried to make an elevator out of Apt. # 347. (I feel sorry for who ever lives there). P.S. I didn't have any trouble finding the elevator, maybe you all need to use my glasses?

VILLAGE STOMPERS ... We held elections in May and our new officers for the coming year are: Pres., Jo & Fred Willis, Vice Pres., Charles & Carmen Kockersperger, Sec., Vera Flint, Treas., Earl Flint. Congratulations to all our new officers. We also want to thank Harold Johnson and his board for the splendid job they did last year. On our party night this month we enjoyed having a potluck dinner with the BELLES & BEAUS. The food was outstanding and we enjoyed the company. Please come back again.

FARMERS & FARMERETTES ... SUSIE KADISH, our caller's wife, will never be able to say that she never had a surprise birthday party again. On June 1st, JOEL KADISH, with help from the club, gave SUSIE a surprise birthday party she will never forget. She was escorted to the middle of the dance floor, under the spotlights and seated, then she was crowned with a striped party hat and glittery heart shaped antennae, draped with streamers, and helium balloons tied to her arm and given presents. We all gathered around and sang Happy Birthday and cake and ice cream were served. Red faced SUSIE danced the rest of the evening with her streamers, hat and balloons. A great time was had by all. Not much else going on except all are working hard on future events such as our July Hoedown, fireworks booth, sweetheart golf tournament, picnic and campout. New club outfits are scheduled to be shown in July. We girls can't wait.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS ... We hosted another Round Robin the end of May with 15 squares dancing to the calling of JIM OSBORNE, TERRY MOSIER, RICH MANSFIELD and BOB HOFFSETZ. Everyone had fun. We held our 29th Anniversary dance June 4th with 33 squares dancing to the fine calling of RON WELSH. We thank all dancers who attended and hope they had a good time and enjoyed our refreshments of homemade ice cream, cake and fresh fruit. We thank the Butlers for being food chairman, the Fentons for the decorating committee and a special thanks to Donna Pattee for baking and decorating that beautiful cake. 26 couples traveled to Cletus and Lois Brown's country place at Burson for a weekend of fun. We square danced on the slab for their new home they are building, some went fishing, played horseshoe, had a pot luck dinner, and even a baby shower for our caller and his wife, JIM & JOANN OSBORNE. What a busy and fun weekend everyone had. "Members" Dave and Mary Hobbs, Garry and Marilyn Dakin, Frank and Maggie Perkins, and Larry & Dorris Burnette are starting a 2 to three month trip to Alaska this month. We will miss them but hope they have a wonderful and safe trip.

ODD'S 'N' END'S ... SCOT BYARS is back! We welcome our caller back after a period of serious studying for his masters degree. He resumed calling for us on June 16th. BILL BANKERT called for us on June 9th. Thanks alot BILL for a fun evening. Joe and Gertrude Kalinsky took a trip to Louisville, Kentucky, to dance at the Nationals. Zep and Dora Bennett went to Minnesota to attend an all class reunion at Dora's school have fun. We again wish to thank the outgoing officers and welcome our new crew. They are dedicated to making our club a fun place to dance and we invite new members to join us. SCOT also calls our rounds and is teaching A-1 and 2. We hope you can join us on a Thursday evening.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS ... Square Dance classes for beginners will start on Sept. 14th. JACK PETRI will be the instructor. The club hoedown was held on June 11th. With JOE SALTEL as caller and CAROL CLYMO for rounds. There was a good attendance and lots of good dancing. Thanks to Doris & Pete Bailey and the committee for good planning and everyone who helped out. June 15th, a pot luck was held. RUTH PETRI was honored with a cake and gift. Happy 39th Birthday RUTH. June 26th, the club was well represented at the Miniature Golden T Golf-land in Castro Valley. There were many low scores and high scores. Pat Kelly won the booby prize. Many luscious sundaes and milkshakes were enjoyed at Farrell's at South-land after the game.

BELLES AND BEAUS ... May 20th found a group of us attending the annual concert of the San Lorenzo Piano Ensemble. Our Esther Finwall is a player. This group of 24 pianos has appeared on TV and next year will perform at the Paramount. We all enjoyed an evening of dancing and delicious food as guests of the VILLAGE STOMPERS at their potluck on June 15th. It was a real fun evening. We are grateful to DALE ELWOOD for filling in for our caller, BILL

STEINBROOK, who is recuperating from a shoulder operation. Best of luck to you, BILL. Also to Peggy Dufresne who had a knee operation. We are happy to have the Redells of Arizona back with us for the summer. Many of our members have been vacationing, so guests are particularly welcome at this time.

SAN FRANCISCO AREA

WHIRL-A-WAYS ... The bumper stickers read "Kentucky, you'll come to love it!" and Shirley Korm, Walter and Virginia Calderia did just that. Report was the 32nd National Convention was one of the nicest planned and executed, not to mention the great tours of the Mammoth Caves, horse racing at Churchill Downs, and crusing the Ohio River. Members enjoyed the free spaghetti feed prepared by Mary Fields, McKittricks and Pericic's. Ladies guided by Theresa Smith busy sewing away preparing for our annual Christmas Boutique, while plans for our silent auction made a profitable evening. Members enjoying pleasant memories of the annual campout held at Oakwood Shores in Manteca. Birthday candles to Barbara Bodmer, Dede Knepp and Verda Sailor while Anniversary Congrats go to the Sailor's, Bodmers', Jones', Fields', Kilgores' and Smiths'.

CLODHOPPERS ... How quickly the months fly. Good dancing and new friends found at workshops and hoedowns have helped this half year whiz by. We were represented at the Nationals in Louisville, Ky. by the Campana's and the Demattie's. Watch for our beginners class ad in next months magazine, and in the meantime Happy dancing all.

CABLE CAR SQUARES ... With a very hectic month of July behind us, including the Annual Dinner, the 17th Anniversary Dance (with the touring German square dancers and we thank our friends for their support and attendance), and the annual club picnic, we now lift our gaze to mid October and the huge benefit hoedown and dinner for the SF Rec. Center for the Handicapped. This is a Sunday afternoon and early evening affair that is not to be missed and it certainly won't be by those who have attended in the past, ask anyone!

GINGHAM SQUARES ... Despite the many GINGHAMS away during the summer months, caller DALE HOUCK is drawing at least 7 to 8 squares each Tuesday. Recent travellers include Randy and Bev Yorks driving to the Southwest to admire their recently arrived grandchild, Lydia Schoen who visited Canada, Ed & Marina Ciabattari enjoying a grand tour of Europe and Joe and Jackie Nye flying to Spain where Joe is playing the Toreador at the famous "la corrida de toros" (the running of the bulls.) The question is, will he bring back an ear? Unfortunately, several of us are also on the sick list, namely, Ray Alexander, George Schwarz & Caroline McElhenny. Their square dancing friends wish them a speedy and complete recovery.

LONGHORNS ... Our new Officers were honored club night with delicious rum cake and ice cream. MIKE DEGMETICH was substitute caller and demonstrated some smooth round dancing with his Taw. BLAKE'S wife, Betty, has asked me to thank all the Bay Area square dancers for the 100's of cards he received. Betty says he is in therapy most of the day, making progress, no visitors yet. Let us all say a daily prayer for BLAKE to return to us with his delightful chuckle and warm personality which we enjoyed so much in the past.

BACHELORS & BACHELORETTES

Our bus trip to the Chickenhop, was a big success! Everybody had plenty of food and a day of fun dancing! Just got back from the National at Louisville, in time to welcome Nat Crosa, back home to a well earned retirement. Our heart felt sympathy to the families of Ray Kline and Al Buoncristiani. Also, sorry to hear of BLAKE WESTMAN'S illness, we all wish him a quick recovery. Summer is here and we are at the Boathouse at Lake Merced until Sept.

CLOVERLEAFS ... Circumstances change so quickly. We are not dancing at the Lake Merced Boathouse on Fridays during the summer as reported last month. We will continue to dance on Fridays at Sunset Playground. We're sorry for any inconvenience this may have caused. Enjoyed dancing recently with former members, Russ and Lura Phillips. Have you ever been a little fearful of doing something, but did it anyway because the end result was worth it. Well, driving by herself on the freeway isn't Helen Razura's favorite occupation. However, she is doing just that on Friday night so that she can dance with us. We're so proud of Helen! Fun dancing at the CABLE CAR Hoedown last month to the lively calling of KIP GARVEY. Please join us on Friday nights.

ROADRUNNERS ... Many of us are still on the road to near and distant plances, but we are missing good times at home. Besides square dancing, what could be more fun that sailing on the bay, and John Richy has been treating us to weekend sails on his 32 foot boat which he keeps at the Redwood City Harbor. John is also our newly-elected President. Some people will do anything to influence votes! Other new officers are: Joy Blundell, Vice Pres., Charles Harris, Treasurer, Eleanor Shaner, Secretary, Kathleen Parun and Phyl Druley. We are planning to picnic at Twin Pines in Belmont on July 10th to enjoy the concert of our favorite group, "Back in the Saddle". Next event will be a potluck to install our new officers officially.

PAIRS 'N SPARES ... Applause, for Ed Reeb who served as our NCSDA delegate for 4 years as well as 4 years for another club. He kept us informed of all activities, helped recruit volunteers for the Round-Up and the rewards of his ticket selling expertise enriched our Treasury. Thanks Ed. We are confident our new Delegate Carl Wind, and alternate Noble Dukes will do an equally fine job. Our Anniversary Hoedown was a happy success. The great calling of DAVE HOBAUGH kept 16 squares on the move and the Barnes, Olivers and their helpers provided sandwiches and yummy Anniversary cake. Some lucky people toted off prizes. Happy to report Marvin Fairbanks recovering nicely from hip surgery. See you at our Hawaiian hoedown, Aug. 27th.

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS ... Had our first Executive Board Meeting and many plans are under way. Among them is a Beginners Class in September taught again by PHIL PAYTON and our first hoedown, (in several years!) in April, '84. Will keep you posted. Mary Sue, Phil and Esther are visiting other clubs on Thursdays. Enjoyed dancing with the SQUARE CUTTERS and the FRANCISCAN STOMPERS. Watch for them! Also had a great time with the REDWOOD DIAMONDS with DICK WAIBEL and the CABLE CAR SQUARES with KIP GARVEY. The LEVIS & LACES visited us on the 5th. Wednesday in June. Enjoyed having them. Wonder what happened to the 5th Wednesday get-togethers?

LEVIS & LACES ... We surprised our caller with a cake. Happy Birthday DOUG with all our best wishes! Welcome to our new members, Duane Miles, Lulu Kirby, Rick Hill and Bob McGuirk. Many thanks to the S.F. REBELS for their warm reception at the 5th Wednesday Party. And a big thanks to the fun group who met at our "rustic" Log Cabin for a barbeque plus dancing. A great time had by all. Reminder, our new beginners class starts Wednesday, September 7th.

CAPER CUTTERS ... We are summer dancing at the Boat-house. Come join us. We're happy to report Barbara Johnson is recovering from surgery as is our president, Wendall Lathrop. Early bird vacationers already returned from USA travels include Bertha and Dale Jones and Gen and Larry Flaherty. We're sorry to lose Penny and Lou Sabarsula who have moved to Santa Rosa. Merging of the Jr. CAPER CUTTERS has been increased enjoyment for the entire club. We're working on our fall hoedown. Remember to save the date: first Saturday in November, the 5th.

SQUARE CUTTERS ... During June we enjoyed dancing and visiting with Silvia and Marty Kahn from Phila., Pa. and David and Genny Gayne from Pittsburgh, Pa. We spent the 5th Thursday of June dancing with the 49'ERS & FRANCISCAN STOMPERS at the Franciscan Club House. We had a fine time and the refreshments were delicious as always. Jerry and Edie Wasserdrug are spending their vacation in Germany and Switzerland in June and while there were hoping to dance with one or two square dance clubs. On August 7th 8 couples will be traveling to Fort Bragg for the REDWOOD COASTER Square Dance Weekend. HARRY WHITLOCK will be the feature caller. Visitors are always welcome, so come join the fun.

SPINNING WHEELS ... From Turlock to King City to the Sonora Cup-of-Gold has kept us spinning for the last two months. The enthusiasm for these events is contagious. Double our numbers have already marked our calendars for next year! Gordon Ingram & Phyllis Evans had their new (washer/dryer equipped) 5th wheeler initiated, not with the conventional t-p job, but an unbelievable clothes line complete with long johns, etc. Good sports they are, for they donned the wierd undies, but never did find the owner of a bra, size 42D. The laundromat was open for business at Sonora, with a price list posted. Discrimination claims can be filed through their attorney, Irv Martin. (Typical claim: Size 32A @ .50 as opposed to the infamous size 42D @ $1.50.) Seriously, though, we'd appreciate your passing on the news that our next beginner's class begins Sept. 13th at the Los Altos Senior Center. See next months issue for our ad.

MARIN COUNTY

M.O.D. SQUAD ... Club members Ethel and Norm Vaughn have taken off for a three week visit with relatives in the Mid-West. They will return in time for the Knothead Hoedown in Ft. Bragg August 6th. Petra Luchetti has recovered from major surgery and will be dancing with us very soon. Our newer dancers are dancing at the Mainstream Basic Level. Now would be a good time to join us for a refresher course. An exciting look into the future is the Square Dance Cruise to Mexico on the Nieuw Amsterdam in May of next year with RAY BETTENCOURT as Host Caller and his Taw, NINA. Several of us plan to be aboard.

NOVATO SQUARES ... Our refresher class is in full swing with a lot of enthusiastic dancers. This class will continue through August. Anyone wishing to brush up on their dancing is invited to join us. Workshops are Thursday evenings at 8PM. A romance bloomed for two of our members in our beginners class. Ralph Layman and Joan Busby were recently married in Reno. Our best wishes for a happy life. Our Caller RAY BETTENCOURT and wife NINA will be hosting a cruise to Mexico in May of 84. This cruise is for square dancers as well as non-square dancers. Our Gin Fizz breakfast will be held Sunday June 26th at the Cheese Factory. We are looking forward to a fun time.

REDWOOD DIAMONDS ... Our June Anniversary Dance with DICK WAIBEL and JOHN RETTER super hoedown! Everyone who was there had a great time! The BUZZIN' BOOTS won the coffee prize for the third Sat.

in a row! Thanks to them for the turnout and loaning us their coffee pot. Congratulations to the new officers, President, Eric Strassburger, Vice Pres., Rick Pullen, Secretary, Shirley Madden, Treasurer, Todd Myers. A big thank you to all the outgoing officers for their work during our first year. We will become a regular member of NCSDA later this year and look forward to dancing with other clubs during the summer.

MARIN MAVERICKS ... Our newly elected Officers are, President, Peggy Carter, Vice Pres., Adrienne Carter, 2nd Vice Pres., Clay Hauge, Sec., Kathy Ring, Treasurer, Jo Woodruff. If you have a spare Wednesday, come dance with us and view our beautiful new banner. It was made by Vee Saunders and Hazel Rider. We enjoyed delicious food and good dancing at our May potluck supper. LON and JEAN FERRELL'S two year old granddaughter, Brooke, joined in the mixer. How about that for JEAN'S genes? Our faithful reporter, Helen King is roaming about Europe. We're hoping she finds her way back in time for next month's report.

BUZZIN' BOOTS ... Many members are excited about the introduction to A-1 that our caller DAVE HOBAUGH will be teaching starting Sept. 16th. It will be a good chance to brush up on many calls. Elaine Daum, Elaine Dutra and Elaine Hall are looking for another Elaine to dance with the club so they can complete their "Elaine Square". Then when DAVE HOBAUGH says "Elaine you have to go the other way," the whole square will reverse! Welcome back to Bob Dixon after his surgery in June. We have been attending several hoedowns and have been "bringing home the coffee".

STUMP JUMPERS ... Hi-School graduation competed with our June 18th Hoedown, but we still had 14 squares. Thanks to everyone who came. Thanks too, to callers, LON & JEAN FERRELL and JIM DIFFEY. Don & Jane Powell and Joe & Marian Calbreath's plans for July 17th's barbeque sound great. Bill Almeida is handling reservations for our August LaPorte Fling with DAVE & BUNNY MILANO and our TIMBER TWIRLER Friends. Beginner's Classes start Sept. 21st. Hope to see you August 20th our next hoedown.

OLD CAPITOL SQUARES ... Our newer dancers are progressing very well in the Plus calls under the excellent teaching of our caller, DOROTHY PEELER. We were very pleased to once again be asked to participate in the Benicia 4th of July picnic in the park. This is the 4th year we have been invited to dance as part of the day long entertainment. As Benicia's official square dance club we are happy to dance for any affair sponsored by the city or civic groups. Even though summer is here we can still be found dancing in the Old Clock Tower every Tuesday night, starting at 7:30. Visitors are always welcome.

TAM TWIRLERS ... We are happy to announce the new Board. They officially take office July 1st. President, Bob Marelli, Jim Corter, President Elect, Janet Sayles, Secretary, Gretchen Dakin, Treasurer. In June our club enjoyed a picnic together at park. Additional summer activities include, square dancing at the western weekend, Northgate Mall, our own GLEN DICKEY will be calling.

NORTH BAY AREA

PIONEERS ... Our 32nd Anniversary was a delightful evening of fun. There were 20 squares present. There was a little floor show done by Eva of the Alikhani Polyanese Dancing School and even DAVE was in the act. the decorations were beautifully done by Walt and Evelyn Drew. Dee Lyons daughter, Denise, made the Anniversary cake. Here is our new Board, President, Bob & Betty LaFaunce, 1st Vice President, Bill & Gerry Lavoy, 2nd Vice President, Larry and Linda Carll, Secretary, Gladys M. Hall, Treasurer, Ray and Dolores Lyons. Audrey Bish is still on the sick list and will be for some time to come although her broken leg is mending satisfactorily. It will be another 2 weeks stay for her in the hospital. Our next hoedown will be in Feb. 1984.

BUZZIN CUZZINS ... Our month got off to a good start by our members going to the Round-Up. We would like to thank the OLD CAPITOL SQUARES and the CATCH ALL EIGHTS for coming to visit us on our party night. We hope they enjoyed it as much as we enjoyed having them. Debbie Golino seemed very surprised and happy with the baby shower that we gave her. We are happy that Pat Jeffre had no problems with her surgery. We are looking forward to having her back with the club. Those lucky Martin's, Roach's and the four Backman's went to the Nationals in Kentucky. Some people have all the luck. GUYS & DOLLS ... 10 couples (some SQUARENADERS) from our club went back to Nashville for the Nationals. For the 4th of July week-end a group of us are headed for Fort Bragg. We will dance to DAVE HOBAUGH on Saturday night and partake of the Annual Salmon BBQ feast on Sunday. FIVE STAR SQUARES ... It has been a busy month of square dancing especially for some of our travelling couples who went to Silver State then to the Round-Up and to the Cup Of Gold in Sonora. We brought home the coffee for the most members at the PIONEERS Anniversary Hoedown. June 4th two squares put on an exhibition for the St. John's Spring Festival and four squares did the same for the guests at the Silverado Country Club. Workshop on May 31st was a real fun night as we had dancers from Connecticut, Arizona and Nebraska. We were sorry to hear that Henry and Evelyn Rohrkempers son was killed in a car accident. We extend our sympathy to all the family. Ernie Sire and Harold Bergren & tacos are to be commended for the time they are spending as leaders of the Beginners Class.

CATCH ALL EIGHTS ... Summer is here and our attendance is telling us vacations are in order. Our picnic committee is planning our fun and games picnic at standard oil club house area, led by John and Maria Jacobson. They are hard at work making all the many arrangements. We are also saving our nickles and dimes for a trip to Tahoe area chaired by Dorothy Felippi & Eva Black. See if one of us can come home with one of those progressive jack pots. On June 6th 27 of our members visited BUZZIN CUZZINS in El Cerrito and had a jolly time dancing with them. There is talk of one of our members who is raising 6 ducklings, someone should tell her you need 8 to make a square.

CLEARLAKE AREA

KONOCI KICKERS ... A record breaking attendance, delicious potluck and a fun time was had by all who attended our hardtimes hoedown. Guest caller BERT SWERER did a superb job. We thoroughly enjoyed VANYA LEIGHTON calling several tips and rounds. Graduation night was held the first part of June. The party was held for the Graduates and also for Club Caller VERN CHURCHILL. He has retired from calling in Lake County so we presented him with several gifts. We will all miss him. We will have guest callers on our Wednesday workshop thru the summer. We are all looking forward to the callers on our list.

CLEARLAKE SQUARES ... June has found many of us away on vacations, including our caller, CHICK & NORMA THRASHER. We wish all of our missing members a very safe and pleasant trip. Filling in for CHICK is ROBBIE ROBINSON and we are very fortunate to have him calling for us. We have enjoyed his workshops so very much. Thank you very much, ROBBIE. Friday night, June 24th saw many of our club dancers at "Pioneer Days" in Kelseyville, dancing with DOROTHY PEELER. Joining DOROTHY for a couple of tips was JIM GADBERRY who was Guest Caller for the us on Saturday night. JIM called a fantastic hoedown Saturday. Be sure to mark your '84 calendar. JIM will be back on the 4th Sat. in June.

REDWOOD EMPIRE

MARKWESTERNERS ... Our club has a new name. That's it. MARKWESTERNERS SQUARE DANCE CLUB. We've added three official little words to clarify to the world just what we do when gathering together as a club! We are delighted to announce that ROSS JOHNSON will be calling for us. ROSS kept us busy throughout the summer and will resume workshops in September after a well earned vacation. TED WONG will be calling for us during August. Welcome home Keith and Agnes Caulden from the cool state of Alaska. Just in time for the Ex. Board's potluck at your place. We would have missed you. Ed & Marian Haczela have just returned from a journey through the Scandinavian countries looking relaxed and inspiring all of us to get with it and enjoy a summer change of scene.

SINGLES & PAIRS ... We elected Jean Govaerts as Second Vice Pres. at the June meeting as Lou Marsh declined his post. There were five new members voted in. They are John Posey, Narola Kindness, Mary Withnell and James and Mary Shaw. June Bache expressed her gratitude to the Club for their help through a long year and a half before she handed over the gavel to Darlene Dobrovolny. At our Aug. 20th hoedown at Monroe Hall TOM WALTON will call a plus two & HAZEL WISCHEMANN will call the rounds. The club will start a Beginners Class on Sept. 12th with STEVE MINKIN calling. There are flyers a plenty to hand out and to tape up and the first two Monday nights are free.

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES ... On June 11th, DALE HOUCK called an excellent hoedown for us. Not only did he do a great job of calling, but he brought a bus load of 14 squares with him. Chairpersons for the evening were the Hanks, Wallacks and the Vandermades. Glad to report that Bob Dickenson is home and doing fine after recent back surgery. We are all looking forward to our annual family picnic on June 26th at Mirabel park. You all come dance with us on July 30th, when we have JACK MURTHA. On August 13th, we will have ROGER MORRIS at the mike. See you there!

WHISTLE STOMPERS ... TED WONG is our new caller and will be with us indefinitely. He has been doing a fine calling job. We are looking forward to starting a Beginner Class after Labor Day and are starting our publicity campaign for new dancers. We are taking part in Rohnert Parks Western Days on July 2nd by doing a benefit dance with STEVE MINKIN calling. Location is the Patio. Summer days have beckoned a lot of our members. Many are still at far away places. We hope they get in some dancing. The banner story continues with a good ending. A nice group of SAUCY SQUARES came over and recovered their banner on the 13th of June. We enjoyed it all.

SAUCY SQUARES ... Robert & Selena Tucker and Hap Kinney are representing us at the National Convention in Louisville. We miss dancing with Roy and Bobbie Boltz are both suffering foot problems. Ben and Mary Weeks have returned from a Wisconsin vacation. Susie Urton will be hospitalized for an operation at the end of the month. James and Mary Shaw are on an extended vacation until October. We are planning our annual picnic at Bloomfield park. We are going to make ice cream and get our grasshopper badges. Tal Mather is home and we are looking forward to dancing with him and Annie.

CONTRA COSTA AREA

CLUTCH BUSTERS ... We are swinging into summer with its warm nights and lots of good dancing. Moving from hall to hall is keeping everyone on their toes. A big Hoedown with EARL RICH is coming up Aug. 20th with BILL & COLLETTE WEBER calling the rounds. Our Wagon Master's for the big campout are Penny and Tony Kalinowski and they are promising a good time for all. tony says it will be bigger and better than last year and they are hoping to have the "Pied Piper" of the bag pipes, Bill Dirscol there to lead us all to greater Heights. So hitch up your wagons and head for the Gold Country! See you all there.

DIABLO SINGLES ... May we proudly present to you, fellow square dancers our Class of '83. Leala Bunch, Glenn Barton, Sherry Blunk, Coco Blake, Barbara Cain, Lin Chamberlin, Mary Freeman, Dorothy Goldsmith, Glenn Irwin, Shirley Jones, Jim Jenne, Jerry Kornbau, Beverly Lewis, Lance O'Connor, Kay Pyka, Gerri Van Lear, Peggy Wentworth, Pat Wright, Darlene White and Robin White. "Have one ELLING of a dance with BLISS"! That's right folks, BOB ELLING and NATE BLISS will be splitting the bill at our Friday, Aug. 19th MS/QS Hoedown at Ygnacio Valley High, Concord. Come join us!

RIPSNORTERS ... It took 28 years for us to have a Women Prez, welcome, Wanda Sloan and 1st gent, Bob, VP, Elmer & Ann Pistole, Treas., Duane & Faye Le Febvre, Sec., Roy & Hilda Luoma. At Round-Up: Jim G., Laurie C., John & Shirley, Ben & Esther (ask them how they got so pickled at the Breakfast), Mike & Toni, Ron & Grace, Lew & Sharon, Harry & Deena, Dave & Ila, Si & Lee, Jim & Mary, Rudy & Audrey (Chuck of Coal winners), Dave & Nancy, Jack & Betty, Eric & Jennifer & Jackie (Jennifer's mom), Burnell & Leora, Juan & Betty. ERIC did a superb job calling with JOHNNY PRESTON. Graduated 8 couples into our club. Jack & Margie Dahl, Douglas & Stella Farris, Cesare & Doris Fumagalli, Bill & Betty Hood, Jack & Betty Jensen, Bill & Flo Lanam, Jack & Margaret Strachan, Greg & Barbara Phillips with the expertise of ED TAUSIG. Did the Hotel Security find Batman? See you at the Nationals.

CONCORD STOMPERS ... Wedding bells will be ringing soon for Shirley Shepherd & Ben Coats. Mary Jane Fitzgerald & Peter Harding. Doesn't square dancing bring people together? Square dancing keeps our members young in heart, demonstrated by Julie and Dick Jerrett, and Evelyn & Jim Laudenslager, as they celebrate their 40th Anniversaries. Congratulations to all of you. We will gather on June 29th for a potluck at Ygnacio High.

Pack the picnic basket and bring the family for the club picnic on July 10th at the Benecia State Park. A good time is promised for all of us. Circle Aug. 6th on your calendar for our next MS Hoedown at Ygnacio Valley High. Have a good summer and keep dancing.

ANTIOCH AMBLERS ... Antioch's own Tim & Rosemary Biglow were elected to a second term as co-president of the club. Which goes to show that you almost can't get enough of a good thing. They join Bill & Betty Fraser and Ralph & Margie Berger of Antioch and Jim & Linda Pennock of Oakley as the elected officers for 83-84. And, as the only square dance club in East County, our involvement in Delta events is enormous. In the works right now are an exhibition dance at the County East Mall for Western Days, a float for the 4th of July city of Antioch parade, plans for a canoe trip on the Russian River, and arrangements for a hoedown for everybody at the Contra Costa District Fair. We are also very proud of our Congressman George Miller, who is co-sponsoring legislation to make square dancing the permanent and official National Folk Dance of the U.S. This bill is now before Congress and needs support from the home folks.
