SQUARE DANCE CALLERS ASSO. OF NORTHERN CA. NEWS

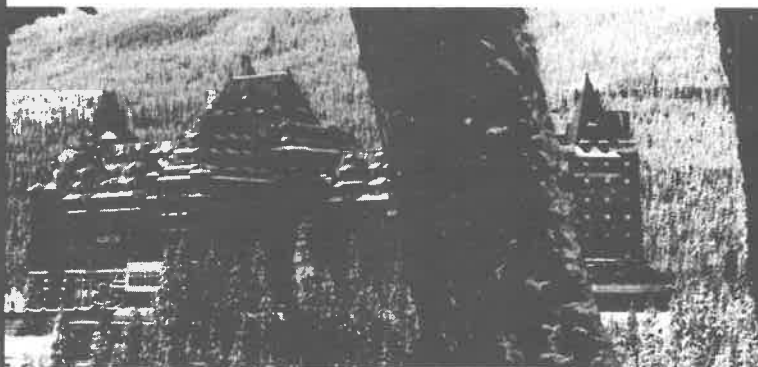

THE FIRST ANNUAL CALLERS ASSO. DINNER DANCE WAS A GREAT SUCCESS!! THANKS TO BUD AND ANNE WOLKINS TERRY AND CRICKET MOSIER, PAT AND DALE SPAIN FOR THE WORK IN PLANNING THE FUN EVENING. WHAT ABOUT YOU CALLERS WITH THE SEXY TIES??

ON A SAD NOTE: HOWARD PARKER WAS SERIOUSLY INJURED IN AN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT. AT THIS WRITING HE IS IN A SANTA CRUZ HOSPITAL IN CRITICAL CONDITION. ANYONE WISHING TO SEND A CARD OR CHERRY NOTE CONTACT SQUARE DANCE WHERE FOR CURRENT INFO. 651-0370 OR 582-1847. MAC McDEVITT

SQUARE DANCE CODE OF ETHICS

1. COURTESY—As a square dancer I respect other dancers and callers and treat everyone with courtesy.
2. FRIENDLINESS—I go beyond the matter of form because those who participate in this activity with me are all my friends.
3. LOYALTY—I support my own club in all activities because it means that the continuance of square dancing depends on my personal loyalty.
4. CLEANLINESS—I do not wish to offend anyone. I am very particular of my personal habits, breath and cleanliness.
5. ABSTINENCE—Many Square Dances are held in public facilities where liquor is forbidden and their continued availability is dependent upon a favorable public image of square dancers. The co-ordination required for following the calls is impaired by drinking and close contact in a square with one who has consumed alcoholic beverages may be offensive. Therefore, I recognize the validity of the efforts to maintain a separation of square dancing from drinking, and will refrain from its use before and during the dances which I attend.

CLUB NEWS

SAN FRANCISCO AREA

LEVIS & LACES ... Our Beginner's Class is doing fantastic thanks to our DOUG SAUNDER'S calling and the support of the Club. At this time a special thanks is in order to George & Lorraine Norris for the endless time and boundless energy expended in opening up, seeing about refreshments, general cleaning up (all the works they do behind the scenes) and always done with smiling faces and cheerfulness. It's our good fortune to have the two of you as members!

SQUARE CUTTERS ... Congratulations to our new President and wife, Ernie and Lee Banchemo and all the other officers who will serve for the coming year. We held our installation dinner in Oct. at Fort Mason and everyone had a great time. We also welcomed new members Ann & Rich Piombo, District Deputies. So nice to have you join us. Our Beginner's Class began in September and we have a good turn out of new dancers. They are coming along fine with the help of ED FERRARIO as teacher. Visitors are always welcome, so come join the fun and bring a friend. We also wish everyone a very happy Thanksgiving.

GINGHAM SQUARE ... We are in high gear in anticipation of the hoedown Saturday, Nov. 12th to celebrate our 30th Anniversary. (See ad elsewhere in this edition for details.) This is quite a milestone in any club's history. If perchance any charter member of the club is still around, we would love to hear from you. Dancers familiar with advanced level are welcome to Tuesday night workshops at the Millbrae Rec. Center. Our Caller, DALE HOUCK, is an outstanding teacher and constantly reviewing to keep everyone on their toes. As an added attraction, JACK and DOROTHY WRIGHT are with us the first Tuesday of each month to teach the square dancers' round.

WHIRL-A-WAYS ... Busy feet at hoedowns, busy hands working on various crafts and items for our Christmas Boutique, time and place announced in next issue. Bob & Theresa Smith celebrating their 25th traveling up north and into Canada. Condolences to Ed Buksa on the recent loss of his mother. Members looking forward to our progressive dinner and mini mystery bus trip. Birthday candles to Norah Craig, Earl Noxon, Shirley Korm, Bud Fields and Don Parrish. Anniversaries to Tony & Irene Medina.

ROADRUNNERS ... Sadly we say goodbye to Charles and Vivian Harris who are moving to Albuquerque, but he will be back to visit on business trips. Al Perris has jumped into Charles's running shoes to take over the duties of Treasurer. Our beginner class is continuing nicely under Robert's leadership. They even got an hour of instruction from RON LIBBY before he called a wonderful Plus Hoedown on Tuesday, our club night. JACK & IONE KERN joined RON for the rounds. Martha and Walt Phillips hosted our club picnic at their house. We broke in their new barbeque pit. It worked fine. John continued to take small groups on his boat until sunset sails became moonlight sails. Have to wait till next year for more. Tom & Tania Scott were eating fresh oysters in New Orleans and listening to jazz while the McIlmoils & Shaners were playing chase your neighbor across Spain missing each other by just days in each city.

LONGHORNS ... All were happy to greet BLAKE, BETTY and their baby at the annual Flood Park picnic. BLAKE strolled about talking to members about his recovery and family. A speedy recovery for Cliff Hanners from the pulled ligament aquired playing volleyball at the picnic. The club wishes the Storye's well in their retirement in San Diego. Welcome back to the Jensens, Walls, Muscantes and Brandenburgs who have returned from their respective vacations. Bon voyage to Joe and Cookie Montalto on their visit to Italy. The club is now auditioning callers for the Tuesay evening classes.

CABLE CAR SQUARES ... The club has spent much of this past month recovering from Marie's marvelous maneuver to Lake Tahoe early in Oct. What a time we had! Now we are looking forward to the graduation of our Kiddie Kars beginners' class next month. This group has made remarkable progress in their advancement. to Mainstream dancing. Thanks in large part to the cooperation of their instructor, AL STAGNERO, and club caller JIM WYLIE. For the past three months the beginners have joined us for our final hour of dancing, and the results have been salutary. They are ready for Mainstream.

HIGHLAND SWINGERS ... Even though our President Mark Rascher was in Saudia Arabia, and our Vice President and his wife, Gene and Rose Owens were vacationing in the Carribean, and Ross & Norma Pallard were in Washington, D.C. for their sons wedding, their was still 43 of us that climbed aboard a bus in San Carlos and headed for our Mystery Trip. We headed South and had a stop over at Casa De Fruita and then on to Flying Lady II in Margan Hill where we did some site seeing, had dinner, danced & square danced. It was a great evening. We look forward to seeing you at the HIGHLAND SWINGERS 29th Anniversary Hoedown featuring KEN KENMILL and GARY CARNES calling plus level and JACK & DOROTHY WRIGHT calling rounds. Join us Nov. 19th in San Mateo.

49'ERS ... We had our annual picnic at McNeers Beach, all who attended had a great time weather was perfect. Much thanks to Larry and Jane Anderson for their organization of the picnic. Most of our vacation travelers have returned and we will be getting back to our regular schedule for workshop nights. We hosted the Thursday night clubs for the fifth Thursday in Sept. Hoedown committee is working hard t=for the Hoedown to be held Nov. 19th at El Camino High School with GEORGE DREIER calling and MILLARD & JUNE MCKINNEY on rounds. BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETES San Mateo Chapter ... After a hectic summrer we have settled down to our usual routine. On Monday evenings, our club caller, BILL PETERS is busy instructing an enthusiastic new beginner class at 7:00 followed at 8:30 by our regular weekly club dance. Also, ANNDREA is cueing round dances for us these Monday nights. Early in October, some of our club members traveled to Oxnard and attended the B's 'n B's, International 34th Anniversary Dance. Soon after their return, club and class enjoyed a picnic and a day at Marine World. Our Halloween costume party on the 31st was a fun time for all.

CLODHOPPERS ... GEORGE and ANNE DREIER, our caller and taw, and Charley and Marilyn Ellis, our club V.P., have our Beginners class going full swing, ably assisted by members. Our September 24th hoe-down with KEN KENMILLE was well attended. Thank you, to all who helped to make it a success. October 1st saw us turn out to support our own GEORGE DREIER and our good friend DALE HOUCK call at the TWO BY FOURS Hoedown, what a good time we had. With so many of our members away of summer vacations our annual picnic was postponed until October. Jonsey and Roy Trinta as Squareheads for the event, has some great ideas for the day so a grand time was had by all of us.

ISLAND SQUARES ... Congratulations to our 25 beginners who graduated on Aug. 12th! The enthusiasm of this class was felt throughout the year and they gave the club an uplift. We began recruiting for our next beginners class, with the assistance of Sharon Dekker and Ed Schneider, which started Sept. 16th and will continue for the next two weeks on Friday nights. Then off to a brand new season of beginners. Please come join us if you can. Our 14th Annual Anniversary Hoedown was on Oct. 8th, with our caller, KEN KENMILLE & MIKE DEGMETICH calling, with BILL & COLLETTE WEBER calling the rounds. Thanks to Arvin and Marilyn Smith for organizing all the many details and making it a success. We are all looking forward to going to the 27th Annual Jubilee in October at the Santa Clara County Fairgrounds, see you there!

PAIRS 'N SPARES ... Members attending the picnic at the Watershed had an enjoyable day. The Westh's traveled to Nevada City for Marguerite's class reunion, then to Chico for some visiting with relatives and friends. We're happy to report Bob Valdez recovering nicely from injuries received in a serious auto accident. Fortunately, Marge escaped with only minor bruises and so was able to give Bob lots of TLC. The Andersons are back to reality after a week of living it up at Mark Hopkins Hotel as guests of Goerge's employers at a seminar. Our condolences to Lola Ingalsbe on the loss of her mother and to Olivia, Elisa and Paula on the death of their father. JEANNE BRISCOE will call our Harvest Hoedown, November 26th, come enjoy.

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS ... Maureen Murphy became a new Grandma in August with the arrival of a second granddaughter. The Pozzas had a fabulous time at BILL PETERS dance at College of San Mateo. Some of us visited DALE and DICK at the BUZZIN' BOOTS get-to-gether. 15 members went to dinner and then joined our caller, VICKI WOODS, at her Mainstream Hoedown with the SUES 'N QUES in Palo Alto. Fun Dance with good apple pie. Our beginners class has 3 squares of very enthusiastic dancers with PHIL PAYTON calling. If you have danced before and want to start again, come visit us on Thursday evenings. Club still dancing on Wed. Happy Holidays to all!

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTES
San Francisco Chapter ... Enjoyed dancing to ROGER

MORRIS in Concord, as much fun as ever. Went to our sister chapter, San Mateo B & B's 8th Anniversary Hoedown, to hear BILL PETERS. Welcome to our new member Cathy Frazee. Thanks to Paul Marksman for all the beautiful dahlias, he brings to the club each Friday. Our former caller KEN KENMILLE, called a fast moving dance for the Belmont CLODHOOPPERS. We will have a Halloween party on our party night, Oct. 28th. Come and join in the fun! Have a happy Thanksgiving.

CAPER CUTTERS ... We are enjoying our return to Francis Scott Key School especially with 18 new members. Our last night at the Boat House featured a graduation party for the Junior CAPER CUTTERS and a welcome to the club. President Lathrop is steadily improving and intends to be on hand for our November hoedown festivities. Fern Iacopi, special events chairperson, organized a silent auction for mid-September, and we happily increased our club's Treasury.

MARIN COUNTY

STUMP JUMPERS ... September has passed with us at various hoedowns almost every weekend. BUNNY MILANO has flown to Hawaii to visit with Pat & Tony Seguera and to urge them home ASAP. Our beginners class has just started, the first nights turnout brought over 4 squares of fun people who we look forward to enjoying our Wednesday night workshop with. Some of us have decided to spread our wings a bit and are bringing back glowing reports from the BUZZIN' BOOTS' A-1 Beginners Class. Cal Mellor is our newest NCSDA Delegate and Al Angulo is the Alternate. We look forward to their reports of what is going on. All newer dancers are urged to attend our November 19th Beginners Hoedown to be called by our own caller DAVE MILANO and callers from the floor. Urge your caller to attend and hope to see you there.

M.O.D. SQUAD ... 21 diplomas were presented to HARRY WHITLOCKS 59th Square Dancing graduating class the last week of August. There was a time when a club could graduate Square Dancers four times a year. Not so today with the Basic-Mainstream level numbering 68 movements. Welcome aboard, Graduates, and may you have many years of Square Dancing enjoyment. Our wandering members have returned to club dancing with the advent of Labor Day, also our members who have had major and/or nagging illnesses. We're glad you are back. You were missed. October is going to be an active month, beginning with our annual club picnic at Armstrong Grove and ending with a Gin Fizz Brunch and Hoedown at IDESI Hall just before Halloween.

BUZZIN' BOOTS ... The club has been very busy this past month. 19 members went on the raft trip organized by Warren Brentlinger down the American River. October 2nd was the annual club picnic at the Cheese Factory, and everyone feasted on steaks. The Egisti's are relaxing at the Konocti Harbor Inn at Clearlake, and then they are off to the annual affair at Blue Lakes with club members. Members baked pies for our 31st Anniversary Hoedown where the TAM TWIRLERS took home the coffee. DAVE HOBAUGH'S Intro. to A-1 class is a great success, and the club members are enjoying meeting the many dancers attending. The San Francisco Junior Chamber of Commerce has elected Pete Oser as its new Director!

CORNHUSKERS ... We have been three years without a class, and the Presidents George & Louise Steacy announce the commencement of a new Advanced class, starting in Mid-Summer. It is still open to those who have already had a few months of A-1, and wish to continue on in the Advanced list. DAVE STEVENS will instruct from 6:45 on Wednesdays to 8:15, overlapping the regular Advanced workshop. Elected with the Steacys were Ursula & Fred Borgman, V.P. Carl & Josephine Smith as Treasurers and John & Ann Morrison as Secretary. The Pedersens are off on their annual escape to the Sun Country in Mesa, Arizona, and the Conroys to their annual trip to Mississippi. This time, they will take in the home states of all of Louise's five brothers. Morrisons have left for Greece, and will be back by the time this appears. Ruth & Cy Ruprecht won a thousand dollar jackpot in the slots recently. Joe Murphy has been sporting a cast on his left arm for a few weeks, but is ok now.

NOVATO SIDEKICKS ... We've elected Joe & Jeanelle Killan as our new Presidents this term. Allen & Louise Conroy will be the new Secretary & Treasurers. The club has almost completed the C-1 list at a level and speed that should encourage some to try for more frequent attendance at C-1 dances. We hope to settle in at a comfortable C-1 plateau, where dancers of the persuasion can enjoy a couple of hours of "floor time" every Sunday. We have started a regular Beginner Class every Sunday, from 7-9, following the Challenge workshop. After we graduate them, they will be encouraged to join Mainstream clubs in Marin, and some day they may come back to us if they want to go beyond Mainstream. Club dancing at C-1 is from 4:30-7, followed by the Beginner Class from 7-9 at the Hamilton Air Force Base in Marin, every Sunday. TAM TWIRLERS ... Approximately 70 people attended the Annual TAM TWIRLER picnic at Ft. Kronkite in the Marin Headlands. Bert Farber was in charge of Fun and Games. Onion and tomato slicing, egg throwing, and water balloon contests. Jim Corter, the "Babe Ruth of TAM TWIRLERS" starred in the baseball game with his tremendous homers. Everyone had a good day of food and fun. TAM TWIRLERS will hold their Fall Hoedown on Oct. 22nd. Come dance with us to RON HAGGERTY calling. Check our ad for the time and place. Hope to see many of you there!

REDWOOD DIAMONDS ... Two squares of beginners graduated recently amid great fun and hilarity. Most are now proud members of our club. ERIC & JENNIFER HENERLAU have been bringing young RICHARD to our Tuesday night workshops and it is quite a sight to see him dreaming in ERIC'S arms while ERIC gives out with a rousing singing call. This young man will really be indoctrinated to square dancing at an early age. We're looking forward to our new beginners class starting Oct. 4th and by the time this comes out, it should be well underway. The officers and their helpers are working hard preparing for our Winter Hoedown in December with DAVE HOBAUGH and the GHOST

RIDERS. This should be a real fun evening (as all who attended last winter's dance well know) and we certainly are looking forward to it. We're hoping for a great turnout.

NOVATO SQUARES ... Vacations have taken priority for many club members during Aug. & Sept. John & Louise Gates and John & Jeanette Sanchez enjoyed visiting the Tetons and Yellowstone. At Yellowstone they were joined by Bill & Lee Larson who were returning from a trip to Canada. Lee & John Westerlund traveled to Colorado to visit family and friends. We also enjoyed seeing former club members visiting our area. Roy and Lorna Bouchey from Borrego Springs, Ernie and Alva Fingerlos and Al & Shirley Vargas from Arizona. Club members are looking forward to a traveler outing with the SPINNING WHEELS of Alameda in Oct. at Plymouth. Wedding Bells will be ringing in Nov. for Bill Bayless and Sally Milani. Congratulations and best wishes.

MAVERICKS ... We did it again. How sweet it is. Last year we won Second Place in the 12th Annual Country Fair Day Parade in San Anselmo. This year, Sept. 11th, we won the large First Place trophy, in the Miscellaneous, Musical Costume group. We also won a Second Place Ribbon in the Musical Novelty Group. Darrell Crater painted his truck for the occasion. Hickory Farms loaned their Calf Statue and 22 of us, to LON FERRELLS calling, danced or paraded along the parade route. This stunning victory was celebrated with a swim and pizza party at the home of Aileen & Dick Taylor. Our recent guests were, Mrs. Porter, June Rittenhouse's mother, from Wisconsin, Bill & Sherry Silva, from Lake Oswego, Oregon, John & Mona Verzi & Joe & Helen Stewart. Our Beginner Class is progressing well.

NORTH BAY AREA

CATCH ALL 8'S ... Vacations are over, all travelers are back dancing now, some flew some cruised to Europe, Mexico, Caribbean, Canada, now we have a group of newer dancers to bring along. BERT has brought them along patiently and they are responding well. Elvin Williamson and Marshal Carver are coming along nicely and we hope to see them back on the floor again soon. The girls all have their new club dresses, looks like the boys are pikers, no new shirts yet or should we mention that? Our dance committee is working on our Halloween and St. Patricks dances and we are looking forward to an interesting first six months in '84. We opened our doors to TULLY HO group and most of them now dance with us.

FIVE STAR SQUARES ... We wish to thank the many clubs that joined us in celebrating our 18th Anniversary Hoedown. Included in this group was a bus load of STARLITE SHUFFLERS from Sacramento and the CONCORD REBELS, who were on a Mystery Trip. Our club President, Paul Avery & Charlene invited the club members to their home for an after party and delicious finger food & drinks were served. The BOOT HILL RAMBLERS were our guests for our 5th Tuesday party night. Tuesday Sept. 20th, three squares of PALS & SALS from Vacaville came to dance with us and it was like a small Hoedown.

We have also had visitors from the BUZZSTEPPERS & PIONEERS. We welcome everybody to come and dance with us. Two new members have joined the club, Gus & Dolores Tuomi and we are very happy to have them dancing with us.

BUZZIN CUZZINS ... Our annual picnic was a big success. Thanks to the 35 people who showed up. The good planning and hard work of the Middleton's. The generosity of the Jeffre's for treating us to barbequed hot dogs and hamburgers & the Lofton's for the drinks. To Forest Brown for getting to the park at the crack of dawn to hold a perfect spot for us. We had a big turnout of beginners. MIKE WRIGHT is such a good teacher, he has them looking good already. Adele Backman is back from another long trip. Business and pleasure combined this time. Two squares of us got together for the hoedown given by the OLD CAPITOL SQUARES. Lots of fun. OLD CAPITOL SQUARES ... A family picnic was enjoyed by several of our members and their families on Sunday, Sept. 11th at the Pleasant Hill Recreation Area. It was decided to make this an annual affair. Our Beginners Class got off to a good start on Wednesday, Sept. 14th at Mills School. Everyone was very enthused. Our first New Dancers Hoedown will be Nov. 18th with DOROTHY PEELER calling. Sept. 19th was our hoedown with SCOT BYARS calling and RAY HANNA doing the rounds. They both did a great job and a good time was had by all who attended. Our next mystery trip is in the planning stage and we are looking forward to it.

PIONEERS ... It was good to see Audrey Bish out at workshop although she is still confined to a wheel chair but the cast is off her leg which is a great relief. DAVE and SANDY HOBAUGH are looking forward and getting excited about their cruise, but the workshops for the advance classes on Mondays and Thursdays will proceed as usual, DICK ARMSTRONG will substitute for the Monday PIONEERS workshop AND MIKE WRIGHT will substitute for the ACEYS DUCEYS on Thursday evenings. The members who attended the wedding of Ray & Dolores Lyons daughter, Deanna, had a beautiful time as it was a lovely wedding and we wish the young couple happiness in the future. Ray Lyons is selling tickets and they are going fast for the Nov. 13th (Sunday) Sapphetti Dinner and Newer Callers from 1-5 at the Community Center. DOROTHY PEELER will be the M.C.

CLEARLAKE AREA

SINGLES & PAIRS ... At the Sept. business meeting voted to donate $25.00 to the Cancer Fund in remembrance of Nellie Clark. Also five new members were voted in on that date. They are: Debbie Gustetter, Marietta Moneymaker, Gerri Masters, Glenn McKendree and Richard Work. The club will not have a hoedown in Nov., however NCSDA District 5 will have a plus 2 and A-1 at Monroe Hall on Nov. 19th and all of the callers in District 5 will call. All of the newer dancers can get geared up for a Beginner hoedown in Dec. with basics from 1-38. STEVE MINKIN will call at Monroe Hall on Sunday Afternoon Dec. 3rd from 1:30-5 and there will be refreshments.

QUESTION MARKS ... Now that fall is upon us we are all putting away our campers, tents & water skis with fond memories of all the campouts and skiing we did this summer as a club. Our beginners class is just forming under the capable tutelage of TOM WALTON. We invite everyone to our November Anniversary Dance with our own TOM calling. See you there.

KONOCTI KICKERS ... We're enjoying our new caller, VANYA LEIGHTON, very much. Although we enjoyed having such great guest callers all summer, it's a pleasure to have a regular caller again. Many thanks to Ted & Janice Sierakowski for calling rounds for us all summer. Welcome to our newer dancers. The beginners class started Sept. 14th and we had a nice turnout. Thank you to the many angels who came to help. CHICK THRASHER from CLEARLAKE SQUARES was good enough to call for us at the Lake County Fair. We put on a exhibition. Flyers announcing our beginners class were distributed. A good crowd and great dancing at our Sept. Hoedown with SCOT BYARS calling. As always refreshments were superb. Thanks for a fun evening, SCOT. See you at our Nov. Hoedown at Lower Lake High. WAYMON GODWIN is calling.

CLEARLAKE SQUARES ... Our recent graduates, George Kennedy, Bill & Lola Koelling, Pauline Kraft, Azella Rehe, were welcomed into our club along with Dee & Weldon Parker. After a delicious spaghetti dinner our beginners class got off to a good start. We have a fine group who will learn well with CHICK'S guidance. Most of all, we're sure they'll enjoy the classes. Many thanks to the club members who worked and cooked for the big event. Plan to join us on Nov. 26th (4th Sat.) when JACK MURTHA will be our guest caller. We guarantee a fun filled time. This month we end on a sad note by reporting the deaths of two club members. George Kennedy graduated in August and never did get to dance as a full fledged member. Ray Dondero passed away after a year's illness. He was a long time club member who was loved and will be missed by all of us. Kay has our deepest sympathy.

REDWOOD EMPIRE

SAUCY SQUARES ... Hap Kinney is back from her travels. She's full of pep and ready to take up her position as President again. Bob Griesman is home from the hospital. We are glad to have him back. Skee Moroni's son-in-law, Sol Zorne, needs blood donations for surgery. Our club is incorporating as a non-profit organization for insurance purposes. The paper work involved is keeping our building committee hopping. We are also planning our Nov. 16th newer dancer's hoedown. DAVE WISCHEMANN will call.

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES ... On Sept. 10th, BILL PETERS called an excellent dance for us. Chairpersons for the evening were the Dickensons, Azevedos and Walles. The garage sale proved to be lots of fun. Those who participated enjoyed a chicken lunch supplied by Frank Wolfe. Club members are eagerly awaiting our Oct. activity to be held at the Healdsburg Country Club. You will come join us for an evening with KIP GARVEY and JOHN RETTER on Nov. 12th.

GRAPE STOMPERS ... Our club members are still busy exhibition dancing to expose more people in Sonoma to the fun of square dancing. The 1st beginner class with 34 new people and the 2nd with 43 seems to be proof that we have been successful in interesting quite a number of people. The club danced at the Sonoma Valley Rodeo on Sept. 10th on an 8 foot wide flat bed truck with some trepidations. One of them not being the least a 104' temperature. STEVE MINKIN called on Saturday and on Sunday TED WONG called for the club members. On Sunday it was decided to dance in the dirt instead and everyone was relieved to be on terra firma. The WHISTLE STOMPERS and our club are having an Anniversary Hoedown, our 1st and their 7th on Sat. Nov. 5th, 8-11 at Golten Hall in Sonoma. DALE HOUCK will be calling.

WHISTLE STOMPERS ... Our enthusiastic beginners are looking forward to dancing with our caller TED WONG. A lovely plaque was presented to Bud & Thelma Ealum stating that they were the founders of our club. They have bought a home in Fayetteville, Tenn. and are moving there in Sept. We will miss them and wish them well. Hap Kinney traveled 12,000 miles and was away for 2½ months enjoying visiting her sister and brother and seeing the Grand Old Opry among other activities. We are glad to see Katie Serres back after her surgery. Our Valley of the Moon Anniversary Hoedown will be put on by the GRAPE STOMPERS and us on Nov. 5th at 8-11 and the Sonoma High School in Sonoma. Come and join us!

MARKWESTERNERS ... We miss our regular publicity gal with her talented command of the literary arts, but we are also happy Marg and Her husband

Al Greefkens are enjoying a few weeks in Hawaii. Betty Denton has returned from her European vacation and had such a great time she is already thinking in terms of returning. We are all gratified of the success of our Hawaiian Luau Dance and very appreciative of the enthusiastic WHEEL-ABOUTS group that helped us make it so much fun. We are also enjoying a lively group of guest dancers who are taking advantage of our Introduction to Plus Level Program. We are happy to have them "aboard." Happy Thanksgiving to all!

RAINBOW STROLLERS ... We're proud to announce that our new club caller is NATE BLISS. He and his bride DEBI (they were married in May) come to us from Texas. NATE started calling 20 years ago while stationed in Hawaii with the Air Force. He's been calling full time since 1972, and records with Blue Star Records in Texas. NATE has called extensively throughout the United States, and has called internationally as well. He'll be calling at a square dance festival in Saudi Arabia next May. The move to Santa Rosa is a new one for NATE, but is like coming home for DEBI, as she spent many of her growing up years here, and her family is still in the bay area. NATE is calling our A-1 level beginners class which starts Wed. Nov. 9th from 7-8:30. Our regular A-1 level workshop hours will be 8:30-10:30 on Wednesdays.

CONTRA COSTA AREA

GUYS & DOLLS ... Our club in conjunction with the DIABLO SINGLES is sponsoring a beginners square dance class. The beginners are responding to ELMER RADCLIFF'S teaching and are making good progress. The annual GUYS & DOLLS picnic was held Sept. 18th, under the expert organization of our activities chairperson, Rick & Linda Silverman. A frog jumping contest, scavenger hunt, and charades were added to our repertoire of adult games. The Sandow's Screammers team finally won after a tie breaking tug-of-war. Joan Schiebin won the Miss Ankle contest and Gene Mollenhauer won the Mr. Legs contest. They were crowned King & Queen of the picnic. Three squares of us traveled to Napa to the FIVE STAR SQUARES Hoedown. DAVE HOBAUGH and MIKE WRIGHT provided excellent dancing. The members enjoyed a pre-dance dinner and several after parties.

CLUTCH BUSTERS ... Beginners Class started Sept. 29th at Meadow Homes! Our club, 27 years under on banner, today it lives on! Thanks to our Captain and wife, Ralph & Betty Bry who stayed at the helm when the ship was floundering, and all those crew members who stayed aboard to keep the ship afloat. Thanks to our new caller and his wife who have put new wind in our sails and showed us all exciting new ports of call. Thanks to Alice Jones for making it official by putting BILL BANKERT'S name on our banner. To all members who have come and gone and to those who now remain we give a Toast to the "Club with the Most", CLUTCH BUSTERS! come to our Nov. Hoedown. SHELL SWINGERS ... Summer is over and our vacationers should soon be returning home. Leonard Klima is in China. Betty & Cecil Lendrum are back from Alaska. Marvin & Ann Wilson are still looking for fish in Northern Calif. Glen & Reba Ward are off to New England to check out the fall foliage. The Branchcombs, Davises, Deggers, Elliotts, Hixes, Wilsons and Max Sherwood enjoyed the Labor Day weekend at Ft. Bragg with the street dance, hoedowns and dancing on the beach plus the picnic hosted by the TIMBER TOPPERS and a melodrama put on by the Footlighters. The Elliotts hosted a cocktail party in their room at the Motel. Thank you to the DO-C-DOES for the coffee won at their Hoedown with DICK HENSCHER. Thank you to TERRY MOSIER for calling our Sept. Hoedown and to all of you that came.

ANTIOCH AMBLERS ... Our busy summer is over, and we workshopped at private homes this year because of our school summer schedules. We enjoyed the hospitality of Harvey & Fulie Kondo, Tom & Vicki Englehart, Bill & Sandie Shultz, Todd & Ann Harrell and Bob & Jennifer Evans. We really appreciate it, thanks guys. Several AMBLER couples made it up to the Calaveras Fun Festival, and almost melted in the heat! It didn't keep us from dancing, however and we really enjoyed the weekend. September was beginner dancer month for us and as usual, we had a really good turnout. Looking forward to our annual campout at Anchor Bay, where we'll dance on the beach, barefooted!

CONCORD STOMPERS ... We are readying our new club costumes to wear for our Beginner Hoedown on November 4th. KIP GARVEY Plus on Nov. 5th, both at Ygnacio Valley, what a busy weekend! We have another wedding coming up Nov. 12th, Ken Huedepohl & Connie Davis. Our best wishes to both of you. A lot of us are going to the Chapparral Festival in Sacramento. The Chapparral will be sending GARY SHOEMAKE & KEN BOWER to our own weekend Festival on Feb. 3rd and 4th in Richmond. So let's all start thinking about it!

RIPSNORTERS ... By the time you read this, our 26th Anniversary Dance with KEN BOWER will be a pleasant memory. Also, our weekend trip to Plymouth featuring the Levines Osmundsens, Wilsons, Reesers, Salcedos, Pistoles, (those were the only names at this time.) Over Labor Day Weekend seen in Plymouth: Foss, Sloans (our Prez.) Fumigallis, Jim, Laurie Salcedos, Kenneys (from CLUTCH BUSTERS). Happy Holidays to all.

SQUARE WHEELERS ... Welcome to our new President, Harvey Hicks, and his lovely wife Sharon. Under his guidance, our first attempt at a club float in the Danville 4th of July Parade was a success. Dancing on the beautifully decorated parade unit, aptly driven by Howard and Norma Placchi, were Ian & Martha Cook, Jim & Ellen Bocek, Don & Pat Ashworth, Harvey & Sharon Hicks, Terry & Jeanne Jacobsen, John & Elsa Miedema and Sandy Skillman, Krista, Dan & Jill Bocek. On Sept. 10th, the club enjoyed a picnic and afternoon of swimming, basketball and good fellowship at Bill & Toni Underhill's. Evening found many partaking of the pleasures of the hot tub! Our Beginner's Class, taught by DREW ANDERSON on Thursday nights, is off to a roaring start and has all the earmarks of becoming an unqualified success.

EAST BAY AREA

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS ... We had a lot of fun in Sept. We visited the KEEWAY SWINGERS and enjoyed some great dancing and delicious refreshments. 18 of us attended the Caller's Dinner Dance on Treasure Island (Dale insisted on going by way of San Francisco. I guess he knew a shortcut. Some people have a strange sense of direction). We had a marvelous time even though there was no square dancing. Nels Ferne organized a super golf tournament at Willow Park followed with a super banquet also at Willow Park. Ferne had the best score for the ladies and Mark had the best score for the guys. After dinner we took our stuffed bodies up to George & Mildred's lovely house for more to eat and drink (just what we needed). We had a regular Thursday night dance with the RANCHERO SQUARES who provided that wonderful caller, Mr. TOM ROPER who got the whole group kicking up their heels and enjoying every minute of it.

RANCHERO SQUARES ... It is nice to have most of our dancers back from vacation. We are having a good turnout for Tuesday night dancing. Our beginners have started dancing Tuesday nights too. They are moving right along. We had a potluck dinner to welcome our beginners. Sure had a lot of good food and a great time. Our Beginner Hoe-down will be Nov. 19th. We had two exhibitions this month. One was at St. Anns in Union City and the other was at St. Jochims in Hayward. We would like to thank them for the great dinner they served us. Thanks to all who came to the dance Sept. 22nd. TOM ROPER was sure a great caller. We are going to try to get him again. Maybe next year around Sept. the 7th.

EDEN ROCKERS ... On Sept. 9th, as our little cruise boat pulled away from Fisherman's Wharf, visibility was superb and inside, champagne was served and a live band played for our 28 passengers. Quite a few displayed their dancing talents. Charlie and Linda Brown and Darrell & Karen Painter looked like pros. They were followed by a remarkable pair of Vintage '50 Jitterbugs, Guy & Betty Townsend. After the cruise, dinner was enjoyed at Jack London Square. At the fifth Wednesday Party, Bonnie Hoover showed us she could dance much better with her blouse on wrong side out. Visitors in September were numerous. Lucille & Pete Weeks have been coming steadily. Hope to see more of them. Recently, we were intrigued by an engaging young visitor from England, Michael Lebby, son of Jack & Eve. Mike is attending College in England. On party night, we regretfully said "goodbye" to a mighty fine couple, Jim & Eleanor Davis, who will make their future home in Texas. It is their fondest wish to have a closer part in their little twin grandson's future. We wish them Happy Days.

VALLEY TRAVELERS ... We were pictured in AAA Motorland magazine dancing at the Wente winery. The club also danced at the harvest Festival held in Sept. Dick & Arlene Giroux hosted a Hawaiian Laua during Sept. A whole pig was spitted and roasted. Thank you to the many members who prepared the food, decoration and entertainment. It was fantastic. Everyone enjoyed the male good looking lege contest and the hula contest. While club caller PAUL and his wife Julie lived it up in Hawaii several squares traveled to Fremont to dance with the KEEWAY SWINGERS. DAVE BELDEN called for our Mainstream hoedown. A good time was had by all and refreshments were delicious.

RED ROCKERS ... Our teen club got off to a great fall start with five squares of dancers. We have lots of new beginners and members of the IN-BETWEEN SQUARES are now dancing with us. Our membership now ranges in age from 12-25. During Sept. we enjoyed a day at the Manteca Waterslides. Who were the four who went down the slides all holding ankles? Plans are being made for a Halloween party on Oct. 31st.

ODD' N END'S ... Our new advanced class should be in full swing. SCOT BYARS is an excellent teacher and caller. If you haven't joined our class we hope you will stop by and dance with us on Thursday nights. Our party night is the 4th Thurs. Thanks to our refreshment committee, we had some delicious pie for Septembers party night. SCOT BYARS was on the sick list one dance night, but is back in good shape now. Ann Williamson is back from her trip to Europe. Welcome back Ann. Howard Brooking visited us on the 23rd. He was one of our past Presidents and a member of the old, "Bow & Arrows" club. We were sorry to hear of RUTH FITCH'S stroke and wish her a speedy recovery. Caleb Farabee had a heart attack and we hope that won't be too serious. We enjoyed dancing with the U.C. SQUARES and the SUNDOWNER'S at the Mosswood Recreation Center while our School was closed. Hi Gert, hope you and Bill had a nice trip.

FARMERS & FARMERETTES ... Our annual club campout at Lake McClure was a great success. A total of 91 people and 15 dogs attended, and all had a great time. Of course, with boating, water skiing, swimming, horse shoes, card games and just laying around, who wouldn't have a good time. Thanks to Ron & Peggy Kavorkian and Pete & Kathy Davis for a job well done. The new Learner's Group started this month with two squares. Happy to see them having such a good time. Don't forget to look for our ad this month for our Nov. 5th Anniversary Hoedown. We are planning a trip up to the Masonic Home in December. We really enjoyed dancing for them last year, and thought we would do it again.

ACES & LACES ... Another "school year" has started as we welcome our beginner dancers every Thursday night. We changed locations for the beginners class and are enjoying the auditorium at Jefferson School in San Leandro. Thanks to those Club Members who braved the heat and danced at the Castro Valley Fall Festival. We were scheduled to dance at high noon and, believe me, the temperature was high too! Thanks, too, to all who braved our first rain and attended our 2nd Maverick Dance. STEVE MOORE is an outstanding caller and has a great future.

BOOTS 'N SLIPPERS ... Things are getting back to normal after our hectic summer. We are now dancing at Newark Jr. High on Tuesday night. We would like to welcome our Newer Dancers to the fun world of square dancing. Our best wishes to Marge Bunny for a speedy recovery from her operation. We will be looking forward to her return to dancing. In October we danced at the Retirement Inn on the 12th. Also we danced at the Pioneer Trailer Park on the 29th. In November our club will be hosting the Fifth Tues. Dance. All fifth Tuesday Clubs are welcome. Our Congratulations to Bonnie & Joe Pattison, the proud parents of Jesse & Gregory. The little boys arrived in August. We wish them well.

EAGLE SQUARES ... We're off to a rambling start with dancing at the Livermore Wine Harvest in Sept. and the Arts Festival in October. We were able to help with the wine tasting, but so far we have not been asked to help with the stomping, maybe next year. It was a pleasure to look up and see Ollie and Harriet Olivotti dancing a round with us since Ollie had by pass surgery in August. The wonders of modern medicine and the recuperative powers of square dancers. Right on, Ollie! If you have noticed an extra light-headed, light footed, bubbling couple in our group, you may have been looking at the proud adopted parents of Kenneth George Nielsen, born Sept. 13th. 6 lbs. 6 oz. & 20 inches. This precious bundle was placed in their arms at the age of three minutes and brought home from the Hospital at 16 hours. Norm and Dyanne are not prejudice but they claim their baby is the sweetest, best baby ever.

SOLOS & PAIRS ... September brought some changes along with the weather, we spent the first 2 weeks in the United Presbyterian Church in Berkeley, thanks to Hazel Eggett, and the third week at Howard School. Hopefully we are back on track at the Arts for the rest of the season. Our beginners class with ED TAUSIG calling at Chabot School was very exciting. Bill & Maryann Arnold returned after a 24 day trip to Europe which covered 8 countries, most notably England, France, Germany and Italy, this was her first trip to Europe and she was really enthusiastic about all the new things she saw. By the time this letter gets printed our veteran traveler Aileen Witts will be on a 6 week trip to Australia, New Zealand and Fiji. She is a real globe coverer. Our last class of Sept. brought visitors from Idaho Falls, and Walnut Creek, and we are always happy to see Florence Monize and her buddy Cy.

KUNTRY KUZINS ... A full square visited Hawaii on their vacations. Couples enjoying the beautiful state were Bob & Kathy Garfinkle, Jack & Janis Robertson, Bud & Donna Pland, and Jim & Bev Hicks. They looked for a hoedown, finding none in their area, they made their own in the surf of Waikiki Beach. It proved a little risky for Kathy & Donna as they are kind of on the short side! How do you pronounce Kamehameha? The Crouchs visited Palm Springs where Elmer entered a Tennis Tournament. Nancy made Elmer nervous with all her shopping sprees! We shared Guest Caller TOM ROPER of Shawnee, Ill, last club night. His fast calling was a challenge everyone enjoyed. The Allens hosted a "get together" for our club before car pooling to the Stampede Hoedown for Oct.

SQUARE CIRCLES ... The family picnic was held at Pleasanton aquatic center. The games were organized by Art and Joyce Rocha, a real fun time. After such high temperatures everyone was pleased to see the cooling clouds, another cool subject was the delicious home made ice cream supplied by Larry Glendean for the occasion. Sept. was the start of our new Beginners Class, we were happy to welcome 32 newer dancers looking for a fun evening. Our class has increased, by the 3rd open evening to eight squares and TERRY has made them relaxed and happy. A big thank you to our club members who came along to help our new friends. We our now looking forward to our Halloween Party with our new class joining in.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS ... The hot weather co-operated and many club members went camping at Santa Cruz, over the Labor Day weekend. A good time was reported by all who attended. On Sept. 10th ten couples of met for dinner at the Dragon Pearl restaurant in San Leandro and then attended the operetta "Paint Your Wagon" at woodminster in Oakland. We also celebrated the birthday of Dave Kappler. Sept. 17th the club did a demonstration dance at the Casa Peralta Art Festival in San Leandro. We had a good turn out with 4 squares dancing. The same evening the club met at the Gallagher restaurant in Jack London Square for a dinner in honor of Monte & Nancy Moore our Past President & Lady. A gift was presented to the honored couple. The Newer Dancers class started Sept. 14th. We have a good enrollment and they are all doing very well in spite of all the hot weather.

KEEWAY SWINGERS ... The month of Sept. was a busy one as usual, with our campout at Catillion Gardens and our day at the beach, Seacliff. Both of these activities provided great food, which seems to be the thing Square dancers enjoy when they are dancing. May I recommend the Train ride at Roaring Camp, Felton it is great. KEN called for 2 squares of dancers at Irvington Days Celebration to promote square dancing. We would like to thank the KUNTRY KUZINS for having us over to enjoy TOM ROPER from Illinois. We would also like to thank the CASTRO VALLEY REBELS and the VALLEY TRAVELERS for dancing with us when they lost their halls. Your always welcome and the door is always open. See you in a square.

CHECKMATES ... We enjoyed our September Hoedown and hope all of you who attended did likewise. Robey surprised JOEL KADISH by bestowing him with a most unusual hat, a pig direct from Arkansas. Speaking of Robey, he and Bev say they did some mighty fast high stepping square dancing in Arkansas in Sept. ROD & MARILYN BERTLSHOFFER and Leland & Una Colyer spent a weekend in Reno. They never did say how much square dancing they did. Another couple of our travellers, the Dyers, went up to Victoria and square danced in Roseburg, Oregon on their way back home. Anybody need an unusual badge (a standard one is o.k. too)? We are proud to say we have talent and ingenuity in our club. ROD & MARILYN are new badgemakers. We wish a speedy recovery for Dave Stamper who is recovering from surgery. We miss him and Dorothy.

BELLES & BEAUS ... Our caller BILL STEINBROOK, is back calling after serious shoulder surgery, and most of our summer vacationers are back from various parts of the world, so our club is back to normal. However our President and his taw, Vern and Esther Finwall, are still in Europe until November. On Sept. 15th we held our election, and our new officers are Aubrey Elliott as President, John Bruno, Vice President, Rose Ferreira, Secretary and Violet Bartolf, Treasurer. They will be installed on October 6th. We are happy to have Joe & Mille Prigley back after an extended absence during which time they celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary. congratulations. We are looking forward to our potluck on Sept. 29th. If you are looking for a place to dance on Thurs. evenings and prefer an older group who dance for fun, come give us a try.

SAN LORENZO SINGLES ... The business meeting and potluck was held at Lottie Roe's. A delightful atmosphere and gracious hostess. Thanks Lottie. Several members motor-ed to Fort Bragg, great dancing and fun. Our beginners class started in Sept. A big welcome to the new members. Charlotte has done a great job organizing and welcome our new comers. Thanks to all the intermediate dancers for coming out to support and welcome the new class. Our bowlers on Monday nights are representing our club well. Keep up those strikes folks. The boat trip to Alcatraz was loads of fun. Our own RICHARD MANSFIELD called the squares for dancing on the island. Jim Baker long standing club member has retired and moved to the mountains. Happy retirement, we will miss that smiling face. Come see us often.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS ... People are back from vacations now so we are dancing four or five squares again. Our picnic was held Sept. 11th at Seven Hills Park in Union City. It was hot but still a lot of fun with the games that Fran O'Mara planned besides all the good food and drinks. We thank Doug & Shirley Files for being the Chairman. We had a very enjoyable potluck this month with nearly everyone showing up for it. Our beginners club has started and I am happy to report we have over three squares dancing. Being a few of the nights were too hot for dancing, we would quit earlier than usual and have a social hour at the Pizza Shack. Congratulations to our caller, JIM OSBORNE and his wife, JOANN on the arrival of a 10 lb. 5 oz. baby boy on Sept. 27th. During this time we were fortunate to have Don Lewis from San Jose call for us.
