DISTRICT I

BACHELOR & BACHELORETTESS

...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

CABLE CAR SQUARES... Were pleased recently to honor Anna & Frank Bradbury on the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary. Frank & Anna have been members of the club since the mid 1970's after graduating from a beginners class under the instruction of the club's present caller, GEORGE KNOX, with Frank serving as the club's president. Congratulations to this golfing, dancing couple.

CAPER CUTTERS... had a lovely installation of 1994 officers, at a dinner at the Elks Club in South San Francisco. We are very pleased with our new officers, and very grateful for the great job our 1993 board did. We look forward to a very eventful year. We are enjoying the visit of Sally & Al Nulty. They have been away from square dancing for several years, and are trying to get the feel of it again. Our traveling members, Lillian & Ed Land are in Washington state, their daughter just gave them another grandchild. We are so glad KEN CROFT & ELENA are back calling rounds again, as KEN was out for several weeks with the flu. The last Monday of this month we have our Easter Hat Parade, and we always have some very talented creations. Come dance with us and our caller, LARRY DAVENPORT any Monday night.

FORTY NINERS of Daly City... Our "Inner-Outer Board Pot Luck" started the year off with a bang. Attending were 1994 officers: President--Triggas, Secretary--Carmichaels, Treasurer--McCraney, Publicity--Beraldos, NCSDA Delegates--Andersons, Pay Dirt Editors--Hanlys & Activities Chairmen (new to the board)--Schnapps. NCSDA Alternates--Gauthiers and outgoing Activities Chairmen--Repps were absent due to illness and were wished a speedy recovery. After a meeting filled with great ideas for the coming year, our hosts the Triggas showed a tape of their recent trip to China with the Schanapps & Hanlys. January was a busy month for the club. The Hanlys went on a cruise to Mexico and the Beraldos a jaunt to Tahoe while a full square, including the Andersons, Carmichaels, McCraney and Posadas, attended the Anniversary dance in Richmond.

LEVIS & LACES... NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

PAIRS 'N SPARES... The new board members met at the home of our president, Gabe Persau right after the 49ers game. This is the third time Gabe has been president, spread out over a period of many years. The meeting was to discuss events of this new year and setting goals of the club. Tony Frank had a little accident and broke his right arm.

But he is as active as ever, dancing one armed, Alma Harris his partner, nudges him to remind him that he can't use it. A follow-up: on Al/Val's Callomi's 50th wedding anniversary party, Al danced so much (forgetting his age) had to see the doctor the Monday following, prognosis, over exertion. Got to watch that Al!! Many past members were there, including our "founder" HOWARD HILLYER. Bill & Betty Gloe took their annual trek to Honolulu Hawaii for 10 days. Claim they had a fabulous relaxing time. Our newer dance class started January 18th, we had 1 square of newcomers and 4 squares of angels. We had visitors from Houston, Texas, Ray & Pat Lantz of the BLUE BONNET SQUARES.

PIONEER SQUARES...We have a beginner class underway with 10 new and returning dancers. It's nice to see Danny O'Connor getting around so much better after his leg surgery. It looks like our plans for Portland are on again and full steam ahead. We'll be saying "cheese" this week as we sit for a group photo.

PONY WHEELS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

WHIRL-A-WAYS...We hope everyone had Happy Holidays. Top "O the morning coming up March 17th. We sadly lost two former members, Tiny Gresham & Al Enh. Our deepest sympathy to their families. We had a great hoedown on February 26, thanks to all for coming. A group of dancers went down to Asilomar in Feb. The club is planning our annual trip to Reno in April. Good luck & good weather. We dance on Wednesday evenings 7:30 to 9:30. Come and join us. We love visitors. Planning a mini-hoedown for May 18.

DISTRICT II

ANTIOCH AMBLERS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

BRONCBUSTERS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

BUZZIN CUZZINS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

CATCH ALL EIGHTS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

CLUTCH BUSTERS...A new activities calendar has been presented to our club by it's committee. What a busy fun time lies ahead! Our first social event of the year was a Valentine Sweetheart pot luck. It was well attended by twenty-six couples who enjoyed ten varieties of homemade stew, an array of salads and desserts. It was challenging to solve a puzzle revealing matched couples with their romantic courtships. A pizza bowling party has been planned by Marlene & John Swell and that's bound to be another pleasant evening. The last of the month will find us on a car rally plotted by Don & Lois Lollich. They always make this an intriguing course and a fun filled day.

CONCORD STOMPERS...are off to a good new year. January's new brush-up Plus group on Wednesday nights began with 8 squares and the Thursday night A-1 class started with 12 squares dancing. In February our club sponsored a well attended Plus hoedown called by JAY HENDERSON with rounds cued by KEN MULLIGAN. Be sure to calendar our 39th anniversary hoedown on April 2nd where we plan to feature live music by the GHOST RIDERS, called by GARY KENDALL with VIRGINIA CARPENTER cueing the rounds. There will even be some western line dancing in addition between tips.

DELTA SQUARES... Spring is springing and so are we. Our new officers are in place (but at time of writing, not yet elected) and planning a fantastic second year for us all. We celebrated our first year with a cake and an evening of fun called by our own yodeling wizard, MIKE AMELL. We danced to BEN GOLDBERG at ELKS 'N DOES hoedown - had a fantastic time and took the coffee. At DIABLO SINGLES hoedown, our youngest member, Jeremy won the 50/50! We took the coffee and, Mark won the bonus prize, tickets to a hoedown called by GARY KENDALL. We wished DICK HENSCHERL a speedy recovery while dancing at JACKS'N JENNYS to MIKE AMELL. Our newer dancers are busy perfecting their basic calls while tackling mainstream and completing their club outfits. A special thanks to "good sports" Chuck & Laura for helping fill out our plussquares. Chuck was heard to say "Now I know what it feels like to be pulled through". We welcomed back Pat & Cheryl from sickness and admired Bill J.'s new ring. We wished Adam, Dale H., Minnie, Claude, Chuck & Linda a big Happy Birthday and Minnie & Wes an almost Happy anniversary (February 29th). As I relinquish this hat, I say thanks to all - all dancers everywhere for your support and a special thanks to Dale & Pat Spain for providing this medium.

DIABLO SINGLES... have a great bunch of new dancers. They are a most welcome addition to our group. Our newer dancers hoedown, with a "Winter Wonderland" theme, was a lot of fun. Dancing among the guests were two callers, MIKE AMELL & DICK HENSCHERL. They both joined BERT SWERER for a few of the dance tips.

These were very special times. We had a Valentines Day party during February. The food, dancing and attire all followed the Valentine heart theme. We are planning our anniversary hoedown to be held April 23. JET ROBERTS will be the caller, and again the GHOST RIDERS will favor us with their live music. Last year they made our anniversary dance a most exciting, and enjoyable event. Please join us this year.

GUYS & DOLLS... For the record, we are now purely an A-1 club. Our caller, MIKE WRIGHT, is teaching us A-2, slowly and carefully, so we are having fun in the process. Nothing out of the ordinary happened in February other than a chocolate bash for Valentine day, but we are looking forward to two club functions in March. Many of us will be going to the Wing Ding in Turlock and then there is the annual dinner-dance with ROGER LONEY calling for us. We are also working to make the April 9th hoedown, with STEVE MINKIN calling, an affair to be enjoyed and remembered by all; there will be line dancing between tips.

JACKS'N JENNYS...NONEWS THIS MONTH.

LAFAYETTE ESCADRILLES...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

MARTINEZ SWINGERS... It's hard to believe, but Spring is finally here. Our successful Thanksgiving and Christmas pot luck dinners, our Christmas auction, our December and February beginners hoedowns, and our February Mystery Trip are all just pleasant memories. It was so exciting seeing Hal & Margie when they dropped by in early January. A heartfelt "So glad to see you again" from all of us. Our line dancing instruction by Dee Schmidt in January and we continue to line dance between tips. If you're bored with just square dancing and want to have more fun, please drop in any Wednesday and join us. Many of our members, joined (of course) by our friends from other clubs, attended the Turkeyfest in Bolado Park last November, the Winterfest in King City last January and the Squar-Rama in Tulare last month. Also the "Yellow Rock" spent a short time in our possession. Keep up that high visibility (& interesting profile) you guys. By late February we will have elected new officers and a new year will begin. Watch for a new Square Dance Where correspondent to announce election results soon. Upcoming events: Plus hoe-down - March 12 - STEVE MINKIN calling. Plan on having a great time. See you there! Happy Dancing.

RIPSNORTERS...Big happenings for us in March this year. We will start off the month going to Turlock for the Wing-Ding. Then on March 17, we will all be dressed in green to celebrate St.Patty's day square-ups. If you are getting green with envy, please come join us. Then, we hope to see all of you at our Spring hoedown on Saturday March 26th.

SQUARE WHEELERS...Our newer dancers are progressing nicely and really enjoy those Friday night dances. They are hoping to see all of their dancing friends at their "Spring Hoedown" on April 1. We are having a "Valentine" dessert silent auction on Feb.10...this is always a fun time...and a little fund raiser. The club is selling raffle tickets for a crocheted queen size afghan...the drawing for which will be held the night of our Anniversary hoedown in June. Come to one of our hoedowns and get your ticket to "warmth" for next winter. We have 10 rigs all ready to head for the Wing-Ding in Turlock. We wish all our club members who are under the weather these days...A very speedy recovery...and return to the dance floor.

OLD CAPITOL SQUARES...We started 1994 with our anniversary hoedown on January 15. It was a great dance with JET ROBERTS calling and VIRGINIA CARPENTER cueing the rounds. Several of us went to the GUYS & DOLLS dance on January 8, and won the coffee but they came to our hoedown and won it back. Some of our members have been ill and we wish them a speedy recovery. Veronica Pamplin and Dean Miller both had surgery and we hope they will be dancing again soon. Faye Damm had knee surgery. We are glad she has been able to come to club and hope she will be able to dance every dance soon. Our new dancers hoedown will be March 18 and we hope to see you there.

ADOBE SQUARES...Well, let's see, what has the club been doing lately? Oh yes, we retrieved the NCSDA "buckskin" from the BUZZIN BOOTS in Novato. Twenty one of our members ventured down to Novato on January 28 for this adventure. Afterwards, of course, most of us "retired" to Bakers Square to commiserate for awhile. The club's plans for the upcoming National Square Dance Convention in Portland are coming along nicely. We have all made reservations to stay overnight in McCloud and Eugene on the way up, so that we can go to "Trail Thru" dances in each place. At least nine "rigs" of various sizes and shapes are planning to attend Nationals. In addition, there are four or five "non-camping" couples planning to stay in hotels. We still have more room in our "Wagontrain" for anyone who would like to travel with us. Of course, in order to travel with our club, you must have: A sense of humor, a water gun, a musical instrument that you can play very well, and an appetite for "After Parties" after each dancing day. If you qualify, please let our "Wagonmasters", Barclays or Potts know, and we'll include you in our journey. All of us were especially saddened by the sudden death of our good friend Edie Alpers. She & Jay have been very active in the activities of Sonoma County for many years. Edie will be greatly missed by all of us. Our love and prayers are going out to Jay and daughter, Debbie. On that sad note, we'll close until next month.

CIRCLES'N SQUARES...Many thanks to the committee who worked so hard to host our fantastic New Year's Eve party. In spite of illnesses and bad weather, those who attended had a great time. GARY CARNES and JOHN RETTER called a great dance to start out the year on the right foot. A number of us travelled to the NCSDA dance earlier this year. Our deepest sympathy goes to Bernice Harris and her family for the recent passing of her husband Leonard. Come join us on March 12th for an evening with NATE BLISS & PHYLLIS CROISANT.

HEALDSBURG COUNTRY DANCERS ...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

MARKWESTERNERS.. Ed & Marion Harzela are visiting friends in Guatemala. Bet they will come back with a deep tan and a big grin! Louise Dunford had a birthday. We wish her many more happy ones. Hope to see all you square dancers at our spring Fling! It's always great fun to have dancers come to visit us--a very nice couple from Hamberg, Germany danced with us this week. We enjoyed their company, as with all dancers that visit us.

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS...Most people go to Mexico in the Winter time because they feel that they need a reprieve from the cold weather and because the beaches and people are beautiful and friendly. That however, is most people - not REBELS - We know a REBEL that rented a lovely spot on the beach in lovely Puerto Villarta and spent the entire week in the yardage store in downtown P. V.

Once she and her sister eliminated the one protesting vote about hanging out in the yardage store - they were able to breathe free and relax. They simply packaged the interloper & packed him off to the first plane that was heading north. Fortunately the week was only half over and they were able to rush back to the yardage store and enjoy their vacation. On a happier note we were able to help Elliot & Vesta Jean celebrate their 48th wedding anniversary at club one night in February. They must have married as children or they are lying about the number of years, but we were honored to be able to help them celebrate. We're now looking forward to MARSHALL FLIPPO coming to call our dance. I'm sure it will be as successful as it has for the past 16 years.

EDEN ROCKERS... We have recovered from the activity and the parties of the Christmas season and are back to some serious square dancing. Many of our members attended the NCSDA dance in Richmond and enjoyed it. Especially enjoyed the demonstration dance by the SQUARENADERS. We had a Hawaiian dress dance and potluck recently and almost thought we were on the big island. The clothing was very imaginable and the food was excellent. Happy Birthday to: Juanita, Lucille & Jack and Happy dancing to all.

ELKS 'N' DOES... Our last club night in January was a very special event. Sue Farland choose to share her Military Retirement Ceremony with us. Other guests present were Sue's personal friends, family members, friends from the Navy and DOUG DAVIS & his Livermore VALLEY TRAVELERS. A nice catered supper was enjoyed by all thanks to LAURE GOLDBERG & her mother. We feel very honored to be included in this personal milestone of 20 years service to Our Country -- good luck in civilian life, Sue.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS... The dress committee has gotten together and decided on a great club outfit to be shown to the club sometime in March. The rest of the world will have to wait until round-Up to see what a sharp outfit the committee, headed by Lisa & John Oates, put together. The men in this group had a lot of input. They want to look like peacocks, and not have the women all duded-up and them in plain combinations. Our newer dancers are working hard and getting ready for their hoedown in February. They are doing so well that the only way you will know which are plus, and which are newer dancers, is because the plus will have the squares broken down. Our Wednesday club night is like a hoedown. We are averaging about 9 squares. Some of our club members, Lee & Roy, Rosina & Emile are joining up with our former members, the Hansens, and cruising to the Caribbean. The Rosenbergs have been missed at club due to health problems. Jim Seaver's back is kicking up again and keeping him off the dance floor. Dick Saverpool has gout. Now isn't that a "rich man's disease?" We have a lot of club members workshopping A-1, A-2 and a group doing DBD. Look for the ad in this addition. Our hoedown is March 5, featuring BOB ELLING and the music from HAYRIDE. We want to thank Hancock Fabric Store again for all the help they give us in ordering the fabrics, ribbon, etc. that for into our outfits. They are most accommodating. See you at our hoedown, March 5.

SOLOS'NPAIRS... are gratified by the enthusiasm for square dancing demonstrated by those who joined our January beginners class. The newcomers are progressing nicely under the tutelage of caller BOB BUNCH. His wife, MARY, instructs the line and round dance between tips providing a nice change of pace and a diversity all seem to enjoy. Many thanks to the "angels" who so willingly help out, particularly John Wagovich who arrives early to open doors, adjust the furnace and lights and make things comfortable for all. February events included a theatre party where "Love, Sex and the IRS" on the bill plus a lively Valentine's Day party that included a spread of Valentine-theme foods prepared by our creative cooks. Coming soon is our annual Progressive Dinner Party being organized by president, Shirley Schmeyer and a team of helpers. A Spring yard sale that hopefully will enrich our coffers is also in the planning stages. Sincere sympathy goes to member Frances Learned on the loss of her son. Drop-ins are always welcome at our Tuesday plus-level workshops. Come join us.

FARMERS & FARMERETTES... We are off to a good start after the holidays and have had good crowds at our Wednesday night club dances. We've enjoyed visitors from several of the other clubs and it is always exciting to have guests. Please come again and often! We are busy planning our April hoedown. Please see ad in this issue. We are having round dancing so will be looking for those of you who miss this part to join us at this dance.

KEEWAY SWINGERS... We are very proud of our new dancers, they are doing very well. They have about 8 more lessons before graduation. Fourteen couples went to King City for the Winter Festival. Janet Dailey reported that they all had a terrific time dancing and camping. Ron & Carol Sternal took a mini vacation to Mexico on the weekend of January 14th and a couple more days. They said they had a wonderful time. Our Snowflake hoedown held on January 22nd was very successful, it was hosted by Tom & Ann Marie Corral. We will have a new dancers hoedown on Friday, March 18, called by KIP GARVEY. It should be a lot of fun and we hope to see a lot of new dancers there.

KUNTRY KUZINS...NONNEWS THIS MONTH

PLEASANTON SINGLES...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

RANCHERO SQUARES... We attended the Top Ten Callers Anniversary dance in January. Not everything went smoothly, but we dancers sure know how to pick a good group of callers, don't we! Our A-1, turned A-2 class sure is going well, thanks to a good bunch of dancers and our own TERRY? calling. Party nights both Sunday & Monday provided us with a good variety of great food. We also had an election to fill 2 vacancies. Our new presidents are Gene & Joanne Angvick and our new secretaries are Jim & Dorothy Brown. Still in office are Bonnie Price & Jerry Kornbau as vice presidents and Kathy Belden as treasurer. Many thanks to Lucky & Lee Moore for serving as presidents for the last 2 years and as secretary recently.

Thanks to all who volunteered service to the club. We have another advanced hoedown coming in April. Hope to see you there (see ad). Hugs to all...

SWINGING 21ERS...Thanks so much to all of you who came out and made our hoedown great fun and a tremendous success. It was a wonderful evening. ERIC HENERLAU made everything fun even though he had a sore throat. We were saddened to hear that Ernie Giovacchini's Mother had two strokes. Ernie has been staying in Turlock to take care of her. Pete's been driving back and forth. Thanks to all of you who volunteered to take a committee or chairmanship. If you are considering doing a hoedown, etc., please do, it's great fun! We are all delighted by the visits of Helen Goughs handsome father. Great to see he is so much better. We are pleased by all the couples coming out for the refresher course.

TOWNSHIP TWIRLERS...are enjoying a brush up class held at the Washington Township Country Club on Parrish in Fremont. Time is 7:30 until 10. Gene & Delores Fry, Maxine & Jim Lewis (our world travelers) are again on the road. They are heading down to Arizona, Apache Junction to be exact, where they will meet up with former club members Bill & Dorothy Falke, Chuck & Liz Porter, for a couple of months of sunshine, dancing, golfing, and all around fun. A square of us danced to KEN KENMILLE and the KEEWAY SWINGERS. A good time was had by all. The new officers have taken over and are all getting their feet wet or is it re-wet. Come join us at Walters Jr. High on April 2 for our April all singing calls hoedown. JIM OSBORNE will be calling and the HURST'S will be doing rounds. All of our sick ones are back hale and hearty. Hope to see you in a square. Keep dancing!

VALLEY TRAVELERS...Put on your best square dance duds and come join us for a fun evening of dancing, food, excitement and cheer. Caller JOE KULA and cuer KEN MULLIGAN will be your hosts. So mark March 19 on your calendar and dance over to Camp Parks. Love to see you all there.

DISTRICT VIII

BUZZIN' BOOTS...honored our caller DAVE HOBAUGH with a surprise birthday party. DAVE and his wife, SANDY have birthdays close together. They will be celebrating with a week-end getaway at Bodega Bay. We are also honoring DAVE for his 25th year of square dance calling. That represents 25 years of giving others a lot of pleasure dancing. We are all grateful to you, DAVE. A large group will be dancing in Cloverdale with DAVE and ROGER LONEY calling on February 19th. A wonderful after party is always hosted by Ray & Joanie Walker at their home. It's great to see Jim & Gin Kealey back dancing with us after such a long absence. They are now in full swing. The Brentlingers have headed south again to the Saltan Sea and then Yuma. The Daums are also headed south with their RV for a couple of months. More to head south soon are the Dutras and the Sempells. The snow birds are gaining on us. With our Winter-Spring dance program DAVE HOBAUGH will be teaching the complete A-2 list from January 14th. Please join us any Friday night at Hamilton school. Please join us at our Spring Fling, April 16 at Gallinas School. DAVE HOBAUGH calling with JOHN RETTER on rounds.

NOVATO SIDEKICKS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

NOVATO SQUARES...We really enjoyed the Ice Cream Social in February. August 28th will be our picnic. Welcome to our new members: Fred & Helga Gluska; Sam, Lynn & Ken Krummes; T.M. Lehmann & Chip & Suzie Thompson we are very happy to have you in our club. Suzie Thompson & Priscilla Yates had surgery hope their recoveries are quick & successful. Ted & Faye Reid visited their daughter & family in San Diego again arrived home just before L.A. earthquake. Bob and Lita Warnock drove to Tampa, Florida for Christmas with their son & family; weather was very cool no snow; visited friends & relatives enroute; they felt the L.A. quake (about 70 miles east of epicenter) at 4:30 am it really awakens you! Watch for news of our May 14th hoedown.

NOVATO STUMP JUMPERS...New officers for our club for January-June, 1994 are: Ben Valdes-Pres., Al Angulo-V.P., -Ann Parker-secretary, Bernice-Rueger-treas. Other board members are Mary Bernard-Membership; Bill Almeida-Publicity; Leonard Lynch-sheriff; Len Genetin-Past Pres; Edith Simonson-NCSDA Delegate; Joe Herrera-SDFM Delegate; and DAVE MILANO-caller. Since his retirement Al Angulo has been very active doing volunteer work with the Novato Rotary Club and the Novato Human Needs Center. Great to have Derek & Dorothy Stone back dancing with us again. Bill Almeida has been honored by the Irwin Memorial Blood Bank for donating 120 pints of blood. Hope to see you at our dance on the 19th.

TAM TWIRLERS...we are delighted to welcome two new members Arlene Konrad Knudsen. Two longtime members, Dan & Norma Dougherty are the proud grandparents of twins. Julie Dougherty, wife of son David, gave birth to twins - Bill & Joe - in Portland Oregon. We had a great turnout for the NCSDA Anniversary hoedown at the Richmond Auditorium and many club members gathered for a Chinese dinner afterwards. Norman & Lois Sims finally feel like real members - after a 1 1/2 year wait, they have received their official membership packet with diploma & all.

CLODHOPPERS...The new year started off brightly, as the NCSDA Anniversary dance showed off the Ten Best Callers. They did a super job and had all of us dancing up a storm. Thanks to all of you for making us Happy Dancers. This great day was topped off with 24 of us having dinner at Charlie Brown's. Watta day!! Our club members attended the ROADRUNNERS hoedown and came home with the coffee - then the following week we danced with the KEEWAY SWINGERS at their hoedown and won the coffee again. Audrey is still under the weather and we hope and pray she will be back with us shortly. Our club has added another "first"..This time Grandpa Shelly Baum has a beautiful baby girl. Samantha was born 1/17 at 7:20pm; is 20 in long and weighed in at 7# 13oz. Congratulations to you Shelly - and daughter. Looking forward to dancing with all of you at our March 12 hoedown, our 47th anniversary. KEN KENMILLE and JOHN FLORA have promised us a great dancing program. See you then - across a square...Keep Smiling!..

GINGHAM SQUARES...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

HIGHLAND SWINGERS...Hello again, with March here it means the beginning of the end of winter and the beginning of Spring. We were glad that Cliff is home from the hospital and is on his way to recovery. Gene & Irene are grandparents again. Their daughter had another boy in January. Congratulations to all of you. Joe & Maxine are going on a 7 day cruise this month to the Eastern Caribbean. Their first heading for Texas for a 80th birthday party, then on to Florida. Know they will have a great time. We received a letter from Jo & Hal. Hal is teaching line dancing three days a week and they are helping out with square dancing a couple times a week. They are down in Yuma, Arizona. Jo became quite ill with a virus for 4 weeks, but is better now. They expect to be back with us in April. The flu and colds have struck many of us this year. Jerry, our treasurer, came down with the flu and had a rough time of it. But he has recovered and is back dancing and taking care of the books. Well it's time to sign off so see you all square dancing.

ISLAND SQUARES...NONEWS THIS MONTH.

LONGHORNS...It was fun dancing at the Anniversary dance in Richmond. Twenty three of our members attended. Ed & Margaret Cunningham were at Palm Dessert when the earthquake shook. A scary experience, it took them 2 days to get home. Bob Andreozzi and Mary Johnson are on the sick list. Hopefully they'll both be able to dance soon. We welcome any A-1 dancers for a fun night of dancing with us every Tuesday.

RANCHEROS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

ROADRUNNERS...Does March really come in like a lion? As I write this we are beginning to hope for rain...but certainly not on the day Gary & Lynn Shimamoto move. We would also ask for good weather when we have our A-1/A-2 dance with JIM OSBORNE & RICHARD MANSFIELD, our caller. We are trying two halls with the callers switching between the halls. The plan will offer variety and fun. For those in the know, we would like to apologize for the special teach of the call, "WAIT". In the end, it was a good hoedown. As a hobby Liz Rolfe attends dog obedience shows. We were treated to a show by Killer. There ought to be a badge for Shirley & Jose Cerdana for dancing endurance...almost every night...but why not when participating in a great activity. If you decide on an extra night, please stop by and join us. Visitors are always welcome

SAN MATEO B'N'B'S... The Moonracker, with an ocean view, was the setting for our club's officers appreciation brunch. Our thanks to those who have given so much of their time and talents to keep our club the great club that it is. We welcome the new officers and with everyone's help, we can ensure another year of good times and fun dancing. With lots of enthusiasm, the beginners class got off to a good start. It is always a great feeling to see these new dancers enjoying themselves while they're learning and also club members, who try to help them. We must be very patient and give these people a lot of encouragement, not only this club, but all clubs, with newer dancers. Watch for future events by our club. Our Anniversary dance is coming up on April 23rd and our Christmas in July dance will be on July 9th. This dance is held yearly, with the proceeds going to less fortunate children of San Mateo County. See you in a square!

TWO BY FOURS...Kudos to the NCSDA, the Top Ten Callers of 1993 (among which was our dedicated club caller TERRY MOSIER), cuer JOHN FLORA, and Emcees KEN & CHRIS KENMILLE for a wonderful January afternoon of dancing at the 43rd Anniversary celebration in Richmond. An outstanding exhibition by the SQUARENADERS topped off the program. Dinner followed at Spenger's Fish Grotto. Several couples met at Charley Brown's for a repast arranged by Herm & Dorothy Katz...Anxious to hear from Vern Branco & Josephine Mallia about the week-long square dance tour to the 29th Aloha State Square Dance & Round Dance Convention. The "Waikiki-Getaway" allowed time for sight seeing in a tropical paradise...Congrats to newly-weds Ray & Shirley Hoyt, who attend our newer dancers class. Also to Shelly Baum, who became a first-time grandfather in January...Had fun dancing at the San Mateo ROADRUNNERS hoedown. Great refreshments, too...Happy

St.Patrick's Day! Square up!

NON NCSDA CLUBS

SEBASTOPOL SAUCY SQUARES...

The Tuesday night dancers had a Pizza night in January and it was great -some of those guys can really hold their Pizza! Marilyn Araiza fell recently and hurt her knee so will not be dancing for awhile. Hope it will be ok soon and back to dancing. Richard Dangerfield feeling so much better these days and a lot of people keeping the rest of us posted on how he is doing. Hazel Wischemann also doing great these days and we're hoping to see her back on Tuesdays dancing soon. The Red Apples have gained some new members recently, Marie Sherman, Bruce MacDonald, Jackie Roach and Denise Saunders. Welcome to the club! The beginners class on Thursdays dancing up a storm - keep up the good work, fellows and gals. Looking forward to the badge dance on St.Patrick's Day and the wearing of the green. Our own STEVE MINKIN will be calling at our Apple Blossom Hoedown'' in April and we'll be looking for our float in the Apple Blossom Parade in April too. Please join us either on Tuesdays or Thursdays for fun and dancing. See yah!

THE GOLDUSTERS...Who can believe we are two months into 1994? We had four demonstrations in February. They celebrated Valentine's Day with the San Mateo County Hospital and the Noriega Seniors. President's Day at the Jewish Home in Oakland and the California Convalescent Home. March will find them at Hillhaven on Pine Street, the Greenhills Retirement Center, On Lok Senior Care and San Francisco Convalescent. They are already receiving calls for June & July. Seven club couples attended the weekend at Asilomar and had a great time. This is one of the few places they can practice up on their contra dancing.

In Memory of

ROBERT RONALD COLE SR.
SEPTEMBER 12, 1924-JANUARY 5, 1994

Bob died of Cancer in Concord on January 5. He and his wife Gerri and their children, Sharon, Bob Jr., Wanda, Rosemary and Diane all danced in the Concord area for many years. He is also survived by 9 grandchildren and 4 sisters. He will be greatly missed by his family and many friends.

ALICE EMMA DOYLE
MAY 27, 1919-DECEMBER 25, 1993

Wife, mother and dear friend of 54 years of marriage. She was the girl next door, we met when she was 14. We square danced for 35 years. I miss her very much but the ravages of cancer & chemo finally overwhelmed her. The good Lord in his wisdom has removed her from suffering. I do hope I have said it all. I could write a book about this beautiful lady. I didn't only love her, I liked her, she was a joy to be with.....E.J."Jim" Doyle

EDIE ALPERS

On January 25th, 1994 Edie unexpectedly passed away.

Edie and her husband Jay began dancing in Marin County with the Squaws & Paws in 1971. Over the years, they have danced in Marin & Sonoma counties with the Buzzin Boots, Adobe Squares, Rainbow Strollers, Question Marks, Thunderbirds and the Diamond Dancers.

Edie & Jay have volunteered their time since 1973 to the NCSDA. They began as alternate delegates with the Adobe Squares and served as alternates or delegates for several clubs. In addition, they served as assistant director and director for Districts VIII & V, and worked on many Golden State Round-Up committees.

Edie & Jay attended many festivals throughout the state and several National Conventions. She was well known for her traveling table center pieces at after parties.

Edie will be remembered and missed by all who knew her.

Featured Round Dance Team Review

JIM & BONNIE BAHR

Denver, Colorado

Because of their attitude, continuing cooperation and unstinting efforts, Jim & Bonnie Bahr have been chosen to be members of the Hall of Fame. Their total dedication and unfailing leadership in the square and round dance movement deserves recognition.

Jim & Bonnie began square dancing in 1969 and round dancing a year later. From then on they have been an active part of the square and round dance world not only in the Denver area, but on state and national levels as well. Since 1969 they have been members of Titan 8's, serving as class coordinators, presidents and currently club round dance cuer and advisor. In 1971 after performing many services for the Rainbow Squares, they were made honorary members of that club.

It was in 1972 that Jim & Bonnie organized Jim's Dandies Round Dance Club. Their outstanding talent and personalities quickly made this one of the most popular clubs in the area. From this club their exhibition Team was formed, putting emphasis not only on excellence in dancing but promoting friendliness among all dancers. For the past several years this has been a sought after group for nationals, festivals and special dances.

Their activities in the Denver Area Square and Round Dance Council include Chairmen of the Orbiting Squares, Decorations Chairmen for the 16th Festival and art work as well as articles for the Bulletin.

As active members of the Colorado round Dance Association from 1971 to 1979, they served on the board as presidents, festival chairmen and other positions of leadership.

On a national level they are charter members of Roundalab and past board members of Universal round Dance Council. Not only have they taught Round Dance Festivals all over the country but have conducted clinics, workshops and panels.

In addition to all their dancing, Jim & Bonnie run a badge business. They also study and teach ballroom, having given many private lessons to other round dance teachers and callers both in and out of the state. They have two fine children who also dance.
