CLUB NEWS

MARIN COUNTY

BUZZIN' BOOTS ... Don Woford has been running between the raindrops trying to get his new home nearer to completion. Anyone who has seen him lately will notice a "new" look also. So far, his wife Carol hasn't made many comments about his beard, 'tis the season to be jolly!" We're happy to hear that Frank Hevern is out of the hospital. Hopefully, he'll be back dancing soon. Bob Dixon made a quick recovery after his hospitalization, and he's back dancing with us. All of us wish everyone a Happy 1984, and we invite you to visit us on Friday evenings.

STUMP JUMPERS ... November ended with over 14 squares at our hoedown for the newer dancers. DAVE MILANO, our own club caller, always seems to enjoy the challenge of showing the newer dancers a squaring good time. Included among the newer dancers were even some of our own members who just started the end of September. December starts with anticipation of our Christmas party and New Year's eve gathering. We hope many of our friends will be able to join us again this year. DAVE MILANO will be calling for both. DAVE will also be calling our next hoedown scheduled for March 17th when we will be celebrating our 32nd Anniversary. Thoughts are already on Reno and reservations being made. Let Cal Mellor know if you are to be included. Same place as last year. We hope to see a lot of all of you during the coming year. Happy Squaring!

M.O.D. SQUAD ... 22 of us attended the GRANDE SQUARES afternoon hoedown and came away with the coffee. A surprise bonus was the Video Tape showing of the hoedown at the Round Table where the group gathered for dinner. Our successful Gin Fizz Brunch and Hoedown is behind us. Kitchen, Dining-room and clean up details were shared by a neat group of members supervised by President-Head Chef Jim Hallstrom and taw Nita. Guests came from Rohnert Park San Francisco and Clubs in between. Thank you for coming. Lou Champions "baby," Kathy Van Bebbers "Bunny" & Larry Luchettis "Arab" costumes won prizes in the Halloween parade. Member Wayne Croisant appeared on A.M. San Francisco recently. Welcome new members Tom & Thelma Martin.

NOVATO SQUARES ... Our Nut Festival was a great success with 19 squares. Most of the door prized were claimed along with all of Jack Goldthorpe's pecan tarts. Ted & Faye Reid are again Grandparents total of 3 boys and 3 girls. They went to San Diego to beam with delight at the adorable new edition. Jack & Jeri and Family are in Hawaii for a week escaping the rain only to go to earthquakes. Bill & Sally Bayless' reception was a fun affair. Those attending are still talking about the delicious punch. We're planning a Red Light Green Light dance on Jan. 14th at San Jose Jr. High School. Watch for the flyers it should be great fun.

MARIN MAVERICKS ... Congratulations to our Woody Woodruff who was elected President and to Fred Judson who was elected Treasurer of the newly formed Square Dance Foundation of Marin. We will miss Le Roy & Adrienne Carter, who are moving. They have been especially active, hard working MAVERICKS. Congratulations to Connie Judson on becoming a new Grandmother. Our Nov. 19th hoedown was a great success in spite of the rain. They mystery drawing, a beautiful hand done quilt by Adrienne Carter, was won by Donna Johnson. Other winners, Kathy Ring, a large fern donated by Joe & Vee Saunders, Jeanie Katarasus, a square dance shawl donated by Shirley Perry. Everyone is looking forward to the Dec. 21 Christmas party and the entertainment by the all male skit. TAM TWIRLERS ... Our Halloween party dance was held on the bewitching night with all those costumed dancers. Costume prized were won by Bob and Dot Marelli as trees for best couple,. Janet Saylers as Martha Washington for best female, and Dave McClelland as a monster for best male. The Square Dance Foundation of Marin was formed on Nov. 6th to seek ways to provide a square dance center in Marin. We had two members elected to the Board, both as officers, Delores Freeby, Sec., and Fred Judson, Treasurer. Our "Presidents Hoedown" with MILT ADAMS calling will be held on Feb. 25th, look for particulars in the Feb. book. SQUAWS & PAWS ... TOO LONG

REDWOOD EMPIRE

QUESTION MARKS ... We were a traveling group in Nov. Two weeks in a row we danced with the ADOBE SQUARES and their caller NATE BLISS. The floor in our own hall was being rejuvenated. On Nov. 18th we chartered a bus and took our beginner dancers over to Benica to dance in a Clock Tower Fortress. Our own TOM

WALTON came along and called two tips. Now that the holidays are almost over it is time to plan and create your most outrageous hat for our Mad Hatters Ball Jan. 6th at the Vet's Hall in Petaluma. BILL PETERS, the man with the most hats, will be calling. Lots of prizes for the zaniest hats. It's a dance for everyone. Come and bring your whole club.

MARKWESTERNERS ... We are off to a Happy New Year start with a repeat offering of plus level dance instruction and workshop with ROSS JOHNSON beginning Tues. Jan. 10th and our Winter Festival Dance on Sat. Jan. 7th. We love to see all you Redwood Empire dancers! We are really pleased to have Emily & Wendel Towse in our midst again. Two of our favorite people. So nice to have the Hardemans and the Millers from the Orchard dancing with us. You are always welcome. Thaks to Lydia and Ang Dotti for recycling our aluminum cans. Their effort fattened our treasury by more than on hundred dollars! Why does a fireman wear a red jacket? Keith Calden has the answer these frosty nights. Thank you, Christmas Party Committee, it was lovely.

WHISTLE STOMPERS ... Our combination Hoedown with the GRAPE STOMPERS was a lot of fun for everyone. Caller DALE HOUCK did a fine job. Many Sonoma Valley dancers attended. Some of our beginner dancers have been going to Hoedowns, one of them, the Sebastopol SAUCY SQUARES Newer dancers level. They had a very good time. Five of the advanced dancers attended the BUZZSTEPPERS of Napa square dance recently with a good time for all. December brings plans for our Christmas Party and the selection of new officers for 1984. All of us wish all of you a blessed Christmas and a very Happy Square Dancing New Year!

SINGLES & PAIRS ... We hold our potlucks on the 1st Wed. of the month. All clubs are welcome. All clubs are also welcome to dance with our 8 and 9 squares each Wed. with STEVE MINKIN calling. Gene Govaerts, how come you make such a good cup of coffee? (or is it Ruth? They won't confess). Hey members we have an important business meeting on the second Wednesday and I'm not supposed to tell you about the doughnuts. Mel Levy our NCSDA Delegate is now also membership chairman for newer dancers. Ella Jacobsen still writes the News Letter and anyone with info about the Club and the members please contact her. See you on Monday and Wednesday nights.

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES ... On Nov. 12th, KIP GARVEY called an excellent hoedown for us. Chairpersons for the evening were the Solheims, Desideris and Cunninghams. The Desideris are back from their Carribean Cruise and it's off to Mexico for Christmas. Adaline Smith has returned from her European trip full of tales of good times. The Carters and Adams have gone South for the winter. Messages of deepest sympathy to Rachel Barber and her family on the death of her sone Chris in Utah. ROSS JOHNSON and LARRY & KAREN WILLIAMS will be at the mike Jan. 14th. See you there!

RAINBOW STROLLERS ... There were 30 squares of dancers enjoying the excellent calling of JERRY SCHATZER at our Nov. 5th Mainstream Hoedown. Great callers like JERRY make mainstream dancing fun even for A-1 and above level dancers. Thanks, JERRY. Speaking of great callers, our own NATE BLISS is doing a great job of teaching Beginning A-1. Even the experienced A-1 dancers are learning something new. Welcome to new club members Emily & Jim Parrish. We're glad to have you join us. We collected canned food for needy people at our Dec. 14th workshop. The food was given to a Petaluma Church.

NORTH BAY

BUZZIN CUZZINS ... Another busy month for our club. Our newer dancers are really looking great. A large group of them went to their first hoe-down, put on by the OLD CAPITOL SQUARES. After stopping enroute for dinner, 14 of our Plus dancers enjoyed a hoedown given by the BOOTS & BELLS, with MIKE WRIGHT doing the calling. A couple weeks later, over two squares got together for dinner and the NCSDA hoedown. We had a large cheerful turn out for our pizza night. We wish a speedy recovery to T. J. Douglass & Pat Jeffre. We miss you.

CATCH ALL EIGHTS ... Jeff & Adrian Hirt didn't get transferred so are now back dancing with us, after their wedding in Los Angeles, they popped in on us dressed in their wedding outfits, what a handsome couple. All committees have been busy with arrangements for pot luck and Christmas parties and hunting up Santa and his helpers. They do a good job every year. Betty Linns daughter and family traveled from Penn. to spend the holidays with her, while Retta Panillas granddaughter and family came over from Germany and the Navy gave a grandson leave so he came from Washinton. A happy and prosperous New Year to all.

OLD CAPITOL SQUARES ... Our New Dancers Hoedown on Nov. 18th was a huge success. The enthusiasm of the dancers was continuous throughout the evening. DOROTHY PEELER, our club caller was assisted by callers from the floor. A busload of the QUESTION MARKS came down from Penngrove for the hoedown. Several of us attended a New Callers hoedown on Nov. 13th. Our caller, DOROTHY was the M.C. and the new callers had an opportunity to practice. We are looking forward to our Anniversary Hoedown on Jan. 21st. See our ad in this issue for the details.

FIVE STAR SQUARES ... Our class is progressing well. 14 couples were inducted into our club this month. There will be an official graduation in Jan. The enthusiasm these newer dancers feel is contagious and instrumental in creating much fun and fellowship for everyone. We are fortunate to have such a great group. The class joined with regular members for our potluck dinner and installation of new officers. The outgoing officers were presented with gifts of appreciation by master of ceremonies Ernie Sire. New officers are Jim Murphy, President, Syble Medlock, Vice President, Judy Morris, Secretary, and one of our newer dancers, Jolene Melzark will be Treasurer. Our caller DAVE HOBAUGH & SANDY were also honored at our dinner. Wedding vows were renewed square dance style commemorating their 25th Wedding Anniversary. It was a festive occasion. DAVE & SANDY were presented with belated Anniversary Gifts.

KONOCTI KICKERS ... We had our Halloween party on our regular workshop night. Most members wore costumes varying from the traditional clowns & witches (one of which was our club caller VANYA LEIGHTON) to victims of the Titanic, Indians, The Happy Hooker, Gypsies, Scarecrows, Arabs, Romans, Banditos, accident victims and the Tooth Fairy. Tooth brushes were distributed by the tooth fairy. Prizes were awarded to Al & Pat Reeder (Scarecrows), Delton Greer (survivor of the Titanic) AND Leslie Focha (clown). Refreshments were enjoyed as well as the dancing. We're looking forward to our January hoedown with MILT ADAMS calling. It should be as much a success as our November Hoedown was with WAYMON GODWIN as our guest caller. We were happy to welcome a bus load of guests from Ukiah & Willits. We were glad to have CHICK THRASHER, CLEARLAKE SQUARES caller, dancing with us.

FAR WESTERN DANCERS ... Our President and wife, Ralph & Mary Jo Shugarts spent an all to short week in Hawaii and Jim and Jan McMurtry are there this week. Lucky people! Our Tenderfeet (newer dancers) are doing great. The flu bug has been taking its toll of our members from week to week. Mary & Anne are recovering from foot surgery, but it is going to be some time before they will be back dancing with us. We miss their smiling faces. Holiday plans are being finalized. Christmases do seem to get closer together every year. From our Club to all of you, A Very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

CLUTCH BUSTERS ... Memories 1983, our year of change. New President, Ralph & Betty Brys, New Caller, BILL & JOAN BANKERT, new faces and schedule with Beginners Class. Mix altogether and the end product was a newer, better, and more enthusiastic club. Frances and Auby Allred's Beginners Potluck was a delightful feast enjoyed by one and all. Beginners Hoedown, called by our own BILL BANKERT was a fun filled night for newer dancers. What more could we ask? Blessings on you CLUTCH BUSTERS one and all! May 1984 see us grow and congratulations to all the new officers and members new and old. Again a toast to the club with the most!

SHELL SWINGERS ... Thanksgiving is always a time of much food and friendship and this year was no exception. Over 80 friends and familys enjoyed the 3 turkeys cooked in the homes of the Deggers, Branchcombs and Elliotts. We were saddened a week later by the death of Naomi Peterson. We are thankful for her many years of friendship and sunny disposition. The Marvin Wilsons are entertaining relatives from Missouri over the holiday weekend while the rest of us joined family and friends for another turkey dinner, then the District II hoedown with DAVE HOBAUGH and MIKE WRIGHT. Now we are anxiously awaiting Santa Claus! Happy Holiday to all.

GUYS & DOLLS ... Happy New Year. We are starting 1984 with a hoedown at Ygnacio Valley High on Jan. 14th.

MARTY FIRSTENBURG is coming all the way from Salem, Oregon to do the calling. Our beginners class, under the fine teaching of ELMER RADCLIFF is continuing to make good progress. The beginners sponsored a hoedown on December 16th, at Ygnacio Valley High. The beginners are looking like "veterans" in their various new dance outfits. We sponsored a "recycle night" to help the newer dancers start their square dance wardrobes. We have changed the format for our Christmas Party. Instead of exchanging gifts we sponsored a needy family. Club members brought food and clothing to the Christmas party for this family. We hope that our gifts brightened the Holiday season for the family.

RIPSNORTERS ... Our plans are finalized for the annual Dinner to be held at the Boundary Oaks. If past experience holds we will have a great time. Jim G. graciously volunteered to host the mystery trip in Feb. so the RIPS will be out in full force on the 4th. Our Newer Dancers hoedown is the night before, hope to see all of you then, also. P.S. A big thank you to Barbara Phillips for making the "Little Ripsnorter" doll. Donation was sent to the Bay Area Crisis Nursery, Concord, Ca. Thank you to all that participated. DIABLO SINGLES ... By the time this is in print, our Jingle Bell Rock dance with JOHNNY PRESTON will be a pleasant memory. Many thanks to Fran & John who hosted the after party. Our Beginners class with the GUYS & DOLLS is doing extremely well. ELMER is bringing them right along. An extra big thanks to all the GUYS & DOLLS and DIABLO SINGLES members who are there every Tuesday to help out when needed. Real Angels! At this time we are auditioning for a new club caller. Join us Thursdays at Fair Oaks School. Need directions, call Maggie 798-5797. Come meet our new caller in January.

CONCORD STOMPERS ... We closed out 1983 in a flurry of activity. A Wednesday potluck and dance night saw new officer installed. President, Don & Caroline Holst, Ex. Vice President, Bob Walmsley & Betty Goodwin, Vice President for Mainstream, Hugh & Fran Courtwright, Treasurer, Don & Margret Jensen. A combination potluck and board meeting was held at the Tennison's lovely home. RON WELSH & BUDDY WEAVER joined BOB ELLING in calling an A-1 hoedown for his new A-1 Class. The annual Christmas dinner dance at the Montego Lodge was a memorable occasion. Hope you'll join us at our A-1 dance on Jan. 7th and Beginners Hoedown on Jan. 13th. Nice going STOMPERS. Let's make 1984 a year to remember.

STRICTLY SINGLE ... We are changing our name to YELLOW ROCK SINGLES of Walnut Creek. Things are really happening at this newest of new clubs. We are just announcing our very first hoedown. (Do you remember the excitement of your first hoedown?) That's why all are invited to this newer dancers hoedown March 2nd at College Park High in Pleasant Hill. Of course our club caller, DREW ANDERSON, will do the good stuff. And don't think there won't be a lot of yellow rockin'. We're just naturally the yellow rockinest club in captivity.

SYMBIOTIC SQUARES - Too Long

CAPER CUTTERS ... We celebrated our 33rd Anniversary Hoedown with our usual style and grace, good caller, MARV LINDER, good food, good dancing hall, but most important, the area's best dancers joined us to make it a success. Barbara & Ed Johnson, even though on a momentary stay at home list, participated by hosting MARV LINDER in their home. We're busy now planning for our Christmas dinner dance and not too distant "changing of the guard" when new officers will be elected for 1984. Our starting times have been up'd by 15 minutes, first & third Mondays 7:15 for half an hour round dancing with KEN & ELEANA, second and fourth Mondays KEITH GYLFE starts calling at 7:45. Come on over.

CABLE CAR SQUARES ... We are no sooner through the rush of the December festivities, including the graduating of the new dancers of the KIDDIE KARS beginners class into the exhalted realm of Mainstream square dancing, then they find themselves planning for the Club's Annual Sweetheart Hoedown on the 11th of Feb. Look for our ad for details. The Daly City Memorial Center has an excellent wooden floor with plenty of room, and, naturally, the refreshments will be up to the usual CABLE CAR standard. Come join us.

GINGHAM SQUARES ... 1983 ended with another successful Christmas potluck. Special recognition goes to Jeanine Herman and Elsie Pereira who took over the job of "turkey cooking", also to Marina Ciabattari for the outstanding table decorations. In honor of those who joined the GINGHAMS this past year, several links were added to our Golden Chain of Friendship. However, our chain was also broken with the heartfelt loss of Lydia Schoen in August. Congratulations to the 1983 Board led by President Ran & Bev Yorks on the success of the many club activities this past year. Best wishes for a Happy New Year of square dancing to all our friends!

SAN FRANCISCO AREA

SQUARE CUTTERS ... We enjoyed a trip to Novato for a Fizz breakfast and Sunday Square Dance. All hosted by the M.O.D. SQUAD. Afternoon dancing was called by our club caller, HARRY WHITLOCK. Also in November, HARRY WHITLOCK called a 49'ERS hoedown for the UKIAH PROMENADERS in Ukiah. Our beginner class is progressing right on schedule, and doing very well under the direction of ED FERRARIO, instructor & caller. Many members on the Reno bus trip in November all had a wonderful time, and came back winners. All club members and guests are looking forward to our coming catered Christmas dinner, and dance on December 8th. Visitors are always welcome, so come and enjoy an evening of dancing to our club caller, HARRY WHITLOCK. Best wishes and a Happy New Year to all.

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTES
San Mateo Chapter ... The year ended on a happy note at our Christmas Dinner Dance. We enjoyed good friends, good food, a little ballroom dancing, square dancing to our favorite caller, BILL PETERS and round dancing, cued by ANN DREA STEPHAN. It looks like an exciting year ahead, starting with a potluck and party at Ellen Price's on New Years Day. We are planning a New Dancer Hoedown Feb. 4th. We hope to see you soon at our location on Monday nights.

The Mainliner Hall, 4031 Pacific Blvd., San Mateo. Happy Dancing and a Happy New Year!

RANCHEROS ... We have a new home. We are now dancing Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 10:00 at the Forester's Hall at 1204 Middlefield Road in Redwood City. We welcome guests, especially every third Wednesday which is our party night. Our beginners class began in September and is going great. The new dancers are fantastic and catching on so quickly. They will soon surpass us. We thank our caller, HAROLD DAVISON and his wife RUTH for providing space in their home for both the beginners and the club to dance while we were without a hall. Also, thanks to HAROLD & RUTH for a fantastic Halloween party. Everyone came in costume and a great time was had by all. We recently had new officer elections for the coming year and we're busy planning functions for 1984. Our first project will be an early spring beginners hoedown. We hope to see lots of new faces then.

49'ERS ... We hope that everyone had a Happy and Safe Holiday Season. We enjoyed a wonderful Christmas dinner, held at the Grosvenor Hotel. Held our Inner-Outer Board meeting in December at Max's Son restaurant with new board members being Frank & Ruth Hanley, Secretary, Gary & Louise Peluffo as Activities. We wish them well. We are all looking forward to the NCSDA Anniversary Dance in January. DALE HOUCK will be one of the callers and we hope to see everyone there. 49'ERS plan to attend the dinner, after the dance, at Spangers.

PAIRS 'N SPARES ... With the holiday season over, our

Caller, HOWARD HILLYER is offering us some Easy A-1 for those interested. JEANNE BRISCOE called our recent hoedown to 16 squares which included a group of lively and enthusiastic visitors from King City and Salinas. Newman's are counting their blessing, while Phyllis was in the hospital for a leg operation Bob was involved in a head on car accident in which he was lucky enough to escape with a broken arm and bruises. Both are mending nicely now. Congratulations to Orin and Frances Peterson who celebrated their Golden Anniversary. We wish them many more happy years. Join the fun at our Newer Dancers Hoedown and Fashion Show, Sat. Jan. 14th. See our ad for details.

KALICO KATS ... Happy to see our original very own BLAKE WESTMAN looking great at his Benefit Dance. Good luck to you BLAKE and family. Lots of fond memories in seeing old familier faces. The KATS have new elected officers for this coming year. They also have all of our friends and visitors in mind! A program of fun and getting together is their aim! For a night of good dancing and friendship come and join us. Satisfaction is guaranteed!

ROADRUNNERS ... We are looking forward to a happy swinging New Years Eve Party and a busy 1984. I'm sure many new years resolutions have been made by all of our members. Billy Richy wants a club dress that everyone likes in every ones favorite color. Joy Blundell has made a promise to listen to the caller at all times, even when she thinks he is wrong. Kathleen Parum is going to try to hold court only in the kitchen, not in the square. Stella Carroll is going to find time to fix a few more goodies for her next after dance party... Lynne & Archie Schmitt are going to try and set a good example and donate more time to square dancing. Robert is going to get mad just once when most of the squares have broken down.

WHIRL-A-WAYS ... Installation dinner at the Distillery great way to start 1984 and welcome Bud Fields, President, Mert Jones, Vice Pres., Theresa Smith, Secretary, Jim Nulty, Treasurer. Speedy recovery wishes to Ken Schroll. Birthday candles Bob Smith, Al Stagnaro, John Forese and Theresa Smith. Last but not least a big thank you to outgoing board Tiny Gresham, Eve Pericic, Dorothy McKittirck Virginia Calderia, Irene Medina Shirley Korm, Theresa Smith and Ken Schroll.

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS ... Our beginners class joined us for a delicious potluck and later dancing at our Christmas gathering. The Pozzas have a new granddaughter, Shannon Elizabeth, born in October. Leona Gaines, one of our newer dancers, does the hair of some of the ladies at Laguna Honda Hospital. Martha Hunken had knee surgery during the Holidays. Mary Sue did it again. Enjoyed the GINGHAM SQUARES dance with DALE, the HIGHLAND SWINGERS with KEN & GARY and the SAN LORENZO SINGLES with MARV LINDER. Looking forward to the New Years Dance with RON LIBBY and DAVE STEVENS and a good square dancing year. Hope you have one, too!

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETES San Francisco Chapter ... Enjoyed MARV LINDER calling for CAPER CUTTERS. Went to College of San Mateo to hear KEN KENMILLE & GARY CARNES

call a fun filled dance for the HIGHLAND SWINGERS 29th Anniversary. PAIRS 'N SPARES had JEANNE BRISCOE, calling and the club members made the most delicious pumpkin cake, served with hot cider, making a most enjoyable evening. Our 21st Anniversary hoedown, will be January 21st with our own JIM WYLIE, calling, with JACK & DOROTHY WRIGHT on the rounds. Come join the fun, always plenty of food, prizes and good dancing.

KUNTRY KUZINS ... We welcomed new members Sandra and Stephen Pustelnik to our club last month. Happy dancing, Stephan & Sandra. Our Beginners are coming along beautifully. They attended their 1st Hoedown last week, with mixed reactions! FAR WESTERN DANCERS hosted our club on the 5th Wednesday. Everyone had a great time. Thank you for being so very gracious to all of us. Our Christmas Program, with a gift exchange really set the right mood for the Holiday Season. We owe many thanks to Ginger and her committee for a job well done. Our New Years Eve Party is still a big secret, but I trust them! We wish good health and Happy Holidays to all our dancing friends.

KEEWAY SWINGERS ... The month of Nov. started by dancing to DAVE HOBAUGH at the 22nd Anniversary of the FARMERS & FARMERETTES. Nov. 11th we went with the newer dancers to the RANCHERO SQUARES and Sat. the 12th had a fantastic night with DICK WAIBEL at the SKIRTS and FLIRTS. We had our own Beginners dance on Nov. 18th with KEN KENMILLE & selected callers. Thanks everyone who came, dancers and callers. Sat. Nov. 26th we went to the SAN LORENZO SINGLES Turkey Trot with MARV LINDER doing a great job on the squares and the WEBERS on the rounds. Hope to see you at our Jan. Dance. See the ad in this issue. Till next month, smooth dancing.

FARMERS & FARMERETTES ... Our 22nd Anniversary Hoedown on Nov. 5th was a big success. DAVE HOBAUGH did an outstanding job. We were sorry to hear at the last moment that JUNE & MILLARD MCKINNEY would not be able to call rounds for us. A big thanks to DAN KILLINGSWORTH for filling in for them. Thanks to Charles & Maureen Sommes & Tom & Lorraine Flowerday on a wonderful job on the decorations. Also a special thanks to Vicki & Bob Roberts for the after party. Our new club outfits were worn for the first time that night. Two squares danced at the Tropics Mobilehome park on Nov. 6th. They were the guest of the Tropicaires, which is a kitchen band. What a group, not only do they play but dance, sing & march too! The club is busy now planning its Christmas tree cut, a trip to the Masonic home, a Christmas party and our beginners hoedown on Jan. 20th. Check this months ad for more information on the beginners dance.

CHECKMATES ... Since this is the season to be "jolly", we just might try singing Christmas songs while square dancing. This gala occasion is scheduled to occur December 19th at our Christmas party night. We dare you to come and hear us. Speaking of gala occasions. We are in the process of planning a New Years Eve Party. The CHECKERS are invited, and we are hoping that it will be as much of a success as our Halloween party was with them (it was really a fun, fun evening.) From all of us to all our beloved square dance enthusiasts, Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

EDEN ROCKERS ... November has been uneventful, so lets go back to October. Since the writers of this column, Louis & Lola Warren, were away in Oregon, important events went unreported. An appreciation party was staged for CHARLIE BROWN, during which the gratitude we felt for his fine calling was expressed in many ways. Our Halloween party was instant success with many clever costumes. Dorothy White and Joe West repeated their last years win. First prize. Juanita Scoville, who has been in the hospital, is home and doing well. For those of us who have been around Square Dance World for a long time there was a very empty space. We'll all be so glad to have Juanita back in her accustomed place.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS ... We hope everyone had a joyous holiday season and ready to start a new year. Now we can dance off those extra pounds put on during the holiday dinners and parties. We were sad to say goodbye to Bob & Jeanette Graham who have moved to Texas. We wish them well and will be looking forward to dancing with them when they return for vacations. We welcome new members Cliff & Susie Vorderstrasse who have joined us in dancing on Tuesday nights. Besides our regular party night, we had a pre-Thanksgiving party with our newer dancers, SEE SAWS, and their TEETER TOTTERS. There was lots of dancing and lots of food. Everyone had a very good time. We enjoyed dancing with the BOOTS & SLIPPERS at the 5th Tuesday Round Robin dance.

RANCHERO SQUARES ... We took our beginners to their first hoedown, the SAN LORENZO SINGLES. They are now "hooked on Hoedowns". They had alot of fun dancing what they have learned so far. Our "Moonshine" beginners hoedown was a great success. There were 42 clubs represented, lots of good food and happy dancers. Our beginners dressed our caller TERRY MOSIER, in a chicken suit while he was singing "Broadway" and great caller that he is TERRY never missed a beat, even though he was blind folded and "his beak" kept slipping into his mouth. Ask TERRY about his "frozen walnetto" and Marilyn Long's "Tootsie rolls". Poor Marilyn will never be the same, as for TERRY, only Cricket can tell. We started the holiday season with a turkey raffle won by one of the new dancers Sharlot Dairs. RANCHERO SQUARES donated a large Thanksgiving basket to a needy family.

SQUARE CIRCLES ... October 27th, once more the Barn was invaded by Devils, Angels and Witches, and many more people in wonderful costumes, 60 all told. The club thanks all of you for such a wonderful turnout, and a big thank you to the decorating helpers, each Halloween seems to get better. November 17th, potluck for the club and beginner's Class, the array of food was excellent, the club provided ham, that was cooked by our Lady President elect, Karen Mullens. Our Beginners Class are looking forward to their first hoedown, November 26th. Congratulations to Rick Murphy who celebrated that big 40 on November 19th.

SQUARE WHEELERS ... Our September Beginners' Fall Festival Hoedown was the smash hit of the month. 23 squares do sa doed with a confidence that reflects the excellent training being made available by district clubs. Of course our beginners group outshone the rest (is this some sort of challenge?) the edge provided by DREW ANDERSON was easy to see. Orchids to "Little Wheelers" Bob Freeman & Joyce Greenburg, their leadership paved the way to the success of the event. And to all participants, our heartfelt thanks for joining in. Truly you've made all our hoedown efforts worthwhile. Under the able tutlage of JOEL KADISH our club dancers continue their march to full plus level status. Come visit us anytime, particularly after the first of the year, we will be there. ODD'S 'N END'S ... We wish you a Happy New Year, and hope your Christmas was a merry one. This month we honor our own Santa Claus. His name is John Stanisich! He instituted a program of making aprons for the elderly, makes many visits to hospitals, etc, in full costume and presides at our christmas potluck dinner. Instead of club members giving each other gifts, he asks that they donate a unwrapped soft toy, which he distributes to the retarded children. Our warmest thanks, John. Juanita Scoville is improving and we look forward to having her back dancing with us soon. The SOLOS & PAIRS graciously invited us to dance with them the Wed. before Thanksgiving. We enjoyed their hospitality and the calling of ED TAUSIG. Please note our change in starting time. We dance from 7:30 to 10:15.

ACES & LACES ... The SQUARE CIRCLES evened the score by returning this month to reclaim the buckskin. We enjoyed the "crowd" on club night! Our Beginners Class is doing so well, we've had a lot of fun joining them at their hoe-downs. In fact, the ACETTES & LACETTES will have hosted their own hoedown by the time this article is in print. Thanks to the club members who give their support on class night. Did you know that there has not been a Class held in nine years without a Weber attending? Bravo, Diane & Vince! Hope you will all be at our hoedown on the 21st. Details in our ad in this issue of Square Dance - Where?

BELLES & BEAUS ... During this busy time, we are glad to have all members back with us again. We especially welcome back Esther & Verne Finwall from their long visit with their daughter in Germany. While they were gone we elected new officers. Our new President is Aubrey Elliott and wife, Jean. They started us off on a happy note by planning a Thanksgiving Dinner for all, and will offer more fun soon at our Christmas Buffet and dance. Some of our members have been going as a group to Reno for overnight stays and hopefully to fill their pockets with money for Christmas shopping. Good Luck! We wish all our fellow square dancers a Merry Christmas and great dancing in the New Year.

SOLOS & PAIRS ... The Nov. Board Meeting was held at home of Dot Anthony, complete with roast turkey and roaring fire to thwart the rain. At our party night we invited ODDS 'N ENDS, SUNDOWNERS, SPINNING WHEELS and the UC SQUARES to participate. These Thursday clubs were unable to meet on Nov. 23rd but our dance nite was open, and we had some from each club in spite of the rain, a very fun night. Learned that LEN MURPHY caller from the SUNDOWNERS was ill with pneumonia. Aileen Witt returned from her fabulous vacation in the summer sun of Australia and places south, Bob Hostettler spent the Thanksgiving holiday with his sons and grandchildren in snowy Oregon. Dec. 14th is our last dance for the year 1983 and we will be collecting toys for Snedigar Cottage, with Bob as honorary Santa Claus. The club sends Holiday Greetings to all of our friends.

SAN LORENZO SINGLES ... Our November business meeting was held at Shirley Meade's home and very well attended. A delicious potluck followed, with turkey and all the trimmings. Delicious, and a great hostess. Thanks Shirley. A former member John Stepanuk has announced his engagement in Southern California, John is stationed in the Navy there. Congratulations John. The Turkey Trot on November 26th was a grand success. Great dancing and great food.

Several club members have been helping wheel chair patient's square dance at Washington Manor Convalescent Home, the patients love it, thanks everyone for helping out. With the holidays coming up, everyone is busy, but let us still take time out to enjoy our square dancing and be with our friends. Wishing you all a Very Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year.

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS ...

Halloween is supposed to be for kids. Wrong, it apparently is also for some CASTRO VALLEY REBELS. A group of these folks got into the spirit of this "childrens" holiday by driving down to San Juan, adorning their bodies with bazaar costumes, letting their hair down and celebrating. They figured, if they had masks on, they could do whatever, and nobody would know wrong. The shadow knows! And took names of those acting in a strange manner. Stranger than usual. Fortunately for those individuals (and you know who you are) the writer has been overcome with the holiday spirit (which doesn't happen very often) and decided to leave the names out of this article. However, it is sincerely hoped that those individuals will shape up and portray themselves in the true CASTRO VALLEY" image next year. We shall see!

THANK YOU

To all the Bay Area Square Dancers and Callers: We want to thank each and everyone of you for the support and encouragement you have given us during the past five difficult months. A special thank you to all who participated in our benefit hoedown. It was wonderful to see those friends we hadn't seen in months. We know that many of you bought tickets even though you could not attend. All of your donations are so deeply appreciated. Our thanks to DALE HOUCK, BILL DAVIS, MIKE DEGMETICH and JACK WRIGHT for their time and talents. It is so good to know that there are hundreds of people like you behind us.
