CLUB NEWS

EAST BAY AREA

KUNTRY KUZINS ... Happy New Year to all of you square dancers! We saw the old out and the new in with Bev & Jim Hicks hosting our club in their home, dressed in Hawaiian clothes reliving their great trip to Hawaii. It was a great party and if you were absent you missed a lot of fun. We are in the planning of our Beginners Hoedown scheduled for January 27th, with TERRY MOSIER calling in his charming style. The food will be delicious as always when "Nita Kirzy" is in charge. Feb. 11th is the date to remember for our Cerebral Palsy Hoedown at the Elks Club on Farwell. There will be a big turnout of guest callers, with our own TERRY MOSIER hosting. This is the Hoedown of the year, don't miss it.

KEEWAY SWINGERS ... Dec. 1st found the SQUARE HOPPERS knocking our doors down again this year, seems that once a year they loose their dance hall to a fish feed. We enjoy having you and your caller BILL PETERS, don't stop. Dec. 15th we had our annual Xmas party at the Masonic Home. Lots of food, a show by the HILL TOPPERS and a visit from Old Saint Nick. On Dec. 10th some of our dancers got away from Christmas shopping, and cooking cookies & candies, and went to the CROSS TRAILERS Hoedown and danced with KEN KENMILLE and the LAST TRAIN HOME. They said it was a great dance. We hope everyone had a great Christmas and a very Happy New Year.

ODD'S & END'S ... Our Christmas potluck dinner at the Mosswood Recreation Center was great. There were some moments of panic when we arrived to find the center closed. A flurry of phone calls located a custodian and saved the evening. As usual the food was delicious and plentiful.. Juanita Scoville was busy in the kitchen. It was good to see Jim & Enda Burke, George & Mary Ellen Sougey, Lou & Judy Dobin, Pete & Lucille Weeks, Bill & June Harris and Juz & Gert Kalinsky. Lois Hyden and Homer Poore dropped by later in the evening. Oh yes, so did Santa Claus. (John Stanisky) He had a hearty "ho,ho,ho," and a candy cane for everyone. SCOT BYARS sang a Christmas square dance call appropriate for the evening. Our thanks to all who helped set up, and clean-up afterwards. Please visit us when you have a free Thursday night.

FAR WESTERN DANCERS ... By now most of the New Year resolutions have been broken and everything is back to normal. Our Tenderfeet are ready for their first Beginners Hoedown. Caller for the event, our own DAVE BELDEN. 5th Wednesday Workshops have turned into a real fun night. Thanks to all the clubs participating. Our club was saddened by the death of Merle Daly. He had been ill, but had been able to start dancing again. We shall miss him. Our President and wife Mary Jo Shugarts visited the Desert country, and California City over the Christmas Holidays. Even got rained on there!

EDEN ROCKERS ... We enjoyed our annual Christmas Potluck. Food was superb from the wine and appetizers to the magnificent cake brought by Bob & Ann Whitman to celebrate their Anniversary. Dancing was great, especially the Virginia Reel. Visitors swelled our ranks so there were seven squares dancing. It was great to see Bill & Joan Nixon who came all the way from their new home in Tracy, and Jack & Eve Lebby, down from Sacramento where they now live. Also great to see Juanita Scoville back at last. Hopefully, she'll be dancing soon. And what a nice surprise to see George & Cadett Kough who have not visited the club in some time. We welcome four new members, Ed & Kathy Hardin, Tony Foster & Ree Starhope.

SQUARE CIRCLES ... December 22nd we celebrated, once more, with an excellent Christmas dinner, with such a wonderful array of goodies, and visit from Santa. Mrs. Santa came along too, to help handout the presents and to keep an eye on Santa receiving all those hugs and kisses from all those pretty ladies. The two turkeys one weighing 26 lbs and the other 22½ lbs, gave many a chance for a second helping. TERRY & CRICKET were presented with a very nice scrap book embossed with their names, they must have many memories they can look back on with 3 clubs of dancers. We send our best wishes to all dancers, good luck and good health in 1984.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS ... Our year ended on a happy note at our annual Christmas Party. We enjoyed good food, square dancing, and the most welcome visit of Santa Claus. We had about 25 little ones, all dressed up in their prettiest clothes, waiting for their gifts and goodies from Santa. Thanks, Arlie & Vicki Steele for putting this affair together also Carl Jaegel for his part on this night. Our new year began with the installation of new officers. The outgoing President, Cletus and Lois Brown, handed the gavel over to Ed & Rose Reller. Our new Vice President is Bob & Linda Battaglia. Handling the checkbook will be George & Donna Pattee, with Arlie and Vicki Steele as Secretary.

ACES & LACES ... A busy holiday month started by the ACETTES & LACETTES hosting their own beginner hoedown. The club spent a Sunday afternoon dancing for the residents of the Washington Convalescent Hospital. We met later for dinner followed by our Christmas Party at Ada Ornellas' home. Between Xmas and New Years, Class & Club joined for an evening of dancing and the best food ever! We are sad to say good-bye to Diane and Vince Weber but we wish them well in their new home in Missouri. We wish everyone a happy, healthy '84 and from ACES & LACES to all our fellow clubs, a year of great dancing.

SQUARE WHEELERS ... Well, it happened, even JOEL KADISH admits it, those regular dancers who have reasonably attended the Tuesday workshops have reached the plus plateau. A super well done to all and an extra special thanks to JOEL for his patience and guidance. For the next few months the workshops will be dedicated to polishing up what we have learned. We welcome all to come join us for a plus level session at any of our Tuesday get togethers. The price is small and the joy knows no bounds. To all of you Sept. '83 beginners, Feb. 17th is our second hoedown of the season. Come join us in Danville for another DREW

ANDERSON special program. Guaranteed better than the last.

RANCHERO SQUARES ... The months of Nov. & Dec. where busy for us. Two turkey raffles within the club and a club effort to provide a Thanksgiving turkey and enough food for a month to a needy family. A Christmas Turkey and food again given to a needy family and four gifts for each member of the family. Thanks should be given to Sue & Herman Lafferty who find the family and coordinated the project. Thanks alot to Sue & Herman from the club and the families. Our Christmas potluck was a great success with lots of food, gifts, kids and of course Santa Clause and the singing of Christmas Carols. About 20 members spent the New Years at Bruce & Gloria Brown's lovely home in Sugar Pine. Needless to say it was a right Happy New Year. Hope your holidays were as happy and joyful as ours.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS ... On Jan. 4th, the club moved to a new location. We are now dancing on Wed. evenings at the James Monroe School at 3750 Monterey Blvd. San Leandro. The club Xmas party was held on Dec. 14th. Thanks to Karen Terpstra (Chairperson) a good time was had by all club members. The newer dancers joined us and we all enjoyed dancing with them. We all enjoyed the food and the gift exchange. On Dec. 2nd, a group from the club boarded Bart and went tea-dancing at the Hyatt in San Francisco and then had dinner at the Hilton. Reports were a lovely evening and a good time. Don't forget our Newer Dancer Hoedown on Feb. 10th. Lets all help make it a success.

SOLOS & PAIRS ... The Christmas party topped all of the 1983 dances commencing with a tasty ham dinner at Aileen Witts' attended by all of the dancers before proceeding to the Arts School for a dessert which was sinfully rich. ED (potluck) TAUSIG called some great Xmas songs and mixers and DAN KILLINGSWORTH taught the Champagne waltz round of the month. DAN has new walk around equipment which facilitates teaching. Jim Haney, our Pres. was resplendent in a red outfit and white vest. Nice to see old friends Gust Palm, Jeannie Lee & Trudi Frisch who were visiting and Florence Monize & paw Cy over from S.F. Many beautiful gifts were brought for the children of Snedigar Cottage to be delivered by Bob Hostettler who also made a hilarious speech. Looking forward to the New Year and wishing much happiness and good health to all of our friends. Join us in 1984.

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS ... Our Christmas Potluck was the biggest one we've had so far. There were over 120 men, women, and children enjoying the delicious creations produced by the efforts of our REBEL cooks. Everything was delicious that is, except for some bread which yours truly made which some of the more discriminating gourmets felt was rather tough. Fortunately, the bread cook was in the holiday spirit and accepted the rebuke with her usual good graces and promised to do better next time (assuming there is a next time). Speaking about the Christmas party, we were again blessed with the presence of Mr. & Mrs. Klaus (Mrs. Klaus was expecting her sixth elf on Christmas Eve and has since had a girl) and their children who loaded up the donated toys and goodies for the poor families (including two cabbage patch dolls) in their sled (station wagon, car, van, truck,???) ready to deliver them on Christmas Eve as this group has been doing for the past 11 years.

MARIN COUNTY

MAVERICKS ... We wish our square dance friends a Happy New Year, one filled with happy square dance memories. The Kings returned from an 11,000 mile trip to daughter Lauri's wedding in Indiana, via Disney World, Cape Canaveral, Nashville, and Washington D.C. Our Beginner Hoedown was so enjoyable. LON & JEAN FERRELL called and brought out the real friendship of square dancers with several mixers. Frequently heard was how much fun everyone was having. A pot-luck followed at the FERRELLS home, with good food, carolling and a going away gift clock to Adrienne & LeRoy Carter. Success in Santa Barbara, LeRoy. Our Xmas party with June Rittenhouse's Cameo Star Playhouse, Santa, Guests, food was fun. JEAN & LON we love you, Happy New Year.

TAM TWIRLERS ... Our Christmas party at the Meadow Club was great. Good food, wonderful company, and dancing to the Larry Love band. Over 90 square dancers attended the fun filled event. This is the time of year to reflect back. We thank our President, Bob Marelli, for a job well done and caller GLENN DICKEY for the great dancing and even those attempts to teach us new calls. MILT ADAMS will be calling our Presidents Hoedown on February 25th. Keep the date open.

M.O.D. SQUAD ... Ten members including the very supportive Koening family, followed our club caller HARRY WHITLOCK and taw, LA VERNE to Ukiah to dance with the UKIAH PROMENADERS. HARRY was guest caller for this friendly Square Dance Club. Three club cars became lost in the Redwood Valley area on their return to Ukiah following the After Party at the Lyle Croisant home. The lead car took and incorrect turn. Eventually all returned safely. Former members Dick & Ruth Meacham from GRANDE SQUARES braved a rainy night to dance with us recently. We enjoy seeing them so much. Fifth Tuesday party night produced several amature callers which was challenging and fun.

REDWOOD DIAMONDS ... Our December 3rd Hoedown with DAVE HOBAUGH and the GHOST RIDERS was a great success. We had 32 squares and the NOVATO PAWS & SQUAWS walked off with the coffee. JOHN RETTER did a terrific job of calling the rounds and the GHOST RIDERS did their usual great job! That was the weekend we had such a big storm they closed the Golden Gate Bridge, and in several places Hwy. 101 was under water. Luckily the winds died down, the bridge reopened and we were most elated to see how many dancers had come to join us. We hld our hoedown in a new place and again were lucky in that square dancers are used to finding their way around unfamiliar streets. We thank all of you who celebrated our 2nd Anniversary Hoedown with us. We wish you all the best 1984.

STUMP JUMPERS ... Too long.

REDWOOD EMPIRE

SAUCY SQUARES ... We have elected new officers to be installed in Jan. 1984. President Dave Wishehmann, Vice President, Tom Binkley, Treasurer, Tal Mather, Recording Secretary, Wilda Jackson. We wish them luck in the coming year. We'd also like to say thanks to the outgoing officers. If it weren't for people like these willing to donate their time each year, the Square Dance movement would have faded out long ago. Feb. 11th is our Beginners' Hoedown. DAVE WISCHEMANN and STEVE MINKIN will call.

QUESTION MARKS ... December brought its usual plethora of convivial madness and we were, as usual, unable to escape it! TOM & SANDY WALTON somehow persuaded about half of us to join them in a RV campout at Blue Lakes during the monsoon of the Dec. 10th weekend. We don't know why playing Uno all night in a rainstorm is fun, it just is, thats all. The following Sat. Cookie & Edie Cook opened their house for an evening of wassailing and merriment including an exchange of gifts which ranged from the ridiculous to the very edge of dubious taste. Our thanks to them. If you missed our New Year's bash or the Mad Hatter's Ball you might consider JOE KULA & JOHN RETTER on Feb. 25th. We'll be glad to see you.

SINGLES & PAIRS ... We held a one time combined potluck and Christmas party with the newer dancers on the first Wed. in Dec. It was a great success and by this printing the newer dancers will be not too far behind Mainstream. STEVE MINKIN is bringing them right along. Don't forget potluck on the first Wed. All clubs invited. Our Business meeting is on the second Wed. On Saturday Feb. 18th at Monroe Hall we will have our 21st Anniversary Hoedown. JET ROBERTS will call Mainstream Plus a star tip, 8:30-11:30. MIKE & EDNA SZAFRANSKI will call the rounds. This February with five Wednesdays will give us a Party Night on the last Wed. with callers from the floor.

MARKWESTERNERS ... We are progressing nicely with a repeat of our plus level workshop class each Tuesday evening at Monroe Hall. We and our guests are on the way to being the smootheest dancers in the county doin' it the way it is meant to be and loving every minute. We really do enjoy having so many of the SINGLES & PAIRS, CIRCLES 'N SQUARES, SAUCY SQUARES and others dancing with us. Our January Winter Festival was great fun with a great bunch of folks warming up a chilly winter evening. We've got our March Hoedown coming up on the 3rd to celebrate the arrival of Spring (we hope). It'll be here at Monroe Hall. It's never too late to say thank you, so much, Agnes Calden and Doris Smith for coordinating a new kind of Christmas Party. On our regular workshop night in our regular and favorite Monroe Hall. Potluck and all kinds of dancing, even a tango! CIRCLE 'N SQUARES Sorry, unable to read letter.

NORTH BAY AREA

BUZZIN CUZZINS ... Our newer dancer coordinators, Theresa and T.J. Douglas are really working with the newer dancers, getting large groups together to attend hoedowns, etc. Good work you two. Our Christmas party was a big success. We have a lot of good cooks in our club, especially Eleanor Middleton, who cooked the ham, turkey and roast beef. The club picked up the bill. Nice! We have a lot of hidden talent in our club. It was revealed by Roy Pierce, Dave Roach and Whitey Bachman, who put on a skit you had to see to believe. Pat & Ray Jeffre have done a lot of travelling this year, Mexico, Washington and now Alaska. That's ok, just be here on Monday nights. Happy New Year.

OLD CAPITOL SQUARES ... We started the holiday season with a Christmas potluck on Dec. 6th. Our New Dancers joined us and we enjoyed an evening of dancing and good food. On Dec. 13th the PALS & SALS from Vacaville visited us. Christmas cookies were served for refreshments. There was no dancing on Dec. 20th or 27th but New Year's Eve found many of us at the PIONEER'S New Year's Eve party in Vallejo. We are looking forward to another good year of square dancing in 1984.

PIONEERS ... The New Year's Eve party was a very big success. Evelyn Drew made some beautiful decorations and arrangements made by Barbara Nystrom for the lovely Buffet Supper served. A vote of thanks to all who participated including Ray Lyons for the sale of the tickets and Drews, LaFaunces, Hubbles, LaVoys, Lyons, Noltes. The helpers were Bowlings, Nystroms, Swifts, Torixs and Watts. Without their help in decorating and cleanup, we would have had a struggle. DAVE HOBAUGH did a wonderful job of square dancing and ball room dancing, and LARRY & KAREN WILLIAMS did the rounds. The Whitakers also did a demonstration of ballroom dancing. Our next hoedown will be on Feb. 25th, with KIP GARVEY calling the tips and RUTH FITCH doing the pre-rounds and rounds. Happy 1984 to all of you.

FIVE STAR SQUARES ... On November 28th, 7 couples from our club joined the PALS & SALS for a fun evening of dancing. The refreshments served were delicious. Our December 10th hoedown was a huge success. 18 squares of members and guests danced to the superb square and round dance calling of KIP GARVEY and CARI FAULSTITCH, respectively. The halls and tables at the Yountville Hall were beautifully decorated with wreaths and candles. The refreshments included open-faced sandwiches, relish trays and nut breads. It was an enjoyable evening for all. Special thanks to Mary Ellen Martin for sharing her creative ideas. Attendance at our Christmas party was almost 100 percent turn out. 8 squares of dancers enjoyed the dancing and festive foods, which consisted of hor d'oeuvres and Christmas cookies. Gifts were exchanged by members, and wine was the gift selected for our caller DAVE & SANDY HOBAUGH.

BUZZSTEPPERS ... We enjoyed dancing to KIP GARVEY at the FIVE STAR'S Hoedown in Yountville to start the Holiday season. The Christmas party was fun for all who attended, with SANTA bringing toys for all the children and surprises for the grown ups. Everyone enjoyed sampling the munchies of all types. We all wish Myrel Willeford a speedy recovery from his heart attack. Fred & Helen Stenke are spending the holidays vacationing in Mexico. Future club activities include a hoe-down in February.

CLEARLAKE AREA

KONOCTI KICKERS ... Our annual Christmas hoedown was quite a party. DREW ANDERSON from Pleasanton, was our guest caller. He and his lovely wife, CATHY, did a duet as a special treat. Our club caller, VANYA LEIGHTON with husband FRED, were there dancing and VANYA called a tip. Our host and hostess, Al & Pat Reeder really outdid themselves with decorations & favors. The Christmas tree, donated by Steven & Darlene Garner, was decorated with cutouts of square dancers and the entire hall was beautifully decorated with the help of Bob Premier. Our club's oldest member, Marie Premier, was there celebrating her 91st birthday. Numerous gifts were donated by local merchants and club members to be given as door prizes. Our next hoe-down is scheduled for Sat., Jan. 14th with MILT ADAMS. CLEARLAKE SQUARES-Too long.

CONTRA COSTA AREA

SHELL SWINGERS ... Great food and good fun was enjoyed by all at our Christmas potluck and party. Thanks to the Elliotts who were our chair-people this year. Over 90 children and adults watched Santa, played by Guy Wade, hand out presents. The out-to-lunch Bunch feasted at a Chinese Buffet at the China Palace in December. Dorothy Degger stitched up her finger good enough to spend 3 days in the hospital. We will be dancing at the United Methodist Church in Martinez for a few weeks. Happy Holidays to one and all!

SYMBIOTIC SQUARES ... We have enjoyed two very stimulating post dance activities in recent months, one sublime, one ridiculous. The first was Bob & Doras Briggs' slide show, Euril Odyssey. The Briggs had spent the better part of the year after their last trip to Europe preparing this show which featured synchronized slides, sounds, stereo music, and pre-recorded commentary. There were so many subtle, yet stunning effects that the viewer felt it was all slipping past him too fast. One the "ridiculous" end of the scale was our Wrapped White Elephant Game, where the object is to see who can most callously take away a desirable White Elephant already unwrapped by another player, instead of selecting a wrapped-up Elephant from the table. Several items exchanged hands many times, as emotions ran high!

YELLOW ROCK SINGLES ... We are really excited about our very first hoedown coming up March 2nd. Of course our club caller, DREW ANDERSON, will be the caller and it will be at College Park High School, 201 Viking Drive, Pleasant Hill, near D.V.C. & Sun Valley. We welcome all square dancers who have had several months classes in basics as well as the more experienced dancers. We will be sporting our new badges. This promises to be a fun-filled, lively hoe-down that all will enjoy. At our Monday night dances, all who would like to brush up on basics are welcome. And if you just want to come and see if you're interested, it won't cost you a cent to watch. We'd love to welcome you. SQUARENADERS ... Welcome to our new couples, Ken &

Rochelle Case and Don & Joan VonBuskirk. Happy to see our own Bill Graham well on the road to recovery. Congratulations to Gary & Janice Young on the birth of their son. We borrowed some Florida sunshine and will share it with you. April 13,14 & 15th at our "Best Little Weekend in Square Dancing". This year we will feature DARRYL MCMILLAN & ELMER SHEFFIELD with LAMBERT KNOX and LEILA doing the rounds. We will again be at the Richmond Auditorium with wood floor, good sound, large dance area. See ad in this book for further details. CONCORD STOMPERS ... Roses are red and Violets are blue, a Valentine for your partner or too bad for you! We have settled into four nights of dancing with the Monday Advanced group finding that "swap around" is not a race horse. Thursday's beginners class got off to a good start in January and they are moving along at a swift pace. Friday the 13th is considered unlucky, but for those who attended our Beginners Hoedown such was not the case and a grand time was had by all. The last week in Jan. was highlighted when LARRY LETSON from Carmel, Indiana joined BOB ELLING in calling for us on all four nights, a real treat. Wed. Feb. 29th is to be Sadie Hawkins potluck party night and should bring out some real interesting "get ups". Our newly elected chairmen for publicity are Steve & Jean Jacobs. CLUTCH BUSTERS ... A new slate of officers has been selected to reign over the 1984 year. Heading the list our new President, Curt & Carol Neal, Vice President, Mary & Milan Gregovich, Treasurer, Glenda & Jim Hayworth, Secretary, Martha & Bob Erwin. Committee's have been selected and we are looking forward to swing into a new year. Square Dancing offers many things, To those of us who dance, So we invite one and all to come with us and take a chance. You'll find laughs and confusion, and best of all friends, that will last for a lifetime, our joy never ends. So start the New Year with a group you can love, come dance with a winner, The CLUTCH BUSTER CLUB! Thanks to all who served last year. RIPSNORTERS ... Can you believe I goofed? No Feb. Hoedown this year, sorry! We will be top form with our Mystery Trip pending Feb. 4th. See you out there, somewhere. We have the youngest Grandparents around. Just look at the Carvers, Waldens, Kidds, Pistoles. Our next club function will take us to Casa de Fruta, or Ukiah, or even closer. Happy Valenines Day! GUYS & DOLLS ... We will have a "new look" for 1984. The design committee chairperson, Betty Johansen, and her committee, Joyce Lockhart, Judie Raemer, Joanne Greene and Carol Mollenbauer, have worked hard to create a new club outfit that we'll all enjoy. Thank you for your efforts. The beginners join us occasionally for a red light/green light workshop night. It's fun to get to know the newer dancers and see how well they are progressing. DIABLO SINGLES ... Year end has been busy for us! After a few weeks of auditioning callers, we have welcomed BERT SWERER to the club. A big welcome to RONDA SWERER also. Some of our members attended the wedding of two of our singles, Dorothy Goldsmith and Henry! We would like to welcome a new member of our board, Cherene Smith who is our Activities Chairperson. Also, hello to Ken Kogut, a new member. Happy Birthdays this month to members Gloria Hanlon, Erik Ruehr, Cherene Smith & Maxine West.

ANTIOCH AMBLERS - Too long.

SAN FRANCISCO AREA

SQUARE CUTTERS ... The Christmas dinner party arranged by our special events committee, headed by Edie & Jerry Wasserkrug, started with a full catered dinner. After which we had a raffle of many donated prizes. Members all brought toys to be taken to the underprivileged children. Then the dancing to our own caller, HARRY WHITLOCK & ED FERRARIO, to top off the evening, which was enjoyed by all club members, guests, and newer dancers from the beginner group. Dec. dancing was interrupted because we could not get to use the school every Thursday so LAVERNE WHITLOCK will be teaching the new selected round of the month, the "champagne Dream", when we meet for the new year. Visitors are always welcome, so lets all dance more in 1984.

PAIRS 'N SPARES ... The pot luck supper and meeting held at the Wind's home was the setting for changing officers for the coming year. With President Marvin Fairbanks, assisted by V.P. Gabe Persau, Secretary, Dulio Mazzella and Russ Russell, Treasurer. We look forward to another good year. Thanks to Dave Copland and his outgoing board for a successful term. Our condolences to Peter Ruboyanes on the loss of his brother. Hope Ruby Luty's broken ankle will mend quickly. Our Newer Dancers are enjoying the chance to attend their special hoedowns. Their doing great. Best of Health and happy dancing to all in 1984.

KALICO KATS ... We are already setting for '84. The new elect Officer's are planning picnics, hoedowns, Fifth Fridays, Party nights and good level dancing. Our new President Lyle Church and taw, "Pat", are very happy to see such enthusiasm the club has. Again "thanks" to our friends and visitors for their support, and good fellowship for the coming year.

CLODHOPPERS ... Here we are into a new year of square dancing. Remembering all the fun we've had and friends we've made at past hoedowns. Glad that there are hard-working people in clubs that are willing to work on Hoedown committees for the dancing pleasure of all of us. We are celebrating our 37th Anniversary on March 3rd with a hoedown featuring EVAN MIDLAM and JACK & DOROTHY WRIGHT on the Rounds. Our hardworking committee and all the CLODHOPPERS are hoping to see you there. Happy dancing to one and all!

49'ERS ... We hope everyone had a happy and safe New Years and we send our congratulations to Janice & Gary Young on the birth of their first child, a boy, Christopher Mark, born Dec. 21st. The 49'ERS will have a group going to the NCSDA Anniversary Dance always a fun time. Dancing to so many good callers, including our DALE HOUCK. Many of us will be going to dinner at Spangers after the dance and hope to see many of you there. Our thanks to the Andersons for the arrangements for the dinner.

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTE
San Francisco Chapter ... We had a fun filled Xmas potluck. A New Year's party at the Boathouse, with lots of finger food and guests, and lively dancing. No dancing over the holidays. Our 21st Anniversary Hoedown is now passed, at this writing. Hoping it was a big success! We are looking forward to a bigger and better year of fun square dancing. There is a bus trip in our near future. Happy New Year to all!

SQUAWS & PAWS ... Marin Co. dancers have created the "Square Dance Foundation of Marin". Membership is open to all Marin Co. Clubs and their Callers. The new Foundation is laying plans for future fundraising for the purpose of providing a new dance center, in our area. Fifteen Directors representing all the Marin Co. clubs and a board of officers were just elected. The Board includes, "Woody" Woodruff (MARIN MAVERICKS), Jim Hallstrom (M.O.D SQUAD), Delores Freeby (TAM TWIRLERS) Fred Judson (TAM TWIRLERS) and William E. Cullen (SQUAWS & PAWS) was appointed Board Chairman. We are looking for a 2 acre parcel to build a 14,000 sq. ft. hall designed specifically for dancing. Estimated cost will be $750,000. The hall will be available to Marin Co. Clubs and other organizations and to the public on a rental basis.

LONGHORNS ... BLAKE is getting around more, at the benefit hoedown, and later at workshop to greet us and receive the gift. We welcome Joyce and Frank Fisher back to dancing. The club is looking forward to their annual Christmas party, with gifts for distribution by the Salvation Army. The auditioning is ending and the club is ready to select a caller. More traveling with the Urrenes off to the Carribean, Helen Boghosian in New Zealand, and the Hamanns back from Hawaii. We were saddened by the death of Joe Parkes and offer our sincerest condolences to Jayne.

CAPER CUTTERS ... We celebrated Christmas with our annual dinner dance at the Boat House. Instead of exchanging gifts this year, we brought canned goods for distribution to needy families. Many former members who now live out of town came to join the festivities. Everyone was particularly happy to welcome Barbara Johnson back to dancing. We have two new members, Al & Ann Solomon. With our increased membership we're looking forward to an exciting new year and hope you'll come join us any Monday night. Happy 1984.

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS ... Happy Valentine's Day! Did you get your heart's desire? We are having our beginners Hoedown on March 22nd, and our club Hoedown in April. Our first in 3 years. Hope to see you all there. More later on them both and watch for flyers. Our sympathy to Alma Vortmann on the loss of her husband, Walt, during the holidays. Both were former members of the REBELS. Enjoyed dancing to JOHNNY PRESTON and the DIABLO SINGLES and to KEN BOWER & the Peninsula Federation. Both excellent dances with fabulous calling.

CABLE CAR SQUARES ... We are looking forward to our Sweetheart Hoedown on Feb. 11th (see the details in our ad). With our numbers up by recent graduates and new dancers from our KIDDIE KARS beginners' class, the club Taws are set to surpass all past standards in providing the refreshments at this dance for which we have become justly famous. Caller-Teacher AL STAGNERO is handling another beginners class for us on Wednesday nights (our night to dance). It is just starting up this month in Westlake. Check it out for your friends.

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTES
San Mateo Chapter ... Our Christmas Dinner-Dance will long be remembered by Club & Class who enjoyed a delicious dinner, square dancing to BILL PETERS, round dancing to ANNDREA STEPHAN, ball room dancing and socializing with good friends. Our thanks to George & Dolores Swain for making the arrangements. The year started with a potluck dinner and party at Ellen Price's. Soon, we were "off and running" to the San Francisco and San Jose B'N'B respective Anniversary Dances and to the Mad Hatters Ball. Now, we are ready to host our New Dancer Hoedown on Feb. 4th. Come visit us on Mondays at the Mainliner Hall, San Mateo.

GINGHAM SQUARES ... In mid-January, out-going President Ran & Bev Yorks graciously hosted a joint meeting of the 1983 & 1984 members of the Board of Directors. The new board will consist of President Pete & Jeanine Herman, Vice President, Pete & Elsie Pereira Treasurer Ed & Jacqui Harris and Secretary Frank & Marge Laughridge. Fortunately, Gary & Colleen Redler have also consented to serve another term as NCSDA Delegates. Quite a few club members signed up for the Asilomar weekend in late January. This year all were stocking up with flashlights, in the event there is a power failure again!
ROADRUNNERS- Too long.

Dear Friends, There are no words that can express what we feel in our hearts. We do know your many prayers were answered. Thank you so much! We also want to thank you for your deep concern, consideration and campassion. The many cards, phone calls, flowers, generous gifts and personal visits have been such a comfort to me. Bless your hearts for being there when Rosalie needed your help and comfort. Again I say I am at a loss for words. You are dear people and it certainly is a blessing to have you as friends. Keep us in your prayers and one of these days I'll be back dancing and also to give your square a "walk thru". With grateful heart,

Howard Parker
