Club News

NCSDA DISTRICT I

SAN FRANCISCO B'n'B's...The Nationals in Houston, Texas, was a lot of Fun and very hot. The Stradforads, ruby Hutchinson, & the Crosas, are glad to be back! Our Tahoe bus is full and ready to go. CABLE CAR SQUARES had KIP GARVEY calling a fun level dance, there was loads of delicious finger food. JOHN REITER was on the rounds. Sorry to hear LAMBERT KNOX is ill, wish him good health soon. Planning to go to BOOTS 'N SLIPPERS badge dance, with BILL PETERS calling, always a fun dance. BILL & COLLETTE WEBER on rounds. Starting a beginners class in September, see ad in this issue, see you in church!! wishing Myrtle Grothe a quick recovery from surgery, and back to dancing soon!!

CABLE CAR SQUARES...Spent August recovering from the activities of July when they hosted their 22nd Anniversary hoedown with KIP GARVEY and JOHN REITER--and we thank our friends and guests for their fine support--and then held their annual picnic at Serra Park in San Mateo County, and finally, elected a full slate of officers to guide the club in the coming year. In early September, another of Marie's Marvelous Maneuvers (this time overseas to the Baltic States) will reduce, somewhat, the number of dancers at our Wednesday night workshops at Westlake Park, so why not drop by for the very personal attention of our caller and superb instructor, GEORGE KNOX?

CAPER CUTTERS...Wonderful time was had at CABLE CARS anniversary hoedown...with super caller KIP GARVEY & JOHN REITER--rounds...delicious refreshments, too. Our beginners class starting Sept.14--tell a friend. (See ad) Welcomed visitors: TANYA GYLFE. Bill Vandenberg, Magno Topacio's, Jim McCraney's & Maryln Clark. good wishes go to Marino Iacopi's celebrated their 56th anniversary. Silent auction is scheduled for Sept.28th--something for everyone--come & select your goodies...Coming up, NCSDA Stampede, August 29th, Carlmont H.S.--join the fun. Vacationing: KEN KROFT & ELENA DE ZORDO acquiring new round dances in Indiana, Margaret Costello-New Orleans, Dale Jones-England, Victor Mendelsohn-Israel, Frank O'Connell-Solvang & Elwood Scott-Santa Barbara. Guest caller, August 31, is RICHARD MANSFIELD. Come join us.

FORTY NINERS...Our July 2, workshop was designated "Our Real Live Cousins of Our Uncle Sam". Club members were asked to be creative and to wear a hat decorated for the occasion. Red, white and Blue were the colors for the evening. Prizes for best creativity of hats went to Janice McCraney & Stan Wilson. The refreshments went right along with our theme with a cake decorated as an American flag. The fun evening was planned by Jim & Carol Hood, thanks to both of you for a job well done. Our choice for the "dance of the month" was the CABLE CAR SQUARES hoedown in San Francisco. Attending from our club were Walter & Terry Bice, Bill & Ramona Gauthier, John & Simone Pasadas, Jack & Joan Risso and Mary Denson. Those who went had a great time. Let's get a larger number out next month for the "dance of the month".

PAIRS 'N' SPARES...Even with summer vacations we average six squares weekly as caller HOWARD works to update us. Russ & Betty Russell returned after a month spent visiting beautiful Yugoslavia and other East European countries. George Anderson took a hike!, climbing Mt. Whitney the objective. He sure aims high. Rumors notwithstanding, Alice Kennifick didn't give her husband that black eye. Big Jim fell off a ladder. Must have been "watching the girls go by". Just kidding, Jim, we're glad no serious injuries. Hats off to coordinators Binnie & Dave Graham for a great job on the club picnic. Fred & Peg Moor entertained relatives from North Carolina and also enjoyed a trip to Pacific Northwest country. Beginners dance class starts September 11th.

LEVIS & LACES...We have had a great response to our new beginning round dance class, which started in July. The club was surprised by a visit last month from DOUG SAUNDERS' mother, here from out-state New York for the first time in years. Several of us are going to be at the square dancers night in Disneyland next month. Are you going? You shouldn't miss it it's always such fun.

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS...Our VICKI WOODS-ANTRIM called another hoedown at Cubberly Hi in July. Some of us attended and brought goodies. LARRY SEGAL did the rounds...The executive board voted in a few new members. Patty White, Lena Nuccio, and Nicole Gardner. We have some associate members, Shalomi Cordes, Kadassah Hayashi and Marie Williams. Welcome to all!! Our VICKI also called an exhibition program at the Officers Club in the Presidio. Had a great time there...Our latest visitors were Tom Stillman and Tom Fraser, who is getting married soon. Glad to see them back. From out of state we had Alton & Selma Sokal from Pompano Beach, Florida and Ingrid Magnusson from Brussels, Belgium...Vangie Kelly and Maryalice Johnson brought refreshments for July. Really scrumptious!...

SQUARE CUTTERS...The quarterly meeting of the Executive Board was hosted by Marian & Stan Olson. Changes in the number of officers on the board and the annual election of officers were items on the agenda...We were pleased to have several visitors from out of state dance with us recently. Joyce Davis from Oklahoma City and Alton & Selma Sokol from Pompano Beach, Florida...Some of our members enjoying activities of other clubs are Irma & Dick Cloonan at the 30th Anniversary hoedown of the PAIRS 'N' SPARES; Ann & Rich Piombo at the CABLE CAR SQUARES hoedown; Olga & Bill Carroll at the BACHELORS 'N' BACHELORETTESS dinner and dance; and rose & Al Ballati, Irma & Dick Cloonan, & Olga & Bill Carroll at the CAPER CUTTERS fifth Monday. We will be returning to Lakeshore School on September 17th. Come join us - visitors are always welcome.

WHIRL-A-WAYS...it's new and news - Walter Calderia has another granddaughter and everyone is delighted. Elwood Scott is back from his mystery vacation with a contented look on his face. The spaghetti dinner was delicious with salad and desserts enough for seconds and more. The hostesses were the mostest. Lourine Buada, Dorothy McKittrick and Teresa Smith and of course their spouses. Don't forget September 16th and our brush-up A-1 class with A-2 as a bonus. Pick up one of our little cards telling you all about it. would like to see you among us. Don't be afraid as RICHARD MANSFIELD is a very equanimity teacher so come on in the dancing is fine & fun. More next month.

DISTRICT II

MARTINEZ SWINGERS...We've had several visitors this summer. Rosalie & Frank Davis - SUN DANCERS. Rosalie & Frank were one of the original members of SHELL SWINGERS. they started dancing with SHELL SWINGERS in 1963. All told they have been dancing some 60 years. VICKY HENSCHALL's mother & dad, Jim & Helen Wehr, came for a visit. Sure was nice to meet them. John & Vivian Hatch from the 4 C's danced with us. Nice to have them. Dolf Degger is enjoying his retirement. His surprise retirement party was a complete surprise. Happy retirement Dolf. Our hoedown on July 11th was a fun dance. JOEL KADISH did a great job calling. A good time was had by all. Evelyn & Ernie Pasley celebrated their 1st wedding anniversary. congratulations. We wish you many more. July 29th we danced at Montgomery Wards mall. that was a lot of fun. After dancing we enjoyed ice cream at Leatherby's. What a great way to end a fun evening. We will be starting a beginners class on September 16th. We are off to a good start for September.

CLUICK BUSTERS...On July 26th, we had a barbeque at Mary & Milan Gregovich's home to welcome our newer dancers. Fifty members attended the function. some folks went swimming, others played ping pong, but all enjoyed the good food. Now we are back to our old stomping grounds, Meadow Homes School, after having danced with the JACKS & JENNYS all summer at the church. This month we are celebrating our 31st year. We do it up in style! First with a dinner-dance on the 11th and then a hoedown on the 18th with PAUL HARRIS calling. Come join us!

DIABLO SINGLES...summer is nearly over and we wish to welcome back all those vacationers. Joe Reilly took an exciting trip to Hong Kong, China & Korea. Also Bon Voyage to several of our members who are going to the World Square Dance Convention in Austria, then on to Munich for the Grand Opening of the world renown "Octoberfest". Besides all this traveling our members have had a very busy summer with picnics, potlucks and building and testing our new game for the Concord Fall Fest at Todas Santos Park in downtown Concord over Labor Day. We had a lot of fun getting this game and booth together and hope you will all come to the festivities, play the game, test your skill and enjoy. When th Fall Fest is over we will be setting up our food booth at the Walnut Festival in Walnut Creek. Last but not least is our new beginners class starting on Sept.10 at Fair Oaks School in Pleasant Hill. Bring your friends and lets get squared up and learn to dance.

ANTIOCH AMBLERS...Saw a full summer of activities. Three casual nights wearing "crazy shorts", "maynards"(crazy tennis shoes) & "crazy t-shirts". A raft trip & campout to Cache creek. Everyone had lots of fun with good food & friends. August 16th was our annual family picnic at Blackwelder Park in Rio Vista. The food was great with plenty of everything. Our thanks to the Wilyards for refreshments & to the Martinellis for entertainment. It was an outstanding event, enjoyed by all. September 22nd, 29th & October 6th we will be squaring up for our beginner classes. We encourage all active dancers to bring their friends and invite them to become part of square dancing. We are looking forward to another large beginners class.

SQUARE WHEELERS...By the time we see this in print, our mystery trip will no longer be a mystery. Destination was known only by 4 members, and their secret was nobly guarded. Our club has 108 members and this is a big asset at hoedowns. We brought home the coffee again(!) at SQUARE CIRCLES and DIABLO SINGLES hoedowns! We will continue as a "plus" club, with no September beginners, with our own DREW ANDERSON as club caller. Speaking of DREW, he was one first-rate caller at the District 2 NCSDA Mainstream dance in July, and all of us there were "bustin' our buttons" with pride that he was ours! Making the Monterey Festival scene and dancing under the parachute were the Grays, Helgessons, McDonnells, McEvoy's, Levstiks, & Robertsons. Great time was had by all! Welcome to additional new board members: ron & Evalou Helgesson-Parliamentarians, & Ed & Marian Stillwell-Alternate Delegates. Our club jackets are here, and lots of us are showing them off. Mega thanks to Chuck & Robin Gehring for all their efforts in getting them for us.

GUYS AND DOLLS...The support of everyone in the club, even those who don't dance A-1, contributed to the success of our August 1st A-1 hoedown. thanks to our friends from other clubs who turned out. The secretive smiles on the faces of Tom Sandow and Gus Lockhart have all of us wondering about their plans for our club picnic in September. Congratulations to Tom and his still-hobbled Sue on their 20th anniversary. Hard to believe they can be old enough. Eating right for the summer, our August potluck consisted of only salads & desserts - skipping those heavy entrees so we can stay light on our feet. With fall approaching, we've begun to give demonstration to help attract new dancers to our September beginners class. We'll also be holding open houses on September 9th and 16th as we return to Valley View Inter. for club night dancing - join us there some Wednesday soon!

DISTRICT III

CATCH-ALL-EIGHTS...Our own ED STEPHANS made his debut calling Summer Sounds one tuesday night to five squares of surprised members. We look for more from him...Congratulations! Newest parents are Rob & Barbara Wilcox, who adopted a baby boy Benjamin Joseph, born July 22 and weighing 7 lbs.9ozs...We have a busy fun filled summer with pizza nite and end of July, our annual picnic at Chevron, USA the middle of August and a great bus trip to South Shore the end of august. We are now ready to start our beginners class on September 1, 8, and 15.

SOLOS AND PAIRS...Over a hundred former members and friends of the BERKELEY SINGLES CLUB and it's successor, the SOLOS AND PAIRS, gathered for our annual Alumni Anniversary and Birthday Party on July 22nd. Dorothy Anthony and Jim Haney worked hard to arrange this big final meeting of our group. DAN KILLINGSWORTH came back to call the rounds and with his little girl Melanie, riding a pack-sack on his back. BILL CARROLL called the squares for the largest group we have ever had. Jim Haney provided the entertainment starring "Kiesta", his grand-daughter doing her famous "exotic dance". He also had two fine Barber Shop Quartettes and the California Chorus. Barbara Belvel, Aileen Witts, Hazel Eggett and Dorothy Anthony furnished fancy sandwiches. Mary Ann & Bill Arnold brought the cold drinks and coffee and Jim Haney brought a beautifully decorated sheet cake for dessert. Everyone said they had a wonderful evening and hated to say "good-bye" as this will be the last dance for our club, but who knows? Maybe next year another reunion could be held. So good-bye old SOLOS AND PAIRS, we hate to see you go. Many thanks again to Dorothy & Jim for keeping 'us going' these past many years! And again, our heart felt thanks to BILL CARROLL and his lovely wife CLARA for their splendid support.

BUZZIN CUZZINS...Our highlight for the month of July was the bus trip to Novato to dance to DAVE HOBAUGH and the GHOST RIDERS. We took a bus full of Club Green (with one Red exception) and brought home the coffee. Thanks to our trip coordinators, Art & Joanne Franklin and to the NOVATO SQUAWS AND PAWS, the host club. Our ranks are a bit thin this summer as everyone scatters hither and thither for vacation but we hope to see everyone back in September. Let's all turn out to welcome our new beginners class on September 14.

SUNDANCE SQUARES of Albany...The last tuesday of the month is Party Night, however, it seems like every Tuesday is party night with all our big hearted folks bringing mouth-watering desserts. We are met at the door by the aroma of fresh popcorn, coffee brewing, cookies, cakes right from the oven. When we finish hugging each other, the dance starts with everyone whoopin' it up bubbling with joy. RON HAGGERTY starts out with his new singing call, Joy Joy Joy and swings into all his new advanced calls; he is teaching several each night. We are thrilled. We are happy to have such a great caller and he is getting better and better. We really love him. It is amazing how the new beginners swung right into Advanced as if they had been dancing all their lives. That's because we have an excellent teacher...so, "who could ask for anything more!" Our wonderful Bob Gault, the great spaghetti cooker had back surgery with an amazing recovery. Betty Smelser is vacationing in Hawaii. Many others are on vacation but our attendance is high. We had visitors from BILL CLARK'S group while BILL was at the Folk Dance Festival. It was fun having them. Sylvia & Ed Chattleton are back with Sylvia recovered and looking slim and beautiful. See you dancing!

DISTRICT IV

OLD CAPITOL SQUARES...this is one group that dosen't slow down during the summer months. We've been busy with our annual picnic held at the Vacaville Water Slides, participating in Benicia's Torchlight Parade and old fashioned 4th of July activities. Our camping trip at San Benito was so much fun we'll try it again in October. Wally tried to break the bank at Monte Carlo night. the food was wonderful as usual with the champagne brunch addition a success. DOROTHY might have to invent a duck waddle call if we keep this up. Could a cookbook be in the future? In august we'll have our annual road Rally and be welcoming prospective beginner dancers at our open house. Hope to see you all at our annual Black & White Hoedown featuring MIKE SIKORSKY on September 19th. Happy trails to all.

DISTRICT V

SEBASTIOPOL SAUCY SQUARES...Our July Bridge the Gap Hoedown was fun and all nine squares enjoyed every minute dancing to caller STEVE MINKIN. Robert Tucker, his mother, daughter Selena and Kap Kinney had a marvelous trip on their way to and from the National Square Dance Convention in Houston Texas. Robert, Kap and Selena spent five days of dancing and enjoying themselves as did eleven hundred other California dancers. Robert's mother spent the time visiting relatives. Sight-seeing highlights included Las Vegas, north rim of the Grand Canyon, Arizonas Painted Desert, Petrified forest, Carlsbad Canyon New Mexico, the Alamo in Texas, Juarez Mexico and Lake Havasaus London Bridge. They drove five thousand miles, what a great trip! Come and join us.

MARKWESTERNERS...Several of our club members are combining their vacations and square dancing. Joe & Dot Kuss just returned from Crescent City where they spent 3 weeks square and round dancing. Angie & Lydia Dotti are back home after spending a week square dancing at McCloud and Bill & dorothy Moon did their dancing at Asilomar. Meanwhile, BOB ELLING is working full speed ahead on A-2. We are looking forward to our next hoedown in September. Dancing feet are happy feet, so let's keep on dancing.

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES...It has been a busy summer for all our club members, with a variety of different activities happening. We have been having family reunions, lots of visits with grandchildren, camping at Lake Alamore, an Aloha Cruise, trips back East and a jeep jamboree just to name a few. We hear Marlin Boucher is on the mend after having a bum knee. glad to hear Wilma Royneton is home and doing better. Congadulations to John & Grace Vandermade on moving into a new home. Plans are in full swing for our beginners class. It will start September 10th. Come join us September 12th for an evening with JOE SALTEL and CHARLENE STEEN.

GRANDE DANCERS...The club is happy to announce that it has resumed weekly workshops as of mid-July with club caller, RAY BETIENCOURT. We welcome several new couple members, a few newer dancers who will be "bridging-the-gap" with us. We will not meet the first Wednesday of the month, but all other Wednesdays at 7:30pm at the Clubhouse of Rancho Grande Mobile Home Park, Rohnert Park. Guests are most welcome, in fact, heartily encouraged - especially those interested in "bridging-the-gap" or brush-up.

DISTRICT VI

SAN LORENZO SINGLES...Many of us have been busy with vacations and other activities. Our club has been busy with many things. august 8th we enjoyed dancing at the Newark Pavilion for the Muscular Dystrophy Dance. On august 15th we attended the Zucchini Festival in Hayward and enjoyed dancing. I think we like the audiences. The next day we went to Bargetto Winery and learned all the secrets of wine making. We knew the secrets of drinking wine. As of this writing, we are working on a fabulous bus trip to Tahoe. If all goes well, we should make millions (or come back on welfare). Now we are looking forward to September and Fort Bragg. Keeping dancing and stay square.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS... Our new officers had their first board meeting at President Tom & Kathy Kolano's home. I heard it was 10 minutes of meeting and hours of partying. Otto & Erika Wendehost are the new vice president. Pete & Doris Bailey take over the treasurers position. Corresponding secretary will be Richard & Barbaara Rosenberg. The duties of delegate will be handled by Jim & Barbara Seaver and Will & Lori Bernard will be alternate delegate. Several members warmed up their CB radios, hooked up their trailers and headed for McCloud for some square dancing and mountain scenery. Past President Paul & Yvonne Miller vacationed on the East Coast for 2 weeks recently. Williamsberg was the highlight of their trip and now they are leaving for Oregon. They sure deserve a vacation after being president for the last 2 years.

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS... At this time we would like to take this opportunity to thank our out-going Board of Directors and welcome our in-coming board of Directors who changed over at our annual bash at Pat & Dale Spain's new old house. This year, while many of last years' officers generously agreed to serve another year, and try harder to get it right this time, we did have a few changes that should be noted. Bertha & Don Stubberfield will take over Lucky & Lee Moore's job as secretary; Milt & Ethel Deems will take over Rudy & Ellen Bosshards job as delegates; and Bud & Paula Lavin will take over Milt & Ethel's job as alternate delegates. The 1986/87 board received Certificates of Appreciation for their outstanding efforts and one couple, Rudy & Ellen were given a special thank you for their remarkable endeavors not only for this past year but also for the five years before that. They have been extremely conscientious delegates over the past years and we want the world to know how much we appreciate them. Our club joins many square dancers in mourning the death of Rosalee Parker. She was a long time friend and a short time member of the REBELS, but we all shall miss her. We are heartened at the fact that she has joined Howard now.

EDEN ROCKERS... The 5th Wednesday in July found us dancing at the Newark Pavilion. The KUNTRY KUZINS hosted this terrific dance. Everyone had a lot of fun. We haven't seen much of Guy & Betty Townsend lately! We last heard they were in Mexico. Where did they go when they returned? Walter & Jewell Kivett, Hal & Madeline Briar were last seen heading out of town to spend a couple weeks up at the Feather River Camp. We hope they enjoyed themselves. We had an energetic square of dancers perform at the annual Hayward Arts & Wine Festival with CHARLIE BROWN doing the calling. Attend our Anniversary dance this month (see ad for details).

ACES & LACES...Thanks are in order to all of you who joined with us to celebrate our 32nd Anniversary at our hoedown August 15th. Thanks to our guests, to caller DAVE HOBAUGH, rounds callers BILL & COLLETTE WEBER, and to members Bob & Jo Rybicki, Jerry & Dona Janke, Virginia Alpers and Ann Smith, who chaired the various committees. Jim Dailey led an excursion of members into the Weed Life Refuge and ghost town area in Alviso on August 1st. Fortunately, everyone who went, returned. This month, the RU's head for Yosemite for a week's respite. September birthdays: Ken Drake (6th), Fern Lopes (10th). Ken & Joyce Line celebrate their anniversary on the 20th. Best wishes to all.

DISTRICT VII

BOOTS 'N SLIPPERS...June came to a fantastic ending with the fifth-Tuesday Dance---hosted by TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS. We enjoyed the calling of JOEL KADISH, TERRY MOSIER and our own BEN GOLDBERG. July came in with a bang, there were various parties everywhere. Our annual campout was a big success with many of our former dancers who shared the "fun" with us. DAVE PARKER and RETHA shared the weekend with us; we enjoyed his calling along with our own BEN. We end this month with our annual "Badge Dance", as always BILL PETERS did a great job. Now to get some beginners this year and we will be in the swing again.

KUNTRY KUZINS...It's good to have some of our members back from Houston, but several are still on vacation. Don & Gereia Boyles and Omar & Irene Houseworth are still traveling since Nationals. Polly & Gordon Cleaver just came back from a beautiful trip from Hawaii. Ten couples went to Lois & Rich Millers house for some delicious desserts before going to our dance of the month, which was the FARMER & FARMERETTES. Also congratulations to Barbara & Leo Wiley for their 25th Wedding Anniversary. Several of our members enjoyed the party given by their children. We are all looking forward to meeting our new beginners and seeing everyone at our Labor Day Dance.

KEEWAY SWINGERS...Tis the season! But apart from one or two, most of our gallivanting members have returned to the fold - the Bentleys from Mexico, Bigleys from Canada, Pavans from Florida and the Mays from their European tour, true to the saying "KEEWAYS Travel" - all apparently had a terrific time, and are now ready to set sail again on our new beginners class on September 10 when we return once more to dancing at Walters Jr.High, after our fling at Santa Clara Fair and New Park Mall. Had a great time dancing with CASTRO VALLEY REBELS and their caller WAYNE JANSSEN hope we can do it again some time. Our new activities chairman Dick is really go, go, go and already has us signed up for the Jubilee, and the Nationals for next year - and quite a few other exciting goodies and my goodness next month is our Anniversary hoedown - he certainly believes in keeping us busy - So does JACK our caller - it sure looks like being a hectic year.

FARMERS & FARMERETTES...Our annual family picnic was a roaring success August 16 and so we want to give a hearty thanks to Ron & Georgia Porcella for organizing the event. This month Doug LaMee promises an equally successful family campout followed one week later by an excursion on San Francisco Bay on the "Red & White Fleet" boat, and dinner party at Jack London Square. JOEL KADISH is featured as the caller for our plus level workshop starting this month. See our ad in this months magazine.

DISTRICT VIII

NOVAIO SQUARES...Sunday, September 20 is the club steak barbeque at the Cheese Factory in Sonoma County. Bring your own meat to barbeque and salad or desert and eating utensils. Club to provide wine and charcoal. The Mazars are traveling in Canada for a summer vacation. The Luchettis will be vacationing at a summer home for six weeks entertaining many family members. John & Louise Gates returned from two months motoring through Alaska. they saw deer, jumping whales, bald eagles, beautiful scenery. They brought back to our club caller RAY BETTENCOURT a T shirt with a big Yellow rock on it! We had 14 squares at our hoedown with caller NATE BLISS. It was a super good dance. Thanks to all who participated. The Square Dance Foundation of Marin will start another county-wide beginners class on September 28 at Hamilton School. NATE BLISS will be the instructor for this full 52 week class. Thursday October 1 will be the regular pot luck dinner and installation of new officers. Former members Ralph & Joan Layman, now living in Grass Valley, and others will cruise Alaska for a week. Enjoy those long days, folks.

NOVAIO STUMP JUMPERS...Everyone is on the move: Al & Ellie Angulo's son, Tony graduated from pharmacy school. Their oldest son, Tom, and his family visited from Washington. Joe & Jeanellen Killian danced at Asilomar in Monterey Bay, July 5-10. Polly Poindexter will spend two and a half weeks in Peru. The genetic square dancing class attended as guests of our July 15 workshop. Eight squares danced to DAVE MILANO'S calls. The MILANO'S invited the club to their LaPorte home for the July 25 weekend. Everyone arrived Friday night for a gala dinner at the hotel. Saturday afternoon was crowded with a pot luck luncheon, horseshoe tournament and dancing at the campground. Still energetic, the group headed back to the MILANO'S cabin for a campfire and song fest. On Sunday the dancers toured ghost towns, hiked and went boating. Hooray for the days of summer!

BUZZIN' BOOTS...The 4th of July dance, at the Marin County Fair, attracted many clubs, including a large contingent from our club. Our own DAVE KOBAUGH was in superb form and a real interest in square dancing was generated in many of the spectators. Dick & Aileen Taylor entertained club members at a wonderful after party. Nancy Cover was well enough to attend our last workshop. She is recuperating from recent surgery and it was great to see her looking so well. Ed Brennan also seems to be on the mend and we were all so glad to welcome him back. Hope they both will be back dancing soon. Manuel & Liv Ortega will celebrate their 55th Anniversary at our July 24th workshop. Congratulations and best wishes. The Kealeys are traveling to Wisconsin for Jim's 50th class reunion. We wish Bon Voyage to all vacationing members. Many club members helped celebrate the graduation of the Square Dance Foundation's first beginners class. The club will host the graduates at our next workshop. Many happy years of dancing!

DISTRICT X

BEACH NUTS...We marched (and danced one tip) in the Half Moon Bay 4th of July parade, and took second place in the marching unit decision! Many thanks to the enthusiastic dancers who dressed in red, white and blue and participated in the event! Afterwards the Carlsons had a pot-luck at their home. Congratulations to Jackie & Don Starring on their 36th wedding anniversary! Happy birthday to our social butterflies, Jim & Elaine Murphy! They are enjoying their new truck and 24-foot trailer! Everyone is invited to our 18th anniversary hoedown on September 12th (Caller: JOEL KADISH; Cuer: JOHN FLORA)! Look for details in the ad in this issue!

CLODHOOPPERS OF BELMONT...Our board meeting was held at Warren & Jenny Benner's house. Jenny makes the best lemon chiffon pie. We are starting a beginners class on September 10. Classes will be held at Ralston School. Enjoy while you learn with pleasant teaching style of our caller JIM RODRIQUE. Let's encourage our friends to start dancing. Squareheads Ernie & Eleanor Heinen and their committee are working hard on our Autumn Hoedown to be held on September 26th, at Carlmont High School with our club caller ROGER LONEY doing the honors. rounds will be by LAMBERT & CORRIN KNOX. We hope to see you all there.

HIGHLAND SWINGERS...We are so happy to have Judy & Bruce dancing with us again. And of course our new treasurer, Carl and his lovely Southern Belle Billie, our new secretary, back after her "back to school days" learning to compute. Tony joins us but her new foot surgery leaves her unable, as yet to trip the light fantastic. Russell is dancing but with at times and uncooperative leg. Then there were the summer visitors. Hal's children from Arizona kept he and Ceci busy entertaining one another for a time. Of course Irene & Gene's visit with Irene's sister-in-law gave Irene's modeling career a big boost, since her camera wielding nephew took some great shots of Irene squaring up. Speaking of squaring up. Due to our new president Jim's coordinating abilities the onlookers at the San Mateo County Fair had the pleasure of watching us in our square dance extravaganza. a few of the vacationers were Dal & Beverly and daughter off to Disneyland and Cliff & Bunny up to Edmonds and Calgary. We wish to congratulate Anne on her wedding which took place on August 22. Much happiness to the bride and groom. We are looking forward to our new beginners group, starting September 3.

ISLAND SQUARES...For the past two years Steve & Lori Andersen faithfully served as Captains of the club. Thanks to their energies, time, and talents, they navigated the club through rough seas and into calmer waters. The "real reason" why they're not Captains this year, is because they're focusing all that energy, time and talent to their new home in Foster City! Congratulations to Herb & Lois Nieman for accepting the position of Cruise Directors, Gabe & Linda Moretti for continuing on as NCSDA delegates, and to Ken & Bev Flyweel for accepting the Sunshine position. It was nice to see many of the Penninsula clubs dancing at the San Mateo County Fair and enjoying the talents of the various club callers. We are presenting a new beginning level A-1 class in September (see our ad). Our caller is BOB ELLING and we hope to see you September 18th!

LONGHORNS...enjoyed dancing with TWO BY FOURS on 5th Tuesday June 30 and San Mateo County Fair July 29. Thanks for the invitations. We're all excited about welcoming back caller: SCOTT SMITH from Srizona for our ticket dance on club night October 13. We'd love to have our square dance friends join us. See club members for particulars. Members remember our picnic September 13 for fun and games. Cushmans traveled to Australia, New Zealand and Hawaii. Ray broke his arm, Cleo Manning fractured her hip, John Mulhall had a valve transplant, Marge Musante broke a rib. All are ding well. October 24th is our 33rd anniversary hoedown at Carlmont High School.

RANCHEROS, REDWOOD CITY...Club members were in for a few laughs when dancers George & Sue Masi paid their way to dance with a bag of coins (400 pennies to be exact). Bob, our treasurer, really had a time carting all that money to the bank the next day. Our members not only love dancing, they also love traveling. among those who took off for the highways, skyways and waterways were: Carol Lind, cruise to Alaska; Dean & Maxine Snow, Wash.D.C., Tennessee and No.Carolina; Joe & Rae Baiza, Pacific Northwest States and Yellowstone; Ken & Phyllis Beatty, Washington, Oregon and Canadian Rockies; Gene & Barbara Worthington, Mt.Lassen and Paradise, Calif.; Robert & Shirley Forbes, New Mexico and Switzerland; the Midwest, Carl & Dorothy Mensley on a Mission tour and Esther Larsen a family reunion. Also our caller, BEN and wife LAURIE, took off for weekends in San Juan Batista and Tahoe.

SAN MATEO ROAD RUNNERS...July and August were vacation months for a number of the club. Bob & Joyce Van Huystee took a long awaited cruise to Cozumel and other Caribbean ports to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. Bob Houston celebrated the successful termination of his stint as club president by taking his beautiful wife, Gloria, on a 6000 mile motor trip to Minnesota and points east. John & Billie Richy took in Fresno and then visited the famous statue, "End of the Trail", south of Visalia. Jack Haukom, Vaughan Shaner, Bill Keil and Peggy Cole are battling health problems, and we hope to see them all back soon.

BACHELORS 'N' BACHELORETTES, San Mateo Chapter...it was bargain days at Pete & Lee Erhardt's home Saturday & Sunday August 8-9 at our annual garage sale. Treasures and collectors items all at rock bottom prices. Thanks to everybody who helped, especially the Erhardts! Beach Party was the theme at our monthly party, which brought out some strange beach attire, some old fashioned and some fat out. A great time was had by all and no sunburns were repoted. BEN GOLDBERG did a terrific job filling in for TERRY MOSIER. Several squares of our group joined other square dancers at the San Mateo County Fair again this year for some enjoyable dancing.

TWO BY FOURS OF BURLINGAME...What a great party for GEORGE DREIER'S retirement! The best part was greeting old friends. We saw many former dancers and many current ones. Tom & Marge Hafley and Sylvia & Bob Pisani of the 2X4's and Dorothy & Harry Waters of the CLODHOPPERS prepared an interesting program. An appearance of a lovely belly dancer, compliments of Doris & Ivan Burstad of the GINGHAMS, was an added attraction. The next performer was a Judge "who couldn't stay away from the legal loop-holes". Plans are being made for a "Slab Dance" in Ben Lomond, sounds like lots of fun. Our club is also planning to dance at the San Mateo Fairgrounds to advertise our beginners class starting September 15th.

NON NCSDA CLUBS

DIAMOND DANCERS...Welcome new members and DIAMONDS IN THE ROUGH graduates Michael Albert, Harry/Elsie Anderson, Ed/Doris Apelzin, Lou/Thelma Cornish, Mary Crawford, Roy/Lena Generaux, Pat Haro, Mike Haro, Mark/Jan Heerman, Jim Horn/Celeste Snell, Marion Hull, ginny Kinsella, Sally Larsen, Gene McDaniel/Mitzi Webb, Brick/Billie Menz, Dick/Pat Mudge, Martin Parlan, Jim/Kitty Ragle, Dave/Nancy Shelton, Rick/Marie Smith, Frank Spellman/Lois Parker, Bernice Stanton. Our club is now 152 members strong, and has momentum. Action-packed August featured All-star guests DICK HOULTON, BILL HARRISON, and ERIC HENERLAU, climaxed by fabulous Mini-Weekend with BOB BAIR and NATE BLISS. We're eagerly awaiting ROSS HOWELL'S Weekend September 25-26: A-2 Friday, C-2 Saturday afternoon and C-1 Saturday night. Please join us.

MYSTERY CLUB... (no club name on the news)... September is here, and fall activities are starting up. Our far travelers are back: Don & Margaret Jensen and Herb & Peg Haynie from their cruise and Gordon & Towell from a summer in Great Britain - canal boating - no less! Many more back from closer vacations. Wonderful club picnic last month at Larkey Park - our activities people, Nick & Faye Perrore are doing such a good job. I hear there is a wedding coming up for member Jim Graham, and his new wife will be joining our beginners class. Great way to get new members!

BOWS & BEAUS... During the month of July, we welcomed eight new members to our club: Marilyn Bruner, Robert Byron, Frank Ebaugh, Estelle Lopes, Chris Moore, Alpha Schram, Samson Shilmover, Jr. & Beverly Yates. Those who attended the picnic and free musical performance at Rengstorff Park in Mountain View were very enthusiastic and would readily recommend it as a club social activity. Of course, we joined the rest of the clubs to dance at the Santa Clara County Fair in mid-summer. The fall social and party calendar is not yet complete, but keep in touch. Marge West, club president, will be singing her composition "Love Lost to Technology" or "You Can't Hold Hands With an Answering Machine" at one of our August dance nights.

CIRCULATORS... Another fun filled Beginners' Balloon Ball has come and gone. The committees all worked hard and did great things to make it such a success. We were disappointed that our caller, GENE BRAKEMAN couldn't call for it (he's recovering from a mild heart attack), but JOHNNY ROBERTSON did a great job, making it a fun evening for all. He also added to the success of the after party which featured our mother and son clogging team, Marge & Richie Walker, Fred Seronick, straight from old time vaudeville, and "stories" by Ed Whitney & Bob Carini. If you missed it all this year, mark your calendars now for next year!

SHADOWCASTERS... Have been dark for a few weeks, wishing a speedy recovery to our caller, GENE BRAKEMAN.

SINGLES WHEELS... We are dancing A1-A2. We are a singles advanced square dance club, we held our first dance June 26 and have had between six and eight squares each Friday, including July 3rd. We have dancers coming from Pleasanton, San Francisco, Fremont, Sacramento, San Mateo, Palo Alto, and San Jose areas. Thank you everyone for your great support! Our dances are held at Kinderwood School on Washington Street in Santa Clara. We dance A-1 with every third tip A-2. We even occasionally have a C-1 star tip. GARY CARNES, MIKE DEGMETICH, KEN KENMILLE and VICKI WOODS are our rotating callers. We have a lot of fun with them and become better dancers because have our first hoedown coming on the 25th of September. We're hoping to enlist the aid of the Private Eye of square dancing. Please watch for more information on this hoedown. It'll be great!! Come dance!

KALICO KATS...Recent birthday celebrities were Myrna and our caller RICHARD MANSFIELD. John Bier provided a beautifully decorated devils food cake and our guest Jean Mullin baked a delectable angel cake. Guess who deserved which cake?, no matter we all enjoyed the treat. Andy & Carma Anderson returned from a pleasant trip along the northern coastal area. Congratulations, Bill & Evelyn Morrisette on a darling new granddaughter named Erin Elizabeth. Cute little Becky is now big sister. Oh, yes! Mom and Dad rate congratulations too. Smiths' grandson, basketball playing Kevin visited us from Indiana. Bill Cloonan fractured a toe when a "soda bottle"? fell on it. He is on the mend and dancing.
