NOTE TO DANCE PROGRAMMERS:
There is NO PROGRAM called MAINSTREAM QUARTERLY SELECTIONS PROGRAM. Those experienced calls are intended for use in Mainstream workshops. No dancer is required to know the OS calls to attend a MS open dance. If such calls are used the Caller is to teach them if necessary. Please advertise dance programs as MS NOT MSOS.

PLEASE LIMIT YOUR CALLS TO THE ADVERTISED PROGRAM. DO NOT USE A CALL FROM A LIST OTHER THAN ADVERTISED UNLESS YOU WALK IT OR WORKSHOP IT FIRST.

CALLERLAB recommends 29 sessions of 2-2½ hours each or approximately 60 hours of instruction to teach the BASIC PROGRAM (Calls 1-49). 41 sessions to teach the MAINSTREAM PROGRAM (Calls 1-68). Do not teach from just a single position/formation and remember to teach styling as well. Calls in italics may be deferred until later.

If conducting a PLUS workshop, please use only PLUS CALLS. If conducting a workshop for Plus Dancers who want more, please label the workshop appropriately. Clyde "Mac" McGill

Clyde "Mac" McGill and his lovely wife Betty moved here from North Carolina only a short year ago. They brought with them Southern Hospitality and much love. Mac called for the Concord Rebels and the Highland Swingers. He died suddenly of a massive coronary on July 8, 1984. He will indeed be greatly missed in our area. Our sympathy and prayers go to his lovely wife Betty.

CLUB NEWS

CONTRA COSTA AREA

CLUTCHBUSTERS ... Come dance with us this summer at the horseman's club in Concord. It's cool inside and you'll have the time of your life. Call Steve Boigon at 829-9522, or 680-6723 for info. Our annual picnic this June drew over 120 people with lots of food, food and more food, oh yes, games too. We plan summer campouts, bus trips, dinner dances and potlucks. Our Beginners class starts in September. We sponsor hoe-downs and BILL BANKERT always has something new up his sleeve. Our Club is fun, we'll make you feel at home. Join us soon. Don't forget our August 18th Hoedown.

CONCORD STOMPERS ... On June 24th a combination potluck and board meeting was held at the lovely home of Don & Caroline Holst where the incoming board members were welcomed and a big thank you given to the outgoing members. The new officers are: President, Don & Caroline Holst, Plus Level Vice President, Hugh and Frances Courtright, Secretary, Barbara Fujikawa. Congratulations and best wishes for a very enjoyable year. The outgoing officers who did such a tremendous job this past year: Plus Level Vice President, Jim & Marian Perry, Secretary, Jim & Jean Davis. Friday, Aug. 17th will see GARY SHOEMAKE whooping it up for us at a Plus Level hoedown. See you all there.

GUYS & DOLLS ... Things have been pretty quiet around here this month, with so many of our members away on vacation. A number of us did get up to Ft. Bragg for DAVE HOBAUGH'S great dance and Salmon Barbeque. We had two squares perform at Concord's 4th of July Celebration in Tatos Santos Park. We will be doing several exhibitions over the course of the summer to promote our next beginners class. We're very pleased that Wayne Kelly is recovering so nicely from his recent by-pass surgery. The doctors say that they will have him dancing with us again within a couple of months. Wayne & Ruth have been sorely missed by everyone. We would like to extend our congratulations to the SQUARENADERS who danced for President & Mrs. Regan at the White House in route to the National Square Dance Convention in Baltimore.

SQUARE WHEELERS ... June turned into a suprisingly busy month. Our Teddy Bear picnic was well orchestrated by the able hands of Charles & June Duffy and John & Phillis Thornberry. Thanks guys for the superb effort. Club participation in Myrin's inventory (followed by a pizza and beer bust) helped significantly to sweeten our spartan coffers. A special well done to these giving up a Saturday evening to lend a hand. The selection process looking toward a new caller culminated in ED TAUSIG being invited to take over the calling chores. Welcome aboard ED, having you around guarantees a bright future for the club.

ANTIOCH AMBLERS ... The AMBLERS had a good showing at the Golden State Round-Up. Many rode Bart to avoid parking problems. Those who attended Sunday Brunch and Fashion Show enjoyed. June Fukuchi won a door prize! Just one week later, 28 of us and DREW ANDERSON, and his wife CATHY, traveled to Reno for the Silver State Square Dance Festival. We were scattered through out Reno, but found each other for the Grand March and a tip or two. Our new club dress for summer really looked nice and drew many compliments. June saw a new slate of Officers as elections were held. Glen & Mel Stolhand were elected as co-presidents, Chuck & Beverly Van Frank Vice-Presidents, Dan & Glendie White, Secretary and Jim & Dori McNary, Treasurer. We are looking forward to July and our annual Canoe Trip down the Russian River.

YELLOW ROCK SINGLES ... Since we started a little late, we will be having our first ever graduation hoedown on July 20th with DREW ANDERSON calling. Many of our newer dancers attended both the Golden State and Silver State Round-Up. A great time was had by all. All you Singles (couples welcome too) that are looking for a great place to dance, we'd love to have you come and visit with us. We're dancing at the Grace Episcopal Church in Martinez for the rest of the summer. We dance on Monday nights from 8-10 and round dance class starts at 7:00.

NORTH BAY AREA

CATCH ALL EIGHTS ... WAYNE JANSSEN called for us during BERTS three week vacation. Thank you WAYNE for a fine job well done. Our slate of officers is Al & Edna Jensen as President, Jeff Rodman & Adrian Hirt, Vice President, Ed & Pam Costello, Secretary and Eva Black, Treasurer.. Beginners class has got us hopping. All members are thinking of what to bring to our picnic. We have such good cooks its bound to be something one won't forget for a long time. John Jacobson does a fine job of organizing it with the help of Al Jensen and Harry Wright it's bound to be a crowd pleaser.

OLD CAPITOL SQUARES ... Our club was well represented at the Silver State in Reno and the dancing was great. Then on June 10th we were happy to dance at the annual Benicia Country Fair. DICK ARMSTRONG called for us in the absence of our own caller. DOROTHY PEELER and her husband, BUCK, were on vacation for 2 weeks and ELMER RADCLIFFE substituted on our workshop nights. Thanks to both DICK & ELMER for filling in for DOROTHY. A camping weekend was enjoyed by several of our members and their families on June 23rd and 24th. Our Social Committee has planned a variety of activities for us to enjoy. The FAIRFIELD SWINGERS visited us on June 26th and a good time was had by all.

SAN FRANCISCO AREA

TWO BY FOURS ... Kudos to the Nielsens. They reserved a hospitality room and George turned in all the aluminum cans we collected. Thus we had funds to pay for an adjacent room, ideal for relaxing between sessions at the Round-Up. Mark Olivier successfully planned our picnic, and Evie Kende directed our adult games. These picnics are great to see how our families change. We cuddled new babies, cautiously observed the teenagers, played games, and enjoyed visiting with grandparents. It is so nice to meet our members families once a year.

ROADRUNNERS ... The big event this month was the installation of new officers. We thank our outgoing President, John Richey, and his Board for their excellent leadership. We hope that John will continue to favor us with his now famous "rib-ticklers" from time to time. We welcome our new officers, headed by Andy Blundell, President, and look forward to another fun filled year. A special thanks to Veda McIlmoil, our sunshine lady who never lets us miss a birthday or other noteworthy event. We have such behind the scenes talent and we thank all who have contributed to making this an outstanding club. There are far too many good cooks as evidenced by the fantastic turnouts for pot-lucks and picnics. Good thing our new club outfits have stretchy waistlines. Thanks to our caller, BOB ALGEA, for providing an excellent substitute while he was gone. BILL BANKERT did a great job of keeping us hopping.

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTES
San Francisco Chapter ... Our B'N'B Chicken Hop bus trip was a big success, with our caller JIM WYLIE, coming along for the fun. BILL PETERS called a great dance for the HIGHLAND SWINGERS, the Crosa's won a beautiful shawl and a bottle of wine. Went to hear GLEN DICKEY call for NOVATO STUMP JUMPERS, had fresh fruit salads and nutbreads. Enjoyed PAIR'S & SPARES 27th Anniversary, with DAVE HOBAUGH calling a fast moving dance. Had delicious hamburgers, sandwiches and cake, our Ruby won a door prize. As this goes to press, Bob Dittman, Ruby Hutchinson, the Stradfords and Crosa's are on their way to the National at Baltimore, Maryland for a week of tours and square dancing.

SQUARE CUTTERS ... Hosted the 5th Thursday in May for the 49'ERS and FRANCISCAN STOMPERS. A large attendance from all three clubs enjoyed excellent dancing, and calling by our club caller HARRY WHITLOCK, for the 49'ERS, DALE HOUCK, FRANCISCAN STOMPERS and HOWARD HILLYER. The next get together will be Aug. 30th. All the club members that attended the Round Up reported having a wonderful time, and enjoyed the workshops and dancing to the out of area callers. Barbara & Bernie Vas are on their way to the National Square Dance Convention at Baltimore, Maryland. Our caller HARRY, is now working on the new Callerlab plus Quarterly selection "Chase the Tag" and reviewing many of the other plus figures. LAVERNE WHITLOCK is teaching the new round dance "Susie", selected for the month of June. Visitors are always welcome, so come join the fun this summer.

CAPER CUTTERS ... Nice to see Wendell Lathrop drop by and dance a tip or two. Glad to see you recovering nicely. Get well wishes to Evelyn Pickerell who had surgery on her hand. Vacationing this past summer are the Bodmer's in Florida, the Fadhl's in Spain, the Gon's in Hawaii, Iacopi's in Canada. Some of our members put on a dance demonstration for Laguna Honda Hospital patients.. KEITH GYLFE called the squares and KEN & ELENA cued the rounds. Kudo's to Paul Hungerford who so thoughtfully arranged this dance. Visitors welcome.

SUNDANCE SQUARES ... Tuesday & Wednesday night classes will meet at the Albany Sr. Center, Solano & Masonic until September, then back to Middle School, New Beginners (Tues.) 7-8:30, Experienced Beginners, 8:30-10:15, Intro to Advanced (Wed.) 7:30-9, A-1 & 2, 9:00-10:30. RON'S workshops have been terrific and his singing calls fantastic. He leaves us laughing, "whahooing" and bubbling with joy and excitement. Enjoy a special treat, come join us in the fun. You will find our group warm and friendly. Everyone gets to dance. Call Norma for further information at 526-7539.

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS ... We have a new Program Chairman Vangy Kelly, and a new Social Chairman, Gladys Woodd. Elaine Redler is still steering the ship as President. The rest of the officers remained the same. Spent a happy time with the LEVI'S & LACES at their 4th of July picnic, dancing and watching the fireworks pot luck. Thank them for inviting us. Danced to DAVE HOBAUGH and the PAIRS & SPARES. They really do have interesting refreshments each time. Also had a "specially good" time at the Ice Cream Frolic with KIP GARVEY and the SKIRTS & FLIRTS. Met some folks we had not seen for awhile. Some of our newer members joined the Running Bears and NATE BLISS for a Sunday Afternoon dance. PAIRS 'N SPARES ... Our recent graduates are now joining the club Tuesday nights as HOWARD HILLYER continues to bring them up to club level. They are doing great. DAVE HOBAUGH called a super dance for our Anniversary Hoedown, and the refreshment committee served some surprise & tasty goodies. Thanks to all who attended. Traveling time for some members. The Merella's headed for Europe, Fern & Clarence Barnes cruised to Alaska while Paul & Carol Olivier went to England, Scotland, Wales and Paris. One highlight of the trip was in Blackpool where they attended a mystery drama in which the audience participated in the solution. Our sympathy to the Calloni's on the death of Val's brother. Hawaiian hoe-down Aug. 25th, Aloha.

CIRCULATORS ... We really surprised our Chairman, Marge Walker on her birthday. First, everyone else arrived in casual clothes, and she and Paul were fined for being in Square Dance outfits, then, at a given signal, everyone pulled balloons from their pockets, blew them up and decorated the hall, a birthday cake, games of pin-the-mustache-on-Selleck, and bean bag toss, all appeared like magic. Margaret Cunningham & Elaine Wilson were the big prize winners for the evening. Our thanks go to Bev Andreozzi, Gloria Rinck and Daisy Stanley for organizing this fun evening, and if you'd like to see just how surprised Marge was, just come take a look at our photo album.

CLODHOPPERS ... Not only are our newer dancers progressing in their Plus Program but they have started traveling for dancing too. Some of them attended the Monterey Festival, danced until they could dance no more, and had a marvelous time. Many of our couples will be on vacation in September or have already been on vacation. Such delightful places as Hawaii, various countries in Europe, and around the USA to. So Vacation Travel will be the theme of our September Hoedown. Look for our ad in this months issue. We hope you will be dancing with us to the great calling of DALE HOUCK and the WRIGHTS on the rounds.

LEVIS & LACES ... Lorraine & George Norris have been a busy couple these days. They married off their son, congratulations. They also attended the Square dance Camp at Golden, Colorado, "The Lighted Lantern", with Jeanne & Bill Gearhart. Welcome back Jessie Gon, we were sorry to hear about your accident. Our club had a number of visitors from all parts of the world, including Japan, New Zealand and Saudi Arabia. We have also had guests from Arizona, New Mexico and Utah. Everyone is welcome. Come and see us!

LONGHORNS ... We started the new dancing year with a pot-luck dinner to inaugurate the new officers: Hamann's, President, Genest's, Vice President Margiott, Secretary and the Cushmans, Treasurer. The Eckes were fishing in Alaska, evenings till dusk, about midnight. We have another sick list with Ginny Cushman recovering from a fall and Don Shoree from an operation. The Johnsons went home to Kentucky for a wedding. A school session at Kansas City starts the Cunninghams on a vacation through the Canadian glaciers to Vancouver and Victoria. Allens and Duncans are off to eastern Europe and leaving next year's news to the Burnetts.

CABLE CAR SQUARES ... Anniversary hoedowns are always very special affairs, and we thank our friends and guests who enjoyed the calling of KIP GARVEY (as usual) and the bountiful snacks of our talented taws (also, as usual). With Marie Poggio as President, Dick Gorman, Vice-President, Secretary, Florinda Yatco and Treasurer, Lillian Sevier as our leaders, the club is looking forward to even further augmentation of newer dancers from our Kiddie Kar Class. The Club's special thanks and appreciation go to Frank and First Lady Anna Bradbury for their leadership this past year.

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTE'S San Mateo Chapter ... With the advent of summer comes the end of class sessions and the beginning of vacations, picnics and Saturday night hoedowns. So, with much revelry and some solemnity, our Monday night class graduated in June. Congratulations and happy dancing to our new dancers and a warm welcome to our new members. July ended on a happy note at our annual swim party and barbeque. Please come and enjoy the merriment at the Mainliner on Mondays.

KALICO KATS ... We would like to wish all square dancers a happy & safe vacation. Please remember that we are dancing at the Broadmoor Presbyterian church located at 377 87th St. in Daly City through Aug. 31st and we will return to Thomas Edison School Sept. 7th. It was nice having Fred Shelton & Joe Livramento visit with us recently. Both are looking great and Joe expects to be back dancing real soon. We are happy to see all our regular guests attending every week and we invite all who enjoy a fun filled evening of dancing to come join us. RICH MANSFIELD will be calling and teaching us new calls as usual.

GINGHAM SQUARES ... Our caller, DALE HOUCK, and PHYLLIS earned a rest after the tremendous job he did of organizing the callers and she the fashion show, at the Round-Up. While they're having fun on vacation, we're having fun dancing to BILL DAVIS. BILL joined us for our potluck barbecue where the men broiled our steaks perfectly. Bernice Schwarz did a super job, along with her committee, of organizing the dinner. We were happy to have George with us, too. We would like to see you every Tuesday night, George.

BUZZIN CUZZIN'S ... This has been a busy month what with graduation, preceded by a great spaghetti dinner, thanks to Mike, Cindy,, Eleanor and their crew. Our caller MIKE WRIGHT, was presented with a club shirt and tie from the club and newer dancers. The newer dancers presented a belt buckle to our President, Forrest, a lovely bouquet of roses to Theresa, our past dance co-ordinator and a pretty corsage to our new dance co-ordinator, Gloria, in appreciation for all their help. All dancers who went to Silver State came back with stories of a great time. Our thanks for a great evening of dancing to ERIC HENNERLAU who subbed for MIKE. Our sympathies to MIKE & JANICE WRIGHT in the loss of her mother.

REDWOOD EMPIRE

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES ... ERIC HENNERLAU & MIKE SZAFRANSKI did a fine job of calling for us on June 9th. Chairperson for the evening were the Solheims, Canadys and the Paines. Congratulations to our Past President Dick Lloyd. He now has a playground named after him, in honor of several years of dedicated service. On June 24th, we traveled to Marabel Park for our annual family picnic. Six of us made it a long weekend by arriving on Friday. Many thanks to the Vandermade's, Solheim's and the Week's. Ken & Bea Cunningham celebrated their 45th Anniversary on the day of the picnic. They were surprised with a cake baked by Betty Bruton. It's good to see Claire. Shone out so soon after her recent surgery. We hope to see her out on the dance floor before too long. Come join us on August 11th for an evening with DAVE HOBAUGH & JOHN RETTER.

DIAMOND DANCERS ... Our first ever hoedown July 21st was a great success thanks to the inspired calling of NATE BLISS and our own BOB ELLING. We appreciate the response of all you advanced dancers. We'll have more advanced hoedowns soon. Thanks also to KELLY MIZUNO and RON WELCH, the first in a series of all star guest callers, who called at our A-2 Friday night workshops in July. Our new administrators, Abbott & Danny Johnson, and the board, comprising Walt & Phyllis Brown, Betty Denton, Clarence & Charlotte Freitas, Fred & Rose Lansing and Jim & Marge Pool, are smoothing our transition to a member-run club. Thanks Clarence for that sign you've installed for us in Monroe Hall and thanks Jim for the eye catching graphics you've designed for our ads.

QUESTION MARKS ... Had a three day campout over Memorial Day weekend at Lakeport. Skiing in Clearlake, this early in the season, was delightful. The water was clear and the weather was hot. Bill Massey, Dean & Jan Palmer, Chuck & Marlene Perry and Jim & Marge Pool enjoyed an exhausting week at McCloud dancing to BOB FISK. The men found time to catch enough trout for a fish fry. Our August 25th hoedown, at Monroe Hall in Santa Rosa, feature NATE BLISS calling a plus level dance with two A-1 Star Tips. LARRY & KAREN WILLIAMS will be cueing the rounds. Come on out and join us.

WHISTLE STOMPERS ... With the summer season in full swing, many of our members are taking vacations. Dale & Kay Crawford will be going on an extended camping tour of the mountain states, and Hap Kinney has already left for a trip in the south. She will visit with Bud & Thelma Ealum and then they will go on to the Square Dance Festivities in Baltimore. Although some of our members have been away, we have had visitors from many areas who are likewise on vacation. Our annual rummage sale was held on June 23rd in Sonoma. The response for requests of donations was so great that we are seriously planning another sale later in the summer.

MARKWESTERNERS ... Our summertime '84 finds Gene & Doris Smith shooting the rapids at Cache Creek. Pronounced cash or crash depending on one's ability to pilot a rubber raft in white water! Our caller RON JOHNSON and Linda celebrating her 20th class reunion in Merced, Dave & Marge Florence jazzing up their summer hideaway in Nevada City, Betty Denton enjoying the freedom of a new camper-van and a whole bunch of us dancing at Snoopy's Ice Arena, a benefit performance yet! A first visitor to our club was Joline King, granddaughter of John & Jean, a gregarious young lady just like g'ma and g'pa. We are happy to have our Lousie Dunford back with us after a timeout for eye surgery. She says: the old world is looking better to her now. Watch for our Luau September 15th.

SINGLES & PAIRS ... 83/84 President Darlene Dobrovolsky thanked everyone at the June Business Meeting for helping her during her term of office. the new 84/85 officers are: President, Ben Pidcock, 1st Vice Pres., Darlene Dobrovolsky 2nd Vice Pres., Gene Govaerts, Secretary, Marge Kinder Pierce Treasurer, Rose Marsh, Assist. Treasurer, Ruth Govaerts. The 84/85 dues ($3.75) were due July 1st. Don't forget S&P and SAUCY SQUARES joint potluck and games night Friday Aug. 10th at Wischemann Hall, 460 Eddie St. in Sebastopol. And the 1st Monday in Aug. when the newer dancers graduate "Bridge the Gap" at Monroe Hall. It will be an open dance for all S&P members and their friends. There will no charge.

SAUCY SQUARES ... We said "goodby" and have a good time" to our faithfuls Luther & Susie Urton who left for Germany on June 10th. Maybe they will get a chance to square dance. Robert Tucker and Carlyss Van Ness have danced at two great Hoedowns recently. The Rhodendenron Festival and The Round Up, both of them in May. For a job well done on the Apple Blossom Parade Float were, Pat Cavanaugh, Tom & Wilma Binkley and Bob Tucker who all received deserving plaques. Three squares of our dancers have graduated and have enjoyed our two Bridge the Gap Hoedowns.

CLEARLAKE AREA

KONOCTI KICKERS ... During VANYA'S vacation we've enjoyed having guest callers for our workshops. We were fortunate enough to have MILT ADAMS, CHIC THRASHER and DOROTHY PEELER. KK'S are making plans for a night on the town. We'll be meeting for dinner first and then on to a night spot for dancing. This should be a fun night for anyone interested in joining us. Summertime in Clearlake always means we have out of town visitors and this year is no exception. We welcome all of you. Our next hoedown is Aug. 11th with JACK MURTHA. Hope to see you there.

CLEARLAKE SQUARES ... May 29th we graduated 6 couples. Congratulations. Our graduates will continue to dance on Wed. evening until the last of Aug. learning the plus calls, after which time they will join our Tuesday night Plus workshop. We also presented the 2nd annual "Clearlake Square Angel Badges" to club members for their participation in 80% or more newer dancers classes. 5 couples got this honor and of course of club caller CHICK THRASHER. A very special Thank You to our angels. The past-presidents of our club, Harlan & Eunice Bowen were recently elected Secretary of the Northern California Dancers Association, with our Delegates Ted & Dorothy Kear appointed as Recording Secretary.

MARIN COUNTY AREA

TAM TWIRLERS ... We celebrated our 6th Anniversary by having our own GLEN DICKEY call the June 9th Hoedown. Thanks to all the dancers who came to help us celebrate. We recently elected new officers headed up by Jerry Kirby, President, Fred Meyer, Vice Pres., Janet Sayles, Secretary, Pete Anderson, Treasurer, Delores Freeby. We will be sponsoring a new member class in September and we are looking forward to a great year.

M.O.D. SQUAD ... We welcomed guests Ray & Nina Bettencourt from NOVATO SQUARES and Lynn & Sam Drummes from SQUAWS & PAWS at our party night in May. RAY called a tip which pleased the members and guests. Walter Neugebauer from the San Diego branch of SINGLES & PAIRS has been dancing with us for several weeks while in Marin on business. Plans are going forward for our Nov. 3rd Hoedown. Caller and place will appear in next months release. Jim Hallstrom is in Hawaii on special duty for Uncle Sam. Former members Virginia and Grady Stroud of Oklahoma visited us recently as did Jan Johnk and Janice Machado. It was nice to see them all again. Come again soon.

CORNHUSKERS ... Murphys, Ruprechts, Blairs, Smiths and Pedersons trailered to the festival at McLeod on June 20. Allen Conroy is recovering from renal trouble. Swings will be absent most of June & July, going to Hawaii. Birthdays in June for Allen Conroy, Fred Borgman, Marilyn Blair, Ursala Borgman, Ruth Ruprecht, and Cakler DAVE STEVENS. Anniversaries for Murphys, Bradleys, Lopfs, Steacys, Ruprechts, Conroys and Morrisons. Big turnout of club members for the STEVENS & HAGGERTY Festival on July 4th, and for DAVE at the P.A.C.E. dance on July 14th. Looking forward to our own 32nd Anniversary Dance on Aug. 12th, with DAVE STEVENS at the mike. Our present Advanced Class will graduate in early September, and the new A-1 & 2 class with APD will start on Sept. 12th. Prerequisite is a working knowledge of A-1 & 2. The club continues its regular C-1 workshop after the class, from 8:30-10:30pm.

NOVATO SIDEKICKS ... The Mainstream section continues to be the backbone of our membership, and they are very pleased with RON HAGGERTY'S leadership. Plans are under way for the next Beginner Class. The C-1 section continues its Sunday workshop at 4pm, getting into some heavy stuff in newer concepts. Every Sunday at the Hamilton Air Force Base School. A square of dancers demonstrated their skills at the Novato Street Fair, to RON'S calling, on June 24th.

STUMP JUMPERS ... Powels, Smiths, Cal & Dorothy, Jim Moran and Virginia Darrell danced at the Golden State Round Up while DAVE MILANO called at a Clearlake Hoedown with Bernards and Augulos attending and again at Ft. Bragg with Nunes joining them. While 12 couples attended the Silver State for a great time. This must be casualty time. Janet Smith has a broken hip, Cal Mellor a cast on his ankle and Shirley Genetin a broken toe. Mend soon, you all! A square attended the TAM TWIRLERS hoedown and also a square danced at the REDWOOD DIAMONDS' dance. GLEN DICKEY & JEAN FERRELL did a great job for our June Anniversary Hoedown with 16½ squares attending. NOVATO SQUARES won the coffee with 30 members. Thanks alot guys. NOVATO SQUARES ... Starting with the Golden State and Silver State Festivals we had busy feet. We won the coffee at the STUMP JUMPERS hoedown and danced in the streets at the Novato Wine & Cheese Festival. RAY'S workshop review has brought in many new friends. It was good to hear Cal Mellon had the cast removed from his foot and will be dancing with us again soon. Welcome to our new members Paul & Christiana Torikian. Plans are ready for our July 14th Hoedown with ERIC HENERLAU. JEAN FERRELL will lead the rounds. Come join us at San Marin High School for a rousing party night. Sheryl & Pat Cabral will host the dance.

EAST BAY AREA

ACES & LACES ... On June 20th we went to Round Table Pizza to see the video tape of our graduation night. Needless to say pizza and beer were enjoyed by most of those who attended. On Thursday June 28th, there were four squares of us that went to the Pleasanton Fair and danced at the "Court of Four Seasons". Our performance was scheduled at 8pm, so we had to compete with the Amphi theater star, but everyone had a good time, never the less. Several indulged in those delicious, sticky, cinnamon rolls and other goodies that you find at the fair. Hope to see you all at our Anniversary Hoedown on the 18th. Notice our full page ad in this issue.

KUNTRY KUZINS ... Congratulations to our new President on winning a seat on Union Citys Sanitary District Board, Bob Garfinkle! Kathy & Bob organized and went on a river rafting trip to celebrate. What an exciting trip it proved to be. About 50 of us camped together at Marble Quarry at Columbia while attending Sonora's Cup of Gold. Several guests honored us by partaking and sharing potluck dinner with us and inviting us to an after party. Rich & Pat Fraser have returned from sunny Florida. Reserve Labor Day for our Annual Hoedown at Walter Jr. High. Guest Caller is TOM ROPER, Rounds by the WEBERS. We hope to see you on September 1st. Our club caller TERRY MOSIER has been working hard to get all of us up to Plus Level, and above.

EDEN ROCKERS ... We received several new members couples recently. Welcome to Earl & Vera Flint, Ray & Pat Follett, also Fred & Denise Marziano. We went "Hawaiian" for party night in June and the Hawaiian dress really was colorful. We welcomed many guests including one full square from the SPINNING WHEELS. The flower decors and champagne punch added to party atmosphere. Our own Betty Townsend and Ree Stanhope entertained dancing beautiful hula dances for us. They were great. A fun party. Sure nice to see the BOWENS back after long absence due to Evelyn's injury caused by a bad fall.

SQUARE CIRCLE'S ... Over 60 club members were at the Round-Up, giving our new members a thrill to be participating in such a large gathering of Square Dancers. They had such a good time that two weeks later over 50 members, new and old went to the Silver State in Reno. We hope they will continue to get together and have fun. Scotch Golf and a family picnic will be our next projects. June 23rd we had a very successful hoedown, the caller RON WELCH made it a fun evening, thank you ladies for the excellent goodies.

KEEWAY SWINGERS ... June 2nd the TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS Anniversary Dance with MARV LINDNER calling was enjoyed by all. Those that went to Reno also had a ball dancing. This reporter had a broken toe and had to watch. June 8th I've been told that WADE

DIVER called a great dance at Walters Jr. High. We also had some RV's out for the weekend at Laguna Seca, good times were enjoyed by all. June 21st we had our installation dinner at the Rendezous Club in Fremont. We want to thank the outgoing board for a good year, and wish the new board of Officers the best of everything. Now off to my cruise with KENMILLE'S & DEGMETICH see you next month.

WOODEN NICKELS ... We will be dancing all summer, and would like to invite all advance level dancers to visit. Square dance attire is not required, so if you're in the neighborhood drop in to say "hello" and dance a few tips. Our callers, KEN KENMILLE & MIKE WRIGHT, always do a great workshop, and dancing is a pleasure on our wood floor. Plus level dancers are invited to join us in October when we'll begin work shopping A-1 again. Check your next Square Dance-Where? for details. We're split in our after workshop preference. Some of us go for pizza while others meet at Swensen's for their favorite ice cream fantasy.

EAGLE SQUARES ... We celebrated our 24th Anniversary, June 9th, with a delightful potluck barbeque at the home of Grover and Dolores Kagee. We'll make that an annual event! We had beautiful weather and a perfect setting. We enjoyed the vivacious company of Betty & Juan Salcito who are honorary EAGLE SQUARES, Bob & Betty Coates, who brought the TV film made at the Round-Up, and Kathy and DREW ANDERSON who provided the VCR so we could watch the film! We were particularly happy to have NONIE & MARY MOGLIA join us.

NONIE has been our caller since the EAGLE SQUARES were formed in 1960. Plus level dancers are invited to join us on club night this summer for great APD workshops. You'll enjoy NONIE'S calling and our wood floor! DAVE BELDEN and the FAR WESTERN DANCERS were welcomed June 20th. They caravanned over after finding their school locked. Our Sept. Hoedown will feature RON WELSH.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS ... We are happy to report that Pete Bailey, after a long stay in the hospital is home, back to work and doing very well. Our June 9th hoedown was well attended. Thanks to the hard work of Mary & Harry Todd and all the committee members for a job well done. The club is sorry to see Wally & Verlis Clark leave the club due to a move to Southern Calif. because of a transfer by Wally's employer. This is a big loss to the club and we hope they will be back to dance with us often. A party was given in their honor by the club on June 20th. June 22nd, a party at the Clark home was well attended by friends and many club members. Good luck to both of you.

ODD'S 'N ENDS ... As you read this, we should be dancing in our new location, Glenview School located at Hampel and La Cresta, in Oakland. It is in a good location and easily accessible. We will have the luxury of dancing on a wood floor. ED FERRARIO will be calling for the newer dancers on Wed. nights. LARRY MANNING and GERTRUDE KHUNER will high light Thurs. night square and round dancing. You are invited to share the fun of dancing with us. Rosalie Fisher is recovering well and should be back with us soon. Ann Williamson has had an operation and we all wish her a speedy recovery. We enjoyed having MAC MCDEVITT dancing with us on the 21st of June.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS ... Activities attended since our last reporting was an enjoyable evening with MARV LINDNER at our Anniversary Hoedown. Boy did the food committee go all out on refreshments. The TWIRLER'S danced at the Mission Days Celebration to raise funds to restore Old Mission San Jose. We also danced at the All Season's Riding Academy for the Handicapped. On Tuesday, June 5th the club attended a City Council Meeting at City Hall where Mayor Mezetti proclaimed June 3rd-June 9th Square Dance Week honoring the TOWNSHIP TWIRLER'S 30th Anniversary. Louie & Marilyn Smith, our Sunshine Reporters, visited Venice Lee. He is doing fine after surgery, as long as he doesn't laugh too hard. "That ah boy Venice". Get well soon! Coming soon, Amateur Night results!

SOLOS & PAIRS ... New officers elected for the year starting July 1st are: Dorothy Anthony, President, Howard Brooking, Vice President, Gela Wagoner, Treasurer and Mary Ann Arnold, Secretary. We have planned a big party on July 25th at "The Arts", our school on Broadway Terrace. It is to celebrate our 28th Anniversary and a birthday party honoring our outgoing President, Jim Haney who has done so much for the club through the years. A special entertainment with a lively moving action packed show is planned. All past member alumni of the old BERKELEY SINGLES and friends were invited to this special evening of entertainment and dancing. Also celebrating birthdays in July were Bob Hostettler, Gela Wagoner and Clara Carroll. We are looking forward to a truly big year ahead!

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS ... We had our annual "Change Over" meeting/picnic/party at the Spain's and as usual it was delightful. We had a nice warm day, the steaks were delicious and cooked to perfection by Chief Dale, the wine/beer/lemonade flowed like wine and beer, the salads and desserts were scrumptious and except for some tough old bread it was a great way to spend a Sunday afternoon. The only negative part of the picnic was that Fern Miller was under the weather and could not attend. Her husband Harry (our President) was able to attend but was so despondent with her absence, that he could not eat or drink a thing and sat in a corner the whole day with a sad look on his face muttering "where is Shorty, where is Shorty?" We did have a neat surprise, as Bill & Ruth Jasvin popped in to say hello. They were the very successful Presidents of the REBELS at one time and we are always happy to see them and wish that his health would permit them to dance with us again.

THE YOUNG REBELS ... On May 18th our club nominated our caller, STEVE MINKIN, for the KNEW commuter of the day award. He won! STEVE commutes to our club every Friday from Sebastopol. We would like to thank Brenda Lockie, Reece Wagner, Lori Middleton, Mark Abrams, Chris Koerber & Phil Lotz for hanging the banners in main hall at the Round Up. Saturday afternoon at Round Up we exhibited and did 3 clogging routines. Sunday evening we did one of our new and best routines. This routine was written by our clogging instructor Franchion Mason and she dedicated it to our club sponsors Mr. & Mrs. Lockie. The performance went well and we all think it was one of our best to date. The clogging clinics held at Round Up, which were taught by our own Franchion were also well received and everyone who participated said it was well worth the time. In June Gene & Linda Powers added a new clogger. Her name is Valerie Jean. Best of luck to you three from all of us REBELS.

ROUND UP CORNER

Thank you! Entering a new year, preparing for another fun filled Round Up we learn the many details to consider in making ours one of the best. From contracting caller to number of cups needed. As chairmen we know we can't please everyone in every way but we try, adjusting yearly to dancer comments and observations. Knowing what is ahead, we wish to extend SINCERE THANKS AND APPRECIATION to Bill & Ramona Gauthier, 1984 Chairmen, a job well done. We know the time and effort you gave, to the Area Square And Round Dance Callers for their participation, to the committees, large and small, for the fine jobs and dependability and MOST IMPORTANT to the dancers for without them what is a Round Up. We anticipate, with appreciation, the same dependable support working together for "Harmony 85".

THANK YOU, RON & GINGER

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE FOR NCSDA

"It's nice to know you're needed" needing good delegates, directors and assistant directors are what makes our association. We would like to take this opportunity to welcome back for another year the encumbments and extend a hearty welcome to the newly elected representatives. You are the link between the dancers and the board. As the dancers look to the delegates and directors of their district they will receive information on NCSDA functions, the first being membership cards for Stampedes ($1 a dance-where can you get a bargain like that?) and September Square Dance Month. Keep in touch, the dancers, heart of the square dance movement, are needed for the success of our organization. Thank you for doing your part, happy dancing.

In Memorium

Les Clark

One of the first Bay Area Callers in Northern California passed away May 12th in Colorado Springs. Les suffered a stroke and was briefly hospitalized. He started the Wagon Wheelers in 1950, and when he moved to Grass Valley, Ed Ferrario took them over. The Wagon Wheelers disbanded when Prop. 13 took over in 1978. Our deepest sympathies to Marie Clark, his widow, who resides in Liviston, Idaho.
