Norm Stelle

SQUARE DANCING LOST ONE OF IT'S MOST ARDENT DANCERS IN FEBRUARY, NORM AND HIS LOVELY WIFE BARBARA HAVE BEEN LONGTIME MEMBERS OF THE KUNTRY KUZINS CLUB IN FREMONT. THEY HAVE SERVED IN VIRTUALLY EVERY CAPACITY IN THEIR CLUB AS WELL AS DELEGATES FOR THE NCSDA. THEY CREATED THE BEAUTIFUL DECORATIONS FOR THE 1985 GOLDEN STATE ROUND-UP AND HAVE SINCE SERVED EACH YEAR AS HALL SECURITY MEMBERS. NORM COULD BE SEEN ALL AROUND THE FACILITY, WITH RADIO IN HAND, LOOKING AFTER THE NEEDS OF THE SQUARE DANCERS.

NORM AND BARBARA HAVE 6 CHILDREN AND 7 GRANDCHILDREN. NORM WORKED FOR THE FREMONT UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT FOR 32+ YEARS AS A GREAT TEACHER AND EVEN BETTER COACH. NORM WAS DEFINITELY A "PEOPLE PERSON" AND EACH LIFE HE TOUCHED WAS A LITTLE RICHER JUST FROM THE EXPERIENCE OF HAVING KNOWN NORM. HE WAS ALWAYS THE FIRST ONE TO VOLUNTEER TO LEND A HELPING HAND WHETHER INVOLVED WITH SQUARE DANCING OR HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETICS. SOMEONE IN HEAVEN NOW HAS THE "BEST CORNER" EVER TO GRACE A SQUARE. NORM WILL TRULY BE MISSED!!

CLUB NEWS

DISTRICT I

FORTY NINERS of South San Francisco...Since our last chit-chat, several members and ex-members took the trip down to Asilomar for the weekend of fun dancing at the SETS IN ORDER. A great time was had by all. Then back to the club business at hand. Chaird by our northern group, the final touches were put on for our fortieth Anniversary dance. would you believe that we have a founding father still dancing with us? Gene George will be at the dance with bells on. We are all looking forward to a great time of dancing, food and comraderie.

PAIRS'N SPARES, San Bruno...Lady Luck smiled on only a chosen few of the 35 members who attended "A nite at the races" at Bay Meadows, but everyone had fun chearing on their nags - win or lose - to the finish line. The glamorous, redecorated Turf Club provided a comfortable setting for the buffet dinner and for viewing the races. The new board was introduced and the retiring board thanked at our installation dinner held at Nick's Rockaway Beach. George Anderson gave a humerous after-dinner toast to our out-going president, Marge Valdez. Afterwards tables were pushed back and HOWARD called for the remainder of the evening. It's good to have Sam & Marlin Hummel back after a too-long absence. And bon voyage to Marge & Lloyd Brownell who are off on a cruise around the Hawaiian Islands.

SQUARE CUTTERS...Our mini-hoedown in February was a tremendous success. Many thanks to all the members of; CAPER CUTTERS, CABLE CARS, TWO BY FOURS, PONY WHEELS, PAIRS'N SPARES, LEVIS & LACES, and the B'N'B'S of San Francisco for supporting us. It was nice to have, Helen Razura, District Director dancing with us. Welcome home to, Marian Olson, from a vacation to Florida. Our club caller, GEORGE KNOX, is still reviewing the new plus quarterly selections, and the new round of the month "Fiddlesteper Polka". Leave your cares behind you, and come join the fun with a plus level square dance club. Visitors are always welcome. Best wishes, and "Happy Easter" to all!

CAPER CUTTERS...Our installation dinner/dance was held at Elks Lodge...Welcome to our new officers for 1989. Pres., Herb Greenhood; U.P. Bill Meyer; Treas. Margie Brady; Secty. Barbara Samii; & Hostess Elsie Nulty. Thanks to all the officers for a job well done for 1988. it was a beautiful day when a bus load of our club headed for Cloverdale Citrus Fair...danced to DAVE HOBAUGH calling & JOHN RETTER-rounds. Afterwards, dined at Green Mill Restaurant. Everybody had a great time. What a good way to spend your weekend. David Costell's spent week in Mexico, Marino Locopi's visited Phoenix, AZ & George Vella's toured Australia. Vangie Kelly had misfortune of bruising her knee...we wish you a speedy recovery.

S.F. B'N'B'S...Our Reno bus trip was fun, in spite of threatening snow storm-had no trouble getting through. Our sympathy to family of Esther Cochrane, who passed away, so suddenly, she was a long-time friend. KEN KENMILLE called a great dance for our 26th Anniversary, lots of finger food and prizes. Went to Cloverdale, to hear DAVE HOBAUGH call, with JOHN RETTER on rounds, had a great time dancing and seeing the fair. enjoyed a delicious dinner at Green Mill after, we were with CAPER CUTTERS, was a beautiful day. will be going to WHIRL-A-WAYS 36th Anniversary with DICK WAIBEL calling, should be fun.

WHIRL-A-WAYS...Compliments on our 36th Anniversary hoedown. Our own RICHARD MANSFIELD mc, DICK WAIBEL-great calling and sharp cueing by JACK KERN. Delicious refreshments, many happy door-prize winners, and split-the-pot made John Forese and Gil Wayne two happy fellas. Hey--big congrats to Butch Carr on his retirement. Good to see Theresa Smith and Dorothy McKittrick recovering from their hospital visits, while we wish Helena Campbell and Eve Pericic a speedy recovery. KEN KENMILLE at his best for the B'N'B'S of SF 26th Anniversary hoedown--tasty treats and door prizes galore. Oops, someone should tell Elsie Nulty that "those boots are made for walking" and not falling! We extend to the family of Esther Cochrane, Publicity and long time member of the SF REBELS, condolences on her sudden death. Bouquets to our faithful guests and won't you join us on a Wednesday evening for some fun??

LEVIS & LACES...Ron & Joann Swanson, Jean Darrah and Rosalie Selby are working to create a much needed new club banner. Club members had contributed to purchase the materials by pinning money to the old banner. Thanks to all who contributed. The club was excited to have about 100 photographs taken by the San Francisco Examiner to be used in an article about Square Dancing in the state. We were disappointed as to the content and correctness of the published article, as I am sure many of you were. Many of us enjoyed attending MARSHALL FLIPPO's dance, and the District 10 Swedish dance. Thanks to all who supported our St.Patricks day hoedown. I'm sure a good time was had by all.

CABLE CAR SQUARES...are pleased to welcome it's newest members, Lena Nuccio and Frank Rodriquez, who have been our regular guests for some time and are now fully participating members. With our regular caller GEORGE KNOX being off-duty with us as he is on-duty with his regular assignment during March and April, we are fortunate in having MEL LITER calling for us up until May 3rd. thanks, MEL. Marie Poggio's Marvelous Maneuver in March was up to Tahoe. If you missed that one, drop by on a Wednesday evening at West Lake Park and find out about her next trip to Copper Canyon leaving April 24. Naturally, we always welcome visitors. Drop by.

DISTRICT II

RIPSNORTERS...March blew in with a gust of fellowship as we enjoyed one of our favorite activities - the potluck - on March 2. Our SHORTHORN class was invited to join us, and the good food and dancing was enjoyed by all. The class is coming along great under the able teaching of MIKE AMELL, and we look forward to welcoming the group into our club in a couple of months. The other big event in March was our Easter Bunny Hoedown on Easter Eve, when a large group of revelers danced the night away. Our club has had a long list of ailing members lately, among them Bob Wilson, Ben Levine, Lee Sloan, Bill Blendow, Jim Giesbrecht, Caarolyn Schick and Sharon & Lew Waldenburg. We wish them all a speedy recovery and a quick return to dancing.

CLUTCH BUSTERS...The car rally was a great success with 48 participants. The Class A division (one navigator) was won by Tom & Flo Roberts. The Class B (multiple navigators) was won by the Erwins & Healys. Eleven club couples attended the ANTIOCH AMBLERS hoedown. They were: Brees, Healy, Giolitti, Owens, Turgeons, Lollich, Erwin, perry, Jones, Greovich & Brys. Gills & Sewells joined the group for an after party at Brys'. The retirement hoedown in honor of ELMER & BLANCHE RADCLIFFE was a lively and fun celebration. The Y.U.H.S. multi-use room was filled with dancers, 27 from our club, and callers. An after party was hosted by our president couple, Ken & Peggy Wygal. The food and fellowship was wonderful - buzzing with plans for our May Abalone trip. We hope you all come to our plus hoedown April 15 at Y.U.H.S. LARRY WARD caller and rounds by the CARPENTARS.

DANVILLE SQUARE WHEELERS...are happy to report that the newer dancers Sweetheart Swing hoedown on February 17th was a great success. Everyone had a good time dancing to DREW ANDERSON and many continued dancing and having a good time at our after party. Thank you to all that attended our dance and made it so successful. Our next hoedown will be on June 3rd with JOE SALTEL calling. So mark your calendar with that date as it will be another great hoedown. We have some of our dancers that are planning to attend SILVER STATE at the Reno-Sparks Convention Center on April 28-29-30. Now that has always been an extra fun trip! We are also planning our GOLDEN STATE weekend at the Oakland Convention Center. It looks like we will have a hospitality room again this year. We want to congratulate Jay & Debbie Williams on their new little girl born February 10 at 4pm. Danielle Joy weighed in at 7lb 10oz and was 19 1/2 inches long. Not to be out done, Bob & Margaret Elliott have a new grandson and if you have not seen them lately it is because they have been in southern California spoiling the new baby already.

DIABLO SINGLES...It's good to have IMP"stigators", Bob Noyes and Lin Tomy on the board. Lin is supplying good homemade, professionally decorated cakes for our birthday celebration. Caller, BERT SWERER has been recovering from an appedicitis attack. the good news is that he can wear the bull slippers we gave him. What were their names, BERT? MIKE AMELL has been keeping us dancing. Thanks MIKE! Our latest mystery trip was an after dinner coach trip to Roseville to the MAVERICKS hoedown. Thanks to Mike Bath - who else would take us to another singles club and arranged dancing bus driver? Our annual snow trip will be a fun filled winterfest weekend in Tahoe City. Will be skiing, frolicing in the snow, relaxing as well as browsing. Maggie is arranging it all.

GUYS & DOLLS...Thanks to all the men who brought the "home-baked" goodies to our Valentine dance and to all the anonymous donors of their white elephants --informed sources have leaked that some may return for yet another sale. Buyer beware! Fabulous time had by all attending our retirement hoedown for ELMER & BLANCHE RADCLIFFE; many thanks to all those terrific callers who volunteered their time. We are so sad to know we are losing Ken & Teddy Rickey who are moving to Oregon. Come and visit us when you can; you will be sorely missed. Looking forward to Spring and our April 21 newer dancer hoedown. Come join our newer dancer class. They are all really good dancers. Good to see Joyce Lewis up and around again!

DISTRICT III

SUNDANCE SQUARES of Albany...Well, did you see the ad we placed in this magazine? It was really crazy; Norma created it to attract some special people to our group. So "tell it to the mountain"...Notice we are doing Plus APD along with our A-1 workshop. This is to perfect our dancing and to stimulate our minds. We can all use that. We have an expert teacher too which helps, RON HAGGERTY. This all makes us perk better. Speaking of perking, isn't Mario's coffee great? Have you felt all that love energy in your cup, if not, try some. No telling what it might do to you. We have missed our

Louis Watanabe while he has gone East on a business trip. We missed our beautiful Debbie O'Brien too while she was sick in bed with the flu for two weeks. She is back sparkling as usual. Mary Latimer is back too after many weeks so now we once again smell that aroma of popcorn popping in the kitchen. We love Mary. See you dancing, remember party night.1n1

CATCH ALL B'S...We've had a very busy month - even with the absence of our caller, BERT SWERER. BERT had emergency appendectomy surgery, and is now on the road to recovery. Hope to have him back to call for our annual St.Pat's dance on March 12th. During his absence we've had DICK HENSCHER and BEN GOLDBERG filling in for him. A special thank you to both callers - we've had a good time, plus we've been learning new calls. They've been doing an excellent job. We've chosen our club outfits and we're looking forward to wearing them to SILVER STATE and GOLDEN STATE Conventions. Happy dancing - hope to see you at our hoedown.

SUNDOWNERS..."Catch our Early Bird special"! Our school custodian has changed our closing time so all hands must be out by 10pm. However, he is now opening the school for us so we can start our rounds at 6:45 and VIRGINIA & BILL CARPENTIER have graciously moved up their dinner hour accordingly. Square dancing will now start at 7:45 and ED TAUSIG has moved up his dinner hour also so he can be all set-up at this time. Dancing will end at 9:45 when we are probably all too tired to dance anymore anyhow. Our round dance group is growing and VIRGINIA & BILL have been teaching new dances: Green Doors, I'll be the one, and Fiddlesteppers polka. Not to be outdone, ED TAUSIG has been teaching each week A-1calls to go with his Plus square dance calls. We are one of the fortunate groups that feature rounds and square dancing.

BUZZIN COUSINS...Well folks, it's that time again for Cupid and we celebrated with a Valentine Day party with lots of good food, fun, and most of all great dancing to ROGER LONEY. One of our club members, John Reader has been going to CALLERLAB so we enjoyed the fruits of his efforts. We wish him a lot of luck at being a caller, also we were treated to some calling by JERRY REED who dropped by to announce the starting of a new club in Fremont. See you all next month.

DISTRICT IV

OLD CAPITOL SQUARES...Don't believe a thing I told you in March's magazine as to where we were going to be dancing. there has been another change in plans and we will be still dancing at the Clock Tower until further notice. We had our Mystery Trip on March 4 and our election of new officers on March 7. On St.Patrick's Day, March 17th we had our newer dancers hoedown at the Clock Tower. On April 4th we will be having our Installation dinner (and Boy! am I looking forward to that). It means that this is my last submittal for the magazine and someone else will be taking over. On April 22nd we are planning a camp out at Lake of the Springs and of course we are all making plans for SILVER STATE. Sure hope the weather cooperates for both events. I guess that's all for now except to say Good Bye and I have enjoyed the challenge of this past year.

GRAND SQUARES... Warm wishes to Bob & Lela Johnson, 48 years of wedded bliss. Doug & Alice Robinson celebrated their first Anniversary. Paula Connors is working on her thesis and is busy, busy. Carolyn Walton is giving us the benefit of her callers lessons by calling a couple tips each Thursday workshop. Recent visitors have been Jim & Faye Morrell, Vacaville and Pat Johnson of Reno. Which reminds me; anyone wishing to join us Thursday nights can meet us at Amy Blanc School in Fairfield or the next few weeks with DICK ARMSTRONG as caller. See you next month.

DISTRICT U

MARKWESTERNERS... The March 4th Spring Fling hoedown with DALE HOUCK calling and JOHN RETTER cueing rounds was a very pleasant evening of dancing, thanks to all who attended. Our caller, BOB ELLING, knows how to push buttons when he calls the senior club men "son". Have you tried his innovative workshops lately? Grace & Jerry Lemontt and Jean & John King are snowbirding in Arizona. this column was written in the land where each year the desert bursts into bloom with exotic cacti, sharing the landscape with roadrunners, snakes, big lizards and scorpions and is, incidentally, the square dance capitol of the world. There is truly something for everyone in Mesa - square or round dancing, all levels, seven days a week with top notch callers and cuers. Mark your calendars for our annual Rose Festival on May 20. DICK HOULTON calling, LARRY SEGALL cueing rounds.

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES... On February 10th, the one and only ROGER LONEY our own club caller, shared the mike with JOHN RETTER for a Valentine hoedown. The combination was a sure-fire winner for us and our guests. Congratulations to our pres. Oscar and wife Marge on becoming great grandparents and grandparents again. Leaving for warmer weather are the Hanks' and Paines are trailering to Arizona. The Azevedos to Mexico. Dick & Thelma Lloyd are of on a cruise. Come join us for our Anniversary hoedown to enjoy MIKE DEGMETICH and LARRY WILLIAMS.

SEBASTOPOL SAUCY SQUARES... new officers have met to start 1989 and are planning a great year. We know the members will stand behind them. Recently Louise & Marvin Burke travelled many miles in their motor home - Arizona, Nevada, California - and enjoyed every mile of the way. Our February 25th Sadie Hawkins hoedown had fun dances - great refreshments and door prizes. STEVE MINKIN calling with some of his mixers to an enthusiastic crowd. We look forward to seeing you visit "our place" in Sebastopol either Tuesdays or Thursdays. Come on by!

DISTRICT VI

CHECKMATES...Our beginners class is off to a good start and beginning to dance up a storm. Bob & Evelyn Bruce will be enjoying a trip to South America during the month of April. Lee & Una Colyer will be celebrating their 50th Anniversary in April taking an eight day trip with the SIRS group to Florida including Epcot Center, Disney World and Kennedy Space Center. Happy dancing everyone.

SAN LORENZO SINGLES...Thanks to all the visitors we've been having a good turnout on Tuesday club nights. The beginners hoedown was great and it's nice to see so many happy and enthusiastic dancers. JOEL did a great job. The progressive dinner had much delicious food, with appetizers at Carmen Avelars home, soup & salad at Kay Ervens home, main course at Betty Turners and dessert at Duane & Georgina Beyers home. I'm sure everyone gained at least 5 pounds, but it was worth it. Don't forget the State Convention on April 14, in San Jose.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS...Besides everyone having a good time at our beginners hoedown our president Tom Kolano won the 50-50 drawing. During the evening Phil Garbutt approached Tom with the idea of trading 50-50 tickets. Tom wasn't so sure, but agreed to trade one ticket with Phil. Tom didn't think it would look good for the club president to win the prize if his number was drawn, so he gave his ticket to Yvonne Miller so she could accept the prize. You can guess what happened. Tom won the 50-50 pot with the traded ticket. Everyone involved was a winner. Tom had the money, Phil had a good story to tell, Yvonne got cheers from the crowd as she accepted the money. The only loser was Paul Miller, everyone expected him to buy coffee and pie after the hoedown.

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS...Our favorite Valentine, Mr. MARSHALL FLIPPO, again brightened our horizons (for the 13th time) and was as enchanting as ever. The man has not changed one iota over the years, right down to the twinkle in his eye and the lilt in his voice. The after party at the Bonora's was as usual, a booming success with over 60 people in attendance. Jerry even got out of a sick bed to play the wonderful host. The following weekend we ventured up to Plymouth to torment the peaceful little town and had the additional pleasure of sharing the weekend with the TWILIGHT SHUFFLERS, a great bunch from Sacramento. The only negative note for the weekend was that some unscrupulous individuals tp'd the quit abod of the most reserved and innocent member of our group, Larry Leavitt(king of TP). Gracious as always, however, there was not so much as a shread of vindictiveness in his behaviour. We could all learn a lot from this young man(like how to do a good job with the TP). Our treasurers, George and Mildred are off on another fabulous trip, "The Great Citys of Asia". Guess we made lots of money on our hoedown.

DISTRICT VII

KUNTRY KUZINS...lost a good friend in February. Norman M. Stelle fought cancer for two years before we lost him. A big Italian bear of a man, Norm liked to hug everybody, was a tireless worker and a constant volunteer. A teacher and administrator for 32 years at Washington High School, Fremont, when he retired last June he had been teaching more than half his life. An ex-Marine and a contemporary of former San Francisco 49er head coach Bill Walsh, Norm coached football, baseball, track and basketball and was athletic director at Washington for twenty years. He and his wife, Barbara, had been in our club for fifteen years and were Club presidents more than once and a very popular couple. They successfully raised six children and were grandparents of seven. A hell of a nice guy and a first-class human being, we miss him sorely.

FARMERS & FARMERETTES...Hello Everybody! Change of board members. Many thanks to the retiring officers, both for their excellent job, and the voluntary hours spent in the service of the club. A really great snow trip at Lake Tahoe. Thanks to Joe & Georgene Belgarde, not to mention the additional Fun provided by Dean & Sally Center who supplied snowmobiles. Unfortunately, I missed it, can't wait until next year! We are all looking forward to Sweetheart bowling on Saturday. Our beginners class is coming along nicely, with a few less confused looking faces. We look forward to them joining the club in the not too distant future. Spring is in the air. Come to our Spring Fling hoedown. See ad in this issue. JOEL is already working on some new chicken jokes! All for now folks! See you on the square.

PLEASANTON SINGLES...Hope you didn't miss our first anniversary dance in February. We really did have a great time. Thanks to all who came and double thanks to JET ROBERTS and his guest ART HINTON for making it a "special 1st" for us. My apologies to Bev Lovett for leaving her name out of the "Calleroettes" line-up last month. Sorry! We are now dancing every Tuesday night in the Camp Parks Pavilion and it is great. Thanks to all those who worked to get the building ready for us dancers. We have lots of room for class, club and visitors. If you were a visitor on party night in Feb.(3rd Tues.), you probably thought we were a little behind the times but our 50's dance party was a lot of fun. Thanks KEN for those oldies but goodies to dance to.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS...We are happy to welcome back three couples that have been on leave of absence, the Rick Martins, Bruce Beares, and Ray Voegeles. We enjoyed seeing Frank & Maggie Perkins back visiting our club. They moved to Idaho about a year ago. They joined up with the Frys, Lewis, and Vanderostynes to do some traveling in their RVs. The group headed south towards Palm Springs and planned to go to Arizona. Our beginners put on a grand hoedown March 10 with just a little help from the club. Now all are ready for April Foolery Plus hoedown on April Fools Day at Walters. Good to see our dancers back in full strength after the big '89 flu season. Most of us, it seemed, took our turn even our caller. Enjoyed BEN GOLDBERG substituting for JIM. We welcomed his wife and new son as well.

SQUARE CIRCLES...Our red light green light fund raising hoedown on February 17 was a big success. Many thanks to JOEL KADISH & TERRY MOSIER for generously giving their time to call the dance for us, and our appreciation to all who attended and for your donations. The proceeds from this hoedown will be used to install a heating system in our new building, the SQUARE CIRCLES Pavilion. Our building renovation is progressing well. Work crews are hard at work nearly every weekend. If you haven't seen our Pavilion, come join us for an evening of dancing. We have some new members, welcome Pat & Lock Scott.

DISTRICT VIII

NOVATO STUMP JUMPERS...It is so good to have Joe Killian, Ben Valdes and Andy Rayburn back at workshop again after being out ill. Our prayers are with Charles & Ruth Van Winkle as Ruth is in the hospital. Russ Zitella has just had cataract surgery...Helens' Folk Designs put on an excellent fashion show of square dance clothes at a recent workshop. thanks to all the models - Sharlene Moss, Karla Garrity, Vera Russell, Marian Herrera. Right now all the club members are busy being fitted for new club outfits, looking forward to wearing them for the first time at the SILVER STATE Dance Festival...good to have Pat & Tony Segura down from Nevada for a few days...A group of dancers will be going to Ft.Bragg this month when DAVE MILANO, our caller, calls a hoedown there.

NOVATO SQUAWS AND PAWS...are enjoying the Spring season and looking forward to our April Fool's hoedown on April 1st. Since it is too soon to say, we hope it will be a grand success and that we will see many of you there. Many of our club members traveled South during the month of March to attend "Bolado Blast" in Hollister, and from all reports it was a great weekend. JERRY STOREY, from Texas and our own KIP GARVEY provided some very exciting and challenging advanced dancing. The "Old Barn" atmosphere with it's wonderful wood floor made the whole weekend perfect. It's sure to be a repeat for many years. On March 8 we all enjoyed a festive and delicious potluck dinner at our Wednesday night workshop. The general elections were held and we voted in our new board members for 1989. We welcome Dick Meier and Roger Rapport as Co-presidents; Helen Cunningham-Secretary; Jean Clements-Treasurer; Dan Clements and Donna Rapport-Co-publicity; Jack Cunningham and Tony Kjellgren-NCSDA Delegates; and Jack Shapiro-Sheriff. It should be another great year for the club under this fine leadership. We thank all board members past and forthcoming for their dedication to the advancement and preservation of the club. (Only two of the aforementioned sustained serious injuries from the cast iron skillit persuasion of the nominating committee. they are in guarded condition but are expected to survive and "Carry On") We hope everyone had a very Happy Easter and wish for all of us great dancing and lots of April Showers.

IAM TWIRLERS of Marin...Hope you all had a Happy Easter and are enjoying the start of Spring. It looks like there will be a lot of fun hoedowns coming up, and since we won't have another until June, we can enjoy them all. Our beginners are moving along toward full Plus and graduation with "the greatest of ease" and we're all very proud of them. Since "Spring has Sprung"...we welcome home many of our winter travellers and hopefully Tom & Irene Irvine. Irene has been re-cuperating from surgery for some time and except for "doing his duty at club" Tom has been nursing her back to health. We have missed dancing with them both and look forward to doing so again soon. This is also true for Jane Jett and her husband, Lowell. Pretty special guys, these square dance husbands. It sure will be wonderful to have everyone "up and at it" again. Unfortunately, our vice president, Herm Johnson and his lovely wife, Barbara will be moving temporarily to Rohnert Park. We're trying to convince them that it's really only a 15 minute drive down 'cause we sure will miss them. (Oh well, maybe they have some "Ocean front property in Arizona", too). We can only hope. Some of the club members travelled to South SF to dance with MARSHALL FLIPPO recently. They had a great time and tell us he's a terrific caller and lots of fun. Since he only comes to the Bay Area once a year...I guess it will be same time..same place..next year. the club is going to relax for a month now and then start getting ready for our Anniversary hoedown in June. It's always a fun evening and we'll give you more info next month. Enjoy the Spring and "Happy Dancing" to all!

DISTRICT X

CLODHOOPPERS...A trace of snow added a novel touch to their Asilomar weekend for Harry & Dorothy Waters, Don & Greta Robertson, Shelly & Barbara Baum, Dee & Verna Owens and Bruce & Audrey Snider but it didn't interfere with the fun of dancing, hiking, eating and visiting with dancers from many parts of the country. Even a couple of after-parties! On the downside, however, Audrey took a spill the day after she returned home and broke her foot. She has been sidelined until the doctor gives the OK for her to return to dancing. Hopefully, by the time this is in print she'll be fit as ever...February 17-19 five club couples, all members of the "Tea Times" RV club, rendezvoused at Plymouth. Enjoying the outing were Ernie & Lucy Roeder, Warren & Jennie Benner, Don & Geneva Huber, Dee & Verna Owens and Don & Greta Robertson. They were joined by Lee Ralston who was trying out his first rig. Lee has resumed dancing with the club, much to everyone's delight. Some of the RVers are already making plans to attend SILVER STATE in Reno in April. Bob & Alice Skinner, squareheads for the club Anniversary hoedown on March 4, wisely decided that 42 candles on the cake would constitute a fire hazard so they settled for a banner announcing the advanced age of the club. DAVE HOBAUGH did his usual fine work calling and LARRY SEGALL handled the rounds with style. It was a good party. thanks to all the dancers who joined us for the evening.

HIGHLAND SWINGERS...With Super Bowl and most of the flu season behind us, we are fortunate to have most of our members joining in for our busy Thursday workshop/club night. BOB ALGEA has been showing us all the new selections and reviewing the ones we need the most. We have had a welcome share of visitors lately and we enjoy each and every one. Variety is the great spice. Several L.O.A.'s are in process and we will miss them all until they return. Sandy & Merle Warren will be on a educational sebatical; the Lombardi's have an overload of dance nights; Ted Rossiter and Jim Williams have excess work assignments and will be absent a short span. On occasion other priorities have to interfere with all our fun. Dell Bolton and Carl Ruetz's have slight appearance changes since January. That strong urge to shave may have altered those changes by "press time" however. Not bad guys! makes us feel we have Gable and Hemmingway in our presence. How about that all male dance square we experienced recently. We hand out alcolades for such a job well done. These men are such great sports. Our June hoedown is taking form nicely. We look forward to seeing all our good friends again, and making new ones too. See you at Cubberly on June 17.

LONGHORNS... BOB SOUTHERN has a new shirt! We keep waiting to see it. We think it has stripes, but he has never worn it for us to see. Bill Housand says he never has any news, but we think differently. Bill has excellent writing skills. Three times now he has taken up his pen, put his tongue firmly in his cheek and produced some mighty good articles for Yellow Rock News. Hal & Fran Eckes will be driving to the Florida Keys in April. Make at least one stop before you get all the way to Florida, Hal. If Gail Lynch's smile is twice as wide as that of most grandmothers, we are here to tell you that she is entitled to smile big! Gail is the proud grandmother of twins, born December 15, in Jacksonville, Florida. Video cassettes are available showing how cute Lauren and Adam really are. Not to be outdone by his dancing partner, Ray Huffman has 15 new lambs on his ranch. Vera & Harold Dowdy had the unique experience of playing hosts to one of four Soviet citizens who recently visited Redwood City. The Dowdy's guest lives in Cherkassy, Ukraine.

ROADRUNNERS, San Mateo...The best way to count our club members...have a potluck...and that's what we did. Our beginners class stayed for the entire evening after all the goodies had been munched. RICHARD MANSFIELD is doing an excellent job. Visitors are coming and joining. We are pleased to welcome Peter & Pat DeLemos and Jerry Cox and John Tiano. We thought Bob Van Huystee had won the lottery when he and Joyce announced a surprise, but instead it was pleasant news of a grandchild to be. A few years from now they will be taking a family group/reunion cruise like Eleanor Shaner. Eleanor should have talked to Jo & Bill Conry before booking...same cruise through the Panama Canal just two weeks apart. The club would like to see you at one of the great activities scheduled in April including the State Convention or King City. If not, drop by and see us at Beresford Rec Center some Tuesday night.

TWO BY FOURS, Burlingame...hosted MARSHALL FLIPPO hoedown on Valentines day. Twenty squares danced the night away. Colorful red & white dresses and shirts were a wonderful sight. Decorations were provided by Shirley & Roy and refreshments by the committee. We have established a successful beginners class which began in January and continued open enrollment until February. We have plenty of angels to help "pull them through" and careful tutoring by MEL LITER. A fashion show planned for March will demonstrate to newer dancers and guests our finest togs. A commentator will give advice on simple styles and materials for dresses and shirts. A sale of used attire will follow.

RANCHEROS, Redwood City... "Getting to Know You" from the club to the class- the class to the club "Don't worry Be Happy" we will soon know how to Load the Boat!! (caller BEN GOLDBERG's favorite call). Charlie & Denna Drews are about to go south! Denna to a convention in San Diego and Charlie to help win a ball game in Tempe Arizona. Good luck to both of you! Gus & Pauline Mass had a fling in Reno, celebrating Gus's birthday. Pauline said the train trip there was beautiful, she even brought home some money. We really enjoyed having Richard, Jennene and Linsey walker visit with us. Great clogg, clogging Richard! We really enjoy having Don Lopez dancing with us again also Herman Kramer. Welcome back guys. One of our class members, Martin Morss, is looking forward to a trip to Costa Rico, it's a beautiful country. Dee Schweitz tells me she leads a very dull life - any guy out there want to prove her wrong? She loves the Tea Cup Chain - Happy birthday to LAURIE GOLDBERG and Sheriff Carl Hensley!! Happy Anniversary to Dean & Maxine Snow!!

BEACH NUTS...We would like to thank all the folks who supported our newer dancers hoedown. HOWARD HILLYER did a great job of calling and fun was had by all. A big thank you to Sue & Bob Deranzo for doing the decorations and for heading up the committees. It was good to see Terry & Annette again, they came down from Cameron Park just so they could join us for the hoedown. Our newer dancers who helped out were: Bob & Sue, Doug & Dee Ann, Mel & Beverly, Bret & Paula, Paul & Chris, Marianne (John was out of town) and Marsha, and also it was good to see Magno again. We're looking forward to the NCSDA Golden Doors dance on March 23. Thanks again to the WHIRL-A-WAYS for providing us with a fun night of dancing. Attending from the club were: the Browns, Erbachers, McVeighs, Remmerts, Fields and Murphys.

BACHELORS 'N' BACHELORETTEES, San Mateo Chapter... A big congratulations to the slate of new officers elected in February. President Marvin Smith, Vice-president Rosemary Gerboni, Treasurer Paul Barker, and Secretary Cathy Collins. Among the gang having fun and telling jokes at the Valentine potluck at Ingrid & Frank Mullens were Elsie Barnes, Paul Barker and Mary Anagnostou. We thank the Mullens for their welcome and hospitality. Eleven club members were squaring up at the 26th Anniversary dance given by the SF Chapter of the B'N'B'S. We're all looking forward to seeing you at the State Convention in San Jose in April. In spite of the flu and cold season we've had a fair turnout Monday nites at the Shoreview Rec Center. Come on over in San Mateo and visit.

NON NCSDA CLUBS

COASTSIDE SQUARE

DANCERS...Upcoming events include a garage sale. We will also participate in the HMB Heritage Fair and 4th of July Parade. We are a small but enthusiastic and friendly group, and welcome guests to join us on Wednesdays. Our caller is JERRY REED who also calls for the KALICO KATS. Our beginners are doing very well. We will miss Chuck & Laurel Chapman who are moving to Arizona the end of March.

BELLES AND BEAUS...had a little party the Thursday after Valentines day, with sweets and treats, and an extra measure of lovey-dovey singing calls. Jean Elliott brought a box of her delicious homemade candy. (The coconut ones are so good I've never got around to trying the others.) It's been nice having Wayne & Norma Brauer dancing with us lately. They're nice folks and good, smooth dancers.

KALICO KATS...Hard to believe genial, talented, caller JERRY REED has been with us a year. We enjoy his calling and teaching and hope to celebrate many more anniversaries with him. By the way, his new "slim look" is very becoming but don't blame his weight loss on us, we don't work him that hard. Pat & Lyle Church welcomed their eleventh grandchild. Seems the little doll has already captured Grandpa's heart. ART WILSON, visiting caller from Florida favored us with his lively, inovative calling recently. SQUARE CUTTER made us feel welcome at their hoedown and GEORGE KNOX's calling was a real pleasure.

JERRY REED has started a new club on Tuesday nights at the Niles Veterans Hall starting February 21. Our first night was successful with some good fun and good calling by JERRY REED, so don't miss the boat, load the boat. see you all next month.

ROUND-UP CORNER OAKLAND CONVENTION CENTER MAY 26, 27, & 28, 1989

The round dance team, IRV & BETTY EASTERDAY are familiar to most of the round dancers in the area as they have been here before and always give a great performance. They have been square and round dancing for twenty seven years, travel extensively on staff of festivals and conventions and are members of ROUNDALAB and continue to update their skill by taking private lessons. They currently are round dance instructors for four groups in Maryland/DC area in phases IV through VI. The EASTERDAYS are charter members of ROUNDALAB and URDC. IRV was the 1988 chairman for ROUNDALAB and chaired the annual meeting prior to the National Convention at Anaheim. IRV

& BETTY are both retired teachers, have two grown children and one grandchild. They still feel education is a powerful tool and use their talents in the Round Dance field training new instructors and leaders. Among the dances they have choreographed are Stepping Easy, Java, Memory, Put A Light In The Window. El Coco and Sugarfoot Stomp were theirs and are now in the URDC Hall of Fame.

The Round Dance program will be somewhat different this year so be sure to CHECK YOUR PROGRAM. To avoid dancing on carpet the Round Dance program will be in the main halls but the times will be clearly marked for you.

CALLERS NOTES

The second Association meeting was another big success. All the callers present joined together to make up the "pink sheet" (review calls for association clubs). JOEL KADISH gave a training session, that was a rousing success. All in all it seemed to be a worth while meeting. We missed BERT SWERER, who is still recuperating from his emergency appendectomy. RHONDA was there with the records, so all the callers got to buy some new singing calls to perk up their clubs. The next meeting will be April 9, didn't think many callers would like to attend on Easter.
