CLUB NEWS

DISTRICT I

FORTY NINERS of Daly City...We are very proud of our caller DALE HOUCK for his role in the Benefit Hoedown for the HANDICAPABLE PIONEER SQUARES that was held on the last Saturday in July. Other callers donated their services were JOEL KADISH, GEORGE KNOX, TERRY MOSIER & JIM WILEY, and the round cuers were donated by KEN CROFT & JOHN FLORES. The PIONEER SQUARES, who had just returned from the special Olympics in Minneapolis, gave a demonstration under their caller and leader, MARGE DAVILLA, that was well received by the crowd. The hoedown was very successful and for a very good cause. Our club is having their second mini-hoedown, with DALE HOUCK calling, on thursday, September 12 (see ad in this issue).

PAIRS'N'SPARES...Congratula tions to Debbie & Dave Owden proud parents of a baby girl born July 3rd, just in time to celebrate her first Independence Day (July 4th). Visions of sun drenched beaches and swaying palm trees along with exotic refreshments made our Hawaiian Hoedown the universally acclaimed fun spot for a Saturday night in August. And now September finds us looking forward to the annual club picnic. also heard through the grapevine a Mystery Trip will happen. Better start practicing your putting as October 5th the clubs annual golf tournament will be played. I guess that old saying must be true! "a busy club is a happy club".

CAPER CUTTERS...alert - Alert - remember our 41st anniversary Hoedown on November 2 at the Handi-capped Center with DAVE HOBAUGH calling! We have had so many visitors during the summer from all over. This past Monday we had 19 guests and a couple from NORTH SHORE SQUARES in Skokie, Illinois. It was interesting to note that they had 320 members with their present caller for 17 years. also two weeks ago a couple from Manila in the Philippines. even with our good attendance of nine squares we have so many of our club members traveling. Ruby Woodson in Arizona, Ed & Lillian Land to New York, Boston, and the New England States, Joyce Mooney to Canada, Roy & Billie Didier in Alaska, Lena Nuccio in Yakima, Washington.

S.F. B'N'B'S...The National at Salt Lake City, Utah, was great, the weather was perfect, the city is so clean, and the people, so nice!! Saw and danced with many friends from here. Enjoyed SAN MATEO B'N'B'S Christmas in July, with RICHARD MANSFIELD, WAYNE JANSSEN & JIM OSBORNE calling and JOHN FLORA on rounds. A big welcome to our four new members, Bill

Burke, Alma Harris, Mavis & Dick McGaugh. Our beginners are moving along fine. KIP GARVEY called for the ROADRUNNERS, with LARRY SEGALL on rounds. will be going to hear DALE HOUCK, GEORGE KNOX, JOEL KADISH, TERRY MOSIER and our own JIM WYLIE call for the PIONEER SQUARES, with rounds by KEN CROFT & JOHN FLORA, should be real fun hoedown!!

DISTRICT II

RIPSNORTERS ...have traveled far and wide this summer but hopefully most of them will be back by September 12th when we kick off the new year with a potluck dinner at Parkmead. summer dancing has been a lot of fun even though quite a few members have been on trips at various times but ERIC has kept us on our toes and fall promises to be challenging and rewarding. Rejoin the fun is the theme for our Refresher class starting Tuesday night, September 24th. MIKE AMEL will be calling the class. Congratulations to members Dick & Jackie Osmundson and Bob & Jean wilson who received their 25-year pins in July. the Carvers planned the successful family picnic at Ardenwood Farm in August and lots of club members were there with their children and grandchildren. to those who came to our August 29th Guest Night, we enjoyed dancing with you and look forward to the next 5th thursday night. come again and bring your friends on October 31st.

GUYS & DOLLS...summer is over and we are all chomping at the bit to get started on our new square dance year. The A-1 lessons start on Sept.4, MIKE WRIGHT, our caller, mentioned that all of us needed the lessons except Tom Boyd. MIKE feels nothing can help Tom. a lot of people were gone during the summer and it will be good to have them back in the fold. Chuck & Phylis Vickers went to Qatar and will be fine as soon as they realize "allah Akbar" is not a quarterly call. Jim & Jane Severns know that, because they spent a week dancing in McCloud, and could give lessons now if Jim could only sing. Bill & Kathy Conner came back reluctantly, from Washington State and Oregon. a very special welcome back to Ed & Mary Ann King- We've missed you.

CATCH ALL 8'S...Now that everyone is back from the good times at convention - altho some of our members are still off on vacation we'll settle down for some fun at home. We've held election of officers with Ed Castillo still Pres., dick & Gloria Knapp-Vice Pres. and Lois Auble Secretary. Our only change is Florence Calhoun as Treasurer and Gerry Learn and Alice Rockwell as NCSDA Alternates. John & Carol Ozanich agreed to remain as our Delegates to NCSDA. We had 2 squares do an exhibition dance at Vale Convalescent Home and then we all went for dinner at Denny's afterwards. Now we are looking forward to dancing at the fair on August 2nd and then our campout at San Benito on August 16-17th. Hope the weather warms up - but we'll have a good time being together.

DIABLO SINGLES...I would like to thank our Hostess, Ingrid, and Assistant Hostess, Karen, for the great job they did on our last Hoedown. We had an Hawaiian theme with beautiful decorations put together by these two. Loved those knees, ROGER. We'll have to have you back for another showing. and if you missed this one, you missed the new meaning of a yellowrock. You'll just have to come to our next Hawaiian theme Hoedown and find out what we do with a yellowrock to get a lei. august will take us to Coloma for a sleepover at the Grange Hall and a club dance, thanks to Carol for setting this up for us. September we start our new class and will participate in the Fall Fest. October we plan to have a car rallye and poker run. Best hand wins. Glad to see Jack back.

BUZZIN COUSINS...We would like to welcome Sean & Michelle Fitts into our club, as new members. Congratulations to our new dancers, Del Peacock on winning the 50/50 at the first ELKS & DOES hoedown on July 12th, don't spend it all in one place. A few of us went to the DIABLO SINGLES Hawaiian Hoedown and had a great time dancing to ROGER LONEY, nice legs, ROGER. We would like to welcome back Marlene anderson, our president who's been caring for her mother after she broke her hip. Get well soon, Rose, also Ike & Lois Rocha after Lois' back surgery. Nice to see all of you back dancing again. Our newer dancers are coming along nicely, they're starting to learn plus calls. See you all next month.

DUBLIN SQUARE WHEELERS...The July 4th Parade in Danville was a joy in spite of the 108 degree heat with 14 couples dancing on a flat bed float, DREW helped our balance by avoiding to many "Tea Cup Chains". A special thanks to Jay & Debbie for a nice evening "Bar-B-Que and Truck Wash", the evening before. Thanks to Wes & Carolyn for all the work and materials that made the float look so patriotic. In keeping with the post parade spirit of July 4th, Margaret & Bob hosted a much needed splash with a pool party and feast for all the club members who paraded so proudly in their Red, white & Blue club outfits.

CONCORD STOMPERS...The 5th of September will bring back our Thursday night beginners to dance at the Oak Park Center in Pleasant Hill where the Wednesday night plus group has continued all summer. We plan a campout the weekend of September 20-21 in the Sierra foothills just north of Nevada City at River Rest Campground in Washington, CA. With sites available for both tent camping and RV's, we expect a good turnout. Our own.

GARY KENDALL will be calling and Chris Dutra will be coordinating the event.

MARTINEZ SWINGERS...Thanks everyone who attended our Hoedown on July 13th. what a fun night we had! A group of us danced at the Martinez Marina on July 4th, to help celebrate the occasion. We then went to Carrows for dinner & more celebration. Those who didn't dance with us missed out on a lot of fun. All of you club members who are on vacation, we hope you're having a good time. We look forward to when all return and our club is back in full swing.

DISTRICT IV

T H E N A P A B U Z Z S T E P P E R S...along with our club caller NATE BLISS, were delighted to be part of the July 4th Support Our Servicepeople celebration hosted by the American Red Cross at Kennedy Park in Napa. And, by press time, we will have danced every evening, also to NATE'S calling, at the Napa town & Country Fair held in early August. We are really excited about the start-up of our new dancers class set for September 19th at the Napa Welcome Grange!! NATE will be teaching starting with mainstream and continuing through plus every Thursday.

BENICIA OLD CAPITOL SQUARES...The Parade down First Street started with the music set and 7 couples of dancers ready at 7pm July 3rd. Charlie agreed to ride shotgun with BUCK in the truck while DOROTHY called from the back. We did pretty well along the route, and no, we didn't have to dance directly behind the horses. The ladies looked great with their special red, white & blue aprons they were wearing. At the reviewing grandstands about 8:15pm, DOROTHY was nice enough to call Tea Cup Chain so we could show off. On the 4th, we had 3 squares dancing in the park at 11am with enough for another square watching. the Popes, the Fades, the Smiths, the Strands, the Strands, the Harringtons, the Damms, the Ashbaughs, the Breuklanders, the Meyers, the McBrides & BUCK & LaJune all danced. The Pogues, the Havelys and the Fosses cheered us on. About 1:15pm we all met at Roger & Lynsay's for a picnic. another big Thank You! from the whole club goes to BUCK & DOROTHY for the good square dancing we all enjoyed.

DISTRICT V

MARKWESTERNERS...Our caller, BOB ELLING was given a birthday party with cake & ice cream provided by the Turners & Dottis. we sang happy birthday and wished him many more of the same. July is the month of vacations in our club. We seem to have more people gone than stayed at home. That will even out with visitors very soon. We have squares going to McCloud to dance every week. Our vice president Ray Turek was put to work when our president Angie & Lydia Dotti went to McCloud. We have the nicest visitors--they bring wonderful snacks to workshop. thanks to all our guests!

CIRCLE'N SQUARES...HAROLD FLEEMAN kept us all dancing very smoothly on a nice summer evening. Best wishes of a speedy recovery go to AD Desideri after his recent surgery. We all hope that he will be dancing with us soon. All of us are looking forward to our weekend on the American River. Come dance with us on September 14th to NATE BLISS and LARRY WILLIAMS.

DISTRICT VI

SAN LORENZO SINGLES...A busy summer - vacations for our vice President Shirley Schmeyer & husband Don. They were gone almost a month, and then our President Georgina Beyer and husband Duane are off for three weeks. Pearl Barnhisel returned from her trip, and hosted our annual swim party and barbecue. Always a fun time, with good food. Myrtle Williamson has been on the sick list and hope it won't be long before she's back dancing with us. Everyone had an enjoyable night dancing with the PLEASANTON SINGLES on one fifth Tuesday. The beginners have been dancing real well keeping up with the club level. thanks to KATHY VILLA our club-caller who has been giving them a real workout. Till next time Happy Vacations and welcome back!

C A S T R O V A L L E Y REBELS...Several of our more foot-loose and fancy free members have really been traveling this summer. Mildred & George (our Treasurers) had a delightful cruise that included several interesting stops (Hong Kong, Bali, etc.) and when they got home Mildred immediately started checking the brochures to decide on their next trip. George wanted to know if it was alright if he had time to mow the lawn first. Covert's are on a four month motor trip that will include teaming up with the Vance's, Silva's (also on an extended trip) and Nevins' in Yellowstone. We are happy to report that our current set of sickees are doing better - Larry & Jerry with their limbs; Elaine & Jim with their backs & Vesta Jean with her neck. we are especially happy that Jean is again able to dance. We don't mind the folks taking a summer break for a little trip or some surgery - but, come September we want everybody back and healthy when we start our beginner class.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS...wild bunch(Wiser, Douglass, Todds, Kapplers, Mortons, Statons, Lassales and Mermods in McCloud: had a grand tour of the Lumber Mill: put on a skit in honor of MIKE SIKORSKY called "Mike's Udder Herd". eight red eyed cows, six ghost riders on stick horses commanded by the old cow poke in the mist of vision difficulties (cows don't wear glasses) and problems hearing their music above the laughter of the crowd gave an unsurpassed comedy production. An encore performance is contemplated for our Halloween party. Our "Forget-Me-Not" Vice-Presidents, John & Tricia Berk received a considerable amount of kidding when board members arrived at their house for the monthly meeting in which John & Tricia had neglected to remember. August was the annual swim & barbecue party at Stu & Lois Blumsack's house. Get rich quick (ie) get broke fast members are looking forward to the club's bus trip to Reno in October. Nitrate: Lower than day rate!

ALAMEDA SPINNING WHEELS...MAC & JEANNETT, Larry & Teresa Eastridge, Fred Kruger & Barbara Morton, Fran & Randy Miller attended a 5 day square dance. It was held at Asilomar near Monterey - square dance callers were MIKE SIKORSKY & JERRY HAAG. Ramona Pergree went into hospital on July 5 for surgery, was in for 8 days. she's home now doing well. don & Phyllis will be dancing in England during a two week stay. they will report on clubs visited upon return.

EDEN ROCKERS...Lots of activities for our club. We were honored with the visit of Louis Swain and Jim Millan from New York to dance with us. Our President, Mary Martin took a 2 week vacation, she went to the Nationals in Salt Lake City and had a good time, then had another trip to see her grand children.

Bill Cave & Ruth Metts are off again having fun, one going to a wedding, the other to parts unknown. Yours truly and spouse had a fast trip to Las Vegas to see his brother who has been very ill, is much better now. Please remember to come to our beginners class starting September 11 - 3 free nights - eden Rock Park - CHARLIE BROWN caller and teacher.

ELKS'N'DOES...Thank you to all who joined us at our Sparkler special. those who missed have another chance at a festive evening of dancing with us and DAVID PARKER October 12, our 1st Anniversary dance. Back in July, we danced through Alameda on a flatbed truck, in the 4th of July Parade. BEN was a great sport and kept calling in spite of jumping needle and hot wavy records. The Ladies barbecue gave us a chance to dance for Alameda Elk's Lodge and recruit dancers for September's class. The club has grown by several couples, has had many visitors which has made us one couple short of 5 squares. We plan to dance 5th Thursday with other district clubs.

----- DISTRICT VII -----

KEEWAY SWINGERS...Vacation time is upon us once again and many of our club members are away. Clarence & Darlene Furtado are in merry old England, Jerry & Rose DeSimone are spending some time for fun in Reno$$$maybe, Al & Lee Vance went to the Midwest for Lee's 50th High School class reunion. Several couples went to McCloud for a week of square dancing (lots of work but a lot of fun). welcome back John & Marge Riley and Harry & Ruth Jusix. Nice to have you back dancing with us again. some of our RV'ers are going to Felton for a fun weekend dancing on a slab to the calling of our own KIP GARVEY.

FARMERS & FARMERETTES... On August 11 many club members, family & friends joined together in celebrating the marriage of Louise Inman & Dennis Grohnke. the two met while dancing with the FREMONT SINGLES three and a half years ago. Jerry & Donna Janke had a fabulous 5 week vacation cross country and Chuck & Gerry Laughery had a swell vacation to the Midwest. Don Baker our new Pres., backed by Gary Cordano our new Vice Pres., will provide us with great leadership in the next 6 months. We anticipate another great camping trip this month. It's always a pleasure to relax and socialize with club members and their families. In November we have planned an exciting new event -a group trip to the wine country by bus. Jerry & Donna Janke are chairing. Amidst the unusual weather we hope all square dancers had a fun-packed summer!

SWINGING 21ERS... Many members of our club enjoyed the National square Dance Convention in Salt Lake City, Utah and were very proud of the performances of our caller, DOUG DAVIS and our "used-to-be" caller, DAVID PARKER. The entire floor was extremely impressed with both of them. On the 5th Monday in July, we visited the CHECKMATES and enjoyed a good time dancing and snacking with them. We had a big attendance at the Muscular Dystrophy Dance on August 10th at the Newark Pavilion and we thank everybody that contributed door prizes, cookies and time selling tickets. As usual with so many callers and dancers participating it turned out a financial success.

RANCHERO SQUARES... World travelers are Sue & Herman Lafferty in Hawaii for several weeks. Jim & Doris Seaver are back from Nationals in salt Lake plus a family reunion in Washington & brief trip to Victoria BC & Buchart Gardens. Shirley Wiser & Dave Douglass are back from "McCloud Country" where Shirley put together a hilarious skit based on the record "Ghost Riders in the sky". she made all costumes (etc) even cows! Pandemonium reigned on stage & audience - udderly divine! Don & Bertha Stubberfield are entertaining grandchildren for summer. Watch out for TERRY MOSIER, he has a new toy (courtesy Shirley Wiser), a slot machine that squirts! CRICKET says they have gotten a lot of laughs from innocent victims. We are having a graduation for Sunday nite A-1 class into S-2 Monday nite, with a BBQ & pot luck & lots of dancing

- sunday August 4th. We look forward to welcoming these new dancers to the club & the workshop.

KUNTRY KUZINS...with the return of 7 couples, our new caller PAUL COHEN and his partner from Nationals and other members from their vacations we are planning a busy fall. Our new officers are : Pres-Bev & Jim Hicks, VP-Juanita & Rich Wilcoxon, Secs-Marguerite & Don Zolman & Joy & Joe Kish, Treas-Gail & John Spence. We have recently contracted our caller, PAUL COHEN to teach a beginners class and call for us for the next year. In July two squares danced an exhibition at the Newark Library fund raiser and we hosted the 5th Wednesday dance. 27 persons attended the Ohlone College presentation of "Joseph & the amazing Technicolor Dream Coat". Several couples plan to dance at the 49er game, September 8 and we are sending in reservations for the Napa Grape Festival. On the less happy note, Marguerite Zolman & Jim Hicks are both scheduled for surgery in August. we hope by the time we read this that both are well on their way to recovery.

EAGLE SQUARES...Lots of members at National Convention - Wyman Long & Suzie, Fran & Clem Tatro, Dave & Linda Curry & Gene & Joanne Angvick. The Hopsons joined the parade with thousands of dancers. And that was some after party chaired by Bob & Betty Coates. Jeanette M. who was that cop in Wyoming and what was he writing? Welcome home! Currys, Coates, Diers, Furtados, Hopsons, Kleins, Sesses and Tatros all cheered the hero and hissed the villian at the August BBQ, overniter and Melodrama in Drytown. Thanks to Carol & John Furtado for the planning. All that boozing was great fun! Catch you at our whiz ding hoedown September 14...Our sympathy to Diana Wahl on the loss of her Father.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS...The annual American River raft trip was a success. Young Ray Osborne "swam" the trip. The Falke's long trip has been slightly delayed. We're happy, they're sad. The Hill's have been inundated with visitors and enjoying every minute of it. The Elrods, Falkes, Hills and the Lewis' had a wonderful time at McCloud, fishing, dancing, golfing. We welcome the Duke's back, good to see you. Jackie Hardman has been out, she had surgery, we missed her and Jim, but we'll see them soon. We danced to BRONC WISE in San Jose and we danced at the Fair, 2 plus squares, also danced at the Art & Wine Festival, and the Gladioli Festival. Delores Fry had an accident with her finger, evidently shook it a little too hard, wound up in ER and with a splint, that's what you get for competing with Ethel. More about that some other time. we're looking forward to having a September beginners class. Until next month!

DISTRICT VIII

BUZZIN' BOOTS of Marin...summer is over and we're so happy to see our wandering members coming back from all their interesting trips. The Grissoms saw Washington, D>C>, the Taylors went to Ecuador and the Galapagos Islands, and the Richs just stayed in California to backpack. we were saddened to learn of the death of John Egesti in July; our thoughts are with Vi at this time. Others have been in the hospital and we wish them all a speedy recovery. Now we look forward to our annual picnic at the Cheese Factory tentatively scheduled for Sept.15. Good dancing to one and all!

NOVATO SQUARES...Great time was had 7/4; Dean Short entertained at his home in Corte Madera prior to the Parade (at which nine squares danced in the street with ERIC HENERLAU calling.) 7/25 Jane Westerlund chaired our Ice Cream social at workshop; was a true party! Honorary members Ernie & Alve Fingerlos (Tucson, Arizona) paid their annual visit with us. Families visited by Larry & Anita Hendel in St.Louis and John & Jeanette Sanchez in Fresno (some from Hobbs, New Mexico). Marin Foundation beginner class graduated in august; nice to have them dance with us; come often. Our steak fry is 9/8 - call for details. 9/14 - DALE HOUCK will call, san Jose Jr. High school, Novato - come share this wonderful caller.

TAM TWIRLERS...Caller GLEN DICKEY and wife BETTY have returned from a sojourn in Europe and assorted club members are coming or going on exotic vacations. Query; are they exporting square dancing to all these far away places? We hope so!..Newly elected officers are Pres. Merle Growden; Veep. Scott Aster; Treasurer John Abele; secretary Gretchen Marklem; Membership Mildred Elliott; Publicity Jim Miller; NCSDA Rep. ed Elliott; and fun & games Chair. Brad Sayles. Our thanks to BERT SWERER & DOUG SAUNDERS callers while GLEN was away, and our congratulations to members David Rowley and Jerrine Minkus who wed recently in Reno. Upcoming activities include a beginners class starting September 23 at Redwood High School, and a plus level hoedown October 26 at san Jose Junior High in Novato, BRONC WISE calling. Y'all come!

NOVATO STUMP JUMPERS...were entertained by WEST MARIN SQUARES with a pot luck supper and dancing at the Inverness Yacht Club...what wonderful hosts and hostesses they were! Everyone had a great time...thank you. July 26th - 28th was our club's annual trip to DAVE & BUNNY MILANO'S cabin in LaPorte. Fun, comraderie and relaxation was the name of the game with the horseshoe tournament, potluck meals and, of course, square dancing in the park. Jane &

Don Powell spent an A-2 week-end at Asilomar in Monterey. They had a marvelous time dancing with 192 fellow square dancers. welcome back to Vera & Mike russell who were on an extended tour of our great United States.

NOVATO SQUAWS & PAWS... Can you call it killing two hobbies with one stone? Bob & Nettie burton went to Denver for square dancing and to attend the Model Railroad Convention. Kelly & alan Larsen combined work and play on the Rogue river in Oregon. donna & roger Rapport headed to McCloud to hone their dancing skills. roger is noted for his imagination so I'll bet they did more than dance. Patty Wheeler's annual recreation - visitation trips to Hawaii may be drawing to a close as her son and family are heading for his new assignment in Langley, Virginia. The Kjellgrens are traveling crosscountry to help celebrate Betty's Mother's 95th birthday, while here at home, everyone's favorite nonagenarian, Al Levesque, will endeavor to blow out the 95 candles on his cake. Love and best wishes to them both.

DISTRICT IX

CLEARLAKE SQUARES... had a busy spring and early summer, with their annual Pear Blossom Festival held at the Fairgrounds in April, installation of officers in May, and traveling to attend various other clubs; hoedowns. Don & Maryanne Duvarado attended the National in Salt Lake City. Our club caller, CHICK THRASHER, will start a beginners' class September 17th at the Lucerne Senior Center. July's hoedown, with BOB BATTAGLIA calling, was enjoyed by all.

DISTRICT X

LONGHORNS... The 5th Tuesday in July was very enjoyable with other Tuesday night clubs joining us in dancing, cookies and gab. ruth Englefield & Harry Reineke report only fair fishing up near Jackson--they brought home 37 fish! In the unusual job department is Marvel & Harry Emerson and Bev & Bob Andrioso as proctors for state nurses and engineering tests. Sept. 8th will be memorable for the club as we join other Bay Area dancers by dancing at half-time at the Forty-Niners game. Our annual picnic will be Sept. 22nd in Flood Park.

ROADRUNNERS... Our beginners square dance class graduated with "flying colors" and club caller RICHARD MANSFIELD is now introducing them to plus level. Picnic day, June 22nd, was a little different this time - a Brunch with lots of good pancakes, fun and games! July 20th was hoedown time with RICHARD MANSFIELD calling plus level with star tip and rounds by LARRY SEGAL. Another Mystery Trip is planned for early august - destination (?) - more about that later! Club members Joan & al Parris are off on tour to Ireland.

MERRILY FORGET and SIMONGENE PAULOS recently "tied the knot" and club members surprised them with a special Wedding Cake. Congratulations to the newlyweds! Guess that's all for now - hope you'll come join us in a square...

BACHELORS'N'BACHELORETTEs, San Mateo Chapter...We were saddened by the recent death of one of our newer members, Gene Musso. "Good Old Summertime" was the theme in August. The Northern Region B'N'B'S hoedown on the 17th with GARY CARNES calling was "terrific". The next day we all enjoyed the picnic at San Pedro Valley Park in Pacifica. We had a week to recuperate before we were on the Bay enjoying an evening of dinner and dancing. Congratulations and Best Wishes to Rosemary Gerboni & Paul Barker for whom wedding bells are ringing on September 1. We would love to have you join us any Monday evening at the Mainliner Club. JOEL KADISH is our great caller.

RANCHEROS of Redwood City...We are planning our annual picnic to be held at Huddart Park on August 3rd. Plans indicate plenty of food, drink, and games for all to enjoy. Our caller, BEN GOLDBERG, was invited by DON KARR, of Reno, to be their caller for two evenings of square dancing held at Harolds Club Casino, Reno. Several members of our club traveled there to participate in the festivities. The atmosphere was friendly and energetic. Compliments were made to us of how they all enjoyed BEN'S calling and would like to have him back soon. We enjoyed him too! We would like to extend our thanks to the Reno groups for making us feel so comfortable. Thanks all...Bob Formea, a club super "Angel" had a "special birthday". enjoy many more, Bob. There were many couples on vacation during the 4th of July holiday. Phyllis & Ken Beatty traveled to Tujunga (southern California) to spend time with their daughter and family. they enjoyed the 4th of July by attending the parade--a family BBQ and picnic. Dean & Maxine snow are vacationing in Calgary, Canada. they planned to attend the July 4th Stampede and seeing other areas of Canada.

HIGHLAND SWINGERS...Our new officers have taken over. they are: Russell Pollard, President, Vice Pres., John Schwickrath; Treasurer, Jerry Murphy; secretary, Jo See; Membership, Gene Willardsen; Hospitality, Gene & Irene Willardsen; and Jerry & Honey Boyer; Sheriff & sunshine Lady, Hazel Swenson; Publicity, Pat Engman; Delegates, Willie & Evelyn Nelson. We will be starting a newer dancers class on September 5th. If you would like to learn or haven't danced in awhile, and would like to "brush up", come join us. The month of September is free. Many members are still on vacation but should be back and in full swing by Sept. Up coming events we all will be looking forward to are our "Mystery Trip" on Sept.21st; Club mainstream hoedown on Nov.16th and the annual Christmas Dinner Party on Dec.13th.

TWO BY FOURS of Burlingame...Raves galore from our club members who attended the 16th annual Asilomar in July...Festive time last month when we joined clubs of District 10 to square dance at the San Mateo County Fair...Jim & Luci Witherspoon's backyard is the setting for our club picnic in September. Bar-b-cue, hot dogs, pot luck salad, dessert, swimming and dancing are all on the fun agenda...Our "Mystery Trip" in November is still a mystery...we will sponsor a beginners class for adult couples starting tuesday, September 10. Great way to put "pep in your step"...Circle October 5 on your calendars: It's our 27th anniversary hoedown at Burlingame Recreation Center. Square up!

CLODHOPPERS...summer is over...welcome back all members who have been away on vacation or otherwise. Lots of stories were being exchanged about trips to the mountains, the seashore and places in between. square heads Gene Henry & Mary Morris are busy making plans for our Fall Fling Hoedown. Hope to see you there. congratulations: Our own Del & Frances Genest have become District 10 Assistant Directors. We're proud to have these hard working people as club members. In spite of her eye patch, Caroline Reinke was looking good following her eye surgery. Till we meet again, happy trails to you...

NON NCSDA CLUBS

DOLPHIN SQUARES...Our new class members agreed to change the name of the NO NAME AS YET CLUB which meets in Foster City. we had a good turnout for a beginner class. It is for both couples and singles. Party night is the second Monday of each month. Come join the fun! all angels will be greatly appreciated. The new class is doing so well that they will be able to attend the Jubilee, both Friday & Saturday. Oh, what fun they have in store for them. a new class will start on Monday September 9.

SQUARE CIRCLES...welcomed our new board members and said thank you to our outgoing board members at a July Potluck dinner. Thanks went to Don & Kathy Jones(VP) and Ron & Marilyn Griffeath (Treas) for jobs well done. Our new Vice Presidents are Chuck & Ginger Koehler and Treasurers are Rick & Pam Brady. They join our energetic board members Bob & Janie Hussung(Pres and Dennis & Carol Atkinson(Sec). It has been a busy summer, we marched/danced in two parades, danced twice at the Alameda County Fair, and enjoyed hosting a successful hoedown. Plus our club was well represented at the Nationals in Salt Lake City, Utah in June. Join us at our Sept.28 hoedown with NATE BLISS. Just drive to the Camp Parks entrance and follow the signs to the Pavilion. Until we allemande again...

SEBASTOPOL SAUCY SQUARES... On June 3rd our own STEVE MINKIN ran his third marathon race and came out his "personal best". Great running STEVE! The July 20th mystery trip with about forty club members taking off for the evening and ending up dancing with the UKIAH PROMENADERS at their hoedown and all had a wonderful time. July 26th we had some of our dancers square up for a demonstration dance at the Sonoma County Fair in Santa Rosa. What fun! Hopefully we enticed some would-be-dancers to think about joining us for evenings of fun in the fall. Graduation this year for the GREEN APPLES to turn into Red Apples is September 3rd and new beginners classes will start on September 5th. we always look forward to new faces to join the group. wedding bells will be chiming sweetly in October for Connie Freitas & Don Williams. We wish them much happiness. DAVE & HAZEL WISCHEMANN traveling thru Eureka and then to Oregon for a well earned vacation. Also Aurora & John Wagner will be gone a month making the rounds of their families scattered here and there. Hope everyone had a great vacation this year. Keep up the dancing and see you soon!
