WE ARE ALL STARS

I have heard increasingly more strident complaints about star tips at local dances. I'm not sure who coined the term "Star Tip", but the connotation has become that for this tip only the "Stars" dance while all the ordinary dancers watch. Among dancers who are not "Stars", it is called the "Show Off" tip.

The idea has been around a long time. Before A-1 etc, was invented, callers were asked to do one tip (usually near the end of the dance) during which all the stops were pulled and the dancers challenged a bit more than usual. The difference between those tips and today's is that the former challenging tip was always in program. Every dancer at the dance could participate if he or she was so inclined (and most did!). The caller used more complex variations, fewer catch-up moves (forward and back, dosado), strung longer sequences of continuous action into the choreography, and accepted more breakdowns--BUT, always used only the calls everyone at the dance knew. At a recent dance with over forty squares in attendance, my club members tell me they timed 35 minutes of dancing by seven squares during a middle of the dance star tip that was out-of-program. This type of programming is similiar to a demonstration or exhibition. Apparently another tip for this small group of out-of-program dancers was also called at the end of the dance.

I'd like to suggest that clubs think about the original concept of one in-program challenging tip. This area is blessed with some superb choreographers and regularly brings in some of the best callers in the country. Ask them to call one challenging in-program, Mainstream or Plus tip that everyone can try. It is fun for callers to stretch themselves and many dancers also enjoy being lifted a little above their normal comfort zone. Just keep it fair! Use only calls everyone at the dance is expected to know. Schedule out-of-program events before or after the starting and ending hours for the advertised program. Let's make "Stars" of all our dancers.

ALOHA....NOT GOOD-BYE!

Terry and I want to Thank all of you for your co-operation and support of us during our term as Editors of Square Dance Where. As when any publication changes hands, there is excitement and nostalgia involved. We chose not to purchase the magazine from the Square Dance Callers Association and they made a good decision in allowing it to remain in the hands of our Co-Editors and Longtime Friends Pat & Dale Spain. We wish them much luck in their future endeavors in the publication of Square Dance Where. Pat will continue to publish the magazine as it was meant to be published....for the promotion of Square Dancing. WE ARE NOT RETIRING FROM SQUARE DANCING HOWEVER!! Terry will continue his Square Dance calling career along with many other pursuits. Keep in touch and we hope to see our many "Dancin' Friends" at future hoedowns.

Keep 'Em Squared Up! .

CLUB NEWS

CONTRA COSTA AREA

CONCORD STOMPERS ... Our activities are in full swing as November approaches. The A-1 dance on Friday, Nov. 2nd with MIKE WRIGHT calling holds a challenge for those attending. The Nov. 3rd plus hoedown with BRONK WISE calling should be a fun night for all. He's a great caller. The beginners hoedown scheduled for Nov. 10th with our own BOB ELLING calling will be a good workout for all the newer dancers. A real special thank you to all the newer dancers. A real special thank you to the SQUARENADERS for allowing us to share the evening with them. Sharing the spotlight with the national election the STOMPERS will also be electing half of their governing board this month. The A-1 and beginners Class are working enthusiastically on Monday and Thursday nights. Happy Thanksgiving to all.

GUYS & DOLLS ... October got off to a great start when KIP GARVEY called our hoedown at Ygnacio Valley on the 6th. KIP did his usual excellent job of calling a very enjoyable, fast paced dance. The A-1 Star Tip in the middle of the evening was well received and will hopefully be continued at future GUYS & DOLLS Hoedowns. Our Octoberfest potluck on the 17th was a big success also. How could it have been otherwise with all that wonderful German food we had to eat. We were lucky to be able to move after dinner, let alone dance. Our compliments to Vicki Wells and her social committee. Everyone is eagerly looking forward to a mystery trip which is scheduled for Nov. 10th. Our destination is a closely guarded secret known only to Don & Marilyn Gremaux. Although I have heard a rumor that we may very well wind up at the Gremaux's house watching slides of their recent European vacation.

DIABLO SINGLES ... Time is marching on and we are going strong. There are still accusational rumors that our club was dissolved. NOT SO, come join us on Thursday nights at Fair Oaks High School. Our beginners are squaring up great and well on their way to exhibition status! We worked hard (but also worked in some fun) on our Hole E' Mouse and Linguica fund raising booths at the Walnut Festival. Our Halloween Party will be history by the time of this printing. We hope to see you on Thursday nights, couples are also welcome. Happy Thanksgiving to all.

ANTIOCH AMBLERS ... Many thanks to Harvey and Julie Kondo, Bill & Betty Frazer, Buzz Inn and Strawhat Pizza Parlor for letting us dance at there place this summer. There were several AMBLER couples who made it up to Angels Camp for the Fun Festival. In spite of the heat, we had lots of fun and dancing. With summer behind us and lots of memories, we started our beginner classes this month, and as usual we had a terrific turn out. We're all looking forward to our Anchor Bay Trip, where we will campout, enjoy abalone, a great potluck and dance under the stars.

SQUARE WHEELERS ... BUD & ANNE WOLKINS have our beginner dancers enthusiastically advancing at a rapid pace. We're all looking forward to dancing together at our "Turkey Trot" Hoedown, Nov. 16th. This should be a lively hoedown, with the special treat of duets by the WOLKINS. We invite all to join us in the fun!

NORTH BAY AREA

FAIRFIELD SWINGERS ... Our new beginners class has gotten under way with friendships and fun blossoming. As usual, with VANYA giving her all what else could you expect? We will be celebrating our 3rd Anniversary with a dance on Nov. 24th from 8-11:30 at the Fairfield Community Center. Some super calling for sure by NATE BLISS. Our club is growing! We wish to welcome new members Mike & Becky.

OLD CAPITOL SQUARES ... We had a candlelight bowling party on Sept. 8th, planned by Jim LaKomy and his committee. This was in no way a traditional bowling party. We didn't know there were so many different ways to throw a bowling ball. Everyone had a good time. On Sept. 15th we had a hoedown with MIKE DEGNETICH calling & DOROTHY PEELER cueing the rounds. We had a good crowd and both MIKE & DOROTHY did a terrific job. Our beginners class has started and we have a large enthusiastic group. Our first new dancer's hoedown will be Nov. 16th. DOROTHY PEELER, our caller and teacher will be calling basics 1-30. Come and bring your beginners and introduce them to the fun of a hoedown.

BUZZIN CUZZIN S ... We had a beautiful day as well as a large turn out of club members for our annual picnic last Sept. at Kennedy Grove. Good food (and lots of it), as well as baseball, horse-shoes and various games were available and just a lot of relaxing and visiting. Enjoyed a good turn-out for our first beginners class in September. Hope to see all of them often. Our thanks to all who made our October hoedown a great success. Everyone enjoyed the great dancing and the good food.

FIVE STAR SQUARES ... The club extends special thanks to DAVE HOBAUGH and SANDY for 15 great years with us. We will treasure many happy memories. We have danced to the calling of several good callers over the past couple of months. Thanks to all of you. It has been a very enjoyable time. Starting Sept. 25th we are happy to report that ROGER STATUCKI has agreed to become our club caller. Welcome ROGER & JOY. We are delighted to have you with us. On Sept. 22nd, DAVE HOBAUGH called a very successful Anniversary Hoedown for us. We wish to thank all of the many clubs that supported us. Congratulations to Bob & Dorothy Johnstone who will be celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary this month. Some of our members attended a surprise party in Roseville, hosted by the children and grandchildren of the Johnstones. What a fabulous celebration.

SUNDANCE SQUARES ... Albany Middle School, Jackson and Buchanan (from Hwy 17 and 80 take Albany offramp and turn right at the first red light.) Beginners Tuesday 7-8:30, experienced beginners 8:30-10:15. Intro to advanced, Wed., 7:30-9, A-1 & 2 with Star Tips, 9-10:15. Our beginners are sensational, their dancing superb. With RON'S excellent teaching they have advanced rapidly. This is a real fun night for all, folk dancing R/D, swing between tips! We have celebrated three weddings in two months. Love is contagious. For information call RON HAGGERTY, 581-6090 or Norma, 526-7539.

SAN FRANCISCO AREA

BOOTS 'N SLIPPERS ... We have been busy as usual, keeping up with the local fanfare by doing exhibitions. It is always the clubs concern to promote our beginners class not to mention the promotion of square dancing in general. We are very pleased to have a caller, BOB HOFFSETZ, that is willing to go and do what is helpful to the club. All of us give special thanks to our great caller. You might have guessed by now that the Buckskin slipped right thru our fingers, but careful out there, we're coming back. Thanks to the Kerns, Koenigs and Romboughs for Togas Abound. It was too hot for clothes anyway.

LONGHORNS ... A warm welcome to new members, Rolland & Lovonne Howard and Richard and Luella Dilling. Harold and Nettie Todd and grandson, Nathen, enjoyed the 33rd square dance jamboree at Penticton, Canada. Thirty two couples enjoyed the annual picnic at Flood Park. Thanks to Cliff and Elene Planchon and their helpers. Also, had the opportunity to visit with BLAKE WESTMAN, BETTY and son. BLAKE can swim 3/4 mile without stopping, keep up the good work. John Mulhall, good to know you will be dancing again next week. Mystery! What was Fran Ecles and Tony Hamann doing wondering off in the trees by themselves.

I'll never tell.

CABLE CAR SQUARES ... The club would like its friends and guests who attended the benefit hoedown for the San Francisco Recreation Center for the handicapped back in the first week of Sept. to know that the afternoon of rounds to JOHN RETTER and sets by M.C. JIM WYLIE, JOEL KADISH, DOUG SAUNDERS & DALE HOUCK, followed by the happy hour, the sit down dinner and the after dinner ball room dancing that didn't end until 9 in the evening, resulted in the presentation of a check for more than $2,600 to the handicapped center, by far the largest amount in the history of this (sometimes) annual benefit. Thanks very much to all who organized and attended this happy affair. Sol Stecklow, chairman, was even recognized by station KABL as its "Citizen of the Day".

CLODHOPPERS ... We were well represented by 10 couples dancing at the Benefit Dance held, Sept. 9th. They really enjoyed the dance. Our annual picnic and Sept. hoedown are now a thing of the past. We want to thank our Square Heads and their helpers for making them so enjoyable. Well, everyone should be back from vacations to England, Ireland, Missouri, Texas, Kansas, Florida, Cruises, Hawaii, etc., a lot of us were travelling this summer. Welcome home. We were sorry to hear that Helen Leonard is laid up again with a very bad back problem. And, Anita De Matteis had foot surgery in Sept., she will soon be able to get rid of her (oh so stylish) wooden shoe.

KALICO KATS ... We wish to thank DALE HOUCK for calling for us on such short notice Aug. 24th. We had a very enjoyable evening of dancing to his terrific calling. On Sept. 7th we had our night out cruising and dining on S.F. Bay. The evening of fun and dancing will long be remembered. Sept. 9th, we were dancing at Cable Oaks Benefit Hoedown and we enjoyed the dinner and ballroom dancing after the hoedown. We are now back at Edison School and we welcome all guests any Friday night.

TWO BY FOURS ... We attended the Hot Air Balloon races in Reno. Because they must ascend when the air is calm, the balloons must all lift shortly after daylight. We are on the hill early to ensure a clear view. We saw only swarms of people in the field below. Suddenly, one after the other, the colored hot air bags appeared, swelled and slowly rose until the sky filled with over 100 brilliant jewels. Though the air was calm on the ground, the balloons drifted in different directions according to their altitude and wind currents. Three beautiful mornings, absolutely spectacular!

ROADRUNNERS ... We sponsored three nights of free lessons for beginners, which attracted a large number of people, we were especially pleased to see the group of young dancers who attended. We hope they all had a great time and we look forward to welcoming them as regular members of the club. The potluck we held in September was the biggest ever with lots of our beginners participating, and getting a taste of the good things to come. We were very pleased and happy to see Peggy Cole in our midst again after a long illness. She looks great, welcome back Peggy! We are looking forward to our RON HAGGERTY Hoedown on Nov. 3rd. There will be lots of good food and good fun. Hope to see lots of you there.

RANCHEROS ... Hi! We recently elected two new officers to fill vacancies in our club. New officers are Jean Gerrans as Secretary and Phyllis Beatty as Publicity Chairman. We have started another beginners square dance class on Sept. 21st. It is held at the Community Activities Building in Redwood City, with HAROLD DAVIDSON as caller. The class will continue through Dec. All interested persons are invited to attend.

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTES San Francisco Chapter ... JET ROBERTS called a fast moving hoedown for our 9th Anniversary at Carlmont High. Enjoyed Travelfest dance with DALE HOUCK calling a dance for the CLODHOPPERS. Will be going to the Stampede at San Mateo College, to hear RON WELSH. Our beginners class, started off with a bang! All very interested and having a lot of fun too! We finally have a home, Ebenezer Lutheran Church will be our workshop on Fridays, and our beginners on Tuesdays, for the coming year. We love visitors, come and dance with us.

CAPER CUTTERS ... It was a hot day, nevertheless, many of our members attended the CABLE CARS Annual Benefit Dance for S.F. Handicapped. All had a good time dancing to great callers: HOUCK, KADISH, SAUNDERS & WYLIE. What an enjoyable afternoon. Best wishes and speedy recovery to Elsie Nulty. Happy traveling to the Greenhood's destination Israel & Egypt. Oct. 8th, had our anniversary dinner dance at the Elks Club South S.F. A super party. Don't forget our 34th Anniversary hoedown Nov. 3rd, at the Scottish Rite Temple, 19th and Sloat. See you all there.

SQUARE CUTTERS ... Enjoyed dancing the fifth Thursday of August with the host club, FORTY NINERS and FRANCISCAN STOMPERS, a good time for all. Our club caller, HARRY WHITLOCK, is working over the plus Callerlab figures, and from different positions. LAVERNE WHITLOCK, is teaching the new selected round dance, "He's Making Eyes At Me". Coming events will be a Hors d'oeuvres dinner party, and election of officers, followed by dancing. The installation of new officers will be next month. We welcome home Larry Le Guenne, and Josephine Moss from their trip to China with the CONTINENTAL SQUARES. Visitors are always welcome, bring a friend and join us some Thursday.

ISLAND SQUARES ... While our caller KEN KENMILLE and his wife CHRIS were having a good old time promenading in Europe, we had the privilege and pleasure of dancing to CHARLIE BROWN. We thoroughly enjoyed his presence and talents. We owe him many thanks for showing our newer dancers (and the older dancers too) how much fun learning the basic movements of square dancing can be. There were a few "slick" movements shown at the party hosted by Lou and Betty Varvello at their lovely home. Guests were entertained with movements such as "Loan the plate", demonstrated by Duane & Phyllis Perry, and "Splash Thru," inspired by Rene, Fuzzy and Mr. X (Hey Rene, who's Mr. X?) The one move everyone naturally did well was "Chit-Chat Circulate!" Seriously folks, it was nice seeing Duane & Phyllis again and a big thank you to Lou & Bettie for your gracious hospitality. In conclusion, we would like to wish all of you a safe & happy Thanksgiving. See ya across a square!

BACHELORS 'N BACHELORETTES San Mateo Chapter ... The new dancers are progressing nicely under the instruction of BUD & ANNE WOLKINS. Some even dared try their wings at the 28th Jubilee in San Jose, Oct. 12,13 & 14th. A lot of fun dancing and a chance to shop for clothes and accessories. Many of our club members traveled to Las Vegas for the B&B's Int'l 35th Anniversary Dance, Oct. 27th. It was non-stop party, dancing, seeing shows, gambling and more partying. Some were lucky but most came home with their pockets lighter. Our new class hosted the Halloween party this year, plenty of food and fun with costumes. Lee & Pete Erhardt have returned from a trip to Germany where they enjoyed dancing with a group in Frankfurt. It's so good to see so many regular club members back dancing after the summer off. Come join us.

CATCH-ALL EIGHTS ... Folks are going through their closets looking for things to wear to our grand Halloween dance. Hard to describe some of the goolins that showed up last October. Drop by Rollingwood Tuesday night, the 30th, and wear a surprise of your own! Our newer dancers are doing grand. Looking forward to the first hoedown this month. All the Mainstreamers are giving them lip smacking descriptions of the fun and the food, the music and the dancing. We're all getting excited! Funny how that works. We're heading into Nov., starting to talk of a Tahoe trip, of the dances coming up, of a mystery trip (remember, you heard it here first!) This winter's looking to be mighty hot!

49'ERS ... We are getting ready for our last hoedown of 1984, we'll be having KIP GARVEY calling on November 19th at El Camino High in So. San Francisco. LANBERT KNOX and LEILA will be doing the rounds. Check for additional details in our ad in this issue. Our upcoming events will be a Tahoe Trip, Open Board meeting and a pot luck supper and our Christmas party planned for this year.

GINGHAM SQUARES ... Our big news this month is our Anniversary Hoedown on Nov. 10th with DALE HOUCK and JACK WRIGHT (see ad). The door prize of a weekend for two, courtesy of High Sierra Hotel Casino sounds so exciting. Thanks to Kathy, daughter of George and Benice Schwarz, who is the manager of the Emporium-Capwell World Travel Bureau-Tanforan office. For those interested in going by bus to the Reno-Sparks Thanksgiving weekend with BRONC WISE, DALE HOUCK and DICK HOULTON, contact Charlie and Marie Poggio, 756-4796. They still have space available.

PAIRS 'N SPARES ... Now that vacations have slowed down it was time for formal reception of our graduates into the club with the impressive candlelite ceremony. We welcome them all to the fun and comradeship of our Square dancing. Mary Jane & George Anderson surely qualify as wedding consultants. Their fourth of five daughters was recently married in a lovely ceremony which was officiated by her uncle who had performed similar duties not only for her parents but three of her sisters as well. The reception was held at the Presidio

Officers Club. Happy to report Ed Roeb recovering rapidly and well from Knee Surgery. Our Harvest Hoedown Sat. Nov. 24th will be called by MIKE WRIGHT. Plan to join us and work off those Thanksgiving goodies. Happy Holiday. SAN FRANCISCO REBELS ... We are back at Stevenson School with our new schedule of classes. Come try us, you might like it! Esther & Elaine had several tropical depressions on their Caribbean Cruise and were clobbered by "Diane" in Nassau on her way out to sea! Ask them about it. Danced to JET ROBERTS and the B&B'S of San Mateo. He's improved and we plan to have him call our April Hoedown again. Mark your calendars. Some of us attended the Stampepe at College of San Mateo. All of you have Happy Holidays!

LEVIS & LACES ... Welcome back Helen Ammons, Nina & Bill Schweiss. Good to see you all. What's with Roy Courtneys new Red Corvette doing in Kentucky, Huh? Hope you get it here soon, Roy, so you can take all of us for a spin. Ed Walsh is recovering nicely from his surgery. We are looking forward to the time when Ed & Edwina will be dancing with us again. Once again our Halloween Party was a howling success. A gala event is happening, Dinner & Dancing at Treasure Island for us. Happy Thanksgiving to all.

TAM TWIRLERS ... The Marin Cheese Factory was the setting for our annual picnic held in September. A special thank you goes to Fred Meyer and Brad Sayles for their efforts. We have started our beginners class and have a good turnout so far. It's great to see all those new faces and great to see everyone having a good time. October 29th will be our Halloween Party with costumes and lots of refreshments. Our Christmas Party is the big social event of the year for us, annually held at the Meadow Club with delicious food, dancing, and just great hospitality.

REDWOOD EMPIRE

RAINBOW STROLLERS ... A square of us travelled to Sacramento for the Chaparral dance in August. The Bostrums, Christensens, Landrys and the Nagels completed their week-end with a tour of the recently restored Capital Building and Old Sacramento. Have you ever had a Mummy call a workshop for you? We have. Last month, halfway through a workshop, several mischievous members of the club pounced on Caller NATE BLISS while he was calling a tip. They then proceeded to wrap him up tightly in mummy fashion with several rolls of toilet paper obtained from the building janitor. After taking it easy for the summer months we have resumed our A-2 lessons. We are all looking forward to the A-1 Hoedown with KELLY MIZUNO on Nov. 23rd.

DIAMOND DANCERS ... Our big news this month is the appearance of the outstanding San Diego area caller NELSON WATKINS at our Friday, Nov. 30th dance. This is a biggie, so all A-2 dancers, please come. Remember, free RV parking adjoining Monroe Hall. We are travelers. Enjoying Dave & Suzanne ABBOTT'S McCloud Country this past summer were Pools, Perrys, Lutzs, Finleys and Metzgers (BOB FISK advanced package), Ruprechts, Blairs, Murphys and Johnsons (FISK Challenge Package), Gladings (BOB VAN ANTWERP Callers School), Freitas' and Cunninghams (TONY OXENDINE). Attending the Williams-Farrell San Rafael August round dance jamboree were LeDouxes, Van Blarcoms, Bigelows, Blairs and Ruprechts. Surpassing all these, of course was Walt & Phyllis Brown's excursion to China in September. Square dancing on the Great Wall, anyone?

QUESTION MARKS ... Settling down after a busy summer of club camp-outs. In September we started our annual beginners class on Tuesday nights in Penngrove. TOM WALTON'S method of alternating beginner and plus level tips continues to work very well for all the dancers. But TOM is busier than a one legged tap dancer, since he has no time for breaks. Come join us some Tuesday night, we love to be visited.

SAUCY SQUARES ... On Oct. 6th our 10th Anniversary Hoedown will be taking place at Wischemann Hall, called by MIKE WRIGHT with pre rounds by TED & JANICE SIERAKOWSKI. In the last 10 years we have met many wonderful people who we have enjoyed watching become good square dancers. We have been proud to have a part. Dorothy Steiber will leave Sept. 17th to take a 32 day tour throughout the U.S. and Canada. She will join us again on Oct. 23rd. Roy and Stella Cussins will also leave on a tour through Boston, Mass, Maine and north to Quebec, two weeks in all. We hope they have good and safe trips. We are starting a beginners square dance class at the present with a beginners Hoedown on Nov. 10th. Come and join us.

colorfully decorated Monroe Clubhouse at our 25th Anniversary, a Hawaiian Luau. Many dancers wore Hawaiian outfits. club caller ROSS JOHNSON added his exciting calling, together with the on the floor cueing by the round dance teachers MIKE and EDNA SZAFRANSKI. Completing the Hawaiian theme were cooling slices of fruit, assorted sandwiches, and pineapple upside down cake. Doris Smith is not dancing because of a knee injury. Betty Denton hopes her foot surgery will not require her to miss too many dances. Visitors last week included Angie and Oscar Santostefano, of the Chicago Heights "Happy Swingers". Former publicity persons Al & Marge Greefken are now president Al & Marge. The January Fifth Hoedown will feature NATE BLISS. SINGLES & PAIRS ... Voted in and welcomed seven new members at the Sept. Business meeting, they were: Bob & Virginia Pederson, Bruce & Denise Marks, Ray Brandlein & Diane and Diane Taylor. Herb Clough's thank you note to the Club and to those who signed his get well card while he was in the hospital was read aloud. An Officer's dinner and mystery trip are to be announced. The square dance garment Mary Ellen donated for the raffle netted $67. The proceeds are to be used for special club events. Her recently opened "Square Dance Shoppe" is at 3355 Santa Rosa Ave., (next to the Cork & Bottle Deli) phone 542-7270 and is open Wed. Thru Sat. 10am to 6pm, Thurs. until 9pm, 1st and 3rd Sun. 1 to 5pm.

CLEARLAKE AREA

turnout. DAVE GIBSON is teaching his first class and is doing a fine job. Thanks to all the "angels" who find time to come and help. Our yard sale was a success and we made a handsome profit for the benefit of the club. Thanks to all who donated items, worked at the sale and or purchased items. A real team effort paid off. We're enthused about our A-1 class on Wed. nights from 7-8 with VANYA instructing. It's nice to be able to get advanced instruction without leaving town. We welcome anyone interested in A-1 instruction.

MARIN COUNTY AREA

BUZZIN' BOOTS ... Welcome back to Shirley Twitchell after an extended trip to Ireland and England. Also, Sam and Diane Young are enjoying a trip to China. An honorary membership to the club has been given to Frank Hevern for his devotion to square dancing. A new addition to our club will be JOHN RETTER who will be calling the round dancing for our workshops on alternate Fridays. The Woods & Brentlingers reported that on their weekly pinochle games, the women usually win. So much for the "weaker sex". The Brennans are once again heading the Blue Lake Trip which takes place in October. NOVATO SQUARES ... Exciting plans are in progress for us. The Nut Festival Nov. 10th with DAVE HOBAUGH as caller for our big dance of the year. JOHN RETTER will call the rounds at San Jose Jr. High. We are missing the friendliness and joy of Peggy and George Bruce. Hope Peggy will recover quickly so they can rejoin us dancing. At the Calaveras Fun Festival, Delores and Chuck Roady created a marvelous self-propelled frog float. John Sanchez was a green-Clad frog. Terry Robello & Joan Laymon led the cheers as Doris Schmidt and Dolores Roady did the honors of jumping the lively frogs. We wish to welcome as new members Paul & Christina Torikian. See you all at the Nut Festival.

STUMP JUMPERS ... Joan & Karl Olson are on vacation in Alaska. The lure of deer season will be calling our hunters to California, Nevada and Colorado. Virginia Darnell was pleasantly surprised at Aug. 29th workshop when she was honored with a birthday cake. Jean & Al Nunes are thrilled with the arrival of their first grandchild, Jessica Lyn. Pat Segura is off to visit her daughter in Nevada. Charter memberships in Square Dance Foundation of Marin were presented by a Foundation member on Sept. 12th to Angulos, Seguras & Simonsons. Angulos are going to Long Beach to attend Al's convention. Janet & Bob Smith returned from an enjoyable vacation to Hawaii.

EAST BAY AREA

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS ... We had an unusually busy month starting off with the Callers Annual Extravaganza at Treasure Island attended by the Janssens & Spains. They had a wonderful evening and Dale even found his way to Treasure Island without going by way of San Francisco. Next a bunch of us went to a Hootdown in Livermore and then to the Vance's for a fun get together. Our next activity was an exhibition and Luau at the Son's of Norway Organization of which George and Mildred are members. the food was delicious and the entertainment excellent. We then ventured out to Pleasanton to their Annual Festival and put on another exhibition (should we be called Exhibitors?) after which we went to a great barbeque at Bob and Barbara Carney's lovely home. We finally finished off the month with a Caller's Association Dance at the Armory and then a terrific after party at the home of Earl and Maria Monson's. We would like to thank all of the REBELS who offer their warm and generous hospitality. We appreciate it. Hunting Note: Dale 0- Deer 3, Jerry 1 - Deer 0.

ACES & LACES ... The Sept. campout was a real scorcher at Camanche, so most of the weekend was spent in the water. Those that attended had a great time. On Sept. 5th, two squares from SQUARE CIRCLES came to snatch the Buckskin from us. Congratulations to Don Alpers on his retirement from the Post Office. His wife Virginia really surprised him with a great party on Sept. 15th. We saw many old time familiar square dancers from way back. Our caller, ED LOONEY and wife, DOROTHY had a well deserved vacation in Sept. Hope they are ready for a new fall class. We send our well wishes to Lana Perry, who is confined at her home. Yours truly spent 8 days in the hospital with a back problem.

ODD'S 'N' END'S ... We will miss George Watson and Ruth Thomson who will be dancing elsewhere on Thursday nights. They have been long time members and past officers of the club. Yvonne Schulman is recovering from a serious operation. She was the newest member of our club. Our thanks to Alma Fraga, Al

Liechti, Allan James and Nate Fisher for helping on Wed. evenings with our newer dancers. Our sympathy to Lova McAlpine on the loss of her husband, Bob McAlpine. Herb and Betsy Worster are back in town again. Nate & Rosalie Fisher are on an extended trip back East. Please help fill the gaps by coming and dancing with us on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. We are looking for, and need, new members.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS ... KEN STIERECKI has agreed to be our new club caller. We would like to welcome KEN and his wife MURIEL to the club. Sept. 15th, the club danced at the Casa Peralta Art's & Craft's show, with JACK PETRI as caller. Later in the evening a dinner was given in honor of JACK & RUTH PETRI'S at Antonio's restaurant. A gift was presented to JACK and we hope he and RUTH will come see us often. Sept. 22nd, the club had a Progressive dinner. The theme was Mexican and there was lots of good planning by Chairpersons Gussie & Marion. Lots of good food, good Mexican music gave a south of the border atmosphere. A big hand to all the hostesses and thank you for having us in your homes. SOLOS & PAIRS ... The fall quarter dancing is in full swing with the return of all vacationers. Rose Wake visited relatives in the State of Washington and Consuela Gingras has returned from an exciting three week's tour of Europe. Jim Haney was the last to go and visited relatives on the East Coast. Dave Belvel and Bill Arnold were honored at a special birthday party in September. Our hats are off to BILL CARROLL and CLARA for filling in on round

EDEN ROCKERS ... The beautiful fall seasons arrival finds most of us returning from vacations. Welcome back to all. Tony & Ree and the Martins are among late vacationers on a trip to Germany. Did you hear about the hayride that wasn't? On Sept. 8th two squares and CHARLIE BROWN, and wife LINDA, attended a Hayride and barn-dance hosted by the SINGLE SQUARES. Seems the hayride was cancelled as police were hunting down robbery suspects in the area. Such excitement! Anyway, enjoyed the barn-dance along with great calling and delicious food. Hardly missed the hayride. Looking forward to our fall hoedown coming Oct. 6th.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS ... Our beginners class started off with real gusto. Chickie & Dennis were wearing one of the new outfits Chickie has been making these past months. Boy were they ready for class to begin. The smiles and laughter bring back memories of the fun each class has learning. It is nice to set aside time for a date, with your spouse or sweetheart at least once a week.

RELLERS RAIDERS ... We are one the move again. The next club visit hadn't been announced prior to printing. Sunshine Report: Venice Lee is having a slow recovery. He and Donna visited the club, but Lee was unable to dance. Donna sure kicked up her heels. Bev Palma is recovering from foot surgery. We miss you Bev & Frank.

RANCHERO SQUARES ... We have had a super month. Several of us enjoyed the dinner at Treasure Island sponsored by the Callers Association.

However, the trip home was something else. Our club picnic was a huge success on the 9th. It was in combination with a birthday party. It was hard to tell who enjoyed breaking the pinata, most of the children or the adults. We danced for St. Anne's Festival in Union City, then went to Martinez to dance to our own caller TERRY. On our Party night in Sept., we celebrated Harriett & Gerald Mosier's 40th Anniversary. We're looking forward to Jubilee in Oct. and our Boat Cruise dinner-dance on the bay. Our Plus Workshop continues to provide that extra practice that it takes to become really good plus dancers. See you at the hoedown. Happy Dancing.

FREMONT SINGLES ... Everyone had a good time dancing to all of the fine callers at the Jubilee. This was the beginner class' first opportunity to attend a hoedown. It was a fun filled weekend for all. Speaking of the beginners class, they are really an enthusiastic, fast learning group of dancers. We have alternating tips, each Wed. from 7-9 and plus level dancing from 9-10. On Oct. 27th, 43 of us went on the Alcatraz tour. Many of us stayed in SF for dinner that evening. This year Halloween falls on a club night. We hope everyone is making plans for their costumes, now. Don't forget the first Wed. is Ladies Night. Our Mexican Fiesta Night has been rescheduled for Wed., Nov. 28th. There will be lots of dancing, food and even a pinata, costumes optional but encouraged. Don't forget to mark your calendar for the New Year's Eve Hoedown (beginners & plus) on Dec. 31st. SAN LORENZO SINGLES ... This is a busy month with two of our club hoedowns. Our beginners is Nov. 2nd at Bancroft Jr. High, San Leandro and the Turkey Trot at Walters Jr. High, Fremont. See ads in this issue. It's our pleasure to have Madge Drumm, charter member and former president, dancing with us again. Same for Ken Dye, back from the midwest. Lottie Pae, a member of Alameda Co. Board of Realtors, organized a square to dance with ED FERRARIO calling at the Boards picnic. Hope to have recruited some beginners there as the spectators enjoyed it. Much enthusiasm for the Halloween party with prizes for most original, scarciest, etc. costume. Keep hoping for an earlier starting time on Tuesdays. Until then double rounds with ALLIE & CHARLIE MOCK between tips. To former President Roger Slaiker wishes for a speedy recovery. We miss you.

KEEWAY SWINGERS ... We spent the Labor Day weekend camping at Cotillion Gardens. The camp fire games we play are sure funny. I don't know who thinks them up. On Sept. 21st Stan & Vickie Newbold were blessed with a new comer, Matthew James, 9 lbs. 4 oz. We want to thank DONN THOMSON and DON LEWIS for calling for the club and BUD & ANNE WOLKINS calling and teaching the beginners class, while KEN & CHRIS KENMILLE tour Europe. At the same time the Bentley's and McClary's take in the rays (sun) in Hawaii. Want to wish Richard & Nancy McCracken a very long and happy marriage. He is the son of Don & Sandy Bigley. We had another couple join the ranks of the retired. Jim & Thelma Lane good luck, and I hope you know what to do with your spare time. Check our ad for the beginner

Hoedown, keep it fun.

KUNTRY KUZINS ... Beginner class started on Wednesday nights in Sept. We wish them lots of luck. They have a very talented caller in TERRY MOSIER so they are in the best of hands. Plans are under way for the Jan. 5th hoedown so mark the date, to help defray the Hodges convention expenses. Ann Summer-hill has been ailing, sure hope she is well soon. We can't have our Sunshine Girl on the list! Marguerite feels much safer now that Don takes his German Shepherd dog back and forth to work. He is from Germany, three years old, 85 pounds. Don attended school in Menlo Park with him, learn attack commands in German. He is police property and a very fine one.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

"Friendship is a caring kind of feeling". Traveling from state to state, even to other countries, we find friendship is truly part of a square dancer. But friendship and caring begins at home first. We must support our own club and in turn our club must support the clubs in the area which form a district making for a stronger association. For this reason knowing and supporting your district and it's activities is showing you care about your friendships. Be a part, ask your delegates about the district, make your voice heard in concerns that will affect you and those around you, encourage others to attend local hoedowns with you. November and Thanksgiving we look back over many years and think of the many caring friends we had and still have and are proud. Square dancing is a special caring group of people.

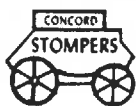

Ron & Ginger - President NCSDA

ROUND-UP CORNER

The excitement is building as committees are formed in preparation for the 1985 Golden State Round-Up "Harmony 85". The possibility of a full city block for R.V. parking, the Breakfast-Roast with a touch of song, the sewing clinic enlightening the sewer on new techniques, a few panels and seminars on subjects of interest and housing in the same building all add to the main feature of the event which is an appealing program for all attending. As the program is prepared all comments and observations are taken into consideration to get a program for the majority of the dancers. We strive to please and feel this year's program will be one acceptable to the majority. Harmonizing your ideas with ours we will have a great festival.
