Sketchpad Commentary

BETWEEN A ROCK AND A HARD PLACE

Callerlab recommends that every graduate should dance for a full year at Mainstream level before being exposed to the Plus program. A good idea, but how do we make it work, in the real world of club dancing? Most of us who are club callers know that if we try it we are between a rock and a hard place. If we extend a class for another full year, in many cases neither the class nor the club can survive. If we graduate the new dancers and hold the club level at Mainstream for a full year, we can kiss our experienced dancers goodbye. If we bring in the new dancers and try to keep the club at Plus level, we push the new dancers out of the activity, and keep only the relatively few survivors. A no-win situation, no matter which course we take.

Do you have ideas that might help another caller in dealing with this problem?

by Merv Bradley

Our regular meeting was held on Sunday, Feb. 26th at the Richmond Auditorium. It was announced that our March meeting will be on the 18th instead of the 25th. We danced research figures to Load the Top Ride the Wheel, and Ping to a Diamond. Check was presented to Howard & Rosalie Parker for the proceeds from the benefit dance. Over $1800! Attendance was large and the workshop was excellent. Looking forward to the graduation of our new callers class. More on this later. Dancers are welcome to attend the workshop portion of our meetings.

Bless you

We wish to thank all of the Square Dancers that attended the dances, in my behalf. The only appropriate words that comes to my mind for your kindness is "Thank you and God Bless!" Rosalie and I were so proud to think that we belong to such a wonderful organization. We cherish the day we joined Square Dancing.

We want to thank Joel Kodish, Jerry Mauer, Scot Byars, Eric Henerlaw, Dick Armstrong and Rick Mansfield for donating their time and talented calling. Wish we could have attended all the dances. Rosalie and I also thank those who donated but could not attend the dances.

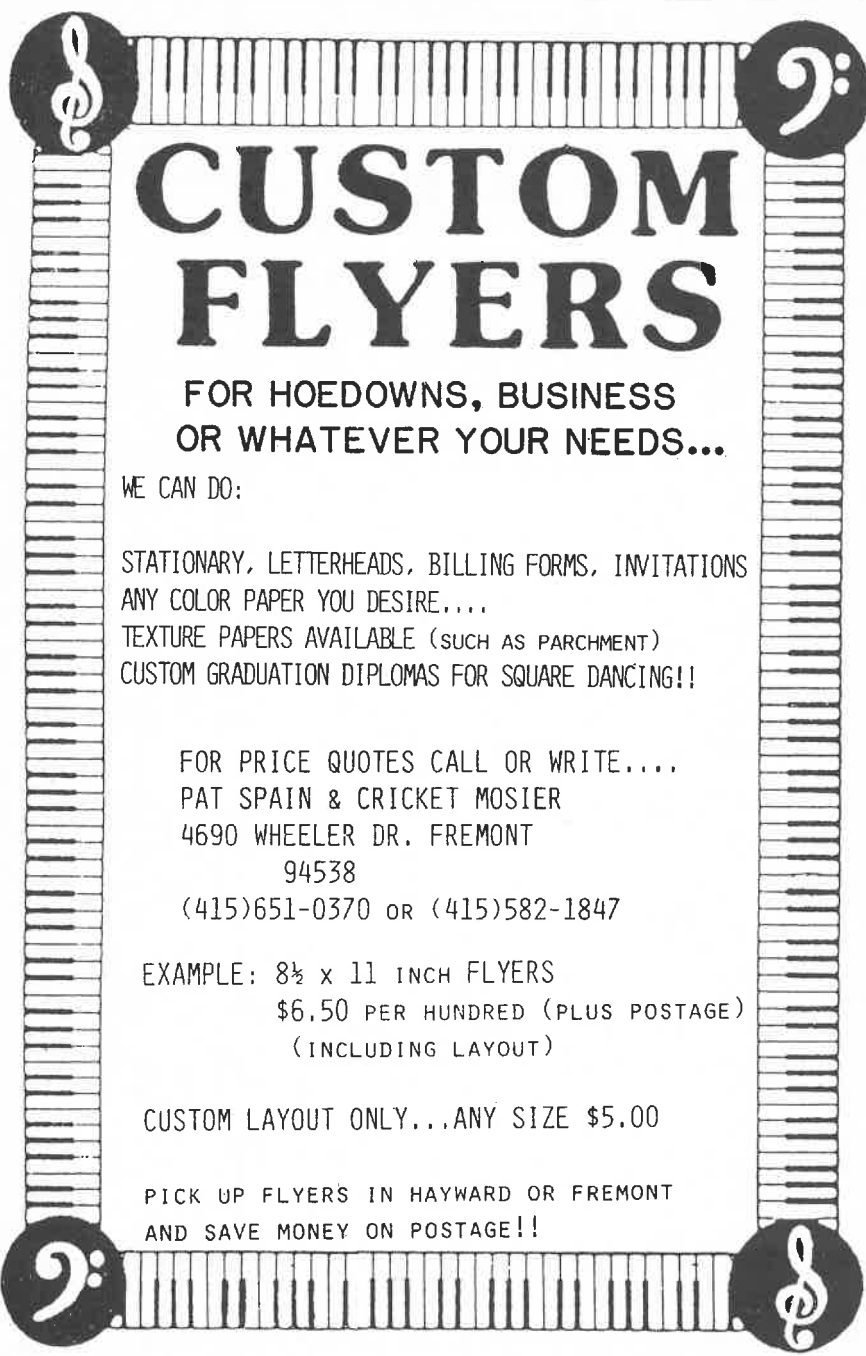

Remember if your square needs a "back three" let me know. Follows your corner is on your left, give her a yellow Rock for me.

CLUB NEWS

REDWOOD EMPIRE

SINGLES & PAIRS ... The newer dancers had 29 squares at the January Hoedown with DAVE HOBAUGH calling. They performed like seasoned pros furnishing food as well as doing the kitchen and dining room duties. At a previous monthly meeting it was voted in to award each newer dancer with a second diploma after completing "Bridge The Gap". Where did the last 52 weeks go? On April 13th STEVE MINKIN will have his 1st Anniversary calling for us. Time just seems to fly faster than usual when we dance it away. MILT ADAMS will call our April Hoedown at Monroe Hall. It will be a Redlight, with basics 1-68 and a Greenlight with mainstream plus.

WHISTLE STOMPERS ... Our beginners class is progressing very well with TED WONG'S instructing talent. An increase in participation from other clubs has helped the class attendance. On February 7th, John Pankovich as Delegate, attended District 5's meeting at the Monroe Club House, hosted by the MARKWESTERNERS with refreshments and dancing after the meeting. The NCSDA meeting on February 12th was held in the Richmond City Auditorium with a high percentage of attendance by delegates and interested square dancers.

SAUCY SQUARES ... Now we are getting ready for the April 7th annual Apple Blossom Parade and Hoedown. This will be the 10th parade which we have taken part in by decorating a float which contains square dancers who dance the length of the parade route. Pat Kavanaugh is the Chairman of the float committee, and with the help of Tom & Wilma Binkley and the committee, she will carry out the "All Aboard the Apple Blossom Express" theme. We will have a busy day but it is worth every minute. Hap Kinney is coordinating a fun trip to Reno on April 28th & 29th for the newer dancers. Joining us will be the WHISTLE STOMPERS & SONOMA GRAPE STOMPERS. Hap is good at making sure that everyone has a good time. Come and join us anytime, especially on April 7th.

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES ... On February 11th, PAUL HARRIS called a lively hoedown for us. Chairpersons for the evening were the Generaux, Heads and Hanks. We would like to welcome our members, Ben and Mary Weeks and Bill and Mary Faris. We look forward to many years of dancing with us. Congratulations to Dick & Thelma Lloyd on their newest grandson baby William. Back from Baja are Al & Mary Desideri. Other snow birds are the Carters, Adams, Shones, Heads and Meachams all having a good time soaking up the rays of the sun. For those of us still here putting up with our winter weather, JOEL KADISH and LARRY WILLIAMS will be calling for us on April 15th. QUESTION MARKS ... We had our quarterly potluck dinner on Valentine's Day. Every cook tried to out do the other which made for a sumptuous spread. Those of us on diets suspended them for this occasion. Our Tuesday night workshops in Penngrove are drawing many visitors, much to our delight. The committee is now appointed for our April 28th hoedown, at Monroe Hall in Santa Rosa, featuring KIP GARVEY calling plus level with a couple of A-1 Star Tips, the WILLIAMSES doing the rounds. Hope to see you there.

RAINBOW STROLLERS ... Everyone had a great time at our recent A-1 class graduation party. We are proud of the many great couples who completed this class. Starting April 4th we will offer an A-2 class from 7:30-8pm. Our 8-10pm club dancing will include all the A-2 calls as we learn them. From 10-10:30 there will be full A-2 dancing. Anyone wishing to learn A-2 at a leisurely pace should plan on spending Wednesday nites in Petaluma with NATE BLISS and the RAINBOW STROLLERS.

NORTH BAY AREA

BUZZIN CUZZINS ... Our Dress Committee, Marlene Lichtle, Debbie Golino, Evy Pierce, Eleanor Middleton and Lee Lofton are busy checking out patterns and fabrics for our new club dress. We wish to congratulate Bill McCarthy and Arlene Smith on their engagement. All our best wishes. 20 of our members enjoyed the BOOTS & BELLS hoedown, with DAVE HOBAUGH and our club caller, MIKE WRIGHT doing the calling. This, after stopping enroute for dinner made for a great evening. Our beginner group is very lively. They went on their first mystery trip to Livermore, to a hoedown given by the VALLEY TRAVELERS. Ed Martin and Forrest Brown took 30 of them in their R.V.'s. A trip they won't soon forget.

PIONEERS ... Our Feb. 25th hoedown with caller KIP GARVEY calling the tips and RUTH FITCH calling the rounds was a wonderful success and KIP called a beautiful hoe-down. There were 27 clubs represented and 27 squares dancing. A vote of thanks to Linda Carll and her committee for the delicious refreshments served. The beginners class is progressing well and the party in February which was organized by Gerry Nolte and her committee was enjoyed by both beginners and old timers. We missed Madyln and Jack Nolte who are in Mexico on vacation and will welcome them back on their return. Our next hoedown will be in June which will be our 33rd Anniversary and DAVE HOBAUGH our club caller will do the honors and LARRY & KAREN WILLIAMS will do the rounds. OLD CAPITOL SQUARES ... Valentines Day, Feb. 14th, we had a party with our new dancers class as our guests. Cake, punch and coffee were served and a good time was had by all. We are enjoying getting acquainted with our new dancers. Almost all of our club members went to the PIONEERS Hoedown in Vallejo, on Feb. 25th with KIP GARVEY doing his usual great job of calling. We took home the coffee for having the most people there; some of us won door prizes, and we also took the cowhide. Our nominating committee is preparing a slate of officers for the coming year. Elections will be held soon and the names of our new officers will be reported next month.

FIVE STAR SQUARES ... Our club has been very active this month, winning the coffee on three consecutive Saturdays. We danced with the BOOT HEEL RANBLERS Feb. 4th, the BOOTS & BELLES on Feb. 11th and the BUZZSTEPPERS Feb. 18th. We enjoyed dancing with all of the above clubs. There was also a good turnout for the PIONEERS Hoedown in Vallejo and some of our members traveled to Cloverdale to dance at the Citrus Fair. Our potluck dinner on Valentine's Day was a gala affair with red & white decorations and many red and white goodies to eat. As usual all of the food was delicious. We are disappointed about not being able to dance on a wood floor for our spring dance, due to a misunderstanding. We will be dancing at the Yountville Hall at our future Hoedowns. Hope to see all of you at our dance. See our ad this issue.

CATCH ALL 8'S ... Betty Linn has been in the hospital laid low with a virus, but she will be back on the dance floor we're sure. Dorothy Fillippi and Eva Black are becoming quite the travelers, the latest jaunt was to the Carabean, next will be Alaska, then the Hawaiian Islands. We are all green eyed with jealousy. Now my wife is talking travel, my poor pocket book. The Richmond area is becoming a Square Dance place again. We've lost a few clubs, but now are coming into our own again with a few new clubs.

SAN FRANCISCO AREA

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTES San Mateo Chapter ... Guests of honor at our semi-annual appreciation dinner at the Distillery, San Bruno was our re-elected officers: President, Lou Bruschini, Vice President, Elsie Barnes, Treasurer, Anne Marie Tenkortenaar, Secretary, Diane Shemanski. Also honored were committees and other faithful supporters of our club. "Cupid strikes again". Congratulations to class members, Darlene Burns & Pat McGowan, who recently announced they will be married on St. Patrick's Day. The group of club and class members who attended the Wing Ding at Turlock reported a good time was had by all. We send our best wishes for a speedy recovery to our ailing members, Betty Ferguson, Phil Peterson and Christine Thomas. TWO BY FOURS ... Because of Omeara's illness since May, the Daniels have been unable to dance, but they consented to write the '84 news for the Splinters. That is true dedication. Our new board, John & Babs Gates, President, Mark & Janet Oliver, Vice President, Jerry & Eileen Matze, Secretary and Jose & Hazel Velez, Treasurer. Our members appreciate the hard work of our past board. They made our club activities enjoyable. BILL DAVIS is calling for our Spring Hoedown April 7th at the Burlingame Recreation Center. See you there.

KALICO KATS ... As I said in my recent article, 1984 has been really great. We have a group of 4 or 5 squares every Friday night. RICH MANSFIELD our super caller and teacher is really getting us into advance dancing. We again wish to thank all our faithful guests, and extend a welcome to all who are interested in learning advance dancing to come and learn with us. On Feb 12th we had two recent casualties, Fred Shelton recovering from knee surgery and Irma Cloonan recuperating from a broken ankle payed us a visit. We are still waiting for Eleanor Carter, foot surgery and Joe Livramento, Heart Surgery to return real soon. We miss all of you very much so hurry back.

CABLE CAR SQUARES ... The Club's regular Wednesday evening workshops have been steadily bringing the newer dancers in the group up to the Plus 2 level under the direction of club caller JIM WYLIE. Things are progressing so well that we expect the whole club, newer dancers as well as the vets, to participate in the Club's Anniversary Dance in July. For a lively evening of dancing (and some prancing), friends and guests are invited to join with us at Westlake Park on any Wednesday. With JOHN RETTER doing the rounds, that's a hard offer to refuse!

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS ... The Mariscals and the Pozza's went to the Cloverdale Citrus Fair on the CAPER CUTTERS bus. Had a ball! They also attended the Dancers Special with FRANK LANE. Sure get around. Enjoyed the CABLE CARS Sweetheart Ball with DICK HOULTON. Great as usual. Elaine Redler is doing better and danced a tip or two at the WHIRL-A-WAYS dance with JERRY SCHATZER. Good dancing and excellent calling. Had a good turnout for our Newer Dancers Hoedown in March. Went to the 5th Wednesday party given by the LEVIS & LACES. Must do it again! Our "Spring Fling" is on April 14th. See ad in this issue.

LONGHORNS ... BOB SOUTHERN is really working on cueing round dances much to the club's pleasure. With his great square calling, and now the rounds, makes for a really fun evening of dancing. The latest is a trial at "Computer" squares. Come visit us on Tuesdays and enjoy. Two members, Cleo Manning and Ruth Ramer, recently had foot surgery. We expect them to be dancing again soon. The Rideouts have been out with the flu. The Jensens are enjoying a vacation in Florida.

It is our pleasure to have JACK & DOROTHY WRIGHT dancing with us again. PAIRS 'N SPARES ... Spring is always in the air when square dancers are having a good time and that was certainly true at our Sadie Hawkins hoedown. Our board is busy planning exciting activities for the near future. We're hearing whispers of such things as mystery trips, picnics, fun nights, hay rides etc. Sounds great. Our Tuesday night workshops have been very interesting with our caller keeping us on the move and also calling some A-1 at the end of the evening. Thanks, HOWARD. Newer dancers class is coming along quite well and really enjoying it all. We welcome visitors so drop in any Tuesday night and dance with us.

LEVIS & LACES ... Many of our members have been active attending dances called by our very own, DOUG SAUNDERS. DOUG called a plus dance for the BOOT HILL RAMBLERS in Napa, the Square Dance Rama in Fresno, and for the FAIRFIELD SWINGERS. On the 25th the class dined at Borel's in San Mateo and danced with the WHIRL-A-WAYS on their 31st Anniversary. Lotsa Fun! Reminder: Rawhide Record Staff's Hawaii Convention, April 2-9th. Thanks to all who danced with us on our Party Night in February.

SQUARE CUTTERS ... Our Valentine party was a big success. All the girls brought their beautifully decorated boxes, containing desert for two, with their name on the inside. The boys had a hard time selecting a box to suit their fancy, and having that partner to share it with. Another bus trip to Reno is planned for April 7th & 8th.

Always lots of fun, and everyone comes home a winner. Club caller, HARRY WHITLOCK, has been working on all the plus figures, and an excellent workshop on Spin Chain & Exchange The Gears. HARRY will be calling a hoedown for the M.O.D. SQUAD in Novato on March 3rd. LA VERNE WHITLOCK has been teaching the new selected round dance of the month, Bluegrass Two-Step. Ernie & Lee Banchemo, our President, have just announced that they are now great grandparents. Congratulations, and best wishes. Visitors are always welcome, and many more special events are planned, so come join the fun. Lets all dance more in 1984.

CLODHOOPPERS ... Our Mystery Trip is now a thing of the past. The M.T. was not only a lot of fun, dinner in Cupertino and dancing at the BELL SWINGERS Anniversary Dance, it was also our change of officers. Charley & Marilyn Ellis are our new Club Presidents, Treasurer, Tony & Martha, Secretary. Shelly & Barbara Baum, and yours truly as Publicity for another year. We are sure sorry that Bill Tripp and Helen Leonard are under the weather, we hope they are able to be back with us very soon. Look for our April 28th Hoedown ad and Beginners April 6th hoedown ad in this issue.

MARKWESTERNERS ... We are spending great gobs of time tending to our roses in preparation for our 21st annual Rose Festival Hoedown May 19th. That's a lot of time and a lot of roses! Come and help us celebrate this landmark event. Just returned from a round-the-world trip are Edith & Roy Wormell. Away nine weeks, we missed 'em. Unable to dance but coming out to Tuesday workshop anyway, Angelo Dotti sporting a cane. How debonair. A pulled tendon or a discontent cow, we'll never know. Dancing at the Citrus Fair in Cloverdale, Louise Dunford with Leo Pozzi, Marian & Ed Haczela, Marge & Dave Florence, Bernice & Leonard Harris, Marge & Al Greefken and brand new members Fran & Bob Zinns. Did we miss anyone? Hope not! I'll hear about it!

GINGHAM SQUARES ... 14 couples of us had a great Asilomar weekend in January. We're looking forward to our potluck dinner on March 27th. Our caller DALE HOUCK, has been giving us a good review of our Advanced figures between 7:30-8 every Tuesday and then adds new material during the evening. (We will be dark on April 10th.) 25 of us will be traveling to Hawaii with DALE & PHYLLIS in April for some square dancing and fun in the sun. Save May 19th for our Hoedown with BRONC WISE at College of San Mateo.

RANCHERO'S ... 1984 has proved to be a busy year so far. January brought installation of new officers. President is Muriel Brown, Vice President, Marvin Smith, Secretary, Roger Scholle and Harriet Lockman as Treasurer. January also brought us a visit from Parker and Jill Brown, District Directors and Bill & Ramona Gauthier, President of NCSDA. Last weekend Gorden and Elva Spence travelled to Fresno to attend the Squarama they had a great time. Ben & Jean Gerrans have also been roving and travelled to Arizona for a long weekend of sun and fun. Our Beginner's Class is rapidly progressing and many of the class can be spotted at local hoedowns. We hope to attend as many as possible in the future.

ISLAND SQUARES ... It's great to see one of our ski enthusiasts in the club square dancing once again. Of course everyone knows who I'm speaking of, our very own Joy Bruno. Keep the good work up Joy. KEN KENMILLE'S cordless mike has been a great hit around here. None of us seem to know when he's going to pop up with that mike! Lou & Doris Tinsley dropped by the other Friday to visit and it was nice seeing them again. I just want to remind all of you that our Spring Hoedown on April 14th is rapidly approaching. Hope you can make it.

CONTRA COSTA AREA

SHELL SWINGERS ... Negotiations are over and we are back in the clubhouse with a new slate of officers as follows; Marvin Wilson as President, Sandy Branchcomb as Vice Pres., Claire Davis as Secretary and Kathy Rowe as Treasurer. Thanks to the past officers who served faithfully for 2 terms and did a great job. It is great having Max Sherwood back dancing. We will try to be careful with your sore wrist. A big thank you to Fred Clingsmith for escorting the single ladies through the fog and rain to the church. Dorothy Degger reports her grandson is a doll, growing good and the first check-up was great, and she danced at a Sweetheart Hoedown in Washington with Jerry Johnson and the RAINBOW STROLLERS. With square dancing you have friends around the world and can always make more, as this was an international dance with dancers from Canada and earned a badge-Hands across the Border.

FAR WESTERN DANCERS ... Must be my age, winter has been too long and too cold. I'm looking forward to sunshine and suntans. We have alot of Swingers on the dance floor, but you should see the swinging the Golfers do between tips. Our potluck dinner was fun and the food was extra special, as always. Our sick list has been short and with minor type illnesses. Welcome back to Ann Divoky. She's not quite footloose and fancy free, but she's getting there. We are pleased to have the GHOST RIDERS for our May hoedown again this year, with our own DAVE BELDEN calling. GUYS & DOLLS ... Past President, Gus Lockhart, was in the hospital at the end of Feb. We miss him and wish him a complete and speedy recovery. Talking about recoveries, we're pleased that Bob McMains back is better and that he and Carol are dancing again. What's the story on the twin casts? Both Marchets and Eddy are wearing casts on the same arm. Sixteen couples are traveling to Turlock for the Third Annual Wing Ding. The Silvermans are going to have a Champagne "Christening" for their new trailer. It should be a great trip with good dancing and great after parties. Talk about traveling, Harlin and Marcheta and Jim and Pat just returned from a 10 day holiday in Puerto Vallarta.

SQUARENADERS ... We are proud and happy to announce our new caller/director, PAUL HARRIS. PAUL will call for our next exhibition which will be our "Best Little Weekend" on April 13,14,15th. This year's featured callers for our weekend are DARRYL MCMILLAN & ELMER SHEFFIELD with LAMBERT KNOX and LEILA on rounds. We will also look forward to seeing you at Golden Doors for new dancers on April 29th and the Golden State Round Up in May. Then we go to Reno for Silver State and Baltimore, Md. for the Nationals.

DIABLO SINGLES ... We are planning the annual trek to Reno to the Silver State Convention in June. We got great accommodations at the Peppermill thanks to the work of Gloria Hanlon. Great job, Gloria. Another couple of SINGLES are engaged. Congratulations to Steve Smith and one of our newer members Kelly Knobel. Whens the date set? Coming the end of this month is our Anniversary Weekend Dance with KIP GARVEY (speaking of engagements...) calling A-1 on Friday April 27th and JET ROBERTS calling Plus level on Sat. April 28th. Both dances are at College Park High in Pleasant Hill. Please come and have a great time!

SQUARE WHEELERS ... Any Orwellian thoughts were well put to bed with our "Jaundiced Eye" Hoedown. DREW ANDERSON was picture perfect as he called the plays to a full house, and there was no lessening of dancer enthusiasm or attendance as a result of ski-week or an interfering holiday weekend. Thanks to all the Little Wheelers for their part in putting together such a first rate event. With special kudos to Bill & Pam Casson and Bob & Roxie Carrere who jointly led the way. Stay tuned for our next extravaganza coming your way on June 2nd. A highly successful progressive dinner rounded out our month of activities. Bouquets to Marty Cook who spearheaded the feast through many rocks and shoals and to those who willingly opened their homes to our delightful thundering herd!

CONCORD STOMPERS ... If an April Shower should spoil your day, then just keep on dancing your cares away. Yahoo! Them STOMPER gals sure looked pretty at the Wing-Ding and them STOMPER dudes mighty handsome too. If you missed this affair mark your calendar for next year, great calling, dancing and socializing. The Monday advanced group is coming up to full power with their Chain Reaction. Tuesdays Mainstream group is paddling right along through the Plus Level calls. Thursdays Beginner class is progressing rapidly thru the basic calls and the enthusiasm is a pleasure to observe. Thanks to all those "angels" who help.

MARIN COUNTY

TAM TWIRLERS ... We had a successful Hoedown "The Presidents' Dance" on February 25th thanks to MILT ADAMS, who did the excellent calling. The SQUAWS & PAWS won the coffee with 24 people attending. Thanks again to our neighboring clubs, the SQUAWS & PAWS and BUZZ 'N BUTTS for supporting our hoedown! Our club representative on the Square Dance Foundation of Marin gave an informational talk at our regular dance night on the Foundation's plan to eventually build a square dance center in Marin.

STUMP JUMPERS ... Congratulations to Elly and Al Angulo on their first grandson, Samuel Allen. Elly is in Ashaffenburg, Germany for 3 weeks to spoil him and the two granddaughters. We've really been active this month. 3 squares dancing with DAVE HOBAUGH, 2 squares to PAUL HARRIS and dinner for 14 to the Greenmill. Our DAVE MILANO called workshop for WEST MARIN SQUARES in Pt. Reyes with 3 couples following. 16 members enjoyed a great Valentine's Potluck and workshop with WEST MARIN SQUARES. Thanks for inviting us. 24 went to Ukiah where DAVE called with 22 to dinner at the Broiler. 10 squares attended our Washington's Birthday potluck. Thanks Ben & Char Glading and two squares of WEST MARIN SQUARES for being our guests.

M.O.D. SQUAD ... A group of us attended the Leap Year Hoedown hosted by the SQUAWS & PAWS. It was a fun happening on the extra day of the year. Opal & Elton Gray were back dancing for a while after several weeks absence because of illness. Elton is scheduled for eye surgery momentarily. Success and a speedy recovery. Hopefully with the advent of Spring all of our recuperating and missing dancers will have returned. We've missed you. Larry & Petra Luchetti and in Baja at this writing fishing for Marlin. Good luck. President Orville Koenning, taw Jeanette, the Committees, and our caller HARRY WHITLOCK are to be congratulated for our successful Spring Frolic Hoedown. Thank you all.

MAVERICKS ... Spring is here again in all its beauty. Great plans shaping up for new square dance experiences. Our club went dark, Feb. 29th to attend the Sadie Hawkins dance of the SQUAWS & PAWS. JEAN FERRELL called rounds for the TAM TWIRLERS at San Clemente School Feb. 25th. Joe & Woody Woodruff are in the Phillipines on a combined business and pleasure trip. Barbara Hauge returned from her trip to Alaska. To our sick friends, we miss you and wish you a recovery soon. To our visitors, Nat Kay, Joan Ryan, Betty Miller, were glad you came. Thanks. Happy Anniversary Lon & Jean Ferrell and Happy Birthday Leon Ring Dick Taylor and Jeanne Katsoros.

NOVATO SQUARES ... We are having a Mainstream-Plus review starting May 17th. All are invited to attend who plan to advance. The review will be held at IDESI Hall on Thursdays for sixteen weeks, starting at 8:00. We want to welcome Lefty and Marabel Iverson back to square dancing. Ewald and Karin Westphal celebrated another anniversary and Karin had another birthday in Feb. We hope there are many more, Ewald and Karin!

BUZZIN' BOOTS ... It's a small world, Thelma Pulliam, while in Hawaii, ended up going snorkeling with a West Point Classmate of Joe Killian's. The Killians are heading back to West Point, N.Y. to attend Joe's 50th class reunion at the Military Academy. The Van Houtens will soon be taking their annual spring trip to Hawaii. Any more classmates Joe? Dorothy Boswell hopes to do some spring skiing in Sin Valley (or was it Sun Valley?) Idaho. Hopefully, there will be a late thaw for her. Our A-1 class is winding up the end of March. Just in time for our Spring Fling in April. We hope to see you all there!

REDWOOD DIAMONDS ... The beginners under the tutelage ERIC HENERLAU are coming along so well that they have started attending some Beginner's Hoedowns and have been really enjoying themselves. On Valentine's Day we celebrated the wedding Anniversary of Brian & Maureen Butcher, who came to our workshop accompanied by their young son and a lovely large decorated cake so that we could all help them enjoy the occasion. I think Maureen's mother, Terry, who also dances with us, was responsible for the cake. We all had a wonderful time and it was very thoughtful of them to let us participate in their special day. We've been having guests drop in from the TAM TWIRLERS and SQUAWS & PAWS and it's been fun dancing with them. It's great to see such enthusiasm.

EAST BAY AREA

ACES & LACES ... February was highlighted by our Annual Progressive Dinner that precedes the Club's attendance of the Cerebral Palsy Benefit Hoedown. We started with drinks and hors d'oeuvres at the Boyles home. The main course was served at the home of Donna Eaves' dad, who graciously offered his home. Thanks to the SKIRTS & FLIRTS who joined us one Wednesday night. That same night we bid a sad farewell to Diane Weber who is leaving to join Vince at their new home in Missouri. Many of us are thinking ahead to Reno and Golden State and plans are forming. See you next month!

RANCHERO SQUARES ... Members and newer dancers are getting back to normal after the holidays. TERRY has been working us hard and workshopping the intermediates as well as the beginners. Club officers and board members have planned some fun times for the coming months, including a mystery bus trip in March. We are also having "party nights" again on the 4th Tuesday of the month. Come join us for some dancing and get acquainted with your fellow square dancer's "and of course some "taste goodies". Our Feb. Hoedown was a great success with a night of good dancing. The month ended with a weekend of dancing and fun at the Casa de Fruta with several club members and TERRY calling the tips.

BELLES & BEAUS ... We said goodbye to Gordon & Natalie Moody in January with a great party. They were presented with some lovely bells to remember us by and to put in their new home in Oroville. We also wished Arne & Shirley Watn a happy 50th Anniversary this same month. At our Feb. 16th meeting some mighty original Valentines made by our own members were judged. Marty Bartolf was the big winner for his work. Jean Elliott presented him with some of her special homemade candy as winner of first prize. On Feb. 22nd we raided the NEW ENGLAND STOMPERS and surprised them with some refreshments too. It was fun and we enjoyed the dancing.

KUNTRY KUZINS ... Club Vice President Bob Garfinkle is running for a seat on the Union Sanitary District Board of Directors, election on June 5th. Lets all give this civil minded member our support he so truly deserves. Most of club members are sewing up a storm for our new outfits to brighten up our Anniversary Dance on April 21st. Look for our ad in this issue. Thank you FARMERS and FARMERETTES for joining us and making our dancing more enjoyable, and for your delicious goodies. The Crouchs are home again from their cruise to the Caribbean, Ocho Rios, Grand Canyon, Play Cozumel and Miami. They wish all of you the pleasure of such a trip.

EDEN ROCKERS ... Our Valentine party on February 15th had some amusing difficulties, but after they were ironed out the party began to swing. And of course, we all enjoyed our ice cream and cake and candy hearts. We would like to welcome our new members, Ed & Kathy Hardin, Steve & Joyce Harris, Pete & Lucille Weeks Ree Stanhope and Tony Foster. Some of us plan to visit the 5th Wednesday party at Newark Pavillion. Visitors this month were Leota and Bob Fisher, of Petaluma, Betty Frizetti, Peggie Wentworth, LeRoy Taylor, Jim Stephens, Al James and Ollie Butler. We miss Joe West and Dorothy White and hope they'll be able to start dancing again soon.

CHECKMATES ... February was high lighted by two exciting events. First of all, we are delighted to have our newer dancers, the CHECKERS, join us every Monday night. They are an enthusiastic group and certainly will be an asset to our club. Our Hoedown on Feb. 23rd was a great success, and a fun time was had by all. We are in the stage of planning a special social event for next month. It's great to have Bev Johnson back dancing again after her bout with the doctors.

ODD'S 'N END'S ... Our caller Auditions resulted in the selection of LARRY MANNING for squares and GERTRUDE KHUNER on rounds. Our sincere thanks to JOHN BOWMAN & BUD & ANNE WOLKINS for calling to our club. They were good too.

LARRY MANNING also calls for the GILROY GLIDERS and the GOLDEN STATE ROAD RUNNERS in Salinas. LARRY will be reviewing plus level and teaching A-1 & 2. GERTRUDE KHUNER will call pre rounds from 7:30 to 8:00 and single rounds between tips. She is a great caller and teacher. We wish to thank the SOLOS & PAIRS for inviting our club to their Sadie Hawkins leap year dance on Feb. 29th. Please come dance with us and enjoy our new callers.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS ... We would like to compliment the newer dancers for a well planned hoedown. We would also like to thank all club members who participated and especially JACK PETRI & guest caller CHARLEY WOLF for their help in making it a success. We are happy to report that Paul Miller is home from the hospital after by pass surgery and is doing well. Hope to see you dancing soon Paul. All Club members and Newer dancers are anxiously looking forward to the new club outfit!

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS ... ~~Square Dancers~~ are peculiar by nature so it really doesn't surprise us when they perform in a strange and rather mysterious manner. Now, there is nothing terribly unconventional about calling an impromptu meeting when agenda items might be pressing. Again, the fact that it happens to be in the middle of the night could possibly indicate that we are dealing with some very busy people or nocturnal creatures (or both). What makes the incident somewhat noteworthy, however, was that they were all sitting in a hot tub at the time. In any event, it turned out to be an excellent meeting with no hidden agenda (probably because there was no place to hide it) and all attendees felt like they had really cleaned up their act. Fortunately for the more sedate, the rest of the Plymouth weekend was geared to regular people. We danced, drank, played cards, drank, ate, drank, hiked, drank, etc. and drank.

KEEWAY SWINGERS ... Jan 28th found us celebrating our first hoedown of 1984 with DICK WAIBEL calling and BILL WEBER queuing the rounds. We all had a great time, and would like to thank all of the dancers who came and made the dance a success. Feb. 4th some of us went to the MARSHALL FLIPPO dance in San Lorenzo and some went to the BRONC WISE dance in San Jose. If you ever get a chance to dance to BRONC WISE don't miss it. Feb 11th the Cerebral Palsy Benefit dance given by the KUNTRY KUZINS at the Elks Lodge was enjoyed by all. Feb. 18th the Square a Rama in Fresno was enjoyed by all who Square and Round danced. I'm told RON LIBBY was in his great form. Happy Squares till next month.

ROUND UP CORNER

By Bob & Betty Coates

Round-Up flyers are now available through your Club Delegate. If your Delegate does not have any he can get them from his District Director. When filling out your registration forms for the Golden State Round-Up, REMEMBER, read the flyer carefully and follow all the instructions as to who the check should be made out to and where it should be mailed. NEVER make a check out to an individual on the committee. All checks with the exception of those for housing should be made out to GOLDEN STATE ROUND-UP.

Housing checks should be made out to the San Franciscan Hotel.

Help make the bookwork easier. One of the featured callers is John Saunders. John is from Florida and has been calling for over 15 years. He calls and teaches locally and travels about doing festivals and conducting Caller Clinics as well as appearing at the National Conventions.
