DISTRICT I

BACHELOR & BACHELORETTES

...Went to TWO BY FOURS spaghetti dinner and dance. There were many kinds of spaghetti; (and I tried them all) also green salad and cookies. It was all delicious, and we had a lot of fun!! TERRY MOSIER was the caller, as JOEL KADISH had surgery, but is doing fine, was a great dance. It has been Xmas parties and pot lucks. Went to SAN MATEO B'N'B'S Xmas dinner and dance, with JOEL KADISH calling a great dance. We had our Xmas pot luck and dance, many thanks to our great cooks, many friends that joined in the fun. That made it a big success. GEORGE KNOX and his lovely wife LINDA, came and GEORGE also called with our JIM, it was a wonderful Xmas dance. JIM called for the CAPER CUTTERS, KEN CROFT did the rounds and also the western line dances after. Hope you all have a Happy New Year, and see you in a square in 1994.

CABLE CAR SQUARES...are well launched into 1994, but their thoughts are still drifting back to last years "Marie's Maneuver" just before xmas that took the club members with their guests and friends on a Christmas tour of the City by chartered bus (motor coach, that is), starting with dinner at the Hyatt Hotel looking down at the decorated Union Square. There was time to "stroll" the nearby stores before piling onto the bus to visit Nob Hill and ascend the tower elevator for a view of the City before again boarding the bus for a stop at the seasonal ice skating rink at the Ferry building. The climax of the evening came after we drove by a star-studded homes of Brisbane (a Basque tradition) to the double cul-de-sac in south San Francisco that has attracted nationwide attention for having every house (but two) lavishly decorated with lights, figures, and displays. A really nice Christmas experience. Thanks Marie.

CAPER CUTTERS...It is February already and activities are starting to pick up again. Several couples in our club are looking forward to a lot of fun dancing at Asilomar. Not only is the dancing great, but the setting in Pacific Grove is so beautiful with the lovely trees, beautiful Pacific Ocean and gentle deer roaming the grounds. This month we are installing our new officers at a dinner dance at the Elks Club in South San Francisco. The members are happy that Paul Hungerford is back dancing with us again. We love visitors, come dance with us any Monday night.

FORTY NINERS of Daly City...Our Christmas party is now but a happy memory of a good time had by all thanks to the efforts of Chairmen Laura & Ray Schnapp. With all our members there and several former members and many of our regular Thursday night visitors joining us, we had over 50 in attendance. What a gala affair from the festively decorated tables, catered turkey dinner, Santa and Mrs. Santa (Jim & Donna Triggas) with gifts for all, to the entertainment provided by the club members: a Christmas reading by Janice McCraney, Jim McCraney and his lip-sinc singers, Mary Beraldo's puppets and longtime favorite singers Kathy Repp and Larry Anderson ably accompanied on the keyboard by Gil Repp. Didn't know we has so much talent in our group.

LEVIS & LACES...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

PAIRS 'N SPARES...Outgoing officers: President, Marvin Fairbanks; Vice-Presidents, Phyllis Persau & Val Calloni; Coordinator, Fran Duval; Secretary, Marlin Hummel; Treasurer, Lee Altman; Friendship, Hazel Farrell; Publicity, Margaret Anne Kerns; and Delegates, Marge & Bob Valdez were feted at the outgoing board dinner at the Basque Cultural Center in January. New board members include: President, no one at this time; Vice-President, Ken Darida; Coordinator, Gabe Persau; Treasurer, Lee altman; Secretary, Margaret Anne Kerns; Friendship, Hazel Farrell; Publicity, Marlin Hummel; and Marge & Bob Valdez as representatives to the NCSDA. Al & Val Calloni celebrate 50 years of marriage in January 1994. The Calloni children surprised them with a wonderful anniversary party. Gabe & Phyllis Persau took a trip to the East Coast, particularly to St. Augustine, Florida, the oldest U.S. City. Congratulations to JOEL KADISH who again was voted as one of the Top Ten best callers. But we knew that already. A group of club members was seen romping around Asilomar. Some of them include Helen & John Persic, Marge & Bob Valdez, and Evelyn & Frank Buhagiar. Ann Piombo was seen recently meeting Helen & John at the San Bruno train station. She came down from San Francisco to have lunch with them.

PIONEERS SQUARES...Thanks to Dee Murphy of the ROADRUNNERS and the Retired Employees of United Air Lines for a very generous Christmas gift to our dancers. Our Christmas party was well attended. Family members and dancer friends joined us to eat, drink and make merry. We'll not meet again until January. A beginner class will open up after things settle down again. Developmentally disabled guys and gals over 16 are invited to call Margaret at 776-1459 or Arky at 469-9805 for more information. We wish everyone a happy and healthy 1994.

ANTIOCH AMBLERS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

BRONCBUSTERS...NONO NEWS THIS MONTH.

BUZZIN CUZZINS...We had a great hoedown on Dec.13th. Our very own MIKE AMELL did a fantastic job of yodeling and calling. BERT SWERER also joined us, and did a super job. DELTA SQUARES came all the way from Oakley. Weathered the cold and rain. They won the coffee for the most people. Thank you for your support. Some of our former club members joined us, as well as members from CONCORD STOMPERS, MARTINEZ SWINGERS, DIABLO SINGLES & CATCH

ALL EIGHTS. So good to see you, and dance with you. Hope everyone had a wonderful Christmas & that 1994 will be a good year for all.

CATCH ALL EIGHTS...Don't forget our annual St.Patrick's hoedown March 20, Juan Crespi Jr. High School. (See ad). We meet on Tuesday nights from 7 to 10 pm, red-light..green-light. Everyone is welcome.

CLUTCH BUSTERS...Are going into our 38th year with the election of new officers for 1994. Our new president couple is Mitchell/Coultas. We hosted the JACKS 'N JENNYS at our annual Christmas party of sweet snacks, punch, songs, skits and Santa's gift presentation. Club couples use this party occasion for annual food basket collection. This year has been a special success for our collected items, fellowship and good cheer.

CONCORD STOMPERS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

DELTA SQUARES...Anniversary? It's ours! We are one year proud! We wish to invite all Plus dancers to join us for a gala celebration of our first anniversary. When? Saturday, February 12th, 8 to 11pm. where? Lauarel School on Laurel Road in Oakley. Who? All of you--all of us-- BEN GOLDBERG & MIKE AMELL. See our ad for more details. December we collected a van full of toys for youngsters in East County, had a wonderful party night and wished the following dancers Happy Birthday; Bill P., Wes H., Julie W., Floyd (Christmas Day), Amanda, Carol H. and Charles. Happy anniversary to Scott & Sherri, Helen & Daniel and Tak & June. We welcomed home Scott, Sherri, Jolene & Dale from Hawaii and Tak & June from Japan. December was definitely a month for celebration. Although, our thoughts were with MIKE AMELL and Carol F. as they lost loved ones. January we saw the "changing of the guard" and welcomed the new board to their ideas and duties. February, our emphasis is on our Anniversary dance and dancing with all our friends everywhere.

DIABLO SINGLES...During the month of January we hosted Winter Wonderland. All who attended this beginner dance had a marvelous time. Our own BERT SWERER was the caller. Our newer dancers are progressing rapidly. We are learning some of the more popular Western Line dances between square dance tips. Many club members attended the New Year's Eve dance at Camp Parks. At the stroke of midnight, many celebrated with a glass of champagne, and a kiss. Another dance attended by many of our group was the NCSDA dance in Richmond. We all enjoyed dancing to the Top Ten callers of 1993. The Superbowl pot luck at Mike Bath's house was great fun. We spent the evening playing games and singing songs around the player piano. PS, Ralph & Laurie say Hi!

GUYS & DOLLS...The Christmas party in mid-December was a real gala affair; we even did some line dancing. After all the holiday festivities we felt it appropriate to cool off (?) with a chili pot luck in mid-January. Our caller, MIKE WRIGHT, took some time off around the holidays and ROGER LONEY came to keep us working and laughing. We are still trying to get a consensus on whether to include Country Western dancing in our workshops, and still trying to get a consensus on a new club outfit--these may take a while! It feels good to be back at our regular hall, dancing A-1 and learning A-2 on a weekly basis.

JACKS'N JENNYS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

LAFAYETTE ESCADRILLES...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

MARTINEZ SWINGERS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

RIPSNORTERS...We have a busy month in February. Feb.3 is our party night - we wear our special club outfits and munch cookies as we dance. On Feb.10, we all wear red and our "hearty" caller, ERIC HENERLAU, will call a special Valentine tip. Feb.26 presents a mystery for us all - where will we go to dance that Saturday night, how we will get there, and if we will stop to eat first, are still a mystery to all of us except our mystery night leader (who is also a mystery.) Elementary, my dear Watson!

OLD CAPITOL SQUARES...The year of 1993 was a good one for our club and we hope it was for you too. We ended the year on a happy note with a Christmas party. There were lots of goodies and a funny gift exchange with white elephant gifts. On a serious note we gave a donation to the Benicia Community Action Council to help some needy people have a better Christmas. Now we are looking forward to 1994. The new year should see the start of our new beginner class. If you know of anybody who would like to learn to square dance please tell them about DOROTHY PEELER'S class. DOROTHY is an excellent teacher and makes learning fun. We wish you all a Happy, Healthy New Year.

ADOBE SQUARES...Hope a lovely 1993 Holiday season was celebrated by you and yours. The beginning of 1994 causes us to look forward to the coming year with anticipation to having fun dancing and doing the other activities that go along with making square dancing such a great hobby. In the meantime, our club had a great turn out for the NCSDA anniversary dance on January 9. We are anticipating going to reclaim the new NCSDA Buckskin shortly. If your club has it, look for us. Our 23rd Anniversary dance with DAVE HOBAUGH & THE GHOST RIDERS should be a great dance. Please plan to join us for the evening if you can. Club travel plans for the year are beginning to take shape. In addition to the National Convention in Portland, we're working on getting a group of our dancers organized to attend several festivals before then--for practice, you know! (Practice doing what, you ask. Come and visit our club camping area during any of the festivals that we attend and we'll show you, what!) See you in a square, soon!

CIRCLES'N SQUARES...December proved to be another busy month for our members. Many thanks to our entertainment committee for our excellent Christmas party held at La Grande's. DICK HOULTON & JOHN RETTER did an excellent job of keeping us hopping at our Christmas hoedown. ROGER & PEGGY recently took the newest member of their family, Rachel, back to Georgia to meet her grandparents and be baptized. A good time was had by all who attended our annual Christmas pot luck. Many thanks to Betty Murray and her committee for a job well done. Come join us on February 12th for an evening with KIP GARVEY & LARRY WILLIAMS.

HEALDSBURG COUNTRY DANCERS ...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

MARKWESTERNERS...We still miss JOHN RETTER who is recuperating at Clearlake and Calistoga. Glad to have John & Carolyn Lerch back dancing again after a heel shattering experience, we missed his smiling face and happy style of dancing. Roy Genereaux was also absent because of a leg injury. Doris Smith had a renewal of her 29th Birthday and we all celebrated it with a delicious Birthday cake provided by her husband Gene. We had a delightful Christmas dinner with two turkeys cooked by Florence Turner and Emmett Blincoe and beautifully carved by Gene Smith. Wonderful pot luck dishes were brought by our guests. There were almost 50 people there. The dinner was marvelous and we all enjoyed dancing afterwards.

SINGLES & PAIRS...Now that the Holidays are over, it's time to get back to attending Wed's workshop and work off that weight we gained. Our Christmas party was well attended. We were entertained by the Classy Lassie's line dance group. A very good time was had by all. Our hearts and prayers go out to one of our members who has been ill for some time. Hurry back Richard Dangerfield. Looking forward to our Feb. 19th hoedown with JOE SALTEL calling and DAVE DEHERDER on rounds. See everyone there.

DISTRICT VI

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS...In addition to our annual Christmas party/pot luck complete with Santa and his charming family, we also had a very successful beginner hoedown with a great after party at the beautifully decorated home of Pat & Dale. Our December board meeting which was traditionally hosted by George & Mildred Nilsson was held in spite of Mildred's death in November. George decided that Mildred would have wanted the tradition to continue and while her physical absence was felt, her spirit was certainly present in all the Christmas activities she was so fond of. You would think that the serenity of the holy holiday season would somewhat curtail the tom foolery of the hooligans that roam the square dance halls. Not so - LA WAYNE and his beautiful car were again the target of a vicious deed directed by one of these evil doers. Would riding a bicycle improve LA WAYNE'S record?

EDEN ROCKERS...Wish to extend a very happy new year to the member square dance clubs & the Square Dance Where editors. Many of our members attended some of the square dances in the area and came back with very positive reports. Carolina Glatt, our President, hosted a board meeting and a Christmas dinner celebration which was a delight to all who attended. Our annual Christmas party of turkey and all the trimmings, cooked by Brad Clark, and attended by 47 guests was a great success. We wish to extend our sympathy to Beverly Johnson upon the death of her husband. We held a raffle of $100.00 bill and that was a success. On the 29th most of the club members gathered at Bob Lochner's home to celebrate with food and good cheer and then spend an evening of square dancing at Eden Roc. It was fun - Happy New Year to all.

ELKS 'N' DOES...December was an eventful month for us. A wonderful Christmas dinner dance with old friends, current members and newer dancers was held mid month. Lots of Holiday decorations, a yummy turkey cooked and carved by our caller, BEN GOLDBERG, a specialty dishes brought by the dancers made a very festive evening. A canned goods drive was a nice way for our club to share our good fortune with others. Our caller, BEN GOLDBERG, certainly gets everyone out and enjoying themselves. Beginner hoedowns are so full of energy and enthusiasm - thanks to all for making our 3rd annual hoedown such a great event! A bunch of us joined the CLEARLAKE SQUARES at their New Years Eve dinner dance. The Buchanans, Happs, GOLDBERGS, Learn/Rockwell, Schleth/Steinbeck, Sue Farland (visiting family in the area) and Stevens/Hallenbeck danced till past midnight and with a whoop and hotter put 1993 to rest.

Happy 1994.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS...As usual our club had a great Holiday celebration with a pot luck and gift exchange. Santa and Mrs (Pete & Sam) were on hand to give out the presents, leaving their reindeer on the roof tapping to BOB'S calling. Joan Debar made and decorated a tall wooden Rudolph, tole painted and complete with a red fluffy nose. She donated this for a raffle, the money for the club activity fund. The writer won this beautiful reindeer and thoroughly enjoyed having it adorn their family room. Thank you Joan. Gussie Weissman had an endless supply of beautiful, hand-made angels available for purchase. They were beautifully dressed and brightened up our table and hall while they were displayed. We have many talented people in our club and appreciate them sharing these talents with us. Last month Guy & Rickie Wright returned from a visit with Guy's parents in tow. Guy's dad is a caller in New Mexico, and he joined with BOB on a couple of calls, and did a call or two of his own. Square dancers are very resourceful? True. When you attend a hoedown (TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS) and the lights blow out because of a neighboring transformer going down, they just keep on dancing, thanks to a generator that appeared out of nowhere and kept the records playing, and the caller calling. Camp lanterns were brought in to give some lighting to the hall and the eating area. Later some large lights, resembling those used by Cal-Trans (not so bright, though), appeared on stage and everyone enjoyed the romance of dancing in the semi-dark. It was a great hoedown, everyone had a terrific time. If you're not much of a hoedown goer, try to attend a few in 1994. It is a great way to support other clubs, and a night of fun dancing, and meeting new people. A Happy, Healthy, Safe Holiday season, and 1994.

SOLOS 'N PAIRS... January found many members of our club enthusiastically returning to weekly dancing after the holiday hiatus. Quite a number of us attended the NCSDA Anniversary dance and a group dinner afterwards. January also was the month when we put out the welcome mat to a host of prospective square dancers who joined our beginners class. By the way, a special thank you to the "angels" who regularly show up for the beginner workshops. Our caller, BOB BUNCH, serves as instructor and his charming wife, MARY, teaches round and line dancing. Mid-month saw the membership gathered at the home of Carmen Avelar for a monthly meeting and the pot luck that followed. Many put new year diet resolutions aside in order to enjoy the delicious dishes that are standard fare at our pot lucks. We welcome drop-ins at our Tuesday plus-level workshops. Keep coming!

...You didn't read about us last month because your correspondent didn't recover in time from Thanksgiving! We were a bit laid back during January and danced on our regular Wednesday nights and extended birthday and anniversary greetings to several of our members.

Many of us attended the top Ten Callers NCSDA dance at the Richmond Auditorium on January 9th and were pleased to find our own JOEL KADISH among the top ten. We will be changing our officers on February 8th and welcoming our new board. Leon Fitch will be the new President taking over from Red Collins. Thank you, Red, for a job well done. Best wishes to Leon for a good term! You know you have our full support! this will be my last item as your publicity person for our club. I have enjoyed being your correspondent and know you will welcome Marty Stanley back. she did a great job for me while Bob & I were traveling last spring and summer.

KEEWAY SWINGERS... December has been an active month. We had our annual Christmas dinner at Cattlemans Restaurant this year. It was fun to socialize with friends and also the new dancers who attended. A beautiful vase was presented to PAT & KIP GARVEY. Our club night Christmas party was fun and exciting especially for the children because of the presents given to them by Santa, played by Chuck Hernandez. We had an extra dance called by Michael Kanberg, who did very well and has a talent for becoming a good caller. He is the son of Chris & John Kanberg. Everyone enjoyed the delicious goodies, the dancing and the evening. The new dancers are doing very well and getting better each week. We hope to see a lot of new dancers at our new dancers hoedown on Friday, March 18, at Walters Jr. High School, called by KIP GARVEY.

SWINGING 21ERS...had a lovely Christmas party. Thanks to Maxine Dringenburg with her husband Bob. It was nice to see Ken & Jan Carlson, Lis Carter, Wanda & Ian Lanouette, Lino & Carol Marques also at the Christmas party. thanks to the 1993 board Presidents Herman & Sue Lafferty, Vice Presidents Al Oates & Cheryl Cavanaugh, Treasurers Wayne & Eleanor Contrell, Secretary Ernie & Pete Giovacchini, Delegates to the NCSDA Richard & Naomi Seufferer for their hard work and efforts toward the betterment of the club. We were happy to be able to donate $500.00 to the Elks Project to Aid Handicap Children. Come and join us for the Charity dance at the Fremont Elks Lodge, 38991 Farwell Drive, Fremont on February 23rd, 8 to 11. This money goes toward the same project.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS...The new year was off to a bang up start. Several couples danced the new year away with our illustrious caller JIM OSBORNE, then turned around to dance the "running bear" dance with our San Jose sister club THE GADABOUTS. A great time was had by all. As you know, our December hoedown with BRONC WISE turned out to be a black out party. The electricity failed us, but through the good offices of Dave Hobbs, we got a generator going and had stage lights and music. In spite of the inconvenience, only two people left, everyone else stayed and we had a wonderful time. We certainly thank BRONC & CHUCK HURST for hanging in there, we danced until 11:30 and then a star tip was called. Thank you all for staying and making it an unusual but wonderful evening. We danced & had a wonderful pot luck with the KUNTRY KUZINS. we also danced with the new San Lorenzo Club. The club sponsored a needy family for Christmas, and we are proud of the response, not only from club members, but our neighbors, friends and relatives. The family was overwhelmed with the gifts of food, clothing, and toys. Seven children had a warm and wonderful Christmas. The club held it's annual potluck and gift exchange, a fun and funny evening. January had new officers taking over. Jack & Peggy Bribes, Presidents; Dave & Mary Hobbs, Vice-Presidents; Rich & Mary Bean, Treasurers; Bill & Bev Elrod, Secretary; Stan & Ethel Hill, Delegates; Jim & Maxine Lewis, Activities Chairpersons. We all thank past officers, Joe & Ina Linderman, Jack & Dee Maguire, P.J. & Donna Bodnar for all their hard work, it's their turn to sit back (just a little). The Beans' were coaxed into extending their services for another year. Gene Lemos has under gone a little foot & leg surgery and is doing well, hurry back, we miss you. Dave Hobbs gave us a little scare going into emergency one evening, but he's also all right. And we welcome back with great delight Gene & Delores Fry. Seems like they were gone forever. They say only 6 months plus. It seemed longer. Beginning February 1st we will be holding a brush-up class for former square dancers who wish to get started again. It will be held Tuesdays from 7:30 until 10pm at the Washington Township country Club on Parrish in Fremont. Several club members are planning to go to the National Convention in Portland this coming June. Come and join the caravan. Hope you had a Merry Christmas and a wonderful New Year's Eve. And to all a great and Happy New Year. Again, thank all of you plucky dancers who stayed for the great blackout party. And a special thanks goes to BRONC WISE

& CHUCK & SHIRLEY HURST. You were wonderful.

VALLEY TRAVELERS... annual Christmas party was a huge success. The club presented caller DOUG DAVIS with a huge band-aid. So the next time you see DOUG ask him what the band-aid was to be used for!! That's a gotcha... The plans for the bunco party are moving right ahead. It's always a fun time. All beginners are welcome to our beginners dance on February 4th. See you all at Camp Parks. Don't forget our March 19th dance at Camp Parks with JOE KULA & KEN MULLIGAN doing rounds.

BUZZIN' BOOTS... Wish each of you and your loved ones a very happy and healthy new year. we wish you lots of dancing and good times with your friends. Square dancing is an important part of our lives and brings so much pleasure to so many of us. We celebrated the holiday in grand style with our 6th annual dinner dance at Dominic's. The honored guest was Nick Nicholson, celebrating his 90th birthday. Nick and his lovely wife Ollie are an inspiration to the entire club. They attend all the parties, dance every Friday night, keep up on everything that's going on. They were serenaded by the Tacaloma Power Mower racing Team Barbershop Quartet. It added delightful musical portion to our lovely evening. Many former members who now live out of the area came back to be with us and share the holiday spirit. It was wonderful to see Jeanie Grass again, of course still looking as cute as a button. Many members will be together on New Years Eve at a dinner dance held by the local rod & Gun Club. We'll have a bit of square dancing and a line dance or two along with the ballroom dancing provided by the orchestra. Please join us any Friday night at Hamilton School. We'll be happy to see you.

NOVATO SIDEKICKS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

NOVATO SQUARES... To liven up February, we are having an Ice Cream Social put on by our club for the members. All our members participated in a canned food collection for the needy, it was a very rewarding activity and was much appreciated. Many of us go to Richmond to the anniversary dance and then out to dinner afterwards. we are delighted with several new members in our club, and we enjoy having guests, so come join us.

NOVATO STUMP JUMPERS... We capped off a successful year with our Christmas party on December 11. About 110 were in attendance. The party was hosted by Joe & Marian Herrera, Len & Shirley Genetin and Kay Castle. Plenty of delicious food, punch, hot cider and stronger "stuff" for the tame of heart. Many amateurs got their chance to call and all of them did a fine job, maybe the best we have ever had. Our club caller, DAVE MILANO kept the dancing moving nicely. Karen Ilich decorated the hall beautifully. Don & Jane Powell spent a week in Mexico with over 400 other square dancers - hope they didn't drink the water! Bernice Rueger is spending Christmas with her daughter and 3 grandchildren in Woodbridge, Virginia.

TAMTWIRLERS... Our beginners class under the expert tutelage of GLEN DICKEY is coming along in fine shape. It meets at our regular place at Redwood High School in Corte Madera. ERIC HENERLAU, our new caller, is sharpening our ability to respond to different ways of calling. This is a challenge that keeps life interesting in the square dance arena. The Christmas party at Deer Park Villa attracted a good crowd and no complaints were heard. Most all showed that they weren't limited to square dance skills as they danced fox trots, bossa novas, cha chas and what have you to the music of Rod Roberts and his Jazz A'Plenty trio.

CLODHOPPERS...After the hubbub of the Holidays, all of us are looking forward to getting back on schedule. Our best wishes for a Healthy, Happy, Prosperous and Safe New Year. Joe & Jean Nourty spent a month traveling to as far as Australia. They had many wonderful tales to tell. Having arrived and departed 7 different airports, they found each one quite interesting. We extend our deepest sympathy to Joe at the loss of his brother just before Christmas. Our annual Christmas dinner party at the Villa was the best so far. Lee Ralston and his committee did a great job of coordinating the evening and seeing to it that we had a great time. What a wonderful time we had visiting with our guests who are former members of the club. Not only did we have our own WAYNE JANSSEN entertaining us with music during the dinner and calling for our pleasure, he introduced two great callers. DALE HOUCK & GEORGE DRIER favored us with a singing tip. They are the best "duet" around. Thanks to both of you and to WAYNE for a great dance. Our compliments to the Villa and it's Chef and Staff for a super delicious dinner. See you across the square...Keep Smiling...!

HIGHLAND SWINGERS...With a couple of dark nights in Dec., we're moving into the new year very slowly, so not too much news this time. Russ & Norma went back East over the holidays and are back in full swing with us again. Gene & Irene are expecting their second grandchild, so by now they should be or are baby sitting. Jerry is sporting a new look and "Mother Nature" is helping him out with a beard. Looks good on him. Bill & Grace celebrated their wedding anniversary with us out on the dance floor. Good to see Virginia with us again, after having all that trouble with her car. Sure miss seeing Cliff & Bunny, hope Cliff is on his feet again soon. We hope to see a lot of each other this coming year and so until next month, keep square dancing.

ISLAND SQUARES...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

LONGHORNS...Happy New Year to all! We're looking forward to the Anniversary dance on January 9th. Our caller DOUG, was voted in as one of the 10 top callers. We had a great turnout at our Christmas party. Helen Stewart, as chairwomen and cook along with Margaret Davoli prepared a delicious meal. We collected several boxes of food items for the hungry. Club members who belong to the Belmont Trailer Club enjoyed their annual Christmas party at the Ramada in San Francisco. Ginny & Ray Cushman spent Christmas with their daughter in Atlanta. Cleo & Henry Manning will visit Uruguay in January. Cleo is studying Spanish in preparation for their visit to a cousin who resides there. Helen & Jim Stewart will take a cruise to the Panama Canal in February. Bill Roodhouse made another trip to Las Vegas to visit daughter and twin grandchildren.

RANCHEROS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

ROADRUNNERS...For ten years RON LIBBY has called a Tuesday night hoe-down for our club, making the long trip from cold, snowy Maine. This year he will call for sure, but will come tanned by way of ports of call in Mexico. Also on the cruise were club members, Lynne & Archie Schmitt and Al & Joan Perris. Hoping Jo Conry, whose back has not been up to par, will be back in time for the great dance...LARRY SEGAL will be joining RON, doing the rounds. Didn't believe it could be done 'ti I saw it with my own eyes. Ray James and Wendy Jean Iannico learned A-1 by just watching tapes! Thank you, Hans Nielsen for wiring our New Year's Eve party. If you are worrying about a bum resolution, wait for next year and move on to consider new festive events. Don't miss a chance to come by for Happy Valentines.

SAN MATEO B'N'B'S...With the holidays behind us, we are looking forward to a good year. Everyone who attended our Christmas dinner dance had a real good time. It was nice having some of the SAN FRANCISCO B'N'B'S joining us with their club caller JIM WYLIE. Highlight of the evening was watching JOEL KADISH opening his gift. Hope he was able to cash that rubber check!! On Jan.9th many of us headed to Richmond for the annual NCSDA anniversary dance; the top ten callers in Northern District, as voted in by the square dancers. It was a fun time. Also at the end of January, we had our election of new officers. Feb.14th, a new beginners class starts with JOEL KADISH as caller/instructor. This will take place at the Mainliner Club in San Mateo, on Monday night at 7 to 8:30.

Tell your friends! (see ad this issue).

TWO BY FOURS...Fun galore in '94! Looking forward to our annual MARSHALL FLIPPO dance, which falls on February 15, one day after Valentine's day. So have a heart, bring a "sweetie" for a swingin' time at the Catholic Charities Bldg., San Mateo...Merriment in November '93 included our mini-hoedown/spaghetti dinner. Among our visitors: Jim & Elaine Murphy, director of district X; AL & MARGARET DAVILA of PIONEER SQUARES, and former members Jim & Zoe Kendall...Our holiday pot luck supper was especially festive. Enjoyed palatable dishes, opened gifts, marked dance cards, and chatted with past members, among which were GEORGE & ANNE DRIER. GEORGE organized and called for our club for about 23 years before retiring...A big "Hi" to Jerry & Eilleen Matze. Eilleen is recovering nicely from recent surgery...Many thanks to our dedicated out-going officers for a well-planned year of dancing and partying in 1993, and to our fun-lovin' caller TERRY MOSIER who "spurs" us on to become better square dancers. Square up!

NON NCSDA CLUBS

THE GOLDUSTERS...Finished 1993 with a demonstration at St.Mary's Cathedral in San Francisco at a party honoring the Archbishop by the Little Children's Aid Society and a performance at the Beverly Manor. Their traditional "white elephant" pot luck dinner was a huge success with former members joining the festivities. Calls are already coming in for dates in January and February so their calendar will fill quickly. The group did 28 shows, reaching 675 spectators and 500 elementary school children.

SEBASTOPOL SAUCY SQUARES

...Good news at this time is that Richard Dangerfield is feeling much better these days. We miss you at the club, so get well soon. We're looking forward to the Valentine's dance Feb.12, so grab your best gal and put your dancing feet to work. Also coming up is a March "Badge Dance". Thursday March 17 for the wearing of the green. Should be a lot of fun. See you Tuesdays or Thursdays.
