INTRODUCING THE
CALL FOR MEDICAL AID

E C M A is the abbreviation for Emergency Call for Medical Aid. This signal is designed for use by dancers to notify the caller of a medical problem in their square. When such a problem occurs, important minutes are often lost in the frenzy of waving arms and explanations which cannot be heard or understood across a crowded dance floor. Therefore, the 33rd National Square Dance Convention will employ the method of an arched circle to assure the fastest possible response time by medical personnel to an emergency on the dance floor. In this way, we hope to save precious, perhaps lifesaving, minutes.

STEP ONE: When a dancer goes down, a second dancer attends him/her.

STEP TWO: Remaining couples join hands and take a step backward. This allows the injured person and attendant air and room.

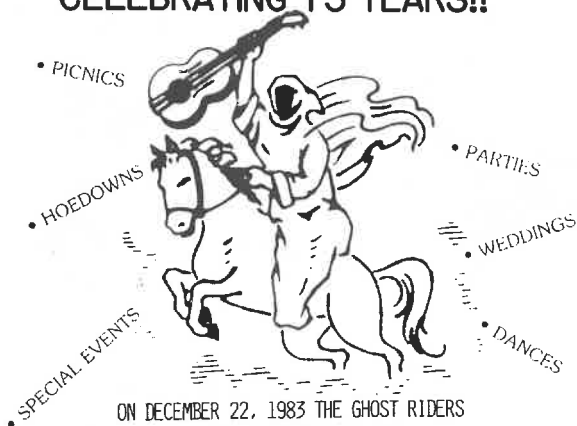

STEP THREE: Raise joined hands as high as possible in the form of an arched circle.

STEP FOUR: On seeing this signal, the caller or hall monitor will immediately place an EMERGENCY CALL for MEDICAL AID.

We, the staff of the 33rd National Square Dance Convention, sincerely hope there will be no need for this action in Baltimore in June, 1984. However, because of the large numbers of dancers attending, there is every probability that emergencies will occur. It is our hope that the arched circle E C M A will become a useful part of our square dance world, used wherever large numbers of dancers gather.

TO ALL CALLERS: Please take time to explain the arched circle E C M A signal to your dancers and familiarize them with the procedure and its purpose.

NOTE TO DANCE PROGRAMMERS:
There is NO PROGRAM called MAINSTREAM QUARTERLY SELECTIONS PROGRAM. Those experimental calls are intended for use in Mainstream Workshops. No dancer is required to know the Q3 calls to attend a MS open dance. If such calls are used the Caller is to teach them if necessary. Please advertise dance programs as MS NOT MEOS.

PLEASE LIMIT YOUR CALLS TO THE ADVERTISED PROGRAM. DO NOT USE A CALL FROM A LIST OTHER THAN ADVERTISED UNLESS YOU WALK IT OR WORKSHOP IT FIRST.

CALLERLAB recommends 29 sessions of 2-2½ hours each or approximately 60 hours of instruction to teach the BASIC PROGRAM (Calls 1-49). 41 sessions to teach the MAINSTREAM PROGRAM (Calls 1-68). Do not teach from just a single position/formation and remember to teach styling as well. Calls in italics may be deferred until later.

Callers Association of No. Calif. Publicity

A very interesting meeting was held on Sunday, August 26th in Richmond. Dave Hobough workshopped Diamond Chain Thru The Gears, followed by a QS critique of possible changes by Tom Johnson. Nate Bliss held a broad discussion on the "care and feeding of Caller Associations". This was a real eye-opener. He followed that with a demonstration on the teaching methods of beginners.

Congratulations to new members and associates: Gary Kendall, Roger Canning, and Dave Gibson. We welcome the new blood into our association.

Watch Square Dance Where for announcement of our meeting in San Lorenzo at the National Guard Armory on the 4th Sunday. The meeting will be followed by an evening dance for Beginners.

This sounds like a real fun day!.....

Past Presidents Ed Ferrario, Bill Carroll, Dale Houck, and Terry Mosier were accorded a round of applause.

That's thirty for now.....

ROUND UP CORNER

"Harmony 85" brings to mind the feature callers harmonizing in program and song to make the Golden State Round Up a success. East joins with west as we anticipate the return of Darryl McMillan, owner of a construction and engineering firm in Panama City, Florida. A familiar name but a new face, we welcome Mac Letson from Muscle Shoals, Alabama. Coming west we pick up Randy Dougherty, from Minneapolis, Minnesota, who started calling at 16 while laid up with a broken leg (an old football injury). Being big hearted we couldn't forget Texas, Houston specifically, from where Pat Barbour comes. To round out our program we call on Jerry & Barbara Pierce from Burmingham, Alabama. Talking of (Advertising) the feature personalities you can help generate enthusiasum for the Golden State Round Up sure to be a festivity for all who attend.

CLUB NEWS

CONTRA COSTA AREA

CONCORD STOMPERS ... What began as a disaster turned into a delightful evening of dancing to GARY SHOEMAKE outside, under the stars, among the cool breezes. Really ought to consider outdoor dances during the hot summer months. Our Wed., "Back To Dancing", dessert pot luck, tri-level party night had a whole bunch of folks dusting off their dancing shoes and polishing up their patterns. Tables were loaded with a display of delicious, delightful "low calorie" desserts which all enjoyed. A special treat is in store for all who attend Wed. Oct. 17th dance night when SCOTT SMITH from Ogden, Utah, Chaparral Records newest, will be our guest caller for a lively evening of dancing. Wed. Oct. 31st, will be Halloween party night with ghosts and goblins and fun for all.

CATCH ALL EIGHTS ... We're putting on our angel's wings for the new square dancing class this month. We've have great response in the past, and that's a tradition we expect to continue as more folks find the fun of square dancing. Congratulations to Wendy St. Clair, who represented West Contra County at the Miss Teen of California Scholarship Pageant in Fresno. We were proud to have such a lovely lady representing our area. The annual picnic was a rousing success. Lots of good food, good fun and some of us even crept away to the pools for swimmin' on a warm summer afternoon. Too bad we have to wait another year for the next one!

GUYS & DOLLS ... Those lazy summer days are over and things have really started jumping. Gus Lockhart organized a Flea Market that cleaned out our garages and raised money for the club treasury at the same time. We held an open house on the 5th to introduce our friends to square dancing. It encouraged a number of them to join our beginners class which started on the 11th. The best Chairpersons, Ed & Darlene Cope, Our thanks to the Gremauxs and the Wells for the wonderful job they did in organizing our annual picnic. The food and company were the greatest and the GUYS & DOLLS olympics was a sports event not to be missed. The 14th found us in Angels Camp for the fun Festival. It's really amazing how much fun you can have in a place called Frogtown.

ANTIOCH AMBLERS ... Our annual picnic was a huge success. Adam Martinelli and crew did a superb job on roasting the Galey's pig. Many thanks to Bill & Betty Frazer for all their work in organizing the food, and Dean & Ilene Aldrich for the games. Gold Medals were awarded to Duwayne Manibusan, for the adult javelin throw, and to Tom Flannery in the childrens category. Robert Chiffolleau & Jerry Galey for Horseshoes. Jerry Willyard for beer drinking. Bill Schultz's team won the baseball tournament and the men won the rope pull. Last but not least was the childrens sundae eating contest, with Tommy Frazer lasting the longest, runner-ups were Jessica Pilster and Shaunna Manibusan. A sticky good time was had by all.

RIPSNORTERS ... August has been a very busy month.

Weddings, Anniversaries, babies. Congratulations to all! Plymouth potluck and the Claypipers turned out to be a happening. Seemed to be more guests and RIPS. You're missing a real treat if you haven't attended the Claypipers/Plymouth/Drytown. As usual, Ben, Esther was fantastic. The Friday nite MS dances at Ygnacio Valley High are lots of fun. Lots of new dancers to meet. the Sept. 7th MS dance is designated as the MD Dance with proceeds going to Muscular Dystrophy. We had a great celebration, a lavish abundance of goodies, joy everywhere. Ruthie and Ben's wedding party was really fun. Dave & Debbie Mosher's return from their Bermuda honeymoon called for another big celebration. They danced to the Hawaiian Wedding song. We are wondering what next, three weddings in two months! The fun we have you've never seen anything like it. We invite you to come and see for yourselves what RON'S calling does to people!

During the weekend of Aug. 25th & 26th, several members attended the WHIRL-A-WAYS dance in Sacramento where they had a great time. Hope to see everyone at our hoedown Oct. 20th at Downer Jr. High.

FIVE STAR SQUARES ... Vacation time is almost over and we are anticipating an improvement in attendance for our workshops. Our July party night was enlivened by caller DICK ARMSTRONG and guests from the BOOTS & BELLS. On August 21st our caller was GARY KENDALL and it was also a lively evening with a square of TWIN CITY STEPPERS dancing with us. We were well represented at the Napa Valley Grape Festival Aug. 17 & 18th. Everyone was pleased the callers, NELSON WATKINS and KELLY MIZUNO. The round dancers had the pleasure of dancing to the calls of JIM & BARBARA BARNES. Several couples danced at the Napa County Fair. It was fun for us as well as the spectators. We are now in the process of planning our Hoedown for Dec. PIONEERS ... The club held their picnic at Conn Dam and everybody had a great time. Our beginners will be graduating on August 27th and we are looking forward to having them in our club. We're very happy to report that Gladys Hall, our longtime Secretary is now at home after spending so much time in the hospital. We all miss her.

OLD CAPITOL SQUARES ... Recently we had 2 guest nights to introduce our friends and neighbors to square dancing and to promote our new beginners class this fall. There was such enthusiasm and we are hoping for a large class. On August 14th we entertained the visiting Japanese students and their host families. Dorothy did her usual great job of breaking down the language barrier and everyone had a good time. The Grape Festival in Napa on August 18th found many of us enjoying dancing to NELSON WATKINS. Our annual picnic was held on Aug. 25th at the Civic Center Park in Benicia. Good food and games were enjoyed. Our next social activity will be a bowling party which promises to be very interesting and different.

SAN FRANCISCO AREA

ROADRUNNERS ... While our hall was closed for two weeks in August, many of us enjoyed visiting and dancing with other clubs in the area. We certainly appreciate the friendliness and hospitality shown by all. Thanks to our Social Activities Planners, Ruth Giessner & Joyce Van Huystee, our Ice Cream Social was a huge success with everyone getting sufficiently stuffed on lots of ice cream and homemade goodies. Good thing we danced away a few calories after indulging. Our newer dancers are doing just great and will be ready to fully participate in our RON LIBBY Hoedown on Oct. 16th. Hope to see lots of you there. Many of our club members are planning a trip to Grass Valley on Oct. 5, 6 & 7th to attend the Gold Rush Jamboree. We're looking forward to a great time and hope to see some of the other Bay Area Clubs there.

RANCHEROS ... We wish to thank the many dancers who attended our Aug. hoedown to help make it such a success. Missed at our Wed. night workshops are Bud & June Carroll. Bud had to quit dancing due to a painful knee problem. A speedy recovery is wished for Willa Pera who recently underwent surgery. She is recuperating nicely at home. With summer and vacations many members departed for rest and relaxation, some as far as Europe. Pat Stanton to Ireland and Bill & Patricia Battaglia to Italy. Our 5th Wednesday dance in August was well attended with seven clubs represented. It was a fun evening and we thank the callers who shared the program.

PAIRS 'N SPARES ... Our annual picnic was held at the home of our gracious Pres., and Taw, the Fairbanks. Fun, food and games made it an enjoyable day. Next on the activity calendar is the Mystery Trip. Carol sure can keep a secret. More later. Beginners class started in Sept. and we look forward to a good group. It was a real pleasure to have the Riaskas visit the club recently. Jack is now back dancing after a prolonged absence and doing just great. The Kennefick's headed North on their annual modern style Wagon Train (ala camper) roundup. Alice left sporting a broken toe. Audrey Darida had to forgo dancing the hoedown but insisted on doing kitchen duty while nursing a badly injured ankle. That's square dancing dedication.

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTE
San Mateo Chapter ... Our Beginner class, starting Sept. 5th, drew a good crowd and we welcome all you future dancers. We have new officers. Diane Shemanski, Pres., Elsie Barns, Vice Pres., John Nozzi, Treas., Ellen Doerfer, Sec. They were recently installed, at our semi-annual Appreciation dinner, by Frank Owens, Northern region director, Our Anniversary Hoedown, Sept. 15th chaired by Pat Barbutti, was a huge success. The Dancers were very receptive to the lively calling of JET ROBERTS. We are now getting ready for the trip to Las Vegas, Oct. 27th, to the B 'N B International 35th Anniversary Celebration. See you there.

CLODHOPPERS ... We have 2½ new squares in the club now. Our CLODHOPS shed their cocoons and CLODHOP badges to become beautiful Square Dancers and full fledged club members on the 15th of Aug. We welcome them into the world of Square Dancing. There were nine couples of our club that spent the weekend dancing with the WHIRL-A-WAYS in Sacramento to the calling of KEN BOWER and the Chaparral gang. We thoroughly enjoyed the dancing. While GEORGE & ANN DREIER were taking a well needed vacation we had DALE HOUCK calling for us. Thank you, DALE, we enjoyed having you call for us. Come back any time.

KALICO KATS ... We had a wonderful summer dancing to the calling of DALE HOUCK & GEORGE DRIER at the 49'ERS summer symphony Hoedown. We also enjoyed dancing in Fort Bragg to the calling of HARRY WHITLOCK for the REDWOOD COASTERS Hoedown. Plus a barbeque before dancing. After dance party and a champagne breakfast Sunday morning. On Sept. 7th, we and our regular Guest dined and cruised on San Francisco Bay and had a very enjoyable evening. On Sept. 14th many members attended the CABLE CAR SQUARES 11th Annual Benefit dance for the S.F. Handicapped Center Gym. JOEL KADISH, DALE HOUCK, DOUG SAUNDERS and JIM WYLIE'S calling was superb. KALICO KATS & RICH MANSFIELD welcome you to our Friday night workshop plus level with some A-1 included.

GINGHAM SQUARES ... The Aug. barbeque was a surprise celebration of VP Pete & Elsie Pereira's 35th Wedding Anniversary. Topping the cake was the "bride & groom" which had graced their original wedding cake. Two Pereira daughters and husbands joined the champagne toast for many more happy years. Among our many travelers were the Schimeks and Ciabattari's enjoying a bus trip northeast, square dancing in Yellowstone and Calgary, where the Schimeks met years ago. The Pereiras hosted the August Board meeting with a carefree weekend on their houseboat at Don Pedro Dam. Lots of fun swimming, etc. Circle Nov. 10th, date of the GINGHAMS' Fall hoedown with our caller DALE HOUCK at the mike, rounds by the Wrights.

WHIRL-A-WAYS ... More than 60 happy satisfied dancers enjoyed the delicious potluck dinner and then two weeks later, the Annual Picnic. Both before workshop, so we were able to dance off some of the calories. Do I dare mention that our Progressive Dinner is coming up in October. Our first love is dancing but the dinners are a very close second. Bill McCreedy, Program Chairman, has had a full schedule of events this year, and says that he has been very fortunate in his choices of co-ordinators as every event has been highly successful.

SAN FRANCISCO CHAPTER ... We enjoyed the Australian "Guiding Lights" Squares, visiting the SQUARE CUTTERS, they gave a beautiful exhibition. Northern Region B'n'B's had their 7th Annual hoedown. All the Chapters helped make it successful dance. Danced with the CAPER CUTTERS, and also joined the 5th Thursday group at the FRANCISCAN STOMPERS. Looking forward to CABLE CARS annual dinner dance, always a great day of dancing. Our JIM WYLIE will be one of the 4 callers there. Our Beginners Class started Sept. 11th and is at Ebenezer Lutheran Church. Don't know where our workshop will be, please phone for location 566-3563 or 681-4843.

SQUARE CUTTERS ... Many members enjoyed a weekend with the REDWOOD COASTERS at Fort Bragg, and dancing to calling of HARRY WHITLOCK. We had a delightful group of 20 visitors from Australia stop to dance with us on their way home, via Hong Kong. Club members provided all the refreshments, and it was a festive evening. The group with their caller favored us with an excellent exhibition of dancing, and many mementos. A busy week is lined up for August. Monday night a get together with the CAPER CUTTERS, and Thursday with the 49'ERS, and FRANCISCAN STOMPERS. It's always lots of fun to visit with other clubs. SQUARE CUTTERS are back dancing at the Lakeshore School, and visitors are always welcome. Come and enjoy the calling of HARRY WHITLOCK, for an evening of good dancing.

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS ... Gladys Woodd entertained her family from England in Aug. Vangy Kelly had a great time in Canada square dancing to many callers. Bet she is tired. Some of us had a ball at the Cable Car Benefit for the Handicapped with delicious food and good calling. Sol Stecklow deserves a medal for all his hard work putting these occasions together. Danced to JOEL KADISH (and all his hats) at the PAIRS 'N SPARES "Hawaiian luau". The food was most colorful and very tempting. Many lovely designed mumus with matching shirts were seen. Mary Sue Walsh and Phil Payton surprised her sister in Los Angeles on weekend. Happy Halloween. Don't let the goblins get ya!!

CABLE CAR SQUARES ... With an afternoon of dancing to a line-up of the most popular club callers in the Bay Area followed by a twilight happy hour with all the fixin's and a sit down dinner, the sometimes annual Benefit hoedown for the SF Recreation Center for the Handicapped, spark-plugged by Sylvia & Sol Stecklow, was (as usual) a huge success, and the club thanks all their friends and guests for their strong support of this event.

LONGHORNS ... We enjoyed dancing to Don Tomson and dancing with his daughter, Kim, while Bob Southern was on a two weeks vacation. Congratulations: Helen and Sarkis Boghosian on your 53rd Anniversary. Our travelers are returning, John & Elfreda Parsons spent three weeks in England, Scotland and Wales and was named Earl & Dutchess of Bunathy Castle in Scotland. Alice & Ray Allen, Mary & Bill Dunhcan toured Eastern Europe for 3½ weeks. We extend an invitation to all the clubs to attend our 30th Anniversary hoedown in Oct. (see ad in this magazine). A great night of dancing is promised.

HIGHLAND SWINGERS ... We have done it again. Our picnic at Mitchell Park in Palo Alto was headed up by Norma and Russ Pollard and it was a sensation. Terrific food that wouldn't stop and we played volleyball, horse shoes, cards and all the other fun things that are associated with a picnic. Our well travelled members have covered a lot vacation miles. Thelma and Harold toured the New England States, the Dave Williams' went to Europe as did Irma and Arnie, and the Pollards, Willadsens and Swensons took a camping Square Dance trip together in the mountains. Cliff and Bunny Hanners' daughter Linda came away from the San Mateo County Fair with a number of awards for entries in crocheting.

ISLAND SQUARES ... Hoist Anchors, set your sails, and cruise to an exciting hoedown on Oct. 20th as we invite you to come and celebrate our 16th Anniversary. Our Cruise Directors, Herb and Lois Nieman, are busy preparing the evenings' itinerary so it's sure to be a gala affair, complete with tropical atmosphere, tempting treats, un-found treasures, and great dancing. Headlining the evenings entertainment will be our own KEN KENMILLE and guest caller GARY CARNES with BILL & COLLETTE WEBER cueing the rounds. As you promenade up to the dance floor, you'll be greeted by friendly island natives headed by Sunshine Officers Jim & Jackie Comiskey. So, it's "full speed ahead" for the ISLAND SQUARES' 16th Anniversary Hoedown on Oct. 20th at 2000 hours (that's 8 pm for all you land lubbers!)

REDWOOD EMPIRE

QUESTION MARKS ... Our club campout at Ruth Lake, on the Mad River in Trinity Co., was everything we thought it was going to be, and more. Lots of boats pulling lots of skiers. We decided that the air was too turbulent for parachute kiting after test-pilot Larry Brown was slam-dunked into the lake by a vicious down-draft. The Ruth Lake Olympics presented by the kids (Including Gary Wielen) featured hydro-slide & barefoot skiing, (Scott Dailey), trick skis (Gary), and seven skiers (Dana, Kim, Tami, Scott, Marni, Jenny and Cecile who was a guest of the Perrys from the French Riviera) all pulled at once behind Tom Walton's powerful Wild Hair. Back to dancing now, we hope to see you all at our RON WELSH dance Oct. 27th.

DIAMOND DANCERS ... Our guest caller introductions may be out of control. "The besto in the Westo from old Modesto" (RON WELCH); "The real dandy from the Rio Grande" (NATE BLISS); "The bearded bard of the Bay" (BOB ELLING) were tolerable, but "The euphonious Eurekan" (JOE SALTEL)?? What next, Abbott? (See for yourself October 12th when JOE encores his terrific A-2 calling Sept. 7th.) We're offering "A-1 floor time" for experienced and recently graduated A-1 dancers the first Fridays in Nov. & Dec. BOB ELLING will call three A-1 tips, another work-shopping announced A-2 calls, the two A-2 tips, one "vanilla" the other "hard". Rounds as usual. Computer squares for the A-1 tips, but bring a full square if you'd like to avoid the computer. All A-1 dancers are welcome.

SAUCY SQUARES ... Our first Tuesday of the month is ice cream and fun night. We also saw a happy clogger demonstration by Margaret Doolittle, Pam & George Zeiminski, Sharon Falsey and Pat Kavanaugh. A clogging class will start in the fall so welcome to all. Previous vacationers are back. Among them are Hall and Julie Young. Also Anne Greenholgh who was in Maui visiting her granddaughter. While there she danced with the Maui Mixers a club which was originally called by our DAVE WISCHEMAN when he lived in Maui. Welcome to new member couples Ernie & Po McMahon and Edgar & Laura Wiberg. We will be busy starting our beginners square dance class on Sept. 6th called by DAVE WISCHEMANN. Also looking forward to our Anniversary Hoedown on Oct. 6th called by MIKE WRIGHT and TED and JANICE SIERANKOWSKI. Its all happening at Wischemann Hall so come and join the fun!

MARKWESTERNERS ... We want to know, how did it get to be Oct.? Summer was just here, a nice leisurly, lazy summer, and whoops, there was a major political convention, the Olympics, a lot of traveling and for many of us there was a lovely picnic day at a very special winery in the hills of Windsor. This latest event, thanks to our ever lovin' Leo Pozzi who claims to have the key to the front gate! The summer months brought us four new members. We are delighted to welcome Penny and Lou Sabrusula also Eleanor & John Miller, both couples from the Orchard. Former members Barbara & Ben McCutcheon just returned from an Alaskan cruise dropped by to dance withus. Nice to see you, B & B. That's all folks. Happy Halloween.

SINGLES & PAIRS ... Thanks to our great hosts the SAUCY SQUARES for a fun potluck and games at the Wischemann Hall Aug. 10th. Don't forget, our potluck on the first Wed. Our beginner square dance class has started on Mondays at Monroe Hall in Santa Rosa, 8PM. Newcomers welcome. 54 of the last graduates (almost everyone) are now with the regulars. At our Aug. Hoedown caller GLEN ROBISON from Modesto and the SZAFRANSKIS on the rounds kept everyone dancing to 11:30. Mary Ellen held a drawing for a square dance dress to advertise her newly opened shop at 3355 Santa Rosa Ave., Santa Rosa phone 542-7270. Our Oct. 20th hoedown at Monroe Hall will feature caller JOEL KADISH and the SZAFRANSKIS on rounds.

RAINBOW STROLLERS ... It has been a busy summer for us. We held our summer hoedown on July 7th with guest caller JET ROBERTS doing the squares and EDNA & MIKE SZANFRANSKI calling the rounds. A good time was had by all. June elections resulted in new club officers in July. Arnold Crow was elected President along with Bob Buckett as Vice Pres. Assistaing them will be Ofelia Bostrom, Secretary & Emilie Parrish, Treasurer. In Aug. Marty and Lynn Southerland graciously opened their home in Sonoma for a dinner party for all of the club members. Although the first three dinner courses turned out to be rather strange combinations picked out by the somewhat confused club members, the rest of the meal more than made up for it by its excellence.

RUNNING BEARS ... This month we finally settle into our permanent day and time! We now dance every Friday, 8-10pm, at the Senior Center of Santa Rosa. Come and visit. We are also looking forward to our first Saturday Hoedown with our own club caller, NATE BLISS, on October 6th. It is our Birthday dance to celebrate our final move. Coming up, we have some wonderful callers. KIP GARVEY is calling in November and HONEY WOLFSON in December. We'd love to see you in a square. CIRCLE 'N SQUARES ... On August 11th, DAVE HOBAUGH called an excellent hoedown for us, with JOHN RETTER joining him on the rounds. Chairpersons for the evening were the Freitas, Shone and Desideri's. Vacation time has spread us all out this summer from all over the U.S. and even to Germany by the Hanks who are visiting their son Sean. It's nice that the weather has cooperated with our many vacationers. You'll come join us on Oct. 13th to dance to JOE SALTEL & LARRY WILLIAMS.

CLEARLAKE AREA

CLEARLAKE SQUARES ... As always, DAVE HOBAUGH called a marvelous hoedown for us in August. We will dance the first night of the fair at the Lake Co. Fairgrounds with CHICK calling to interest more people to learn to square dance. Many of our club RV'd to Fort Bragg for Paul Bunyon Days and then spent Sunday at the Bob Stepp's for a roast pig BBQ. Our guest caller for October 27th will be MILT ADAMS. Try to make it.

KONOCIT KICKERS ... Los Angeles didn't have a monopoly on the Olympics. We had our own square dance Olympics at our recent workshop. Winners were Quent and Gerry Jacobs in the round dance competition. They scored a 10 and were awarded a gold medal. Lloyd and Marianne Wright, newer round dancers, scored a 9.9. The winning square of the square dance competition included Steven & Darlene Garner, Wayne & Gloria Tarver, Vic & Shirl Carder and Ken & Wendy Rose. They were each awarded a gold medal. We're looking forward to our Oct. Hoedown with ERIC HENERLAU. Hope to see you there.

MARIN COUNTY AREA

TERPSICHOEANS ... On behalf of all the club I would like to extend my thanks to everyone who attended our Round Dance Party on Aug. 11th for the benefit of the Square Dance Foundation of Marin. A special "thank you" to our own Round Dance Queuers, LON & JEAN FERRELL and our guest Queuers LARRY & KAREN WILLIAMS from the LARRY-GO-ROUNDS who donated their valuable time for this event. It was a very big success for our First Annual Round Party and it was good to see everyone enjoying themselves. We hope to do it again in the near future. Thank you again.

CORNHUSKERS ... July 1st the new board took over: Pres., Fred & Ursula Borgman, Vice Pres., Chuck & Buzzie Kopf, Treas., Jo & Carl Smith and Secretary, Bonnie & Chuck Clausen. Graduation night of Advanced Workshop was Sept. 5th. 15 workshopppers graduated and joined the club. Congratulations to all. Sept. 12th the new all position dancing advanced workshop started at 6:45pm. Our caller, DAVE STEVENS, really knows how to make it different. Last chance to join is Oct. 3rd. (You must know the basics of A-1 and A-2). Location Hamilton AFB School, Novato (North Marin). The Morrisons off to England, Scotland and Ireland for 6 weeks. The Wagon Train took off again to McCloud, Blair's, Ruprechts, Smiths, Murphys and Pedersons.

is Nadine Sterling. Allen & Louise Gonroy remain on as Secy.-Treas. Martha Sterling has offered to act as Assist. Secretary, shepherding the MS section of the club. We are very grateful for her help. Conroys are taking a motor trip to see square dance friends in Rapid City, SD, then on the Edmonton, Alberta where they will stay during the visit of the Pope, then home through the Rockies, Vancouver and Portland. The new Beginner Class kicked off in Sept. during Square Dance Month. Our gratitude for the hard work as Presidents. Joe & Jeanellen Killian, who are still there helping out as needed. C-1 section continues at 4 to 6pm. Sundays, at Hamilton AFB School in Marin.

STUMP JUMPERS ... Fantastic weekend in La Porte at BUNNY & DAVE'S Heav'n Vu; some staying there while others at the old hotel with ghost! Great dinner at hotel and 47 to potluck at cabin, then onto campground hoedown by the TIMBER TWIRLERS. We had singing around the campfire with Jim Ragle on accordinian. Bill Almeida was official marshmallow roaster, pleasing all but one, not named. Tony Segura (again) and Ben Valdez were horseshoe champs. Many thanks to Virginia Darnell for BUNNY & DAVE Fan Club Badges. JACK MURTHA called an excellent Aug. hoedown for us, though small, NOVATO SQUARES winning coffee and a couple from Sacramento, the Big Door Prize. Thanks SQUAWS & PAWS for joining us at Aug. 22nd workshop and to our other regular guests.

M.O.D. SQUAD ... Our Pre-Holiday Hoedown will be held at San Jose Jr. High in Novato on Nov. 3rd. Our guest caller WAYMON GODWIN, from the FRONTIER TWIRLERS will cue Rounds from 8-8:30 and between tips. Tell your square dancing friends and join us for a pleasant evening. Teresa Koenning has returned from Germany after an exciting months visit with her friend and former M.O.D. SQUAD member Maria Robinson. Opal Gray is dancing again after a long absence. Welcome back you too. Thirteen members travelled to Fort Bragg to dance with the REDWOOD COASTERS. HARRY WHITLOCK was the guest caller. It was an Upper. The club Barbecue-picnic held at the Cheese Factory was a delightful event. Thanks Champions.

SQUAWS & PAWS ... August was a busy month for us. A trip to Angel Island for a picnic and boating around the island in Glen's boat was a lot of fun and we wish that more of the group had been along. We're in the process of planning a camp out and hoedown in Olema in conjunction with a campout on Sept. 22nd which should be a great time. Glen will be doing a workshop of plus calls starting Sept. 5th and continuing on alternating weeks through the end of the year. For info, call Glen at 453-9798. Everyone is invited to dance with us at Lu Sutton Schook, 1800 Center Rd. in Novato. Come brush up on those Plus calls, and enjoy Glen's great calling!

EAST BAY AREA

"THE EDITORS WOULD LIKE TO APOLOGIZE FOR ANY NEWS THAT WAS OMITTED IN THE SEPT. ISSUE. SOMEHOW A TYPED PAGE WENT ASTRAY. WE ARE VERY SORRY!!!"

FAR WESTERN DANCERS ... August was a quiet month filled with vacations for many of our members. We joined the EAGLE SQUARES for a 5th Wed. dance and appreciated their hospitality. We're excited for your beginners class in Sept. looking forward to having some new people joining our ranks. I hear wedding bells again. More next month. We hope to see everyone at our Anniversary Hoedown on Oct. 6th. DAVE HOBAUGH will be calling, and I hear the refreshments planned are wonderful.

KUNTRY KUZINS ... Tom Roper was up to his high standards of calling, thanks for your support of our annual dance. The decorating was done by Lois, Marguerite, Nancy and Kathy Garfinkle. Don & Gereia have consented to plan our yearly picnic, at Seven Hills in Union City. Bo & Sharon Bautista have been appointed Sheriff so be sure you wear your badge! Russ & Jean brought guests all the way from County Waterford, Ireland to watch us Square Dance. Tom & Eleanor Kelly, and Joe & Maria O Donovan were very charming. Russ flew to Ireland with them. Congratulations to the Stelles on their first grandson, ask them about him! Our Club square danced at Oaklands new Convention Hall to try it out for sound. Plan to join us there in May.

CHECKMATES ... Many of Our friends are enjoying vacations this summer. Ed & Becky Frisbee are relaxing in Mexico and Hal & Mary Goehner are traveling in Europe and hoping to do a little Square dancing there. Bob & Evelyn Bruce were camped in Northern Calif. and were surprised when someone asked if they square danced (they had forgotten the decal on their bumper), and were really surprised when it turned out to be MARV LINDNER who will call our Anniversary dance in Sept. It was good to see Joe Lingor back from his broken ankle, although he can't dance yet he's thankful he can walk. Our thoughts are with June Simmons who injured her shoulder when she tripped over her dog. Charlie and Dorothy Wolff are happily announcing the birth of another grandson.

SOLOS AND PAIRS ... DAN KILLINGSWORTH, our round dance caller, was presented a beautifully decorated Money Tree on Aug. 15th by our President, Dorothy Anthony. It was a wedding gift from them members of the club for his marriage on Aug. 25th to Pamela Sabatini. Our best wishes and hearty congratulations go with Dan & Pam. Howard Brooking, our Vice President, has returned from an extended vacation visiting relatives in Montana and Idaho. Gela Wagoner, club secretary, is back from a cruise to Alaska. Mary Ellen and George Sougey also took a cruise to Alaska and say that's the only way to go. We are glad to get back to our old school house on Broadway Terrace after it was closed 3 weeks for floor refinishing.

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS ... During the month of August we had a mystery bus trip arranged by Marvin (Bud) & Paula Lavin. We started out with some Ice Breaker games after it appeared that the bus driver had lost not only his way, but also his marbles. In fact, more than a few of the passengers were getting ready to hi-jack the bus and throw the bus driver off the Carquinez bridge. It all turned out great, however, as he found his way to the Grape

Festival in Napa, we had some great dancing to NELSON WATKINS and on the way home we treated ourselves to a little light refreshment (very little and very light) except for Wayne who wouldn't touch a drop of anything except for his usual Dr. Pepper. (If you will believe that, you will believe anything.)

WOODEN NICKLES ... We are looking forward to welcoming a new group of dancers when our intro to A-1 workshop begins Oct. 21st. A good understanding of plus APD is needed. Things were slow during the summer since dancing on Sunday evenings doesn't have top priority rating in many households. We've enjoyed visitors from the SQUARE CIRCLES who dropped in to brush up their advance level dancing. KEN KENMILLE is great at calling patten for mini squares. It's an enlightening experience for everyone. We appreciate having BILL BANKERT call for us in Sept. and early Oct. while KEN is cruising the Caribbean and touring Europe!

ODD'S 'N END'S ... On Aug. 24th we gave a demonstration square dance called by ED FERRARIO. This was in celebration of Humanity Week at the Oakland Army Base. Our thanks to ED and the people who came to dance with us. Our beginners class is doing great and had their first party night on Aug. 23rd. On Sept. 5th we will be starting at 7pm and review beginner basics. This will be an ideal time for new dancers to join, as well as review for those who may have missed some of the earlier sessions. Call Belva Kruse 530-4918 or Zep Bennett 534-9576, if you would like to join. Some of our regular mamebers are on vacation. LARRY MANNING Just returned from his. Ann Williamson sends thanks and regards to her many friends. We will miss Yvonne Schulman who has to stop dancing per doctors orders.

SQUARE CIRCLE CLUB ... Sat. the 18th of August members joined the Wilkins in Scotch Golf at the Springtown course in Livermore, finishing at Chas & May Wildins home for a buffet dinner. Everyone agreed we had a real fun time, with a nice breeze that kept us cool and gave us all a great tan. Mary Pring and her partner Tom Devine won first prize, Terry Awtrey and Marty Phillips comming second and the new golfers are ready to do this again. We were pleased to have May Pring join us in the golf so soon after her surgery with no ill effects afterwards, well done May, we hope you will be dancing with us again soon.

ACES & LACES ... Our annual picnic was held at Shadow Cliffs Regional Park on Aug. 12th. What a pleasant day, just right for a family outing with many things to keep you busy including the popular water slides, volleyball, swimming, fishing, and just plain relaxing. We even heard a little guitar playing by our shy Robert. 14 couples and their families enjoyed barbequed hamburgers and hotdogs plus the delicious salads and desserts which were supplied by the club membes. 3½ squares captured the buckskin just in time to display it at our 29th Anniversary hoedown on Aug. 18th. cheesecake and cherries were served for dessert to compliment our new burgundy club dresses. Please check our ad for our Oct. Bazaar in this issue.

EAGLE SQUARES ... We are doing some long range planning to bring the RED BOOT BOYS back to the Pleasanton Fairgrounds in Nov. 1985. We enjoyed dancing to their calling during the rains which almost flooded out their spectacular last year. Their after party was out of this world. Really great harmonizing. The WEBERS taught some western dances and everyone got into the act. We hope to have JOHNNY JONES,, their lead singer, for a ticket dance in Aug. 1985. Don't miss it! After dancing Sept. 29 & 30th at Dublin's Founders Week festivities we'll dance at the annual Livermore Cultural Arts Festival Oct. 7th. The next weekend will see some of us at the SCVSDA 28th annual Jubilee. On the 24th we'll host our annual potluck supper and square dance social with the VALLEY TRAVELERS. We have cancelled our Nov. Hoedown due to conflicting events.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS ... We are sorry to announce that JACK PETRI is retiring as our club caller. JACK will be missed as a caller and he and RUTH will be missed as good friends. The club is in the process of auditioning for a new caller. There are many club activities in Sept. Doris & Pete Bailey are hosting the Hay Ride and Gussie Weissman and Marion Kappler are hosting the Progressive dinner. Lets have a good turnout. Beginner class starting Sept. 12th and don't forget our Hoedown Nov. 10th.

teaching and our Vice President Bonnie Genouvese as Chief Angel. Beginners hoedown planned for Nov. 2nd. Some of our more accomplished club members are progressing with RICHARD'S A-1 class, Wed. at Bidwell. Rotating partners at Hoedowns, new and optional is being enjoyed by some of our members. Sept. meeting was followed by a swim party. Thanks to Pearl Barnhisel's hospitality. A picnic with two other clubs was held at Chabot Park in Castro Valley. Good organization by Georgia Kamlin with games, barbecue etc. made this a success.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS ... Our club members have been busy vacationing this summer, but still found time to raid clubs. We had possession of the buckskin for a very short period of time. Club caller JIM OSBORNE and Family had club members over on the 4th of July to dance in the street. Hors d'oeuvres and beverages were served followed by a pizza dinner and desserts. The OSBORNE'S home over looks the greater east bay where we watched the fire works from Great America to Hayward. Amateur night was a fun evening for all who attended. It still hasn't been determined who had more fun, the dancers or the callers. Amateur calling was done by Vice President Bob Battaglia, Bob Fenton and Cliff Vorderstrasse.

FREMONT SINGLES ... Hi! Since the installation of our new officers in July we have had a calendar filled with many varied and interesting activities. An exciting softball game and picnic with the SAN LORENZO SINGLES, an enchanting evening of dancing and entertainment for our Hawaiian night, a delicious dinner at Scopazzi's and fun dancing at the Slab for our Mystery Trip, an evening under the stars to see the Sound of Music, with dessert at Donna's, a wine trip through Sonoma Co., a hayride and campout at the Valladao Ranch and a fantastic Anniversary Hoedown with KIP GARVEY calling. Did you see our promo on Cable TV? Apparently many people did because our Open House was a wonderful success! We video taped the evening, so everyone went over to the Pizza Shack afterward to relive the celebration, to socialize, and to do some more square dancing. OUR next party night will be on Halloween, Oct. 31st, come in costume, it will be a lot of fun! Come on down any Wed. 7-10, at Muller School in Newark. We'd love to meet you.

RANCHERO SQUARES ... Our new club officers have been elected they are: President, Sue & Herman Laffety, Vice President, Marlyn & Jim Long, Secretary, Steve and Gigi Singleton, Treasurers, Albert & Karen Mosier. Our workshop classes have been going very well. We have learned so much in such a short time. We will be continuing the plus workshop through the fall. A special thanks to TERRY & CRICKET for opening their homme to everyone for the barbeque and swim party. Fun was had by all who attended.

EDEN ROCKERS ... Western barbeque night was great fun with all dressed in Western Garb. Following relaxing Happy Hour barbequed burgers along with specialty dishes prepared by members, topped off with ice cream and cake made dinner perfect. Aug. was another month with members on vacation. Four member couples have just taken off for a big trip to Canada's beautiful high country in their R.V.'s. Over three squares of us attended EAGLE SQUARES club hosting 5th Wednesday get together dance for local Wed. clubs. Our own CHARLIE BROWN with wife LINDA also attended and CHARLIE shared calling program. A fun evening.

KEEWAY SWINGERS ... Aug. 5th thru 11th KEN CHRIS KENMILLE were in Feather River vacation Camp calling and teaching squares. On Thurs. the 9th the club danced at the Santa Clara Co.

Fair, and had a great time. Aug. 11th was enjoyed at the District MD Benefit, and a nice bit of change was raised. Aug. 12th we had a swim party and barbeque at the Powers home. Thank you Bob & Harriette. On Aug. 16th we had a cake for KEN'S birthday. We are looking forward to the 28th Annual Jubilee and our 18th Anniversary Hoedown this month. See ads in this issue. We hope to dance with you at one of the or both dances. And remember keep dancing and have fun.

PRESIDENTS NEWS

"Taking pride in what you do helps to make a happy you." Happiness is NCSDA, for we take pride in our clubs, districts and association. Enthusiastic support of the dances and activities in each area (club, district, association) show the newer dancers, non dances and media of our pride. Our pride shines through as we set goals in promoting activities in our movement. Each club members vote in selecting the 10 callers for the Anniversary Dance, support of State Convention, Fresno, April 19-21st, 1985 thru prize ticket sales (goal of 5,000 for NCSDA) and attendance (note: club can get rebate on tickets sold), help defer cost to United Square Dancers of America (U.S.D.A) as they work for square dance as our National Dance and nation support (Decals - 50¢ - 2200 NCSDA goal) show our support in an activity that makes us happy. Happiness is ours,
