Mondays Plus Review A-1 Workshop

You should have a good understanding of the Plus Calls and be able to recognize formations. We will review the Plus Calls, then teach the calls on the A-1 list.

Tuesdays A-1 Review A-2 Workshop

This will be an all position teaching workshop of the A-2 calls. You must know the A-1 calls and be enthusiastic about learning the remaining Advanced Calls (the A-2 Calls). In order to be fair to your fellow dancers, if you have a lot of trouble with all-position calls, please consider dancing with us on another workshop night.

Thursdays Easy Advanced Experimentals

If you already know the A-1 and A-2 calls, and want a relaxing workshop of these calls along with selected Experimental calls, join us on this night.

CONTRA COSTA AREA

CONCORD STOMPERS ... Taking a "back track" on a recent Mystery trip to Stockton a bus load of us enjoyed a super Chinese buffet, a great wood dance floor and a good caller JET ROBERTS, what more could anyone ask for. Kudos to Les & Betty Brewer, Lee & Pat Hair for a job well done. BOB ELLING, our club caller was one of a group of callers for the Golden Doors Dance in Richmond recently. Congratulations to Phyllis and Gordon Cooper who have recently been elected to serve as Director of District 2, NCSDA, beginning in July. Beginning June 4th and thru the summer Monday nights will be an introduction to A-1 Class for review and brush-up on the A-1 calls. All plus level dancers are more than welcome. Wednesday nights are working on the plus calls in the APD or "dancing by definition" variations. Our hard working Beginners class will graduate on June 19th and move over to Tuesday night to dance MS and start learning the plus calls.

GUYS & DOLLS ... The beginners graduation ceremony was held Tuesday, May 1st. ELMER and BLANCH RADCLIFFE were presented with pewter beer steins as a farewell gift and in appreciation of their fine teaching. A party will be held on May 23rd to welcome the newer dancers into the club. 13 couples traveled to Sonora to dance at their hoedown featuring DAVE HOBAUGH as caller. The May 16th potluck is the date for the installation of new officers and appreciation night for those who have served so well during 83/84. New officers are: Presidents, Sandows, V.P., Mollenhauers, V.P., Silverman, Treasurer, Morse. The Anniversary hoedown on May 19th, at Ygnacio will be the occasion for the debut of our new club outfit. Club members appreciate the efforts of the dress committee and are excited about their new look.

ANTIOCH AMBLERS ... DREW ANDERSON and the GHOST RIDERS made our April Daisy Chain Hoedown a great success. There were dancers from 32 clubs and the AMBLERS passed on the Outhouse to the TEEN TWIRLERS. A final board meeting was held at Ann & Todd Harrell's to get ready for the May graduation of another class of AMBLERS. There will be 16 couples graduating if they can pass DREW'S final test and the AMBLER'S famous written examination. We're looking forward to a busy schedule with the Silver State and the Golden State Conventions, our canoe trip on the Russian River and the great summer dancing.

NORTH BAY AREA

FIVE STAR SQUARES ... We wish to thank all who attended our April Hoedown. The dancing was enjoyed by everyone, with GLEN DICKEY calling the tips. We also had the pleasure of having GLEN call at our Tuesday evening workshop this month, while DAVE HOBAUGH was attending a Callerlab Convention in Chicago. We are happy to see Ruth & Bob Edwards back, after several weeks absence. Ruth has been recuperating from a lengthy bout with a chronic ear infection. Many of our ladies are still busy finishing the club dress in time for the Silver State Festival in Reno.

OLD CAPITOL SQUARES ... We shared the Clock Tower on April 3rd with the Art Show and were pleased to be able to exhibit the fun and excitement of square dancing to those in attendance. Our caller, DOROTHY PEELER, and her husband, BUCK went to Caller Lab in Chicago and shared with us the changes that were made in the square dancing programs. We have had a change on our official board. Donna Brodie will serve as delegate rather than Bill & Belle Muttera. Our new dancers will be graduating on May 22nd and will then be accepted into the club. They have been a good class and will be a welcome addition to our club.

CATCH ALL 8'S ... Our beginners class gave BERT a turkey for being such a good teacher and for having to work with a turkey, they also gave Al Jensen a turkey because he is, they said. We had a large graduation class and they all won honors with their newly learned talents. Betty Linn & a group are off on a tour again they wind up two days in San Diego including the zoo, that means monkeys. She will have a new bag of monkey shine tricks for us. Elwin Williamson left us for the big hoedown in the skies, we sure miss him and his great big smile.

BUZZIN CUZZINS ... A big welcome to all of our new members, several of whom were visitors who decided to stay. Every weekend finds several of us, both beginners and plus dancers at a hoedown. It was a big turn out, 60 people, for the Golden Doors Hoedown, plus dinner afterwards. Thanks to the efforts of T.J. and Theresa for getting people signed up and reservations made for that one. Our newer dancers are looking very good and looking forward to graduation. We wish to thank ERIC HENERLAU, who did a great job of calling for us the week our caller, MIKE WRIGHT, was in Chicago attending the Caller Lab Convention.

SAN FRANCISCO AREA

49'ERS ... April had us out for a day at the zoo arranged by Gary & Louise Peluffo. There was a guided tour of the San Francisco Zoo and a brown bag picnic after. The howdown of the month has been going well with many of us attending. We are now getting ready for the Round Up with many of us busy with committee work which will lead up to the Round Up which will be coming up in May. Our plans for a picnic and canoe and wine tasting trip, a day at the Giants and a trip to Reno are also underway and we'll be looking forward to these events.

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTE'S
San Francisco Chapter ... Hard to believe the Golden State Round-Up is over and our Chicken Hop is coming. Went to S.F. REBELS hoedown, with JET ROBERTS calling a great dance, there was food galore! Really enjoyed ROGER MORRIS calling for the BUZZIN BOOTS, he always calls an interesting dance. Going to Golden Doors, at Richmond Aud. always have fun at this dance. We will be moving to Ebenezer Lutheran Church, for the summer, has a good floor, come dance with us. We have a Tahoe Bus Trip planned for July.

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTE
San Mateo Chapter ... We "sprung" into "spring" in the merry month of May. Those members who attended the California Singles Squares Convention at Monterey reported a good time was had by all. There was hardly time to dust off our dancing shoes and get ready for the Golden State Round-Up. There, we took time out to enjoy a dinner together at Ruffles. We ended the weekend and the month at our fun level party at the Mainliner on Memorial Day. Now, it's time to catch the bus for the Chicken Hop at Boulder Creek. We hope to see you in a square on Monday.

WHIRL-A-WAYS ... President Bud & First Lady Mary Fields and all the WAW'S want to thank our loyal guests the Gilmores, Pisanis, Petersons, Cecil Westman & Helen McLean and Sherman Hunter and Stephanie Swartz, for their patience while Siebeckers' floor was being refinished. Many members enjoyed the GINGHAM SQUARES great hoedown. Once more our potluck dinner was a gastronomical success. Our ladies are excellent cooks as well as fine dancers. "Mini-Bio" couple for April was John & Barbara Bodmer and Tom & Dorothy McKittrick told all in the May WAW's Newsletter. Get well and hurry back wishes to Ken Schroll and Wendell Lathrope.

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS ... We were happy to have both the Gauthiers and the Piombo's at our hoedown in April. Had representatives from 15 clubs. Our main prize was won by a member of the CASTRO VALLEY REBELS. Thanks to all who came. We had a good time and we hope you did too. Mary Sue Walsh's mother had a "3B" surgery (triple bypass) in April and is doing very well. Best Wishes for a speedy recovery. We had our Graduation exercise in time for the Round-Up. Lots of fun and excitement! We will be dancing at Ebenezer Lutheran Church on Portola Dr. for the summer. Call us for time and date. Happy Vacations!

CLODHOPPERS ... This has been a busy month for our Newer Dancers, the CLODHOPS. Not only did they host their first hoedown, which was well attended and quite a success, but they went to the Golden Doors and then had a delicious buffet dinner. We turned out in full force to be with our Newer Dancers for all of these events as well as sponsoring our own Hoedown in April. Our Hoedown was well supported by other area clubs and GEORGE DREIER was in top form. Do we have a yodeling caller in our midst? We were saddened by the death of our friend and long time club member Bill Tripp. Our thoughts and prayers are with Penny and the family. We will all miss Bill.

PAIRS 'N SPARES ... Vacation time seems to have started already but we are still dancing five plus squares each Tuesday. We enjoyed dancing with visitors from the TWO X FOUR'S and also from Chicago. Helen Razura was off to Europe with her daughter for a great trip. Following the Round Up fun some members are making plans for the Auburn Gold Country dance festival. Phyllis and Bob Newman are busy building their new home in Boulder Creek but we hope this fun couple will return often to dance with us. They have given generously of their time and talents over the years will be missed. The club will celebrate its 27th Anniversary with a hoedown on Sat. June 23rd. DAVE HOBAUGH will be calling, so come and enjoy the evening. .

GINGHAM SQUARES ... What a wonderful time we had in balmy Hawaii with our caller, DALE HOUCK and PHYLLIS. We all did our share of sightseeing, snorkeling, swimming and sunning and still had time for some terrific square dancing. Mahalo, to the five callers who made it possible. Mahalo, also, to all of you who joined us at our hoedown to dance to BRONC WISE. He gave us an evening filled with fun and great dancing. Thanks to the WRIGHTS who added so much to our enjoyment. They teach us the ROM the first Tuesday of each month. We would be happy to have you join us.

LEVIS & LACES ... A group of us attended the Spring Fling Hoedown, hosted by the S.F. REBELS. Jessie & Mel Gon and Ruth & Irv Green both won the door prizes. Congratulations one and all. We were pleased to have JIM DAVIS call for us while DOUG was in Hawaii. Welcome back, Edwina & Ed Walsh from your European vacation, Ginger & Mike Loyd and Karen & Roger Crawford from your Hawaiian vacations. We had a good representation at both the Golden State Convention and at the Silver State Convention in Reno.

CIRCULATORS ... A big thanks to John Williams for organizing the CIRCULATORS trip to the Silver State Convention, as always, those attending were the envy of us who had to stay behind. Our Easter Party included a potluck, (ask Dom Gardetti how to organize one without standing in line for food) and Easter hunt with Mark Seronik and Gil Morris finding the most eggs, and beautiful decorations by Estelle Fellows & Ed Whitney. Now we're looking forward to our annual picnic at the Walkers place on Bethel Isle.

ROADRUNNERS ... A great potluck and great festivities heralded the transformation of our Sept. class from Roadwalkers to ROADRUNNERS. Little do they know that they still have a few more plus calls to learn. We will continue teaching the Plus list on Tues. night and welcome any newer dancers needing more practice. Turlock was a weekend outing for 8 couples dancing to four great callers. That is when we weren't cooling off in the pool and listening to Western music at the hotel's after party. We did get our club dress act together just in time for the Round Up. It is fun to do the grand march. Making a small pattern in the sea of square dancers. Elections are coming up. We have to congratulate John Richy for his leadership during the year. Helping the club grow. Of course, he couldn't have done a thing without his able board. Thanks to them all.

ALBANY SQUARES ... We're a small club of 1½ to 2 squares and dance at the Albany Methodist Church on Tuesdays. Although small, a lot of fun is in store for you with this club. DOUG CLARK is our caller and he really keeps us moving. His patience with newer dancers helps them to enjoy and learn to square dance. Our beginners are doing great and we're starting a new class in June. DOUG recently called at the Square Dance Convention in San Diego which proved to be most enjoyable. See you at the ALBANY SQUARES.

TWO BY FOURS ... Because of the constantly rising cost of hall rental we have been forced to find another location for our hoedowns. Starting with our June 2nd dance we will be moving to Carlmont High School in Belmont. The Neilsen's had a wonderful time on a week's trip to Hawaii sponsored by DALE HOUCK, DOUG SAUNDERS and the RAWHIDE Record Group. We were displaced from Lincoln School workshops 2 night in April, so many of our people visited other clubs those two weeks. Hope to see you at Carlmont on June 2nd.

KALICO KATS ... Friday the 13th was not an unlucky night for the "KATS", it was a very good one, we had 4 squares plus a surprise 80th Birthday party for Cecil Westman. Cecil was completely surprised when BLAKE WESTMAN and his lovely wife BETTY arrived with a beautiful birthday cake which was enjoyed by all. We also had a surprise visit from Joe Livramento and Fred Shelton, after a long absence, both are recovering from recent surgery. They are looking great and we hope to have them back dancing real soon. Were glad to have Irma Cloonan back dancing after sitting on the sideline for 4 months. Thank you, all our faithful guests for your support. If you enjoy friendly dancing, come and join us.

CAPER CUTTERS ... Welcome to our new officers for 1984 who were installed at the So. S.F. Elks Club on Feb. 6th. Pres., Frank Fadhl, V.P., Mary Cordini, Secretary, Bertha Jones, Treasurer, Bernadette O'Connell. Monday nite workshops are fun. Our caller, KEITH GYLFE, putting us through our steps with Loan the Top, Ride the Wheel, Spin Chain and Exchange the Gears etc. Get well wishes to Mary Sargent. Our summer address, Grace Evangelical Luthern Church, 3201 Ulloa, starting June 4th at 8pm.

CABLE CAR SQUARES ... We will be spending the month of June getting everything ready for the Club's Anniversary Hoedown. Due to circumstances that have arisen the scene for this affair will be shifted to the SF Recreation Center for the Handicapped. Check the map given in the ad to find your way to this very fine, wooden-floored facility. This same site will be used for the special benefit hoedown and Dinner which is scheduled for Sept. 9th. If you've attended one of these in the past, you know you'll want to get your tickets early.

SQUARE CUTTERS ... Our special events chairperson Edie & Jerry Wasserkrug gave us another memorable evening. It started with a "Mexican" potluck dinner, that featured several gourmet dishes. Many wore hats of their original designs for Easter. Our caller, SENIOR HARRY WHITLOCK, maintained the flavor of the evening by his calling, and using latin types of singing calls. It was a great time for all members and guests. John Trappett, was a guest visitor from Adelaide, Australia. So nice to have you with us. We will be moving for the summer on June 28th, to the Ebenezer Luthern Church, at Portola Drive & Evelyn Street. Visitors are always welcome, and square dancing is fun. Enjoy it more in '84.

SPINNING WHEELS ... Too Long

REDWOOD EMPIRE

MARKWESTERNERS ... June, and lots of vacation trips coming up. Some of us have already been wherever they are going and will enjoy a lovely summer right in their own backyards. Marian and Ed Hakzela spent three lazy weeks exploring Guatemala with local friends. Nice to know folks in far away places no? Agnes and Keith Calden went off to explore our beautiful southwest checking the scene in Sedona, Arizona (is that poetic?). Bruce Canyon and spectacular spots in New Mexico. Then there is Betty Denton just returned from down under, the land of koalas and Aussies. Glad to see our guests from the Orchard, Eleanor & John Miller returned from a winter vacation in the desert. Much coming and going. Our Rose Festival was a grand success also the gold and silver Round-Ups. Go, go, go, that's us.

SINGLES & PAIRS ... Started April by welcoming Joyce Merchant into the club. That same week a bus load of the Newer Dancers retrieved our Banner from the Napa Valley Squares at the 2nd Annual Jamboree held at the Napa Silverado School. Oscar Montgomery drove while Ben Pidcock lead the cheers. The Host Club most generously made up a plastic tube with our name on it for our banner. Many thanks. The food was good too. Voted in at the April Business Meeting were all of the 56 applications from the New Dancer Class amid coffee and doughnuts. Those Newer Dancers are a going group. On the 5th Monday in April they hosted the Regulars to Pie Night. Aw who wants to go on a diet anyway. SAUCY SQUARES ... We have had a busy but fun month. We participated in the Sebastopol

Apple Blossom Parade on April 7th and received a third place award. That evening our Hoedown was well attended with TOM WALTON calling to 19 squares. HAZEL WISCHEMANN quod the rounds which many enjoyed. The after party was a lot of fun. Many of our members performed the Follies on stage. They may not have been Hollywood stars but they certainly were stars in our eyes. A lot of work, time and energy went into making the day a success which without a doubt was accomplished.

FAIRFIELD SWINGERS ... Our club elected new officers. They are Del Burgess, President, Larry Vicente, Vice-President, Patty McClain, Secretary, Diane Altham, Treasurer, and as always VANYA LEIGHTON, club caller. We wish to thank DOUG SAUNDERS, caller and ART KEBORT, round dance cuer for helping to make our March hoedown such a success. A good time was had by all. We enjoyed an evening of dancing with the TWIN CITY STEPPERS on March 22nd. The STEPPERS are to return the visit on April 12th to retrieve their banner taken by us. Congratulations to the SWINGERS Beginners Class, who graduated on March 1st. A graduation party is set for April 26th.

WHISTLE STOMPERS ... Well, spring has sprung and the square dancers are on the run. A bus loan of dancers from local clubs are headed for a fun weekend of square dancing and socializing in Reno. Our past President and ardent supporter, Hap Kinney, is now a grandmother for the first time. Can't you see that proud look! Her son and daughter-in-law, living in Southern California, are the parents of this newly arrived son.

QUESTION MARKS ... In April our club caller TOM WALTON called to a bulging & rocking Wischemann Hall in Sebastopol for the Apple Blossom Festival. Bill Massey, the Palmers, Perrys & Pools spent Easter weekend at Casa de Fruta dancing to KIP GARVEY and BRONC WISE. Our June 23rd dance at Monroe Hall in Santa Rosa will feature BILL PETERS calling a plus level dance with star tips and JOHN RETTER doing the rounds. For a fun time this is a must dance. See you there.

RAINBOW STROLLERS ... We were treated to an exhibition of precision close, order drilling by the Combat Systems Technical School Command from Mare Island Naval Station. This well trained group uses rifles with fixed bayonets, and part of their routine includes the aerial exchange of these rifles past a lone person standing in the center of their circle. After their outstanding demonstration caller NATE BLISS jokingly said, "You can tell who the bad guy is, he's the one who has to stand in the middle". Wrong thing to say, NATE! Their last demonstration included NATE at the center of the circle. NATE knows how to follow orders. He was told to stand absolutely still, and he certainly did! (He turned white, but he didn't move!)

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES ... On April 14th, JOEL KADISH called a great hoedown for us. Hosts for the evening were the Woodsides, Freitas and the Heads. Many thanks to the committee for serving cool jellós on a hot evening. On March 24th we had our Spring Fling which turned out to be a luau with lots of Hawaiian dishes. Many thanks to our entertainment committee of Eve

& Frank Wolfe, John & Grace Vandermade and Louie & Nancy Azevedo. Thanks also goes to Clarence & Charlotte Freitas for supplying the music for the evening. On May 12th we will be celebrating our Anniversary, is it that time already? Come join us and dance to MIKE WRIGHT & JOHN RETTER.

CLEARLAKE AREA

KONOCI KICKERS ... Lake County's 5th Annual Pear Blossom Square Dance Festival was all we hoped it would be. There were 2 nights and 1 day of dancing. We were fortunate to have DAVE HOBAUGH, BILL PETERS & JACK MURTHA along with CHIC THRASHER & VANYA LEIGHTON calling for us. Thanks also to the FOSTERS for calling the rounds. the clogging exhibition was terrific too. The whole affair was concluded with an after party attended by a wild & crazy bunch. Many thanks to BERT SWERER, CHIC THRASHER and our own lady caller VANYA LEIGHTON for calling at the after party. It was so nice of you to try and call what we were doing. We're looking forward this month to dancing to MIKE WRIGHT on June 9th from 8-11. Hope to see you there.

CLEARLAKE SQUARES ... DALE HOUCK called a great hoedown for us March 24th. What a fabulous time we had at our Pear Blossom Festival dancing to DAVE HOBAUGH, BILL PETERS, JACK MURTHA, WARD & JOYCE FOSTER, GLENN BYLUND, WAYMON GODWIN, VANYA LEIGHTON and CHIC THRASHER. Everyone enjoyed the exhibitions put on by the Marysville COUNTRY CLOGGERS and by WARD & JOYCE FOSTER. We had a hilarious after party

Sat. night with callers from the floor. The included BERT SWERER, ROBBIE ROBINSON, VANYA LEIGHTON and CHIC THRASHER. Plans are underway for next year's Pear Blossom Festival with JOE SALTEL & ERIC HENERLAU and JIM & BARBARA BARNES, already booked. Coming up are the Rhododendron Festival in Eureka May 4th & 5th and our Mystery Trip May 19th. VANYA LEIGHTON will be calling our April 28th hoedown.

MARIN COUNTY

BUZZIN' BOOTS ... The club has a new slate of officers: President, Bob Hall, Vice President, Trudy Wendt, Treasurer, Ollie Nicholson, Secretary, Ruth Sempell. The outgoing board gave a potluck dinner for the new board at Dorothy Boswell's. Everyone did more than their share of eating. Our Spring Fling had an unusual start, we were unable to get into the hall. However, after two hour's delay in getting into Vallecito ROGER MORRIS gave a fantastic hoedown. The decorations were also superb. Thanks to Don Woford for finding someone to "open the doors"!

TAM TWIRLERS ... We have been active learning various A-1 calls, to keep members and guests dancing we have teach/review tips each dance night. We congratulate Don & Carol Woford on their new home. They moved in on March 15th but still have a few jobs to complete. Bill & Gretchen Dakin just returned from a highly enjoyable vacation skiing in the Austrian Alps. The club won the coffee at the SQUAWS & PAWS Hoedown in April with 11 couples attending.

REDWOOD DIAMONDS ... Did you

all have a happy Easter? I know we did at our house and I know it was an especially happy Easter for the HENERLAU household having little RICHARD back with them again after five weeks in the hospital. Our club members are working hard and really concentrating on their plus level dancing. Our beginners will graduate soon and then we will all work on bringing up everyone to a good strong plus level. Al & Jean Levesque were back dancing with us after quite a few weeks absence, as were Don & Shirley Madden, though Don was just lending moral support as he twisted his knee and could only look on. Be sure to join us at our Hoedown this month at the Vallecito School in Terra Linda. Look for our ad. We promise a really good time (with lots of goodies) for everyone.

STUMP JUMPERS ... April 8th found 27 members enjoying great dinners at Sonoma Joe's. Thanks GLEN DICKEY and 23 SQUAWS & PAWS for a surprise visit to our April 18th Workshop. It was fun! Come again. April 25th was the big night for 25 new graduates with a big pot luck and festivities with our famous S.F. dancers joining us. Always a smash hit! Thanks Brenda Crouch for a great graduation cake, stump and all! Also a surprise birthday cake was presented to BUNNY MILANO on her very special birthday. We wish you many more. Get well soon, Louise Manges, from your surgery. Good to see Ken Place back with us, family to follow in June.

MAVERICKS ... A MARIN MAVERICK, our friend, Vena Saunders, Died April 11th after a bout with cancer. Our sympathy is extended to her husband Joe and the family. We'll miss her. Vee & Joe were our club President three years ago. Vee helped make our club banner. Her mother, Mrs. Monroe, was our clubs adopted Grandmother, until she died, just before Vee's illness. April 18th, District 8 held their meeting, our workshop night, Director Peter Oser presided. Refreshments and dancing followed. Connie Judson, retired, after 27 years with Pacific Bell. Congratulations to you. Les Farber is back from a 2 week trip to Israel. Aileen & Dick Taylor are on a cruise to Acapulco. Helen & Ray King enjoyed dancing to KEN BOWER at the Spring Jamboree. Grape Festival, in Lodi. Happy Easter to all.

M.O.D. SQUAD ... Sheriff Elton Gray and taw Opal are back dancing after a months absence and checking on the memberships forgotten badges. Glad you'er back. Jim & Nita Hallstrom represented the club at the 26th California State Square Dance Convention in San Diego. Jim lived in San Diego at one time and has relatives and friends there. Norman Vaughan is leaving us again for sea duty. We will miss him. 13 of our members and former members joined Ray Bettencourt and taw Nina and his group of Square Dancers for a cruise to Mexico on the Nieuw Amsterdam. Evie & Lou Champion are armed with a fist full of names, addresses, and telephone numbers to call for square dancing their way from California to Georgia.

NOVATO SQUARES ... Badges were passed on as Jack and Jerry Goldthorpe and their officers stepped down after a successful and fun filled term. A potluck dinner and dance celebrated the occasion. New officers are: Ed Schmidt, Pres.

Celeste Pearce, V-Pres., Secretary, Vivian Mazar, Treasurer, Lee Thomson. Dick & Jackie Cole were voted in as lifetime members. The club has been traveling with camping trips to the Ukiah district dance and the Pear Festival. Ken & Dee Satrom's new trailer was initiated with 17 dancers coming aboard. Lefty and Maribelle Iverson are leading round dances from 7:30 to 8pm and between squares. Welcome back to these two beautiful people. Our summer Plus One and Plus Two open workshop review starts May 17th.

EAST BAY AREA

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS ... This month we have some good news and bad news. First for the bad news, Paula Lavin, one of our newer members, has Mono and Hepatitis. If that isn't bad enough, her husband, Bud, has been attending our dance sessions on a regular basis, dancing his legs and appearing to have a great time. (You could at least look a little lonesome, Bud.) Also in the bad news category, Fern's Mom is not doing to well and Fern has been racing back and forth from here to Southern Calif. every few days. Also, Bill Jasvin is back in the hospital. Good luck, Bill. Now for the good news, Mildred & George made it back safely from Yugoslavia, and had a wonderful time. (Actually George didn't have a wonderful time the last few days, he succumbed to one of those malidys that occasionally attach travellers. Also, Betty and AD got off on their trip to the orient. These jet setters are a pain, the rest of us are lucky if we get to Lake

Merritt a couple times a year.
KEEWAY SWINGERS ... This month we had the pleasure of dancing to ROGER MORRIS at the NCSDA Stampede, KEN KENMILLE, MIKE DEGMETICH, the SMITH'S at the RAFTER ROCKERS, CLAUDE ROSS at the barn, CHARLIE BROWN at Walters, DARRYL MCMILLAN, ELMER SHEFFIELD at the Richmond Auditorium, DENNY LANTZ at Walters. these were all great dances and a big thank you to the Clubs and Association. We would like to thank Lloyd & Betty for planning our dinner and the show at the Opera House Melodrama, you know how to plan a fun night. Congratulations to our new elected officers: President, Ted & Rosemarie Holcombe, V.P., Bill & Yvonne Archer, Secretary, Chuck & Paula Wilkinson and Treasurer Howard & Jane Miller. See you in a square.
SOLOS & PAIRS ... Due to Easter & Spring vacation, our school was closed for a week in April, but our 3 weeks of dancing were exciting as usual. Always have new people stopping by, real nice to see Lynn Stark again. Barbara & Davie Belvel are on a 3 week jaunt to Yugoslavia, and Bill & Maryann are planning another trip to Europe soon. Our best wishes to Ann Williamson who is temporarily out of dancing, she is also a frequent visitor.

CHECKMATES ... Our fun social for last month was a Sunday Brunch at the Flying Lady Restaurant in Morgan Hill. (Weren't we lucky that we arranged for this before the earthquake!) Because this is such an interesting place and the company delightful, a good time was had by all. The Grape Festival in Lodi turned out to be a great weekend for the Mintz's, Johnsons, Holmans and Culvers. They recommend it for everyone next year. We're glad that Martha Murphy is recovering so well from her foot surgery. It's nice to have her at club night even if she's not dancing yet. And, Jack we're pleased to have you looking at us again with both eyes. If you want to know why there are big smiles on Rod and Marilyn's faces, it's because they are so proud of their new names, "grandma & grandpa."

KUNTRY KUZINS ... Our newer dancers graduated May 9th with honors and good humor at our antics. The 8 couples are into plus dancing so they will be joining us for the next few weeks for all the plus calls as well as the Quarterly calls. We are very proud of them, and welcome them to our club. The Garfinkles, Caller TERRY MOSIER, and all who came early to help, deserve a vote of thanks. Merrill and Ann Summerhill have returned from their month long trip to the Midwest and the East. We trust they had a great time and we look forward to dancing with them soon. Election night is scheduled May 24th, good luck to the candidates. We are looking forward to the State Round Up. See you there.
EDEN ROCKERS ... The new panel of officers presented on April 4th was as follows: President, Stew & Jean Mouser, Vice Pres., Guy and Betty Townsend, Treasurer, Ralph Chambers Secretary, Millie & Earl George. Words cannot adequately express our gratitude toward the outgoing officers who so thoughtfully planned and executed a year of memorable fun events such as the cruise on the bay. That was a Wowzer! Two successful Hoedowns which brought profit as well as fun. How about the potluck dinner with standing rib roasts furnished by the club and cooked by a real chef! Nice! Ah yes, it was a very good year. Our many April visitors included once again the well known ED FERRARIO and Everly Betterton.

EAGLE SQUARES ... We're still dancing although we haven't been getting our activities on the printed page. In Jan. Bob & Betty Coates attended the mid-year meeting of United Square Dancers of America in Dillard, Ca. Betty is Secretary of this organization of Square Dancers. Our March Hoedown with BILL PETERS and the MC KINNEY'S was a great success. We thank all who attended. The following Friday two squares of us RV'd to the Amador County Fairgrounds for a Western Slopes Camp and Dance Weekend with Mirth & Howard Banta, old-time EAGLES. We'll do that again! Congratulations to our new board. Taking office in June are: David Curry & Linda Jensen, Pres., Milo & Betty Kopp, V.P., Evie & Larry Bakken, Sec., Ed & Diane Wahl, Treasurer.

SQUARE CIRCLES ... April 14th, a lucky night for square dancing at the Barn, TERRY & CRICKET MOSIER arranged to have CLAUDE ROSS, a caller from Blue Springs, Missouri, visit and call a ticket hoe-down. CLAUDE made it a real party night, hope we see him again sometime. April 26th another fun night when club and beginners danced for Viacom Cablevision, Jim Burt, the Manager of Viacom, mingled among the dancers to record on video tape the twirling ladies with their high swinging skirts, very colorful this was to promote interest for the building of the Red Barn in San Ramon. Excitement is building as the graduation dinner and party draws near, it will be held at the Pleasanton & Livermore Elks Club in Springtown in May.

LONGHORNS ... It must be spring. We are on the move again. BLAKE and family relaxed at Hawaii where he had to go at surfing. Margaret Davoli cruised to Greece and its islands. then Mannings are flying the other way to Korea. Mexico is popular with the Carpenters on a cruise and Joe & Cookie Montalto headed for Acapulco. The Cushmans are going to San Marcos to visit the Storeys, our former members. BOB SOUTHERN is keeping us on our toes with new calls every week, and cued rounds between tips. Come join us some Tuesday.

SAN LORENZO SINGLES ... Our beginners are looking forward to graduation. They are close to the end of their class, and RICHARD has done a great job teaching them. The Round-Up was well attended by our club and as usual everyone had a good time. The new club outfit looked real nice. Lottie Roe has had a foreign exchange student with her this past summer. Welcome back to Ken Dye, who has returned to the area. Bonnie Genovese who has been sporting a cast, finally got rid of it, but has continued her duties as Treas. We hope it won't be too long before she will be dancing again. Our club is preparing for our Anniversary Hoedown June 16th, see you all there.

RANCHERO SQUARES ... We had a good time at the NCSDA Stampede in Ukiah, that is once we decided where it was. TERRY & CRICKET MOSIER were going to Eureka, JOEL & SUSIE KADISH to Yreka and the Browns, Lanes, Mosiers, Thompsons, Lafferty's and Parodi's to Ukiah. TERRY & JOEL called a great dance and fun was had by all. To top off the weekend we had a special tour and tasting at the Wieble Winery with the Manager & his wife, friends of Gloria & Bruce Brown. There was no club dancing Easter week because our caller TERRY MOSIER had a well deserved vacation. Hope you all had a Happy Easter. See ya all at the Round-Up.

ODD'S 'N END'S ... For some unknown reason our news did not appear in the May issue, but we are still here! Note our club ad and the listings of our classes under Wednesday and Thursday headings. ED FERRARIO called for our first beginners class on April 25th, and everyone had a good time. He even taught "yellow rock" on the first night. LARRY MANNING & GERTRUDE KHUNER are also doing a great job on Thursday nights. Elsie Lorang was out for a while due to an operation and Ann Williamson is temporarily disabled. We wish them both a speedy recovery. We need square dancers in order to exist as a club. We are reviewing plus level and teaching A-1 and A-2. Please come join us!

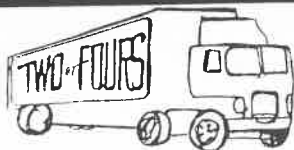

SKIRTS & FLIRTS ... Club members are asked to help with the Hospitality room this year at the Round-Up. April 11th the club had an Easter Hat Parade. There were a lot of original ideas with Billie Bassett and Al Weissman as prize winners. On April 13th & 14th many club members attended the Spring Jamboree in Lodi. Reports were good weather, good callers and a good time. Election time is drawing near. Karen Terpstra is chairperson on the nominating committee. Lets all be present at the next business meeting. Remember our Hoedown June 9th.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS ... RELLER'S RAIDERS in March raided the RANCHERO SQUARES, and in April raided the FARMERS & FARMERETTES. We sure had a great time at both clubs. We thank you for a fun evening. Plans are in the making to provide some entertainment for the All Seasons Riding Academy's 1984 Summer Games, Saturday, June 3rd. All Seasons Riding Academy proudly boasts of having the largest All Handicapped Equestrian Event in the world. Thanks to Stel Papadopoulos, we were given the opportunity to help with their activities. Come join us for our 30th Anniversary Hoedown, June 3rd at Walters Jr. High, Fremont, MARV LINDNER calling. Fun, fun, fun! Effective June 19th we will be dancing at Fremont Unified School District Administration Office, 40775 Fremont Blvd. for the summer.

SDCANC PUBLICITY

Our Association was well represented at the CallerLab Convention in Chicago in April. Attending were: Dave Hobaugh, Dorothy Peeler, Bill Peters, Bill Davis, Dick Heñschel, Jim Hilton. Sorry if we missed your name. The callers class has graduated and will put on a Mainstream Hoedown in June. Dorothy Peeler's callers class II is coming along well. President, Bud Wolkins conducted a good short meeting so we could attend Golden Doors. The latest CallerLab basics was reported on by Dorothy. Your caller will clue you in on the latest movements.
