DISTRICT I

SAN FRANCISCO REBELS...have a new president, Cheryl Fraser. The other officers remain the same...attended the B'N'B's 25th anniversary hoedown with MIKE DEGMETICK calling. Good turnout, dance and refreshments. The new dresses were lovely also...our caller, TOM FRASER, called for the San Mateo B n Bs in March. The club joined him for a fun evening. We are having a Re-union Dance on April 27 for former Rebels. Red light, green light, and rounds by JOHN FLORA and LORI. Should be a great time. Keep it in mind and wear your badge, if you can find it! (See our ad this issue). Our beginners class is coming along very well.

SF B'n B's...had a surprise Valentine-birthday cake for JIM WYLIE, our caller. Went to Cloverdale with CAPER CUTTERS bus to hear DAVE HOBAUGH call, JOHN RETTER on rounds. Beautiful day, good dancing, and a delicious dinner at Green Mill. Our 25th Anniversary dance was a great success, thanks to our many friends who made it possible, with a bus load of SAN JOSE B'n B's arriving to help us celebrate. Our lovely dresses were a big hit, thought up by Shirlee Holland. Our beginners are doing fine. Will go to WHIRL-A-WAYS 35th Anniversary to hear DICK WAIBEL call with rounds by JACK KERN.

SQUARE CUTTERS...Our mini-hoedown on February 4th was an enjoyable event - good dancing with our caller GEORGE KNOX doing an excellent job as always on the squares and rounds. thanks to our many square dance friends for joining us. We were pleased to have Thula & Butch Carr among our guests...February was a month of party nights. Our club Host and Hostess, Dick & Irma Cloonan, surprised us with delicious cookies on several of our dance nights...A number of our members have been enjoying hoedowns of local clubs. the Katonas, Cloonans, and Marge Vellone at the CABLE CAR SQUARES hoedown on February 6th and the Piombos, Cloonans, Katonas, and Lee Banchemo at the SF B&B'S Silver Anniversary hoedown on February 20th following a delicious dinner at Charley Brown's in San Mateo.

WHIRL-A-WAYS...We seem to have our share of this Flu going around as several members have been out. Eve Pericic is still having back problems but we hope she'll be back dancing soon. Walt Calderia has had a death in his family recently. The B'N'B's of San Francisco hoedown was real nice but I was unable to attend. Their new dresses were very pretty, made you think of weddings. Our own new dresses & hoedown was a success due to you lovely people and DICK WAIBEL calling his usual best and of course JACK KERNS cueing the rounds with his new partner FRANCIS JAMES. We thank you for coming out, in spite of the nice rain, and dancing with us.

CAPER CUTTERS...It was a beautiful day when a bus load of our club headed for Cloverdale citrus Fair..danced to DAVE HOBAUGH calling & JOHN RETTER on rounds...once again, we won a trophy for most attendance...afterwards, went to Green Mill for delicious dinner. A correction! Frank Kadhl was appointed Pres. instead Herb Greenwood & Bill Meyer as vice Pres. Congrats!! Evening of fun was had at B'N'B's silver anniversary hoedown with MIKE DEGMETICH calling & WHIRL-A-WAYS 35th anniversary hoedown with DICK WAIBEL calling...plenty of delicious food. Our wishes for a speedy recovery to Herb Greenwood & Adele Neri who recently had surgery. Condolences to Ruby Woodson on loss of her mother. Special thanks to our guest caller, DOUG SAUNDERS.

CABLE CAR SQUARES...Club members were saddened by two deaths earlier this year. Chet Gideon, a very long time member of the club and one of it's former officers, died in January. His helpful support of the club and his gentlemanly manner will be sorely missed. Then the unexpected death of John Buada in early February caught us all off-balance. He & Laurine were often guests of the club. His quiet, friendly presence is now lost to us, and will be missed.

PAIRS'N SPARES...Our caller HOWARD HILLYER is out of the hospital and back on the road to recovery. HOWARD is recuperating at his daughters home. We miss you, HOWARD, get well!!! GEORGE KNOX has been doing a great job of calling for us in HOWARDS absence. thank you GEORGE. On February 23rd, we had a Sadie Hawkins day dance with everyone dressed up in "dogpatch" style. George Anderson was our "Marrying Sam" preacher. George read a few words over all of us from his "phone-book" Bible, with a request for a lot of loud and enthusiastic "Amen's", after telling some enlightening things about some board members. Everyone had a good time and many were "married" by Marrying Sam and had their pictures taken for posterity with an official marriage license.

FORTY NINERS of South San Francisco...In late January Jim & Carole Hood organized the successful Old Acquaintance Night for former club members and 25 attended. Julie & Stan Wilson put on the Sweetheart dance at workshop with programs to sign up different partners for each tip--an exciting mixer experience. There was a big article in the San Mateo times about 49er Don Thomas and his wife Jean on their deep involvement in dog shows with their prize Pekinese dogs. Travel--The Hanlys & Ashcrafts to Rio for the Carnival followed by a cruise ending in Aruba. Adaptable travelers retired Major Jim & Donna Triggas to Hawaii as standbys on military freight planes. Grateful thanks to Jim & Ann Schwirian for organizing a club garage sale to support sending Beth Hood with Capuchino High Band to the Australian Expo in April. All items not sold were donated to Peninsula Association for Retarded Children and Adults.

DISTRICT II

GUYS AND DOLLS...have big news...to placate the fairer sex, the GUYS AND DOLLS have changed the club name to DOLLS AND GUYS. From now on the club name will oscillate: D&G in even years and G&D in odd years...despite a great year as club president, Bob and Carol McMains have been traded to the Broken Wheelers of Butte, Montana for $350.00 and two first round draft choices--caller DAVE HOBAUGH explained that since we haven't seen the 23 couples that went on the mystery trip, we will be rebuilding for the next few years. Remember, the sqaurobics classes will begin this month right before Wednesday club nights. Wasn't that a great food fight at the March dinner dance? This club knows how to party! Speaking of food, everyone's looking forward to the April SPAM potluck, a chance to show off your favorite recipe. And, no, it's not true that because of the great DOLLS AND GUYS Newer Dancers, the NCSDA has ELMER RADCLIFFE under investigation for possible recruiting violations. Happy April fools day to y'all!

DANVILLE SQUARE WHEELERS...Our annual Sweetheart Swing was one sweetheart of a hoedown! As we hadn't had a September beginners class of our own, we were delighted to play the roles of angels to our newer dancer guests (or was it the other way around?) Posters designed by don Bonnell, Evalou Helgesson and Melissa Kemme decorated the walls. the stage was adorned with a delightful sweetheart couple designed by Bob Roberson. the duo was totally detailed with charming faces on their red heart balloon heads and fully complete cardboard bodies. Calling to our 22 squares were our own DREW ANDERSON, spelled occasionally by guest callers BILL BANKERT, WAYNE JANSSEN and MEL LITER. Big thank-yous for the sweetheart of an evening go to Ray & Barbara McEvoy and Ed & Marian Stillwell.

RIPSNORTERS...are visible everywhere these days. Another successful fun reunion of old members and friends have turned up some new prospective members. Lee & Ginny Sloan, charter members, have been dancing regularly since 1956. Lee was awarded a place in the Basketball Hall of Fame in Carlisle, PA. (A starter of the 1931-32 undefeated team.) Move over, Jim Thorpe! Our February beginners hoedown with our award winning caller, ERIC KENERLAU was fun for all!! thanks to the Guest callers!!! the annual dinner-dance & awards banquet took on a new twist this year with a "This is your life, Dave Moeller" in honor of his birthday and hours devoted to the club. Our mystery trip is still a mystery. February was awards month.

THE FOLLOWING NEWS IS TOO LONG - LIMIT 125 WORDS!

CLUTCH BUSTERS...Carol & Scott Owens welcomed warmly when visiting the OLD CAPITOL SQUARES...KEN FOLTZ seen at President's hoedown, looking and feeling much better...In case you can't read the new red and white badge worn by Roger Perry, it says "too much sex is bad for the eyes"...some members out nursing the "false" flu bug those present had a ball...Interesting topics overheard between tips: two unnamed young ladies talking about the possibility of pregnancy: Bob & Terry Healy discussing a sit-down dinner (maybe a snack or two will be left-over for the board meeting): Ralph Brys related how close he came to leaving this world when he collapsed in the parking lot -- feeling great now: the burglary when a young man walked in while we were dancing and helped himself to the refreshment kitty...the mini-golf renovation project at Thousand Trails scheduled for March 26/27 and April 8/9/10 those participating will not only have fun of working together but also the privilege of using these TT facilities (at wholesale) for the next five years...Hint: Mystery trip maybe this month...Bob & Janice Heintz to host board meeting April 6th...

DIABLO SINGLES...We had a great time at our March hoedown and looking forward to a great hoedown this month on April 23. See our ad for more info on that item. We also had a great time on our group trip to Tahoe to play in the snow...those that went skiing did anyhow, and the rest of us wandered around and ate and watched the parade and ate and wandered some more then the group dinner on Saturday nite was terrific. The next item on the agenda is going to Reno then to Oakland in May; so that will be a busy month for all. Hope to see you all at these get togethers. till next time...see you at the hoedowns.

CONCORD STOMPERS...The thursday beginners class is doing well with 35 students and a group of club angels helping out. Plus level club night on Wednesdays is 5 to 6 squares and we are pleased to see the new members from our previous class. The Wednesday Irish Pot Luck at the end of March was great fun if you liked green cookies. thursday night Advanced level is up to 7-8 squares including many guests and is now held at Strandwood School. One Thursday group found they really liked dancing in the dark after the only lights working were the stage and the exits. The new club outfits are arriving so we soon will be quite smart looking.

DISTRICT III THE FOLLOWING NEWS IS TOO LONG - LIMIT 125 WORDS!

SUNDANCE SQUARES of Albany...Our new beginners class is going well thursday nites except for a few eager beavers having the flu. Mary Martin broke her foot. They are all anxious to get back as they all like RON HAGGERTY'S calling and teaching, they say. We dance at Albany Senior Center, however we are not all seniors. We have many beautiful young people too. we all miss our dear Bing Johnson who passed on. We had a moment of silence tuesday night while we all sent our love out to this great man. The day he went to the hospital, he mentioned how much he loved the club and how much he enjoyed square dancing. So we hoped he would be dancing now, wherever he is as that was the joy of his life. We are having a party for Don Rogers who has been in Saudi Arabia. this called for a celebration as he is very popular with us. Norma Chavira went to Los Angeles to an expert ear surgeon who is perfecting her hearing. She is thrilled. She and Ronald Reagan have something in common, they both have the same ear doctor. Isn't that exciting? Our advanced class is really progressing with RON'S great calling. He makes us feel so good about dancing, never criticizing or putting us down when we make a mistake. As a matter of fact, the entire club is like that. Anyone who dances with us feels relaxed, loved, appreciated and happy. So learning with us is a happy experience. You get to do your favorite Folk dances, swing and round dances between tips. We don't waste a minute. Come to our last Tuesday of the month party, the food will tickle your taste buds. See you at the church.

SUNDOWNERS...Sponsored their very first hoedown on January 30th at Bancroft Jr. High in San Leandro. ED TAUSIG, our club caller, called the squares and VIRGINIA & BILL CARPENTER cued the rounds. Door prizes, a raffle, and delicious refreshments added to the colorful affair which was well attended.

DISTRICT IV

OLD CAPITOL SQUARES...Many thanks are in order this month. First, to Marilyn Chisholm for keeping track of our progressive dinner plans, making the poster and sending out maps. Also, thanks to the roy Housemans, Rex Housemans, the Emerys and the Burkhardts for helping out with the party for Japanese students last month. And now our March hoedown is history, we thank Linda Houseman and her committee for organizing the event. Our new officers, elected in March are[Pres: Colin & Sharon Burkhardt, V.Pres: Norm & Kay Strand, Sec: Lee & Larry

Elrod, Treas: Patty & Dale Harrington, NCSA Delegate:
Dennis & Doran McBride, Alt Delegate: AR & Adeline
Worsham.

DISTRICT V

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES...kept JOE SALTEL busy during the month of February. He called for our newer dancer hoedown Feb 6th and our plus hoedown Feb 13th. Tired of him we're not, many thanks for a job well done! The latest of the travelers that I know of are Ken and Dee Satron to Yuma and Hanks and Paines to Quartzsite Arizona. The Desideris are back from Baja. Mary is now recuperating from back surgery. Best wishes for a speedy recovery. So long till next month!

QUESTION MARKS..had a fun time with the ADOBE SQUARE hoedown with DAVE HOBAUGH and the GHOST RIDERS. Nice turn out of our own club members. The following week we had a club pot luck with our beginners. Good food, new recipes shared and lots of fun dancing. When's the next pot luck, gang? There is a rumor that after the beginners graduate (August) we might have a new club dress. Some of us are thinking it wouldn't be a bad idea. The talents of our membership is endless. Ask Edie Cook all about plucking that turkey for the Thanksgiving meal. She got the know how. Hope to all of you at our fourth Saturday hoedown.

DISTRICT VI

SAN LORENZO SINGLES...had another great month. A couple of weeks ago, we had a wonderful progressive dinner. I think they get better every year. Thanks to our great hosts and hostesses for opening their homes to us. It takes a lot of work, but with everyone helping it makes for a really good party. We also hosted the beginners district 6 hoedown. What a nice turnout, but with two fantastic callers like JOEL KADISH and TERRY MOSIER, what would one expect. We hope all the newcomers continue dancing. We are not looking forward to the mystery trip that Don Schmeyer and Shirley Mencke are plotting. It is still a mystery. Keep dancing and stay square.

CHECKMATES...have several members "ON THE ROAD AGAIN". The Howards in Southern California for 10 days. Simmons to Georgia for a month to attend a family reunion. Bruces are back from a trip around the world. The Dyers will spend Easter vacation week in Hong Kong along with their son and daughter-in-law. Murphys are in Northern California helping to care for elderly parents, hurry back, we miss you. Several members are planning on attending the Silver State in Reno the first part of May.

EDEN ROCKERS...As the March winds started blowing, we held a very successful hoedown with PAUL HARRIS calling and the WEBER'S on the rounds. Our deep thanks to them for doing such a great job and we thank all of you who attended this event. March brought our annual elections for new officers for the coming year. President, Ralph Chambers, Vice-President, Hal & Madeline Briar, Secretary, Jewel & Walter Kivett, Treasurer, Len & Hazel Sams. Our new board promises that the coming year is going to be very exciting for the club. We all wish Juanita Scoville our best as she recovers from the recent eye surgery and the nasty cold she contracted. We look forward to her dancing again with the club and at hoedowns.

DISTRICT VI SQUARE DANCE CLASS...If you didn't catch our two great hoedowns in March you really missed some great fun. ROD BERTLSHOFFER of the CHECKMATES really had the floor rocking on March 4th. On March 25th the SAN LORENZO SINGLES hosted and they brought on the Dynamic duo of JOEL KADISH & TERRY MOSIER for all of us to enjoy. We thank them for calling some great hoedowns. On April 18th we will graduate our second class of dancers and this is a very enthusiastic group. We all thank CARL MARKMAN for the great job he has done in instructing and calling for the class. Don't miss our graduation hoedown on April 22nd, hosted by the EDEN ROCKERS with CHARLIE BROWN calling. (See our ad this issue.)

SKIRTS & FLIRTS...We thank everyone who came out and supported our newer dancers hoedown. We had a lot of happy faces thanks to JOEL KADISH and his hats. Even though some of our members want to take "it" with them, they still signed up for the Cal State production of "You Can't Take It With You". The mystery dinner turned out to be at the 94th Aero Squadron in San Jose. If I had known, I would have worn my scarf. After drinks in the "Ready Room" and dinner on the "Flight Line", everyone was ready for the high flying calling of MIKE SIKORSKY & BILL DAVIS. John Moniz is giving us his geoduck speech, so it must be about clam digging time again.

CASIRO VALLEY REBELS...February as always is a great month for a couple of reasons. One reason is because of our favorite Valentine, MARSHALL FLIPPO who gets better every year and still able to charm the socks off of every man, woman and child he comes in contact with after all these years. He again provided us with a delightful hoedown with his beautiful voice and great personality. And speaking of beautiful, the after party at the beautiful home of the Bonora's was again a beautiful event. The Bonora's as usual were excellent hosts and we really enjoyed it. Gloria probably hates the club while she's cleaning up, and says never again, but she'll forget by next year. The other reason we love February is because we always trudge up to Plymouth for the long weekend and always have a great time. Most years the weather is less than perfect but this year it couldn't be better and we were able to enjoy nature along with the debauchery that we usually do. the only sad part of the Plymouth trip was that it will be the last time the Leavitts will be with us for a while. They are embarking on a new business venture and Larry is off to Australia to learn the ropes. We will also miss those valentines on our door steps, and some of us might even miss the dumb toilet paper all over everything. Good luck Leavitts, don't forget us. Also, lots of good luck to Jim Hooks on his recent surgery.

DISTRICT VII

SQUARE CIRCLES...our beginners hosed a super hoedown on Jan 23rd. TERRY MOSIER did a great job of calling. Every one enjoyed a nice evening of dancing. On Feb 13th our beginners and club members celebrated Valentines day by going out for dinner and then to an evening of dancing sponsored by the RANCHERO SQUARES. What a delightful evening! Don and Margaret Williams are our new NCSDA delegates. We appreciate your representing our club. Many thanks to Bernadean Weber for the many years she served as our delegate. We welcome some new members to our club: Jerry Coalson, and Neville and Linda Howse. We are glad to have you dancing with us.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS...Are busy busy with hoedowns this spring season. Our St.Pats beginner hoedown in March was a big success with JIM OSBORNE calling. A large crowd danced and ate the evening away. We are looking forward to a large crowd at our April 2 hoedown. The clubs mystery bus trip in March was fun and enjoyed by a full bus load to parts unknown. April takes us to Plymouth for the Western Slope campout and dance weekend then to Turlock in May for Chunk-O-Coal. In between bus trips and hoedowns we will be graduating our class that started in September.

KUNTRY KUZINS...Are looking forward to the upcoming graduation of our beginners class. Our class members are: John & Linda Anson, Jerry Belgum, Joni Aganon, Ernie Barry, Shirley Roehl, Chuck & Kalyn Bryan, Steve & Mary Crawford, Bill & Connie Daniel, Pete & Charlotte Herrington, Kerry & Paulette Jones, Harry Juzix, Ruth Dalpiaz, John & Maureen Kowalcky, Donald Lapray, Joy McBurney, Bruce Reinholds, Cindy Silveria and Tamara Avilla. Our graduation is always a fun time, and a good party with lots of surprises.

KEEWAY SWINGERS...Swing into spring with the KEEWAYS - it's a great place to be. KIP & PAT both celebrated birthdays and it surely made the cake all the sweeter having it cut and served by KIP himself. The "Dress of the Year" designed by "The First Lady of the Year" was modelled and such a big hit that already all those needles are popping in and out. Someone seems to be planning a progressive dinner (sounds exciting and really something to look forward to.) Newer dancers graduated and having a great hoedown and a terrific beginners class already begun. With spring in the air everyone is "Gung-Ho". Spring hoedown (this is the place to see our new dress - but don't let anyone know that I told you this) on the 23rd of April. My goodness Easter will already be passed - still do come visit us - you won't regret.

FARMERS & FARMERETTES...Thanks to Bob & Sue Burpee for organizing the fun-filled weekend at our clubs annual family snow trip. A great time was had by all attending. John & Ann Martin are busy making plans for our up coming hoedown. JOEL KADISH will be the caller for our 3rd annual "Bunny-Hop", Friday April 15th at the Newark Pavillion. See ad in this months issue. Also, mark your calendar for July 1, firecracker hoedown featuring JOEL KADISH, TERRY MOSIER and the GHOSTRIDERS square dance band.

DISTRICT VIII

NOVATO STUMP JUMPERS...went to the regular workshop of the NOVATO SQUARES to get the NCSDA buckskin. After 2 tips we were presented with it and our own artist, Ruth Van Winkle, painted our logo. The following week, the MAVERICKS took it away. Saturday, Feb 6th, 10 couples took advantage of a special club treat to dance with DAVE HOBAUGH and the GHOST RIDERS. Our clubs best to Joe Killian, our club president, for a speedy recovery from a broken ankle. Remember to come to our 36th Anniversary hoedown on April 16th. Happy dancing.

NOVATO SQUAWS AND PAWS...followed a delicious potluck dinner on March 2nd by voting in the new board for 88-89. Congratulations to the following members: Sharing president/vice president duties are Stuart Levin and Brick Menz, Secretary Helen Cunningham, Treasurer Betty Kjellgren, Publicity Donna Rapport, Sheriff Jack Shapiro, delegate Jack Burton. The club is looking forward to an exciting year with this dynamic new board. The club extends its thanks for a job well done to the out going board, VP Mitzi Kemp & Barbara Babow, secretary June McClanahan, treasurer Bobbi Levin, publicity Dan Clements, sheriff Norm Kemp, delegate Bill Gross, alternate delegate Jack Cunningham, and past president Larry Babow. Named to the Square Dance Hall of Fame is out going president Netty Burton. This lady did an outstanding job as president and will be a hard act to follow. The club extends to her a very special vote of thanks.

BUZZIN BOOTS...A large group from the club traveled to Cloverdale for the Citrus Festival. Our own DAVE HOBAUGH did an excellent job calling and our own JOHN RETTER cued the rounds, in his usual great style. Ray & Joan Walker entertained the club at a wonderful dinner party after the dance, at their charming home in Calistoga. Plans are being made for a corned beef and cabbage dinner before the workshop on the 18th of March, to celebrate St. Patrick's Day. Plans for our Spring Fling, on April 23 are being finalized, DAVE HOBAUGH will be calling our A-1 dance and JOHN RETIER will be cueing the rounds. Best wishes to Joe Killian for a speedy recovery from a broken leg. We miss Joe & Jeanellen and hope to see them back with us soon.

THE FOLLOWING NEWS IS TOO LONG - LIMIT 125 WORDS!

NOVATO SQUARES...Installation of new officers is April 6. Come early and enjoy a pot luck dinner. Dancing for the evening will be fun level. LARRY & KAREN WILLIAMS continue their instruction for round dances every other club nite. The famous Buckskin. We got it, we lost it, now we're after it again. Look out, dancers, here we come to get it. Bon Voyage to all the people going with RAY & NINA BETTENCOURT in May on their Trans Panama Cruise on the Cunard Princess. Have fun square dancing on the high seas. Thanks to DICK WAIBEL, caller and JEAN FERRELL, rounds, for a great March hoedown. It was a fun evening. Thanks to all who participated. Plan to join our club get-together for a trip to Ukiah May 21 when RAY BETTENCOURT will be guest caller for the evening. RAY will also call in Fort Bragg on August 6. Sign up now for our June 12 Gin Fizz breakfast at the Cheese Factory in Petaluma. Those famous chefs of prior years featured delicious fizzes, ham, eggs, pancakes and lots of hot coffee. Pick up your copy of the N-S activities calendar; it lists all the activities for the year. Recovering from recent illnesses were Ed Kroll, Dottie Deardurff, Anita Mendel, Evie Champion. Our Valentine party was enjoyed by over eleven squares, including the generic class with NATE BLISS, caller; POINT REYES CLUB and caller; STUMP JUMPERS. The STUMP JUMPERS claimed the traveling Buckskin as their own, until some other energetic club claims it. Club president Lew & Evie Champion entertained former club dancers Opal & Elton Grey, who now live in Petaluma.

DISTRICT IX

CLEARLAKE SQUARES...Held their monthly hoedown Saturday January 23rd at the Alpine Senior Center, Lucerne Ca. A-1 square dancing was from 2-5pm, JOE SALTEL of Eureka calling. This was followed by a delicious pot luck dinner. Then at 7:30-8pm pre-rounds were cued by PHYLLIS CROISANT. This was the 25th Anniversary of the club and from 8-11pm plus dancing by JOE SALTEL & rounds by PHYLLIS CROISANT. A large 6 beautiful cake and coffee were enjoyed during the evening. A good attendance with many visiting clubs. Then on Friday night January 29 we joined in with the KONOCII KICKERS at the Kelseyville Lions Club, happy hour 6-7pm, swiss steak dinner was served by the Lions club 7-8:30pm. Square dancing was then enjoyed until 11pm with VANYA LEIGHTON & CHICK THRASHER calling the squares and TED SIERAKOWSKI of REDWOOD ROUNDERS doing the cueing. This was such a success and enjoyed so by all the two clubs are planning another get together in the near future.

KONOCTI KICKERS...We have just celebrated our 27th club anniversary. Our hoedown on February 14th with GLEN BYLAND as our guest caller. This was a Sunday afternoon affair with a pot luck dinner which followed. Many guests and club members enjoyed the red-light green-light hoedown. On January 29th we combined with the CLEARLAKE SQUARES to enjoy a fun filled evening with a dinner-dance at the Kelseyville Lions Club. Our own VANYA LEIGHTON & CHICK THRASHER shared in calling while TED SIERAKOWSKI cued the rounds. There were 59 dancers in attendance and a good time was had by all. Al & Pat Reeder were especially pleased with the win of the half & half drawing. We have been missing our Life Member Mary Foster as she has been hospitalized..the word is..she is improving...and we hope to have her back soon. Also on the ailing list is Erwin Holmston. We hope to see you with us again shortly. Thom & Paulette have been working to bond the clubs of District IX. they have organized an ad for Square Dance - Where? which will list each of the clubs with information on when and where they will be dancing. They are hoping this will encourage dancers to enjoy all of the District IX clubs..."Come Dance With Us"!

DISTRICT X

LONGHORNS...Fran & Del Genest & Vicki & Dalton Moyers danced at Asilomar. Ernie Carpenter had surgery 2/2 at Kaiser and doing well. Billy & Bob Jensen are back from Baja and are going to South America. they had an anniversary in February. Claire Urrere is having eye surgery on her other eye. Cleo Manning is dancing again. The Urrere's and Manning's have been members (charter) since 1955. Cunninghams celebrated their 25th anniversary. Fran Genest shook up the club with new ideas she picked up in Asilomar. Congress and the IRS have a new philosophy in the "Art of Taxation" to pluck the most feathers off a goose with the least amount of hissing. Pretty sneaky I'd say!

CLODHOPPERS...Our anniversary hoedown was a huge success thanks to square-heads Harry & Dorothy Waters and their committee - Joe & Virginia Cornyn, Warren & Jenny Benner, Charley & Marilyn Ellis, Dee & Verna Owen. We're looking forward to seeing our snow-birds return from their trips to the desert. We hope Phil & Marge Stueck, Ruben & Dorothy Bear and Lou & Frieda Ernst had a good time. We're glad to hear that Martha Smile is feeling better and is able to visit us on Wednesdays. She & Dave are awaiting the birth of their baby in April.

HIGHLAND SWINGERS...It is that time again. Let us see what the club members are up to to fill our pages. There is time to remember. Gene will help with that with his forgetful jokes. We have people in the hospital such as Claudia with an operation to remove her spleen and Ernie back cheering the hospital staff. Both have returned to dancing for which we are most grateful. The trips that sound like fun are the Esterbys and Lombardis off on a cruise to Hawaii, which we hope will help Phyllis' back. Then there was Helen so happy to dance with Jim that the caller, ROBERT had to recommend restraint 'till a later time. The Murphy's daughter Mary made a beautiful bride on Valentines day. We are, of course, so happy to hear that Bruce received his diploma and graduated as "Best Student". Tiny ROBERT comes to help his Dad call correctly and keep us in step also to give his Mom permission to dance in a square or two. We have the crooning of Irv but he has yet a greater talent. when lost simply call "Irv".

BEACH NUTS...Best wishes to our caller, HOWARD, for his fast recovery. we all miss him. In his absence, JIM WYLIE has been filling in and is doing a fine job. Twenty-two people joined us for brunch, we had plenty to eat, afterwards about half of us went bowling. Due to some unforeseen events, we are now dancing in Pacifica. We are trying to find a permanent home on the coastside, between Half Moon Bay & Pacifica. Thank you, WHIRL-A-WAYS for a great hoedown, enjoyed by all, at CSM. Planning on four couples going to the Wing Ding in Turlock, we will be joining the ISLAND SQUARES for a potluck Saturday night. Happy birthdays to Bill McCormick & Sylvia Remmert.

ISLAND SQUARES..."A-1 Derful Spring Hoedown" is scheduled for April 16th (see our ad)! Former club caller KEN KENMILLE will be calling the squares along with our very own BOB ELLING! It will be A-1 derful reunion and lots of fun so plan to attend! It just might be what the doctor ordered to relieve you of the stress from filling your tax returns. speaking of doctors, we wish a speedy recovery to Ruth Boyer & Marsha Aliamus. Congratulations to Jim & rose Mulhall on the birth of their grandson and happy birthday to Rita House, Guenther Kipp, Bev Fifield & to my lovely wife Pat. I don't think I'll live to see my next birthday!

RANCHERO'S of Redwood City...we were happy to have our Sherrif (Carl Mensley) return after two weeks in southern Calif. We enjoyed dancing with KUNTRY KUZINS in Fremont at the Elks Club on the 20th for Cerebral Palsy Benefit, had three great callers. the whole club and part of the class turned out for a sweetheart dance and desert auction on the 24th. The boxes and bags were pretty and the goodies were delicious! Everyone had a good time and we got better acquainted. It was nice to have Kayleen Keller back after much sickness. A group of us are planning to visit the B'N'B'S leap year dance at the Mainliner Club.

BACHELORS 'N' BACHELORETTES, San Mateo Chapter...After dancing for many years at the Mainliner Club in San Mateo, we are moving! Starting April 4, we will be dancing at the Shoreview Recreation Center, 950 Oceanview, San Mateo, and of course our caller, BEN GOLDBERG and JOHN FLORA, rounds, will be moving with us. See our ad for further details. We're still at the Mainliner Club through March. February 29 - for the first time in 28 years it fell on a Monday so we had a hoedown to celebrate with BEN GOLDBERG doing the calling. Thanks to everybody who came and made it a "Leaping" success. Congratulations to the San Francisco B'N'B'S who just celebrated their Silver Anniversary.

NON ASSOCIATION CLUBS

KALICO KATS...have a new caller with whom we are very pleased. His name is JERRY REED and although he comes from Texas, once you hear him call, we know you won't hold that against him. Along with plus level, JERRY will be teaching and reviewing A-1. Thanks to all who auditioned. Also, a vote of appreciation to the Hal Fliegler for his efforts in locating a caller and to Lou for her delicious refreshments and hospitality we enjoyed at their home. Guests are invited to visit us free Friday nights, April 15, 22, and 29. Had fun at PAIRS 'N' SPARES Sadie Hawkins nite.

BELLES AND BEAUS...Poor Marty Bartolf. In a freak accident he was bumped by a friend's car and his already bum knee took the brunt of it. Fortunately, nothing was broken but it's uncomfortable. He can dance a couple of tips, anyway. Leonard Dobson surprised us with his speedy relief from the arthritis in his feet and hands. He and Ella got back and volunteered to be our coffee makers for the month. These are very special people. ViBartolf is an avid ice skater and told us that Olympic gold medal winner Brian Boitano practiced at "her" rink in Dublin. Also, Jean Elliott knows the Boitano family from her days in banking. Small world, isn't it?

DIAMOND DANCERS...Welcome new member Chuck Meyers. KIP GARVEY called sensationally in March, and we're eagerly awaiting KEN KENMILLE (April), STEVE MINKIN (May) and HONEY WOLFSON (June) as All-Star Guests. We're commemorating our 4th anniversary as a member-run club - an exciting, memorable, generally satisfying period during which we've featured some 50 All-Star Guests, some 20 hoedowns, including two with live band, SOUTHERN COMFORT; inaugurated such features as "100% Friendly Club", "Diamonds Travel Well" badges for those visiting other clubs' advanced hoedowns; earned commendations on our program for many nationally renowned callers as well as The Prompter. Much hard work by many great people, but special kudos to Abbott Johnson, Administrator for three years; Nancy Shelton, current Administrator; and Betty Denton, our Chief financial Officer throughout. Come join us and catch our spirit!

THE CAL AGGIE SQUARE DANCERS...At U.C. Davis invite all Northern Calif. square dancers to our Sweet 16 dance. It will be May 14 at Cal Expo, and will feature the GHOSTRIDERS, along with CHARLES BRIDGES, our club caller. We will also be participating in Picnic Day festivities at U.C. Davis on April 16. Plan on attending both

We will not have a meeting in April as the callers will turn out in force to support GOLDEN DOORS hosted by the NCSDA.
