CLUB NEWS

CLEARLAKE AREA

CLEARLAKE SQUARES... We had a fabulous night with DALE HOUCK March 23, TED & JANICE SIERAKOWSKI calling the rounds. Our club members took some friends and went on an overnight bus trip to Reno no big winners, but some managed to come back smiling. Our weekend trip to Benbow was a huge success with our own CHICK THRASHER calling. Don't forget our Pear Blossom Festival April 12 & 13 in Lakeport at the fairgrounds, we are expecting to see everyone there. The guest caller for our April 27 hoedown will be CHRIS CHRISTOPHERSON. If you want a fun night come join us.

NORTH BAY AREA

PIONEERS... Thanks to Lorraine Fairchild for the lovely Valentines Party. We all enjoyed it. Wayne & Dorothy Swift did a great job on our President Day Hoedown. RANDY DIBBLE and RUTH FITCH called a great program and everyone had a good time. Mary Watts is chairman for our new club dresses which we hope to have for our Anniversary Hoedown. We're looking forward to our Mystery Trip in April. Wonder where we're going?

BUZZIN CUZZIN'S... We would like to thank all the dancers who attended our March hoedown. Everyone had a great time. Also a big thank you to our members for some great food. We were happy to have the Quarton's stop in to say hello. They have been unable to dance due to Laverna's foot surgery. They hope to be back dancing in about 3 weeks. A speedy recovery to Charles Lofton who had recent eye surgery. Hope to see you back dancing soon. Everyone is eagerly working on their new club dresses and hope to have them ready for ROUND-UP. Thanks to the dress committee for all their hard work and a beautiful outfit.

CATCH ALL EIGHT'S... Kevin Richardson tried to brake dance along with square dancing and wound up with a sprained wrist, they don't mix Kevin. Eva Black is working a plan to square dance with a crutch. Harold Lowe has been laid up with rumanice phumna, hurry and get better Harold we miss you. Marshal Carver has been entertaining sisters 5 and 6, one from Vacaville and one from New Orleans, they don't dance but are good watchers. Our pizza night party was a whopping big success as all partys are. Harry Wright is busy making plans for our picnic, he says this will be a dandy.

OLD CAPITOL SQUARES... A Valentine party was enjoyed by our club on Feb.12. Our beginners were our guests. Delicious refreshments were served, including something called passion punch. It was a delightful party and a good way to get acquainted with our beginners. The new dancers are doing very well under DOROTHY PEELER'S excellent tutorage. DOROTHY, our caller and her husband BUCK, went on vacation to Hawaii. While they were gone we were very fortunate to have GARY KENDALL as her substitute. GARY called for our club workshop and our beginners class. We all enjoyed GARY and his wife, APRIL. Our nominating committee is busy with elections coming soon. Our present officers have done a terrific job and they have our sincere thanks.

REDWOOD EMPIRE AREA

RAINBOW STROLLERS...Hardwood floors are softer than they look, or so we found out when we moved our Wednesday workshop to the Santa Rosa Senior Citizens Center. The floor almost feels bouncy after all those years we danced on concrete and tile. In February we welcomed a new couple to the club - Catherine & Ronald Kutz. March 1 was the date of our first co-sponsored hoe-down with the DIAMOND DANCERS of Santa Rosa and the caller was LARRY WARD.

The next one will be July 7 with JERRY SCHATZER. Club members anticipate some terrific Advanced level dancing can result from the cooperation of our two clubs.

GRANDE' DANCERS...Our fourth Anniversary Fiesta Fling on Sunday afternoon March 24 was a success as always with club caller RAY BETTENCOURT calling a great hoedown. We have been invited to participate in the Rohnert Park Multi Cultural International Festival the last weekend in April with a demonstration of square dancing as one form of folk dancing. President Harriet & Jack Heard are baack from their vacation in Hemet. Doris & Howard Gettle and Tom & Thelma Martin can't be far behind.

DIAMOND DANCERS...April "mixes memory with desire", said T.S.Eliot, and we have happy memories of our KOPMAN, WARD, SALTEL, and STEVENS dances, together with desire for the April/May calling of All-Star Guests BUDDY WEAVER, RANDY DIBBLE, and NATE BLISS. During February Hal & Joyce Wells and Carrol & Vella Berryman enjoyed Asilomar, while Lansings, Caywoods, Patricks, and Finleys formed a DIAMOND DANCERS square in KEN BOWERS Hemet group. Napa Valley DIAMOND DANCERS hosted a big group of Sacramento TNT's for a "Calistoga mud bath unwinding" Sunday after our DAVE STEVENS March 30 hoe-down. An enlarging group, including Pillows,Burkes and Don Selvey/Barbara Biocca, now come just to round dance from 7-8pm Fridays. Cost is $2/couple; we hope to see more of you.

MARKWESTERNERS...Good to see the Presidents Keith & Agnes Calden back from their Mexican Cruise. Gene & Dottie Rowden and Treasurer Betty Denton returned recently from their Panama Canal Cruise. A goodly contingent of MARKWESTERNERS traveled to the Cloverdale Citrus Fair to dance to DICK HOULTON and JOHN RETTER and to admire the citrus sculptures. At the recent club meeting it was announced that prerounds would be limited to the second Tues. of each month, at 7:30, when the round of the month and other rounds will be taught by club caller ROSS JOHNSON. The 8:00 workshop will be Plus and easy A-1. Our next event will be the Rose Festival on May 18th, with KELLY MIZUNO and MIKE & EDNA SZAFRANSKI.

QUESTION MARKS...We started February off with a pot luck dinner for all QUESTION MARK dancers and their guests. My goodness but did we have a spread of food - it must have been pretty good, cuz alot of empty plates and full tummies could testify. Following dinner we were still able to get up for a full evening of square dancing with our beginner dancers. Several of the group took a short holiday at Lake McClure - campers, boating, golfing just goofing off and lots of fun. Our next event will be on March 23, dancing to MILT ADAMS. Check our advertisement for details please and come join us.

CIRCLE N SQUARES...On Feb. 9th, MIKE DEGMETICH and LARRY WILLIAMS called a fine hoedown for us and our guests Chairpersons for the evening were the Solheims, Coombs and Smith. Best wishes for a speedy recovery to Dorothy Klima who is recovering from surgery. In the department of new, Adaline Smith is driving a new car. Ed & Marian Lockhart not only have a new pick-up and trailer but a new grandson too! Come join us on April 13th for an evening of dancing and fun with RALPH SILVIUS and JOHN RETTER.

SINGLES & PAIRS...AMONG THE items on the agenda at the February business meeting was the voting in and the welcome of new members Loretta Martin and Linda Kluck. Sheriff Craig Thompson was applauded for his efforts to corral two beginner squares and one from the regulars to give an exhibition square dance at the Creekside Convalescent Home on February 7. President Ben Pidcock made a motion and the club second it for a bus trip on April 28 to Golden Doors for $5 per person with the club picking up the tab for the balance. And don't forget our Hoedown on April 20. BILL PETERS will call mainstream and cue the rounds at Monroe Hall in Santa Rosa starting at 8pm.

CONTRA COSTA AREA

CONCORD TEEN TWIRLERS...Our March hoedown went well, thank-you all for attending. We enjoyed dancing with you. We are interested in hearing from any past Twirlers; if you have a humorous story or know some history of the club, please write to us at P.O.Box 271571, Concord, CA 94527. In the meantime, keep dancing, and have a Happy Easter

SQUARE WHEELERS...Our club hoedown in February was a big hit. Bob & Margaret Elliott and Frank & Donna Halker did a fantastic job organizing refreshments and decorations. It's always a fun hoedown when BILL BANKERT is calling, and SCOT BYARS added to the enjoyment of the evening. The enthusiasm carried over to the "after party" at the "Branding Iron", where the dancing continued.

BILL BANKERT added some plus tips and everyone felt they "could have danced all night" At our regular Tuesday night workshop, ED TAUSIG has been teaching us to dance "all position". Sometimes when he looks out on the floor, it seems we're literally "all position". I'd like to ask him if it's easier to teach adults or children, but I'm afraid of the answer.

SYMBIOTIC SQUARES...indulged in a late February Valentine potluck. All sat at individual card tables and followed without being reminded Gerhard Deruyte's rule: No one sits with his own partner. (Very refreshing for those of us who already have been over-exposed to our spouse's favorite anecdotes!) Jim & Mary Hyde sent along their traditional classy homemade wine, even though they were unable to attend themselves! Such devotion! We were not altogether successful in our attempts to were off all that scrumptious food with two hours of dancing afterwards!

GUYS & DOLLS...As predicted, March was a very hectic month for the fun loving G & D's.

The Wing Ding in Turlock was a really great weekend. Our compliments to Wagon Mistress, Marcheta Hodges who did her usual fantastic job in organizing this fun outing. Our 10th annual Dinner Dance followed right after that and was a thoroughly enjoyable evening. Frity once again prepared an incedible meal for us and DICK HOULTON called just the right fun level dance for all of us very well fed dancers. The next weekend we all enjoyed our very successful beginner hoedown. The success of this dance was due in a large part to the superior calling of ELMER RADCLIFFE, who also happens to be the caller for our beginner workshop. We want to congratulate ELMER on the great job he's doing with the beginner dancers. They are really comming along great.

ANTIOCH AMBLERS...February 22, we had our club dinner at the New York Landing in Pittsburg. There were thirty couples who attended. The prime rib was superb. After dinner most of us went dancing at several different places. We all had a swell time, thanks llene, for a job well done. Our club has decided to give a special badge to club members who have 30 autographs in their century books by January 1986. It will be our 30th Anniversary hoedown, and autographs must be gotten between January 29, 1985 and January of 1986. Plans are in the making for a mystery trip, which should be a lot of fun. We're also saving all our goodies for our garage sale in March, and April is our fun level hoedown with DREW ANDERSON and THE GHOST RIDERS.

DIABLO SINGLES...Our big spring event will be our Anniversary hoedown weekend April 26th and 27th with BRONC WISE & ERIC HENERLAU. Our club was founded in Feb. 1973. Recently, we've enjoyed having many guests on club night. Several have been from out of state. Our beginners are going strong, always have a good turn out, and are ready for Silver State. Our club will be staying at the Vagabond Motel. Round dancing continues from 7:30-8 on club night. At last board meeting, a proposal was made to also learn Western Dance. A club vote will be taken soon. We'll soon be Western-Round-Square Dancers!

CONCORD STOMPERS...The first three months of 1985 are behind us-gee, does time fly by when you're having fun - a CONCORD STOMPER tradition. Our new January class is doing extremely well, keep up the effort. March was a relatively quiet month for us - needed the respite. Only because BOB ELLING is geared up for the CONCORD STOMPERS 30th, yes 30th, Anniversary -Plus Dance- on April 6th. See ya'll there. Hawaii, Hula - o' no - square dancing with BUDDY WEAVER on April 11.

CLUTCH BUSTERS...President Gregovitch appointed the following to complete the Board for the year: Newspaper - Don & Joan Coultas, Arrangements - Byron & Bev Rooker, Decorations - Ralph & Betty Brys, Beginner Chairman - Terry & Lynn Leonard, NCSDA Delegate - Ted & June Turgeon. Jan. 26, thirty two CLUTCH BUSTERS dressed in their club costumes attended the ANTIOCH AMBLERS hoedown. Four of us were lucky and won great door prizes before gathering to enjoy Ralph & Betty Brys hospitality at their home. Feb. 14 was a gala occasion when chairman Curt & Carol Neal combined our beginners potluck dinner with valentines day, decorated cakes, good food and good dancing. Our former red club costume comes in handy for Valentines day dancing.

BUZZIN' BOOTS... Dick & Eilene Taylor went to Houston, Texas, to visit grandchildren. They came back through McAllen, Texas, and square danced with JERRY HOAG. They went through the south of Texas, last of the Old West. Freda & Les Farber went to Mexico for two weeks, and had excellent weather. Thelma Pulliam and Louis Cornish are getting married March 2. DAVE HOBAUGH is President of the Callers Association. He is calling at Magic Mountain, and during his absence MIKE WRIGHT will be calling in his stead.

NOVATO SQUARES... will workshop Mainstream plus DBD/APD from 8 to 10 and rounds 7:30 to 8 and between tips. All interested dancers are welcome to attend Thursdays at IDESI Hall. Club caller RAY BETTENCOURT attended the Callers Assn. Meeting in Richmond. LEFTY & MARIBELLE IVERSON, round dance instructors, were at Asilomar for a week for a square and round dance workshop. Thanks to the committee for special surprise of cake and punch for Valentine's Day dance party. Several dancers are group traveling to Arizona. Some future events are: March - fun work party for members Dick & Jackie Cole. April 4 - pot luck dinner and installation of new officers. June - Gin Fizz breakfast. August - picnic.

TAM TWIRLERS... Thanks to the leadership of our Vice Pres., Fred Meyer, we had a successful hoedown in February. 16 different square dance clubs were represented with the prize for the most attendees going to Marin County club, MOD SQUAD. This hoedown was made special for us because our new beginners were able to attend this red light/green light dance. This club is looking forward to a mystery trip in May and attending the Silver State Roundup.

MARIN MAVERICKS... Not much activity in our barn lately. Bill Erdman had surgery this month and we wish him a speedy recovery. Helen & Ray King are off the end of Feb. on another junket. That's all folks.

M.O.D. SQUAD... At our last party night we honored our caller, HARRY WHITLOCK, who has taken a temporary medical leave and our interim caller, RAY BETTENCOURT. We were delighted to see members who have not been able to join us for a while. Bob & Nancy Rohner were there - we're happy that Bob is improving. RAY continues to conduct a Mainstream review, come and join in. Our new president and his wife, Lew & Evie Champion, have been organizing groups of members to go to dinner together and then on to a hoedown. They were so successful on Feb.23 that we won the coffee at the TAM TWIRLERS red light/green light dance - 13 members attended. We had a successful hoedown on March 2 with MILT ADAMS calling.

SQUAWS & PAWS...What a fantastic mystery trip we had to the great "town" of Crow's Landing up in the Delta country. And did they ever put on a great "all-you-can eat" enchilada feed. The dancing was fun and hospitality was enjoyed by all. We're looking forward to our big hoedown on April 13 when GLEN DICKEY our great guest caller will do his usual job of outstanding calling on a plus level. We're in hopes that many of you will come.

(See our ad) We've been able to finally get Novato Hi where we have wooden floor and easy parking and enough heat. It's been a cold winter but we should have Spring on it's way by then. Hope to see you then and come meet our new officers.

NOVATO STUMP JUMPERS...Feb.- the month of glorious clear days and also of heavy rains. But STUMP JUMPERS dance whatever the weather. We shared the coffee prize with the SQUAWS & PAWS at the ADOBE SQUARE'S Anniversary dance. After having dinner together nine members danced to MIKE DEGMETICH in Santa Rosa on Feb.9th. We even danced to some very special calling at our workshop on Feb. 6th. Our guest callers included our Swedish and Colombian "pros", our kissin' caller, and our past president Joe. All of this because the MILANOS and Koenigs were off to the frozen north to do some snow mobiling in 50 below zero weather. At DAVE'S first workshop back we feted Mary Bernard on her special birthday.

SAN FRANCISCO AREA

HIGHLAND SWINGERS...We want to welcome our new members, Clair & Phillipa who in addition to being great dancers are a charming couple who are planning their wedding in mid April. Congratulations! February was wedding Anniversary month for two of our popular couples, Cub & Vi and also Bea & Dave. We wish a speedy recovery from surgery for Tony & Hazel. Don & Corinne are celebrating a quarter of a century together in March and Russ & Norma, those jet setters are off again in April to visit North Carolina, Maryland and Washington D.C. The last stop to help celebrate Norma's 85 year old mom's birthday.

We are so proud of our new dancers class. Under ROBERTS direction they are becoming fine dancers.

SAN MATEO ROADRUNNERS...Our February potluck supper was another huge success with everyone outdoing themselves in providing their favorite dish. Thanks to all who participated. The Parun's & Blundell's attended the Winter-fest in Solvang and enjoyed a weekend of dancing, dining and good times. Sounds like they had a great time - wish we had gone. More of us planto get together and attend CHUNK OF COAL weekend in Turlock in May. These weekend trips are always such a lot of fun. Several of us met for a gourmet Chinese dinner before attending the hoedown at the College of San Mateo. After dancing, we adjourned to Eleanor & Vaughn Shaner's for an after party with wonderful snacks and refreshments. Our September class is coming along great and we look forward to graduating them from ROADWALKERS to ROADRUNNERS in a couple of months. Things are perk-ing along.

PAIRS 'N SPARES... Our club caller HOWARD HILLYER and his wife GERRI recently celebrated their 48th wedding anniversary. HOWARD has been our caller since the club's establishment 28 years ago. The Calloni's and Gloe's will spend part of April in Hawaii. The Calloni's will be there for Easter. They will just miss saying "aloha" to Gloe's who embark on their trip the day the Calloni's return. Russ & Betty Russell recently welcomed their first grandchild. Plans are brewing for our coming mystery trip. Rumors fly. Some claim to have seen Olivia Vizzi, Len Stevenson and Elisa Gerdaldi looking through spy glasses, wearing trench coats, and obviously doing some under-hand conspiring. But no one will talk.

RANCHEROS... Our fifth Wed. dance in Jan. was a decided success! Many couples from other clubs joined us, and we had eight squares dancing, at times. We had three callers, and a good time was had by all. The refreshments were plentiful and delicious, also. We have a large beginners class going, ably taught by our HAROLD DAVISON. They are enthusiastic, and have an enjoyable time learning the new dance steps. Our intermediate class is doing well also. We look forward to the time when they can join our club as members.

CLODHOPPERS... We want to thank everyone for supporting our anniversary hoedown at CSM. We all had a great time with MARV LINDNER and the WRIGHT'S, and hope you did too. Our square heads, the Heinen's, and their committee, worked hard for your dancing pleasure. We have another hoedown on April 27th (look for our ad in this issue) with another hardworking group headed by the Mitchell's. At this time our mystery trip is still a mystery, but when you read this it will be over and a bit of CLODHOPPER history. Last month our club members voted to try some A-1. We are still a plus level club but during the last tip of the evening we have been learning and dancing a few A-1 calls. Whether you are interested in learning A-1 or just enjoy Plus level we'd love to have you join us in dancing and friendship on Wed. evenings.

LONGHORNS... We pulled a surprise on caller BOB SOUTHERN when about fifty members showed up at the ALMADEN SQUARES hoedown Feb. 11 carrying a banner reading, "Bob's other club". Pres. Tony & Edna Hamann square danced their way to Mexico while Milt & Marie Cavalli went to Egypt and explored the pyramids and much more. Closer to home the Manning's, Kehl's & Urrere's went to Reno on a bus trip with JACK & DOROTHY WRIGHT'S round dance group where Henry Kehl broke the bank for $750. Former STARDUSTERS now LONGHORNS wine and dine their former caller DON CAMPTON and wife BEV who are visiting from Washington.

CAPER CUTTERS...Had a great time dancing at the WHIRL-A-WAYS 32nd Anniversary hoedown. Thirty of our dancers attended and brought home the coffee. Congrats. Refreshments were delicious and the calling of NATE BLISS was excellent. Get well wishes and speedy recovery to our Hostess, Adele Neri; had a misfortune of injury to her toe and to Mary Sargent, who recently fell. Welcome back, Doris Sutter. Happy to see you recover so quickly. Feb. 9, attended the CABLE CARS Sweetheart Hoedown, as usual, the food was great and dancing to DICK HOULTON was super. Our big event coming up, Silver State. Hope to see you there.

S.F. B'n'Bs...Surprised our caller, JIM, with a birthday cake and Valentine party. Our beginners joined us for the fun. Nat Crosa & Pearl Kline were picked King & Queen of hearts. Traveled with CAPER CUTTERS to Cloverdale fair and enjoyed DICK HOULTON's smooth calling, ended a wonderful day of good dancing, with dinner at the Green Mill. The WHIRL-A-WAYS had NATE BLISS calling to a full house at CSM, with JACK WRIGHT on rounds. Going to Reno with the WHIR-A-WAYS to dance to BILL PETERS, always a real fun hoedown.

WHIRL-A-WAYS...I want to thank you all for dancing with NATE BLISS and THE WRIGHTS and filling the hall and making our 32nd anniversary hoedown a night to remember and cherish. Our appreciation is boundless. We had sad news this month with the demise of Dedi Kenepp Feb. 17th. There was a memorial service Feb. 21st which several members of the W.A.W. and CLOVERLEAF attended. She will be missed by many. Walter Calderia sneaked off to Hawaii for a work vacation so it is said. He was back in time to add his bit to the hoedown so all is forgiven. BILL PETERS has resigned beginning in May. More about it when we recover from the shock. That's all for now.

FORTY-NINERS...Members of the March hoedown committee began a memorable evening on the winding country lanes of Woodside that lead to the home of Stan & Julie Wilson. Plans for the hoedown were finalized over pre-dinner refreshments that included outstanding canapes by Luna Fleshman. The planned pot-luck dinner and impromptu sing-along, led by Stan, had us well primed for the major event of the evening. Three squares plus of FORTY-NINERS joined in celebrating the WHIR-A-WAYS 32nd anniversary. Congrats to our workshop hall mates. Our workshops draw a number of visitors who come and enjoy DALES calling. I'm designating Dorothy Troop and Rudy Schiffers our visitors of the month as they're more like family than visitors.

LEVIS & LACES...T our last pot luck dinner we had a pleasant surprise when Duane Miles & Diane Feldman announced their engagement. Congratulations. Our caller DOUG SAUNDERS was very busy in March. He headed down to Mexico on the love boat with other Rawhide Record Stars. Also, DOUG was the featured caller at the University of Wisconsin Annual Spring Fling Hoedown. Happy Easter Folks.

SQUARE CUTTERS...Our valentine party was a delightful event all planned by our special events committee, Jerry & Edie Wasserkrug. A desert social with the secret name inside each valentine box, for a partner. The boys all had a hard time making their selections from all the beautiful decorated boxes...January fifth Thursday with the FORTY niners, and FRANCISCAN STOMPERS as our guests had nine squares dancing to our club caller HARRY WHITLOCK, and the guest callers, DALE HOUCK, & HOWARD HILLYER... Another potluck dinner coming up for March to honor St. Patrick's day... Come join all the fun. Visitors are always welcome... A Happy Easter to all...

GINGHAM SQUARES... First week-end of February found 10 couples of GINGHAMS enjoying themselves at Asilomar. We are all looking forward to our first ladies luncheon to be held on Feb. 28 at Hungry Hunter. From the enthusiastic response of the gals it should be a fun event. The luncheon is the brainchild of Bernice Schwarz, our last hospitality chairman. Future activities include our March 26 potluck supper and an all you can eat crab feed in San Francisco. Don't forget our Tuesday night open workshop for advanced dancing.

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS... Danced to DICK HOULTON with the CABLE CARS at the sweetheart ball, (second hall for new grads a good idea); Second time with the CLUTCH BUSTERS in Concord (good calling) and a third time at the Citrus Fair in Cloverdale. It definitely was a DICK HOULTON time!... Bruno Pozza won a bottle of wine (guessing beans in a bottle!) on the bus trip with the CAPER CUTTERS... Our best wishes to Irv Green, of the LEVIS & LACES and a former REBEL, for a speedy recovery from his recent surgery. Plans are completed for our 19th Anniversary Hoedown in April (see our ad) See you there???... We had a successful garage sale in March... Danced to NATE for an evening of BLISS??? with the WHIRL-A-WAYS

CABLE CAR SQUARES... are looking forward to a spring mystery trip, but the exact date is still a mystery! We are also looking back on a very successful, as always, Tahoe trip organized by Pres. Marie Poggio—if you miss the night that the sign-up sheet is posted, you might very well miss the trip, it is so-o-o popular. That's why we welcome friends and guests to our Wednesday workshops in Westlake—to give them a fighting chance to "make the bus". With caller JIM WYLIE combining with instructor AL STAGNERO, the newer dancers of the club are rapidly closing in on that plus two level. Siemper Progresse!

BACHELORS'N' BACHELOTTES, San Mateo Chapter... Our new dancers hoedown was a great success and a good time was had by all. Our President's Day party night looked like a mini-hoedown. We had alternating club and class tips, since our class was in attendance. Special guests were the BOWS & BEAUS, who brought their club caller, DON LEWIS. About 30 club and class members attended the Wing Ding at Turlock, where they frolicked at the fairgrounds and Motel 6. About the middle of March, a busload of club members went to Sacramento and after touring the State Capitol and the Governor's Mansion and dinner we attended a hoedown with JET ROBERTS doing the calling. Many more great happenings are in store for the summer months ahead.

ISLAND SQUARES...First Mates, Liz & Aldo Tesi, had a pretty good excuse for not attending the last Board meeting. It just so happened that Gina Marie Tesi was born on that eventful night. The 8lbs 3oz beauty and Liz are doing just fine! Keep that diaper shelf stocked, Aldo! The newer dancers are doing very well and thanks to Helen & Tad Masaoka, three more dancers have been added to our beginners class...The mystery trip is being planned by Lois & Herb Nieman and so far the details have been a real mystery! One thing I do know for sure, the Golden State Round-Up is just around the corner and our club, along with the beginners class, is looking forward to the event and having a great time partying! Our spring hoedown is coming up April 13! Plan to attend and dance-the-night-fantastic to DICK HOULTON and the WEBERS!

EAST BAY AREA

CASRO VALLEY REBELS...Twenty two couples of our club group-ed together for our annual trip to Plymouth. As usual we started off with several social hours and dinner at the Brass Lantern. Now while the Brass Lantern has not made the list of the ten best restaurants in California (or even Amador? County for that matter), and the Bill-of-Fare is not a gourmet's treat, the atmosphere, the warmth and the accommodating service makes this one of the highlights of the trip. After dinner when we get to the camp site, we pull our tents into a circle, make a fire and sing "Home on the Range". Its traditional, we have to do it exactly this way. The next day after a few aspirins and fizzes, we square dance to the fine calling of our club caller WAYNE JANSSEN, enjoy a delicious pot luck organized by Pat Spain, dance again, and last but not least get down to some serious gambling. Unfortunately, this year, the Wolfs (who were in sheep's clothing), won all the money. In any event it was a delightful weekend and while the weather was superb, it was the spirit that contributed the most to make it so special. Thanks to all who had a hand in the organization - we sure do appreciate the effort and can't wait till next year.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS...Our newer dancers drew a nice size crowd. We would like to thank Joan Debar for a good job as chairperson and KEN SIERECKI and all our guest caller plus all the club members who helped to make it a success. Feb. 27th held a silent auction. Everyone had fun bidding and a nice sum was raised for our Activities Committee. There was a good turnout by club members to the Winter Festival in San Jose. The club is hosting Old Timers Night March 20th. All past members are asked to join us for a potluck and dancing. Call 581-2931, Ed & Jacque if any questions. March 6th come and see the new club outfit.

SOLOS AND PAIRS...Congratulations to Hazel Eggett who won first prize in the Oakland Tribune contest for Super Bowl tickets. By getting all her friends and neighbors to save their papers for her, she was able to win the drawing for two fifty-yard line tickets to the game. Also an overnight stay at the Oakland Hyatt Hotel and limousine service to and from the game—a thrill of the life experience, she said. Aileen Witts took a trans-canal cruise from Mexico to the Caribbean with a friend last January. We are all very sorry that she has to have hip surgery and will not be able to dance with us for some time. Barbara & Dave Belvel have joined an Alameda Tourist group and are taking walks and tours all over the place. We had a great Valentine party ourselves and joined the ODD'S 'N ENDS for another party the next night.

SAN LORENZO SINGLES... March was a busy month for our club. Dick McQuade was host for our meeting. After the meeting we enjoyed Dick's skill with Mexican food. A large group attended the theatre party and on to Georgina & Duane Beyers home for a midnight buffet.

Our newer dancers hoedown was lively with our caller RICHARD MANSFIELD. What can be more fun than the enthusiasm of newer dancers? We'll miss RICHARD while he's attending the Caller Lab convention in Phoenix. Kay Erven and Emma Drabec are working on plans for a club bus trip to Silver State. With Kay and Emma as planners it's sure to be fun and exciting. Round and square dancing every Tuesday at Ashland. Bring a friend and come join us.

FARMERS & FARMERETTES... We would like to welcome 13 new couples to our beginner class that started Jan. 8. All seem to be very enthusiastic about learning to square dance. Many thanks to Ruthann & Don Baker, Jim & Barbara Eckersley on a great job done on our newer dancers hoedown Jan. 18. A group of us attended the RANCHERO SQUARES "Sweetheart Dance" and really enjoyed dancing to the GHOST RIDERS with TERRY MOSIER calling. This was the first time for many of us to dance to a live band. What a great time we had. We are now working on our snow trip in March and our spring hoedown April 19 (see ad0. Hope to see you soon.

KUNTRY KUZINS... Polly and Gordon Cleaver were gracious hosts for our New Year Eve's Party and our club owe them a big "Thank You". It was a fun party as it always is! We enjoyed being visited by Ann & Merrill Summerhill of Stockton. We hope to see them more often in the future. We always welcome former members who have moved, and all who would like to visit us. Elmer & Nancy have returned from their trip to Oklahoma during the Holidays; they reported driving through all kinds of weather (all but tornados!).

Ron & ginger joyfully announced they will be Grandparents in June. Congatulations!

ACES & LACES... Five couples from the club took their campers to Fresno for Squarama. I hear it was a little crowded in one of the campers for the after party. Yours trully still has fond memories of past years when we stayed at the Travelodge Motel and had some great times in the party room. But we must let bye gones be gone. We are looking ahead now to the State Convention in April and the Silver State in May. The gals are looking forward to getting material for our annual club dressess. We are sorry to hear our vice president, Betty Moore, was called to her Mother's sick bed in Florida.

ODD'S "N" ENDS...The next time you read our news item, we should announce a new caller for Thursday nights. LARRY MANNING has accepted a very good business position and will no longer be able to call for us. We all offer our best wishes on his new venture, and our sincere gratitude for his work with our club. As president, I wish to acknowledge the faithful and untiring efforts of two of our officers. They are primarily responsible for locating our new dance school, obtaining ED FERRARIO to conduct our beginners class and make it possible to continue as a club. They are Belva & Ralph Kruse, our able Treasurers. A special thanks goes also to my wife, Dora Bennett, for enduring the long hours on the phone and time away from other duties, co-ordinating our class activities.

KEEWAY SWINGERS...The First weekend of Feb. we enjoyed dancing to LARRY LETSON calling squares and the WEBERS on rounds, at the VALLEY TRAVELERS in Livermore. We had 5 plus squares out and it was great to see the mass of blue again. The next week we had our mystery bus trip that ended up at the WEST SIDE WAGONWHEELERS in Crows Landing, with CASEY & SHARON PARKER calling squares and rounds. If you ever get a chance to go to this dance they will feed you more than you need. Happy Dancing!

EDEN ROCKERS...The way these months fly by, can hardly keep up, however February really is shortest month of the year. Glad to see spring-like weather lately. Hope it wipes out the terrible flue bugs. many EDEN ROCKERS were ill, some for several weeks. Most on sick list are better now. Sure happy to see them back dancing. Our nominating committee are busily working on a new slate of officers. Happy to see some drop-in guests this month. Our Valentine Party night was sure a fun night. The decorations were great and fancy cakes with ice cream especially good SUNDANCE SQUARES...Due to Easter vacation at the school we will dance at the church, corner of Marin & Stannage, Tues. April 2, and Wed. April 3. Watch for our beginners hoedown soon. During summer vacation both classes will dance at the church. Our new C-1 class is doing great, JOHN BOWMAN and RON HAGGERTY alternate in two separate rooms. Welcome back Claire & Alex George, (fast learners from BFD), also, it is so good to have Milt & Barb Bigham back dancing C-1 in expert style, bringing cookies each time! Max Weissner is vacationing in New York, Herb & Natalie Stein are in New Zeland.

CHECKMATES...Had a good Feb hoedown featuring our own caller ROD BERTLSHOFER at the mike. To all dancers both new and experienced who attended "Thanks for coming". Incidentally ROD & MARILYN have acquired a new son-in-law, Shelly & Vernon were married in January. The best to the newlyweds. Our club has gone in for a little face lifting. First Randy showed up without his then Slim came in with a brand new one - mustache that is. Looks like a good group will be in Reno for the Silver State Festival. Yes, we will stay at the same place where Roby got an ice water bath from a junior waiter last year. Wonder what to expect this year. Motorhoming to hoedowns seems to be getting more popular. Thanks to Don & Ritche for sharing theirs. Our club gave good support to the Cerebral Palsy Benefit Dance on Feb. 16. Good going gang.

BOOTS 'N SLIPPERS... Hosted a surprise birthday party for BOB HOFFSETZ, club caller, and dear friend for the last ten years. BOB turned 65 and I'm sure there had to be at least 65 people there. We toasted to our friend and had a good time. Thanks to all who helped in the surprise. The BOOTS 'N SLIPPERS don't realize just how lucky they are to have a special couple like Andy & Lois Anderson. It is these two people who make the club hop. They are always there to answer questions, make suggestions and to listen. It's Lois' special nature to arrange parties and keep the mood happy. For your special gift, we thank you for sharing it with us.

SQUARE CIRCLES... We've had some more excitement around here lately... Another SQUARE CIRCLE couple, Dick & Sharon Frendberg, has joined the SQUARENADERS! Now we'll be watching for the Murrays and the Frendbergs at SQUARENADER functions. Congratulations to both couples! Our beginner class is doing very well under TERRY MOSIER watchful eye. Thanks to everyone who attended our second newer dancers hoedown in January and helped to make it a success. The beginners will be graduating soon and we're looking forward to these new members. Have a happy and healthy April!

THE ROUND-UP CORNER

Just a month away - the 32nd GOLDEN STATE ROUND-UP May 24, 25,26, 1985. One of our featured callers, PAT BARBOUR was born in Houston, Texas on August 29, 1953. While in high school, he attended a State Festival and was "hooked" into taking square dance lessons. At 15, PAT decided to go to callers' school. Meanwhile, after graduation from high school, he entered the medical technology field. In 1980, he married his sweetheart, Lim, and became a full time caller. In 1982 they opened a square dance apparel shop called "The Barbour Shop". PAT's workshops clubs are called Barbour Shoppers. Square dance calling is PAT BARBOUR'S whole world. Now is the time to send in your Saturday night buffet dinner and Sunday breakfast reservations. If you have never attended a Round-Up breakfast, treat yourself to this popular sell-out. It is always a good time attended by the featured callers and chairmen, full of surprises, laughs and prizes, so graciously donated by all clubs (good publicity). Breakfast in a hall full of happy, friendly, familiar faces. Can't think of a better way to have your coffee. See you there!!!

Thank you, Happy Square Dancing,
