In Memory Of
JIM MC DONALD

Jim died in July at the age of 67 of Pulmonary Fibrosis. Jim is survived by his wife Anna, 2 sons and 2 grandchildren. He is also survived by a Navajo young man Herman, who he and Anna have helped for the past 10 years.

Jim was very active in the Square Dance world. He formed the Castro Valley Rebels in 1963 and called for them until 1971.

He took a few years off and later formed the Stars & Bars and the Inbetween Squares and he also called for the Young Rebels.

Many dancers and callers owe their dedication to square dancing to Jim McDonald.

He will be missed by all.

DISTRICT I

S.F. B'N'B'S...Enjoyed the National at Cincinnati, Ohio, the city tours, the river boat dinner rides very much. It is a very clean city and friendly people. Dancing Halls were large. Our motel was in Kentucky and had everything you could want. Peels, food, and fun. But it's nice to be home. Went to the ROAD*RUNNERS to hear KIP GARVEY call a good dance. Enjoyed PIONEER SQUARES, with JIM WYLIE, GEORGE KNOX, DALE HOUCK, GENE MARTINEZ with KEN CROFT on rounds. Our B'N'B REGIONAL DANCE and picnic is coming up. Went to Gilroy garlic festival and ran into many square-dancers there. We all had a "garlicky" good time!!

FORTY NINERS of Daly City... We are very proud that our caller DALE HOUCK was one of the callers who volunteered their services for the July 25 hoedown of the PIONEER SQUARES of San Bruno. Other callers were GEORGE KNOX, JIM WHYLIE, GENE MARTINEZ, and RICH MANSFIELD, with the rounds done by KEN AND

ELENA. During the evening the handicapable PIONEER SQUARES members put on an exhibition that was excellent. This was an enjoyable hoedown for a very good cause. Our club is now looking forward to the picnic on September 19 and our minihoedown on September 24. Traveling members include Bill and Ramona Gauthier to Cheyenne and Salt Lake; Ray and Laura Schnapp to Florida; and Hy and Toni Levin to Banff and Lake Louise on tour.

PIONEER SQUARES... It was a busy July, in spite of vacations. 2 1/2 squares entertained the 4th of July crowd in Foster City. With our families, we enjoyed the barbecue and all the fun right through the big fireworks show. We held our annual spaghetti dinner. Many thanks to our square dance friends who attended. We got to show off our new skirts and vests at our hoedown. Callers JIM WYLIE, RICHARD MANSFIELD, DALE HOUCK, GENE MARTINEZ, GEORGE KNOX, and rounds cuer KEN CROFT with ELENA DE ZORDO kept the 14 or so squares happy. Thank you WHIRL-A- WAYS, for a very nice donation. The next day, several of our members played bocce ball at Festa Italiana and 7 couples provided an exhibition to entertain the crowd.

CAPE CUTTERS...Our member Vangie Kelly, has moved to Monterey, and Lloyd Feder and Barbara Davidson spent a great weekend visiting her; they enjoyed many interesting activities while there. Frank Rodriguez had a good time in Bend and Sisters, Oregon and was challenged by some very good golf courses. Lena Nuccio has returned after a very special three weeks vacationing with her daughter and family in Seattle. A few weeks ago we had the pleasure of eight excellent young square dancers from Hannover, Germany joining us; they were lots of fun. All our members our working very hard to make our beginners' class a huge success. It starts Monday, September 21st, at Robert Louis Stevenson School from 8 to 9:30 p.m. The Teacher/Caller is RICHARD MANSFIELD. The first two sessions for beginners are free.

PAIRS 'N SQUARES...Paul and Jane Hartman are on vacation in Europe, traveling to Ireland and Germany. Speaking of traveling, Elisa Geraldini and her husband must hold the record -- by the end of this year they will have taken over twenty cruises. At the last general meeting we voted to redesign our banner. Hazel

Farrell, Jim McManus and Yvonne Stull were appointed as a committee to have a new banner made. The annual Hawaiian hoedown took place on August 22, with STEVE MINKIN as caller and rounds by BILL AND VIRGINIA CARPENTER. September 24 is the date of the mystery trip this year. Everyone is trying to figure out where and what it will be, but all we know so far is dress casually and wear comfortable shoes. It is time again for the annual picnic, which will take place this year on September 24. It is always a fun day, with cards, games, and of course gourmet food. Evelyn Weih is taking names now for the October golf tournament, so start practicing now. She is also taking reservations for dinner and dancing after the tournament.

DISTRICT II

RIPSNORTERS...July 4th found us dancing on the streets of Corte Madera. Independence day is a day of celebration in Corte Madera with a parade, craft fair in the park and street square dancing under the guidance of caller ERIC HENDERLAU. In the afternoon ERIC invites his club members to his home for a delicious barbecue; an annual event not to be missed.

GUYS AND DOLLS...During the month of June was the National Square Dance Convention in Cincinnati, Ohio. Three couples from our club traveled back to Ohio to attend the convention. The couples names who attended are Tom and Shirley Boyd had very long 4 months vacation travel all the way across the country and had a very wonderful time of it. The other two couples who met in Ohio are John and Joan Sullivan, Tom and Shirley Boyd. During the month of July we had a dinner box picnic the food was great. Everyone had a very good time at dinner.

BUZZIN' CUZZINS...are missing some of their faithful members this summer. Marlene Anderson, our club president, is visiting relatives in the mid-west. We hope to see her back Aug.17. Lois and Ike Rocha are traveling in Mich. and New York area, and wont be back until September. Others are vacationing to "parts unknown." We are wishing everyone a good summer and fun vacations. We'll all be back in Sept. for an exciting year of square dancing. We're looking forward to seeing a lot of new faces at our Beginners' Class, starting Sept. 14. Jeanine, we hope you are feeling better soon. We miss you and Billy! Also, we miss you "Ana and Chin!" Good to see Phil and Jessie back! Happy dancing to ya' all!

CLUCH BUSTER...Our new class will begin Sept.17 and will start at 7pm Thursday on our regular workshop night. This gives our club members a chance to get acquainted and assist our new dancers. The week of July 19th ten couples, the Brys, Ervins, Gregovichs, Giolittis, Lollich's, elder Mohar's, Perrys, Scotts, and Wygales had a fantastic time square dancing at McCloud Dance County to caller MIKE SIKORSKY. The Hermansons also round danced to caller RUSS MATHEWSON. Wonderful cool weather for July! Everyone signed up to return next year. Final plans are being made for our 36th Anniversary Dinner Dance on October 3rd this year at Zio Fredos.

SQUARE WHEELERS...I thought last month was a success but July beats them all...The 4th of July Parade in Danville was not only great fun but we actually won the mayor's choice award! 30 or more dancers participated and DREW ANDERSON our caller led us through horn blasts and crown cheers...Thanks again to the Elliots for the great "After party and Bar-B-Q" at their home in alamo...Then on the 13th, 21 of us traveled all the way up to Petaluma to steal the buckskin from the ADOBE SQUARES....Ina Johnson no sooner added our logo to the buckskin when the ELKS AND DOES from Alameda raided us....Took the buckskin and won our 50-50 to boot.

CATCH ALL 8'S...We've had our share of disabilities this past month and our "cripples corner" is crowded-but everyone is on the mend and hope to have Hannah Schmidt, Jim Gardner, Lois Auble, Ronda Swerer and Marshall Carver dancing again soon. Carol Orelli and Harold Lowe are back somewhat now - Hooray!! At the moment we are all busy packing for our annual campout at Thousand Trails, San Benito on July 31, Aug. 1st and 2nd we have 80 people going now and have lots of hot dogs for Friday nite and 100 pounds of chicken for Sat. nite and then we'll dance to BERT'S calling. Happy camping and dancing.

MARTINEZ SWINGERS...Some of our members haven't done very well this month, our caller and his wife (DICK AND VICKY HENSCHER) both got the chicken pox. We will call them spot and spotty for awhile. Clutzy Marge Smith fell and broke her ankle, Esther Harrison (Our club sweetheart) found out she had a bleeding ulcer, and Evelyn Pasley (Eves Square Dance Apparel) and her son were in a car accident, Thank god everyone is on the mend. Cindy - our special friend and waitress at Carrows where we meet after dancing, won the strawberry festivals, thanks to all the berrys we ate. Our July hoedown was a lot of fun, JOEL KADISH always does a great job, thanks to Linda, Dee and Phillis for our beautiful decorations. The Smiths bought a beautiful new travel trailer, hope them is many happy camping trips. We have had our share of the pits this month, hope it's a bowl of cherries from now on.

CONCORD STOMPERS...Our January beginner class graduated at the end of July with an evening of Square

Dancing and fun following the clubs potluck dinner. Graduates will continue with plus calls on Thursdays in September thru the rest of the year. The sun shone brightly as Terry Hamblin and Nancy Palmer, former officers of the club, exchanged vows on August 1, 1992 at the light house Marina Clubhouse in Isleton. Among the 200 plus guests present were many club members. GARY KENDALL called and we danced the day away. Fabulous food, dynamite dancing - a truly terrific time was had by all. Congratulations Nancy and Terry. The happy couple will honeymoon at Disneyland!

DISTRICT V

MARKWESTERNERS...of Santa Rosa officers for 1992-93 are Pres. Angelo Dotti, Vice Pres. Keith Calden, Secy. Florence Turner and Tres. Loise Dunford. Caller BOB ELLINGS birthday was suitably recognized. Not celebrated was Gene Smiths broken shoulder. Marshall Turner was confined to the Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital following surgery, in July. Mack and Maxine Staley are dancing again after traveling 700 miles by RV to and from North Pole, Alaska and seeing their son and family. They reported the most exciting and beautiful scenery was the 40 miles to Stewart! The Big Bear Glaciers Density created such blueness that it lit up the lake at night! The Roy Generaux family of six and a cat moterhomed to Disneyland! We hope to see you at our 33rd Hawaiian luau, Sept.19.

CIRCLE 'N SQUARES...On June 28th a good time was had by all who attended our family picnic at Rangle Park. Many thanks to our entertainment committee head Jim Paine and his able bodied crew. Our sympathies go to the family of Adeline Smith on her resent passing after a long hard fight with cancer. Her fun loving personality will surely be missed by all of us. Best wishes for a speedy recovery go to Ken Cunningham and Dick Lloyd and Lavada Adams. We hope that they will be back on the dance floor soon. We are looking forward to having a newer dance class beginning September 10th so tell all your friends and will see you there!

DISTRICT VI

SKIRTS AND FLIRTS...We seem to be as busy a group as usual. Joan De Bar and Gussie Weissman planned a silent dessert auction for our monthly party night. Many of our "girls" created some works of art. Lois Blumsack made a hit with Dick Philpot. She set her place with fine china and sterling, lace placemats, crystal glasses, silk flowers, and linen napkins as they enjoyed their tea and coffee cake. Julie Colmenero brought delicious looking brownies and champaign for her partner Chris De Bar. Tom Kolano enjoyed Gussie's fresh strawberry shortcake. Our "social" also netted $91.00 for our treasury. About two squares missed the evening as they were having a ball at McCloud Resort square dancing for the week. On Sat. July 25th our caller BOB ELLING accepted an invitation for two squares to do an exhibition for Pacific Union Bank's picnic at Ounsmir house. Hopefully we've created a little interest to come join are beginners class starting Sept.9 at Corvallis School. Von Savercool attended her 50th reunion of the waves in Anaheim. Von brought June Loud, her bunk-mate from New Hampshire back for a visit. We enjoyed meeting her. Good luck Cheryl Moniz as you re-coop from your hip replacement. Also congratulations to Gigi and Ron Mac Leod on the birth of Pamela. Those square dance dresses just wont look the same without Pamela in them too!

EDEN ROCKERS...Our party nite was a gala affair. It was a Hawaiian theme and the members looked very colorful in their hawaiian attire. The decorations were beautifully --shells, flowers, and leis -- thanks to Jackie Ahrens and her committee. Our guest include ROD AND BONNIE BERTLSHOFER, Bill and Jo Herrold and our callers lovely taw, LINDA. You want a thrill -- Frank and Jean went to Alameda County Fair and ended up in a Bungee cord suspended 130 ft.(13 stories) in a cage, and they jumped out with a cord attached to ankle. Do you dare? They claim it was fun, fun, -- I wonder? Good to have Duane and Marian back dancing after their extended trip through the middle-west states visiting relatives and friends. Remember the date Sept. 19 our 23 Anniversary Hoedown we will be wearing new club outfits. See you all!

THE ELKS AND DOES...On July 10th Roy and Debbie exchanged vows in front of a standing room only crowd of over two hundred Elks, family, and friends. It was a beautiful wedding. Approximately three squares went to the SQUARE WHEELERS in Dublin. We stole the buckskin and a marvelous time. They were wonderful to us. We will have our installation of officers Sept. 11th. July 30th was the fifth Thursday and we visited CASTRO VALLEY REBELS. It is always great fun. We are planning a mystery bus trip Oct. tenth. We are looking forward to our beginner class starting Oct. 1. See ad. Welcome back Helen. Glad Bill is better. Our prayers and best wishes to Bruce and Wayve Lash. Come dance with us!

SAN LORENZO SINGLES...It's been a great summer for us. Everyone seems to be enjoying their vacations. Eddie Beames traveled to Everett Washington to visit his son. Carmen Avilar off to Denver Colorado to attend a friends wedding. And Betty Turner who has been looking forward to retiring has finally done it and she and Kay Erwin were off to the World square convention in the Netherlands. Our annual swim party along with our business meeting was a big success. Its always a fun day with good food and great swimming. Thanks to all that helped with the decorations at the Muscular Dystrophy dance. CATHY VILLA are caller is still on leave enjoying the birth of her first child. See you in the square.

CHECKMATES...It is with much sadness and regret that I start this article to announce the dissolution of the CHECKMATES. Dancing will be our usual party night on Monday August 24. We want to thank everyone that has supported the club over the past 29 years. The club has seen many members come and go and we have one couple that are charter members when the club was organized, Lee and Una Colyer. We hope that most of our members continue to dance with other clubs in the area. We want to say a word of thanks for the continued support of our caller ROD BERTLSHOFER who has been with us for the past 20 years. For some news of our members - Myrna and Jack Stevenson attended Myrna's school reunion in Southern California recently and are now on vacation in Chicago for a week. Lee and Una Colyer leave August 25 for a two week trip to Alaska, Flying and cruising.

C.V. REBELS...If this news is boring it's because we couldn't sober up our regular reporter by deadline time. Ed and Arline celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a very nice, well attended, dinner dance put on by their two daughters. The club members that attended enjoyed celebrating with them. The Collins, Maciels, Freres, Montgomerys and Shirley and David went to McCloud to dance to MIKE SIKORSKY. A good time was had by all! We hosted the fifth Thursday dance in July- it was well attended by the ELKS AND DOES, KEEWAY SWINGERS, SQUARE CIRCLES AND VALLEY TRAVELERS. We all enjoyed the calling of BEN GOLDBERG, KIP GARVEY, TERRY MOSIER, DOUG DAVIS, BOB BUNCH and of course our own WAYNE JANSSEN. We only had one paid caller - BEN - he walked off with the 50/50. The club was greatly saddened by the death of JIM MC DONALD the club founder and long time caller.

DISTRICT VII

EAGLE SQUARES...When this goes to press we should be relocated from Lynnewood United Methodist Church to Camp Parks' Pavilion, and the beginners class started. It's with mixed emotions. We've had some grand times at the church including seeing TERRY MOSIER, our caller, graduate from "Primary Elephant Training." It wasn't really all Patti Hubacher's idea, TERRY, we all had a hand in it. Wow did you look funny. Wyman and Susie Long just returned from a trip to Alaska; say the fog was "just above my head, when we were flying with the "bush pilot." Sure the fog was OVER your head, Wyman? Bob and Betty Coats are also back home, safely. Both groups had lots of interesting experiences to share. Welcome home all!

SWINGING 21ERS...In July eight couples demonstrated square dancing at a day-care center (ages 3 to 5). The kids enjoyed seeing us oldsters twirling around and the men dancers got the young women teachers to dance with them which was a l s o w a t c h e d enthusiastically by the children. Get them interested when very young...is our motto. The club also put on a Western Style Dinner-Dance for the Elks Club including a demonstration of square dancing, after which we pulled out people from the audience to get up and dance with us. Many of them were convinced to attend our class in September for new dancers. (see our ad) Dick and Dolores Mraz donated a bollo and belt buckle set (which Dick made) for a raffle prize. It brought in $209.00 and was won by Cindy Dones which brought on a big "hoot" since her husband, Danny Dones, had chaired the entire evening. So far, Danny hasn't been given the OK for him to wear the prize, since Cindy says she won the prize with HER ticket. If he ends up with it, he will deserve it since he did such a terrific job of chairing the event. The food was great, the band was great and the entire evening was a lot of fun...plus it was a financial success!

KEEWAY SWINGERS...We moved again!! Thanks to Clarence Furtado for obtaining the Veteran's Memorial Hall (Fremont/Niles Dist.)

Cor.E.St. and 2Nd st. Dancing in our new hall with wood floors brought guests in droves. During the summer we will be learning some country western dances and workshoping some of the more difficult plus calls. Our caller KIP GARVEY presented a plaque (the first of it's kind) to Ron and Flo Paven for their many years of giving of their time and energy to helping the club in all areas. Congratulations, a well deserved honor. Resent grad Jerry Sumner hurt his shoulder at work and is having surgery. Best wishes for a speedy recovery. Were looking forward to our 26th Anniv. hoedown on Oct.24th. Happy dancing.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS...Well it's time again for the Beginner classes to start. We are hard at work recruiting new people to dance with. Our class will start on Sept.15 7pm. We will be dancing at Centerville Jr. High school on Fremont Blvd. We have had a very busy summer, with dancing at the Santa Clara County Fair, our club picnic in August, going to hoedowns all over the area. Some of our people have decided to travel to the east coast to see the fall colors. We wish them a safe trip there and home again.

RANCHERO SQUARES...Our a-1 class is coming along well and we are looking forward to some of them joining the monday night a-2 club. Our anniversary hoedown was very well attended and enjoyed. thanks to TERRY AND BEN for a great job calling. In August we will have our annual BBQ and in September a special Sunday night dance.(please see our ad for details) If you've been thinking about learning a-1, come join us on Sunday nights starting Sept.20th. See you in a square soon.

PLEASANTON SINGLES...Our club members that went to the firecrackers dance had a great time. JOEL AND TERRY AND THE GHOSTRIDERS did an excellent job as usual. We danced at the county fair for 2 Tuesday nights and passed out lots of flyers for our beginner class in September. Also in July, our own KEN took a much needed vacation so our club went and visited the TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS and enjoyed the calling of JIM OSBORNE. As July ends, August promises to be a very busy month. We are making plans for every weekend, including our own ice-cream social hoedown on the 4th Saturday. Be sure to join us. Hugs to all...

F A R M E R S A N D FARMERETTES...Our beginners class begins on September 9th, please see ad for more information. Our July 3rd Hoedown turned out to be a great success, the hall was really packed. We also would like to thank all of you dancers who supported our fireworks booth. Don and Ruthann Baker and Gary and Linda Cordano (chairmen) did a fantastic job organizing the booth. A great BIG thanks to them and all the club members who worked so hard to help us have another successful year. Happy Birthday to: Chuck Laughery-4th, Barry Patton-16th, Myrna Patton-17th, Grace England-27th, and Richard Haire-30th. Happy anniversary to: Barry and Myrna-15th.

DISTRICT VIII

BUZZIN' BOOTS...of Marin County have a unique group. With DAVE HOBAUGH'S a great calling, we can keep a big group dancing every Friday night and still have members traveling everywhere. Larry and Diane Rich will travel to both sets of parents 50th anniversaries, Larry's parents in Michigan, and Diane's in Maryland. Ek and Nancy Mahl will also travel to Michigan to Nancy's 40th High School reunion, then on to D.C. and Pennsylvania Dutch country. Carol and Don Woford are off to Lake Tahoe, Seattle, and Canada in September. The ever traveling Sorensens are planning their next trip of hiking in Bulgaria and Hungary along with the Yugoslavian border. Our president, Trudy Wendt will travel to London, Paris, Greece, and the Mediterranean. Our beloved round dance cuer, JOHN RETTER, will be celebrating his 80th birthday. JOHN is inviting everyone to a dance on September 20th from

1-5p.m. at the Petaluma Veteran's Memorial. DAVE HOBAUGH will be calling, JOHN doing the rounds. He hopes for other cuers from the floor. Please come to help JOHN celebrate.

DISTRICT IX

CLEARLAKE SQUARES...Our new officers for the year 1992-93 were elected as follows: Charles Stocker, President; Bill Ellis, Vice-President; Irma Tebbe, Secretary; Helen Rolly, Treasurer; and Mike and Betty Chirco, NCSDA Delegates. We're looking forward to another great year of fun! Past President and long time member Edwina Lautsch decided to move to Plano, Texas where her son and her family lives. She was given a very nice going-away party on Tuesday, July 7. We will miss her and we wish her well. Edwina asks that all friends visit when in the Dallas area. On July 23 we attended a "party night" hosted by the KONOCTI KICKERS. Our joint get-togethers are always well enjoyed. It was a red-light green-light dance so the "about to be graduated" beginner's class could also participate. Our caller VANYA LEIGHTON will call for us at that time. On Saturday, September 26 our hoe-down will feature DAVE PARKER as caller and ANN PISTOLE for rounds. Come visit with us and Happy Squares!

DISTRICT X

HIGHLAND SWINGERS...Here we go again, more fun activities. We had a wonderful time and a lovely dinner at Russ and Norma's as we installed our new officers. Congratulations to all of these charming people. The summer vacationers are Bunny and Cliff, Pat and Jay, with Willie and Evelyn stomping through the North Country , and Mary Ellen and Jerry accompanying their daughter and her two children home to Naples. Edie's business takes her to San Antonio. Hal's son visited from Las Vegas. Congratulations to Honey's mom who celebrated her 100th birthday. Gene and Irene hosted a family reunion while Cub and Vida are off to one in Utah. Joe and Maxine came one night sporting a new camper. Ann needed a new roof so received help from family and friends. There high up is Hans painting his house. Freida cracked her knee cap. We are sorry to hear of your injury, Freida and miss you. Lolly was bitten by a spider. All sorts of bad luck to that spider. Edie, our new sheriff is keeping her eyes on our badges. Val and Tom are watching the whales as they pass our shores.

BACHELORS 'N' BACHELORETTEES, There was swimming, water skiing, barbecue and lots of FUN for everyone. Thanks, WAYNE for arranging the "fantastic" mystery trip to the Stockton Delta. our "Christmas in July Hoedown" was a huge success and the Children's Fund of San Mateo County will be a little bit richer, Thanks to all of you who attended. Weren't those callers great? "Thank You", RICHARD MANSFIELD and DOUG DAVIS and JOHN FLORA on the rounds. Some of us participated in a square dance exhibition for "shut in" Seniors at a picnic in their honor, sponsored by the Assistance League of San Mateo. Our leaders for the next Six months are: President, Gerry Moore; Vice President, Ray Huffman; Treasurer, Shirley Smith; and Secretary, Barbara Paquette. To our retiring president, Wayne McNeal and Vice president, Edith Sofos, "Thank you for a job well done!" See you on Monday at the Mainliner Club.

RANCHEROS... New officers for 1992 are president, Darrell Hanson; Vice President, Ken Beatty; Secretary, Marilyn Shappert; Treasurer, Maxine Snow; Publicist, Evelyn Hanson. We want to thank the CLODHOOPPERS for coming by in June to dance and we join them on July 29 for an evening of fun. We also extend our deepest sympathy to Emily Kramer at the resent passing of her husband in June. We wish a speedy recovery to Sis Torres, Cyril McCann and Isabel Lencioni from knee surgery and hope you all will be back dancing with us soon. Marilyn Schappert had a lovely 14 day cruise to Alaska in July. We had 20 people go on Aug.11 to dance at the San Mateo Fair.

TWO BY FOURS... Action Galore in July! Added another year to our "Fireworks badge" when attending the FARMERS AND FARMERETTES' firecracker hoedown. The evening was a "blast"... Our club presidents, Jim and Luci Witherspoon enjoyed a visit from Jim's sister, Cynthia, who came all the way from Kentucky... We had a "merry" time at the S.M. BACHELORS
