Golden State Round-Up Caller of the Month: Mike Seastrom

Mike has been around square dancing since 1960. He started calling in 1963 and joined Callerlab in 1977. He has served as Chairman on the Plus Committee, Program Coordinating Committee, and at Callerlab conventions he has served as a regular presenter on various interest sessions. He has both served and been chairman on the Board of Governors.

Mike's talents include teaching square dancing, round dancing, contra, country western, and solo dances. He also is a recording artist for Rhythm Records. He just recently completed an introduction to Contra Dancing package for R & R Video, with the California Contra Callers Assoc.

Mike still has the time to tend his practice as a Dentist. His wife and sons are of tremendous support to him.

Come join the fun with us at the Golden State Round-Up in 1997.

Tom Miller

Tom is no stranger to Golden State Round-Up and has always given us FUN and a challenging time on the dance floor. You see Tom calls everything from Mainstream thru C1 level. So there is something for everyone.

Tom and his family live in Western Pennsylvania and travel 60 to 70 thousand miles each year to bring, what he calls "FRIENDSHIP SET TO MUSIC" to all the square dancers.

Tom is a member of Callerlab, International Assoc. of Square Dance callers, servers on the Board of Governors, Vice Chairman on the Advanced Quarterly Selections committee, Vice chairman of Career Callers, and is a recording artist on Hi Hat Records of California.

So come join the fun with Tom at the Golden State Round-Up 1997.

See Ya at Golden State 1997

DISTRICT I

SAN FRANCISCO BACHELORS'N'BACHELORETTES...Hope everyone had a nice holiday, December was a month of "Parties, Parties!!" We had our Xmas pot luck dinner, and went to other clubs for theirs. We are having another beginners class, starting January 17, with JIM calling. Going to 46th Anniversary Dance with 10 Top Callers, with buffet style dinner right after, at the Richmond auditorium, by the "Back Forty Texas BBQ", all you can eat! Should be a lot of fun. Having a turn around to Reno. Our sympathy to Shirlee Holland and mother on the passing of their aunt & Sister. Myrtle Grothe has been ill, hurry back, we all miss you!! See you all in a square, in the New Year!!

CABLE CAR SQUARES...have lately been missing the Bradbury's from their Wednesday night workshops. Anna & Frank Bradbury have been members of the club since the 1970's, with Frank serving two separate terms as president of the club. while curtailing their physical activities and bypassing square dancing at the present time, this pair of loyal club members are sorely missed by their friends in the club. Our best wishes to you and Anna, Frank! The rest of the club members and their friends and guests are still recovering from another one of Marie's Marvelous Maneuvers up to Snoopy's ice rink for the club's special Christmas party back in December.

CAPER CUTTERS...John Green & Marion Thorne visited us from Merry Olde England for the last two weeks of October. During their stay they went to club dances or hoedowns almost every night...Our cuer, KEN CROFT is recovering from carotid (neck) artery surgery, and is back to cueing for us. Our caller LARRY DAVENPORT, is "forced" by his company to spend time in Paris and will then tour England with his taw , KATHY. JIM WYLIE is filling in during his absence and for our Christmas party. We will miss a long time member, Tom McKittrick...Our beginners class size is holding steady and it looks like we will add several members when the class is finished. The beginners and dancers from all other clubs were invited to join us Monday, December 9 at the SSF Elks Lodge for our Christmas dinner/dance. All dancers are also welcome at our New Year's party which will be on Monday, December 30...Happy New Year to everybody!!!

FORTY-NINERS of Daly City...came through 1996 in fine shape and now we are eagerly looking forward to 1997. As a first step, we have elected the following to our Board of Trustees: President-Donna & Jim Triggas; Secretary-Dorothy & Dick Carmichael; Treasurer-Laura & Ray Schnapp; Activities Janice & Jim McCraney; Publicity-Mary & Dewey Beraldo; NCSDA Delegates-Jane & Larry Anderson; and Liaison to Franciscan-Kathy & Gil Repp. Our 1996 Christmas party was a huge success with about 45 people present, including members, dancing guests, and former members. We had a catered turkey dinner with all the trimmings, preceded by snacks & cocktails. Also, there was entertainment, carols, and the appearance of Mr. & Mrs. Santa with gifts for all. Happy New Year to all square dancers!

LEVIS & LACES..NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

PAIRS N SPARES...As reported last month President George Anderson & First Lady Mary Jane traveled to Spain, Portugal and Morocco. George reports that it was one of the best trips they have taken, maybe because he got to ride a camel in Morocco. Margaret Kerns & family have plans for a cruise to Escenada. We are planning to combine our Christmas Party and Board dinner this year. Invitations have been sent out to former members and old friends. wishing all a Happy & Healthy 1997.

PIONEERS SQUARES of San Bruno...Our tupperware fundraiser brought in about $500. The top salesman among the dancers was Jeannette Snyder, who button-holed everyone from her Bingo buddies to her family. Well done, Jeannette. Halloween brought out the usual group of spooks and weird folk. It was neat to have the party on Halloween, but many of the dancers had other places to be. those of us who love pizza and all other forms of food had great fun with apple-bobbing and other traditional games. We'll be open for new dancers in January. If you know someone who fits our M.O., encourage them to check us out.

PONY WHEELS..NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

WHIRL-A-WAYS...Happy New Year to everyone. Hope everyone had a wonderful Christmas. The club's Silent Auction was held on December 4th. One's junk is another's treasure. Our Christmas party on December 18 was fun with eggnog & carols. We are looking forward to the In-Out board dinner on Wednesday January 8th at the Elks Club in so. S.F. It is a new location for us. All our regular guests, A-1 class members and friends are welcome to join us, cost $18. Our anniversary hoedown has been changed from the usual February date to a March date. More in a later issue. It will still be held at Catholic Charities in San Mateo. We are planning our Reno

Champagne trip to coincide with Silver State, 1st weekend in May. this is always a fun trip. contact any club member if interested in coming with the club. Our bus holds 40 people. Our deepest sympathy to Dorothy McKittrick on Tom's death. He was a fine gentleman & will be missed by all.

DISTRICT II

CATCH ALL 8'S...Happy New Year to square dancers everywhere! Our traditional Christmas pot luck supper and dance night was its usual success with Santa Claus in full attendance. Oh those good desserts really topped off a fine meal! Lots of thank you's to all the ladies who made those delicious dishes. Our Greenwood Drive gad-about's, Carol & John Ozanich, are acting "Irish" now that they have returned from their Ireland holiday. John was one of the few to brave the heavy Irish "dew" to kiss the Blarney Stone. Rumor has it that he and Carol are talking about a real club Ceilidh, bagpipes and all. Another long time member, Rita Panelli, has been jet-setting to Nevada, Utah, and Florida in past weeks as well. You just can't keep good dancers at home. One club New Year's resolution is to have as many club members as possible dancing plus level at the Golden State Round-Up in May 1997. We welcome all outside club members as well to attend our plus level calling review class each Tuesday night. See or call any club member or our telephone number in Square Dance--Where? for more information.

CLUTCH BUSTERS...As 1996 draws to a close, we reflect on the events of the last year. We hosted five hoedowns, two for the newer dancers with our own caller, RICHARD MANSFIELD, and three Plus Level. There was the Car Rally/mystery trip, the Wing Ding, Golden State, Newer Dancers Graduation, Campout at Lake of the springs, McCloud, a Garage Sale, Annual Picnic, Anniversary Dinner Dance, Halloween Party, Napa Grape Festival, and a Christmas Party; thanks to our President couple Hal & Marge Smith, and the 1996 Board for another eventful year! While we are a square dance club, we are also a family that loves to party. We welcome the new crop of Club Officers for 1997. Merry Christmas & Happy New Year!

CONCORD STOMPERS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

DELTA SQUARES...January birthday wishes to Jackie Anderson, Dale Hiles & Minnie Hix. Our thanks to everyone who made our Fiesta beginner hoedown, November 15th, such a fun nite. Special thanks to CONCORD STOMPERS, who took the coffee, MARTINEZ SWINGERS and the DIABLO SINGLES who let us borrow BERT SWERER for an evening of great calling and good dancing. BERT also called our after party at the Buzz Inn. Our beginners got their he he/she she and crack pot badges. A great time was had by all. Happy Holidays to one and all.

DIABLO SINGLES...We have had a busy few weeks. We had a terrific Halloween Party on the 31. There were some great costumes. Be sure to drop by and see some pictures. Then we had our beginners hoedown, that was a great success. Thanks to all who came and danced to all club members who helped out. It does take everyone's help to put on a terrific hoedown. Thank You! also a special thank you to BERT our club caller for doing all our beginners hoedowns. Also, thank you to SA SA BOBS for donating a crystal slip, it sure made our hoedown special, thank you. On November 16, several club members (12 members) went over to San Marco's Nursing & Rehab Center to entertain the patients for an afternoon. It was a great way to spend a rainy afternoon and to do a community service. Thanks to BERT and to all who showed up for the dancing. Be sure to keep Jan. 17 & Feb. 14 open dates. We will be hosting beginners hoedowns. They are both on Friday nights. There will be badges to earn on those nights and what a special way to spend Valentine's Day - dancing - Be sure to mark your calendar. Happy Holidays to Everyone!

GUYS & DOLLS...January is here and we are fixing all those exceptional snacks to bring to our January 11, A-2 hoedown (see ad this issue). Come dance with us and enjoy the repast too! A special "Good Job" to the Hodges for planning our Thanksgiving dinner and to the Silvermans for spearheading our Jan. hoedown. We are all so glad to see Sharon King & Jeanette Powell recovering from their illness, continue to get better Gals. To Jim deVos hurry and recover from your surgery. We miss you and Bonnie, Get Well soon. Anyone know what all the strange noises were around the Powell's motorhome at the Grape Festival? Rumor has it that a group of people tried an exorcism on their rig to remove the "Breakdown Devil". There was chanting, dancing and even an anointing, but nothing could unseat this devil or cure the "Motorhome from hell". Sorry Powells. thanks to all of our guests who join us each Wednesday, we look forward to dancing with you and appreciate your support. Happy New Year to All!

LAFAYETTE ESCADRILLES...When BEN had to be away, MIKE WRIGHT stepped in as caller. Thanks. BEN & LORI GOLDBERG brought their baby daughter--yes, finally a girl--to share Party Night. A pot luck dinner brought out a large crowd of eaters who were eager to dance for their supper. Just warming up for the holidays. The Holiday Party was enjoyable, as always. People sure do look different in other than square dance clothes. Roy & Edie Niosi and Bob & Jane Singleton, stomped at the Napa Grape Festival. Rich & Virginia Van Druten will be dancing at Asilomar. Mike & Diana Mackie announced their resignation from the club, due to conflicting demands on their time. Their geniality and willingness to take on organizational tasks--not to mention the club Presidency--have made them outstanding in the club. They will be missed. We hope it is temporary, and the door is always open.

MARTINEZ SWINGERS...Our club celebrated Halloween October 30th with our Halloween Party on club night. There were beautiful, scary and cute costumes worn by many, but the first place winners were dressed very authentically as Frankenstein and his bride - well done Spencer & Rona Clark! Not every club gets treated to a real live belly dancer too - many thanks to talented "Cherina" (Dian Pittam) and her impressive Arab knight partner, who wore a real sword, Ray Pittam. November 8th through 10th found many of us at the Napa Grape Festival trying to keep up to DAN NORDBYE'S A2 calling and getting lots of good dancing in with all the great callers there. We had 34 at our potluck dinner Saturday night and had lots of fun all weekend long. We also enjoyed the back-to-back hoedowns of the CONCORD STOMPERS on Friday & Saturday nights November 1st & 2nd. We won the coffee at their Plus hoedown Saturday night. We had one square travel to the A2 at Monroe in Santa Rosa. After three months of searching for the Chinese restaurant in Rohnert Park, they finally found it in Petaluma! We had a really delicious spread at our Thanksgiving dinner on November 20th, and it was well-attended with 68 members and their families and friends. Hope to see all of you advanced dancers at our hoedown on January 25th!

RIPSNORTERS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

SQUARE WHEELERS...A survey by our club's newsletter, the Wagon Tongue, discovered that, except for Kay & Wayne Vossekuil in Maui, a traditional, family, Thanksgiving meal was the plan for nearly all members. Brenda & Jim Nelson shared their family day with four college exchange students. Linda & Ted Reece spent the day with family, including Ted's 104 year-old grandmother, who recently published a fascinating book of her adventures in Alaska, 1909-1910. The December beginner hoedown, called by JIM WYLIE, provided an exciting opportunity for beginners to expand their learning. This year our annual Christmas Party was a progressive dinner, beginning at the Nelsons', then to the Dowd/Gravers', on to the Reeces', ending at the Elliotts' for dessert and the white elephant exchange. We hope to see you in February at our hoedown with GARY CARNES.

GRAND SQUARES...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

OLD CAPITOL SQUARES...We wish all of our dancing friends a Happy & Healthy New Year! It has been a year of change and new horizons. Our longtime caller, DOROTHY PEELER started a well deserved retirement and MIKE AMELL came on board in May as our club caller. We have at least 4 new plus members and an enthusiastic group of beginners. They have been working hard at learning the calls and are ready and willing workers at our hoedowns. We had a great turkey pot luck in Nov. where we saw many long time members. We kicked off the Christmas season with a fun party night in Dec. After being dark for the last two weeks of Dec. we are looking forward to a great year of dancing, fun and fellowship. Our anniversary hoedown is advertised in this issue.

PALS & SALS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

PIONEER SQUARE DANCERS...As we start the New Year we are pleased to have ROGER MORRIS back calling part time. the remainder of the time ROGER LONEY is calling so we just need to say "Hi ROGER" each week. STEVE MYERS fills in the cracks when neither ROGER is available. We are grateful to all our callers. We had a great opportunity to dance in the Christmas pageant sponsored by the church whose facilities we borrow for our workshop. Set in Appalachia, the pageant opened with square dancers. a caller didn't fit into the setting so ROGER LONEY choreographed our moves and the members memorized them. at the time the newsletter copy was turned in, the pageant hadn't happened yet, so stay tuned to next month's news to see if we succeeded without forgetting our parts. We also have a christmas Party planned with rumors that Santa was going to leave the North Pole early and come visit. STEVE MYERS beginners class continues to do well. thanks to STEVE & IRENE for their dedication, and to all the angels who have come to help. We have also had a lot of visitors at our plus brush-up classes on Monday nights.

TWIN CITY STEPPERS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

DISTRICT VI

CASTRO VALLEY REBELS...As always we have much to be thankful for at this time of the year. Jim Seaver came through his recent surgery with flying colors. considering all his health problems he is a good sport and always optimistic. Maybe his little red head has something to do with that. LA WAYNE & DORIS got back safely from Ohio - which is good considering - he is our caller. Tammy (Dale & Pat's grand daughter) made it back from Japan all in one piece. George & Vivian got back from Hawaii with marvelous memories. Vesta Jean & Elliot moved into their new home in time to entertain family on Thanksgiving. the rest of us just ate and ate and ate - - We graduated our beginners (last January class) on party night in December. There were only one square of them, but what a good bunch, we welcome them to the club. Now onto the Christmas party on the 12th. We've invited many old friends, so should be a good one, with Santa and all.

EDEN ROCKERS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

ELKS N' DOES...Wish to welcome our newest members Colleen Anderson & Sharon Powers. We are also glad to have Ray & Joyce O'Lan dancing with us again after their marriage. Congratulations to Al & Lois Gerundo who will be celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary on December 1st. Tom Bohannon, welcome back from Oklahoma. We would like to thank the SKIRTS & FLIRTS for a wonderful time we all had at the "Black and White" dancing to MIKE SIKORSKY. The Napa Valley Grape Festival provided a weekend of fun & dancing. Margaret Price from the Watsonville 40th Annual Jubilee proved to be the jewel, she went out of her way to make our weekend remarkable. The club is looking forward to our Christmas pot luck. JOEL KADISH will be calling at our beginners hoedown on January 10th. Come join in the fun.

SKIRTS & FLIRTS...Wow! What a weekend. first DEBORAH PARNELL then MIKE SIORSKY. Too bad we could not have made it a three day weekend with RV space and all. Our SIKORSKY hoedown was attended by 32 squares with most couples going for the black & white attire. This was difficult for the caller, but the floor looked great. Thank you Todds & Hefners and all the club members that came to assist. Baby Martin Hunter is expected to be home for the holidays. He is a little preemie and is doing just fine. Jim Seaver is doing better after back surgery and Lee Burns is finding that life is not a blur since her recent eye surgery. Linda Garbutt & dick Savercool are also back feeling well. We will have our annual Christmas pot luck with Santa and Mrs., as well as a joint dinner with FARMERS & FARMERETTES at Jake's Lion. Check your calendars. Have a wonderful Holiday Season with good health to all.

SOLOS N PAIRS...A roundup of club activities during the past holiday season indicates it was a busy & pleasant time for many of our members. Commencing with Halloween when we were guests at a PLEASANTON SINGLES club costume dance, there was a Hornblower dinner cruise attended by 16 members and guests and our annual Thanksgiving pot luck held at the home of Lottie Roe. The Christmas pot luck with square dancing following, was memorable for the good food and sociability. Special thanks are due John Stanisich who is a convincing stand-in each year for dear old Santa himself. Also, special thanks to our food committee members who did a superior job of planning and organizing these events, among them: Margery Campanella, Lottie Roe, Rosa Drew, Doris Germann, Walter Wronski, Jean Mareta and our newest member, Mary Lou Lukas, to name but a few. scheduled during this time was a square dance demonstration for diners at the San Leandro Fairmont Hospital cafe with our own BOB BUNCH calling, and a collection of christmas food baskets for the Salvation Army. some of those we were happy to see at some of our gatherings were Gerald Fryling & Sid McMillion who have been on the sick list. Get well wishes to John Wagovich who is recovering from eye surgery. Hope to see many of our square dance friends at the annual Anniversary Dance in Richmond. And now, on to the New Year with best wishes to all for a happy and healthy 1997.

CACTUS CORNERS...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

EAGLE SQUARES...District Delegates are Bob & Betty Coates and the Alternate Delegates are Terry & Shirley Peluso. Our membership was well represented at the 5th Wednesday hoedown at the Newark Pavilion. Betty Coates donated a large cake to celebrate Bob's birthday. Several members were at the benefit dance for DREW ANDERSON: Clem Tatro, Gwen Halstrom, Kathy Belden, Gerry Mosier & Diedre Sess. Terry & Shirley Peluso, Charlie & Ethel Diers, Ginger Nelson, Clem Tatro, Andy & Georgia Anderson, Brian & Sherry Buhnerkempe, and Linda & Dave Curry were seen at the SKIRTS & FLIRTS recent hoedown in San Leandro. We look forward to making a basket of supplies to be donated to a poor family for Christmas. The Diers, Pelusos, Coates & Maunds enjoyed their sojourn to Yuba City not long ago. Congratulations David! David Curry is now a Great Grandfather - his son's daughter had a baby girl named Mattie Andrea.

FARMERS & FARMERETTES...December was a busy month for our club. We danced at the Carleton Plaza for residents there on our first Wednesday, then met for dinner after at a local restaurant. The second week found us dancing as usual at the Newark Pavilion, the third Wednesday found us back at the Newark Pavilion but in the back hall for our annual Christmas Party and visit from Santa. Thanks to the Lawrences, Olsons, and Cordanos for a fun evening. Families join us on this happy occasion and we always include a barrel of toys & gifts for distribution to children through the local service organizations such as Toys For Tots and Salvation Army. We then took a holiday break but joined in the New Year's Eve Dances throughout the area. January finds us back dancing again in our regular space at the Newark Pavilion on Wednesday nights. Many of our members plan to attend the NCSDA Anniversary Dance at the Richmond Auditorium on January 5, where our caller, JOEL KADISH, is one of the Top Ten Callers. Our A-1 Workshop will begin on January 15 at 7:30-9 pm with our club dancing from 9-10 pm. come join us and keep dancin'!!

KEEWAY SWINGERS...sadly announce the death of Danny Farin in mid-October of this year. Danny & his wife Pat had been enthusiastic club members until his health prevented him from continuing dancing. They were the publicity chairpersons for a year recently, and they hosted our monthly board meetings for two years. We will miss you, Danny! Our caller - KIP GARVEY - has returned triumphant as always from the Napa Grape Festival, and we're glad to have him back with us! The "cruise bug" has bitten some of our club couples pretty hard - having completed a bunch of traveling this year already, they are hard at work selecting their destinations for next year! The PLEASANTON SINGLES captured the buckskin from us - some club go get it quick so we can capture it away from you! We've begun preparations for our January hoedown to be held on January 25th, with a theme borrowed from our guest caller, CHARLIE BROWN - "Woodstock '97" - this refers to Woodstock the bird that associates with Charlie Brown and Snoopy, though - do come to our hoedown, but leave your tie-dyes, headbands & rock music home!!

PLEASANTON SINGLES...We have had a very busy month. We started off with about 16 members going to dinner and then we went to the SKIRTS & FLIRTS dance with MIKE SIKORSKY calling. We all had a good time. The club with 25 members went on a mystery trip to Victorias Hair on Stage in Danville and saw Reel Blonds (or why we split our ends) everyone enjoyed it. The club has had our election of officers. the new President is Judi Bowman, Treasurer Wendy Howard, Secretary Hank Dinge. We are collecting food for a needy family so they can have a better Thanksgiving and the collection is going well. The New Year's Eve dance committee is hard at work planning the dance and it should be a good one. Our December club activity will be a bowling & Pizza party which everyone really enjoys. We wish everyone a happy Thanksgiving & a Merry Christmas.

RANCHERO SQUARES...Start the new year off right with a couple of fantastic hoedowns! Saturday February 1, an advanced dance will be held with TERRY MOSIER calling. Then for the very first time, we are trying a Monday night Plus Dance, on February 10, and are pleased to announce that GARY SHOEMAKE, a nationally known caller, will be doing the honors. You don't want to miss these dances, being held at St. Philips' Fellowship Hall in Dublin. Please see our ad in this issue for additional details. A big welcome to our newest members--Rich & Diane Van Tassel and Ginny & Al Steele. We did our annual "Adopt A Needy Family(ies)" again this year. We started with a turkey raffle for Thanksgiving & Christmas, one turkey going to a winning club member and the other for the family. We also collected canned goods to help make their holidays a bit more complete, with extras for the coming year. As the season of Christmas approached, names were selected by club members to purchase gifts for the children. We want to thank all those who contributed to this worthwhile cause.

SQUARE CIRCLES...NO NEWS THIS MONTH.

SWINGING 21ERS...Be sure to mark your calendar for our anniversary dance the 3rd Saturday in January. We also have the Benefit dance coming up in February. It's always fun, a success and a chance to do a lot of good. Lets work together on this. come dance with us!

Our New Year's Eve Party was enjoyed by all. Hey, we missed you! Don't miss out next year. Watch this space! We are planning a special event for March. A celebration. a fun night with food and dancing. You just might want to join us so check out this space next month. And now 1997 begins. Be sure to join us at our annual 26th anniversary hoedown, Feb. 1, 1997, featuring DAVE HOBAUGH, the GHOST RIDERS & VIRGINIA & BILL CARPENTER. Check out our special bus/mystery trip discount.

BUZZIN BOOTS...It was nice to see SANDY HOBAUGH on the past few Fridays, DAVES' calling just seemed to get better. Our club will go many ways this New Year's Eve, Powells, Sempells & Walkers will be in Pasadena for the Parade. Brentlingers & Garcias are off to join Beltons & Brennans in Arizona and others will go to the Rod & Gun Club. We wish everyone a Happy 1997.

CIRCLES N SQUARES...DAVE HOBAUGH & LARRY WILLIAMS did a great job at our recent hoedown. Welcome to new members Rich & Barbara Long. It's great to have you join us. We look forward to dancing with you for many years to come. Be sure to ask Mary Desideri about her recent travels to Italy. The Paines, Brutons, Murrays & Gates recently spent some time in Cisco Grove. Be sure to ask Jerry about the pizza he had for lunch. Speaking of Jerry Bruton, Betty recently surprised him & ROGER with a surprise pie night to celebrate Jerry's seventy-fifth birthday. "What a great way to celebrate a birthday" Just ask Jerry.

NOVATO STUMP JUMPERS...Square dancing is more than just exercise and following a callers commands. It provides opportunities for people to meet and establish lasting friendships. I look forward to dancing and talking to each member of our club every week. Your presence at workshop does make a difference. Thank you to Larry Hendel of the NOVATO SQUARES for his usual fine job handling tickets for our Christmas Party. Larry encourages the SQUARES to support our club and make this party a success. More news on the party in next months issue. Marian Herrera has been a volunteer at Guide Dogs For The Blind for five years. A very rewarding job especially on puppy socialization day. President Karen Illich has completed a successful term .. a very fine job.

GINGHAM SQUARES of Millbrae...On November 7 we lost one of our most loyal and active members--Ray Alexander. Ray passed away on that date after a long illness. He was in the Marine Corps at Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941, and was wounded in the Japanese air attack. After 10 years in the Marines, he and his wife Margaret settled down in San Bruno-- Ray worked as a machinist, and Margaret teaching school. They have two wonderful sons and two grandchildren. On Veterans Day their church had a fine Memorial Service for Ray with about 150 to 200 in attendance, including many square dancers. We all miss Ray, but we trust that Margaret will keep dancing with us every Tuesday. December events for our club include our Christmas party also the Ladies Luncheon (no men allowed!) We put on a square dance demonstration for the students at the Franklin School in Burlingame. This was to help the students in their beginners square dance class. Participating were Elsie & Pete Pereira, Lois & Her Nieman, Walt Jessen, Janet Gillmore, and Janice & Jim McCraney. We belatedly wish everyone the very best in the Holiday Season and in the New Year.

LONGHORNS... We have had a number of our members in the recovery stages for their health. Don McClland is recouping from heart surgery and we hope he'll be back dancing before long. Terry McDonald is doing nicely after eye surgery. Alice Allen is back dancing after some surgery also. We send sympathy to Pauline & Ernie Monken in the death of her mother in Nov. Travelers include Helen & Tony Walsh to Las Vegas for a seminar in early Dec., Cleo & Henry Manning to Reno for a birthday party, Fran & Hal Eckes to Oregon for a cruise on the Columbia River, and Elene & Cliff Planchon to Alaska to enjoy Christmas with their son & family. This month Margaret Davoli will be heading for Kauai and Henry & Cleo Manning to Mexico and Catalina Island. The holidays are over and it's a New Year with all the pages of the days to fill with exciting and happy events starting with the dance in Richmond with the top 10 callers in this area. Another is the MARSHALL FLIPPO dance on Feb. 11th. See ad in this issue. Happy dancing!

ROADRUNNERS... News flash: Archie Schmitt retires at last, wife Lynn retires for the third time. In celebration they went on a wonderful cruise to the Caribbean. Congratulations to the both of them. We want to invite you all to our upcoming Tuesday night mini-hoedown featuring GARY SHOEMAKE from Tennessee, February 11, 1997. also, up & coming is our hoedown on January 18, 1997 featuring HAROLD FLEEMAN. Hope to see you all at both of these great dance events. If you know of anyone who hasn't square-danced for awhile or who feels a little unsure of themselves, (or maybe even you), we are going to have a brush-up workshop, beginning February 18, 1997 at Beresford Recreation Center in San Mateo, 7:30pm. On a sadder note, we are mourning the loss of one of our members. Arne Repo passed away November 9. He and his wife Agnes were in our beginner class of 1995. We will truly miss his smile and wonderful personality.

BELLE SWINGERS...Remember those October Jubilees in the past when it was almost too hot to move, and the door marshals didn't like the girls wanting to dance without full square dance outfits, all that nylon? This one, this year, at Watsonville didn't have that problem at all. The weather was easy-going, only slightly rainy, and since the buildings were close together, it almost wasn't worth putting up the umbrella to dash back and forth. We were pleased to see how many of you came from so far to attend! There seemed to be a good time being had by all. The barbecue was tasty. That was a nice something new this year. We're looking forward to our holiday party; we will eat, dance, exchange gifts, and vote on new club officers. We'll let you know in the next issue how this all turned out. Hope the New Year brings you all only good things - may your projects and children thrive, may your memories be happy ones, may your dancing be lively.

SINGLES & PAIRS...By the time this issue of Square Dance Where? reaches you, we are hoping to attract a good crowd with our caller STEVE MINKIN. All visitors are welcome. We are combining our Plus level dancers with the beginners. We are also looking forward to having hoedowns again this year.

A LETTER OF THANKS FROM JOHN GREEN & MARION THORNE, ASHOVER SQUARES, ENGLAND

In October we came over from England to San Francisco to commemorate the centenary of a visit by John's Great Grandfather who was first mate on the clipper Miltiades. We came to search for information about the voyage and to square dance. It was the best holiday that we have ever had thanks to the people that we met. Special thanks to Deane & Rita Gough for accommodation and their endless kindness to us, also to Don & Celestine Dowdell for taking us to Port Costa where Miliades loaded a return cargo.

We danced nearly every night and this is to thank all the square dancers, too numerous to mention, for helping to make the trip so special.

MERRY CHRISTMAS to you all, we look forward to seeing you again, so come over and dance with us.
