CLUB NEWS

DISTRICT I

CAPER CUTTERS...Our Hawaiian party was super...MIKE LUNA & VICKI WOODS calling, substituting for KEITH GYLFE, who went to Oregon. Many beautiful costumes...Nina Ivanoff won a prize for best outfit for the occasion. Forty-five club members had a great time dancing at CABLE CARS hoedown...DICK HOULTON calling & JOHN RETTER-rounds...delicious food...plenty of prizes...Adele Neri won $50 door prize. Congrats!!
Vacation update: the Dukeminiers-N.Y.&Wash.D.C., Costellos-Lake Tahoe, Iacopis, Lake Almanor, Mooneys-Ranch in Napa, Lena Muccio-Yakima,Wash., & Ruby Woodson-reno. Visitors: Hans Neillsen-Sweden, Gil & Kathy Regg & Pearl Kline-local. Welcomed new member, Nina Ivanoff. Speedy recovery to Elsie Nulty. thanks to GEORGE KNOX for calling Fifth Monday.

PAIRS 'N SPARES...The lazy days of summer will continue into Fall, winter, spring, etc. for Gabe Persau who just retired and was feted by friends at a dinner and pictionary party. Congrats to Fran & Gene wheeler (he seems to have sewn up first place in all pursuits) on winning the bowling sweeps on Monday's mixed doubles at Kings Bowl. al Calloni is on the mend after arthrascopic surgery on his knee. His recovery was very swift due to his singleminded desire to get back on the golf course. As reported last month, Paul Oliver was in Alaska on a fishing expedition. He returned with two big salmon (all you're allowed to bring back) and a goodly amount of smoked salmon. He also arrived home with a body covered with mosquito bites. for those of you who don't know, the mosquito is the national bird of alaska. Our first lady, Ethel Altman is back on the dance floor after months of being sidelined with ankle problems. Welcome back, Ethel. See you all at our August 26th Hawaiian Hoedown.

LEVIS AND LACES...Our members are greatful for the beautiful summer weather we've enjoyed this year, as I'm sure you all are. Vacations have taken a toll on attendance, but we've enjoyed quite a few visitors. Many of us will join ron & Joann Swanson for a housewarming party on Aug.6th. I'm sure the food and fun will be outstanding. We will be losing a sweet and valuable club member this month, as Virginia Piombo will be married and move away from the area. Her new "Husband to be" is Michael James Cowie. We wish them much happiness. Hope James appreciates what a lucky man he is. Congratulations to you both.

WHIRL-A-WAYS, South San Francisco...Vacations have just taken people right and left from us, but with the loyal support of our A-1 class we have fortunately been dancing five squares. The Spaghetti dinner chaired by Teresa Smith and assisted by Elsie Nulty, Dorothy McKittrick and Cathy Jones and many other busy hands was a "bono" event. Our A-1 class participated and good time prevailed for all. Our thoughts and well wishes are still there for Eve and all miss seeing John Perricic as well as Eve across the square. Hear the National was a fine time for all with both negative and positive remarks from those that attended. Shirley Korm and family off to the annual family reunion in San Luis Obispo. Nadine gille and daughter off to the Napa Fair. Oops, Al DeLorenzi off to the same family reunion as Shirley Korm. Al also had time to take Grandson Thomas to Disneyland. Our silent auction was a happy and successful event--your junk is someone else's treasure. Keep smiling and we can help you do that by visiting us on Wednesday evening. all wished RICHARD MANSFIELD a Happy Birthday with a cake in the form of his Social Security Card baked by the Nulty family.

CABLE CAR SQUARES...Whew! With the traditional anniversary hoedown behind us (thanks again for your fine support), and the traditional annual picnic held on the towering heights of the Crows Nest in Serra Park just last month, the club is settling into the Autumn with just about everyone back from their vacation travels and enjoying the calling and rounding of caller GEORGE KNOX in his continuing campaign to sharpen our dancing skills. Drop by on a Wednesday eve--you could see for yourself!

FORTY NINERS of Daly City...Here we are at the height of the summer season. Members are beginning to trickle back from vacation ready to dance. Some members are still on the move. the Ashcrafts are off to Alaska, the Hanlys are off to Australia (after a stop over in Ohio), and the Houcks are off to visit our neighbor states to the north. the Wallaces will be leaving for Oregon. Unfortunately for us, they will not return. Alan will retire at the end of the month and they leave the next day. We will be sad to see them go, but wish them well in their new home. For the rest of us, we are settling down in our new home, the Franciscan Mobil Home Club House. We are enjoying it more each workshop. We certainly do thank the Repps for getting it for us. We would like to extend a warm welcome to the CIRCULATORS who are dancing with us each week. We hope they are having as much fun with us as we are having with them. Happy Dancing.

SQUARE CUTTERS...Vacation season is just about ending, and those returning Elsie & Charles Luchessa, enjoyed Palm Springs, and Monterey Peninsula: Ann & rich Piombo enjoyed the 38th National Square Dance Convention in Oklahoma City: Irma & Dick Cloonan are enjoying Florida: and Marion Olson just returned from a delightful trip to Spain...September 21st we will be returning to the Lakeshore School, for the balance of the year. See you all there...The coming event for September 28th will be election of officers for the new year...Our caller, GEORGE KNOX, is reviewing the Plus figures, and some APD dancing...It was so nice to have Thula Carr visit the club, after her eye surgery. Soon to be back dancing again. Come join the fun of dancing Plus level. Visitors are always welcome...Don't forget Grandparents Day, September 10th...

DISTRICT II

CONCORD STOMPERS...How do you combine an ice cream social and a hoedown? that's the problem that Jim & Virginia Martin are working on. whatever they come up with will be good. The big event happens on September 9...The Mainstream class had it's graduation on July 27. the class will continue to meet every Thursday, with instruction at the Plus level. Club caller GARY KENDALL is the instructor. don't forget that the class location changes to Oak Park Center on September 7...what club president shared his birthday cake with the club? Alden Howell, naturally. Happy birthday to Alden, who gets younger all the time.

RIPSNORTERS...It has been a great summer, including two "mini-hoedowns" with the CONCORD STOMPERS, the NCSDA Stampede called by our own ERIC KENERLAU, and the club picnic at "Ardenwood Historic Farm". We played croquet and rolled hoops, went on wagon rides and hoed weeds, and a few of us learned to shoe horses. The funniest event however, was the "petticoat shuffle" as the ladies hurriedly changed from their jeans to the fluff to get ready for the two sets of exhibition squares, called by ERIC, of course.

CLUTCH BUSTERS...had cake and punch to celebrate our caller, RICHARD MANSFIELD, retirement from the world of work and into full time calling - congratulations RICHARD!! Vice president couple Jack & Carol Giolitti, are busy finalizing the 33rd anniversary dinner-dance to be held at Zio Fredos on Saturday, September 9th. The D.J. from Strawberry Fields Dance Company will provide music from the 50's & 60's. Our august board meeting was held at the "Chrisdorf" new home. We will be meeting at Bob & Terry Healys in September under the leadership of our new president couple, Ken & Peggy Wygal and cooperation of our caller, RICHARD, changes are taking place for more intensive workshops. The club decided to sponsor a Brush-Up course starting the second thursday in September with the goal of all members dancing Plus level by January. do you or someone you know need a brush-up course? Come dance with us!!

GUYS & DOLLS...July, the month for vacationing, activities have been greatly curtailed.

While our caller MIKE WRIGHT was on vacation, ERIC HENERLAU put us through some exciting and challenging calls. Our Wednesday night workshop at the Senior Citizen Center, in Pleasant Hill, is in full swing. Come join us and brush up on all the Plus calls. We are looking forward to our Saturday night hoedown on October 7th, with KELLY MIZUNO calling. JERRY WILLIAMS will be cueing rounds. In September we will return to Valley View school. Beginners class starting on the 27th, with open house on the 13th & 20th. see ads this issue.

DIABLO SINGLES... We would like to thank ROGER LONEY for calling and CARL FAULSTICH for cueing rounds at our July hoedown. It was a great success with over 25 squares. Thanks to all that came and supported our dance. thanks to BERT for calling an exhibition for us. Our ice cream social was great with lots and lots of ice cream. Our club has planned a trip to Skandia. We'll have to see who the big scorer is although in miniture golf isn't it the lowest score that wins? Our club is also getting ready for the Walnut Festival, where we will have a booth. We are trying to get a raft trip going, which is scheduled for the end of August. Our club is starting our beginners classes this month. Please see our ad for details.

ANTIIOCK AMBLERS... July has been an active, fun-filled month for our club. Two of our regular workshops have been "casual" dress nights. July 11 was "crazy tennis shoes" night and July 18 was "Hawaiian Dress" night. the week end of July 15th was our annual Cache Creek camp out and river rafting trip. A total of 21 rafts participated, with only one broken ankle! Cindy Galey is sporting a bright blue cast on her leg. a barbeque-pot luck following the raft trip served over 60 people. On sunday July 30, two squares performed a demonstration dance under the direction of our caller, ROGER LONEY at the Contra Costa Fair. We are already looking forward to our beginners classes, which will be September 26, October 3 & 10. We are making plans to welcome a large group of new dancers this year.

CONCORD REBELS... The "livin' was easy" this summer. We enjoyed dancing both at our home workshops and as guests of other clubs at their hoedowns. Thanks to all of you for the hospitality and fellowship. We are looking forward to introducing some of our Contra Costa neighbors to the fun of square dancing. Lessons will start for beginners on tuesday September 19. MIKE AMELL is our caller and teacher. MIKE has a great sense of humor and is patience personified. these traits translate into a comfortable atmosphere in which to learn. Please keep Saturday, October 14th open for a hoedown sponsored by us and called by GARY KENDALL. This hoedown will be dedicated to RUTH FITCH who will be cueing rounds. RUTH began her hoedown cueing career with our club and we are honored that she has chosen to be with us for her last scheduled hoedown.

DANVILLE SQUARE WHEELERS... Make new friends, but keep the old; one is silver, the other is gold. Observing this adage, we will host a reunion dance September 7 at which past members will be invited to renew friendships and spend the evening dancing. The following week is the first night of 1989's beginner class with 3 free classes, Sept 14, 21 & 28. We sent off 5 couples, the Mays, Robersons, Gormans, Placchis & McEvoy's, to the Asilomar Conference grounds where CONTINENTAL SQUARES hosted 5 days of Plus dancing. The hardy McEvoy's stayed on for the weekends advanced dancing, joined by the Grays & Helgessons. In addition to the pleasure of dancing to the calls of WADE DRIVER, MIKE SIKORSKY, and BRONC WISE, there were pre-dinner parties at the rooms of the various couples. Club members are reserving camp sites and motel rooms for Paul Bunyan Days at Fort Bragg over the Labor Day weekend. Along with as much dancing as the feet will allow, our members are anticipating the opportunity for fishing, sunning or fogging(?), and dancing in the street and along the surf. There are two changes in the club officers listed in August's club news. Fred & Sandy Wray are now Secretaries. Wes & Carolyn Herseth are the Treasurers. Come dance with us.

MARTINEZ SWINGERS... Our Hawaiian hoedown was a lot of fun, even the weather cooperated by cooling down. JOEL KADISH did a great job calling as did CARL FAULSTICH cueing the rounds. A good time was had by all. JACKS'N'JENNEYS joined us to help celebrate VICKI HENSCHER'S birthday. It was like a mini hoedown. We all had a lot of fun. George & Jean Strang were visiting from Sonora and joined us for an evening of dancing. It was good to see them again. Elaine & Sandy Branchcomb celebrated their anniversary this month. Congratulations Elaine & Sandy. Bill Peterson is back from his trip to Louisiana where he took a ride along the Mississippi river on the Delta Queen. Bill has a lot of interesting stories to tell. We are dancing in Montgomery Wards Mall on September 6th. Come join us for some fun dancing and then ice cream at Leatherbys. Happy Dancing!

DISTRICT III

BUZZIN CUZZINS... We will be holding a beginner square dancing class the last Monday in September at 7:30pm in the Veterans Hall in El Cerrito. We welcome anyone who wants to come but the emphasis is on couples. We have a real good caller, ROGER LONEY.

CATCH ALL 8'S... We've had a very busy summer and are now looking forward to the fall season and a new beginners class to start Sept. 12th. We've just had our first campout at Thousand Trails with 43 people going for the weekend. Had lots of fun swimming, playing mini golf, dancing, eating and relaxing. Our picnic will be the 27th of August at Dan Foley Park in Vallejo, more dancing and eating. Come out and join us on Tuesday evenings for some great dancing to BERT SWERER and good times with our friendly dancers.

SUNDANCE SQUARES of Albany...We almost fell apart with almost everyone on vacation at the exact same time, but our wonderful new beginners class kept the spark burning and with RON HAGGERTY'S great calling we survived. Last night was an amazing recovery. The place was bouncing again and people showed up from as far as New Jersey. Several sparkling young people showed up and had a glorious good time learning to woop and holler. It was great. "Uncle Dana Kemp" became a proud uncle, eileen & Bill Letchworth became grandparents, Dana reached fame in his work with the disabled learning the computer. Dana is our inspiration. Vacationers: Ruth Maniketti to Virginia, Clarence & Kay Nagle traveling all summer, Carol Laramore hiking in Yosemite, Chelsea Baylor a square dance convention in New York, Phil & Jessie Raymond Alabama, Effie Baily a graduation in San Diego, Sheila & Bob Gault cabin in the mountains, Antoinette & John Conti Italy, The Traversos China & Europe, Marge Johson Lake Tahoe, Joe Popper traveling, also Jim & Judy Barker, Herb Swan Reno, Ruth & Gerald Fryling Alaska, Betty Maime had eye surgery, Dorothy McGuire sick. Looks like a romance in our new beginners class!! Mary is back. Be seein' ya!

SUNDOWNERS...We had a very busy summer with lots of people away on vacations. At our annual Woodminster gathering on July 7 we had nineteen who enjoyed a barbeque pot luck dinner, followed by a delightful show of "42'nd Street". Our club, thanks to the efforts of sherry Hanson & Ron Blackman, have kept up this fun evening of entertainment for many seasons. We have been dancing again in august at the Veterans Hall at Lake Merritt. Due to the financial crisis of the Oakland School District we are not sure if we will have our new beginners square dance class in September at the John Swett school. We are planning to begin the class on Tuesday September 12, but at the present time are not sure of the location.

DISTRICT IV

OLD CAPITOL SQUARES...AR & Adeline became great grandparents for the first time just recently. don Strand & Clarice Green, who met at square dancing, married in august and are spending three weeks in england. they will miss all their good friends at square dancing , but just didn't want to miss this great trip to europe either. John & Mary Crago have just returned from a three month vacation. It's good to have them back with us. Dennis & Dorian McBride are back from the square dance nationals .

DISTRICT V

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES... July has proved to be a busy month for our club. On July 8th, we enjoyed dancing to HAROLD FLEEMAN, who did an excellent job of calling for a packed house. On July 15th, 33 of our members climbed aboard a bus to travel to Smorga Bob's for dinner, then on to Concord to dance with the DIABLO SINGLES to the tunes of ROGER LONEY, our own club caller. A good time was had by all and many thanks to the DIABLO SINGLES for the hospitality. As if we didn't get home late enough from Concord, the next day several of us danced at the Salvation Army Benefit barbeque held at Montgomery Village. After square dancing on the hot asphalt, we all enjoyed a delicious steak dinner cooked by the Cattlemans Restaurant. Come join us on September 9th for an evening with STEVE MINKIN and LARRY WILLIAMS.

MARKWESTERNERS... It is Aloha time again. We will have our 31st anniversary dance which is traditionally a Hawaiian Luau. Go native - wear a mumu or an Aloha shirt. good to see Donna Pugh & emmett Blinco back dancing. Hope you keep on feeling better, Donna. Marian & Ed Kaczela traveled east for Marian's 50th college reunion! They touched base for a week or two and are off again to Montana. Florence & Marsh turner were away for the month of August. Lydia & Angie Dotti (and others) have made their annual pilgrimage to McCloud. That's what summers are for, to have fun. August 1st the club celebrated Leo Pozzi's 78th birthday with a well-lit cake. It was supposed to be pie night, but Leo didn't complain.

DISTRICT VI

SAN LORENZO SINGLES... Our club enjoyed another evening at an A's game, thanks to Shirley Schmeier, who got the tickets. It's a fun outing and double fun when the A's win. Several club members went for a tour of the new Santa Rita Prison. It was very impressive with all the modern computer systems and technology. although we can't stop crime, we can feel a little more secure, knowing that this expensive new facility makes escaping next to impossible. Thanks to Kay Erven for arranging this activity. we also appreciate seeing the new faces that have been visiting us, please come again.

EDEN ROCKERS... Miss two or three months and the club news really stacks up. We are sorry that Jean Spehar resigned as Secretary, but we welcome Marian Samuels aboard and wish her the very best in a demanding position. It is nice to see Bill Schmiel up and around after his recent surgery and we hope to see him back dancing with us very shortly. Our May graduation hoedown with CHARLIE BROWN'S calling was a success and we thank all of you that attended. Our July Hawaiian night party was a lot of fun and we welcomed new members Sam & Ann Blank to the club. Among other visitors were Jack (Beachcomber) & Myrna Stephenson from the CHECKMATES. In August we held our annual barbeque. Now that September is upon us, we have two important events to plan for, our 20th anniversary dance on September 16th and our beginners class which starts on Wednesday, September 13th. (See ads in this issue).

CHECKMATES...The graduation party for the CHECKERS was held the fourth Monday night in July with a barbeque and festivities. Congratulations to all. Our caller ROD BERTILSHOFER and wife MARILYN are spending ten days in Omaha, Nebraska visiting relatives and friends. BEN GOLDBERG will be calling for us the night ROD is on vacation. June Simmons went to Michigan to attend her 50th high school class reunion while Hugh stayed home and kept the home fires burning. Our club will be supporting the Muscular Dystrophy dance in August.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS...Isn't summer great! Our club sure is making the most of it. A really great afternoon swim party was hosted by Stu & Lois Blumsack the middle of July. BOB ELLING called as eight couples earned badges with their sashay in the pool and on the tennis court. The afternoon was followed with, guess what, a pot luck dinner! Many thanks to our gracious host & hostess. Our new activity chairman, Pete Peterson, proved his worthiness of the title by keeping the days activities on a roll. It is the consensus of the club that he is going to need a whistle to keep us all in line. While others were enjoying their favorite vacation spots, the Todds, Kapplers, Taits, Monizes, Dave Douglas & Shirley Wiser spent a week at McCloud camping and dancing at the Dance Country RV Park.

C.U. REBELS...It was one of those days when everything was hot and still. That isolated highway just outside of Laramie seemed like it hadn't kept up with progress and belonged to another era. Off in the horizon they appeared from nowhere - almost as if they had crawled out from behind one of those giant cacti that grows along the road. Between them they were dragging something - we found out later that it was a dirty sheet with a few rags and some rusty cooking utensils (apparently everything they owned). The mystery was solved when it was learned that these two dregs of society were headed for the Nationals in Oklahoma City by way of a high school reunion in Iowa. I'll bet the class mates were thrilled when these two showed up and those at the Nationals are still celebrating when they didn't. On a happier note, we are able to report that Gene was able to go to Disneyland with his family and besides getting a little tired really had a great time. Maria is also having a successful visit with relatives and friends in various countries throughout Europe. Maybe our two dregs should take a few lessons before hitting the road next time. Jerry is recuping from surgery very nicely. Gloria is waiting on him hand and foot and he's already hooked on the "soaps".

DISTRICT VIII

TAM TWIRLERS of Marin...Good Grief! so many of us have been galavanting all over the globe we should change our name to the Tam Travelers! Just as club caller GLEN DICKEY and his wife BETTY got off the plane from their long sojourn to Europe, off went ex-prez Jerry Kirby to Disney world in florida, accompanied by wife Pat, and ten(10?) critters called Rugat, Breadsnapper, Lounge lizard and other names familiar to you who have raised kids. Jerry confided that the water slide for the three-year-olds was his favorite, but the Tidal Wave wasn't bad, either. Not to be outdone, doug & Nancy Douglas went cruising up the St.Lawrence Seaway, Ed & Mildred Elliott went off for a square-dance tour of the Midwest, and John & Inta Abele are visiting Family in India-napolis. That gave the rest of us plenty of time to plan the annual outing on August 26-27 at Spring Lake in Santa Rosa. Our ace burger burner, roger Rapport, has given his solemn oath to provide two Roloids with every bun, club policeman Bob Freundt will doff his macho Federal Cop togs and come as Little Bo Peep, Brad & Janet Sayles will bring club mascot Renee (two new teeth and the only reason her smile isn't any wider is because her ears are in the way!), and spiffy new member Jerrine Minkus volunteered as official garlic peeler. The rest of us are going swimming, including Al Leveque, who celebrated his 93rd birthday last month. Old square dancers never die, they just Cut the Hourglass!

NOVATO SQUARES...Some of our wandering members are back from vacations - we missed you all! We are looking forward to our usual Steak Fry in September. Hope we will see many of our dancing friends at our September 9th hoedown. Caller will be DAVE HOBAUGH and rounds will be JOHN RETTER. San Jose Jr.High is the location - do join us for the fun time! Our club always welcomes guests at our Thursday night Plus workshops.

BUZZIN' BOOTS of Marin...The new board met & planned many activities for the coming year, starting with our hoedown 9/23 & our picnic 9/24, we will celebrate Hawaii nite, Black Cat nite, Halloween, pot Luck, Christmas Party, Hat nite, Valentines Day, St.Patricks Corn Beef Dinner, & Badge nite, it all sounds like fun. We said good-bye to the Grandees' as they move to San Jose. More vacations, the Newmans went to Utah & the Wehrs' spent a month touring the Mid-West. Be sure to bring your friends to our A-2 class starting 9/8...Happy Dancing...

NOVATO SQUAWS & PAWS...welcome back to all our summer travelers from far and near and look forward to dancing all together again. Alan Kay has been "biking it" in Europe for the past three months and has returned looking "very fit" indeed. Of course we do notice that he stands a lot these days...but he assures us that his bicycle seat was really "very comfy". O.K. Alan...whatever you say! We're glad you're home. Many thanks to DAVE HOBAUGH for filling in for our vacationing DALE HOUCK on August 30th. He did his usual customary job of excellence. It's always a special treat to dance with him and enjoy that wonderful voice. You really should be in Nashville, DAVE! We're sure DALE & PHYLLIS didn't miss us much though, as they were "cavorting" with "Mr Comedy" of the square dance world BOB BAIER, at McCloud. This guy can challenge your brain into the Twilight Zone and make it seem like it's just a game, folks. Let's hear it again for the incredible talent SUZANNE & DAVE ABBOTT bring to Square Dance Camp at McCloud.

NOVATO STUMP JUMPERS...Officers for the fall term are president-Karla Garrity, Joe Herrera - vice-president, Blanch Place - secretary, Ben Valdes - treasurer. Other board members include Russ Woods - membership, Ellie Angulo - publicity, Mary Bernard - Sheriff, Paul & Edith Simonson - delegates to NCSDA, Al Angulo & Joe Herrera - delegates to Marin Square Dance Foundation...Seven couples attended the SQUAWS & PAWS hoedown this month. Bob Napier won the half and half drawing...Shirley & Len Genetin have a new grand daughter. And Edith & Paul Simonson have a new grandson...Joyce & Russ Woods have had house guests from Austria...Eighteen couples will be going to La Porte for our annual outing at BUNNY & DAVE MILANO'S home.

DISTRICT X

BEACH NUTS...We're cooking & cleaning & preparing for all of you to come visit us at our 20th anniversary hoedown, Sept. 9 at Cunha School in Half Moon Bay! JOEL KADISH is calling, so be ready for a great hoedown! See the ad in this months magazine...We're also looking forward to starting Dance By Definition workshops at our regular club dances on Thurs. nights at Vallemar School in Pacifica. We'll start the workshops on Sept. 14, with club caller HOWARD HILLYER...We relived some fun moments at the video party held by Marge & Dick Fields, where we saw tapes of our Christmas party last year and this years newer dancers graduation. It was a special treat to see Linda & Gabe Moretti again in the film of the graduation party. Having them there added a lot to the festivities. The video party was a great way to socialize off the dance floor.

BACHELORS 'N' BACHELORETTES, San Mateo...We are now at the Mainliner Hall on Pacific

Street in San Mateo. Plenty of floor space to square up! Come and join us...Members are slowly coming back from vacations that were tacked on to their visit to National Convention in Oklahoma City. Glad to see them back...We had a wonderful time at the Aug.13 picnic in Huddart Park. The dancing at the San Mateo Fair was a blast, too!! JOEL KADISH the new caller for our club was welcomed at a party held on August 21st. The gag-gifts were a great idea! thanks rosemary! Hope we see you all at the 14th anniversary dance on Sept. 13. Happy Dancing everyone!

RANCHEROS, Redwood City...Welcome Madam President, Kayleen Keller and hubby Vince. May you have a very good year. It's great having most of our members back from vacation, we still have the Kramers and Martin fishing in Alaska and Vince Keller going backpacking in the Sierras. We want to thank all the B'N'B'S and the CLODHOPPERS who came and danced with us this summer. We enjoyed your company! Recently we danced with caller BOB BATTAGLIA at the Senior Center for their western barbeque and ice cream social. We had a good crowd, some new and some experienced dancers joined us. A good time was had by everyone. Our new dancers class is beginning September 6th and we are looking forward to some new faces. Most of us are looking forward to dancing at the San Mateo County Fair.

CLODHOPPERS, Belmont...dancing at Twin Pines Senior Center during the summer, will become a Foster City club again when repairs and renovations are completed at Bowditch School in September. They'll enjoy exhibition dancing August 9th at the San Mateo County Fair, as they have for years; and will complete plans for the "Fall Fling", Sept.23rd at Belmonts Ralston School, featuring caller ROGER LONEY and JOHN & LAURA FLORA on rounds. Newly elected club officers are Shelly & Barbara Baum, president; Joe & Virginia Cornyn, vice pres.; John & Miquette Howard, treasurer; Bruce & Audrey Snider, secretary; Warren & Jenny Benner, social chair; Joe & Georgene Noury, hospitality chair; Don & Greta Robertson, Assn. delegate; and Dee & Verna Owen, alternate delegate. Dan & Debbie Knutsons newborn baby brought joy to all - details later. Audrey Snider returned to dancing after a broken foot.

ROADRUNNERS...We're celebrating a birthday this month. It's our 21st year and there will be a party. RICHARD MANSFIELD has brought the last years beginner class up to the plus level now. They are enjoying the challenge and doing very well. There will be a lively group going to the Gold Rush Jamboree in Grass Valley in Oct. Gary Shimamoto got the early sign-up for the dinner, and it looks like the Jamboree is off to a good start--See you there.

TWO BY FOURS, Burlingame...are all enjoying the calling of our new "Leader of the Band" TERRY MOSIER. We've all agreed to dance from 7:30 to 10pm which seems to be helping our beginners become experts quickly. We plan a new beginner class September 12. All members are enjoying extended summer vacations..trips to Europe seem popular as well as seeing America. Future plans call for anniversary hoedown October 7 and a mystery trip November 4. We will be dark in August and have been invited to dance with several other clubs to keep up our skills. TERRY has asked us to attend as many hoedowns as we are able in order to keep up our responses to his lively calling on September 5 when we resume.

HIGHLAND SWINGERS...Congrats to all of our new officers starting their third month--especially to Merrill & Marie our new pres. and 1st lady, also, to our caller, ROBERT ALGEA, and his Taw, DEBBIE, who had a baby girl, Clarissa Noel, on 8/13. It seems as though summer has seen half the club travelling to far-away places--the Murphys to Mass. and to the Northwest. the Northwest also called the Sees, and the Posners. the Nelsons went to two high school reunions and a 100th family reunion in Montana; the McGowans to Hawaii. Ron Esterby, won a trip to Kauai for being "employee of the year" and decided to take his new, svelte Edie. they just returned in time to pull off our fun picnic at Flood Park. Who was that crushing ice with a hammer to fit into a coke can?and why? the Willadsens, Pollards & Swensons only got as far as Pinecrest with a stop-off at the Terzich spread. And, Helen did Dallas. We already miss our dependable, out-going publicity people, Billy & Carl Ruetz. Billys combining some major dental work with a vacation to account for their time out.

LONGHORNS...It's great to be dancing at the Mainliner Hall again, especially during hot evenings, as they have air conditioning. Our caller, BOB SOUTHERN had a couple of weeks vacation and is now back, well rested and full of tales and caller jokes. Other members, who belong to the Belmont RV Club, traveled to Baxter over a long 4th of July weekend with side trips to Grass Valley, Nevada City and Reno. Paul & Scottie Eichman continued to Idaho. Ray & Ginny Cushman have returned from an educational vacation in Wyoming & Colorado. Courses included the environment, a working ranch and oil fields. Their grand daughter, Chelsea came to club one evening to watch us dance. We welcome Harold & Vera Dowdy, Paul & Dottie Smith--good to have you dancing with us again. richard Dilling is now home after emergency surgery for appendicitis. On August 9th we joined other club dancers for an evening of entertainment and fun at the San Mateo County Fair. Our picnic is to be Sept.10 at Flood Park.

NON NCSDA CLUBS

KALICO KATS... This month we've moved back to Thomas Edison School, our regular hall. We are again grateful to Helen McLean for influence in securing the Church Hall during the summer months. Caller JOEL KADISH'S workshops can be as lively as a hoedown. Keeps us on the alert with many interesting variations, employing singing calls from old favorites to fiddler on the Roof, etc. Friend "Gertie" accompanied him on a new western square dance tune. Bob & Marge Valdez welcomed back as members of the club following a long absence. Having kept club badges proved "they left their hearts with the KATS". To make them feel really welcome we're signing them up for kitchen duty right away. Vacationing were treas., John & Jackie Bier and trail boss caravaners, Lyle & Pat Church. Guests welcome every Friday nite.

COASTSIDE SQUARE DANCERS... The club is proud to announce that we were awarded first place in the float division in the Half Moon Bay 4th of July Parade. A big "thanks" to all who decorated the float and participated in the parade. "Fun & Refreshments Night" is scheduled September 13th. People who are interested in getting acquainted with square dancers and square dancing are invited to join us. September 20th marks our beginning square dance lessons. Come and join us and bring your friends! JIM WYLIE is a "fun" caller/teacher. He is originally from Memphis, Tennessee (Elvis country) and is a great yodeler in addition to being a great caller. We lost two of our dancers (Astrid Christenson & Eve Mechanic), both of whom relocated to other areas.

SAUCY SQUARES, Sebastopol... The annual rummage sale in June brought many good bargains to some and others got to clear out their garages. Many thanks to all who made it a success. Mary & Ben Weeks recently had a marvelous tour overseas to England (saw the parade honoring the Queen's birthday), then to Wales, up to Scotland, back to England and home - very impressed with the beautiful scenery and fascinating castles! Barbara Josephson recently had the wonderful experience to meet for the first time her pen pal from England after writing for 43 years originating in grammar school. They met in Los Angeles where her friend stopped off on her way home from a trip to New Zealand. Aurora & John Wagner enjoyed a fabulous wedding with relatives in Lakewood, New Jersey - a great time! Our club picnic on July 23rd was a barbeque pot luck with a beautiful day, delicious food, fun games and of course some of the good old square dancing. It was held at the beautiful home of Louise & Mel Burke, making a wonderful time of fellowship and fun. thanks louise & Mel for letting us have the pleasure of your home and grounds and for those who helped out. Remember graduation of beginners September 5th and new classes starting September 7th. Come on out and have a good time.

BELLES & BEAUS...are saddened at the death of another good friend. Jean Elliott passed away on July 11 after a severe heart attack, less than a year after her beloved Aubrey passed away of cancer. Jean will be remembered as an unusually jolly person who loved her church and family, and enjoyed many activities that included bowling, traveling, and playing cards. Her frequent teasing was always in the spirit of fun. "Larger than Life" came to mind as we sat together at her memorial service, still in disbelief at her passing. Jean enriched our lives in many ways and she will remain in our hearts.

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

Guess it's about time to introduce JUAN & BETTY SALCEDO...

we were first introduced to a "one-nite" stand (referring to Square Dancing) in 1975, Corte Madera, at the Elks Hall, for a box social...It took us one year to finally locate a square dance workshop in our area through the local newspaper.

Juan is a pneumatic tube fitter (ask him what exactly is that) and Betty is a secretary for the Department of Defense (just when you thought it was safe)!!!!

WE have five, yes 5, children, ranging in age from 21 to 30...amazing how young the parents look!! You will find us dancing most of the time (except when Juan is out of town and Betty is not "flying").

We are more than willing to help anyone promote, educate in/for the Square Dance world. so, help us get the word out and keep the "Magic" in your square dancing....

ROUND-UP CORNER SONOMA COUNTY FAIRGROUNDS, SANTA ROSA MAY 25, 26, 27 1990

SPANNING BRIDGES

It may be early for thoughts of next years Round-Up "Spanning Bridges" but not for those who are busy planning for the best Round-Up ever.

Warren & Georgia Potts the general chairmen for this next years Round-Up are very excited about what will be a very new and exciting weekend.

Sonoma County Fairgrounds is the scene for "Spanning Bridges" which as in the past will be held over Memorial Weekend May 25, 26, 27 1990.

Keep in touch with your club delegate and this space for more exciting news about the move to Santa Rosa. there will be a lot to offer and fun for all who attend.
