CLUB NEWS

DISTRICT I

SQUARE CUTTERS... May mini hoedown was a tremendous success. Ten squares plus dancing to the excellent calling by GEORGE KNOX. Again the gourmet refreshments all made by our club members. Among the guests were Bernie & Barbara Vas, Associate Director of District 10, and Recording Secretary. Many of our club members will be attending the Golden State Round-up in Sonoma on May 25,26,27. Our caller GEORGE KNOX, is working on the new Callerlab selection, "Scoot & Follow", plus a review on some of the other latest Plus figures. Come join the fun of Plus Level dancing and to end the evening with a Contra called by GEORGE. Bring a friend...

S.F. B'N'B'S... My first dance after being on the sick list, was SQUARE CUTTERS mini hoedown, with GEORGE KNOX calling, a good dance, delicious finger food and prizes. The 2X4'S had JOEL KADISH & TERRY MOSIER calling a great dance, rounds by CRAIG RICE. Went to Golden State Round-up in Santa Rosa. Thankfully, the rains held off until the Fashion Show (with our Shirlee Holland in it) Clogging, Western Dancing and Exhibitions were over--then it poured!! People with RV's had to have them pulled by tractors, donated by the Sonoma fairgrounds people. The breakfast was fun with JOEL KADISH at his best, as MC! The callers were really great!! DEE DEE DOUGHERTY, TOM MILLER, CRAIG ROWE, & BILL HELMS. Now, on to our B'N'B'S Chicken Hop in Boulder Creek.

FORTY NINERS of Daly City...It looks like summer is upon us again. Sure sign is the movement of club members around the country and the world. Jim & Jan McCraney did quite a tour of England and the Continent. He reports that square dancing is alive and well in "Merrye Olde England" The Bice's hit Canada and Canada will never be the same. The Schnapps hit a double whammy. They headed to Tahoe and then on to Wyoming for their sons wedding. I guess they had to hit Tahoe to win enough money to buy a wedding gift. You know how lucky Laura is. Ann Bishop headed for Chicago to visit her daughter. The Hanly's flew to Iowa to visit the kids, and then took a driving side trip to Niagara Falls. I guess romance is still in the air for those two lovebirds. Of course we all headed for Santa Rosa for the Round-up. We, as a club, had been asked to handle the Grand March. A new experience and a lot of fun was had by all. We are greatly appreciative of the FRANCISCAN MOBILE HOME PARK for the use of their facilities for our workshops. to show our appreciation, we are planning to get them a gift. One of the ways we are using to get the money is the pot of gold at our workshops. So far, the Cunninghams have been the big winners. (I think they use molasses on the tiles.) Happy dancing to all.

PAIRS 'N' SPARES...A gala celebration marked the graduation of our beginners class. Mortar boards, diplomas, cake and much hilarity were the order of the evening. They will be a welcome addition to our Tuesday night dances. Heard tell that our own JOEL KADISH had them rolling in the aisles for three hours as MC at the Round-up breakfast. In spite of the rain everyone had a great time in Santa Rosa, but especially impressed were our newer dancers who'd never seen so many squares massed together. Our intrepid golfers, Al & Val Calloni, Ken & Audrey Darida, Carol & Paul Olivier and Ken Carter and Evie Weith recently spent 2 days playing at Boulder Creek golf and country club. An extra treat was the surprise cake & gifts for yours truly to celebrate my retirement. Travel news to make you green: off to Oberammergau for the Passion play were Mary Jane & George Anderson; On a cruise to Alaska are Frank & Evelyn Buhagiar; winging to Paris were Marge & Lloyd Brownell, and just back from Hawaii are Gabe & Phyllis Persau and Bill & Betty Gloe. Jane & Paul Hartman welcomed their first grandchildren, twins, a boy and a girl born to their son and daughter-in-law. Congratulations!

WHIRL-A-WAYS South San Francisco...Did you miss us last month? Well, family illness made this reporter little remiss--but we'll try to bring you all up to date. Our Reno trip was a great success with a side visit to the "Banana Split" hoedown in Carson City. Everyone enjoyed Bud Fields so much on the bus trip he was honored with the "Big Mouth" badge. A great time was had by all. Good to see Theresa Smith & Bob across the square after her recent illness. Missing from our squares recently have been Virginia & Walt Calderia. Is it illness or vacation?? Our caller, RICHARD MANSFIELD is a grandfather again!! Good to have Al DeLorenzi dancing with us, even though he calls himself a "visitor"--come on Al, start paying those dues again so you can wear the club badge. Quite a few club members looking forward to the annual B'N'B'S Chicken Hop in Boulder Creek--always a good time with good friends on the S.F. B'N'B'S bus trip to the hop. Our UP, Nadine gille, very busy try to line up hall, caller, etc for our '91 hoedown. Gets harder and harder each year to keep these hoedowns going. Be good to the beginners and kind to your corner--see you across the square--come visit any Wednesday evening--love to have ya. Even though the heavens opened up with rains, the Golden State Round-up made Santa Rosa shine as our dancers turned out for this annual Memorial Day event.

CAPER CUTTERS...We sure have fun...We dance from eight to ten squares each Monday. We have had visitors from all over including Florida, Texas. Our guest caller JIM WYLIE was most enjoyed by all and we danced about ten squares. We enjoy having Thad Irela dancing with us and Martha Hunken and Bob Wrisley too. We have lots of sick members I am sorry to say. Adele Neri had surgery on her foot, Lou Batch broke bones in his foot, George Ossy and Jim Eaton with p. problems, Fern Iacopy with a broken toe, Nina Ivanoff with a broken foot, Barbara Davison still out with heart problems. We miss you all and hurry back!

DISTRICT II

CONCORD STOMPERS...Our new club presidents, Jim & Virginia Martin are getting right down to work. Many thanks to "King & Queen" Alden & Gini Howells, retiring presidents, who did an outstanding job... About 15 club members and club caller GARY KENDALL put on a demonstration square at the Hercules Cultural Fair May 12. (Hercules is a little, but growing, town on San Francisco Bay). There was a big crowd of spectators and lots of new people were exposed to the fun of square dancing. Who knows? Maybe some will join us...The January beginners class is to be congratulated for putting on their first hoedown May 11. It was really a great hoedown, and so was their guest caller JOEL KADISH. The party continued afterward at the Round Table Pizza, where GARY KENDALL set up his equipment and called yet a few more squares. Some dancers never get enough.

CLUTCH BUSTERS...have had some extraordinary happenings in the past weeks, starting with our real fun hoedown in April. The Heitzs enjoyed a trip to Baja aboard the Polaris, but returned in time for the second annual Abolone outing to the north coast. Imagine two community meals of "all you can eat" abolone...sheer gastronomical delight! Planning for our September beginners class is underway as well as for an ice cream social.

DIABLO SINGLES...Our members are keeping busy with a variety of activities besides square dancing. In April we had a spring picnic and steam train ride at Felton/Roaring Camp. For Golden State over half the club joined together for a big dinner in Santa Rosa. In early June we went miniature golfing and then to a BBQ pot luck dinner and for Silver State we filled 20 rooms in Reno. We have a new board and it looks like they are going to do a Fantastic job. They are already busily planning our July hoedown with ROGER LONEY, working on plans for our Fall fund raisers and getting ready to promote our beginners class in September. Congratulations are in order for the following members who have announced their engagements: Kathlene & John, Dore & Clare, Rocco & Cheryl, Wayne & Debbie.

SUNDANCE SQUARES of Albany...It is vacation time again with our club members on vacation.

How we miss them! Bob & Shiela Gault are celebrating her retirement by a month's trip to Scotland. Joe Popper has been spending a month in Spain, Jim & Judy Barker are in Europe, Ellen Rosenbluth had a great time in Hawaii, Gloria & Jim Traverso went to Las Vegas where Gloria injured her ankle so hasn't danced lately. We miss them. Marge Johnson is recovering from hip surgery, Ruth Fox is finally on the mend, walking a little. Many of us attended the Berkeley Folk Dance Birthday Ball. It was a great celebration with many beautiful International costumes worn. It was exciting. A delicious Italian dinner was served. It was good seeing old friends there. Have you noticed RON HAGGERTY'S new look? Isn't he handsome? He and his daughter Linda go everywhere together. She is a beautiful girl. Mike & Ghei-Gie have a tape workshop going in their home Sunday afternoons, this is for A-1 & A-2 dancers. RON'S birthday was wing-ding celebration and we proudly presented him with a gift check. In spite of so many on vacation, our attendance is way up. Don't forget party night the last Tuesday of the month. We have a great time.

MARTINEZ SWINGERS... There were 26 of us who attended the potluck & dance held at the Lendrums new home. Their home is beautiful, the scenery gorgeous & the food was delicious. Congratulations, Cecil & Betty! It was good having Ralph & Eleanor Stapleton with us. Hope to see more of them. May 23rd, was our pizza night at Cafe Romans, in downtown Martinez. What a turnout, they opened up their banquet room for us. Some of us learned how much food was in a "large" pizza, then others couldn't get enough, so gathered up all the scraps. Were you really that hungry, Dolf? Anyway, we later danced off all the extra calories, we hope. Several couples went to the Golden State held during the Memorial Day weekend. Others were out of state; the Grimm's in Washington & the Pasley's in Oregon. My didn't it rain! No complaints, we needed it.

CATCH ALL EIGHTS... What a "wet" and wonderful time we had at Golden State Round-up. It was definatly too wet for BBQing or sitting out in lawn chairs - but the dancing was great. Now we're looking forward to Silver State - more parties, dancing and shopping. On June 3rd we will do an exhibition for the City of San Pablo's BBQ at the square. We held graduation on June 12th for our beginners class, which was small but a terrific group nevertheless and a great group to join our club. Election of officers will be held on June 19th. The new slate of officers will take over July 1st. This month our caravan heads for Canada's 7th National Convention and then home for more camping at our annual club campout in August.

CONCORD REBELS...

Many weeks have passed and at last, our recruits have made the muster.

Full-fledged REBELS they've now been cast, as their dancing reflects a certain luster
The lessons continued for many weeks, but now they've made the roll.
For becoming CONCORD REBELS' dancers was of course the ultimate goal.
We're pleased to have them in our club,
their presence adds so much.
They learned their lessons very well,
from Allemande to Slip the Clutch.
MIKE AMELL taught them well, and for that he's to be commended.
His patient style and radiant smile, insured no one was offended.
Be it Do Si Do or Load the Boat, they know how to move along.
Welcome to our squares new grads
as MIKE begins his song.

GUYS & DOLLS... May was an eventful month here at the club. On the 5th the club's 25th Anniversary hoedown was a huge success and the club was sporting their new outfits, especially the ladies in their beaded scarfs. Our new Pres. Marilyn & Don Gremaux took over the reins on the 16th and under the guidance of their new officers and committees we are looking forward to a healthy and successful coming year. Thanks to Past Pres. Fred & Joyce Grabner and their board who steered us through an exciting year. We received our new club outfits just in time for the Golden State, everyone looked great in their "red & whites". Foul weather did not hinder the many loyal couples who ventured to Santa Rosa for a weekend of great dancing and wonderful pot luck with the past and present Wagon Masters. On the 30th we hosted the STOMPERS for an evening of dancing to the tunes of callers MIKE WRIGHT & GARY KENDALL.

BUZZIN CUZZINS... I have just got back from the Golden State Round-up where a great time was had by all despite the weather of rain. At the Grand March we wore our new club outfits of yellow and black and I feel it was one of the sharpest outfits. The Golden State breakfast was well attended by our club. The Montgomery's picked up one prize. The Clark's won the last big door prize and our president and his wife won a prize. We also had a pot luck dinner in one of the RV's where the president Billy Burroughs received an unexpected bath. We will have our picture taken at the club graduation in our new garb which is coming up real soon.

DANVILLE SQUARE

WHEELERS... General meeting, election of officers and graduation along with several tips of dancing filled our May 24th workshop. New dancers Libby & Frank Canova, Grace & Mike Craig, Harvey & John Hughes, Linda & Ted Reece graduated into the Plus Level with the traditional "balloon" and "paper bag" dances. Membership chairmen Sharon & Larry Pearce and Karlene & Bill Sautter worked out a thoughtful, candlelight installation ceremony...New officers are: President-Sonja Schermerhorn & GENE MARTINEZ, V.P.'s-Connie & Roy Ellenberg, Secretary-Pam & Bill Carson, Treasurer-Grace & Mike Craig, Membership-Carolyn & Wes Herseth, Publicity-Margaret & Bob Elliott, Parliamentarian-Phyllis Hann & Jerry Bonnell. Phyllis & Jerry did a great job as presidents last year---thanks from all of us...Ten couples attended the wet Golden State Round-up. DREW ANDERSON was MC for some of the tips...Barbara & Ray McEvoy are retiring from NCSDA after four years of dedicated service, two years as delegates and two years as District Director. They have done a fine job, continually enhancing the art of square dancing. Congratulations and thanks from all of us!

DISTRICT IV

OLD CAPITOL SQUARES...We just finished our last beginners class in May and held our graduation ceremonies on May 22 for 20 new dancers and soon to be new members of our club here in Benicia. We have been without our Clocktower to dance in since the "great earthquake of '89" last October but we have survived by dancing at either the Middle School or Robert Semple School. The Clocktower is slated to be reopened in September, hopefully in time for our next hoedown on September 15 (RANDY DIBBLE calling and KEN CROFT cueing the rounds). Our new board was elected in April with Ron & Joyce Noakes as President, Charlie & Bobbie Pope as Vice President, AR & Adeline Worsham as NCSDA Delegates, John & Mickey Havelly at Treasurer, and Myrna Campbell & Dave Peters as Secretary. Our club has adopted a "chosen hoedown of the month" policy and we usually get 3 or 4 squares together to visit another club this way each month. We hope some of the other clubs will try this approach also and come and visit us. We had 25 or 30 club members attend the Golden State Round-up in Santa Rosa over Memorial Day weekend. They say there was a large crowd despite the 4 inches of rain and also that the campers had fun even though they had to put up with quite a bit of mud where the bigger rigs were parked. In fact, our caller, DOROTHY PEELER and her paw, BUCK, liked the rain so much, they planned to go to Washington for a week right after Golden State. In June, we have at least 2 couples going to the Grand Nationals in Tennessee -- John & Mary Crago and Dennis & Dorian McBride.

DISTRICT V

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES...This last month was a busy one for our club. Many of our dancers travelled to Sonora and Plymouth on separate weekends. The Meachams and the Cambous travelled to Eureka for the calling of JOE SALTEL & KIP GARVEY. We recently celebrated our 29th Anniversary with our own club caller ROGER LONEY doing the calling. After the dance members celebrated at the hall with an after party to install new officers. They are Pres. Dick Lloyd, VP Dee Satrom and Treasurer Johnny Johnson. Congratulations to the new officers and many thanks to the outgoing officers. Best wishes for a speedy recovery go to Bob Coombs with back problems. Welcome to new members John & Louise Gates, glad to have you dancing with us. We are all looking forward to the Golden State Round-up. It should prove to be a fun weekend.

MARKWESTERNERS...In May a group attended the Rhododendron Festival in Eureka where they met many dancers from Sonoma County dancing to JOE SALIEL & KIP GARVEY that weekend. Edith Wormell and Agnes Calden are recuperating following surgery. Hope to see them back dancing before long. The Rose Festival was a success with everyone enjoying the good food and dancing. Many thanks to BOB FISKE for his great calling and for filling in for BRONC WISE at the last minute. Thanks also to Jack & Pat Lowe for inviting BOB to stay in their home. Our new officers for 1990-91: Pres. Angelo Dotti, VP Ray Turek, Sec. Florence Turner, Treas. Louise Dunford. Congratulations

DISTRICT VI

SUNDOWNERS...Our members were saddened to learn of the death of former member Gala Wagoner. Gala had danced with us for several years as well as with the SOLOS & PAIRS and was well known in other square dance clubs. Saturday, July 14th is the date tentatively set for our joint square dance party with the COORDINATORS. It will be at the Veterans Hall and because eating facilities are not available for a pot luck dinner we will have just finger foods. We hope to have both ED TAUSIG and BOB ELLING to call the squares and are looking forward to an evening of a lot of fun. We have also set a tentative date for our annual Woodminister Park picnic for the third Saturday in September. The usual pot luck lunch, volleyball game, baseball TV, cards and fun for all. Also a fire to barbecue your hot dogs or hamburgers or roast your marshmallows will be available. Bring the kids if you still have any or grand kids. At an impressive candlelight service three new couples were brought into the club and presented their badges at our party night on May 17th. New members are: Muriel & Alex Maguire, Alice Rockwell & Gerry Learn and Moya Melody & Bud Fuller. They have already proved that they are a very friendly group and we welcome them to the club.

SPINNING WHEELS of Alameda...May is graduation time. Our club had 18 join our fold. Teri & Lou Houston, Fran & Randy Miller, Michael & Helen Moriarty, Kathern Bleyl and Jeff Winkelhare. We welcome them and they are all enthusiastic and doing very well. Finger food, punch, coffee and a decorated cake made for a festive evening. Another long time member, Vera Musser, has been absent for a month nursing a sprained ankle.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS... While we are drying out from the Round-up in Santa Rosa our attentions are turning to our 23rd Anniversary hoedown. And soon we will be installing our new President and First Lady Paul & Yvonne Miller and our new Treasurer, John & Cheryl Moniz. Our other officers have consented to stay on for another year. We thank them for all they have done this past year and for all they will be doing in the year to come. A special thank you goes to our outgoing President and First Lady Vic & Eleanor Malone. The club with all it's activities ran so smoothly this last year that it seemed almost effortless, but we know it was because we had a good Captain at our wheel and that behind the scene was our Presidents constant attention and directions that kept the year a smooth sail. We thank you both Vic & Eleanor for a year of good leadership. And a special note of appreciation goes to our outgoing Treasurer, Orville & Barbara Maloon. No one could surpass Barbara's constant attendance and dilligent attention to the record keeping, collections and disbursement of funds. The Savings & Loan Industry could have used you, Barbara. We are all so delighted that eight couples from our graduating class have joined our club. They all will be an asset to our club and we whole heartedly welcome them into our fellowship.

CHECKMATES... Not a lot of news this time - everyone has "already been" or "are doing now" or "are now back home to rest up". We are looking forward to hosting the SWINGING 21ERS to a night of dancing on the Fifth Monday of July. Jo & Jack Mermod back from a few weeks in Southern California after staying with grandchildren while their parents were away on a trip. Joe & Marian Lingor are spending a few days up in Mendocino County in their camper.

EDEN ROCKERS... We would like to welcome Bob & Sharyn Jacobs, also Ann & Sam Blank back to our club. You have been missed. We had a fantastic time on party night, with the SPINNING WHEELS visiting us, the good calling of CHARLIE BROWN and MAC MC DEVITT and the good eats. A special thank you goes to our Presidents the Bowers for their organizing, also the hot dogs, and to our Vice Presidents, the Scovilles for the beans. Thanks for the salad makers. A fun evening indeed! There was cake and ice cream and cookies served also, Thanks to all.

C.U. REBELS... We started off a very busy May with a weekend camping trip to Del Valle Reservoir in Livermore with 16 rigs filled up with people of all sizes and ages. We all had a great time except for the two old timers that forgot their ages and sizes and paid dearly for the lapse in memory. Old competitive LA WAYNE JANSSEN refused to give in to his younger opponents in a relay race and wound up with an injured groin muscle for his efforts while George Silva (probably into his cups) wasn't watching where he was going and fell into a hole. Fortunately there were a few (very few) clear heads around who dragged him out and all he got was a twisted ankle (much less than he deserved). We also had graduation for a wonderful group of beginners and had fun dancing with them as equals for the first time. Then there was the exciting and wonderful?? Round-up in Santa Rosa with a lovely swimming pool to park our RVs in/on. The only thing we were grateful for was that we were able to cancel our mud bath reservations in Calistoga. And, last but not least, we had 5 clubs for a "Fifth Thursday" dance (actually 4 invited, and then the sneaky SKIRTS & FLIRTS who came to steal the buckskin) which far exceeded the Round-up in almost every way (not counting the mud of course). We had thirty squares and enjoyed the company of VALLEY TRAVELERS, SQUARE CIRCLES, DANVILLE SQUARE WHEELERS, KEEWAY SWINGERS and of course the SKIRTS & FLIRTS, and the calling of our own LA WAYNE JANSSEN, PAUL HARRIS & TERRY MOSIER. We helped Dale and Pat celebrate their 37th Anniversary which was on that night. Pat says "the biggest anniversary party they ever had"!

DISTRICT VII

SWINGING 21'ERS...had a great time entertaining at the Veterans Hospital in Yountville on Flag Day. The picnic afterward was fun for everyone. On Sunday, May 20 we joined the KUNTRY KUZINS in dancing for the Fiesta in Mission San Jose. Precarious dancing but most enjoyable. On August 4th we'll be dancing for Western Night at the Elks Lodge. We hope to interest more people in joining our club in the Fall when a new beginner class will open. Our caller DAVID PARKER and the GHOST RIDERS will be featured at the Marin C. Fairgrounds in San Rafael on July 4th. Come join in the fun! Happy dancing to everyone throughout the summer months.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS...have kept themselves busy doing their usual dancing and many of them have taken extended Winter vacations. Some have returned with beautiful tans which is very becoming and enough to cause the rest of us a tinge of wishfulness. So happy to have most all of the club back dancing. We missed you. Many of us have enjoyed such things as the Round-Up in Santa Rosa. It rained and some of us had to have our rigs pulled out of the field where we were parked, but all in all, it did not dampen the fun we had. We had a wonderful pot luck dinner on Sat. night in the fifth wheel of Jim & Dorothy Falke. Eight couples ate hearty, laughed a lot, and proceeded on to the dance and entertainment later. Congratulations to all of our newer dancers. We had a wonderful party for their graduation night and enjoyed the dancing and goodies. That was one of our special fun nights. Thanks to all who took the time to make it so successful. Our 36th Anniversary hoedown on June the 2nd was a great success. JAY HENDERSON did a fantastic job of keeping the floor busy and happy. Food was plentiful and delicious as usual. Will drop another line next month. Keep dancing.

KEEWAY SWINGERS...How can a year go by so fast...our term is at an end, and we've only begun. Our club has grown by leaps and bounds. Being an officer brings both challenges and rewards and it's a way to give back to the club that brings each of us so much pleasure. We are a great group to belong to. If you haven't visited us yet, please come and do so! We will welcome you with open arms in true Yellow-Rock fashion. Many of our members were at the Golden State Round-Up, some in RV's and some at the Flamingo. Some round, some square and some doing both, and all could be seen in the various vendor's booths oohing and aahing over the latest fashions. It is a great day to square dance!

EAGLE SQUARES...Our new class graduation began with a delicious potluck dinner. Many of our former members were invited to attend. Among those present were Martin & Bernice Baumann, Ollie & Harriett Olivotti, and Charley & Laura Steele. There was a graduation ceremony and the evening was filled with good-natured fun. We are waiting to hear about adventures of our members who went to the Nationals in Tennessee. June 3rd a party was held at Dick & Bonnie Bartlett's home to honor the new incoming officers. June 9th the club danced in the street demonstration before the Rodeo parade. They also entered a float in the parade. Congratulations to the new NCSDA officers! Anyone wishing to catch up on their plus level during the summer are invited to our plus workshops on Wednesday called by TERRY MOSIER.

RANCHERO SQUARES...The draught ended in a deluge at Santa Rosa Round-Up. The many RVers needed row boats and or tow trucks. We all sloshed and splashed our way from hall to hall. In spite of this the dancers had a great if damp time. We are all looking forward to '91 Round-Up, with our own Sue & Herman Lafferty presiding. President Chris Cochems is working in New York for 8 weeks. Helen will fly out for a brief reunion. CRICKET & TERRY MOSIER visited their son in Seattle on Memorial weekend, while Harriet & Gerald traveled to Iowa before heading for Nationals. Our new slate of officers has been elected. Our new president will be Lucky & Lee Moore, vice president Flo & Jolen Peterson, treasurer Donna & PJ Bodner, publicity Doris Bailey & Jim Seaver, secretary Jim & Marilyn Long, delegate Gerald & Harriet Mosier, alternate delegate Herman & Sue Lafferty. Congratulations to all.

PLEASANTON SINGLES...We graduated 18 beginners in May & welcomed them into our club with a graduation dinner, candle service & variety of skits! I don't know how KEN continued to call covered with all that paper but we're glad he did. We also welcome new officers Don Simon as UP & Karen Mariani as delegate. Thanks Dorothy for continuing as secretary. We thank Charlie & Howard for the offices you've held for us. We had an unforgettable time in Santa Rosa for Round-Up. In spite of every obstacle (hours of driving, problems with sounds & floors, walking in the rain, dancing around rain puddles), we managed to have fun. Of course the partying together and eating together proved lots of fun. 27 of us had dinner together at Mario's and those 26 of us who ate enjoyed the food. Sorry Lyn, better luck next time! Speaking of next time: we expect even more to come to Round-Up 1991 since it's closer to home and we know the halls have better sound, (& we won't care if it rains cause that will be outside). Thanks to all those who attended our Alumni-Party night in June. We hope you had a great time. Happy summer...

FARMERS & FARMERETTES..."Oh Baby, Let The Rain Come Down" - and did it pour over Golden State weekend!! It did not keep several of our hearty members from having a grand 'ol time! The callers were terrific as were the HANDICAPABLES from San Bruno. We danced at the Alameda County Fair June 27 - always a pleasant time and a chance to visit the yearly happenings at the fair. Our annual Firecracker booth is now in progress and will continue through July 4. Everybody pitches in to help out so it is always a social affair too. After this comes our July hoedown on July 6 at the Newark Pavilion. A very special Happy Anniversary to our president & his wife, Dean & Sally Center, 30 terrific years together. We wish them continued success & happiness. The Gabbays' have just returned from a wonderful family visit in New York - many in our group have plans for trips this summer - we wish them and all square dancers traveling a safe and eventful time.

DISTRICT VIII

TAM TWIRLERS of Marin...We enjoyed a great hoedown with ERIC HENERLAU on June 9th. Great dancing by all! Early in June we voted in our new board: President, Dan Dougherty; Vice-President, David Rowley; Treasurer, Janet Sayles; Secretary, Inta Abele; NCSDA Representative, Ed Elliott; Publicity, Jerrine Minkus; Membership, Barbara Payne; Fun & Games, Ted Jacobson. Our recent Past-President, Louise Hammond, who did a wonderful job, will be also serving on the board. We're all "squared" away! Our wonderful caller, GLEN DICKEY, will be on vacation July 2, 9 and 23. He and his wife BETTY, will be visiting New York and Cape Cod. He has arranged for BERT SWERER and DALE HOUCK to be our substitute callers while he is away, so our club will continue dancing on Monday nights. Come join us! You'll meet friendly people and our cute mascot, Renee!

BUZZIN' BOOTS of Marin...Re-cap of news for past three months. Get well wishes to members Buzze Koff, Ruth Moser, Murielle O'Leary & Barbara Sorensen. shower Murielle with cards, she is home now after four months in the hospital. Barbara & Buzze are back dancing. Don Pearce sang his Irish songs at our St.Patricks day dinner. Our new officers have taken over: Don Powell President, Don Pearce Vice President, Elaine Dutra Secretary, Carol Mayberry Treasurer, Nancy Cover Membership, our thanks to the old board. Vacations, Dorothy Boswell Africa, Schmidts Spain & Florida, Kay Smith Egypt & Wofords Australia, Bali & Singapore. The cold weather picnic was great & Warren Brentlinger & crew did a super job, 40 attended, oysters were wonderful. As Lou would say "Carry On"...

NOVATO STUMP JUMPERS...

Congratulations are in order to one of our favorite members, Sinclair Johnson. He will be honored and accompanied by his wife, Conci, at a retirement dinner at Dominics in San Rafael Tonight. He has worked hard for McMillan Electric for 25 years & still is enjoying his square dancing & barbershop quartet singing. Marion & Joe Herrera attended Marions 49th Junior High reunion in Pasadena. She said it was fun & interesting. Mary & George Bernard had a wonderful trip to San Luis Obispo to visit granddaughter at Cal Poly State University. They toured the campus & had dinner at Moro Bay. The Blue Grass Festival is coming up on Fathers Day weekend & Betty & Wally Benson are looking forward to going. They attended last year & they enjoyed it so much that they don't want to miss it this year. Mildred & Carl Unger had a great time in the gold country at the North Bay Pacific Bell Telephone retirement campout. They stayed at the 49er RV park. Sounds like a good time was had by all.

SQUAWS & PAWS...are getting "geared up" for our annual Anniversary dance on Sat. July 21st with DAVE HOBAUGH and the GHOST RIDERS. (please see ad) It's always such a great dance and with entertainers like these, who would expect less? They've been performing together for 18 years now...no wonder they're such pros! It's "back to camp McCloud" for some of us this month and a chance to dance to that alltime favorite, JOHNNY PRESTON. He'll, no doubt put us through our paces while we're splitting our sides laughing at his antics. He's a real true "Mr Showbiz"! We'll let you know if we survive his talents and his humor. Our special thanks go to STEVE MINKIN for his great calling at our monthly mini-hoedown in June. It was a great turnout and STEVE, of course, was at his best for squares and rounds. We would also like to thank the members of our neighboring clubs who support these monthly gatherings and have helped to make them so much fun. It's so great dancing with different callers and seeing old friends more often. Once again, we invite all of you to join us July 21st for a fantastic night of dancing fun. Hope you're all enjoying your summer. Happy dancing!

DISTRICT X

LEVIS & LACES...Welcome to our newest members, Sherry & Manny Gonzalez, who joined all of us at the Santa Rosa Round-Up. We had lots of fun at the Round-Up meeting people whom we only see once or twice a year. Our caller, DOUG SAUNDERS was cancelled out by the rain, hope he got a rain check? Nina Ivanoff & Rose Mulhall will be out for a little while due to foot & leg injuries. We will miss them. Hurry back! Joyce & Mike Mooney are off to Ireland and Spain for a few weeks, nothing but fun, fun, fun. JoAnn & Ron Swanson did a terrific job on the Fashion Show at the Round-Up. Our "professional" models, Bea & Herb Chow were simply marvelous showing off our club dress and jackets. Happy to report Ginger & Mike Loyd's grandson, Adam Loyd, came through with flying colors from a heart operation. Happy 4th of July to all.

HIGHLAND SWINGERS...May is a big birthday month in our club. Celebrating were: Edie Easterby, Irene Willadsen, Jo See, Pat Engman, Helen Barker, and to top things off Curt (75) and Hazel (70) Senson were treated to a surprise birthday party perpetrated by their daughter, Carol, on May 26th. Helping with the charade and enjoying the fun and games, which included "Betty Boop", were fellow club members Gene & Irene Willadsen, Russell & Norma Pollard and Jim & Helen Barker. The 5th Thursday in May was like a mini hoedown, thanks to the host club - SPINNING WHEELS of Los Altos, who invited the SQUARE HOPPERS of Los Gatos, the HILLBILLY DUDES & DOLLS of Campbell, and the HIGHLAND SWINGERS of Redwood City. Their respective callers CHARLIE BROWN, KEN KENMILLE, KEN CARROLL & VIC KAARIA, kept over 16 squares jumping and smiling. IONE YETKA cued single rounds between tips, adding to the dancing fun. Edie Easterby, our VP and soon to be president is taking her job very seriously, twisting arms to get officers to help her run the club starting July 1. It's hard to say "no" to this charming dynamo, who has only the best for our club at heart. Herman & Emily Kramer dropped by to say "hello", telling us that they hoped to be back on a regular basis soon. Good to see you and great news. Everyone keep dancing and smiling!

TWO BY FOURS, Burlingame...had a large number of their members dancing up a storm (during a rainstorm) at the Round-Up in Santa Rosa. All had a wonderful weekend. Some got stuck in the mud in the RV area but many heroes stepped in and pushed and pulled them out. Our numbers at weekly dances are slightly diminished due to the travel plans of so many. We welcome dancers whose clubs are dark during the summer months. Our own club will be dark election day June 5. However, we plan to attend the PAIRS N' SPARES Friday night dance in order to keep our skirts twirling. Our mystery trip and picnic are still in the future and more good dancing to TERRY WHO?

BEACH NUTS...are dancing at Pedro Point's Old Firehouse, on Wednesdays, for July & August, and probably 1st week of September. Hope you can come and visit us; there's a beautiful hardwood floor there--We had a great time at our first participation in the annual Chili Cookoff in El Granada, with the theme of our booth being "Frilly Chili". The event was guided by Marge & Dick Fields, who participated before. Marge's secret recipe for chili got us lots of attention, along with square dance decorations & several tips danced in front of our booth. July will see us marching in the Independence Day Parade in Half Moon Bay, which we've done for many years. Congratulations for all of us to our new club officers, Pres. Marsha Robinson & Fred Hernandez, VP Jackie & Don Starring, Treas. Sue & Bob DeRenzo and Secty Armida & John McVeigh! We're looking forward to a great year!

CLODHOOPPERS...Though she isn't up to dancing yet, Penny Tripp surprised us last Wednesday. She looks great. We hope that both Penny & Ruben Bear will be back on the dance floor soon. The Waters, Baums and Stuecks attended the Round-Up Breakfast; So did Gene Henry and Mary Morris. Though the weather was WET - and we got soaked, the spirits were high. Fun! In the absence of ROGER, our caller, the Badgemaker ROD BERTLSHOFER kept us Happy Dancers. Thanks ROD for a wonderful time. You're welcome back anytime! ROGER'S dad is doing well, after his recent illness. Some of us attended the ROADRUNNERS mini hoedown, featuring the KAYRIDES and it was super. The RANCHEROS joined us for the 5th Wednesday - they brought goodies to add to our pie dessert night. BEN & ROGER make quite a team. Aurevoire for this time - see you across the square! Keep smiling!!!...

B * N * B * S, San Mateo Chapter...had a wonderful time at the Chicken Hop in Boulder Creek and at the BOWS & BEAUS Ice Cream Fling - many of us are planning to go to the Nationals in Memphis, Tennessee - we had a blast at the Golden State Round-Up in Santa Rosa - so many activities and so little time!! Have a great summer -

LONGHORNS...We welcome Pat & Peter de Lemos as new club members. Also we're happy to reinstate Butch & Carmello Dayon. Glad to have you all on board. Our club attended the 5th Tuesday dance in May with the ROADRUNNERS. Everyone enjoyed dancing to the live music of HAYRIDE. Vickie & Dalton Moyer attended his high school reunion in Wyndmere North Dakota and from there they went to Rapid City to join a talk tour to Salt Lake City before returning home. New officers will be installed the first Tuesday in July. President Lou Bramberger and First Lady Deloras are continuing their rein with enthusiastic support of the other officers and club members. We look forward to a year of extraordinary good times.

NON NCSDA CLUBS

COASTSIDE SQUARE DANCERS... There is not much news this month, other than we really miss square dancing with Marlin & Sam Hummel. They have taken leave of absence for awhile to allow Sam to recover from her stay in the hospital. They plan to come by and visit, but we hope that Sam will be feeling better and that they will be back dancing with the club. July 17th is Sam's birthday, and we wish her the best. Also happy birthday to our friend, Marge Davila. Drop in and dance with us on Wednesday nights. JIM WYLIE continues to teach us Beginning, Mainstream and Plus calls in his wonderful easy, gentle, funny style.

SEBASTOPOL SAUCY SQUARES... A beautiful baby girl, "Lilly Louise", 7 lbs. 14 oz. arrived to the MINKINS on May 14 at 8:30pm. All in the family happy and recuperating. You can tell summertime is just about here with people on vacations or planning some. Hap Kinney recently on a three week trip to visit her daughter in Acton, Southern California. Hap, Robert & Sally had a great time at the Rhododendron Festival in Eureka. July 26, 27 & 28 they will be travelling to the Canadian National Square Dance Convention in Vancouver, Canada. While in the area Robert, Salina & Sally will be visiting relatives and later meeting Hap at the convention. Another travelling couple are the Wagners. John & Aurora just returned from a trip to Florida but will be off again soon visiting family in Cincinnati; Northville, New York; Lakewood, New Jersey and Virginia, Washington. Safe travelling and good times to these folks! July 24th will be a special evening and we will be hosting some Belgium exchange students that will be dancing with us for the evening. Should be an interesting and fun time. Betty & Joe Cardoza were in Arizona but Joe had a heart attack, but home now and doing good. Send your good wishes to these nice folks! See yah dancing!!!

BELLES AND BEAUS... Floyd & Freda Lowrey have driven to Kansas for reunions with family and friends. We'll miss Fred's good cooking at our 5th Thursday pot luck. We're glad to have Leonard & Ella Dobson back dancing with us. He had swelling in his hands and feet again, but a doctor gave him some medication that really helped, and even his bowling has improved, he says. CHARLIE (our caller) & DOROTHY WOLFF took their RV to the Round-Up in Santa Rosa. They round and square danced, chatted with old friends, and had a super time despite the over 2" of rain that fell.

NCSDA PRESIDENTS MESSAGE by Warren & Georgia Potts

As we start this new square dance year, we want to thank you for your support and confidence in electing us President of your Association. Please feel free to contact us by phone, letter or person if there is anything you feel we, as your representatives, should know. We, as well as all the other elected officers, have agreed to serve as the board because we want to make square dancing in this area the best it can be, and with your assistance, it will.

GOLDEN STATE ROUND UP WRAP UP by Warren & Georgia Potts

The 1990 Golden State Round-Up should be remembered for a long time. Except for the record breaking rains and related problems, especially for the RVers, everyone seemed to have a good time. Flexability was a keynote, as GARY KENDALL, the Program Chairman, shuffled the program to fit the weather conditions.

TOM, BILL, CRAIG, DEE DEE and the ANDERSONS all were crowd pleasers and brought excitement to every hall. Many of our local callers and cuers also participated and/or assisted. We thank each and every one.

To the Round-Up Committee and many other volunteers, we want you to know that this Round-Up would not have been possible without you. No matter what needed to be done, you were there - Thank you!

We are looking forward to Round-Up in Oakland in 1991, and know you will all support the Chairmen, HERMAN & SUE LAFFERTY.

LENINGRAD

Leningrad is one of the world's most beautiful cities.
Buildings of magnificent architecture, sculptures, wrought-iron grilles, bridges (more than 300), granite lined rivers and channels give the city a charm all its own.

It is the USSR's second largest city in size and economic importance. It is situated on the shore of the gulf of Finland in the Baltic Sea, where the Neva River joins the sea. Population over five million. Climate:
marine; average air temperature: -7.9 c in January and +17.5 c in July.

Leningrad is a treasure trove of museum rarities.
Found there are the state's largest Hermitage Museum with its unique collection of art masterpieces. Over 3 million exhibits.

Programs are offered by Intourist in various international events held in Leningrad including the fur auctions.

KIEV

Kiev, the capitol of the Ukrainian SSR, comes third in the USSR after Moscow & Leningrad. It is located on the banks of the Dnieper River and has a population of 2.5 million.

It has 11 theaters including the Taras Shevchenkoopera and Ballet Theater. It also has cathedrals, museums, churches, concert halls, a stadium and circus.

For a real treat, take a motor boat cruise on the Dnieper River, it is now becoming a major port to the Soviet Union. Climate: continental mild; average air temperature: -5.8 c to +19.5 c.

MINSK

Capital of the Republic of Byelorussia

Minsk is located in the heart of the Republic on the banks of the beautiful Svisloch River. The population is now over 1,300,000. The Olympic Stadium "Dynamo" is one of the USSR's training centers for the world Olympics and has its own Bolshoi Theater. Minsk is one of those cities which suffered most during World War II. In the Republic or "State" of Byelorussia, every fourth citizen died at the hands of the Hitler invaders and in Minsk, every other one! Today they are a young generation with a beautiful modern city, a major industrial and cultural center. It has a beautiful opera and ballet theater, a circus, a Philharmonic, several museums, and Palaces of Art. It boasts one of the largest camp sites in the country, known as "Minsky's." The area will hold 200 tents, 300 cars and offers 300 beds in bungalows.

BREST

Brest, the administrative, industrial and cultural center of the Brest region, an important transportation junction and a river port, is the western gate of the Soviet Union on the Soviet-Polish border.

The Brest Fortress was among the first to meet the attack of the Nazi troops; it held out against the superior enemy forces for 28 days.

It sports one of the finest art galleries in the Soviet Union and has one of the few night clubs in the country.
The dance school is one of the best.
