CLUB NEWS

CONTRA COSTA AREA

CONCORD STOMPERS ... With summer winding down we are getting back to dancing with beginners and A-1 classes starting in September. During July we enjoyed an A-1 mystery trip to Santa Rosa where our caller BOB ELLING teamed up with NATE BLISS for a super evening of dancing. The annual July STOMPERS picnic was as usual a fun and games affair and well attended. On September 8th we'll have MIKE SIKORSKY calling for our hoedown, don't miss this one. The annual pancake breakfast will be held at the lovely home of Kay & Jim Francis. Save the date Sept. 30th. Important changes have been made in the beginners and A-1 format. All these changes were made to better accommodate the different levels and abilities of all dancers. Back to dancing STOMPERS and enjoy.

SHELL SWINGERS ... We are now the MARTINEZ SWINGERS. We will be co-sponsored by the Martinez Adult School and will be meeting at the Martinez Adult School's multi-purpose room at Alhambra and F St. across from the Safeway Store. We will be meeting on Wed. nights from 8-10. Our first hoedown will be Sept. 22nd with TERRY MOSIER calling. Please come dance with us at our new home.

ANTIOCH AMBLERS ... Congratulations for new baby Amblers go to Jim & Linda Pennock for Nicholas, and to Frank and Jan Stokes for Cassidy. With 100 plus Degrees weather the canoe trip was a huge success. AMBLERS arrived at Cloverdale KOA Friday the 13th and enjoyed a hot dog B.B.Q. Next morning saw 40 of us heading down the Russian River, some made the trip without incident, some were tipped over, others went in the water on their own. There were soggy lunches and sunburns, but all thoroughly enjoyed it and are looking forward to next year. Saturday evening we all enjoyed a great pot luck. Some enjoyed card games, other swimming and water volleyball in the camp ground pool. We are looking forward to Aug. 19th when we have our annual AMBLER picnic at Black Welder Park in Rio-Vista.

CLUTCH BUSTERS ... This is it! This is the month you've been waiting for. At last you beginning dancers can get started at having the most fun of your life with the most fun club in the bay area. Contact us about our beginners dancing. Don't wait, do it now. Our Anniversary Hoedown is Sept. 15th. Don't miss this one, we do it up right.

TEEN TWIRLERS ... We would like everyone to know that our 29th Anniversary hoedown is coming up on August 25th. Hope to see you there! On Sat. July 21st, we had a very successful car wash in Walnut Creek. Congratulations to the new board members: Diana Jackson, President, Dale Steelman, Vice President, Darrin Michaels, Treasurer, Kim Perry, Secretary. Thanks to all of last years board members.

YELLOW ROCK SINGLES ... Tension mounted after the pot luck, the beginners realizing that DREW ANDERSON (club caller) would soon put them through there paces to see if they would get their long awaited diploma. It didn't take them long to realize that it was all in fun and everyone graduated. Our graduation hoedown was very successful. Everyone had a great time. Nominations for officers has begun and by the time you read this we will have elected our first ever officers. We would love to have you come and join our fun on Monday nights.

DIABLO SINGLES ... WE had a great hoedown with the STOLNAKER Brothers (CRAIG & SCOTT) from Glendale in July. Some of us got together July 4th for a barbecue and afternoon of playing trivial pursuit. Some of those questions were impossible. Come visit our booths at the Walnut Festival Sept. 13-16th. This year we are sponsoring our famous Hole-E-Mouse game as well as a linguisa booth. Raffle tickets are still available for $1.00. The grand prize is a trip to Hong Kong! We will be returning to Fair Oaks School, Lisa Lane, Pleasant Hill in Sept. on Thursday nights. Call 687-5781 for info. or directions. We will be running another beginners class jointly with the GUYS & DOLLS this year. Our Caller will be ELMER RADCLIFFE. Please call Maggie 798-5797 for info.

NORTH BAY AREA

BUZZIN CUZZIN'S ... Three of our couples, the Bachman's, Roach's and Martin's, who went to the Nationals in Maryland in June came back with stories of a fun time. Several Club members spent the fourth of July aboard a paddle wheel boat cruising the bay which also included a buffet dinner and dancing. We are all looking forward to our up coming picnic and the start of our newer dancer classes this month. Sorry to hear Charles Lofton is under the weather. Hope he's back in his dancing shoes by the time this is in print.

FIVE STAR SQUARES ... Thank you to all who came to our July Hoedown and a special thanks to ROGER MORRIS AND MIKE SZAFRANSKI for doing an outstanding job calling for us. We are now in the process of selecting a replacement caller for DAVE HOBAUGH who has decided to leave for personal reasons and spend more time with his family. Our annual summer picnic at Bothe State Park was very enjoyable. It was an opportunity for our members and their families to visit, share delicious food, and enjoy the activities together as a family unit. We are looking forward to our anniversary dance Sept. 22nd with DAVE HOBAUGH calling. Come and enjoy the fun.

THE PIONEERS ... Our annual golf tournament was a big success and John Blotzke took home the trophy. Marie Nichols and all of the Beginners did a fine job on the Hoedown. Thanks to all of the GUYS & DOLLS who came to help us celebrate at our 33rd Anniversary Hoedown. The club presented a plaque to Bob & Betty La Faunce for their outstanding and devoted service to the PIONEERS for the last two years. Congratulations to Bill and Gerri La Voy, our newly elected president, we know that you will have a great year.

OLD CAPITOL SQUARES ... We took no vacation from workshops and social activities this summer. Our newer dancers are progressing rapidly through the plus movements and will soon be up to club level. July 4th several of us danced in the Benicia City Park as part of the 4th of July Celebration. This is an annual affair, a great time was had by all at our road rally on July 21st. We thank Jim LaKomy, our Vice President for all the work he did preparing the clues. Our destination, after much driving and gathering information, was the Senior Citizens Building in Benicia where we enjoyed a pot luck and dancing. Come and dance with us on Sept. 15th with MIKE DEGMETICH calling and our own DOROTHY PEELER doing the rounds.

SAN FRANCISCO AREA

TWO BY FOURS ... Omeara Daniels sang with the Master Works Chorale at the opening ceremonies of the Olympic Games at Stanford. Our beginners class will start Thursday Sept. 20th, at Lincoln School in Burlingame. Call 574-7893 for details. Vacations, Lucy and Jim Witherspoon visited her family in Switzerland. Fran & Jess Miller spent a week playing the slots in Reno. Frank & Mary Rach traveled to Wisconsin. We were glad to see Betty Mesa after a month's recovery from a mysterious illness. Ask John Burszan about the big salmon he caught on his recent deep sea fishing trip.

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS ... We are planning something different (for us) this fall. See our ad. The Chows are returning from a two month vacation in Europe. Missed listing Juanita Larkin as our new Secretary. Sorry about that. Danced to KIP, DALE & GEORGE and the smooth calling of DICK HOULTON with the JACKS & JENNEYS. The Pozzas are enjoying the Hoedown Circuit now that they have started. Esther attended the wedding of her granddaughter in Minneapolis. Came back in time to join Thula, Butch and Elaine on the cruise to the Carribean. Is she tired? Our new members got their badges and are full fledged REBELS.

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTE'S San Mateo Chapter ... One of our last flings of summer was our annual swim party and barbeque at Fiesta Gardens. The big splash consisted of good friends and family, delicious food, dancing and swimming, blended together with lots of fun and laughter. Glad to have back from Australia, our caller, BILL PETERS and club members, Diane & Dorothy Shemanski. Our new beginners class will be on Wed. this year, with BUD & ANNE WOLKINS instructing. The class starts Sept. 5th tell your single friends. Plans are going forward for our 9th Anniversary dance on Sept. 15th. Don't miss this one!

KALICO KATS ... Although we enjoyed dancing at the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church in Daly City this summer we are happy to be back at the Thomas Edison School. Most of our dancers have returned from vacation and are eager to get back dancing. We want to take this opportunity to thank our many guests who danced with us all summer. Our special event committee is diligently working on a dinner outing for this month. We are looking forward to an enjoyable evening of dinner and dancing. Our deepest sympathy goes out to Al & Corinne Beale on the recent passing of Al's father.

CLODHOPPERS ... This seems to be the month of vacations for us. Two couples in the British Isles on tour, several couples to Missouri for a Square Dance week with MARSHALL FLIPPO. Hurry home one and all and lets get down to some serious dancing with the CLODHOPPERS. We are also glad to see that Marilyn Ellis is recuperating from her recent surgery and can hardly wait to get back to dancing again. Look for our Travelfest hoedown ad in this issue. DALE HOUCK calling and JACK & DOROTHY WRIGHT on the rounds. Hope to see you all there.

SQUARE CUTTERS ... Vacation season is just about over, and club members will be ready for serious dancing the rest of the year. Many enjoyed our annual picnic at Paradise Park, in Tiburon. A beautiful spot on San Francisco Bay. There were games, fishing, and som dancing. Fun for all. Twelve members have already signed up for reservations to attend the REDWOOD COASTERS weekend at Fort Bragg. Our club caller HARRY WHITLOCK will be the feature caller again this year. Don't forget. September 6th we will be returning to Lakeshore School. Come join the fun. Visitors are always welcome.

PAIRS & SPARES ... Hey happy square dancers out there, do you know some folks who haven't yet learned the joy of square dancing? Why not bring them to our Beginners Class starting Friday Sept. 21st, where they will learn to dance and have fun doing it. Square dancing is for sharing you know. Orin Peterson is recuperating at home after recent surgery but will have to miss dancing for awhile. JOEL KADISH ingenious calling made our Hawaiian hoedown a fun success. As always the refreshment and decorating committees handled everything superbly. Returning vacationers looking tan and relaxed included Gabe & Phyllis, Howard & Gerri and the three sisters Olivia, Elisa and Paula. Our sympathy to Elwood Scott on the death of his mother.

49'ERS ... It's nice to get back from vacation and catch up on what's been going on and what everybody has been up to this summer. We will be having our annual picnic on Aug. 5th, we will be going on a canoe trip, and for those less adventurous there will be a wine tasting tour. A group will be going up on Saturday night to camp. We will be hosting the 5th Thursday clubs in August. We are planning for a trip to the Giants and our Reno trip in October.

GINGHAM SQUARES ... It's great to have our caller DALE HOUCK & PHYLLIS back with us after their European trip. We're coming and going on vacations but there are always enough of us to make it fun. We're lucky to have a barbecue pit right outside the door of the Millbrae Recreation Center. At our barbecue pot luck the salad bar has become a very popular item. We're looking forward to our picnic on Sept. 9th at S.M. Memorial Park. Ozzie Schimek is going to handle the games again this year so we know it will be a good day. Have a wonderful, safe summer.

LONGHORNS ... A special thanks for a job well done to last years officers under the leadership of President Ramer. We are looking forward to our annual picnic at Flood Park, Sept. 9th. Don & Clair Vrrere and Henry & Cleo Manning attended the National in Baltimore, also they enjoyed dancing on the steps of the capital. Four clubs were represented at the wedding of Rosanne, (daughter of our Vice President, Dell & Francis Genest) and Mark, (son of square dancers, Don & Greta Robertson). Don't forget our 30th Anniversary Hoedown with DICK HOULTON at C.S.M. Oct. 27th. See you there.

BACHELORS & BACHELORETTE
San Francisco Chapter ... We enjoyed KIP GARVEY'S fast moving calling for the ROAD-RUNNERS, with LAMBERT KNOX on rounds. The 49'ERS had GEORGE DREIER and DALE HOUCK, calling for their hoedown. Our first venture for a Tahoe Bus Trip, was a big success, thanks to our great helpers. President John Kelly, was surprised with a birthday cake, by his partner Sandy Toti. Newly wed, Chet Gedion, brought his charming bride, Myra, to the club. On Sept. 18th our new beginners class starts at Ebenezer Church.

WHIRL-A-WAYS ... Ice Cream Social was just that with the A-1 class and guests being teated sweetly by Gail Roueche & Bill Vandenberg, hosts for the evening. Many thanks to JAY KLASSEN & HAROLD FLEEMAN for substituting for our caller BILL PETERS while he and BETTY were touring Australia and New Zealand. WAW'S will miss Verda & George Sailor, a fine couple. And a big welcome back to Nancy & Wendell Lathrop who have been out too long. Summer has been great, but now that September is here, many vacationing dancers will be back and our workshop will be like mini-hoedowns again. Come and enjoy the fun with us.

HIGHLAND SWINGERS ... The passing of our caller CLYDE MCGILL was deeply shocking to all of us. We wish to convey our deepest sympathy to CLYDE'S wife BETTY and the family. CLYDE, with his engaging smile and beautiful voice will be missed by all of us. We want to thank all of our friends for the support they gave us by attending our June Hoedown. Jim & Helen Barker professionally square headed the event that was such a success. Thanks, too, to BILL PETERS for calling and JACK & DOROTHY WRIGHT for cueing rounds. Everyone enjoyed great fun and good food. We're gearing up for our newer dancers class, which will kick off on Sept. 13th at Laureola Recreation Center in San Carlos. We expect this to be a special class with lots of surprises in store for the new dancers. Our new Board of Directors is headed up by Gene Owens, President, assisted by his bride of 27 years Rose. Congratulations Gene & Rose. We don't want to forget our thanks to Art and Marie Hansford for filling in for us when we cal on the. Bye till next month.

CATCH ALL EIGHTS ... Our newest member, Gilbert, put in his first appearance Tues. His parents, Walt & Melinda Short, are learning a new step. Rock the Cradle (he's only two months old!) Our whenever we get the urge pizza night was well attended at Red Vest Pizza Parlor and Square Dancer Hospitality Shoppe. The end of the Tues. night dance looked like the last day of school as our dancers all flew to their cars in a blur of carves and petticoats, on the trail of steaming pizza, coke, and good cold beer. WHEE! Final plans are proceeding for our potluck picnic at the Standard Oil Clubhouse. Good cookin' means good eatin', three pools means good swimmin', good people means good times ahead.

CAPER CUTTERS ... We're looking forward to our 34th Anniversary hoedown Nov. 3rd. RON WELSH, caller, KEN & ELENA, rounds. Good food, prizes galore! Come join us at ScottishRite Temple, 19th & SLoat, S.F. Love to have ya. Glad to see Frank O'Connell back. Congrats to the Iacopi's on their 53rd Wedding Anniversary. 5th Monday, July had the pleasure of dancing to DALE HOUCK. We hosted the Square Cutters Aug. 27th, we'll be hosting LEVIS & LACES Sept. 17th. We are returning to Francis Scott Key School, 43rd, Kirkham, Sept. 17th. Hope to see you there.

REDWOOD EMPIRE NEWS

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES ... On July 14th, HAROLD FLEEMAN called a hoedown for us. Chairpersons for the fun evening were the Urtons, Adams & Hulls. It's sure nice to see Claire Shone out on the dance floor so soon. Nothing keeps this gal down. It was nice to see Bob & Doris Dickenson at our annual picnic at Maribel Park. We hope to see them back on the dance floor soon. Come dance with us in Sept. to JIM DIFFEY and JOHN RETTER.

SAUCY SQUARES ... The Bridge the Gap Hoedown on July 21st was a lot of fun for 11 squares of dancers. It was ably called by STEVE MINKIN with HAZEL WISCHEMANN doing an excellent queing of rounds. Marie Luethe who has been dancing with us for many years, will continue more than ever since she has just retired from teaching. The annual picnic on July 8th was great, the food, weather and attendance. Four clubs were represented. Welcome back to Luther and Susie Urton our travelers to Germany. They had a good time seeing relatives. On Aug. 4th we will have our Rummage Sale and it is always a good one. Our Beginners Class Square Dancing will start on Sept. 6th. We are anticipating our usual good attendance so come and join us.

DIAMOND DANCERS ... Encouraged by our wildly successful 17 square A-1 July Hoedown, we're scheduling 6 hoedowns in 1985, three A-1 level with A-2 star tips, and three A-2 level with C-1 star tips. DAVE STEVENS inaugurates our 1985 season on March 30th. We're also adding all-star guest callers for our Fri. A-2 workshops, JOE SALTEL is next, calling Sept. 7th and Oct. 12th. JOHN RETTER and LARRY WILLIAMS are doing spectacular rounds, both square dance and intermediate levels. Remember, there's a full hour of pre-rounds from 7pm each Friday, plus alternating single and double rounds between tips. With vacations over, we invite all advanced dancers to join us Friday nights at Monroe Hall for our fall season. BOB ELLING and BILL PETERS alternating. Unless there's a guest caller.

MARKWESTERNERS ... We're coming home from vacations and looking forward to our 25th Anniversary Luau on the 15th. Hawaiian memories will be freshened and those who went elsewhere can plan for next time. Good Grief! Let's clear this up, Florence and Marshall Turner just celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary NOT their 14th! What? With all those grown kids and grandbabies? We had a problem transposing the written word into digits. Somehow 26 years got lost. Sorry Folks. Did you know macho abalone hunters wear pantihose under their wetsuits? Good insulation sez Ed Haczela, HMMM? Whatever is Angelo Dotti going to do with that Dolly Parton poster? Ask John King what HE was doing with it. It's gotta be the weather!

QUESTION MARKS ... July 4th we all stayed in town and had a barbeque & swim at Pool's pool. On our July camp-out at Lake Shasta the Waltons and three full squares of us with many guests, progeny, cousins and dogs took a nine day respite from dancing, where we cooled ourselves under the relentless 110 degree sun by waterskiing and parachute kiting (five boats, no waiting) or simply wallowing in the shoreline mud like hippos along the Nile and drinking cold liquids of various kinds. Same bunch, same deal at Ruth Lake first week in August. Not known now is whether we will be exercising the arts of keeping cool, warm, or even dry, or any combination of these. One thing for sure, those placid waters will be well furrowed by our ski tracks.

SINGLES & PAIRS ... We will start our new beginners square dance class Sept. 10th at Monroe Hall in Santa Rosa with STEVE MINKIN calling. The first two Monday nights are free. Everyone try to bring a newer dancer. At the July Business Meeting the club welcomed as a newer member Jeff Polhlmann. Calling all square dancers, club member Mary Ellen can fill your square dance apparel needs. On Aug. 4th she opened the Square Dance Shoppe at 3355 Santa Rosa Ave., Santa Rosa. 95407. Phone 542-7270. The hours are Wed. and Sat. 10-6, Thurs. 10-9, 1st and 3rd Sun. 1-5. The club has no hoedown in Sept. On Oct. 20th at Monroe Hall JOE KADISH will call mainsteam and MIKE and EDNA SZAFRANSKI will be on the rounds.

CLEARLAKE AREA

CLEARLAKE SQUARES ... Our club Caller and taw, CHICK & NORMA THRASHER, are vacationing during July as are our round dance cuers, TED & JANICE SIERAKOWSKI. The Krogstadts and Kears have returned from theirs. Dancing on the Kear's patio while it has been so hot has increased attendance at our workshops. Beats dancing in a hot, closed school. While CHICK has been gone, we've danced to ERIC HENERLAU and NATE BLISS. Great calling. Tuesday, July 31st, the men will be making up box lunches which will be auctioned off to the women. Should be fun. Our Sept. 22nd hoedown will be called by BILL MEYERS.

KONOCTI KICKERS ... Our July hoedown with ARLAN WIGHT calling was a lot of fun. He really keeps us to date using current songs for his singing calls. Irwin and Marge Holmstrom were the lucky winners of the door prize. We attended the PROMENADER'S Hoedown in Ukiah with BERT SWERER calling. Al & Pat Reeder won the door prize. Everyone sure had a good time. We are all looking forward to our new beginners that start Sept. 20th. DAVE GIBSON will be instructing the class. Also looking forward to our Sept. Hoedown with SCOT BYARS calling.

MARIN CO. AREA

TAM TWIRLERS ... We plan to start a new class of beginners on Monday, Sept. 17th. Pass the word on to friends. They are more than welcome to attend. The big social event of the summer has been a pot-luck dinner at Fred & Jen Meyer's home. We do know how to party. Our picnic is coming up in Sept. and will be held at the Marin Cheese Factory. New officers have taken over starting July 1st headed by President, Jerry Kerby. Many plans are being made to insure the club has a good year.

M.O.D. SQUAD ... We have our Hoedown date, Nov. 3rd, and we have our caller WAYMAN GODWIN from the FRONTIER TWIRLERS but the place needs to be confirmed so circle that date and we will let you know where by advertisement and flyers. President Orville Koenning has appointed Lou & Evie Chapion Activity Chairpersons so there will be happenings the last half of the year. The Ted Van Bebbers joined HARRY & LAVERNE WHITLOCK at the SQUARE CUTTERS picnic at Paradise Cove. It was a beautiful day. Bob Rohner is recovering from a debilitating illness thanks to the prayers and good wishes from friends and club members. Opal Gray is still on the ailing list. You two people hurry and get well, we miss you.

SQUAWS & PAWS ... With summer here there are many who are not with us due to vacations and other commitments. Hurry back, we miss you. Wedding bells are in the air for the Baer's family we hear Noe's are on a cruise to the far East, Betty Telfer has had a bug and Yates and Castles are on long extended trips for the summer. We miss all of them and wish for returns and their places in our squares. Our sincere thanks to Jerry Lemont and Grace for the outstanding job of running the Foundation's booth in Novato for Western Days. A lot of fellowship was done by many groups in Marin County and these two stuck it out for the whole 2 days.

NOVATO SQUARES ... On a beautiful Sunday morning the men of NOVATO SQUARES hosted a gin fizz breakfast around the pool at the home of Karen & Ewald Westphal. Good cooks. Thelma Nelson's sisters attended as guests as they returned from their trip. Our hoedown was enjoyed by all who braved the heat. Sheryl & Pat Cabral did a great job decorating the tables with American flags & Hosting the bountiful table. The STUMP JUMPES won the coffee and their prized door was returned to their custody. It was great to have Anita Hendel back on the dance floor after 4 months on the sidelines with her injured foot. Congratulations to Art & Pat Ravicz on the wedding of their daughter Anne. Pat's family were guests at our club workshop.

STUMP JUMPERS ... Thanks to the old board for jobs well done, especially past president Al Angulo. Welcome newly elected. Joe Dorby, President, Ken Place, Vice President, Virginia Darnell, Treasurer, Jean Nunes, Secretary. The STUMP JUMPERS won THE BIG DOOR PRIZE and coffee at the NOVATO SQUARES hoedown with ERIC HENERLAU. Jane & Don Pwell are vacationing in Hawaii so missed our great annual picnic at Miwok Park with 53 attending. Many thanks to Joan & Bill Almeida, Al Angulo, Virginia and Cal for a successful barbeque. Also to Mary for all the beautiful plants. Len Genetin and Tony Segura were the horse-shoe champions. Better luck next time, fellows.

BUZZIN' BOOTS ... Congratulations to Erik Young and Elaine Hall on their High School Graduation. They will now go off to college, Erik to U.C. Santa Cruz and Elaine to Cornell University at Ithaca in New York. We will miss them and our Friday night workshops. September has many club functions, our Anniversary hoedown on the 15th and our club picnic on the 30th. DAVE HOBAUGH heads to New Orleans to the World's Fair in October. The club is in the process of ordering "Hobaugh fan badges". Many clever saying came up, and we're certain everyone will approve our final choice. Welcome back to all of the summer travellers. We hope your summer was great.

EAST BAY AREA

BOOTS 'N SLIPPERS ... We are very pleased to have a new and fresh group of members on the Board. Thanks to all who have put so much time and energy into running our great club. We would like to thank the TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS for allowing us to take the Buckskin home on our raid of July 17th. Yes, we are now the proud possessors of the Buckskin. for how long you say? Thanks also to Ted & June Bently for planning the annual campout. Great fun was had by all, even Sharon.

VALLEY TRAVELERS ... Our members enjoyed visiting the SQUARE CIRCLES and dancing to TERRY MOSIER on June 28th. We thank them for their fine hospitality. We are sorry that Edna and Frank have left but we know that they will continue their dancing in Rugby, North Dakota. The weather cooperated fully by granting us a lovely cool evening for our July Hoedown. KIP GARVEY'S calling, RAY & JEAN HANNA cueing the rounds and the delicious refreshments were enjoyed by all who attended. Our activity chairpersons, Julie and Darline, arranged a bus tour of several Napa Valley wineries. The tour ended with a picnic lunch in a picturesque setting. 16 couples took advantage of this tasty tour on July 29th. In August, we are looking forward to attending an Oakland A's baseball game and of course dancing every Thursday to our club caller, PAUL HARRIS. Plans are already underway for our anniversary hoedown on October 20th. See you there.

KUNTRY KUZINS ... Beginner Classes will start Sept. 12th at 7-8:30 by our great club caller TERRY MOSIER with first three lessons free, join us. Two weddings in the KUNTRY KUZINS family in two weekends is a record, congratulations to the Hodges and the Stelles. We are proud of Marguerite Zolman with her blue and red ribbons at Alameda Co. Fair. Last year she made Best of Show with a mans sweater (knitted). Keep up the good work, Marguerite. We invite all square dancers to our Labor Day Dance Sept. 1st, at Walters Jr. High in Fremont. TOM ROPER of Shawneetown, Ill. will be our special caller. It's plus level and we hope to see you there.

SQUARE CIRCLES ... We have been keeping on our toes a lot this summer dancing 7 to 8 squares at the Barn in spite of the heat and vacations. A group of our members danced at the Alameda Co. Fair on the 30th then in the evening danced at the Crow Canyon shopping center. On July 28th a good support was given for the SAn Ramon Red Barn Association, it was very cold, many thanks to the staunch members who helped. July 29th was the family picnic, held at the aquatic center in Pleasanton, and enjoyable day with volleyball, lawn darts, swimming and finishing off with a few square dances. We are pleased to hear that Mary Pring is doing well after her operation.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS ... On July 18th the new Board Members took office. There are 2 corrections Mary & Harry Todd are the Vice Presidents and Roberta & Odis Jones the Treasurer. On July 20th two squares of the club participated in a demonstration at the Park View Convalescent hospital Arts & Crafts show. A dinner was given at Shenigans in Jack London Village for Gussie & Al Weissman past President and First Man and a gift was presented to the couple in appreciation for a job well done. We would like to thank all the other Board members for all their work and time.

FAR WESTERN DANCERS ... These are the lazy days of summer, right? Not for your club. In June we were invited to do exhibition dancing at the Alameda Co. Fair. In spite of the heat and crowded stage, we had a great time. On July 14th were two special events. Our club caller, DAVE BELDEN married TERRY LAFFERTY, Congratulations! and, sadly, we bid goodbye to long time members Wayne and Anne Divoky who are moving to Pennsylvania. We've had members vacationing all over the country, and buying new houses too. We're looking forward to increasing our ranks in Sept. with our new beginners class. Come one and all!

KEEWAY SWINGERS ... This month we danced with the FARMER & FARMERETTES, JOEL KADISH, TERRY MOSIER, MCKINNEYS. Then onto the RANCHERO SQUARES with BILL KRAMER, MCKINNEYS. Then to CASTRO VALLEY REBELS, DAVE TAYLOR, WEBERS. We want to thank the clubs and featured callers for the great dances. We want to wish Al Stout a fast recovery from surgery, and hope to see him in a square soon. Best wishes to Sherry Kenmille on her marriage July 21st. This month we had three couples joining the KENMILLE'S & Degmetich's in the Caribbean, and a group of dancers at Frank Lanes Estes Park Colorado. Ended the month with RON LIBBY & WEBERS on July 26th and our picnic on July 29th. Keep dancing and keep it fun.

ODD'S 'N END'S ... We have found a great place to dance. Glenview School has a beautiful hardwood floor and excellent sound. Wed. evenings ED FERRARIO calls for an enthusiastic beginners and brush-up class. Thurs. nights LARRY MANNING, from Modesto, is calling and teaching A-1 square dancing. GERTRUDE KHUNER calls and teaches round dancing starting at 7:30. Please come and dance with us. Please phone for location change the last two weeks in August and first week in Sept. Schools closed. We welcome back Allen James and our newest member Yvonne Sehulman.

SOLOS & PAIRS ... We had a fine turnout for our big July 25th party to celebrate our 28th Anniversary and to honor Jim Haney, retiring president, Highlight and surprise of the entertainment was the appearance of a delightful young belly dancer who turned out to be Jim Haney's granddaughter. Dan Killingsworth also entertained with another of his great clog dance routines. A fine barbershop quartette rounded out the program and they even persuaded Jim to join in on a song. We enjoyed seeing so many of the old BERKELEY SINGLES again. We will be dancing the last two weeks of August and the first Wednesday of Sept. at Mosswood Park while our school is closed.

EDEN ROCKERS ... Summertime is vacation time for most folks and we are among those coming and going lately. Our own CHARLIE BROWN was no exception as he and wife LINDA are enjoying a week at Lake Tahoe. On our party night BUD WOLKINS (President of Northern Calif. Caller Association) called for us in CHARLIE'S absence, along with his lovely wife ANN. Sure did enjoy those pretty singing calls. The ice cream and homemade cookies also went over great to complete a warm and pleasant evening. Looking forward next month to our fun time Western night.

RED ROCKERS ... Summer has been great for us. We dance and swim every Monday night thanks to our gracious hosts Bob & Heriot Powers. We have already been to the Water Slides in Manteca. What a blast! We also had a money raising car wash with another scheduled for the end of Aug. Many thanks to TERRY MOSIER WAYNE JANSSEN and BEN GOLDBERG for filling in for us while BUD & ANNE WOLKINS, our club callers, were on vacation. We are looking forward to our new beginner class in Sept. Bring your teens for a great time. See you then.

CHECKMATES ... Although vacation time is here, we are still having a good attendance on Monday nights. The only way we can keep our loyal members away on club nights is to break their leg. Unfortunately, that is what happened to Joe Lingor, he broke his ankle. Miss you Joe & Marion. Get well soon. July brought in our new president, Don Mintz, who decided to go on vacation then and leave the chairing to our new, but capable VP, Aubrey Elliott. We are in the midst of planning our fall hoedown which will be Sept. 22nd called by MARV LINDNER. It will be a good one, so hope you all will join us for a real fun evening.

WOODEN NICKS ... We enjoyed a sociable pot luck barbeque at Sharon and Geylord Larsen's on July 1st. Our caller, KEN KENMILLE, wasn't available for a workshop on that date so we jumped at Geylord's invitation to meet over a steak in lieu of dancing. The McCues and Morris' joined us straight from their weekend in Yosemite, and all agreed it was a delicious evening. All A-2 dancers are welcome to join us Sunday evenings. We'll have a guest caller for five weeks during Sept. and Oct. while Ken is enjoying his Caribbean cruise and European Tour. See our ad in this issue for the start of our next into to A-1 Class. We wish MIKE WRIGHT all the best in his new club venture, and, thanks, Mike, for all the weeks you've driven to Livermore to sharpen our dancing skills.

ACES & LACES ... The month of July was not the most eventful month because our

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS ... Some vacations are still going strong. Among them, the Mortensons in China, the Wolfs in Hawaii and our club reporter in Milpitas. Last week at club we were handed a schedule of upcoming club events that looked like a page out of the telephone book. Boy are we going to have fun, if we live through it. Our DAVE TAYLOR dance was a huge success and we'll have him back next July. We were well represented at the Callers Association Presidents Ball, or was that a try to fix the sound Ball? Latest news is Pat

Spain has been barred from all future 50-50 drawings. place of dancing was not available for two weeks. We are, however, looking forward to the annual campout in Sept. to be at Camanche Camp grounds where everyone has fun at the last summer outing. Then its back to new beginners classes again. Our beginners class will be starting on Oct. 8th. See ad in next issue. Hope to see you at our up coming Bazaar in Oct.

SAN LORENZO SINGLES - TOO LONG.

THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER

"It only takes a happy thought to bring a close friend near." What is more happy than the enthusiasm of new dancers, friends you have asked to join in the fun and harmony of Square dancing. SEPTEMBER square dance month, chosen to let the country know about our movement and get others involved in the fun is the time to demonstrate our force. Vacations are over and people are ready to start a new experience or enrich an old. Why not square dancing. Encourage others to let us be a friend and share new experiences with the fun and fellowship of square dancing, beginner level, refresher in plus, advance class and round dance lessons. Be a friend - Make a friend.

ROUND-UP CORNER

"Oakland 85" and "Harmony" are what we are hearing in reference to the 1985 Golden State Round-Up. The excitement about this new but old location is building as the committees and dancers prepare for our annual event in May. We say new location for we will be at the NEW OAKLAND CONVENTION CENTER connected to the Oakland Hyatt Regency. Think of it, our festival under one roof! We say old for 32 years ago the first Round-Up was held at the Oakland Auditorium. We have grown thru the years to one of the top 3 festivals in the nation. A position we are proud to hold. Harominizing past experiences of Round-Ups in Oakland and San Francisco and new ideas from dancer today we anticipate an exciting, fun filled "85" Golden State Round-Up.

Members of the Callers Ass'n. are saddened by the passing of Merv Bradley and Mac McGill in July. They were Chairmen of Publicity and Membership. Their untimely passing leaves a sad void and they will be truly missed. Round of the month "He's Making Eyes at Me" was ably presented by the McKinneys. (Delco #316) Wayne Janssen presented variations on Alamo Style. Doug Clark received his Callers status and was cheered by some of his Albany Square members. Dinner Dance Sept. 7 at Treasure Island.
